

Taking Alpha's Twins Away After Divorce

Chapter 518

Natalia was in disbelief. "Do you think I am a fool? You can not just show up and make a fool of me. At first, your Alpha said that Hazel is nothing to him, then he let her stay in the pack house. Later, he claimed that the child she was carrying was not his, and I believed him again. But what about now?"

Her questions pierced like daggers toward Patric. He lowered his head in defeat. "I know you have to tolerate a lot."

"Tolerate a lot? All of my life, I have been only suffering for your Alpha. He said he wants me to leave this pack."

Natalia could not stop herself from telling Patric everything that hurt her heart.

"He smashed my love in front of my brother. He told him to take me away with him. Can you imagine how well I controlled myself at that time?"

She leaned back against her chair, closing her eyes and shaking her head. "It is all because of my children. I am bearing everything just for them."

Patric took a deep breath and said, "I came back yesterday. I have collected all of the pieces of the puzzle. Trust me for once. He is possessed."

Natalia did not believe him so he told him to leave. Patric tried to make her understand again but failed. He left the office with a defeated look. He had no idea how to save his best friend now.

In the evening,

Natalia left the company to go to the pack house. During that time, Jason called him and asked her to go to a restaurant.

She remembered it as a restaurant with a lot of privacy. She was curious as to why her brother had summoned her there.

When she arrived at the restaurant, she recognized two familiar cars.

'What are Benjamin and Patric doing here?' She wondered.

She walked into the restaurant, shrugging her shoulders. A waiter took her to the cabin her brother had reserved for them.

As soon as Ava walked into the cabin, her face turned gloomy.

"What is she doing here?" she asked, pointing at the woman standing next to her brother.

"Sister-"

"Shut up. Did you manage to Natalia heard another voice.

"Your brother is right. Don't scold her."

She turned around and saw Patric and Benjamin entering the private cabin.

"What are you two doing here?" She asked.

She turned to face Jason again. "Brother, what's going on?"

Jason came toward Natalia and lowered his head.

"Why are you not speaking? What's happening here? And why are you all taking her side?"

Jason took hold of Natalia's hand and said in a low tone,

"She is innocent. The child she is carrying... that is not Adrian's but mine."
