

Taking Alpha's Twins Away After Divorce

#Chapter 498

Chapter 498

Jason looked mad as if his blood was boiling. He was inhaling deeply as though he would harm her at any moment. His jaw clenched, preventing himself from doing anything wrong.

Lastly, he could not control himself, and his hand immediately moved to grab her neck. He growled at her as he asked,

"How dare you sleep with another guy and get pregnant?"

Hazel's eyes grew larger, feeling difficult to breathe. She patted his hand to release her. His eyes remained sharp, glaring at her while he waited for her response. "J-Jason, I-"

His grip tightened, making it impossible for her to take a deep breath. She could breathe out, but she was unable to breathe in to continue talking.

Her eyes began to well up with tears and her face went pale. Tears rolled down from her eyes, falling down on her cheeks. Her hand, gently caressing his, slowed down her movements. Her lips quivered in fear that her heart might stop beating at any moment. She reached up to touch her belly with her other hand. She looked at him with painful eyes, begging him to release her.

Her hand, which was firmly gripping her cloth over her belly, caught Jason's attention.

Then he closed his eyes and let her neck go.

As soon as he left her neck, she felt a rush of air enter her mouth, causing her to cough.

She started coughing hard while holding the wall for support.

Jason opened his eyes after controlling himself and looked at her. When he saw her sobbing, he scoffed at her.

"I thought you were a respectable woman. But it appears that after I left your pack, you were unable to resist throwing yourself at other men."

His words were cruel, which caused Hazel to turn her head to him. His deep voice was hurling harsh words at her.

She stood up straight and pressed her back against the wall. She wiped her tears and said,

"I-I am pregnant. So now you should stay away from me, Alpha Jason."

Jason's

soul. He's darkened, piercing her

did not break eye

contact, facing backlashes as if she knew she deserved it.

Jason moved his gaze to her belly and asked,

"You never think a little bit before sleeping with a married man. You have no excuse that you didn't know he was married. He is Alpha Adrian; every pack knows about him. Then how did you carry his child in your womb?"

Using both hands to conceal her belly, she muttered,

"Don't say anything about the child. It's my child and-"

He interrupted her with a growl,

"And it is a bastard."

When Hazel heard him call her child a bastard, her eyes glowed emerald, and her pale face turned fierce as she spoke. "How can you address my child like that? It's pure, it's "

He cut her off by grabbing her jaw. "Don't dare to show me these green eyes of yours. I will pull them out. You slept with whoever you wanted; I would have let it slide and thrown you out of my mind. But you made a mistake."

He whispered as he gazed intently into her eyes,

"You dared to sleep with my sister's husband. No one is more important to me than her."

Chapter 499

Hazel let out a painful hiss. She remembered the time Natalia had grabbed her by the neck. She became aware that both of the siblings were easily agitated. Turning her head away from Jason, she muttered, "I-I didn't know he was your sister's h-husband; otherwise..."

"Otherwise? Otherwise what? You would have slept with some other guy?" He let out an angry laugh.

His jaw clenched as he stared at the woman. There was a burn in his chest, making him feel irritated.

He could never describe what he was feeling inside. All he wanted was to kill this woman.

"You were here, living a luxurious life in this pack while carrying another man's child, and there I..."

He paused, attempting to hide his emotions from her.

Hazel cast a slow glance at him. She took a shaky breath before asking,

"You what?"

His hand gripped her jaw and he pulled her face toward his. Their faces were close, which caused her to remain still.

"And there I have been looking for you throughout your entire pack. I thought your old grandpa did not want you to be with me. Your so-called brother, who is so proud of his sister, turned down my proposal to make you my Luna." Her eyes widened. She seemed to be in shock. Tears ran down her cheeks. Her hands were trembling at her sides. Her heart started beating faster.

"Y-You proposed to my brother t-to marry me?" she asked.

Jason scoffed at her reaction. "Stop pretending to cry. You are a wonderful actress. I am curious how you managed to fool a man like Alpha Adrian. What did you do to him that caused him to dance around your finger?" Hazel opened her mouth to say something. But before she could say anything, another voice emerged from behind Jason.

"She slept with that man. She was so good at warming his bed that he does not want to lose her right now."

Her words caused Jason to freeze. It only infuriated him more. He pushed Hazel's jaw and turned to face the woman who had just spoken.

"Mrs. Leighton, you still have the habit of eavesdropping! Still spitting out words without shame, whenever you speak."

Ansel was taken aback but chuckled in response. She walked up to them and paused next to Hazel. She glared at Hazel as she noticed tears in her eyes. "Why are you crying, darling? Was he bullying you?"

Hazel lowered her head and shook it in denial. "No. He was only talking, nothing else." "Nothing else?" Ansel turned her attention back to Jason.

"Alpha Jason, as you have already heard that she is pregnant with another man, why don't you just let her go? know you fancy my sister-in-law; after all, she is attractive and capable of doing many things. But..."

She smirked at him before continuing, "She is Alpha Adrian's woman now. If you have any problem go and talk to him instead of hurting her. Wait, you can't even kill him. It will only turn your sister into a widow. I hope you won't like to see it."

Jason gave her a hard look. His fists tightened as he shifted his gaze at Hazel for the last time and left from there.

Ansel turned around and grabbed Hazel's jaw. Hazel gasped in pain and looked at her sister-in-law.

"If Grandpa hears about this conversation, he will be very angry. You know that, right?"

Hazel pushed her hand and rubbed her jaw. While holding her belly, she asked,

"Did Jason propose to Brother about marrying me? Did he really want me to make me his Luna?"

Chapter 500

The sharp eyes of Ansel were able to observe Hazel. It was clear that she was not in the least bit pleased. "Hazel, don't forget why you are here." "I-I asked you something. Didn't you say "

"Shut up!"

Hazel bit her tongue and averted her gaze from Ansel. Ansel grabbed Hazel's hand and looked around to see if anyone was there.

When Ansel saw there was no one, she leaned close to Hazel and said angrily,

"If I hadn't come here, you would have spilled all the truth to Alpha Jason."

Hazel looked at her, intending to speak, but Ansel shook her head. "No, no, honey. You are not brave enough to do it."

Ansel's hand moved toward her belly, raising her brows. Hazel tried to push her hand, but Ansel pressed her hands against her belly.

"Don't dare to lose the track, or I will kill your child."

Hazel gritted her teeth, nodding her head. "Don't kill my child."

Ansel grinned evilly as he examined Hazel's belly. "Who wishes to kill it? It will get Alpha Adrian's name. If your brother had not been in my life, I would have carried his child."

Hazel was stunned. "S-Sister-in-law! H-How could you say that?"

"You already know why we came here. We only have one goal- to keep whatever Alpha Adrian has. Allow him to believe he wants you to be his mistress. We will turn you into his Luna. His wife is a piece of cake to me." Hazel shook her head. "No, she is not as weak as you all think. She is different from their kind."

Ansel tilted her head. "Different? How?"

"She is an Alpha in rank."

Ansel raised her brow, refusing to believe it. "An alpha female? Is she as strong as an Alpha male?"

"She has more power than them."

Ansel fixed her gaze on Hazel, contemplating something.

"Are you praising her? Did you mean it would be tough for me to play with her?"

Hazel lowered her gaze and replied,

"I was just informing you. She had been in wars before and had once saved Adrian. She is the reason Adrian is still alive today."

Ansel's lips parted in shock.

"Someone saved Alpha Adrian? I was not aware of it. Looks like she has some capabilities. By the way, I am aware of her weakness. That's her children. Why didn't you hurt her son when I told you?"

Hazel remembered how Ansel had instructed her to harm Noah. Noah had been ill for several days, with a fever because of her. Later, she stopped the effects and allowed him to heal on his own.

"They are just children."

"Children? They are the thorns in your path. Because of that boy, Natalia had so much power to take control of everything. That boy is the heir to the throne, you idiot." Hazel remained quiet for some time. Ansel frowned at her, holding her jaw again to force her to look at her.

"You are alive today because of Alpha Adrian That night, if he had not saved you at the border, you would have been killed. So be grateful to him and stay with him. To fulfill Grandpa's wish, shift your focus away from another unimportant man and fix it on the real one."
