

Taking Alpha's Twins Away After Divorce

Chapter 351

I looked at him with a shocked expression on my face. How could he say that? How would I stay with him in the same room? How would it be possible?

“Have you lost your mind?” I muttered under my breath,

“Is there any problem?” Amanda asked with a nervous tone.

To my surprise, Adrian came up to me and whispered,

“This woman had never asked for a vacation in so many years. She is our children’s maid now. Will you break her heart by sending her back to my house?”

“But-”

“Try to understand. She will sleep with them and be with them all the time.”

I gave him a glare. It was his fault. Why did he call her here? He could make arrangements for her to spend her best vacation with her family rather than with us, and she could take care of them in the pack house.

I doubted that he did everything intentionally.

I proceeded to walk to the door after saying, “I am not going to stay in this suit.”

“There is no other hotel in this area. You have to go very far and then you can get some resorts. If you stay there, you will have a difficult time catching up with us.”

I clenched my jaw in rage. “Then why didn’t you book one of those resorts instead of this hotel?”

hey are not safe for my children. That’s why I chose this hotel,” Adrian replied with a calm tone.

I felt like slapping myself. Why did I even agree to come in the first place? No matter what happened, I should have known that I could never have faith in this man.

“Luna, if you have problems with rooms, then I can leave,” Amanda spoke out.

I turned around and looked at her. She was a very caring person. When I did not have anyone by my side, she was always there for me at Adrian's house. So, looking at her upset and concerned expression made me feel terrible.

Tam n

not your Luna. Please call me Natalia," I told her with a soft tone.

"What is the point of forcing someone? She can call whatever she wan-*

I looked at Adrian, and he paused speaking. He rolled his eyes and murmured,

"Do whatever you want."

He started walking towards the door of the other room and said,

"I am guessing you came here for yourself, not for Aria and Noah. You can not even spend a few nights in a room for their happiness."

He opened the door and said, "Look, there is a big couch too. We can adjust. But again, it's your choice. I can compromise because I love my kids more than myself."

After giving me a long lecture, he entered the room and closed the door.

Amanda approached me and took both of my hands in hers.

"My dear, you can sleep with your kids. I can leave. I should not disturb you four on your vacation."

I shook my head as I considered Adrian's words.

"It's okay. Let me see what I can do. You can stay with them."

She

said nothing else and simply nodded at me. I noticed her heading to my children's room. I walked over to grab my luggage and looked at the door, where Adrian had just entered.

I bit my lower lip with a confused mind. After waiting for some time, I finally arrived at the conclusion, and then I went to the door and opened it.

I saw Adrian arranging his clothes in a closet.

“Oh, you have finally reached a decision? That is good. You chose the right thing,” he spoke out without even looking at me.

Instead of paying attention to him, I looked around the bedroom. My eyes fell on the couch, and I said,

“Adrian Miller, you are going to sleep on the couch.”

P

Chapter 352

Adrian frowned at me as he approached in my direction

“What did you just say?” he asked me, standing in front of me.

“Are you deaf? I said you would sleep on the couch.”

He scoffed at me. It caused me to glare at him. “Weren’t you the one who said this room has a couch, and you could adjust?”

He cocked his head to the side and lowered himself to my level. “So? I didn’t say I would sleep on the couch.”

I folded my hands against my chest. “So you don’t want me to sleep on the couch?”

“Can’t you see the king-size bed? They arranged the bed only for me but I have no problem sharing it with you. When I said we have to share a bedroom, I guess you didn’t hear the bed.”

I parted my lips in shock. This man and his sassy responses were on the verge of killing me on the inside.

I tightened my fists and turned to the door. “Fine. You don’t want to sleep on the couch? I am leaving then.

He grabbed my hand and turned me around. I gasped when he closed the door and pressed me against it.

“Stop blackmailing me, baby. You know I can’t let you go,” he muttered as his warm breath touched my face.

I became as still as a stone. A sneering laugh came out of his mouth as he looked at my face.

“This look suits you better than your angry look. But since it’s you, I like everything about you.”

When he placed two of his hands next to my head, I was brought back to my senses after being distracted.

“It is not even an hour yet, and you have already begun to show your true colors?” I asked him angrily.

“Yes,” he replied, nodding his head.

“What the hell! Move away from me.”

From beneath his arms, I quickly stepped aside and flew away from him in a hurry. He lowered his head as I rushed to the other side.

Sneering at him, I said, “You can never cage me.”

He gave me a smirk. “I swear I can. But right now, I am not in the mood. It’s time for dinner. My children. are hungry, as well as my baby.”

y man.”

I pointed my finger at him with a furious look. “Stop calling me that. I am not your baby, you crazy

He grinned at me like a fool. “Crazy man? Did you give me a lovely nickname? I like it. How sweet of you, baby.”

My eyes widened in response to his words. “How shameless you are, Adrian Miller!”

“Very shameless.”

“Shut up.”

“Oh, I can’t believe how I will pass the three days. Even your scoldings are so sweet, just like...”

He took a pause before walking toward me. He whispered loudly into my ears as he leaned in close.

“You.”

I blinked my eyes and pushed him. “Stay away.”

“Or what are you going to do? I haven’t even done anything yet.”

“I know, what you want. I am no longer interested in continuing to be on this vacation. I am going to leave. I will spend time with them later.”

After uttering these words, I proceeded to the door. To my surprise, Adrian spoke up just as I was about to open the door.

“Calm down. I was only teasing you. I will sleep on the couch, only for you.”

get it

I turned around and saw Adrian pulling out his clothes from the closet and making his way to the bathroom. I heaved a sigh and then went to the closet to place my clothes inside.

After a while, the door to the bathroom opened. I turned around and saw Adrian in casual clothes.

He was wearing gray sweatpants and a black t-shirt. I realized I was seeing him in casual clothes after a very long time.

While he was using a towel to dry his wet hair, he made his way to the dressing table. He looked at himself in the mirror while wiping his hair.

I was curious about when he started to give so much attention to his looks. I had never before witnessed him paying such close attention to the mirror. In the past, he was a workaholic who never stopped burying himself in his work. Perhaps she did not know much about him because he did not return home very often. “Am I so handsome that you can not tear your gaze away from me?”

I looked away when I heard his arrogant words. I could not help but mock him.

“Oh, come on. My boyfriend is far more handsome than your ugly face.”

His hands froze on the towel. He turned his head in my direction and inquired, “Your boyfriend is more handsome than me? Nice joke.

He gave a slight roll of his eyes and then started to wipe his hair once more. I laughed because of his overconfidence.

Adrian was a really handsome man, and that was why women were after him. However, a man's heart was what made him a good person; his handsome facial features were not enough to redeem him. He had a black heart, which I loathed the most.

"I don't know about other women, but for me, my boyfriend is my prince."

I had a feeling that it would bring down his haughtiness. That was why I said that to him.

When Adrian returned his gaze at me with a poker face, I turned around and went to the bathroom, clutching a dress and a towel. I walked to the bathroom while smirking.

I changed into a long night dress after washing up. I walked out of the bathroom only to find an empty room.

When I took a quick look at the clock, I noticed that it was already getting late for dinner.

I could hear some sounds coming from the outside. As if someone were shattering a plate of glasses, it was terrifying.

Fearing that something had happened to my children, hurriedly went outside to check on them.

However, when I opened the door, I saw my children and Adrian sitting at the table. What caught my attention was what they were doing.

Three of them made noises by tapping the spoons on their plates.

Aria and Noah were chanting like a song.

"Mommy, we are hungry."

"What happened?" I asked, walking towards them.

Adrian stopped tapping the spoon on the plate like a good boy and gave me a sheepish smile.

"Nothing. They were just waiting for you," he replied.

I stared at him with surprise. It was as if Adrian turned into a child with his children.

But then he winked at me and said,

“Daddy was also waiting for you, baby. Come, join us for dinner.”

#Chapter 354

Chapter 354

I was about to scold Adrian but prevented myself when I saw Amanda walking out of the kitchen with dishes.

A smile appeared on her face as she set the table. I glanced over at her and smiled briefly before taking a seat next to Noah, two seats away from Adrian.

“Mommy, sit with dad.”

I was confused. Did Adrian teach them to say these things? They were showing a lot of support for their father around these days.

I shook my head and got up from the chair I was sitting in. I walked over to the chair next to Adrian and sat down beside him.

When I saw my children smiling, it helped me to relax

‘I should not forget that I came here for them,’ I reminded myself.

After Amanda had served us, we started eating. I turned my attention to Amana and said,

“Come sit down with us at the table.”

The moment she heard that, her eyes widened, and she immediately shook her head. “No, I can’t. How can I sit at the same table with Alpha?”

I could tell that she had a great deal of respect for Adrian. Because Adrian was the leader of the pack,” there was also a law that we had to follow.

I turned to Adrian. He had just put a spoonful of food in his mouth when he noticed my gaze and paused.

“Tell her to sit with us.”

He was in that state for a few seconds, then pulled the empty spoon out of his mouth. He looked at Amanda, who was bowing to him.

He cast a glance at me. I signaled him to say that.

He uttered before clearing his throat,

“You are welcome to join us for dinner tonight. Take a seat, Amanda.”

Amanda’s eyes widened as she raised her head to look at Adrian,

Her eyes turned blurry, as if she got emotional. With a grin on my face, I said,

“It is just fine, Amanda. You are just like his mother. You have looked after him since he was a child.”

Taking her time, she carefully retrieved a chair and sat down next to Noah.

Aria and Noah grinned as if it were the best dinner for them.

“We are so happy. Mommy and Dad are both here with us. This is not the same as the previous dinner. It’s a good time,” Arla mumbled to Noah.

I overheard them and understood they were talking about Max. But before I could say anything, Adrian. said to them,

+IS BONUS

“Don’t worry, your dad will make your dinner full of happiness like this.”

I kissed my children on the cheeks and bid them goodnight after we had finished eating dinner together. They went to their room with Amanda to sleep while I went to my and Adrian’s room.

I walked to the bed while eyeing the empty couch. Adrian had not come to the room yet since he was talking on the phone outside.

Before sitting down on the bed with my back against the headboard, I made sure that all of the lights were turned off. I then grabbed my phone.

I was nervous about how I would talk to Max about staying with Adrian. I had no intention of deceiving him in any way, I tried to call Max, but he did not pick up the phone, so I laid down on the bed to sleep.

After some time, the door slightly opened, and Adrian entered the room. He thought I was sleeping so he did not make any noise.

As he approached the bed on the opposite side, he grabbed a pillow and then proceeded to the couch in order to sleep.

At that time, my phone began to ring.

reached for my phone on the nightstand and saw that it was Max on the other end.

Taking a quick glance at the couch where Adrian had gone to sleep, I picked up the phone and answered,

1. it.

“Max.”

Chapter 355

“Did you get there safely?” Max questioned me as soon as I spoke.

I smiled while staring at the ceiling. Due to the moonlight that was coming in through the window, I was able to see the ceiling.

“Yes, I arrived here safely. What are you doing?”

“Nothing much. I don’t know how everything suddenly messed up.”

I frowned when I heard him. “Why?”

“I told you that there was some work that came up. Alpha told me to accompany him in another pack. Now I have to depart from my pack and go to another pack.”

“Why so suddenly?” I asked in confusion.

“I have no idea, Natalia. The other pack’s Alpha called me to meet with him. Maybe he has some health issues.”

I could tell he was tired. I remained silent for a while.

“Are you still on the phone, or did you fall asleep?”

“I am listening.”

As I mumbled that, I noticed Adrian getting up from the couch.

He walked toward the door, opened it, and then exited the room with the door slammed shut.

I flinched at the loud sound. Since the room was silent. Max also heard it.

“Are you okay? What’s that sound?”

I stared at the door and murmured,

“Adrian closed the door.”

“Adrian? What is he doing there?”

I realized what I had just said. I bit my bottom lip, thinking about how I would tell him about it.

“He joined us,” I replied in a low tone.

“What are you saying, Natalia? Why is he there? If he did something to you, then-”

“Just relax, Max. He can’t do anything to me. I am strong enough to beat him.”

Max took a brief pause. I sighed as I realized that I could not tell him that I was sharing a room with Adrian

Max would get upset and ask me to leave right away, which I did not want. I came here to give my children my time. I did not want to go back right now.

“What was he doing in your room?” he questioned me with a calm tone.

“He must have forgotten something, as he took it and left. Don’t worry, I will take care of myself.”

As I talked to Max for a while, I noticed Adrian returned to the room.

As soon as he noticed that I was still talking on my phone, he approached me at that moment.

“I will try to get back to the Crystal Blood Pack as soon as possible,” Max told me.

“Yeah, Max. Come back saf-”

Adrian snatched my phone and cut the call.

His actions left me in a state of shock.

“What’s wrong with you?” I said this as I was about to sit up on the bed.

But he pressed his hand on my mouth and leaned down to look into my eyes.

“It’s late at night. Stop talking on the phone and let me sleep peacefully. You are here to spend your time with your children, not with your boyfriend.”

I tried to move him, but he just leaned closer to my ear and whispered,

“Just sleep, okay? I can’t see you talking with another man.”

Chapter 356

I pushed Adrian’s hand away from my lips. I tried to sit up but got hurt when my forehead bumped into his.

“Ugh!”

He immediately moved back, and I sat up.

He sat beside me on the edge of the bed and rubbed my forehead. “Oh, oh, I’m so sorry. I didn’t know you would get hurt.”

I glared at him under the slight light of the moonlight. could not see his expression.

I pushed his hand. “Go away.”

‘Let me see.’

“Don’t touch me. Keep your distance from me.”

“I was jus-”

*No, go back to your couch.”

“But-

“Now.”

I pointed him to the couch. He heaved a sigh and then returned to his couch.

I lay on the bed and muttered,

*This man came here just to disturb me, huh!”

I said it loudly so he would hear me. I then sent a message to Max that I was getting sleepy. He told me to sleep well.

The following morning, the hotel organized a tour package for us because it had been pre-arranged with the hotel reservation. Amanda remained inside the hotel while the four of us went outside. She said she felt a little sick and wanted to stay.

I did not force her because it was a matter of health.

very

Our destination was a flower garden where every kind of flower was there. Aria and Noah were ve delighted. They took a lot of pictures with me and Adrian.

When I saw Adrian carrying Aria on his neck, I laughed and walked ahead, with Noah holding my hand.

Adrian seemed to know how to look after children. I never imagined he could be so good when it came to kids.

After we had finished our tour of the expansive garden, we noticed that there were a few old women. selling roses outside of the garden.

“Buy a rose for the love of your life. Rose is the symbol of love,” they said to the tourists, Adrian set Aria down and came to a stop next to a woman.

She gazed at him with a gleaming expression on her face. Her eyes met mine as she smiled. The children caught her attention, and she nodded her head.

“I can tell that you are having a wonderful time with your wife and your children.”

I was taken aback. I knew it looked like we were a couple, but that was not the case.

“No, we are no-”

“You are right. I love my wife a lot. Give me a rose that can express my feelings to her in a better way.”

I was stunned. My children beamed as if they had won a lottery.

“Yesss! Dad just confessed to Mommy.”

I looked at them with wide eyes. Where did they learn these things?

“Aria, Noah, keep quiet,” I said to them.

They lowered their heads and whispered something to each other. I wondered what was going through their heads.

As soon as I turned my head, I saw a beautiful and fresh rose. Adrian was holding it right in front of me.

“This is for you.”

I glared at him, not caring about what others might think of my behavior.

The old woman chuckled and said,

“I see. Your wife is mad at you, which is why you take her on a vacation. I hope you can break her anger soon.”

Chapter 357

Third POV

“Accept it.”

“Accept it.”

“Accept it.”

“Mommy, please accept the rose.

“Yes, Mommy.”

As couples around them gathered and cheered for accepting the rose, Aria and Noah also requested their mother.

Natalia looked around her and felt that she would have to accept the rose from Adrian even if she did not want to. Otherwise, it would create a scene.

She wanted to leave the place as soon as possible because now people were paying attention to them. If someone recognized Adrian, she believed that they would post it on social media, and everything would spread like wildfire as new rumors, which was something that she did not want at all.

She turned her gaze to Adrian, who was looking at her with a pair of eyes that were filled with hope.

She looked away from him and quickly snatched the rose from his hand.

Everyone clapped their hands together in unison after seeing that. Adrian smiled at Natalia and thanked the old woman.

The old woman glanced over at Natalia and gave him a slight nod of her head.

“Your husband looks mature to me, but this young man is deeply in love with you. I can see that in his eyes. You have my blessings with you, my child.”

Natalia averted her gaze without saying anything. She looked at her children and said,

“Let’s go, kids. We should head back to the hotel right now.”

Aria and Noah were happy and did not disagree. Noah grabbed her hand and replied,

“Let’s go, Mommy.”

Adrian took Aria’s hand, and the four of them resumed walking

The whole way back to the hotel, Natalia did not talk to anyone. All the while, Adrian kept glancing at her. What caused his mood to lighten up was that she did not throw his flower today.

He believed that he was beginning to slowly melt her heart.

It was the time of midnight,

Everyone was sleeping in their rooms. Natalia woke up because she felt thirsty. The next thing she did. was go to the kitchen and get a glass of water.

When she returned to her bedroom, she noticed Adrian trying to move his body left and right. But the couch was not as big as his height. His legs were bent as he slept on it.

She walked toward him as she was observing him. She came to a halt in front of the couch. With great attention, she looked at Adrian. The moonlight was coming through the window, falling directly on him. She noticed the blanket fell on the floor from his body. He was really having trouble sleeping on the couch. She did not know why she wanted to do that, but she kneeled down and grasped the blanket. She covered his body with it.

She noticed a frown between his brown eyes. She recalled how she used to look at him in the past whenever he fell asleep. She used to think her husband was the most handsome man in the world. So, looking at him was a blissful thing for her.

She let out a sigh as she realized how quickly time passed and how fate had altered her and her life. This man was not hers, and she did not even want to be with him in her life ever again.

She stood up and turned around to go back to bed.

However, a hand grabbed her wrist, stopping her.

She paused and immediately turned to look at the hand that was holding her wrist.

She looked at Adrian and saw that his eyes were opened.

“You were awake?”

Without replying to her, Adrian pulled her hand, and she immediately fell on him.

Chapter 358

In the moment that Natalia’s body landed on Adrian, he turned his gaze to Natalia. Her face hid on his neck as if she were still shocked by the pull, and she did not move at all. He could feel the warmth of her body. He sensed something when her breasts were pressed up against him.

He tilted his head and whispered in her ear,

“Are you seducing me, baby?”

Natalia came back to her senses when she heard him. His deep voice, as well as the way her body felt against him, caused goosebumps to appear all over her body.

She placed her hands on his chest and moved up to look at him. She had an angry face as she asked,

“How dare you say that?”

His eyes moved slowly downward until they stopped on her chest. When Natalia lowered her head, she realized that her cleavage was exposed. Almost half of her breasts were visible in front of him since the night dress moved with the pull.

“Pervert!”

She tried to get away from his body, but a pair of hands wrapped around her waist prevented her from moving.

“Pervert? Me? You did not wear anything inside while attempting to seduce me, and you are calling me a pervert. That’s so unfair, baby.”

His sassy and seductive tone took her off guard. She tried to move away from him, but he shifted his hand on her upper back and pulled her closer.

Her nose brushed against hers, which caught her breath. She blinked her eyes while looking at him.

“I will kill you if you don’t leave me right now, Adrian.”

“I want to die in your hands. Will it make you happy?” He asked, moving his hand to cup her cheek.

Natalia glared at him, wondering if he could see her furious expression.

Adrian did not mind her mad look. Instead, he stared at her. The allure of her beauty captivated him. He had a wish to hold this woman in his arms once again. Tonight, he was holding her. He did not want to let her go anymore.

‘Leave m-

Adrian interrupted her by turning their bodies on the couch. He pinned her down on the couch and looked at her.

Tell me, how can I make you believe that I love you? Why do you misunderstand my every approach, huh?

His soft yet seductive tone froze Natalia. He did not let her feel the weight of his body since he put all of his pressure on his knees.

While holding her waist with one hand and cupping her cheek with another, he moved close to her.

+15 DONUS

“I have no bad intentions towards you. I only want my woman, my wife, and my mate back. Is it wrong to want that? Why am I not allowed to fix everything I have done in the past? Why can't you just forgive me for once?”

Natalia was stunned by his words. She looked away from him and said,

“You already know I have a boyfriend. Stop getting so close to m—mmmnnn.”

Adrian did not wait for her to finish speaking before he leaned in close and pressed his lips against hers.

Chapter 359

As soon as Natalia felt his lips on hers, her eyes widened. He moved his lips slowly over hers as he kissed her. His lips captured her bottom lip and sucked, Adrian was mesmerized by her soft lips and the sweet scent emanating from her body. Instead of giving her a hard kiss, he gave her a soft, delicate kiss. His hands rose up her body from her waist to her face.

He cupped her cheeks with both of his hands and kissed her deeply.

It was what he had been missing all the time. He could kiss her for the entire night. She was his woman, He wanted to keep her safe in his arms. He did not mind how much she remained angry with him; he believed he deserved her anger.

However, he wanted to express his madness toward her, He loved her passionately, and he wanted to express it through his kisses.

He licked her soft lips, flipped his tongue, and tried to push it into her mouth. He was longing for the taste of her mouth. He missed the way he made the woman breathless with his kisses.

As his tongue was about to enter her mouth, he felt a sharp pain in his mouth. He felt blood in his mouth.

He hissed as he broke the kiss and looked at Natalia.

She looked at him with cold eyes. She had just bit his tongue when she realized he had nearly caused her to lose control of her wolf with the kiss.

As soon as Adrian saw the icy look in her eyes, he felt a pang in his heart. To put a stop to the bleeding, he sucked his tongue.

“You actually planned all of these to sleep with me, didn’t you?” she asked with a tone that was cold and icy.

Her words caused his heart to tremble. It caused his eyes to cloud over rather than shine brightly.

“You think I wanted to sleep with you?” he asked.

She pushed him really hard. The force of her push caused him to freeze. After moving back, he sat up on the couch.

Natalia hurriedly got up from the couch and stood up.

“I just want to slap you right now. How dare you kiss me?” she asked with a furious tone, pulling her dress up to her chest and fixing it.

Adrian looked at her. He was able to observe her face becoming more ferocious, as if she intended to kill him at this very moment.

His thoughts of how much this woman repulsed him caused him to feel pain.

Such a shame!

He could not make his woman feel good for a moment.

He lowered his head and mumbled something under his breath.

“I am sorry, I was just lost...”

“Lost in what? Lust? You only know one thing, and that is how to end up in bed. I can’t expect anything else from you. You know I am happy with my relationship, then why are you after me to ruin my happy life?”

He shook his head as he met her gaze. He did not speak but only stared at her angry face.

She pointed her finger at him and mumbled furiously.

“Because of you, I am feeling guilty right now. I just cheated on my boyfriend and let another man kiss me. I just hate you more now.”

Adrian stood up, and she took a step back. She was surprised when he grabbed her hand and pulled her closer to him.

“Your relationship with another man is not valid to me,

Chapter 360

She pushed his chest, which caused him to move backward. He came dangerously close to falling onto the couch, but he managed to keep his balance.

“Not valid? Do you think I need to give you any validation? Who are you to me? Are you my husband? No, Adrian Miller. You are no longer anyone to me. Keep it in your mind as soon as possible.”

Adrian bit his tongue in anger. His tongue’s blood, which had previously stopped, began to rush out again.

“There is no reason for you to feel guilty if you are thinking that you are cheating on someone. Your destiny has chosen you to be with me. So if you are cheating on someone, then it is on me. I am your mate. So before you even consider any other man in your life, you need to give some thought to me. There is no other relationship in this world that can compare to the validity of this mate bond.”

With a glare in his direction, Natalia took a step forward.

“What did you just say? I am cheating on you and the mate bond? Then what were you doing with Mila all these years?” 4

“I didn’t know you were my mate.”

“And what about the two years of marriage?”

“I mistook you for a wicked person. It was my fault, and I want to make everything right. But you are not giving it to me.”

She snorted in response to his statements. “Make everything right? How? By giving me a kiss? Do you think a kiss and a few nights in bed will make me forget all the years I have suffered for you? You must be kidding, Adrian Miller.”

Adrian clenched his jaw. He was mad at himself. He wanted to be with Natalia. But every time he tried to get closer to her, she reminded him of his sins from the past.

He took a deep breath before lowering his head. “You were the one who said to love someone daringly.” “I did not expect you to apply all of this to me like a scripted drama. I am not a fool, Adrian. A man can never force himself on the woman he loves. Then it was not love but only lust.”

He shut his eyes in pain in his chest. Her every word caused it to hurt inside.

“I really love you, Natalia. I lost you once. I don’t want to let you go this time. I had no intention of having sex with you by trapping you here; all I wanted was to see you sleeping, stare at your beautiful face, and watch you every day.”

He opened his eyes and lifted his head to meet her emotionless eyes.

“I just wanted to experience the married life I had missed all these years. I wanted to be with the woman! love and my children all together. I am sorry if I hurt you by planning this. But I don’t want you to leave my life again.”

Chapter 361

Natalia rubbed her forehead as she made her way to the door.

“I can’t sleep here anymore. My ears can’t take your nonsense. All I can say is I hate your touch and your kiss. That’s disgusting!”

In response to her words, which struck him like arrows in the chest, Adrian clenched his fist. He walked forward and reached the door before her.

She paused when he opened the door before her. He turned his head to look at her and said,

“You can sleep in this room peacefully. I won’t disturb you again.”

Saying that, he turned to the door. As he stepped out of the room, something came to his mind, so he turned to look at her once again.

She was looking at her indifferently.

“Please accept my apologies if the kiss was offensive to you.”

With her arms crossed over her chest, Natalia uttered,

“All these dramas of yours—when will you stop all of this? A man who loves someone knows how to control himself. You will never learn that. Do you know why? Because you have never loved me. For some reason, you have made up your mind to go after the girl who rescued you. First Lynda, and now me. The quality of patience is something that is extremely valuable in a person's life. Utilize it on another girl when you are in love with someone else."

As he nodded his head in her direction, Adrian took a deep breath and swallowed it.

"I promise you, I will never touch you again without your consent."

She rubbed her lips with the back of her hand and muttered,

"This kiss was disgusting. Don't try to do that again if you want to stay alive."

She slammed the door in his face after she had finished saying whatever came to her mind at the time to humiliate him.

Adrian turned around and lea

He did not show her how upset he was It was not until she shut the door that The pain became apparent on his face. He was experiencing excruciating pain in his heart

It was not his ego that was hurt, but rather his heart that was burned by the way she looked disgusted by his touch and kiss

"What can I do to make you understand that I regret not loving you back during those two years? How can I make you love me again?" He muttered under his breath.

He did not lose his patience despite the fact that she had the ability to hurt him with her harsh words and her cold behavior toward him. He thought maybe he should have not kissed her like that. He scolded himself for kissing her without her permission.

When he realized that Natalia had experienced the same feelings in the past when he had behaved rudely with her, he let out a sigh of defeat.

He proceeded to the balcony and stood near the railings. He looked at the bright moon that was about to disappear behind the cloud.

Fate is unpredictable. Can it ever bring my mate and my lost love back to me?"

Chapter 362

Natalia woke up late today. It was because she did not get enough sleep last night. She was mad at herself for approaching Adrian in the first place. She prayed that the day would pass quickly so that she could return home tomorrow.

Amanda knocked on the door when Natalia had just come out of the bathroom after taking a shower.

She opened the door and looked at Amanda.

Amanda was carrying a tray of food.

“You skipped breakfast. As it is already noon, I came with brunch.”

Natalia glanced at the tray as she observed the dishes. She stepped aside to allow Amanda to enter.

As Amanda made her way to the bed to place the tray, Natalia asked her,

“What are Aria and Noah doing?”

After placing the tray on the bed, Amanda turned to her and responded,

“They are playing inside their rooms. Alpha called me to take the children into a kids zone. In fact, he sent his guards as well.”

Natalia raised a brow. “Why can’t I go with them?”

Amanda chuckled as she replied,

“Of course, you can.”

Suddenly, she frowned as a question crossed her mind.

“Did you talk to him? Where is he?”

Amanda looked at Natalia carefully, trying to understand her feelings for her Alpha.

“Luna, you still care for Alpha, don’t you?”

Natalia’s brows lifted as she looked away and said,

“No, I wasn’t asking for that. I was just asking for protection.”

Amanda lowered her head. “He left the hotel early in the morning. When I woke up, I saw him standing on the balcony, smoking. Many cigarette buds on the floor came to my attention, and I understood that he did not sleep last night.”

Natalia was stunned. 'Did he spend the entire night on the balcony?' she wondered.

"That is not what I should be concerned about, Amanda," Natalia responded, realizing what she was thinking.

"Before leaving, Alpha instructed me not to disturb you or disrupt your sleep, so I did not knock on the door early in the morning. Please now eat something."

Natalia thought for a second, then said, "Amanda, I will go with all of you."

"Are you sure?" Amanda asked her carefully.

"Yeah. I came here to spend time with my children rather than staying in a hotel and sleeping."

Amanda nodded her head in agreement. Natalia finished her meals quickly and changed into a dress to spend the entire day with her children.

The day went really well. Natalia was overjoyed and felt as if she had returned to her previous life in the Blue Blood Pack. There, she used to go out with her children, and no one was there to recognize her. She could spend as much time with them as they wanted, and there was no one to interrupt or separate them from her.

She wished to get back to her old life.

She attempted to contact Max, but his phone was turned off, indicating that he was in flight to a pack far away from his own.

Natalia returned to the hotel with her children and Amanda at night after dinner.

When she entered the bedroom, she noticed Adrian had not yet returned to the hotel.

She ignored it and changed into her nightgown. She scolded herself for packing nightgowns instead of long pajamas. It was not her fault. She thought it would be just her and her kids. Little did she know, Adrian would be here with them and was going to share the same bedroom with her.

After changing her clothes, she went to bed. She tried but was unable to sleep.

She opened her eyes when she heard the sound of thunder outside. She noticed the black clouds in the sky as she turned to look out the window.

She sat up and got out of bed. To check on her kids, she got out of her room. They were sleeping on the bed while Amanda was sleeping on the couch.

'I could have slept with them in bed. Why did Amanda say she would share the bed with the kids?' she thought.

She slowly shut the door and walked to the balcony. Soon, it was going to start pouring. She closed her eyes to feel the wind but frowned when she felt something.

Her lips trembled as she felt pain in her lower abdomen. Strange sensations started to arise inside her, causing her eyes to become cloudy.

"I am in heat!"

Chapter 363

Natalia was losing her mind with every passing second. She could not understand what to do. She did not bring the cure for the heat with her. Despite the fact that she was standing on the balcony and in the midst of a chilly breeze, she started to experience a sensation of heat, and her body began to sweat

"Ahh!"

She let out a low moan as she tried to close her legs tightly. Her entire body and her wolf only desired to mate with an alpha wolf.

The lust that she felt within her began to intensify. As soon as she felt a few drops of rain falling on her, she promptly retreated a few steps. As she raised her head, she noticed that the rain began to pour.

She decided to go back to her room. The sensation of her lower abdomen caused her eyes to well up with tears.

When she felt the pain, she clenched her dress tightly around her belly and closed her eyes.

She shook her head as rain fell inside the balcony and over her.

Under the rain, she could not move. Her jaw was clenched tightly, and she grabbed the railing with all her might in an effort to exert control over herself.

She thought that the chilly rain might make her desire less intense. But she was wrong. The scent of rain was making her crazy, as if it were the best weather to give up herself to someone.

She closed her eyes to take a few deep breaths. She ran her finger through her wet hair and shook her head.

“No, I have to control myself,” she mumbled.

However, as she stepped back to leave the balcony, another scent entered her nostrils.

Almost immediately, her eyes turned blue. Her mouth opened slightly as she began to inhale the most enticing scent that caused her mind to go completely insane.

As soon as she turned around to get close to the scent, she froze.

“Natalia?”

Adrian was standing outside the balcony, looking at her. His hair was damp from the rain. The wet locks hid his hair on his forehead, giving him a very attractive appearance. The first two buttons on his shirt were undone, exposing his chest, which was quite fair.

She bit her lower lip as the wolf inside her howled for her to run in the direction of her mate. She desired nothing more than to be touched by Adrian.

Even though Natalia was doing everything in her power to ignore her wolf, she could not deny the fact that she was also experiencing the urge to go to this man. His handsome look made the situation worse for her. His scent was magnetic. It was almost as if it was luring her closer to him.

With a stuttering voice, she let out, “Ad–Adrian?”

Adrian frowned as he stared at her. He had not returned to the hotel for the whole day because he thought Natalia would not like his presence. He returned late, thinking she was asleep. But when he saw her teary eyes and heard her stuttering voice, he could not help but rush towards her.

He grabbed her arms and asked,

“What happened to you? Why are you crying?”

She averted her gaze from him because she was in excruciating pain. The desire to be mated with a male wolf in the heat was double for her because she was not any ordinary wolf but a giant Alpha female.

Adrian cupped her cheeks, not knowing what was wrong with her.

“Just tell me already. Don’t make worri-

He was unable to finish his sentence because a scent, which was floating in the air, came into contact with his nostrils.

His eyes turned red when he realized what the scent was. It was the smell of her pheromones.

“Fuck!”

He growled and could not stop himself anymore. He pushed her to the glass door of the balcony and smashed his lips on hers.

The kiss made her feel like she was in heaven. It was impossible for her to resist the urge to raise her hand in order to touch him. So she grabbed his shirt and pulled him closer to her body.

Chapter 364

The thunder rumbled very loudly. There was a flash of lightning that illuminated the two people who were passionately kissing each other.

Adrian kissed Natalia roughly as his hand began to touch her body.

Because his mind had been taken over by the sweet scent that emanated from her body, it was impossible for him to keep his sanity.

She was not any ordinary she-wolf, but his own mate.

Natalia did not stop him because all she wanted at that point was to be touched by him. The warmth of her mate helped to relieve the pain in her lower abdomen.

Adrian broke the kiss when she felt breathless. He looked at her face, noticing that her eyes were closed. Her head was leaning against the glass door. Her chest was moving up and down as a result of the deep breaths that she was taking.

His eyes observed her. Her hair was soaking wet. Her nightgown was stuck to her body, making him go crazy about her.

Suddenly, he recalled last night, which caused him to retrieve a few steps from her.

She slowly opened her eyes and looked at him.

Seeing her teary eyes, which were begging him to get closer to her to wreck her mercilessly, he turned around and walked to the railing, moving away from her.

He was losing his patience, but he could not do that. He had promised not to touch her without her consent. How could he touch her in her heat? It was obvious to him that she would never grant him permission and then push him later.

He tightened his fists around the railing to control his wolf.

"I want her right now," his wolf growled inside him.

He was about to deny it, but a pair of hands encircled his waist. He lowered his head and noticed Natalia rubbing her soft palm over his wet shirt. He was surprised to see her doing this.

He turned around to face her. Her head was down, and she pressed her forehead against his chest.

He grabbed her jaw and lifted it to meet her eyes.

"Woman, I don't want to hear that I am using you again. Don't make it hurt for me. You can't even count how many cold showers this Alpha has had to take for you all these years. If I release my beast tonight, it will ruin you completely."

She bit her lower lip as tears streamed down her cheeks. "I want you."

The sight of her tears was enough to loosen his grip. The change in her eyes from blue to black was a clear indication that she was the one who was speaking and not her wolf.

He cupped his hands around her cheeks and gently stroked them with his thumbs.

The rain was falling heavily on them as the night grew darker.

"I promised you that I would not touch you without your consent. I-"

She cut him off as she spoke up,

'Make me yours tonight, Adrian.'

Chapter 365

As soon as Natalia uttered those words, Adrian twisted their bodies and pressed hers against the railing.

He kissed her while tilting his head to the side. She wrapped her hands around his neck, pulling him closer.

He pressed his body against hers. She let out a moan while they were kissing, which drove him completely insane.

He took a step back, fingers running through his wet locks. His eyes were drawn to her appearance.

"You are going to be the death of me tonight," he muttered in his deep voice.

Natalia gasped when he lifted her into his arms. She wrapped her hands tightly around his neck.

She tried to bury her face in his neck, afraid her children would see her in that state.

She rubbed her nose against his neck, sniffing his scent to ease herself.

Adrian carried her into their bedroom and closed the door with his leg.

When Natalia heard the sound of the door shutting, she shifted her face away from his neck and looked at him.

He walked over to the bed and laid her down.

Her gaze focused on him. Adrian caught a glimpse of shyness in her eyes.

He smirked at her. "Don't worry, baby. You do not have to keep yourself from moaning anymore. No one can hear us from outside."

She parted her lips in surprise. She closed her legs and rubbed them together as she began to feel more wet. It caused her nightgown to lift, exposing her thighs.

What she was doing in front of him caused Adrian to growl with lust.

His heart was beating faster. She was in her heat, but he was not in his rut. However, when he saw his woman doing everything possible to seduce him, he went crazy.

The beast he had been holding captive for years awoke and took over as his lust

After slowly approaching her, he climbed onto the bed. The sight of his more sluggish steps made her feel helpless and desperate.

“Adrian, take me already.”

Her seductive words and the way she moaned his name made him lose his mind.

He wished this night would never end, and he would take her the whole night.

He grabbed her ankle and drew her to him. His touch jolted her entire body.

While looking at her, he took off his shirt. She gulped as she saw his perfect body. She wanted to ignore the claw marks she left on his chest.

Without breaking eye contact, he grabbed her right ankle and pressed it against his chest.

He began kissing the back of her foot, then moved his lips from her ankle to her knee to her thigh.

She moaned as his lips brushed against her upper thighs. He roamed his hand on her thighs and leaned down to her face. His hard chest pressed against her soft bosoms as he came closer to her face.

He kissed her before moving to her neck. When he nuzzled her neck, she hugged him out of sheer pleasure.

Natalia felt his touch was heavenly, and she was already on cloud nine.

When his hands touched her breasts, she lost all the control over herself and moaned loudly.

“Ahhh!”

Chapter 366

He kneaded her breasts while kissing her neck, leaving his traces of love.

His mouth moved down to her collarbone. While kissing there, he reached her cleavage.

He raised his head to look into her eyes.

“No need for clothes tonight, baby.”

He reminded her of the night when he had healed her wound.

Her eyes blinked as they became filled with lust, allowing him to do whatever he wanted with her. She gave him permission to do whatever he desired.

He did not rip her clothes like he used to do in the past. Instead, he gently lifted her nightgown over her head, leaving her in her black lingerie.

He licked his lips as her body came to be visible in his eyes. She had a perfect body, just like he used to think of her. It had become more than perfect now.

He pressed his face on her breasts and began to suck them over the thin piece of cloth.

He knew she was in heat, and it would be difficult for her to wait too long. So, he ignored his desire to kiss her whole body and took off the last two pieces from her body, leaving her naked.

He flipped his tongue over her pink nipples repeatedly to give her more pleasure as he hungrily sucked her beautiful rounded bosoms.

“Ahhh!”

She was a moaning mess. He wondered if she had ever let another man touch her body or reacted the way she was doing now.

The mere thought of another man seeing her naked infuriated him. He wanted to make this night unforgettable for her so that she would never forget who she belonged to.

“Did you let another man-”

“No!”

She gave an answer with a moan. His eyebrows rose in surprise. It was as if a weight had been lifted from his chest as a smile spread across his lips.

“Such a loyal woman!”

He leaned in to kiss her and moved his hands to her legs. He spread her legs apart and moved his hand toward her entrance.

She let out a cry of pleasure the moment his fingers touched her core.

“Please, more.

When he felt the wetness between her legs, Adrian was taken aback.

“You are slicking! I want to taste it so bad.”

She looked at him. He brought one of his fingers up to his mouth and licked one.

“Sweeter than honey. I can eat you all night, baby.”

She became increasingly aroused by his dirty words, which eventually led to her getting wetter.

She shook her head in denial. “N–No, I can’t wait.”

Her eyes rolled back when he listened to her, and he pushed a finger inside her.

Although his finger was still inside, she tightly closed her legs. Because she desired for his finger to go deeper and deeper, she rolled her waist.

As he observed her needy behavior, he grinned. He kissed her cheek and murmured,

“I will fuck you so hard that you will never forget this heat.”

Chapter 367

Natalia moaned loudly as Adrian thrust his member inside her. Her body jerked on the bed as if it were experiencing a sense of rebirth after a very long time.

The feelings that she had been unable to recall for a number of years came flooding back to her. She could not believe how she was feeling right now.

She had never mated to a man while in heat, so she had no idea what this blissful feeling was.

However, she was not aware that this feeling was only because Adrian was her mate. She would have felt differently if there were another man in his place.

"Adrian!"

She let out his name with a pleased tone when he hit her soft spot again and again. She felt like she was in heaven.

Her wolf wanted it more and more. Her body began to heat up, and she was unsure of how long it would last. Meanwhile,

Adrian looked at Natalia while ruining her in bed. Despite appearing destroyed, she still looked stunning. The only person who could have done that to her was him.

He leaned down and moved his hands toward hers. He interlocked their fingers and pinned her hands to the sides of her head.

He then kissed her passionately. The pleasure that he was giving her was so intense that she broke the kiss and moved her head to the left and right in order to endure it.

Adrian's eyes turned red as he was mesmerized by her beauty and the feeling of having her underneath him. The closeness was driving him insane enough to make sure that she was his.

He kept groaning in pleasure, but his mind was focused on giving her more than he was feeling.

She was his top priority in every situation.

His wolf growled inside him as he finally took over. His red eyes moved his gaze from his face to her neck. He cocked his head down and leaned in closer.

He started kissing her on the neck, licking and sucking the skin to leave so many hickeys behind.

At a certain point, he came to a halt in the scent gland. When he caught a whiff of her scent, his canines emerged. As Adrian's wolf was just about to mark Natalia as his, he took over his wolf and tried to control himself. In order to force the canines into the mouth, he clenched his jaw. It was excruciatingly painful for him to control himself at that point.

His heart began to feel stabbed as his wolf tried to fight him to take over to mark his mate.

'I can't mark her without her consent. She is in heat right now. I want to mark her with her consent, and she will give me permission to do it. She told me to keep my patience. If I mark her in this condition, she will never realize my love for her.' Adrian told his wolf.

No matter how hard his wolf tried, he endured the agony and did not mark Natalia.

Natalia looked like she was in an addictive state after a few hours. It took Adrian the whole night and many rounds to ease her heat.

When it was early in the morning, Natalia fell asleep. She was drenched in sweat all over.

After wiping her hair and body, Adrian moved her to the area of the bed that was not drench.

The two of them were wrapped in a blanket, and he rested his head on her chest.

A smile appeared on his face as he continued to look at her for a long time.

"I still can not believe we got back together. I will make this day special to you."

He moved his head to her lips and kissed her softly.

"I love you, Natalia."

Chapter 368

Natalia opened her eyes when it was noon. She blinked her eyes to clear her vision. Her gaze shifted to the window, catching sight of the cloudy weather outside.

There was no one else in the room besides her.

With a slow pace, she tried to sit up, but because of the pain in her lower body, she hissed.

She frowned for a second before rubbing her forehead.

She bit her bottom lip, as if everything from last night had come back to her.

After putting all the pressure on her palms, she sat up. The blanket covering her body slipped down from her breasts. She lowered her head and realized she was naked under the blanket.

Her whole body was sore. Her wolf was calm inside, as if it had found the peace that she had been seeking for so long.

Something crossed Natalia's mind as her eyes widened. She reached up to her neck and rubbed the skin.

She felt a slight pain, which caused her eyes to widen.

She lost her mind as a thought kept running through her head. She quickly wrapped her body around the blanket before stepping out of bed.

While taking her steps, she felt her legs become entwined with a cloth. When she looked down, she found her nightgown lying on the floor near the bed.

She tried to bend down and felt pain. She ignored it and grabbed the nightgown. After wearing it quickly, she made her way to the dressing table while limping.

She could not remember how many times they had done that to cause her this pain.

As soon as she stood in front of the mirror, she examined her neck.

Her desperate eyes calmed down when she did not see what she was expecting.

She let out a sigh of relief.

Adrian did not mark her.

There were a few hickeys that made her skin swell slightly. It was the reason for the pain she felt when she rubbed it.

She did not waste her time in front of the mirror and rushed to the bathroom after pulling out a dress from the closet.

Under the shower, Natalia noticed that he had left no marks on her body other than a few love bites in her neck. It shocked her because that man was a beast in the bed and liked to leave marks on her full body whenever they had sex in the past.

She did not forget a single thing about last night, as memories came flooding in her mind.

After taking a shower, she went out of the bathroom and glanced at the clock.

She noticed it was getting late because today they were going back.

She hurriedly got ready and applied makeup to her neck so no one would notice the hickeys.

There was no emotion in her eyes when she was doing everything.

After packing her luggage, she decided to leave the bedroom. She turned her head to glance at the bed. It was messy, reminding her of everything that she had done last night.

She looked away and opened the door. As soon as she left the room, she was completely taken aback.

There was no sunlight entering the living room because all of the blinds were closed, and the room was completely dark. She looked around, and her expression changed to one of surprise when something caught her attention.

The living room was elegantly decorated with rose petals and candles. In the center of the living room, someone made a big heart shape with rose petals. But it did not move her eyes; what drew her attention to it were the words written inside the heart.

“I Love You”

She was about to turn away but froze when a pair of strong arms wrapped around her waist from behind.

Natalia recognized the man because of the scent that he possessed.

He kissed her cheek softly and whispered,

“You should have slept longer. Forget it. Do you like everything around us? I did everything myself.”

Chapter 369

Since the moment he awoke, Adrian had been extremely busy. Honestly, he could not sleep for more than two hours. From the moment he opened his eyes, he kept looking at Natalia. He had a smile on his face, which did not look like it would fade for years.

He had something on his mind, so he left the bedroom after getting a shower and told his kids not to disturb their mother. He instructed Amanda to go back to the pack house with the kids. The children were so obedient to him that they did not bother their mother and left with Amanda. He did not send them alone. He ordered his guards to accompany them back.

Later, he decided to prepare lunch for himself and Natalia because he did not want to wake her up for breakfast. She could not sleep the entire night because they were captivated by their love.

He knew all of her favorite dishes because he had learned everything about her through her diary. He carefully prepared lunch with the help of some online videos. The thought of their lives having changed in a single night made him smile.

“Make me yours tonight, Adrian.”

This one line from Natalia kept playing in his head, making him happy. She gave him permission last night to make her his own. She wanted him and allowed him back into her life.

He remembered how she wanted more and more. He was not a gentle guy in bed. But he tried his best to be gentle with her.

He cut his finger a little bit while chopping vegetables. He saw blood oozing from it. He washed his finger and wiped it with a towel, thinking that it would heal very soon. Then he started to work again.

But he was surprised that his finger did not heal. He frowned and examined the fresh blood coming from it.

He assumed that he was not healing because of last night. To keep himself under control, he had to put up with pain. His wolf wanted to mark Natalia because he had gotten closer to his mate after so many years. It was impossible for an Alpha wolf to not mark his mate while making love to her.

He recalled how much hurt he felt when his canines came out, and he had to push it so that he did not lose his mind and mark her.

His mind was fixed on one thing. He wanted her to see how much he loved her. She believed he had no patience with her, so he did not love her. But it was not true. He could be patient with her even during the most painful times.

He bandaged his finger and finished preparing lunch. After that, he decorated the entire living room in a way that was extremely attractive, which could make her happy.

When Natalia came out of the bedroom, he waited for her to see everything.

Adrian hugged her from behind, kissed her on the cheek, and spoke sweetly to her.

However, she unwrapped his arms and turned around to look at him.

The candles around them cast a glow on her beautiful face.

He could not deny the fact that he was nervous. But he was confident that everything would be all right after the moment.

He reached into his pocket and pulled out something he had taken before arriving here. He never expected to have the opportunity to express himself in front of her.

While holding her hand softly, he got down on one knee. He kissed the back of her hand gently and said,

“I have been eager to ask you this for a long time. When you left my life years ago, I regretted signing the divorce papers. I can not turn back time. But I can assure you that I will never let you be upset for a single day from now on.”

Letting go of her hand, he carefully opened the red velvet box he was holding.

From within the box, a dazzling and exquisite diamond ring shone brightly. Her eyes moved at the ring, which calmed him a little. He took a deep breath and asked,

“Natalia, will you remarry me?”

Chapter 370

Adrian stared at Natalia, expecting her to accept his proposal and say yes. His eyes were warm and full of love.

Natalia's eyes fixed on the ring, which caused him to frown. He took a glance at the ring. Despite the fact that it did not appear to be particularly large, the diamond was the most expensive one. He liked the ring first and foremost because of its design. It was shaped like a moonflower. She was his moonflower, so he bought this for her.

‘Did she not like the ring?’ he thought in his head.

He glanced at Natalia and scolded himself in his head. It could be the reason. He should take her with him before deciding on one. But then how would it be a surprise?

He was so excited that he could not even wait for their lunch, and for the night to go somewhere, he asked her about it directly. He knew her answer was yes because she had given herself to him last night to become his. But he wanted to make it special for her. Because she was special to him.

“Natalia, I was in a hurry to decide one, so I-”

She interrupted him and spoke out for the first time since last night.

“No, I won’t.”

His whole body froze, but his hand, which was holding the box, shook a little.

“What do you mean?” he asked in a low voice.

Natalia shifted her gaze from the ring to him. His eyes met hers, and his heart nearly stopped beating.

Her eyes were colder than ever. They had no emotions, as if she did not have any feelings for him.

“I can’t accept your proposal,” she replied calmly.

He was shocked at how calmly she replied to him.

“But why?” he asked without getting on his feet.

She folded her hands across her chest and asked,

“What made you think that I would remarry you, Alpha Adrian?”

His heart started to pound inside his chest. He was not pleased with her indifferent demeanor. His lips trembled as he pursed them, careful not to show her.

He tried his best to remain composed and said,

“Why can’t I think that? Aren’t we back together?”

As if he had said something untrue, her brows knitted together.

“What are you talking about? Get back together?”

He stared at her for a while as his mind tried to proceed with what had happened to her.

‘Did she, by any chance, forget about last night? But this is not possible. She was in her full sense. How can she forget what has happened between us?’ he thought.

He slowly moved down the box but did not put it back in his pocket. He rose to his feet and tried to hold her.

But she took a step back, which shocked him.

“Natalia”

His low tone was heavy with pain. But she was unable to feel it.

“Maybe you forgot about last night, baby. It’s okay. “You do not need to put too much pressure on your mind,” he said, trying not to offend her.

He feared that if he enraged her, she would leave. It seemed to him that she had truly forgotten about last night. He lowered his head and closed the box.

But he froze when she spoke up again.

“I didn’t forget a single thing. I was in my heat, not drunk.”

Chapter 371

Adrian raised his head as he looked at her. “You didn’t?”

“No,” Natalia answered, shaking her head.

He swallowed his breath as he moved toward her, not letting her step backward.

He held her arms, which caused her to unfold her arms.

“If you didn’t forget, then why are you surprised about getting back together? There is no longer any distance between us. Let’s remarry, Natalia.”

Natalia scoffed at him before pushing his hands. “Have you lost your mind, Alpha Adrian? I, Natalia Hansley, will never remarry you. How could you even think that?”

Adrian was taken aback by her words. His heart throbbed with pain.

“Why can’t you? You are mine, aren’t you?”

“Yours? Are you kidding me?”

He took a deep breath, not knowing what had happened to her.

“Last night, you asked me to make you yours. I almost marked you, but I didn’t.”

Natalia’s eyes glowed blue for a moment, then turned back to black.

“You are lucky that you didn’t. Otherwise, you would be dead. I would have disgusted myself now.”

It was as if the sky had collapsed over him. He took a step back.

He did not mark her because he wanted to show her his patience, and he planned to mark her after the wedding to give her the best moment of her life.

But he did not expect her to say such things.

His wolf growled inside him in anger, almost taking over.

In rage, his inner wolf spoke.

“I told you to mark her. You did not give me control last night. Because of you, we lost the chance again.”

Adrian was unsure what to say to whom. He was lost in thought, wondering why she allowed him to get closer to her if she did not want him.

Natalia stepped closer to him and patted his shoulder.

“Don’t mind it. It was just one night. I did not take heat precautions and ended up sleeping with you.”

Wa

He looked at her slowly, his eyes filled with shock. “Last night just a night for you?”

“Of course. What did you think?”

“You said-”

nt for

“Now, do not bring up that ‘make me yours’ thing. I was in the heat and not in my usual calm state. When I said, “Make me yours tonight,” I only that night only.”

Adrian stared at her with disbelief in his eyes. She raised an eyebrow. “I tell me that I used you and all. Because you equally enjoyed the night, didn’t you?”

He gritted his teeth as he muttered, “Very enjoyed it.”

She gave a nod and looked around the living room.

“I see you wasted a lot of time doing all of this. But what can I say? I did not think you could be so immature as to believe that one night could alleviate years of suffering.”

His eyes paused on hers when he heard that. He grabbed her hands softly and mumbled,

“Can you not let go of our past? Let’s be together with a new life and our children.”

She yanked her hands free from his grip and moved away from him.

“I can never let it go.”

“Is it for Max? Do you like him this much?” he asked with a desperate voice.

She shook her head. “No, it’s not the reason. I will tell him the truth that I let another man touch me in my heat. I know he no longer deserves a woman like me.”

“Then he will break up with you.”

“This is what you wanted, right?”

“No, I only wanted you back. I didn’t plan anything about last night. I even thought not to sleep in the same room. Last night, I only came here to check on you.”

“I got it. There is no need to explain anything to me. Just think that nothing has happened between us.”

“What do you mean?”

She lowered her head to look at her bag. She opened her bag’s chain and took out a card.

She grabbed his hand and pressed the card against his palm.

“Every penny I made from the Blue Blood Pack’s pack company is on this card.”

He frowned in confusion about what she was doing.

But her next sentence took him back to the past.

“Take it as your bed service.”

Chapter 372

Adrian’s eyes widened with shock. Natalia could read the expression clearly. She appeared surprised that he would make such an expression.

“What are you so shocked about?” she asked.

Adrian glanced at the card and asked,

“Bed service? Do you think last night was a bed service?”

“Of course. That is nothing more than that. I must say, you did an excellent job,” she said.

He stared at the card for a long time without saying anything. He was upset with her for saying that, as well as with himself for silently listening to all of this.

However, the past came to his mind.

He did the same thing with her. He referred to the nights she had spent with him as only bed service. He had gone so far that he gave her his bank card in exchange.

But he remembered that he gave her that card so that she could spend the rest of her life with the money. He was angry with her at the time, so he said whatever came to mind, but his intent was not wrong.

“Don’t think too much. Once, I used to give you bed services; now you gave me one night. What’s a big deal? Just take it. I know it may not be enough for you. But how much will you charge for a single night? I believe the money is enough for one night. I never used this card, thinking I would save it for my children’s future. But now that they are with their father, I do not have to worry about them anymore.”

Adrian clenched his fists around the card. The sharp corner of the card almost cut his skin.

“Okay.”

“Okay, what?” Natalia asked.

He raised his gaze to meet hers and replied,

Adrian. Listen to me. When are you going to stop bothering me? I am done with you I can not keep telling you to leave me alone every day. Why are you ruining my life?” She lashed out in rage Hat calm demeanor could not last any longer. She began to look furious.

“If you continue like this, I don’t know what I will do. I just can’t be with you again.”

Adrian felt a stabbing in his heart. “What makes you happy? To be with that man?” he asked.

“Even if Max breaks up with me because of last night, I still won’t accept you in my heart again. You asked what makes me happy. Staying away from you makes me happy.”

His heart trembled at her words. Her cruel words broke him completely.

He could not express his feelings to her, but he felt like pulling out his heart to get rid of the pain in his chest.

He took one last look at the woman in his life before making a decision. He slowly put the ring box back inside his pocket and said,

“I will not bother you again. You can be the happiest person from now on. I will never come your way.”

Chapter 373

Adrian's proposal of remarriage to Natalla was unexpected. She was shocked at first. When she had come out of the bedroom, she thought to react coldly to Adrian. But when he dropped to one knee in front of her, she had no idea why her heart skipped a beat.

That time, she reminded herself of the past and controlled her heart. There was no way she could let her heart beat this man ever again. She was not a soft-hearted woman who could be melted at any time.

She was a woman of words. When she used to love him, she loved him unconditionally. However, his chapter in her life ended the moment she made the decision that it was over. She was unwilling to turn the pages once more..

When she gave him the card, she expected to humiliate him in the same way he had done years before. Only she knew how broken she was that day.

But the way Adrian accepted the card, it offended her. She felt that this man was insufferable. He just wanted what he desired. He did not care about anything else.

She scoffed at him and shook her head when she heard him say he would not bother her anymore.

“You said the same thing a few months ago, too. Then you once again came to ruin my life.”

Her eyes dug into him as she showed how angry she was with him.

“If

you

had not planned this vacation, I might not have had to spend last night. with you. I would not have to feel this guilty inside.”

Adrian looked at her. She somehow found those eyes painful.

She turned away from him and walked to her luggage, which she had left a few feet away from the bedroom door.

While holding it, she turned to face him. "Where are the others?"

Adrian did not look like he was in a state to reply. His eyes became empty, as if s were speaking with a lifeless body.

"I'm asking something. Will you answer or not?"

They went back to the pack house," he replied after taking a deep breath.

She gave it some thought before walking toward the door. She paused when he spoke again.

"I made lunch for you. Have some lunch before you leave."

She turned her head and gazed at him. Her expression was one of surprise. She immediately became composed and responded,

"No, thanks. I will grab something on my way back home."

After saying that, she left Adrian there in the hotel room, all alone with his decorations and lunch.

She felt strange for the first time after all these years.

"She fell for you, she fell for us, Natalia."

She heard Nancy, her wolf, speak to her. She ignored her wolf and left the hotel

When she walked out of the hotel, a few guards were waiting for her.

"Miss Hansley, Alpha has ordered us to take you back to your house," the driver informed her.

She was stunned to learn that Adrian had made arrangements for her to go back. Even though she wanted to deny it, there was no point in doing so. So she got in the car and departed from there, leaving so many good and bad memories there.

Throughout the whole ride, everything that had happened last night captured her mind.

She bit her bottom lip when her memories began to flash in her mind. She tried to shove them, but her body could still feel his touches. She spent the entire day thinking about how she would forget about this one night.

When the car arrived at her house, it was already evening.

She entered the house lazily, looking tired from thinking about so many things. What ate her alive was how she would confess about the night to Max.

While walking inside, she noticed that there was no one in the living room. She frowned and started looking for a maid.

When she found one, she asked,

“Where is everyone?”

“The young master was moving his hands, so everyone went to his room.”

Natalia parted her lips in surprise and dashed to her brother’s room, hoping that his health was recovering.

However, when she entered Jason’s room, she froze. Tears streamed down her cheeks as she noticed that the man lying on the bed had finally opened his eyes.

“Brother!”

Chapter 374

Natalia rushed toward Jason. Everyone turned around to her when they heard her voice. Her mother was crying in happiness while her father and Eric were standing close to the bed with a bright face.

All of them were happy, and at the same time, they were surprised to see Jason open his eyes.

They could not just believe in their own eyes.

Natalia hugged her brother tightly. “Brother, you opened your eyes! Am I dreaming? I can’t believe it. Tell me it’s true.”

Jason slowly raised his hand and placed it on her back.

She cried on her brother's chest while embracing him. Without him, he had become all alone in her life. His brother was a shadow to him. When everyone took advantage of it. The pack members lost their pack, and her family lost their home and respect. Everything turned into dust.

She sobbed as all the pain she had been holding inside came out after getting her brother back.

"I missed you, brother. I missed you a lot."

Their parents looked at each other with smiles when they saw the love between the two siblings.

Natalia raised her head and sat up. She wiped her eyes, trying to stop sobbing.

"Brother, how are you feeling now?"

"Why can't you speak? Let me call Max right now," she said, trying to go back to get her phone from the living room. She left her luggage behind while hurrying here after hearing about his recovery.

"I tried to call him, but his phone is unreachable," Eric said to her.

Natalia stopped upon hearing that. She glanced at her brother with worry. She recalled that when she tried to call Max, his phone was off at that time as well.

"Natalia, don't worry, Jason spoke out.

Her eyes widened, "Brother, you are talking!"

A big grin appeared on her face.

He nodded his head. "I think I am fine now," Jason said with a raspy voice.

His throat was burning, but he still tried to talk to his family so that they would not worry for him.

Eric helped him to sit up. When Jason leaned against the pillow, he looked around the room.

“We are at the Crystal Blood Pack right now,” Alpha Martin Hansley said.

Jade sat beside Jason and asked, “My son, do you know how we passed all these days watching you lifeless? I—I thought-”

Jason held his mother’s shaken hand and replied, “I am back, Mom. You can relax now.”

Natalia smiled upon hearing that. She looked at her family, who were deli ful today.

She thought that if the war had not happened, they could have happily remained in the Blue Blood Pack.

Suddenly, her smile froze when she recalled the war. They did not lose, but her brother submitted himself to Adrian.

She looked at her brother carefully and took a deep breath, then asked,

“Why did you submit to Adrian during the war, Brother?”

Chapter 375

Everyone turned their heads toward Natalia. Eric walked to her and muttered, “Let’s not talk about it. He has just woken up. It can affect his health.”

Natalia realized that she should not have asked that to her brother at that time. She bit her bottom lip and lowered her head.

Jason gazed at Natalia. He looked a little weak, but it was because he had woken up after a very long time. Otherwise, he was feeling perfectly fine from the inside.

When he heard Natalia’s question, he recalled the war. He could not remember much, but he could remember meeting Adrian and submitting to him.

“My own friend betrayed me, and the person I used to think was came to give me a hand in the war. I felt the biggest betrayal in my life at that time. I regret the decisions that I made in the past.”

Jade patted Jason’s hand and asked,

“So Alpha Adrian really did come to our aid?”

“Yes, mom.”

His eyes moved around the room, and he said,

“He really protected my family’s life, just like he promised me in the war.”

“Did Alpha Adrian promise you that?” Alpha Martin asked with surprise.

Eric looked stunned, too. He knew Jason and Adrian had met. But he was not aware of their conversation.

Jason gave his father a nod and shifted his eyes at Natalia.

“Dad, I want to talk to Natalia alone.”

Alpha Martin looked at his wife, and Eric then gestured to them to leave the two siblings alone.

They left the room, leaving Natalia alone with Jason to have conversations. with each other.

Natalia, on the other hand, was in confusion. She did not get her answer yet.

His brother was not the type of man who would give in to anyone.

“Where are my nephew and niece?” Jason asked, patting on the bed, Indicating she should sit with him.

As she sat in front of him, she whispered “They are with their dad.”

“Did you tell him about them?”

She shook her head while lowering her head. “No, he realized it himself.”

“How did he do that? They were bound with the spells.”

“He broke it with his growl.”

“I must say, Alpha Adrian is really a powerful Alpha.”

Hearing Jason praising Adrian, she raised her head to look at him.

“Brother, why did you do that? You never liked that man.”

Jason lifted his hand and cupped her cheek. “My little sister, you know how much your brother loves you.”

She held his hand, saying, “I know.”

He averted his gaze from her as if thinking about that night.

“That night, I was on the edge of losing my life. A fear captured my heart, which shocked me not the fear of my death but the death of my family. I heart. It could have made you that pack’s Alpha, but I got to know that Alpha Leo’s target was you. He wanted to marry you forcefully and, at the same time, obtain the pack. If you refused it, he would have killed you. They had already killed all of our pack fighters, leaving a few to mock us.”

Biting her lower lip, Natalia tried not to cry. She could feel the pain that Jason could have felt that night.

However, Jason returned his gaze to her and said,

“But at that moment, a man came to me like a knight. I thought he had come to exact revenge for the disrespect I had shown him, but instead, he told me something that really touched my heart and broke all of my hatred for him.”

Natalia parted her lips. “What did he say?”

Jason took a deep breath and replied,

“I came here only for your sister. I promise I will not let her die. I will protect her, even if it means my death. She and your family will be saved.”

Natalia froze after hearing those words. Jason was telling her what Adrian had told him—the exact words.

He let go of her cheek and placed his hand on hers.

“That foolish man, he really loves you, Natalia. He was unaware of the truth that Aria and Noah were his children. Despite the fact that they are not his biological children, he said he is willing to accept your children. I promised me to take care of them like his own because they are your children.”

Jason lowered his head for a while without letting out anything. When he found Natalia was also silent, he glanced at her and said,

“That was the time I realized no other man could protect you like him. If someone loves you after dad and me, it’s him. I was on the edge of death. He was a strong man capable of protecting my family and pack members. Sol submitted to him rather than losing my pack to another Alpha.”

D

Chapter 376

Natalia came to her room with so many thoughts and different emotions. Her body lay on the bed as her eyes closed.

She could not just forget what her brother had told her about Adrian.

How could an Alpha be willing to accept another man’s heir? Not even an ordinary Alpha but a head Alpha. Everyone knew no one would accept that.

Then why did Adrian want to do that?

Her eyes slowly opened. She looked at the ceiling with a heavy heart.

Her brother said that Adrian went to the war just for her.

Her brother, who used to hate Adrian the most, talked like Adrian his heart.

Adrian melted

Her breath hitched when she recalled last night. She slowly lifted her hand and placed it on her chest.

Tears rolled down her eyes.

Last night, she heard him tell her that he loved her. She wasn’t asleep at that time. She had made herself deaf because she was too cold to hear what he was saying.

She wiped her eyes to take a deep breath. Today, she showed Adrian how she felt when he had treated her that badly in the past.

However, right now, she felt that it was time to let go of everything.

She would part ways with everyone. It was true that her suffering was unmatched. Adrian was not struggling in the same way that she was. But she did not want him to feel anything anymore.

She decided to leave this pack since Jason had recovered. It would be better if their paths stayed apart.

Liana had texted her to let her know the shop would open today, and she was welcome to start working from tomorrow.

Natalia spent the whole night thinking about Adrian.

There was something inside her that regretted her behavior toward Adrian today. She could have been less cold to him.

The next morning,

She got ready to go to the coffee shop. When she left her room, she forgot to take her phone with her. She thought of taking it after having breakfast with her family. This would be the first meal that she was going to have with her brother after his recovery.

As soon as Natalia entered the living room, she was shocked.

There were a lot of men standing in the house.

She glanced at her family, who appeared to be shocked as well. She walked to them and tried to understand the situation.”

“What happened?” she asked, looking at the papers that were laced on the tea table close to the couch where Jason was sitting.

Everyone turned to her. Natalia frowned as she made her way to them.

“Are you all going to say something? And who are these people?” She asked and came to a stop next to her mother.

Everyone glanced at each other. Natalia had a strong feeling that something had happened.

When his parents did not reply to her, she turned to the men around the house and asked,

“Who are you, and why are you all here at our house?”

The men gently bowed, and one of them responded,

“Alpha Adrian sent us here for Alpha Jason.”

Natalia’s heart sank. Did Adrian learn that Jason had awoken and sent his men to hurt her brother? Was it because she insulted him yesterday?

However, the man continued to speak, and what he said really sent Natalia into tate of shock.

“We are here for Alpha Jason’s protection. Alpha Adrian has announced that he has returned the Blue Blood Pack to Alpha Jason.”

Chapter 377

Natalia was taken aback by the news. Her eyes widened as she turned her head toward her family. Now she understood why they were not replying to her. It was because they were also astounded.

Why did Adrian do that? Jason had already submitted to him. There was no promise that he made about giving back the pack to Jason either.

Then why?

“Brother?” she mumbled, looking at Jason.

Jason let out a sigh as he had no words.

Alpha Martin rubbed his forehead as if he were speechless. “Alpha Adrian turns out to be a very kind man.”

“I can’t believe he announced that!” Natalia’s mother, Jade, said.

Eric stared at Jason as he was eager to know his Alpha’s decision.

Jason tried to get up. Eric and Natalia were about to help him, but before they could, the men reached him and helped him stand up.

Jason shook his head as he looked at his parents.

“I can’t take over the pack again. That man won it. It was not like I had surrendered to him, and the war had ended. He killed Alpha Leo and won the war by himself.”

Alpha Martin stood up and patted his son’s shoulder. “That’s our home, Jason. Our ancestors worked hard to build that pack. Alpha Leo was your friend, and he betrayed you with his tricks.

That’s why you got sick and almost lost the war. If you were healthy, you would have won the war.”

Jason smiled at his father and replied,

“Dad, I know you are thinking about me and our family. I also thought about it and submitted to that man during the war. However, the way he saved you all and allowed us to stay here in his pack with respect, I can’t do that. I am not sure what it is right now. But I can’t accept that pack. We can live there as pack members or pillars, but not as the royal family anymore.”

Alpha Martin felt really proud of his son He was indeed a good man. He was ready to lose the chance to get his pack back. He did not have any ego, and he was doing what he thought was right.

Natalia stared at her family. She did not know what she should think right now.

Why did Adrian seem so different to her right now?

He decided to give up a pack! No other Alpha would leave a piece of land for another Alpha, so thinking about giving a whole pack to the woman’s brother who had divorced him and kept rejecting him was impossible.

“So the decision is final. I am not taking over the Blue Blood Pac-”

Jason could not complete his sentence, and he paused when his eyes fell outside the house.

A few cars came to a stop outside the house.

Alpha Adrian stepped out of one of the cars. He walked inside the house like a king had entered. Even if someone did not know him, he could be recognized by his aura.

Natalia’s family bowed to him slightly.

“Alpha Adrian, it’s been a long time.”

C

Chapter 378

Adrian looked at Jason calmly; his eyes were serene.

“No need to bow to me anymore. You are the head Alpha of another pack. I am no longer your Alpha,” Adrian said to Jason, then glanced at his parents and Eric.

Adrian gave them a nod and roamed his gaze around until they paused on the woman standing near the couch.

Natalia immediately looked away from him. He moved his gaze and fixed his eyes on Jason again.

J

Jason looked at Adrian carefully. He had always despised this man and considered him a criminal who had ruined his sister’s life. However, everything changed, and now he had a feeling that only this man was able to handle his sister.

He was the best match for his sister, and fate did not make the wrong decision for them as it made them mates.

When Eric told him this morning about Natalia and Max being together, he did not want to accept the fact. However, it was his sister’s life. He would never make her personal decision. She had suffered a lot in her life, and he had not right to make this big decision in her life,

“Alpha, I never thought I would bow to you. But what you did for my family is really unbelievable. Thank you for taking care of them in my absence. About the pack, that’s your pack now. I can’t accept it.”

Adrian was silent for a moment, then signaled them to the couches.

“Will you not at least allow me to sit?”

Jade immediately spoke up, believing he was correct and that the gesture was disrespectful to a head Alpha. She said,

“Alpha, please take a seat. I am setting up the breakfast table. Please don’t leave today without having a meal with us.”

Adrian did not deny it and gave her a nod. Jade felt relieved and went to the kitc

Everyone sat on the couch except Natalia She remained standing where ahe had been for the entre time Adrian did not give her another glance, either.

“I didn’t accept your submission for forever I thought to give it back before accepting it. I never went to the war with the intention of grabbing it from you and your family You were sick, and your Safety was important, so I did not declare it before I had some problems with your sister about the children. That was why I behaved rudely with your parents. I apologize.”

Alpha Martin shook his head in response. “What you are doing is more than enough. We should thank you.”

Adrian told Jason that he would have to take over his pack again because it was his decision. He had no desire to take control of that pack, so he handed it over to Jason.

Jason was left with no other option but to comply with Adrian’s de ion. He assured Adrian that he would never forget that and that he would be there to assist him whenever he required assistance.

Jade called them for breakfast, and the breakfast table was really silent.

To break the silence, Adrian asked Jason about his health. He said Max was a really good healer who saved Jason’s life.

“I heard from Eric about the misunderstandings. Gamma Jeremy planned. everything to ruin your life by fixing his real daughter with you,” Jason said.

Natalia was quiet all the time, but when she heard her brother, she paused eating and glanced at Adrian.

Chapter 379

Adrian did not look at anyone and replied,

“That was not only his fault. I am equally at fault here. I ruined your sister’s life, and she has been suffering for me all these years.”

Natalia got up from her chair and said,

"I'm leaving for the coffee shop."

Everyone looked at her, except Adrian. It was as if he was avoiding looking at her.

She turned around and left the dining room. She went out of her house and stood there for a while.

She did not know why she could not take a step forward. She left it because she did not want to hear about their past again.

able

If her brother decided to take over the Blue Blood Pack again, that meant they would leave this pack soon.

She also wanted to leave this pack. It was because she wanted to go back to her old life again. She did not want to remain here to face her past again and again.

She unhurriedly checked her bag and realized that she had forgotten to take her phone. Before leaving her room, she thought to take it from there, but right now, she did not want to go inside her house,

She could not call a cab, so she decided to walk to the bus stop.

She was walking down the street, thinking about her future. In her mind, she was ready to tell Max about what had happened during her heat. There was no way she would put that man in the dark.

She felt ashamed that she had a boyfriend, but still, she pulled another man close to her. She was in her right mind and did that. Why did she do that? That one night changed everything, including her relationship. She felt she had cheated on Max.

Si was aware that Max would end their relationship. But she could not deny he had helped her brother and Eric. Every doctor had said Jason would die. However, Max was the only one who helped her brother recover. She would have to thank him first before confessing about the night.

When she got to the bus stop, she was about to take a seat and wait for a bus.

At that time, a car came to a stop beside her.

She turned around and saw Adrian stepping down from the back door.

She looked at him, not knowing why he was here. Did she stand outside her house for so long that he had already finished breakfast and arrived at the bus stop?

Adrian's eyes met hers. She felt her heart race. She turned her gaze away from him and asked,

"Is there anything you would like to tell me? Where are you here?"

Adrian stepped toward her and stopped just inches from her.

She noticed he had a folder in his hand. She frowned when he gave it to her. She grabbed the folder and asked,

"What is this?"

He replied with a calm tone,

"The custody of my children."

She raised her gaze at him. "Why are you giving me these papers? They are already with you."

He did not move his eyes from her and muttered,

"I gave you custody. You are free to live with your children."

D

Chapter 380

Natalia was shocked. "W-What?"

She immediately opened the folder and began to read what was written inside

1. it.

She saw that Adrian was telling the truth. She could now live with her children. She was not required to wait for three days of each week to pass before she could see her children again. She could see them whenever she wanted.

"Your family is leaving this pack tonight."

Natalia froze when she heard that. She looked at him and asked, "Tonight?"

"Do you want to leave right now?" he asked with an upset tone.

She

could see he did not look happy. However, the expressive nature that he had been possessing for all of these months had dried up, and he had evolved into a man who did not show his feelings to other people.

Adrian took a deep breath, as if it were tough for him to remain calm. He cleared his throat and said,

“I realized I hurt to the extent that there is no way to repair your heart for me. You said you would be happy without me, and I granted your wish. I like to see you happy. So even if it means to let you go, I will not take a step back to make you happy.”

She blinked her eyes when she felt something pierce in the corner of her eyes.

Didn't she want that? So, why did she feel like her heart was in pain inside?

She looked away from him and handed the folder to him.

“Of course, I will leave tonight if my family is going to leave. However, I can not bring Noah and Aria along with me at this time. They need their father more than me. I can't snatch their rights from them.”

Adrian held the folder and nodded at her without replying to her.

e mumbled, “Have a good life then.”

When he turned around, it was as if they were saying their goodbyes and everything had come to an end between them.

Despite the fact that she felt her throat itching to let out a word, she managed to speak out.

“Another thing.”

He stopped and slowly turned to her. “Yes?”

“If I leave your pack tonight, I am not sure when I will come back. But if I want to meet them, please send them to me.”

“They are your children. You can see them whenever you want.”

She nodded and shifted her gaze away from him. He did not move his eyes.

She glanced at him and spoke again.

“You are not alone but single a father. Marry a good woman who will accept your children. Even if you have heirs in the future, remember that Noah is the rightful owner of the pack. Love him and Aria equally with your other children.”

Adrian gave her a bitter smile and replied,

“I will never get married again. That’s why I will never reject you as my mate, either. But you are allowed to move on and let another man mark you in order to break the mate bond. I promise that I will never cross your path again. I hope you get everything you deserve in your life.”

Chapter 381

Natalia saw Adrian’s car drive away from the bus stop. She closed her eyes and thought in her head.

‘This was what I wanted all these times, I wanted to stay away from him and he is now doing the exact thing. I should be happy that now I can live my life by myself. My family got back their lost pack. My children got what they deserved and would be powerful under their father’s shadow, they got the name of their father too. I don’t need anything else. I can live a peaceful life now.’

She took a bus and went to the coffee shop. When she left her house, she thought of joining the coffee shop as an employee again. But now, she would have to go there to resign.

That one vacation changed everything. It caused her to betray Ma her brother woke up after she came back, she would have to leave her pack her children.

al

When she arrived at the coffee shop, she entered with a sad smile. She would have to say goodbye to Liana. She was like a mother figure to her.

As soon as Natalia went inside, she saw an unfamiliar young woman standing behind the counter.

With a surprised look, Natalia closed the glass door behind her. The bell rang over her head, indicating that someone had entered the shop.

The woman turned her gaze at her and smiled at her.

“You must be Natalia Hansley, right?”

Natalia was more surprised when she looked at the woman's face. She looked quite like her. But they had different faces. It was their eyes and their jaws, which were quite similar.

"You are?" Natalia asked, walking toward her.

"Hello, I am Lily. The shop owner, Liana's daughter," the woman replied.

"Oh, you are her daughter!"

F ulia smiled at her and stopped near the counter. "So finally, you are back! Your mom really works hard for you. It's great to meet you finally."

Lily shook her head. "Well, I am grateful to meet you actually. You are from a royal family, yet you work with my mom. You helped her a lot. She always talks about you."

At that time, Liana came out of the changing room. Her face brightened when she looked at Natalia. She came to hug her and introduce Lily to her. They said. they had already introduced each other.

Liana stroked Natalia's hair and said,

"We resolved all the paperwork. We can work together again."

Natalia lowered her head and mumbled,

"I can't. I am going back to my old pack."

Liana's hand paused on her head. She slowly moved her hand from her head and reached for her hand.

"Will you leave this pack forever?"

Liana appeared to be very upset. But she also knew that Natalia was a royal woman, so working on her shop was temporary for her.

Lily told them to sit and talk. She turned to the change the tag of the shop from close to open, and made two cups of coffee for her mother and Natalia.

Natalia thanked Lily when she was going to the changing room to wear an apron.

"Anytime. I think I should help mom as long as I am here in this pack. I will leave in two months," Lily replied.

Natalia smiled at her in response. Lily went to the changing room, and Natalia got busy talking with Liana.

At that time, someone entered the coffee shop. Natalia and Liana turned their heads to the door.

Natalia rose up from her chair when she saw Max.

“Max? You are back!”

“Wh

were you? I called you so many times,” Max said.

“I forgot my phone at home,” she replied quickly.

She was nervous that she would have to tell him the truth now.

“You two can sit. I am going to make a coffee for you,” Liana said to Max, standing up.

Max had just nodded at Liana and made his way toward Natalia.

However, Natalia caught something strange when Max froze his movement.

His eyes changed color as he sniffed something in the air. As just Lily came out of the changing room, Max let out a growl.

“Mate!”

D

Chapter 382

Natalia was taken aback. She slowly turned her head toward Lily, who looked frozen at the door of the changing room.

“Mate?” Natalia mumbled as she was confused by the situation.

Was Lily Max's mate?

She thought the reason behind Lily's shocked face was because she heard a stranger calling her his mate.

However, when Natalia shifted her gaze back to Max, she saw a surprise in Max's eyes as well. It was not a shock but a surprise to see someone familiar.

Max hurried to Lily and grabbed her arms.

"It's been a while. Where have you been? I have been looking for "ou everywhere. Why did you just disappear?"

Natalia froze when she heard Max's words. Her brows furrowed as something flashed through her memories.

She recalled the night when Max entered the coffee shop for the first time. He was drunk, and he said the same things to her.

Her eyes widened when she moved her gaze toward Lily. It looked like Max's words were the same at both times.

Did that mean that night Max thought of this woman when he told her those words?

Did he approach her because this woman and she looked alike?

Natalia was too shocked to react.

Lily looked away from Max and mumbled,

"I went abroad. I wanted to do something in my life. I didn't know you would wait for me."

Lilana grabbed Max's hand and pushed him away from her daughter.

"W" t are you saying? You are Natalia's boyfriend."

"But your daughter is my mate," Max said back.

"How can it be possible? You are with someone else now. You can't ruin my daughter's life. Reject her."

"NO."

Max's wolf growled as he took over him.

Natalia was speechless. She was nervous to tell Max about her heat. However, it looked like fate had already planned something else. In fact, it made it easier for her to break up.

She stared at Max and saw how he was looking at his mate.

She took a deep breath and spoke up,

"I think we need to talk."

As if Max had realized what he just said and did, he slowly turned to Natalia.

"Natalia..."

"Let's talk."

Max came out of the coffee shop with her. With his head low, he kept quiet for a long time.

Natalia folded her arms across her chest. She was very upset with Max. It was not because he found his mate and wanted to accept her.

It was because of the reason he had approached her in the first place.

"It's true. I approached you because you look like her. I loved her for a long time. But before I could confess to her, she left the pack. I tried to contact her, roaming around the world. But I could not get in touch with her because her mother never revealed where she was."

Natalia stared at him, not knowing what to say. She let out a shaky breath.

She was hurt that she thought Max genuinely liked her. Little did she know, he always thought of her as a substitute for Lily.

She could not get mad at him either, because this man saved her brother's life.

"I am sorry, Natalia. Please forgive me. I can't..." he muttered.

Natalia smiled at him and patted his shoulder.

"You saved my brother's life. Thank you for coming into my life like a miracle. If you hadn't agreed to help me, Jason would have died."

Max looked at Natalia with sad eyes. He liked Natalia, although he thought of her as Lily. However, now that Lily had come back and turned out to be his mate; he could not let her leave again.

“I came back to this pack in a hurry only for your brother. I heard the news of him taking over his pack again. So I was concerned about his health and returned here.”

“Thank you, Max.”

Natalia took a few steps back. Max shut his eyes, as everything had changed in a few days.

“I—I am really sorry, Natalia.”

D

Chapter 383

“It’s okay. I also did something that would have led you to break up with me anyway. I don’t want to lie. I was in the heat the night before yesterday. Adrian was with me that night,” Natalia uttered.

Max’s brows lifted in surprise. However, he controlled himself as he realized it was time to let her go.

“I always want to protect you. But that guy really loves you. I am a man, and I know other men’s intentions. He cares for you. He once warned me about digging up my past so that I could leave you. I didn’t take his warning that seriously. But now I realize he must have learned my love for Lily. In fact, he was the one who made me remain in my pack so that he could spend the vacation with you.”

Juse of Natalia recalled that Lily had to come back to this pack suddenly ! the shop issue. Max told her a few days ago that his workload was getting heavier, unusually. He had even told her that another Alpha called him for help unnecessarily.

“We are over, Max. You can be with your lost love again. Mark her and marry her to give her a good life. You are a gentleman,” Natalia said with a smile.

Max nodded his head and replied,

“I think you should also return to your love. I was your boyfriend, but I always felt empty inside because you were never mine. You gave me a chance, but I never forgot the man you once loved. It's your thought that you hate him. But in reality, you still love him, Natalia."

Natalia did not respond to his remarks. She inhaled deeply and said goodbye to Max. She then took her leave from Liana and wished Lily a happy life with Max. She understood that Lily also loved Max. It was good that she did not come between two ex-lovers.

She went to the pack house before going back to her house. She met Adrian's parents. Lucas was upset that she was leaving. She met Grace, who was sick.

Grace hugged her and told her that she would always be grateful to her for saving her son.

Natalia met her children. She thought Noah and Aria would cry that she was leaving the pack.

But, to her surprise, they did not shed tears. Instead of crying, they said,

"Dad said Mommy also has a life too."

"We can go to meet Mommy anytime we want. We promise Dad that we will not cry."

Natalia pulled them closer and cried. She did not want to leave anymore after seeing them, but she would have to leave.

She told them to take care of themselves. She told them to always obey their father.

Like good children, they promised her that they would not bother anyone.

While making her way to the entrance, she met Adrian's officials.

"My Alpha did wrong with you, but he tried to make everything right too. I hope you won't hold any grudges against him in the future," Patric said.

She shook her head and replied, "I will not. When I cross the border, I will leave. my past here."

When she walked out of the pack house, she found Adrian's driver waiting for her with his car.

"Alpha ordered me to drop you at your house."

Natalia turned to the pack house and looked at it for the last time. She waved her hands at her children and Adrian's parents, then got in the car and left.

Tears rolled down her eyes as the car moved out of the pack house.

She could not notice that someone was watching her from a window on the second floor.

His serene eyes turned blurry as they kept fixed on the iron gate from where his car had left.

Noah's voice caused him to blink his eyes. He turned around and saw his two children.

He kneeled down toward them and pulled them into his embrace.

"Dad is sorry that he could not fulfill his promise. He could not give your mommy back to you."

Aria and Noah shed tears while hugging their father. They were trying to be strong in front of their mother, but when she left, they broke down.

Adrian hugged them tightly and consoled them.

"Don't cry. It's your dad's fault. He made your mommy upset in the past. From now on, he will not be with her, and she will never cry either."

P

Chapter 384

Days passed as everyone got back to their old lives. But a person could not move on in his life, and that was Adrian Miller.

It felt as though he had lost the aura that used to envelop everyone around him. The last few days, he was not doing well.

He seemed to feel strange inside him, and that was his wolf's reaction. His wolf was slowly losing his strength. He could not heal his wounds like before. It took time for him to heal and recover from his physical pain.

Whenever he tried to talk to his wolf, he only wanted one thing, his m

Adrian could not give that to him. Because he had let Natalia go. He wanted to give her a free life where she would not have any fear of him, where she did not have to lose her happiness for him.

Aria and Noah were doing well. They often went to meet their mother and stay in the Blue Blood Pack with her for a few days. So it was easy to handle the children for Adrian.

But Adrian's mother was getting sicker with each passing day. It really worried him every day.

Harold told him that he was trying his best to help his mother.

Once Max met Adrian to talk about Lily since she was this pack's member and he was her mate. Adrian permitted him to take his mate with him to his pack. That time, Max gave him a cure to help his mother. Though it worked for a few days, later his mother's body could not accept the cure. Her body began to get side effects from it.

As the weather was sunny and the wind was warm, the black car crossed the border of the Crystal Blood Pack.

The car was heading to the Blue Blood Pack.

Adrian's eyes were fixed on the changing landscape. He decided to come to this pack to meet someone. He thought about it for a while, until last night he made the decision to step into this pack.

s late at night when the car came to a stop in front of an old house.

Adrian got out of the car with Beta Patric. He walked toward the house.

"I stopped keeping an eye on him since you let go of this pack," Patric stated while looking at the door.

Adrian pressed the doorbell, waiting for someone to open the door.

An old man opened the door and looked at who had come. His eyes brightened when he noticed who it was.

"Alpha Adrian?"

Adrian looked at the old man. He did not change much. It had been nearly a year since he last saw him. He still looked strong.

“Qadir.”

The old man stepped aside to let him enter his house. Adrian and Patric entered the house.

Adrian went to sit on a couch. Patric sat next to him. Qadir walked to the kitchen and prepared two cups of coffee for them.

He was so old, but he was living all by himself. So it was not too much work for him. He had a habit of staying like that.

Adrian glanced at the coffee but did not touch it while Patric sipped on it.

“I came to talk to you,” Adrian said.

Qadir sat on a couch and gave Adrian a mysterious smile. “I told you last time that you would have to come to me.”

Adrian recalled the day when he met Qadir. That time, he was arrogant. He did not believe him. But today he had to come back to him.

Adrian lowered his head and muttered,

“It’s getting hard for me to stay alive like this. How long will I live with this punishment?”

Patric gulped as he saw his Alpha breaking down. He also lowered his head, as he had no opinion about this.

Qadir let out chuckle as he said,

“You are too late. If a bird flies from a cage, do you think it will ever come back. to it?”

Adrian lifted his gaze to look at Qadir.

“I tried to stay away from her. I will try to do that until my death. I want her to stay happy.”

“I know.”

Patric cleared his throat and asked,

“Adrian’s health is not good. Do you have any solutions for it?”

Qadir heard him and thought for a moment, then replied, “My child, I a doctor.”

Adrian lifted his hand to stop Patric from asking anything further. He questioned Qadir,

“Is there any way I can change my fate?”

“No.”

not a

Adrian nodded at him and rose up from the couch. “It’s okay. I’m leaving then.”

Patric also stood up to leave. However, Qadir got to his feet and said something to stop Adrian from moving.

“Danger is rushing toward you. It will be the toughest moment of your life. It will decide whether you die or fate will give you a second chance.”

Chapter 385

A Few Months Later

Adrian was having dinner with his children. He was all alone with them in the dining room. Since his mother was sick, she always had meals with his father in their room.

Aria and Noah were getting bigger day by day. Adrian loved to spend his time with them. In his life, he had only one thing, and that was giving his time to his children. They were the apples of his eyes.

“Dad, can we go to meet Mommy tomorrow?” Aria asked.

Adrian looked at Aria. Her smile was enough to persuade him. He shifted his gaze at Noah, whose head was down.

Noah was getting training daily. He was growing up to be the best Alr “Sure,” Adrian replied.

Aria got down from her chair and hugged Adrian. He kissed on the tip of her forehead and said that he was fine with any time they wanted to go to meet their mother.

He was not unaware of Natalia. She returned to her job as the CEO of the pack company of the Blue Blood Pack. Jason had returned to his health, and both of the siblings were doing good jobs and maintaining their responsibilities well. He heard she was not with any other man yet. But, like always, men were after her.

As he was having dinner with his children, the door of the dining room flung open.

Gamma Benjamin rushed inside. Adrian frowned at him. "What happened?"

Behind Benjamin, all of Adrian's officials entered the dining room.

"Alpha, someone attacked our pack."

Adrian's frown eased as he rose up from the chair. He looked at his two children and grabbed their hands.

"Go back to your room and don't come out until your grandpa tells you," he told them, and dashed over to their room from the dining room.

He kissed their foreheads and said,

"Don't forget that you both are strong. Don't forget to support your mommy in every situation."

They could not understand why their father was saying that. They knew about wars because they learned about them in school. They began to cry, but Adrian told Amanda to handle them since she was now in charge of taking care of them.

Adrian closed the door of his children's room as he came out of the room. He looked at his officials.

Their heads were down. For the first time, Adrian saw fear in their eyes.

"Why are you all scared?" he asked, making his way to his parents' room.

His officials followed him behind. Theta Emon murmured while walking,

"Alpha, we are ready to fight. But what about your health..."

Adrian turned to him and replied, "Until my death, I will look after my pack members. They are my responsibility."

After saying that, he went to his parents room. His mother was sleeping, so he did not wake her up.

He talked to his father alone in the room for a while.

"Are you sure, my son?" Alpha Lucas asked.

Tears were visible in his eyes. Adrian hugged him and said,

“Trust me. Your son will not lose the battle. Even if I die, this pack will always be my family’s home.”

They were going in the war. Adian didn't know how another Alpha dared to stand his ground. But he knew that someone very close had betrayed his health in the opposite party. Oderwien, who had the audacity to attack Alpha Aditan's pack? I was certain that they knew his wolf was sick and weak right now.

When Aditan went close to the border, he saw many wolves, growling at him.

His eyes turned red as he charged.

They were taken aback.

They thought Alpha Adian could not shift. They were not aware of his strength.

Adian ran toward the wolves. He killed whoever came into his sight.

And the war began.

So many wolves started fighting each other. The blue sky turned dark under the black clouds. Under the sky, the whole forest turned red with the blood of the wolves.

The black giant wall caught everyone's attention. Anyone could see Adrian from afar because of his large body. His black fur was moving with the wind as he ran forward. He pounced his sharp teeth on a wolf's neck while his claws dug their bodies.

Adrian lost his temper, as he did not let go of any chance and killed every single wolf who came to fight.

He learned that it was Alpha Maxwell from the west side. He attacked his pack with more than thousands of pack fighters.

Adrian had re-fighters. He knew he would win the war.

He did not show any mercy to others and kept fighting for his pack. When he reached Alpha Maxwell, he wanted to kill him.

But suddenly, Maxwell's beta threw a wooden stake toward his Alpha.

Maxwell grasped the stake with his teeth since he was also in his wolf form, and rushed toward Adrian.

Adrian tried to dodge, but he pierced the stake in his arm. It did not look like a normal stake.

Adrian's whole body froze as an unfamiliar pain shot through his body.

He glanced at the stake and saw his blood coming out of his arm. His arm became numb immediately, demonstrating that it was filled with poison.

Adrian frowned when he realized that it was the technique Alpha Leo used in the last war when he tried to kill Jason. Everything did not seem to fit with... Adrian.

Adrian growled in anger and bit on the stake, then pulled it out of his arm. It caused him to feel numb.

"Who sent you here?"

Adrian asked Maxwell in the mindlink.

Maxwell thought he had won the war, so he laughed and replied,

"Someone who helped us destroy you. You will die very soon. The poison in the stake is the same poison that has been inside your body all these times. You are going to see your death, Alpha Adrian."

Chapter 387

As Maxwell jumped on Adrian to kill him as soon as possible, Adrian scoffed and hit him with his head.

His canines were sharp as a knife, and he walked to Maxwell, who had just fallen a little far by the push.

His men came Adrian's way to stop him. But Adrian bit them while limping because he almost lost one leg's strength because of the stake.

With the strength of three legs, the black wolf made his way to the gray wolf.

Before Maxwell could stand up to attack him again, Adrian bit his neck to lift him up and then smashed his body to the ground.

*Alpha Adrian will protect his pack till his death," he said to Maxwell.

All of Adrian's officials rushed toward him when they noticed him biting Maxwell.

Blood gushed out of Maxwell's head, and he would die in a few minutes. But with pain in his head, Maxwell said to Adrian,

"We merged three packs to kill you. You can kill me, but what about the other two? They are coming in your way. Soon they will attack you and kill you."

Gamma Benjamin growled at Maxwell and bit his leg, then tore it apart from his body in anger. Meanwhile, the others tried to kill Maxwell's officials.

Adrian stared at Maxwell until he died on the ground.

The war stopped when one of the two Alpha lost his life.

All the pack fighters of Alpha Maxwell had no other option but to submit to Adrian to save their lives, and they hailed for him since he had become their new Alpha.

The night passed in the forest as Adrian did not return to the border.

Rather than going back home, he decided to go forward with his fighters. Because he did not take Alpha Maxwell's words lightly. He prepared his men to fight again for the next day.

As Maxwell said, another pack's Alpha came after Adrian. But Adrian had to fight not only for his pack but also for his life. The poison that spread on his body by the stake moved really fast. He could not kill the second Alpha but only injured him. That Alpha ran away from the war in fear of his life; however, he did not forget to damage Adrian's health more.

The next two days were really difficult for Adrian.

The atmosphere of war did not ease. He was not in the Crystal Blood Pack but in the Moon Phillip Pack. He won the pack by killing Maxwell, but other Alphas would come here to kill him very soon. He intentionally did not go back to his pack, the reason was that he wanted to save his family.

*Adrian, what should we do now? Your health is getting worse every passing hour," Beta Patric said with a cold heart.

He was worried for his Alpha and his best friend. He could not believe how everything was going so wrong. As everyone set up tents in the middle of the forest and sought refuge there, they were inside one of the tents.

Adrian leaned his back against the wall of the tent.

"Your Alpha is dying," Adrian said with a chuckle.

*Alpha, please don't say that we will save you," Gamma Benjamin said.

Theta Emon and Delta Julian stood in a corner with their heads low. If it were about fighting, they would have tried to win it, but it was about Adrian's health, they were losing it. The poison was numbing his body slowly. He shifted back after facing many difficulties. If the war continued and he would shift to his wolf form once again, it would be the end for him.

Adrian stared out of the tent into the pitch-black sky. There was a smile on his face, which hurt his officials. *Delta Julian."

"Yes, Alpha?"

Everyone calmly waited for Adrian to command something about the war, but all four were shocked when they heard Adrian's statement.

"Go back to the Crystal Blood Pack and announce that their Alpha is going to die."

"W-What?" Patric asked, stuttering as he could not believe his words.

Adrian turned his gaze from the sky, looked at Julian, and then commanded him.

"Announce it to my whole pack that Alpha Adrian has stepped down from his position and declared a new Alpha of their pack. I talked to Dad before coming to the war. Just go to him and tell him to declare it. Remain by his side when he will declare it as a witness on behalf of your Alpha."

"Who is the new Alpha? Noah? But he is too small to="

Adrian shifted his gaze at Patric, which caused him to stop talking. Adrian took a deep and shaky breath, then replied,

"Natalia Hansley will be the new Alpha of my pack."

Chapter 388

The morning was not so good for Natalla. It was because her wolf had been reacting strangely for the p reacting strangely for the past few days. She had no idea why her wolf started howling inside her without any reason.

Whenever she asked her wolf about it, she only replied,

"I want my mate."

Natalia could not forget Adrian. She took over the pack company again. But her mind could not focus on her work and was instead thinking about the night of her heat. She could not think of anyone else or move on. It was like her life was paused after coming back to this pack.

Her children came to meet her every month. Sometimes they talked about their as passing his father. She could not help but feel curious about how Adria days.

It was because of his words that she could not forget- "I will never marry anymore. For me, you will always be my wife."

Natalia let out a deep breath as she thought her day started like a daily one. But the door of her room flung open.

She turned around and found Eric. His eyes were wide as if he was frustrated.

"What happened?" Natalia asked him immediately after looking at his expression.

"Natalia, let's go do go downstairs hurriedly. There is something you have to know."

After saying that, Eric grabbed her hand and dragged her downstairs.

Natalia was taken aback by his action. When she came downstairs, she saw Delta Julian.

“Julian?” she mumbled with confusion.

Jason looked at Natalia carefully and said,

“Nata” Adrian has declared you the new Head Alpha of his pack.”

Natalia frowned at him. “What are you saying?”

Jason glanced at his parents, then shifted his gaze to Natalia again.

“Adrian’s health is not so good. He is injured, and maybe...”

Natalia’s eyes widened as they turned blurry. “Maybe what, brother?”

Her heart shattered into pieces when she heard her brother again.

“Adrian is dying. Before his death, he wants to hand over his position, so he has declared that you are the new Head Alpha in his pack. Only his pack and we know about it.

Natalia shook her head in disbelief. “No, it’s not possible. He can’t die,” she murmured, taking a few steps backwards.

Everyone in Natalia’s family felt terrible for Adrian. Delta Julian lowered his head in sadness. He could not express how helpless he and other officials were. They tried to talk to Harold, but it seemed like there was no one who could help Adrian now.

“I am going to send my men into the war to help him in the war. But I am afraid that it would not change the fact that his body is injured. Delta Julian said his whole body is currently full of poison. Only a healer can try to cure him. However, I heard Max say that he could not help him. It was not under his control anymore.”

Natalia’s brows raised when she heard his brother. “Poison? but-”

Delta Juliana interrupted her and told her everything about Adrian’s sudden health issue that started a few months ago.

“We are helpless to see our Alpha like this,” Delta Julian said, tightening his fists.

Natalia felt tears stream out of her eyes. She wiped her tears and said,

“Take me to him.”

Everyone was stunned.

“But it’s a war going on there,” Jade said to her daughter.

Natalia shook her head and replied,

“Mom, I can’t stay here quietly, thinking about how to rule his pack after his death. I can’t see him die.”

Delta Julian opposed it as he said, “You are now our head Alpha. If you go to the war and anything happens to you, we will lose the pack.”

Natalia gave him a bitter smile. “I will not let him die when I am still alive.”

Delta Juliana’s brows lifted as he immediately bowed to her in respect.

“I’m coming with you. He helped us once; it’s time to return his help,” Jason said to Natalia.

Natalia looked at Jason and stopped him by saying,

“Brother, please. You need to be here. You need to take care of Adrian’s parents and his children.”

Natalia took her leave from her family and left their pack house.

She shifted with Delta Julian and began to run for the Moon Phillips Pack, where Adrian was.

While running as fast as she could, Natalia thought in her head,

“I am coming for you, Adrian. Please don’t die.”

“Adrian, I can’t believe you love her this much. You made her your pack’s head Alpha! I mean, we can understand her brother. He had no other options but you. But you did it out of love. You knew she would move on with another man, but still, you gave her the power to rule your pack,” Beta Patric said..

He was sitting with Adria in their tent. The night was very cold, and Delta Julian had not returned from the Crystal Blood Pack yet.

They took shelter in a side of the forest that was close to a village. Since Adrian won the pack and had become the head Alpha, they managed to give everything in their hands to help him and the pack fighters.

They sent them clothes, food, and drinks. Everyone was surprised villagers were happy to get Adrian as their new Alpha. It was because their old Alpha never cared for them or even did anything for their village's development. They were living very poor lives, yet they helped Adrian and the pack fighters.

There was a silence inside the tent as Adrian did not reply to Patric. He closed his eyes in agony. His whole body was burning with fever. The poison was spreading in his whole body very quickly.

After some time, Beta Patric got to his feet. Adrian opened his eyes and looked at him.

"Where are you going?"

He saw Patric look in a hurry as he made his way to leave the tent. "I'm coming back."

"Is everything okay? Did they attack at this hour?" Adrian asked, trying to move.

Patric shook his head and replied,

"Calm down. Let me see. I think Julian has returned."

Adrian nodded his head and closed his eyes again. His pain was increasing with every breath. He did not say anything to his officials because tomorrow they would have to fight.

Though his death was inevitable, he did not want the other Alpha to attack the Suddenly, a familiar scent reached his nostrils, which shook his wolf inside. He immediately opened his eyes and looked around.

There was a hurricane lamb inside the tent. But outside, there was no light. So he could not see anything from inside the tent. He tried to glance outside the tent to make sure everything was okay.

The tent was thick enough that no one could see what was happening around it; no one could see what was going on inside either.

Adrian's eyes flashed red for a moment as the scent got closer

He was about to stand up, but before that, all of his officials opened the tent slightly.

A silhouette of a giant wolf came into Adrian's sight. His eyes widened when he realized who the wolf was.

The black wolf entered the tent and turned to the officials. All the officials, including Patric, bowed to the wolf, left the tent, and closed it from outside.

The wolf turned to Adrian and looked at him with dark blue eyes.

Adrian's raspy voice came out with a fear of danger.

"Natalia? Why are you here?"

Chapter 390

Natalla looked at Adrian as soon as she turned to him. Her wolf howled in front of him, showing the pain she was feeling after watching her mate in that state.

As Natalia moved toward him in her wolf form, Adrian pulled her closer to him with his left hand to embrace her.

"Why are you here? You shouldn't have dome. Have you come here to meet me for the last time? I'm happy that you are here to see me. But you need to go back before the sun rises."

Natalia closed her eyes as soon as she felt his fingers graze her fur. She nuzzled his neck and smelled his scent.

She realized that he had a high fever. She moved her head and gazed at him.

Adrian cupped her face with his left hand. His right hand caught her attention, and there she saw his bandaged arm.

Adrian patted her head and said, "Shift."

When he saw she was not even moving, he thought she did not want to shift in front of him.

So he grabbed his blanket and wrapped it around her body.

"You can shift now. I will not see your naked body. I promise."

He turned his head to the other side, assuring her that he had no bad intentions toward her. The man was on the edge of death. How could he even think that?

Natalia shifted back and held the blanket around her body. She looked at Adrian carefully. She could see how pale he had become in a few months. He lost his glamorous appearance as the poison spread through his body.

Adrian turned his head when he realized that she had shifted back.

His eyes froze when he saw the woman sitting on her knees close to him. Her soft hands were holding the blanket, hiding her naked body from him.

Her beauty felt blissful to his eyes. A smile appeared on his lips as he spoke,

Adrian chuckled as he found her anger cute. He sighed and put his hand on her head. He rubbed her soft hair and said.

"I need to tell you something."

"What?" she asked in a low tone.

Adrian removed his hand from her head and leaned his head back against the tent. He looked into her eyes and said,

"I accept everything was my fault. I am passing my last moments while thinking about you. Now my heart has also stopped waiting for you. It's not that I am not in love with you anymore. But I no longer have the ability to get your back."

Chapter 391

Almost immediately after Adrian had finished his sentence, Natalia moved closer to him and encircled his torso with her arms.

Adrian was taken aback by her action. He thought she had come here to scold him.

While she was hugging him tightly, Natalia placed her head on his chest.

The blanket slipped from her upper body as her breasts pressed against his bare chest. He was only wearing a pair of black joggers.

"Stop talking like a fool. You still have every ability. Nothing happened to you," she mumbled.

Her words caused Adrian to experience a sharp pain in his chest. He was passing his last time well, and there was no hope in his head to stay alive or fight back. However, the moment this woman embraced him, fear began to spread throughout his heart. It was the fear of leaving her. All of a sudden, he desired to stay alive and to be able to hold this woman in his arms forever.

He reached out and grabbed the blanket that was rolled around her waist. He covered her bare back with the blanket and pressed his hand on her back.

"Do you mean I still have a chance?" he asked with a laugh.

She broke the hug and looked at him. Her hair cascaded down to cover her beautiful and soft bosoms.

His gaze swept across her body before returning to her face. "Woman, you know that I am going to die, don't you? Have you come here to tease me?"

She hit his arm lightly.

"Shut up."

Adrian groaned as if he were hurt. Natalia's lips trembled as she hurriedly touched his right hand.

"I am so sorry. Did it hurt?"

Adrian shook his head and smiled at her. "I didn't feel anything. I was just teasing you."

"You! At this stage, are you thinking of having fun?"

He glanced at her hand, which was holding his right hand.

"This hand turned numb. I am not feeling anything."

Natalia blinked as she tried to shove the tears away.

Adrian wiped her tears with his finger and muttered,

"Don't cry. I know you are a soft-hearted woman. If anyone had been in my position, you would have felt the same way. It's okay. Don't be like this. You have to rule my pack. Be stronger. Just don't give my throne to your future husband. I know you will love him, but I don't want anyone else to rule that throne but you."

Natalia clenched her jaw. She never thought she would have to ask the question to him since she was the one who always talked about moving on.

"Do you really think I will marry another man?"

Adrian gently stroked her cheek with his knuckles and whispered,

"I don't want to say that, but I want you to find the best man who will give you the love that I could never give you in your life. Respect is very important in life. Find someone who will give you respect."

Chapter 392

Natalia chose to ignore his words because they caused her heart to feel hurt. She lowered her head and asked,

“That day after my heat, I shouldn’t have said those things to you. I am sorry.”

He shook his head in response.

“Please don’t feel guilty for anything. I got what I deserved. Maybe it is my end. This is how fate decided to close my chapter. You said nothing wrong. I did the same to you and got back a little from you. There is nothing for you to apologize for. I took your card and kept it in my study room. Since I am dying, I can’t spend the money. You can use that for Aria and Noah though,” he said and chuckled.

His remarks were causing Natalia deep emotional pain. It was like he was saying his last wishes to her.

She could not help but realize that she still loved this man.

She never forgot him. All of her life, she was only affected by one man, and that was him.

How could she let him go now?

“Natalia, I want to tell you that I have always loved you. You are the only woman in my heart, and I can not forgive myself for how I had ruined your life. If you can, please forgive me, thinking that it is my last wish.”

Natalia kept crying while listening to his words. She did not stop her tears and let them flow out.

Once again, Adrian wiped away her tears.

“Don’t cry. I promised my children not to make their mother cry for me again.”

Natalia nodded her head and wiped her tears away. She took a deep breath and said,

“You asked me something a few months ago. I rejected you that time. Will you ask me that again? Maybe I will change my answer.”

He laughed when he realized she was talking about the re-marriage proposal.

“My baby, you missed the chance. Now the time is over.”

She glared at him. “I am not kidding.”

He shook his head and closed his eyes. “I can’t. You are lucky that you didn’t accept my proposal that day. Otherwise you will have to prepare yourself for becoming a widow right now.”

“Adrian, I-”

He cut her off and muttered with closed eyes, “No, you don’t have to sympathize with me. I don’t deserve-”

But he could not complete his sentence because, before that, Natalia cupped his cheeks and crashed her lips on his.

Adrian’s body jolted when her soft and sweet lips touched his. He open eyes and looked at her kissing him. Her lips slowly moved on his, and her eyes were closed tightly.

He could not control himself as he melted at the kiss. He pressed her body against his and kissed her back.

Though he was sick, he did not miss the opportunity to kiss the woman of his life. He kissed her passionately.

When he pushed his tongue inside her mouth she did not stop him. She played her tongue with his and ran her fingers on his bare chest.

Her fingers froze on a wound, and she broke the kiss. She lowered her head and saw her claw marks on his chest.

She slowly caressed her fingers on the marks.

“I am sorry for that night. I lost my temper and hurt you in the war, where you only came to save me.”

Her gaze returned to him, and she asked,

“Didn’t you say you want me to heal your wound? I can heal it for you.”

Chapter 393

Chapter 393

A smirk formed on his lips, and he shook his head.

"Natalia Hansley, are you in your heat again? Why are you seducing the man who is going to die? If you say you want to use me again, I can still help you, but my body is not in a good state right now. I am afraid the poison will harm you too."

He said those words with a sly grin, but Natalia could see the pain in his eyes.

She took a deep breath and said,

"Adrian, mark me."

Adrian was stunned by her words. His smirk faded, and his brows furrowed.

"What are you saying?"

Natalia nodded her head. "Mark me. You need to heal yourself. If you mark me, I can heal your wounds by giving you my strength."

"No, no. I can't mark you. You have a life. You don't have to live as 'Alpha Adrian's mate' for your whole life. A mate bond can not save me."

Natalia scowled at him, but a few seconds later, her wolf took over as her eyes turned blue.

*Then don't forget your mate is an Alpha too. Let me mark you, Mate. Your mate is the biggest healer that every Alpha wants. Her blood is poison itself, which can cure her mate without any doubt."

Adrian's eyes turned red, indicating that his wolf also took over him.

*Healer?'

Soon after, their eyes turned back to black. Adrian shook his head in denial. "No, you don't have to save me. I am aware that you are the one who saved me in childhood. But now, you don't have to force yourself to be my mate just to save my life again.'

He grabbed her arm and moved her away from his body. "I am calling Benjamin. My gamma will take you back to your pack safely."

Natalia was also an Alpha. She did not like how he pushed her away from himself.

So before Adrian could call any of his officials, she moved closer and got up on his lap, straddling him.

He was stunned when he felt her naked body on his lap. The blanket was not covering her lower body anymore.

Her eyes turned blue when she wrapped her hands around his neck. She leaned close to his face and whispered, *Keep quiet and let me mark you, Adrian Miller.

He turned his head away. "I can't let this happen. I promised to free you from myself. How can I let you mark me and force you to stay in my life again? You don't love me anymore."

Natalia cupped his cheeks with her hands and turned his head to make him look at her.

She glared at him and said in anger,

'Did the poison spread to your brain as well? Why did I come here? To see you die? Can't you see that I also love you?'

Adrian froze as if all the pain and agony had left his body and heart in a second after hearing her.

"Do you still love me?"

She caressed her thumb on his cheeks and replied, "Yes, I still love you, you crazy man. All these times you roamed around me; now that I have come to you, you are acting foolish."

He took a deep breath and asked,

'But I want to ask you something. Will my poison harm you?'

"No."

"What about my proposal?"

"You are taking advantage of this situation now. What a cunning man!"

He smirked at her. "Since you also love me, I can take a little advantage now, you know."

She smiled when she saw him getting back to himself.

"What about the proposal?" she asked.

Adrian kissed her lip and asked,

"Will you remarry me, Natalia Hansley?"

She lowered her head and replied,

"Yes, I will."

Her reply drove him insane, as he was going to kiss her again. But she pressed his chest to push him.

"What happ-

Adrian could not complete but let out a groan when Natalia tilted her head and kissed his neck. Her canines emerged, piercing his neck and marking him as hers.

Chapter 394

Adrian felt unbearable pain in his neck. It was as if her canine had a poison, and it ran down from his neck and spread throughout his whole body like a cure.

Adrian pulled her closer to him, pressing her naked body to his chest.

Slowly, he began to feel ease, and the pain was fading away.

But the mark arose inside him.

As soon as Natalia moved back after licking the mark, Adrian grabbed the back of her neck and kissed her.

Natalia could not deny that she was also aroused by marking him. It gave her a feeling of possession. She was an Alpha, and she marked her mate as hers.

She kissed him back while wrapping her hands around his neck.

She felt something bulge beneath her and poke her bottom. She froze as she stopped kissing him.

She looked at him as sudden shyness rushed inside her. She was so engrossed in marking him that she did not realize how boldly she was sitting on his lap, naked.

She tried to move, but he groaned and grabbed her waist to keep her unmoved.

"I didn't mean to seduce you in this state. You are injured right now, so-

*Fuck my injury. I can't control myself when my mate is here sitting on my lap naked."

Adrian twisted their bodies, which caused her to lay on the ground over the blanket that had fallen from her body a few minutes ago.

"What about others? They will come here."

Adrian kissed her chin and muttered,

"No one will dare enter without my permission. Nor will anyone see what's happening inside. Just allow me to have you now. If I stay alive, I will mark you mine after our remarriage."

Natalia nodded her head in response.

The night was very long.

The flame inside the hurricane lamp moved just like the two bodies moved with each other.

They were no longer a divorced couple, but had become mates. One marked her mate, and the other would mark her after marrying her again with respect.

They made love all night, finally finding love after so many years of suffering.

When Natalia woke up, she found herself on Adrian's chest. His left arm was protectively holding her.

Natalia looked at his handsome face and realized that the heaviness in her heart that she had been holding all these years had finally vanished.

She realized that this man really loved her a lot. All the things that had happened were not all his fault, but the misunderstandings and the gameplay of their fates. But finally, they were together.

She could not believe she had accepted Adrian, and he also loved her so much. It felt like a dream to her. They had their children, and they would live a happy life from now on.

She glanced at Adrian's right arm. She slowly moved Adrian's left hand and sat up. She gently touched his right hand and kissed the back of the hand.

"Is it still numb?" she muttered, knowing that he was asleep.

She leaned on his chest and kissed his wound.

"I believe it will also heal soon."

When she was about to move, a pair of hands grabbed her bare waist.

She gasped when she saw him open his eyes.

"You were awake!"

He smiled at her and smooched on her lips. "Just a few minutes ago."

At that moment, Beta Patric opened the tent and came inside.

Adrian quickly covered Natalia's upper back, the only thing visible from Patric's side.

"What the hell, Patric?"

Patric did not look like in a sense to look at anywhere or think about anything. He immediately replied, "Come out faster. We are under attack!"

Chapter 395

After uttering those words, Patric hurried outside.

Natalia looked at Adrian in shock and said,

"You stay inside. I am going outside."

"No, I can move my left hand now. I will come with you."

"Then let me go first."

Natalia did not give Adrian time to think as she shifted into her wolf form and rushed outside. She had no time to find clothes and wear them. It was a war, and she would have to fight in her wolf form anyway.

But as soon as she came out of the tent, she was stunned.

The wolves were fighting each other. She saw a few men who had not shifted yet.

She made her way to the men; however, she was shocked when she saw a familiar face.

She could not help but speak in the mind link.

“Harold!”

Since she had recently become the head Alpha, everyone heard her and turned their heads to look at her. Every official was equally shocked to see Harold. They could not understand why he was there, or how he knew they were there.

What confused everyone about him was that he was not standing alone but with the head Alpha of another pack. It was the third Alpha who was supposed to attack Adrian.

Why was Harold with him?

That Alpha was about to approach Natalia, but Harold stopped him and walked towards Natalia.

“Look who’s here, our new head Alpha,” Harold said.

Natalia brows furrowed as her blue eyes baffled a little.

SANOU B1+

“What are you doing here with this Alpha He is our pack’s enemy.”

Harold let out a laugh. “Enemy? He is not your enemy. Do you know who your biggest enemy is? It’s me.”

Natalia’s eyes widened.

She heard growling beside her. Gamma Benjamin rushed toward Harold to attack him, but Harold pulled out a knife from his waistband and stabbed it in Benjamin’s arm.

Benjamin groaned on the ground. Beta Patric and the other two officials were so angry that they went after Harold together. It caused Harold to take a few steps back.

The other Alpha, who had come for the war, told his men to kill everyone, and the battle began.

Natalia ignored Alpha and dashed in Harold’s direction. She could not believe Harold, whom she had thought of as a friend, was their enemy.

But the question was, Why?

Beta Patric dodged the knife attack and bit Harold’s leg. Harold managed to hurt Patric and others.

“Harold, why are you doing this?” Natalia asked him.

The officials stopped attacking Harold because they wanted to know the answer as well.

Harold stood up and limped towards her. "I came here only to kill Alpha Adrian. Where is he? He must be lying somewhere, lifeless. But don't worry, I won't hurt you. Because after marrying you, I will become the leader of the Crystal Blood Pack."

"What are you saying?" Natalia asked with shock.

Harold let out a dark laugh and replied,

"You thought I was your well-wisher? No, dear. I was the one who planned everything. I am not Harold Reid, but Harold Pierce."

Chapter 396

Natalia froze in her place.

"Pierce?"

As if the officials were aware of what was going on, they rushed to the Alpha, who had arrived for the war, and attacked him. They fought with his officials and tried to kill the Alpha to stop the war

Harold shrugged his shoulders, showing no concern for the Alpha being attacked. He answered Natalia by saying,

"That is right, Pierce. Gamma Jeremy was my father, and you all killed him. I was the son of his first wife, but he never acknowledged that. I had his word. that he would assist me in taking control of the pack. But then that man betrayed me and wanted his daughter to be the Luna of this pack."

Natalia looked at Harold with disbelief. Harold did not stop, as he got a chance to say whatever was on his mind all these years.

"I believe it is fortunate that my father and his family died together. Otherwise, he would continue to support Lynda. I helped her a lot by keeping the truth hidden. I was the one who changed your name into her name in the hospital report when Adrian's father asked me about it. I lied to Adrian about Lynda's health. I helped them keep the secret about your children from Adrian. I knew Adrian would accept those children years ago, but I was the one who manipulated you into believing Adrian would kill your children. I played with your mind and forced you to leave the pack.

Though Natalia was in her wolf form, the shock was still visible in her eyes.

“No, it’s not true,” she said in mindlink.

Harold smirked at her and asked,

“Do you want to know more? Adrian’s father was not that deadly sick. I lied to everyone and forced you to give me Max’s cure so that when I planned to kill your brother, no one could save him.”

Natalia’s body trembled in shock. The more Harold was talking, the more she was getting broken inside. She used to believe this man and think that he was her and her children’s life savior. But it was the complete opposite.

7 was the one who informed Alpha Leo so that Adrian could go to your rescue and both of you could die in the war together. But my plan failed when Adrian returned after killing Alpha Leo I gave Alpha Leo those poisoned stakes with the intention of killing you all. But that man was a loser, he could not fight and died ”

“How could you, Harold? I thought you were my friend, Natalia mumbled to him in her mind link

Harold shook his head, as if he considered her an idiot.

“Friend? Oh, my dear, I will become your husband very soon. Do you know what the biggest thing I will do in my life is? I will kill your ex-husband. He believed he was superior, didn’t he? But he doesn’t know that someone can be one step ahead of him. I was the one who gave Alpha Maxwell that isonous stake, just like I gave Alpha Leo. Do you know why that poison affects Adrian? It is because I gave him a poison that gradually reduced his wolf’s strength. He considered me to be his loyal doctor and took treatment from me. It was easy for me to inject the poison into his body. Now he has reached the point where no one in this world can save him.

The Alpha, who had come with Harold, shoved Adrian’s officials and rushed toward Natalia. He did not care about what Harold was talking about. His mind was fixed on Natalia because if he killed her, he would get the Crystal Blood Pack.

Natalia was so caught up in Harold’s words that she did not notice Alpha approaching her.

Patric screamed in the mind link to alert Natalia, but it was too late for her to respond.

“NATALIA!”

Because when Natalia turned around, that Alpha was a few inches away from getting close to her.

Harold was also shocked because he did not want Natalia to die. He wanted to imprison her so that he could force her to submit to him and give him the position of the pack's leader.

However, as the Alpha was about to stab Natalia's wolf, a hand grabbed the knife with a tight grip.

Harold's eyes widened when he saw that it was Adrian who stopped the knife.

"A—Adrian?"

Adrian snatched the knife away from that Alpha, though his palm was bleeding. He grabbed the back of the man's neck.

Before that man's officials could reach Adrian, he stabbed the knife on his neck.

"Your biggest fault is that you believed in this knife too much and didn't shift for the war.

Adrian let go of the man. His lifeless body fell to the ground, and the war stopped.

Adrian turned his head at Harold and asked,

"So what were you saying? I am lying somewhere lifelessly, right?"

Harold looked at Adrian with wide eyes. His eyes scanned Adrian's body, and he saw that his legs looked fine over the black joggers. He was shirtless. There were only two wounds on his body. A wound on his right arm and a wound of claw marks on his chest.

However, his eyes fell on his neck.

"A mark? Did she mark you?" Harold asked with confusion.

Adrian rubbed the edge of the sharp knife on his neck that he used to kill the Alpha and replied,

“Yeah, she accepted me. Isn’t it a great thing, Doctor Harold?”

Natalia turned around and looked at Adrian. She then said to him in her mind a link that everyone could hear.

“He poisoned you. He planned everything, Adrian.”

“Don’t worry, baby. I knew it was his plan when Julian told me he refused to come to treat me after the war. It was only him and my officials who knew about my health problems.

How did other Alphas know?”

Harold shook his head as he felt that he could not take a step back now.

He rushed toward Adrian to kill him. But Adrian did not move or shift in his wolf form.

Instead, he said to Natalia,

“He is your culprit. He is your prey.”

Natalia realized how Harold had betrayed her all these years. Her Alpha blood boiled as she let out an ear-piercing growl. It shook everyone on the ground except Adrian.

Natalia dashed over to Harold and bit his arm when he was startled by her sudden movement.

She bit so hard that his arm ripped from his body. Harold was shocked when he found his body without his hand. He growled but could not shift. He held the knife and stabbed Natalia’s neck.

He successfully stabbed it in Natalia’s neck, which shocked everyone around her.

Adrian’s beta turned to Adrian to see him.

But Adrian did not react.

After a few seconds, Harold saw a red mark glowing on the back of Natalia’s neck. It looked like two daggers crossed.

Harold’s hand was shaken as she saw the daggers glowing red.

“You are the healer! The two daggers healer that people had been searching for!”

He could not believe his eyes. How foolishly he stabbed the knife in her neck when its poison would never work on her. She herself was poisonous. Her whole body was a poison and, at the same time, a cure for any wound.

Harold knelt his head on the ground and begged,

“Forgive me.”

He thought Natalia would let go of him because he knew Natalia was a soft-hearted woman.

But he had not seen her other face yet.

Natalia growled at him and bit his neck. He tried to break free himself; he cried to others to save him too.

However, nobody stepped up to help him. Natalia ripped his head apart, biting his neck as hard as she did his arm.

Feeling guilty for having trusted Harold, she stared at his lifeless body.

Adrian rushed to her and embraced her wolf in his arms.

He kissed her head, and his nose nuzzled her fur. He rubbed his hands over her black fur and said,

“Don’t give a damn about anything. As we decided last night, we will only live a happy life and forget about our past.”

Alpha 398

People around the grand hall were looking at the stage, fixing their gazes at the two people who were looking at each other.

The hall was decorated so beautifully that it looked like heaven to all the guests.

Everywhere they looked, everything was luxurious. But the most beautiful bliss was watching the handsome man in a black suit and the lovely woman in her bridal gown.

“Do you, Alpha Adrian, accept Natalia Hensley as your wife, Luna, and your mate?”

The whole hall turned silent after hearing the priest.

Adrian looked at the woman in front of him.

It had been two months since she marked him.

She was not only his mate but also the love of his life. He smiled at her when he noticed she was nervous.

“Yes, I do.”

Natalia bit her bottom lip as she averted her gaze away from Adrian. Her cheeks turned red when she heard his deep voice.

“Do you, Natalia Hansley, accept Adrian Miller as your husband, Alpha, and your mate?”

She had already accepted him as her mate two months ago. The proof was right there on his neck. She blinked her eyes with a small smile and replied, pronounce you as husband and wife. All hail to you both, Alpha and Luna.”

“Yes, I do.”

”I

As soon as the priest said that, all the guests in the hall cheered for the newlywed couple.

After returning from the war, Natalia returned Adrian his position, as she had never accepted his position as her own. It was always his throne, not hers. But yes, she could rule it as his Luna.

Natalia glanced at her parents, who were smiling at her. Their eyes were filled with tears. It was a tear of happiness. They were witnessing their daughter’s marriage.

Her brother Jason looked pleased as he finally saw his sister get married to someone who would protect her like he used to protect her.

Adrian’s parents were also sitting next to them. They all looked like a family now. It appeared that their marriage was a ribbon that connected the two packs and put an end to years of rivalry.

“Yes! Mommy and Daddy!”

“We are going to live together now!”

Noah and Aria dashed toward them as soon as they stepped off the stage. Adrian cradled Aria in his arms while holding Noah’s hand.

He raised an eyebrow at them. They both gave him thumbs up. Aria hugged his neck while Noah hugged his legs. They were very happy with their father.

He did not break their promise and got their mother back to their lives. He fulfilled his promise to them that the four of them would live together.

When Adrian put Aria down, she and Noah hugged their mother. Natalia bent down and kissed their foreheads.

“My babies, are you both happy?”

“Yes! We will live together. We can also go to our schools with both of you on the parents’ meeting day. We will have fun together whenever we want,” Aria said cheerfully.

Noah nodded his head with a grin.

“Yes, and we do not have to go to Mommy’s house to meet her because she will be living with us.’

Natalia’s mother, Jade, cleared her throat and said,

“You mean, you don’t like to go to Mommy’s house and play with your grandparents?”

Noah’s eyes widened as he shook his head. No, granny. I didn’t mean it.”

Everyone laughed at the cuteness of the two children. They were all satisfied, with pleased expressions on their faces.

Adrian’s officials congratulated Natalia. She thanked them. Patric winked at Adrian and whispered,

“Finally, you made her yours, huh?”

Adrian smirked when he heard that. “Yes, finally, she is mine. I will never let her go now. She is only mine.”

Patric cleared his throat and patted his back. “Relax, Alpha. Calm down. Otherwise, who knows, you may have ended up marking her right here in front of us.”

Adrian paused as he turned his head at Patric. Patric smirked at his best friend, whom he had successfully teased.

However, Adrian turned out to be shameless. “Why not? I don’t have any problem with it.”

“Are you sure? Where has your possessiveness over ‘My woman’ attitude gone?”

Adrian gave him a sly grin and replied,

“I said I don’t have any problem with it. All I need to do is pull out everyone’s eyes so that they can’t watch her in the state when I mark her.”

Patric gulped when he saw his sinister grin. Bro, calm down, please.”

Adrian chuckled at his words. He met Jason, and they hugged each other.

Who would say they used to be rivals?

Eric also congratulated Adrian since there was no problem between the two men any longer.

Adrian noticed Eric was looking at Alpha Wade’s daughter, Tyra Campbell. She blushed and looked away from him.

“She is not that young. Why are you keeping yourself from approaching her? She told me that she likes you,” Adrian said to Eric, patting his shoulder.

Adrian invited the Storm Forest Pack so that Eric could meet his mate again. It was Natalia’s request to him.

“Her dad will not agree. He wants an Alpha for his daughter.”

“I have already talked to him. He is okay with her daughter’s mate. And why does he need an Alpha when a Beta is more than enough for his daughter?”

Eric was stunned by hearing Adrian. He hugged Adrian. “Thanks, Adrian.”

They chuckled, remembering how they had fought for Natalia before.

Natalia went to speak to Adrian’s parents. Alpha Lucas patted her on the head.

“I have always wanted you to be my daughter-in-law.

Grace hugged Natalia and said, “You have saved my son’s life twice. Then you came back and saved me from that poison by making a cure for me. Who thought we would get a healer as our daughter-in-law? You are a blessing to us.”

As the celebration party continued, Adrian and Natalia met Max and Lily. Max told Adrian to take care of Natalia and apologized to Natalia for breaking her heart. Natalia insisted that she be the one to express gratitude to him for saving his brother.

After the grand feast, every guest began to leave the venue.

When it was time to leave for the bride and groom, Adrian opened the back door of his car and gestured for Natalia to get in.

Natalia waved at everyone. In fact, her children were also happy that she was going with their father. Grace told them that their parents should have some alone time.

Adrian brought Natalia to his villa, where they had lived during their marriage.

When Natalia opened the door, she gasped. The whole house was beautifully adorned with roses.

She heard the sound of the main door being closed as she surveyed her surroundings.

As soon as she turned around, Adrian picked her up into his arms.

“Adrian!”

Chapter 400

“Shhhh”

He pressed his finger on her lips while carrying her with one hand. As he removed his finger from her lips, he held her with his both arms and went upstairs to their bedroom

The bedroom looked gorgeous. Beautiful scents of candles were in the air, and she could smell them.

Adrian did not wait any longer, as he closed the door with his leg and shoved her onto the bed.

She blinked her eyes as she saw how he was looking at her. She felt shy because of the intensity in his eyes.

He moved closer to her as he climbed onto the bed. He leaned down and kissed her.

The kiss heated up as he turned her on. She wrapped her hands around his neck and twisted their positions.

She pinned him down.

He sat up while holding her in his arms and leaned his back against the headboard.

He smirked and said,

“This is how life will be from now on. An Alpha wife and her equal desire to be the top.”

Natalia ripped off his shirt and replied,

“I want to heal your wound. You told me I could do that only after I took the vows.”

Adrian was stunned, but then he grabbed the back of her neck and pulled her closer to his mouth.

“Why not? I was just waiting for it, baby.”

She looked into his eyes while lowering her head toward his bare chest.

She did exactly what he did to heal her. Without breaking their eye contact, she kissed his chest and licked on the claw marks.

He groaned as he felt pain, but then it turned into pleasure.

He pressed her head closer to his chest, feeling her tongue roll over his wounds. It was so intimate that he felt his member twitch inside his pants.

The moment she moved her head from his chest after healing his wound, Adrian grabbed her waist and pressed her back against the mattress.

“You don’t know how much I want to love you right now. I can make love to you the whole fucking night.”

He did not rip her gown because it was her wedding dress, but he removed it quickly. When he stripped her naked in front of him, his eyes scanned every inch of her body.

Natalia bit her bottom lips as she tried to hide herself with her hands. She felt shy in front of his eyes. Every time he looked at her body, it felt as if he were seeing it for the first time.

Adrian leaned down, pressing his body against hers. He kissed her while his hands kneaded her breasts.

He broke the kiss and attacked her tender bosom. His tongue rolled over one nipple while his fingers played with the other.

Natalia did not hold it and moaned loudly since they were all alone in the house.

Slowly, Adrian moved down as his lips stopped on her core. She gasped when he started licking her folds.

As he told her in the night of her heat, he could taste her all night long.

When she came into his mouth, her body began to shake.

He wiped her with his tongue and then got out of bed. He took off his clothes while looking at her.

She wanted to conceal herself from his gaze. She glanced at his member and let out a shaky breath. It stood tall just to get into her entrance.

When he sat between her legs, he began to rub his member on her entrance.

“Ahhh!”

She was a moaning mess because, without even pushing, he was giving her so much pleasure.

Adrian leaned down to kiss her while pushing his member inside her. He thrust inside her and did not have any intention to show any mercy tonight.

Natalia dug her nails into his back with pleasure when he deepened the kiss.

After a passionate kiss, he moved toward her neck. His canines emerged, and his eyes turned red.

With all the pleasure he was feeling right then, he pierced his canines into her neck while thrusting inside her.

“ADRIAN!”

She moaned his name every time he hit her tender spot. The pain of the mark, combined with the pleasure she was experiencing, became painful pleasures.

Adrian licked her neck where he had marked her and moved his lips to kiss her again.

They came together while holding each other. His member was still throbbing inside as her core was clenching it tightly.

They could not stop there because Adrian kept making love to her over and over.

Except for moans and groans, the only thing echoed in the room was their confessions of love for each other.

“I love you, Natalia.”

“I love you too, Adrian.”
