

Taking Alpha's Twins Away After Divorce

'Wait a minute! Why am I even hiding?' I asked myself.

Was it because I told Beta Patric a while ago that my brother would not humiliate anyone and make a decision fairly? But he had done the opposite.

My eyes widened when I felt someone grab my hand and pull me out from behind the pillar.

I almost gasped when I saw it was Adrian.

He started to drag me in another direction. I frowned at him but did not yell out at him. I was afraid that I would destroy my brother's reputation.

Adrian brought me to another corner, a little far from the meeting hall.

"What are yo-"

He shoved me against the wall and glared at me.

"How could you continue to stand there and listen to my humiliations? You did not come to stop him."

I was stunned. How did he know I was there?

My brows lifted up when I realized that he was aware of my presence in the hall.

Was it because of my scent?

"Why would I come?" I asked, shrugging my shoulders.

He frowned at me. "Do you know why I was controlling my anger when your brother was continuously talking nonsense? It's because of you. I thought you would enter the hall, and..." he paused as he shook his head as if he were disappointed.

"Excuse me? How can you expect me to say anything for you?"

He stared at me with a pair of sharp eyes. "So you don't care about how I feel in the meeting hall?"

I was dumbfounded. What was he talking about? Why would I care for him?

"You have lost your mind, Adrian Miller. Why would I care? Who are you to me that I should care for?"

He appeared to be speechless. I had no idea why I was even talking to this man.

I tried to move, but he placed his hands beside my head, just like he did in the party of the Storm Forest Pack.

I was afraid he would do something like that again.

"If you do something like that again, I will-"

"Claw me?" he asked and scoffed at me.

I paused when I heard him mocking me. I shifted my gaze to his body. His words reminded me of the night when he helped me in the forest. I clawed his

I could see bitterness in his eyes. I did not know why, but I could not look into them for a long time. So I averted my gaze and replied,

He moved closer to me, and I shifted my head to the side to avoid facing him.

"My dad invited you personally to stay at my pack house. That's how my family treated you. Even after my divorce, they continued to show you their affe mocked me every single second and taunted me as if I were not an Alpha but rather a member of their pack who they could say anything to anytime.”

His words were starting to annoy me, I pushed him, which almost took him aback.

I glared at him and said what was on my mind.

My fists were shaking while grabbing his collar. My anger was so intense that I felt the desire to kill the man standing in front of

1. me.

But I controlled myself and let go of him.

“Just shut your mouth,”

He didn’t stop and threw a bunch of questions at me.

“What gave your brother the audacity to talk about my health? What did he think? His sister got impregnated by someone else, not because of her shame

With a furious face, he yearned for the answers.

I had no answer to his questions. My brother had provoked him by talking about this,

“I will snatch everything from you and your brother. I will make your family get on their feet in front of me. Remember my words, Natalia Hansley,”

“Leave my pack and never come back here again. My pack doesn’t need you.”

“I’m leaving your pack this time, But I will not let your brother go. The man who insulted me in front of other Alphas deserves to die in my hands.”

I was shocked by his words. I roared at him.

“Don’t you dare hurt him. Death can not touch him. Do you know why?”

He stared at me as though he saw something strange, which I did not care about.

I moved closer to him and muttered,

“Because I am always with him. Whoever will think to hurt him, I will rip his heart out of his chest.”

My words were directly for him. I wanted to let him know that I could even think about killing him if he dared to harm my brother.

Adrian did not move, not even let out anything. It was like he was lost in something. It seemed like he did not even hear me clearly.

I scoffed at him when I noticed him staring at my lips. I lifted my hand to wipe my lips with a disgusted look on my face.

I turned around and started to walk fast to leave his side. I did not want to lose my mind by remaining by his side.

When I reached the living room, I made my way to my room in a hasty manner.

I heard a maid calling out to me from behind, “Young Miss?”

This caused me to turn around and look at her.

“Alpha told you to go to his room.

“Why? Is the meeting over?”

“No. He said he would be there in a while.”

I gave her a nod. Before I could turn around, the maid spoke out again.

“Your lips.”

I covered my mouth. Did she see the wound on my lips?

“Your lipstick has gone.”

I was stunned by her words. I usually apply light-colored lipstick, but today, I used red lipstick. So my maids might have noticed it. I realized it was because of the kiss that my lipstick had faded away.

“I rubbed tissue on my lips. Maybe that’s why.”

I turned around and walked to my room. The moment I closed the door, something caught my mind.

I immediately rushed to the mirror and looked at my lips.

I saw that the cut on my bottom lip had already healed.

“Did he notice it that time?”

I strolled to my bed and sat down. I did not know what he wanted. from me.

The more I tried to stay away from him, the more he came closer to me.

As the thought of his kiss crossed my mind again, I rubbed my lips.

“I hate you. I hate you. I hate you,” I repeated the words while thinking about him.

I was aware that what my brother had done was inappropriate. But that man deserved those humiliations. In fact, after what he did today, I believed he should “Isn’t it harassment? How dare he kiss me?” I pulled my hair in distress and stood up.

During the time that I was walking back and forth in my room, the door suddenly opened.

I stopped to look at the two men entering my room.

“I called you in my room. Why didn’t you go there?” Jason asked me as he closed the door.

Eric was with him, coming towards me.

“What happened to you? Why do you look worried?” he asked me.

I ignored him and looked at my brother directly. I was mad at Eric for what I had heard yesterday.

“Brother, why did you do that?” I asked Jason.

He frowned at me. "What did I do?"

"Brother, I know everything."

"How? Have you installed a camera in the meeting room?" he asked, chuckling.

I could see he was in a great mood. I sighed and walked to him.

"Brother, I have always seen you speak politely with everyone. But the actions you took today were not appropriate. Why did you disrespect him in front

Jason held my hand. "Natalia, why do you care for him? Have you forgotten what that man did to you?"

“Young Miss, Alpha is calling you for dinner.”

I heard my maid’s voice coming inside as she stood outside my room while knocking on my door,

“I don’t want to,” I replied to her without opening the door.

“I am afraid that Aria and Noah would not eat if you refused to eat something”

I let out a sigh and then proceeded to open the door. When the maid turned her head to the door and saw me open it

I gave her a nod and made my way to the dining room

After entering the dining room, I noticed that my twins were already eating when I spotted them sitting with their uncle.

I was aware that it was due to the actions and words that Adrian had taken toward me. Specifically, it was the rage that “Is everything okay?” Jason asked.

“Hmm.”

“Are you mad at me?” he asked in a soft tone.

I paused and turned my head toward him. “No, brother. I am not feeling well.”

He reached out and placed his palm on my forehead. “Do you have a fever?” he inquired, checking my temperature.

“No. Your temperature is normal. Then what happened to my little baby?”

I could sense the stress in his voice. The concern that he had for me was visible in his eyes when I looked at him.

“I’m fine, brother. I just need some fresh air.”

“Then go to the forest and take some fresh air. It will make you feel good.”

I froze at his words. “Forest?”

He gave a slight nod of his head and then proceeded to continue eating by placing the fork in his mouth.

“Will Mommy go there alone? Uncle Eric is not here,” Noah spoke out.

I glanced at him and observed the worried look on his face. He was protective of his mother.

“Don’t worry. No one can harm your mommy here. It’s our pack, “Jason gave him assurance. Then he turned to me and mumbled,

“Even if someone dares, they will only get death in return.”

I could not help but stare at him since I understood what he was trying to say. I turned my attention away from them and concentrated on finishing my plate early.

Aria did not let out anything during the dinner because I scolded her yesterday for going to Adrian. I told her to avoid him at all times and to keep her distance.

“Good night,” I said to my twins and my brother after we had finished our dinner.

“If you want, I can send anyone with you. Eric is not here. He is busy with arrangements for tomorrow’s party,” Jason told me when we saw my babies go.

Brother, Eric is not my bodyguard. Things that you stated about us to other people were not to my liking. It will only serve to destroy the friendship that I share with Eric.”

As soon as he heard me, Jason became completely silent. I turned around at the entrance and walked to the main door.

“I will talk to Eric then. I will never ask you about this again.” I heard his voice from behind.

Without turning to him, I replied,

There is no need for that. I will talk to Eric directly.”

I eventually made my way out of the pack house and headed in the direction of the forest.

Upon entering the forest, the cold breeze brushed against my body, causing me to experience chills along my spine.

Despite this, I did not pause and continued to go forward while looking around.

After what seemed like a long time of walking, I finally turned around and realized that I had come fairly far from the pack house.

Turning around, I went back in the direction I had been going. There was no way I would be lost here. It was my own pack. I knew every way to get out of the forest.

Taking a few deep breaths, I looked up at the moon that was dangling above my head in the middle of the sky. Due to the fact that clouds and trees were

I was walking along but suddenly came to a stop when I heard the sound of something crunching behind me.

I tried to listen to them carefully to understand where those sounds were coming from.

When those footsteps almost reached me, I turned around immediately.

I saw two unfamiliar men. I frowned at them and asked,

“Who are you?”

They scanned every part of my body, from my head to my toes, until their hungry eyes met mine.

My brows shot up when I realized who they were.

“Rogues!”

How were they able to go into the forest? The Blue Blood Pack’s border guards were the most brutal. It was rare for rogues to enter the pack.

A smirk appeared on their faces as they started to approach me.

“The forest at midnight is such a stunning sight, isn’t it? What is a beauty like you doing here at this time? You must be homeless. Your clothes are telling

I took a few steps back while looking at them. “Stay away from me.”

The other men chuckled at me. Both of them were young men. I could see lust flaming in their eyes.

They reminded me of the rogues I had to escape from when I was leaving the Crystal Blood Pack.

I turned around and started running in a different direction instead. As they chased me, I could hear their footsteps following behind me.

“Don’t run away. You will not be in a position to run if we shift.”

I ignored their shouts behind me and continued to run. I did not want to recall my past anymore.

My legs froze when I had to stop in front of a lake. Under the moonlight, its water was glistening.

“You hardly have any options for where to go. Now, who will save you from us?”

“Just look at her body. I can’t control myself from taking her from behind.”

I heard their dirty words behind me. As I had nowhere to go, I raised my head and looked at the moon.

“Don’t waste our time. Come on,” one of them said, and he began to approach me from behind.

The other man joined him as both of them came close to me and stood beside both of my sides.

“Don’t worry, we won’t kill you, but we will eat you every day. We won’t waste such beauty, but bloom it daily.”

They started to laugh as their eyes scanned me from both sides.

I was silent as I glanced at the moon. I slowly lowered my head to the lake, as I could see my reflection on the water very clearly.

“Why are you so silent?” The man on my left side asked with confusion.

I exhaled deeply and shook my head.

“Nothing, just looking at my reflection. It’s been quite some time since I have shifted,” I murmured, which caught them off guard.

They might have thought I would scream in fear or something.

They exchanged glances with each other and lowered their heads. to look at the water.

But the moment their eyes landed on my reflection, which was showing my wolf, their eyes widened in horror.

Their bodies started to tremble as one of them let out a shaken voice.

“Ab—black wolf with blue eyes!”

“No, this can’t be possible,” the man shouted out in disagreement.

The other man was frozen while staring at my reflection. While I was looking at the water, I was able to see the expressions on their faces.

“You are a witch, aren’t you? This is all an illusion! You are fooling us to save yourself.” The man kept mumbling, though his knees were shaking.

The other man took a step back slowly, as if he had to use much strength to move his legs.

“She is an Alpha!” he spoke out in fear.

The man who was disagreeing with the fact started shaking his head. “She can be an alpha female, but that wolf! That’s impossible! How can that wolf w

I turned my head and smirked at them,

I twisted my neck to the left and right. The sounds of breaking bones caught their ears. They gulped as they took another step back.

“W–We thought y–you-”

“You what? You thought I was an omega? You saw the fear in my face and thought to catch me. For what?”

“W–We had no idea that you were an alpha. If we had known, we would not have approached you in the first place.”

I chuckled as I felt nervousness in their tones. They could not even move or run because they knew if they tried, it would only grant them death.

It was what my brother was talking about at the dining table. If anyone would dare harm me, I was enough to kill them.

I could see both men glancing at each other and attempting to run away from me.

"What are you two planning? Don't you want to play with me? What were you saying? Eating me every day, blooming me daily. What about those things?"

They shook their heads. "Forgive this naive man."

"Forgive me, Alpha. We didn't know someone like you was staying here in this pack."

Both of them asked forgiveness. I could not let them go so easily. They tried to harass me. If I were not a powerful wolf, they might have already hovered over me to release their desire.

Who knew how many girls they had done that with?

I let out a loud growl just thinking about them doing those things. to other innocent women.

I stopped the man by grabbing his hair and pulling it behind him. He groaned in pain.

“Women are not weak. It’s just the rank that made the men more powerful.”

The other man knelt his head in front of me in submission so that I would let him go.

I let go of the man’s hair and retrieved a few steps.

“Go.”

They raised their heads to look at me. I gave them a nod. “Go and run faster so that I can’t grab you. If I grab any of you, you will be dead.”

They immediately stood up, then turned around to run.

I stood there while looking at them, who were running faster. A scoff came out of my mouth when I saw one of them even fall to the ground while running in a hurry. It reminded me of the day wh

I clenched my jaw while recalling my past. I took a step back, then began to run forward to catch those two men.

After a while, under the moonlight, my black giant wolf landed her paws on the ground, running to hunt them.

My wolf, Nancy, was stronger than what others think about a black wolf with blue eyes. They were unaware of the ability I had.

It took me a few minutes to catch one of them. He shifted to save his life. But before he could attack me, I clawed his chest and killed him.

The other man did not know that I had killed his companion already. So when I detected him, he began to call his friend in fear.

He tried to show his daring side by biting my leg after shifting. However, it took me a few seconds to heal my wounds. I broke his neck and threw his wol to me. His dead body swung on a tree branch and dangled there.

I looked up in the sky and howled while gazing at the moon.

‘I will kill each and every person like this whoever tries to come in my way.’

The next day, I got late to get ready for the party. As I returned to the pack house early in the morning, I fell asleep for quite a few. hours.

I was damn sure that my brother would start to think that his sister had become lazy.

Well, it would be best if he took over my position in the pack company and freed me from this huge responsibility. It was getting harder for me to handle it.

The reason was only because of Adrian Miller.

I could not just forget his words and actions that he had said and done to me. Whenever the kiss came to mind, I kept balling my finger into my fists.

Despite the anxiety inside me, I wore the dress that my brother sent me to wear to the party.

After applying makeup and putting on a pair of high heels, I left my room and proceeded to my children's room.

When I reached there, I noticed them paying attention to their studies. I smiled at them while standing at the door.

They were the reason I was alive. By just looking at them, I could spend my whole life alone. I did not need any man in my life to protect me. They did no

“Mommy,” Aria mumbled sadly when she noticed me:

Noah turned his head to look at me. He smiled at me and ran toward me.

I held his hand and walked toward Aria, who lowered her head with an upset look.

She was still upset about the scolding. I sat beside her on the bed and hugged her.

“What happened to my baby?”

She pouted and did not utter a word.

I kissed her head and said,

“Mommy is sorry. She scolded you that day. But you have to understand that what she is telling you is right for you.”

She looked at me with tearful eyes. I wiped the corner of her eyes and embraced her with both of my hands.

“I’m sorry, Mommy.”

After breaking the hug, I saw Noah staring at me. He always behaved like a mature boy.

I wondered why he behaved like that toward Adrian that day. I had never told him anything against him then what was the reason behind his behavior?

“Mommy, when will we go to a party with you?” Aria asked with hope in her eyes.

I bit my lower lip to control my emotions. I was not a good mother. Even if I wanted to go and tell the whole world that I was their mother, because of their safety, I could not reveal them to others.

“Soon, my baby.”

“Don’t worry, Mommy. We don’t like parties that much,” Noah said, hugging me.

I was blessed to have caring children like them.

Sometimes I thought, What if I could give them a normal family? Would they be happier than they were right then?

I left their rooms and went downstairs, only to find my brother and Eric waiting for me.

“You came home late today,” Jason inquired as we walked out of the pack house.

“As you suggested to me last night, I was enjoying the fresh air outside,” I replied, getting in the backseat as Jason’s driver opened the car door for me. Jason sat next to me.

Meanwhile, Eric sat in the passenger seat beside the driver’s seat. He turned his head and glanced at me.

I could see he wanted to talk to me. But I was angry at him. He was my good friend, and that was why his words affected me. Otherwise, I would have ne

“I got a call from the border guard a while ago. He said two rogues entered our pack last night,” Eric told Jason.

Jason frowned after hearing that. “What? Then what were the guards doing at the border? Standing like statues?”

“They had no idea when the rogues entered our pack. They might have come here with guests since everyone is coming here to attend today’s party.”

–“How did they get the news?”

“Someone reported some photos to our gamma. I’m sending those photos to you. Check it.”

When Eric sent the photos to Jason’s phone, he looked at them to check them. His frown faded slowly as he watched the picture of a dead wolf and another wolf dangling on a tree branch while his neck looked broken before death.

He turned his head to me, and without thinking twice, he asked

1. me.

“Did you shift last night?”

I chuckled when I found my brother so sure that I had killed those wolves.

“Of course she did,” Eric muttered, turning his head to look away from me.

I glanced at him, who was now looking at the road. I sighed and turned my head toward my brother.

They were chasing me, so I killed them,” I simply replied.

He cupped my cheek and asked, “Are you okay? Did they try to do something?” Anger was visible in his face.

“Don’t worry, brother. Before they could touch me, I put an end to them.”

Jason smiled at me proudly. “That’s my little baby.”

I sighed and turned to look outside the window, where I could see passing landscapes. I did not enjoy killing others. I was not that type of fighter wolf wh “My buddy, let’s celebrate the party,” Alpha Leo said, hugging my brother.

His eyes fell on me as he broke the hug and approached me. He reached out my hand and kissed the back of my hand.

I did not mind it, as it was a gesture of greeting. I gave him a nod with a warm smile.

But his words stunned me when he let go of my hand.

“I want to turn this business friendship into a relationship.”

The statements made by Alpha Leo stunned me. For what purpose did he say that?

When another Alpha came to approach him to offer his congratulations, he turned around to face that man.

“It was your project from the beginning, Alpha Leo. We all knew Alpha Jason would give this project to his friend,” that alpha said to Leo.

“Of course,” Leo replied.

Because I was standing behind them, I was able to overhear them. With the intention of remaining by myself, I made a left turn and then proceeded to the opposite side.

Right now, I was not in the mood to listen to anything, so I paid no attention to it. By the way, the party was not hosted by my company, where I would ha

I went to sit down on a couch and then started to use my phone. Several pieces of news caught my attention.

As I scrolled through the timeline, I came across the news about how Alpha Jason caused Alpha Adrian to feel ashamed during a meeting.

One of the head Alphas made a few statements in which they described what my brother had said to Adrian, and I couldn't help but roll my eyes when I saw those statements. The majority of them added more than what my brother had said.

It was evident that they were happy that the Crystal Blood Pack and the Blue Blood Pack had returned to their rivalry.

No one wished for the two powerful packs to become acquainted with one another.

My curiosity led me to inquire as to whether or not Adrian had anything to say about the matter. Aside from that, there was no news about it. It was obvious statement after such humiliations. It was insulting, like getting defeated in wars.

I overheard some Alphas discussing Adrian's inability, and my eyebrows furrowed as a reaction to what I heard.

I immediately locked my phone and glanced at the other couches close to mine.

"Alpha Jason was right. We did hear some news about Alpha Adrian's wedding some years ago. I wonder who the woman was. Not only did he never ma

"Exactly. She vanished into the air. Did he kill her?"

"Maybe. Or perhaps he used money to silence her. You know, a man's power or rank is unworthy if he can't satisfy a woman in bed."

All of them started to laugh while having the conversation.

I looked away from them. I did not know why, but I felt mad at them. How could they say something about which they had no idea?

Would they ever dare to say these things in front of Adrian?

"Don't think about him, Natalia. Distract yourself with something else," I reminded myself, and I got to my feet.

I grabbed a drink from a waiter who was serving drinks to others. I chugged down a glass and then placed it back on the tray that the waiter was holding. It appeared to be taken aback by my action.

I gave a shrug of the shoulders as if it were irrelevant whether or not I got drunk later. I just wanted to put that man totally out of my mind. What was the

“Natalia.”

I heard my brother’s voice calling out my name. I turned in the direction of his voice.

I saw him waving at me from afar. He was asking me to join him.

I gave him a nod of agreement and headed to him. By the time I got closer to him, I noticed that Alpha Leo and a few other people were with him.

I could see Alpha Leo’s eyes fixed on me. I ignored his gaze and stood right next to my brother.

“Alpha Leo was talking about inviting us into his pack,” Jason said to me.

“Brother, I think you should go. I am a little busy in company,” I responded politely.

Before my brother could say anything, Alpha Leo spoke out.

“Oh, come on. You are so stunning. Maybe other CEOs give you the projects just by glancing at your beauty.”

I was on the verge of rolling my eyes at his words, but I managed to keep my composure. Did he just try to flirt with me in front of my brother?

But his words were kind of offensive to me, so I cleared my throat and replied,

“You are wrong. I got projects by showing my working skills, not by showing my beauty.”

Alpha Leo and the other men who were standing close to us appeared to be surprised at my reply. I could say that they did not expect me to talk back.

Jason grinned when he heard me. Like a proud brother, he wrapped his hand around my shoulder and said to Alpha Leo,

“My sister is a gem. Whatever she touches, it turns gold. She is a workaholic woman who likes to achieve everything through her own hard work. So wat

Alpha Leo chuckled awkwardly. “Actually, the truth is, I am blown away by her beauty.”

I was taken aback by his remarks. Jason frowned at him while listening to him.

“Jason, we have been friends for quite some time. Why don’t we turn this friendship into a deeper connection with one another?”

“What do you mean?” Jason asked.

Alpha Leo glanced at me and smirked. I found it weird. However, I tried to understand the meaning behind his question.

I was not a fool who needed to think much. But I had never seen any other Alpha ask something like that to my brother. Everyone knew that my brother was a little aggressive. Therefore, even if they wanted to look at me, they always considered how my brother would react to it.

Alpha Leo turned his attention back to my brother and offered a proposal directly.

“I want to make your sister my Luna.”

I was shocked by his sudden proposal. Everyone knew that every alpha wanted to form an alliance with our pack. That was why some of them tried to get in touch with me. However, Alpha Leo’s pack was already in the alliance. Then why did he ask for my hand?

I slowly turned my head toward my brother to look at his reaction.

I prayed in my head that he would not say anything stupid again. Last time, he almost fixed my marriage with Eric, and now this Alpha Leo.

I wanted to decline it, so I spoke out.

“Alpha Leo, I-”

“I can’t accept your offer, Alpha Leo,” my brother interrupted

1. me.

I immediately looked at him. He glanced at me and gave me a nod. I felt relaxed.

But the other men around us turned to us and began to overhear the conversation. Some of the Alphas gasped when they heard Jason reject the offer directly.

“But why?” Jason asked. I could feel a little anger in his voice.

“My sister does not want to get married right now. She still has some dreams to fulfill. She wants to live her life fully first. Then we will think about it.

Jason’s voice was gentle, and his words were both polite.

asked,

“Then what about an engagement? She can do whatever she wants after it. I won’t stop her from doing anything in her life. She can continue the business.”

At that time, someone else spoke out from behind.

“Take our apology, but she has a boyfriend.”

I turned around and saw Eric walking toward us.

Alpha Leo raised his brow and inquired, “Who is he? You?”

Eric stood beside me and nodded his head.

“Yeah, you are right. She is my girlfriend. I won’t like it if someone else makes a marriage proposal to my girlfriend.”

I stared at Eric. He glanced at me. I looked away from him. I could not scold him for what he had done just now.

Without my permission, he lied to everyone about us.

Alpha Leo glared at Eric, whom he discarded. He looked at Jason, who was calm and indifferent.

“Is he telling the truth, Jason?” Alpha Leo asked loudly, which caught more attention.

‘What’s wrong with this man? Why is he creating drama?’ I thought.

Jason told me to go, and I assumed he would talk to Alpha Leo personally since they were friends.

I walked out of their way and headed to the entrance door. I did not want to stay here any longer. I wanted to go back to my babies.

While walking out of the hall, I turned my head to glance at Jason for the last time. He was talking with Alpha Leo, who looked offended.

Alpha Leo’s eyes met my gaze, and I felt uncomfortable when his eyes scanned my body. I averted my gaze from him.

“Pervert!” I muttered and left the party hall.

I went back to the pack house in Jason’s car. I did not tell Jason that I was leaving, but I knew he was aware of it.

After entering the pack house, I went to my twin’s room. They jumped when they looked at me. They were delighted that their mother had returned early

I had dinner with them after changing my clothes. That night, I slept in their room while hugging them in my arms.

“Young Miss.”

I opened my eyes as I heard someone calling by name. As I turned my head, I noticed my maid bowing to me.

I tried to move my hand, but I found two little babies clinging to me. Their eyes were closed, and they were in deep sleep.

I smiled at their cute faces and kissed their heads. I turned my attention and looked at my maid.

“What happened? Is it time to go to the office?” I asked and slowly moved my hands away from my children’s heads.

“Today is the weekend. You don’t have to go to the company, young miss.”

“Then what has occurred in the early morning?” I inquired as I got out of bed.

“Y–Your parents have returned to the pack house,” she replied, lowering her head.

A smile appeared on my face. It was good news. I was missing them. They had finally gotten back home.

“No, young Miss. There is bad news. Alpha is downstairs, talking with them. I thought to inform you about their arrival.”

Her statement confused me. What kind of bad news was she talking about?

I did not waste my time going to the bathroom to freshen up. I dashed downstairs to meet my parents.

When I reached there, my legs froze. My father looked upset. My mother was crying in my brother’s arms.

“Mom? Dad? What happened?” I asked them.

They turned to me. I rushed to my mother, who broke the hug from Jason and embraced me.

“Your uncle is no more.”

I was shocked at the news. I did not know how I would console my mother.

“He died yesterday. I had only one person left in the family, and he also died. How will I live now?”

I realized that my father had not informed us about it since if Jason went to the funeral, and I would also have to go there. Who would have been with my children at that time?

I did not move from my mother’s side the whole day. I tried to comfort her since she had just lost her family.

At night, I convinced my mother to eat something. After persuading her to have dinner, I left my parents’ room.

Just when I returned to my room, I saw someone waiting for me.

“What are you doing here?” I asked him.

“Natalia, how long will you be angry with me?”

I sighed as I stared at Eric. I considered him to be one of my family members. I could not stay mad longer with him.

“Eric, let’s talk directly,” I said, closed the door, and then approached him.

He looked nervous. In fact, for the first time, he looked nervous in any situation. It only gave me a bad feeling that I was going to hear what I did not want to hear from him.

He took a deep breath and replied

“I love you, Natalia.”

Alpha 128

Alpha 128

I was stunned. More than shock, I was upset. I did not want our friendship to turn out like this. I would have been happier if he had come to tell me about someone else who he liked but not me.

The pair of desperate eyes were focused on me. I could hear how his heart was beating faster as he waited for my answer.

How would I reject him on his face? I did not want him to be heartbroken.

“From when?” I asked, trying to compose myself.

He lowered his head and started to speak.

“From the day I met you, from the day Jason brought you to the pack house.”

I looked away from him as I remembered the day when I first met him. He was a nice guy, and his every gesture was kind toward me. I thought it was because I was his best friend’s sister.

With a heavy heart, I wanted to say that I had never seen him like that.

“Eric, I-”

"An alpha. I know. But what about your emotional and mental support?"

"Love is not based on need, Eric. I mumbled as a few memories of my past reflected in my mind.

"Love is something we feel for someone even if they are not aware of it, even if they want to decline our feelings for them," I murmured.

The days when I used to roam around my ex-husband just to get his attention returned to my mind. It took me a lot of days to wait for him, and when he finally came back home, it was after several weeks had passed. I used to love him with all my heart and soul. However, he never acknowledged my love. In the end, I only had to feel heartbroken.

I felt a hand hold my hand and caress the back of my hand with a thumb.

I looked at Eric, who gave me a sad look and said,

I got what he meant. He explained to me the advantages of being with him.

I heaved a sigh and tried to move my hand, but he held it tightly. "Natalia, I love your children like mine. I will give them my name. You will not have to think about them anymore. You don't have to hide them as well. You can proudly tell others that they have their own father."

I felt a pang in my heart. His words really mesmerized me. He was a really sensible man. He indeed loved my children a lot.

However, I could not just destroy his life. I did not have any feelings for him. So, making his life connected with mine would only waste his life. He would not get anything that he wished to see in his life partner.

I looked at our hands and rubbed his hand, which was over mine. "Eric."

He shook his head in disagreement. "I know you don't want to take a risk. I will make sure your second marriage will not break up in any way."

His statements astounded me. He was talking about marriage.

"Eric, calm down and look at me.

He looked into my eyes. I gestured to him to take a deep breath, and then I spoke to him calmly.

"I didn't know that you had feelings for me. But you have to understand my side too. You are not only my brother's best friend, but also mine. I gave you the position as one of my family members. Without you, my family is incomplete. I also know that "I don't want this one-sided. It will only give you pain, just like I felt many years ago. I don't want to hurt you. You are a good person, and I want you to find your mate soon and be happy in your life. I am sorry, Eric. I don't want to give you any fake hopes. I don't love you."

Eric took a step back as his hand slowly moved away from my

"Eric," I mumbled while looking at him.

He lifted his hand to stop me. He turned his head to the other side to control emotion.

I walked to him and reached for his hand. "I'm so sorry, Eric."

He shook his head. "No, it's not your fault. You can't help it," he muttered as he slowly walked past me. He made his way to the door.

“Eric.”

“Give me some time. I will be fine,” he replied, grabbing the doorknob.

But the moment he opened the door, he froze. His sudden pause perplexed me.

He looked here and there with a pair of wide eyes. He looked worried, and his eyes turned cloudy.

I rushed toward him as soon as I realized that someone was `informing him of something in the mind link.

I grabbed his hand and turned him to me. “What happened?”

He looked shocked as he left the room in a hurry before saying,

“Jason is not feeling well.”

My family was going through a turmoil of emotions. No one had thought that my brother would get sick like that.

That night, when Eric confessed to me, I tried to control the situation with him. But the moment I heard about my brother’s health, I rushed to his room.

However, what I saw in his room made me burst into tears. Jason was vomiting blood. My mother was beside him, pouring her heart out while crying.

I could not believe that my brother, who always looked so strong, was looking weak at that time.

My father immediately contacted the pack doctor, and the next day, Jason was admitted to the pack hospital.

Unexpectedly, the pack doctor could not find out about Jason's illness. In fact, he told us to call someone who can summon witches to help Jason. Because the sickness would only make Jason weaker the more time passed.

When we called Qadir, he did his best to find out the cause of his illness. However, he also failed to say anything.

But the target of attention was me the whole time. He said something startling to me.

After hearing his words, I felt a shiver run down my spine. His words were clear, and his eyes were glowing enough to tell that he was saying what he was watching.

"The danger you are going to face will either destroy you or protect you. But the decision will be in your hands. You will have to choose the path in your own way."

I could still feel the dread that I felt at that moment. What type of danger was I going to face? I could just hope that he was not talking about something related to my children.

After some time had passed, I made an effort to get in touch with Doctor Max, but I did not have his phone number. The head Alpha of his pack informed us that he had already given us Doctor Max's cure; now they did not want to give us anything anymore.

I realized that I had used that cure on Adrian's father. But I did not feel guilty for that. How could I feel guilty after saving someone's life?

But I was feeling broken inside me day by day.

"Boss, don't get stressed." Damia's voice made me come out of my thoughts about what had happened in the last few months.

I rubbed my forehead, leaning my back against my chair behind my desk. I was depressed about my pack company.

From the moment Jason got sick, he could not focus on the pack meetings or any kind of deal. On the other hand, I was losing many projects in the busi

I had no idea what was going on in our pack. Everything seemed to be ruined each day after one person had gotten sick, and that was the head Alpha of the pack.

"Miss, please, let's go to have lunch. You didn't eat anything in the morning."

I put all the files aside and looked at my phone's lock screen. There was a picture of my children that was displayed on it. The fact that they were smiling in the p calm and not break down.

"I am worried for my brother. I don't know what will happen to him," I mumbled as I tried to control my tears.

It had been a long time since I last cried. I promised myself that I would not cry in any situation and would fight back.

"He will be fine. Please don't be concerned," Damia patted her hand on my shoulder. She tried to soothe me, but only I knew how I was feeling inside.

The whole day passed in the office. I looked completely exhausted from working so much. I could see all the employees looked tired. They had been working equally hard on every project, but it see to give us any deals right now.

I did not know what had gotten over me. I stopped in the lobby area before leaving and looked at the employees who were about to head back to their homes.

"Thank you so much for your hard work. I will always remember you all."

My statement seemed to shock them. But they instantly bowed to me in order to demonstrate their respect for me.

I gave them a slight nod and left the company. While heading back to the pack house in Jason's car, I was thinking about how time betrayed us.

Because Jason was concerned about my safety, he instructed me to use his car rather than mine. He stopped getting out of the pack house after falling ill.

When the car halted in front of the pack house, I thanked the driver and entered the pack house.

My twins ran toward me, and I embraced them in my arms.

I could see my family sitting on the couches. When they noticed me, they gave me a sad look. I came home late once again.

"How are you, brother?" I asked Jason as I went to sit next to him.

"Brother is sorry for you. You have to handle so many things.

I hugged his arm and rested my head on his shoulder. "As long as my brother is okay, I don't have a problem with anything."

"What if your brother dies soon?"

His question shook me to the core. I moved my head and looked at him with anger.

“Brother, please. Don’t say those things again.”

“She is right. Why are you punishing us by talking nonsense? Your parents are still alive to see your family,” my mother said with an upset look.

I cast a brief look in Eric’s direction, and he smiled warmly at me. I gave him a smile in reply. After his confession, we went through a period of time in which I realized that I was not wrong on my side. As a result, he made an effort to move on, and we decided to resume our friendship.

After having dinner with my family, it was time for us to go to our rooms to sleep.

When I was saying goodbye to my parents, the main door of the pack house started making a loud noise as someone from the outside knocked on the door vigorously.

Since it was time to go to sleep, the maid locked the door before setting the dinner on the table.

Some maids hurriedly made their way toward the door in order to open it and find who was knocking on it in such a manner.

The moment they opened the door, a bunch of pack fighters entered the pack house and hurried to Jason.

“Alpha!”

They kneeled down toward him and said it with a shaken tone.

“Alpha, the Crystal Blood Pack is approaching our border with more than five hundred pack fighters. It looks like Alpha Adrian has declared war on us.”

My parents looked shocked by the news. I slowly moved my gaze to look at my little babies.

My eyes were filled with tears, and I couldn't even suppress them anymore because I didn't have the strength to do so at this moment.

A war meant the dead bodies of so many people. Most of them would belong to Alpha's family. I could not lose any of my family members. What about my children? They were so little. How could they survive the war?

As fury grew within my heart, I experienced a feeling of being pierced into my heart.

"Backstabber," I muttered while clenching my jaw.

How could Adrian do that?

My parents and my brother turned their heads toward me. I could not face them. This was all happening because of me. I should not have entered their lives in the first place. I was the reason that they had to deal with a great deal of suffering.

"Natalia, don't worry. I will handle it," my brother said to me, returning his gaze to the pack fighters.

"Announce the war against the Crystal Blood Pack before they reach our border." As soon as they heard the order, they immediately stood up and nodded.

"Tell everyone to get ready and head to the forest. I'm coming with them."

Everyone left after getting the order from the head Alpha. Eric went to call the Gamma to prepare for the war.

Due to the fact that it was an unexpected war, it would be difficult for the Blue Blood Pack to come back victorious. At that time, nobody had made any preparations for the war. The fact that a clash between the two largest packs was about to take

He hugged our parents, who looked at him with a broken look. “Return after winning the war,” my father said to Jason slowly approached my twins. He bent down and hugged them.

“Always take care of your mommy, okay? Never leave her side and protect her from every danger,” Jason said to Noah.

I covered my mouth to stop sobbing. Noah was a child. He had no idea what his uncle was telling him, but he nodded his head like a big boy and replied

“I promise you, Uncle. I will take care of Mommy.”

Jason kissed his head and turned to Aria. “You know you are my queen. Always remember that Uncle loves you wherever he is.”

I bit my lower lip harshly to control my emotion. It was not like Jason had accepted his defeat. It was something every head Alphas did before going to war.

No one had seen the future. No one knew who would end up dying in a twist of fate.

I felt a pat on my shoulder. I turned my head only to find Eric.

I hugged him while I was crying. He stroked my back to comfort me. "Take care of you."

I shook my head in his arms. "Please, don't die. Don't let my brother get harmed."

I kept repeating the same words again and again. I could not just describe what I was feeling right now.

"Mommy, why are you and Grandma crying?" Aria asked as she made her way to me.

I looked away from my children since I had no answer for them. Eric hugged Noah and Aria.

"I hope we can meet again."

"Why are you saying this, Uncle?" Noah asked with a confused look.

Eric smiled at them and rubbed their heads. "Nothing. Just a little fight, and we will be back soon.

"Fight?" Aria asked while glancing at Jason.

Jason gave everyone a last glance and headed to the door.

"Jason, my son. Don't go. Do something to stop the war. You are not well," my mother ran to stop him while crying

"I can be unwell, but I can't be a coward. My whole pack believes me. I can't die without fighting back."

My mother did not want to let him go. But my father broke him free from my mother's grip.

Eric was about to follow Jason when I stopped him.

Eric stared at me without replying to me, which caught me off guard. What was the reason behind his stare?

Then I heard his remarks.

"It's a war between Jason and Adrian. Any of their deaths is inevitable."

I turned my gaze away from Eric because I was at a loss to think of anything. Even though I did not have any feelings for Adrian anymore, that did not m die.

However, how dare he attack my pack?

Not only that, he attacked the pack when my brother was sick. He knew if he called out a war against us right now, it would be easier for him to win.

'What a loser you are, Alpha Adrian! If you hurt my brother or give him a single wound, I swear I won't let you go,' I thought.

I saw my brother leave the pack house with Eric. All of his officials, who came to take him, also left with him.

When they left, I was staring at the door, which had been shut shortly after they had left. It was Jason's command that the door needed to be closed un

In addition, there was a door in the back of the pack house. The establishment of this was done with the intention of protecting the lives of the royal family from those who would seek to take their lives.

My father consoled my mother, saying that everything would be okay.

I looked at my children and told the maids to make them sleep. I made my heart stone hearted as it turned cold.

"Mommy, we don't want to sleep. Why are you all crying? Where did Uncles go?" Aria nudged my hands with her little fingers to know what was going on

"Aria, go back to your room with your brother."

She flinched at my cold tone. Noah held her hand and began to tug her to their room.

"Don't make Mommy mad. Let's go to sleep."

Aria lowered her head and walked with him. She glanced at me while twisting her neck, but I had nothing to say right now.

It was a moment of life and death. I did not want my children to get hurt in any situation.

I walked back and forth in the living room while waiting for any fighters to inform me about the war.

We had been waiting for one hour, but no one had communicated with us at that point. As I was beginning to lose my patience, I made my way to the en

“Natalia, you don’t have to. Please stay inside the pack house, just as your brother said.”

I turned to them and stared at them with disappointment.

“Mom, Dad. How can you tell me to stay inside when my brother is all alone in the war?”

“He is not alone. His officials are with him,” my father retorted.

“Dad, he is not well. What if he can’t shift there? What if they attack him?”

“Then what do you want to do, Natalia?”

I averted my gaze and took a deep breath. “Let me see.”

I opened the door and walked out of the pack house.

I walked toward them, and they straightened their poster when they noticed me approaching them.

“What’s going on in the war?” I asked them.

As they could sense the distress in my tone, they exchanged glances with each other.

A frown formed on my face. “Why are you all silent?”

One of them bowed to me and let out a lower tone.

“We are forbidden to inform any of you anything about the war.”

My brows lifted in shock. Did Jason tell them not to tell me anything? Was he afraid that I would go there in the war?

I closed my eyes and tried to connect my mind link with any of the officials. No one was responding to me.

A fear began to rise inside my heart. I rubbed my forehead as I did not have any idea what to do in that situation.

I did not know how to fight in the war. I was not a warrior wolf. I had never trained to fight like a pack fighter either.

Even if I wanted to go and support my brother, I was frightened that my stupidity would put him in danger.

I thought to wait for any news, so I turned around to go inside the pack house to see my parents.

But I froze when someone connected the link to me. I heard a growl of bitterness as the voice spoke out with a desperate tone.

“Natalia!”

I recognized the voice. It was our gamma’s voice.

“What happened?” I asked in the mind link.

“Natalia, tell Alpha Martin to join us in the war. Your brother’s life is in danger.”

My eyes turned blue in anger. I let out a growl at them, which almost caused them to fall on their knees in fear.

The power that they were experiencing emanating from me took each and every one of them by surprise.

They were not at fault. They were only trying to follow their Alpha's order.

Under the silvery light of the moon, all of the wolves were fighting as if it were not only a war for their territory but also a battle between life and death.

As the growls and groans rocked the trees in the forest, the temperature of the air started to slowly decrease.

The rivalry of years was the only thing anyone could describe by watching the war.

The smell of blood was present in the air, and it was combined with the odor of destruction and disaster.

Natalia tried to pace faster so that she could reach the war as soon as possible.

She tried to contact her pack's gamma.

"I'm coming," she said in the mind link.

"Don't do that. Go back. We can't secure your safety. It's not a battle against

She closed the mind link, as she did not want to hear any excuses.

"Nancy, it's your time to show who you will choose," Natalia reminded her wolf.

Nancy was silent as she let Natalia take over. It was like she did not want to fight against her mate.

Natalia got mad at her own wolf. She shut her wolf inside and growled angrily.

'Everyone is betraying me. All of my life, I only got disloyalty. Now my own wolf decides to backstab me,' she thought.

To her surprise, in a few minutes, she reached the place where she could see the wolves fighting with each other. She took a deep breath when she noticed blood everywhere. This was what she did not want to see in her life.

She did not want to face any war where she would have to feel the fear of losing her family.

She turned her head back to the way from where she had come here.

She almost lost her mind when she realized that the wolves were getting closer in the direction of the pack house.

If the war continued for half an hour, they would reach the pack house at any time.

Natalia wanted to stop everything right then. But nothing was in her hand. She would have to fight with every wolf who would stop her from reaching the main vil

The fact that she was unable to locate any of her brother’s officials caused her blood to become extremely heated, and it was boiling.

During the time that she was searching in several different directions, three wolves approached her and bit her legs.

Death was inescapable if anyone dared to think about fighting against him. His aura was unlike anything Natalia had ever seen in any other wolf she had he killed the wolves who came to stop him.

However, when he heard one of his pack fighters, it stopped his movement and made him turn around.

The frown over his red eyes faded when his eyes landed on the black wolf with blue eyes. His expression changed into a shocked one.

“Who are you?” he asked, as he could not smell her from afar since the smell of blood and other wolves’ scents mixed in the air to prevent him from smelling anything.

Natalia glared at him as she took one step back. Then, with every ounce of her strength, she began to dash toward him with the intention of killing him before replying to him.

“Your death.”

After being informed by his pack fighters that there was a big alpha who had joined the war, Adrian turned around to see who the Alpha was and who frightened his pack fighters.

However, when his eyes fell on the wolf standing afar from him, his entire body froze.

The fact that the wolf that had been hunting him in his nightmare actually existed was a complete and utter surprise to him.

“Adrian, I’m on my way to you. As you have ordered, I have instructed our main fighters to make their way to the pack house.”

He heard his beta, Patric’s voice, in the mind link. But his eyes were fixed on the black wolf. All this time, he thought the wolf’s eyes were kind of mysterious.

“Who are you?” he asked.

“Your death,” the wolf replied.

He could not be more shocked. The voice was familiar to him. He recognized the voice but could not believe that it was hers.

He thought it was a male wolf, but it turned out to be an alpha she-wolf. But not only that, it was actually his ex wife, Natalia!

A look of rage appeared on her face as she started to run in his direction.

Adrian’s pack fighters kept an eye on her and made an effort to prevent her from continuing. But Adrian could see how powerful she was. Like how he was.

As Natalia came dangerously close to Adrian, she let out a growl, which caused the wolves that were surrounding her to shake, but it did not affect Adrian.

Being in a state of shock, he continued to stare at her.

When Natalia saw that he was not moving, she did not hesitate and jumped on him without a second thought.

The fight that was going on around them came to a halt when they witnessed one giant black wolf jumping on another. Both of them were very similar in appearance.

When Natalia clawed at Adrian’s neck, that was when he regained his composure and tried to shove her away from him.

Natalia mocked him and bit his neck. But she could not dig her teeth deep because Adrian came to her and moved his gamma away from her.

She began to run in that direction. She forgot that Adrian was behind her.

But if Adrian was there, then who was attacking her brother?

The moment she reached close to the pack house, her eyes widened.

Someone stabbed Jason's leg with a wooden stake.

She growled loudly at the man. But when he turned around, she almost took a step back. 1

It seemed like he did not come here through the forest, but he was already in the pack, waiting for a chance to attack Jason.

As soon as Natalia proceeded to him, many wolves came to her to stop her from reaching Alpha Leo.

Natalia glanced at Jason, whose wolf was crawling on the ground. She noticed Eric trying to fight with Alpha Leo. But Leo had other stakes in his hands.

Natalia turned her head toward Adrian, who looked at her.

“Go inside the pack house,” he muttered in the mind link.

“Are you crazy?” she roared at him.

Adrian groaned when the wolves attacked him after releasing Natalia.

She glanced at them. For once, she wanted to help Adrian, but then she realized that he was the one who set up the conspiracy against his brother.

‘Maybe Alpha Leo is with him,’ she thought, leaving his side.

She began to run toward Alpha Leo once again. Eric had bit his hand, but he stabbed a stake in his rib.

Natalia’s steps halted as she howled. She could not see Eric in that state. She did not want to lose him. He was her very good friend.

She tried to pace toward him, but Alpha Leo's beta stopped her. All the anger that was building inside her, she embellished it on that beta.

She bit his neck and lifted his body, then hit it on the ground countless times.

Alpha Leo turned around and noticed what was going on. His eyes landed on Natalia's wolf, and since she was close in distance, he could not help but gulp.

"Who are you?" he asked her because he could not recognize her.

"Your demise, you bastard. How dare you touch my brother?" Natalia growled at him.

She turned to look at him. He was lying on the ground in his wolf form while staring at her. She could see the anguish in his eyes.

She howled when someone bit the stake and attempted to remove it from her neck.

She made an effort to look at the wolf and realized that it was Adrian. She had no idea why he was helping her. Without saying anything in the mind link,

"What are you doing?" she asked him, trying to move her head away from him.

Wrath was visible in the eyes. He appeared to be in a rage. When she was getting her consciousness back, she realized that he was healing her.

But why?

Could it have been his wolf that was trying to save his mate? Because it was impossible for Alpha Adrian to have any interest in saving her.

There was a growl of caution coming from Patric. When Adrian heard that, he instantly turned around. When he looked, he spotted a wolf running in the Alpha Martin shifted to save his wife and his grandchildren from attacks.

Natalia yelled over the mind link in an attempt to prevent him from engaging in the fight.

When Adrian witnessed a wolf getting dangerously close to attacking Aria and Noah, he felt an unfathomable outrage well up inside of him.

At that time, even if he wanted, he could not reach there to stop the wolf.

So he shut his eyes out of fury. He let out a growl that was so menacing that it shook each and every one of the wolves that were surrounding him.

The growl possessed the power to break any spells and the ability to make anyone submit to him.

Everyone turned silent around him. He opened his eyes and glared at the wolf, who was close to Natalia's children, He was kneeling on the ground with trembling legs.

All of a sudden, Adrian's nostrils filled with unfamiliar scents that he had never smelled before.

But when he glanced at the twins, he was confronted with the truth. The color changed in Noah's eyes to blue, while Arla's eyes went crimson.

It dawned on him that the scent that he was feeling at this very moment was that of his children.D

He felt a wave of shock flood across his consciousness. He could not just believe it.

His blood started to boil in anger. It was the most anger he had ever felt before.

He was unable to accept the fact that Natalia had deceived him like that. Even though they were his children, she continued to keep them away from Him for all of these years.

Not only that, but also when he was seeking to find out the truth, she changed the DNA result and told him that his children were the offspring of a one-night stand!

He could not forget how Natalia was ready to marry Eric and gave his children another man's name when he was still alive.

He slowly turned his head toward Natalia, who was staring at the children with wide eyes.

Adrian growled at her and said,

"They are my children!"

Natalia's POV

I was feeling horrified. How did the spell of the years break just by one growl?

I could see Aria got his father's eyes, and Noali got mine. They had no idea what was going on there.

For the sake of protecting them, my mother tucked them behind her. They peeked at the fight to look at it clearly.

I assumed it was the other pack's fighters who tried to attack my family; that was why they came out of the pack.

But why didn't they run away from the back door?

There were so many questions that captured my mind. However, when I heard Adrian's another angry growl, it shook me a little.

"They are my children!"

I realized that he had finally learned the truth. What should I do now?

When I glanced at him, I saw nothing except pure hostility directed against me, which had not been present there a while ago.

He made a turn toward my children and began to sprint in their direction.

I was shocked. There was no way I would let him get my children.

I had the intention of going after him, but at the same time, Alpha Leo appeared to stand in my way.

"I wanted to make you my Luna, but you and your brother rejected my proposal. What will you do with your giant wolf without any grace? It's useless now

I shifted my attention over to Alpha Leo. I could see that he had changed his weapon, and now he was pulling out a stake made of silver.

The moment he raised his hand to stab me, I bit his leg. He immediately shifted to rescue himself.

In my rage, I tore his leg away from his body and ripped it apart.

I tried to shove him away from my mother. She was afraid that Adrian would kill her. My father was growling from a little distance since he was fighting with another wolf.

"I will kill you if you won't let them go," I warned him loudly in the mind links.

It was not the link that connected us to our mate bond; rather, it was the link that allowed everyone to hear me.

Adrian's eyes were piercing at me.

Both of my twins were trembling with terror. They had never seen my wolf form before. However, they realized who I was and came over to hug my legs

"Mommy," Aria and Noah both said in unison.

As I looked around me, I only found Adrian's pack fighters and his officials.

I had no other choice but to attack Adrian. I could not let him win.

I shoved my children and jumped on Adrian. He did not expect me to attack him suddenly.

Our bodies rolled on the ground as I tried to bite him.

He, on the other hand, did not give me a chance to hurt him this time.

To my surprise, he shut down all the links as if he were done listening to everyone.

His red eyes were declaring that he was not pleased with learning the truth.

I stared into his eyes after I stopped attacking him.

"Natalia! Save your brother!"

I heard my mother's piercing scream in our mind link. I heard my father's growl when his body was shoved to the ground.

I turned in Jason's direction and saw Alpha Leo had already stabbed another stake in Jason's other leg using his mouth. Jason was senseless on the ground.

Even after losing one leg, Alpha Leo was limping, preparing to bite Jason's neck to kill him.

No one around him was trying to help Jason. Only Eric was trying to move toward Jason with all of his strengths in his body.

I froze there. I was too shocked to react at that moment.

I felt my body shove to the ground. Adrian got to his feet and jerked his body. I did not waste my time and began to run toward Jason before him.

I could not let Alpha Leo kill my brother. I would have to kill Leo to keep the pack under our name.

Since Jason was not too far away, I made an effort to speed up.

However, before me, Adrian jumped on Alpha Leo.

My feet screeched on the ground with a harsh sound as I saw Adrian biting Alpha Leo. He harshly broke his other three legs one by one.

At that moment, Adrian looked like a scary beast. It looked like he had lost control over him and put all of his anger into killing Leo.

Leo was begging him to let him go. But Adrian did not listen to him for once.

Lastly, he bit his neck and ripped it off his body.

Alpha Leo's head rolled down and stopped in front of my feet.

I stared at his gray wolf's head; tears were in his eyes, and his tongue came out of his mouth while he was dying.

With a trembling heart, I turned my head toward Adrian, who stared at Jason.

"Is he thinking of killing him?" I mumbled in my head but forgot that all the mind links were open.

"H— He didn't come here to attack our pack; rather, he came here to lend us a helping hand, just like he proposed in the deal. But we chose the wrong Alpha heard Eric's

The astonishment caused my eyes to widen. While I was staring at Adrian, tears began to jumble up in my eyes.

I glanced at his body. I didn't even know how many wounds I had caused him.

I misunderstood him? He actually came to save us?

But this was not the end of it. Everything changed from then on.

Jason had been defeated since he could not save his pack fighters or protect his pack due to his illness.

By killing Alpha Leo, Adrian ended up winning the war. He did not only win the Blue Blood Pack but also Alpha Leo's Pack as well.

I took a step back when Adrian howled loudly while looking at the sky. After him, so many howls echoed throughout the forest, which indicated that a gre

While talking, the doctor paused in the middle when he realized that Jason was not the head Alpha anymore.

He cleared his throat and continued. “I cleaned Alpha Jason’s wounds and dressed them. But I need to test the poisons before finding the cure.”

I looked at Jason’s body, which was covered by a blanket. The rage inside me began to rise once again. I should have killed Alpha Leo with my hands. H

I was about to step out of the room when my father spoke out from behind.

“Though his intention was to help us while crossing the border, it was your brother who declared war against the Crystal Blood Pack.”

I was stunned. How could I forget that? Jason indeed declared war against Adrian before leaving the pack house!

It was a clear indication that he also could not believe Eric’s words.

Eric slowly nodded his head in reply. Though I was still in a state of shock, I could not ignore his broken body.

As Eric sat on the couch beside my babies, he glanced at them.

My attention returned to them. I did not know what to do. I was in a mess right now.

“Eric, my dear, can you tell us everything clearly?” My mother asked him, looking desperate to know why Jason had decided to do such a big thing.

Being submitted to any Alpha during the war meant giving up the position of the head Alpha to him.

I believed he would wake up soon, and we returned to our golden days again.

Everyone was silent. No one had any words to speak or say anything about this matter.

My father sighed as he muttered, "He maybe wants to save us from Alpha Leo's attack. That's why he gave in."

I only listened to him. I did not have any opinion about this matter. The fact was that, now, the head Alpha of this pack was Adrian. It was the only thing ro

I slowly shifted my gaze to my children. I had already lost my pack. I could not lose my babies.

"Mom? Dad? What will I do now? Adrian has learned the truth. He will not keep quiet. He will do something."

My mother approached me and pulled me into her embrace. My eyes welled up with tears as I hugged her. "Why didn't you both run away from the back

I was not telling them that it was their fault. But the door was there to save themselves. What if any of them lost their lives in the war?

My mother broke the hug and looked at me. "Natalia, Alpha Leo's wolves had attacked our pack house from the back door."

I was shocked. "What? How did they get to know about it?"

My father walked to me and placed his hand on my head. I looked at him with teary eyes.

"We tried to save your children from any harm. I even told your mother to escape. But right at that moment, they broke in from the back door. It was like

I was confused. "But dad, only we knew about the door. Without Alpha's family and his officials, no one was aware of the door."

"Maybe Alpha Leo checked the pack house when he came here for the pack meeting," our theta spoke out.

It was possible. I sat on the bed hopelessly. I had no idea how things would go from here.

"But, Natalia, why did you come to the war? Didn't Jason tell you not to come outside?" Eric asked me.

I turned my head toward him. “Why did Jason forbid the guards to give me any information?”

“It was because of your safety.”

“He shouldn’t have done that. I could have helped him in the war. It’s good that our Gamma informed me about it.

“Gamma?” Eric muttered, frowning at me.

My brows lifted in question. “Yeah. He contacted me in mind link and told me that Jason’s life was in danger.

Eric’s expression changed after hearing me. “Why did he say that to you?”

I could not understand his question. “He told me that I should inform Dad to join the war to save Jason. That’s why I entered the war.”

“But if he wanted me on the battlefield, why didn’t he contact me directly” my father asked.

He was right. He could have contacted my father directly. Why did he link his mind with mine?

Something hit my mind as I rose up from the bed with a shocked face.

I immediately turned to Eric and asked,

“Where is our Gamma? I hadn’t seen him during the war. Why didn’t he try to save his Alpha when Alpha Leo was attacking him?”
