Chapter 431: Supreme Saber Technique!

Ye Tian activated the authority token, connecting it with the rules of the saber realm fragment world, and quickly grasped the general situation of this saber realm fragment world.

The authority is only a little bit; it seems this saber realm fragment world is not very big! Ye Tian murmured to himself.

However, this authority token resonated with a certain location in the saber realm fragment world, clearly indicating that there were remnants of the Saber God Sect in that area.

What Ye Tian had been most worried about was the possibility that this saber realm fragment world might not contain any remnants of the Saber God Sect at all, being just a broken world, which would render it of little value.

Fortunately, his luck held up, and this saber realm fragment world indeed contained remnants of the Saber God Sect.

Swish! Ye Tian flew towards the location of the Saber God Sects remnants, guided by the resonance.

Not far away, Crescent Moon Heavenly Pride and Raging Sun Heavenly Pride exchanged glances, then followed Ye Tian.

They were also immensely tempted by the inheritance of the Saber God Sects remnants.

Even though they were nine-star peerless Heavenly Prides of a dominant force, many of the good things within their powerful forces were not necessarily accessible to them.

If they were to spend all their resources cultivating every Heavenly Pride, how would these dominant forces develop? Moreover, the two of them were only at the Hong level in terms of cultivation talent, and within the four major dominant forces, only those with Cosmic level cultivation talent could receive full cultivation.

Unless the two of them could become Children of the Universe, they shouldn't expect to receive full cultivation support from the four major forces. Therefore, they had to rely on themselves to seize some great opportunities.

The Saber God Sect's remnants were an incredible opportunity for them. After all, the Saber God Sect had already perished, possibly leaving behind many treasures.

If they managed to obtain a number of treasures, or even the precious inheritance of the Saber God Sect, it would be a massive gain.

Swish, swish, swish! The three of them quickly arrived at a certain area.

They saw a vast land where many broken buildings were scattered, with many of them obscured by trees, vines, and plants.

It looks like this place is truly deserted; there probably aren't any survivors from the Saber God Sect! Ye Tian said in a low voice.

If there were survivors from the Saber God Sect, this place wouldn't be in such a state of desolation.

Moreover, the extent of the damage suggested that it was caused by the weapons used by the enemies of the Saber God Sect back then.

The weapon must have unleashed a terrifying attack, shattering the saber realm and leaving this place in its current state.

However, Ye Tian still noticed a few intact buildings.

His gaze fixed on a temple in the center. The temple's exterior was cracked, but it was relatively intact overall, and there was even a broken formation slowly operating.

Ye Tian flew towards this temple and landed on the plaza outside the temple.

Crescent Moon Heavenly Pride and Raging Sun Heavenly Pride also landed on the temple plaza.

The two of them kept a distance of no more than 5 meters from each other and were far from Ye Tian, fearing that he might attack them.

However, they were overly cautious; Ye Tian had no intention of attacking them.

The temples formation was severely damaged, but it was still a formation set up by a dominant force and not something a mere Emperor level could break through.

This place was unlike the previous inheritance sites, which were specifically prepared for Emperor level practitioners, allowing them to easily enter. On the contrary, it was difficult for practitioners above the God level to enter.

But here, it was easier for those above the God level because they had a chance to break the temples formation.

If I didnt have the authority token, I couldnt even enter, Ye Tian began to activate the authority token.

Immediately, the authority token emitted a beam of light, enveloping Ye Tian, and he stepped towards the temple. He easily passed through the temples formation and entered the interior.

As for Crescent Moon Heavenly Pride and Raging Sun Heavenly Pride, Ye Tian naturally couldnt bring the two of them into the temple.

After Ye Tian entered the temple, Crescent Moon Heavenly Pride and Raging Sun Heavenly Pride attempted to attack the formation but were utterly unable to shake it.

Forget it, we cant enter this temple. Lets check out the other buildings instead; we might find something valuable. Raging Sun Heavenly Pride suggested.

Alright! Crescent Moon Heavenly Pride, feeling helpless, nodded in agreement.

Had they known this would happen, they wouldn't have fought over the authority token. If they had cooperated, perhaps they could have already taken the treasures from within the temple, and Ye Tian would not have had the chance to end the battle and acquire the token.

Thinking of this, both of them felt immense regret.

Inside the temple, there were no killing or trapping formations, as this place was a secret world of the Saber God Sect.

The experts of the Saber God Sect never imagined that their hidden realm would be discovered and breached by others.

Thus, the temple of the Saber God Sect naturally did not prepare defenses against enemies, nor did it need to set up any killing or trapping formations.

There were many rooms inside the temple, but most of them were also destroyed. Clearly, the power of that weapon not only destroyed many formations but also extended into the interior of the temple, shattering many rooms.

Moreover, as time passed, the formations that protected treasures seemed to have been damaged as well, causing many treasures to decay with time and turn to ashes.

After checking many rooms and finding nothing of value, Ye Tian sighed repeatedly.

Suddenly, Ye Tian saw a room that was relatively intact. He pushed open the stone door of the room and entered.

The room was large, with many wooden shelves on the walls, filled with books.

This is a place for storing secret manuals! Ye Tian felt somewhat disappointed.

There seemed to be many secret manuals here, but through his time talent, Ye Tian could sense that these books had already been completely decayed by time, turning to ashes upon touch. Even the wooden shelves themselves were entirely rotted.

It seemed that these wooden shelves were once made of very precious materials, but now they were just a pile of rubbish.

With a wave of his hand, Ye Tian turned the wooden shelves and books into ashes.

Suddenly, a few books fell down. Just as they were about to hit the ground, Ye Tian swiftly caught them.

Eh, three books have actually survived! Ye Tian was quite surprised.

He examined these three books and found that they were made of indestructible golden paper.

Indestructible golden paper is a very precious kind of paper known for its everlasting nature, capable of enduring for long periods without decaying, even against the ravages of time.

However, indestructible golden paper was rarely seen nowadays.

One reason is that the process of making indestructible golden paper was quite cumbersome, requiring many very precious materials, making it too costly.

Nowadays, many forces preferred to use inheritance beads and similar objects to record information.

Inheritance beads were made of a type of jade, which could preserve information for even longer than paper.

Moreover, the cost of making inheritance beads was relatively low, making them a popular choice.

As a result, indestructible golden paper gradually fell out of use, and it was rarely seen in the Star Field.

Ye Tian had only heard of indestructible golden paper before, but this was the first time he had actually seen it.

Ye Tian opened the three books and examined them one by one.

After reading the contents of the three books, Ye Tians face showed ecstatic joy.

As expected of an ancient dominant force, even a random place storing secret manuals possesses a Supreme level saber technique! Ye Tian exclaimed excitedly.

One of the manuals in his hand was a Supreme level saber technique, which is above the Super God level saber techniques in value, far surpassing the Super God level saber techniques.

The Milky Way did not have any Supreme level saber techniques, and even in the Hengpan Galaxy, Supreme level saber techniques are held by the top forces. Ordinary forces and Heavenly Prides have no way of obtaining Supreme level saber techniques.

Ye Tian had already cultivated the Void God Saber Technique to the perfected level, so he needed to cultivate a Supreme level saber technique next. He had been worried about how to obtain a Supreme level saber technique.

*(previously Void God Sword Technique)

Now, a Supreme level saber technique appeared before him.

It must be said, his luck was extremely good! The only pity was that this Supreme level saber technique did not involve space but was a technique focused on speed.

Heartless God Saber Technique!

This was the name of this Supreme level saber technique.

This technique claimed that the stronger ones heart, the faster the speed of the saber.

This saber technique was closely related to ones heart condition!

Chapter 432: The Great Sun Sutra, The Six Stages of Heart Condition!

The Heartless God Saber Technique, if I could master this saber skill, it would greatly enhance my strength. However, to master this saber skill, I need to comprehend the Saber Dao to the seventy-five percent realm. Furthermore, it also requires a strong heart condition!

Ye Tian didn't know if his heart condition was up to standard, but just the seventy-five percent realm condition already made it temporarily impossible for him to cultivate this Supreme saber skill.

Apart from the Heartless God Saber Technique, the other two secret manuals were also immensely valuable.

One of them was the Great Sun Sutra, which involved observing the magnificent sun to temper and strengthen the power of one's heart condition, and the other was a method for world creation.

For Ye Tian, the method of world creation was of little use to him, as it required at least the cultivation of a Planetary System level, and Ye Tian was still far from that.

However, the value of the Great Sun Sutra and the Heartless God Saber Technique was very high. The two were complementary secret techniques because the Great Sun Sutra could enhance the power of the heart condition. If the power of the heart condition was not sufficient to cultivate the Heartless God Saber Technique, then one could cultivate the Great Sun Sutra, thus meeting the cultivation requirements.

Ye Tian put away the three secret manuals and left the room, continuing his search for treasures.

Next, Ye Tian discovered quite a few preserved treasures. They were mostly some materials, among which some were very rare. Ye Tian did not recognize them, but he felt these materials must be very precious, so he placed them all in a separate area within his Xumi Storage Realm, waiting to slowly identify them later.

Several hours later, Ye Tian finally arrived at the depths of the temple, having checked almost every other area, leaving only this place.

In front of a quaint metallic door of an inner hall.

Ye Tian stood here, looking at the door of this inner hall.

The entire door was sealed, and Ye Tian pushed it with force, but couldn't open it.

Try using the permission token!

Ye Tian took out the permission token, and to his surprise, it actually connected with this inner hall door.

Thus, he channeled yuan force into the permission token, and aimed it at the inner hall door. A ray of light shot out.

Boom!!! The door of the inner hall slowly opened!

The permission token can indeed open this door! Ye Tian was quite excited.

The door of the inner hall opened, and Ye Tian walked in.

At that moment.

He entered an inner hall, which was not large, and was empty all around, but there was a statue on the stone platform directly in front.

This was a statue of a young man holding a saber. From the statue, Ye Tian felt a powerful saber force, as vast as the starry sky.

Boom!!!! The statue in front seemed to come to life! In Ye Tian's vision, the statue transformed into a young man, who stood under the starry sky, fighting against powerful enemies.

Countless spaces shattered, divine corpses piled up in the starry sky, and divine blood scattered everywhere.

Suddenly.

The scene disappeared, and the statue in front was still a statue.

Was that perhaps a sliver of will left by the creator of the statue? A will powerful enough to be capable of presenting a great battle from the past in front of me after such a long time! Ye Tian murmured.

He searched the inner hall but didn't find much, as if there was nothing in the inner hall other than this statue.

It's impossible. The Saber Realm is the hidden world of the Saber God Sect, their contingency for the continuation of their sect. There's no way they would only place a single statue here; there must be something I'm missing.

Ye Tian tried to sense with the permission token but felt nothing.

The permission token only allowed Ye Tian to have some permissions, but it was certainly not useful for treasure hunting.

The treasure might be inside the statue!

Ye Tian speculated.

However, when he used his treasure-seeking talent to inspect the statue, it only shone on the surface, indicating that the material of the statue was valuable, but nothing more could be deduced.

Thus, relying on the treasure-seeking talent was futile! After all, the entire temple was a treasure, not something he could carry away. Ye Tian stood in front of the statue, touching it and sensing its uniqueness.

Gradually, Ye Tian seemed to enter the realm of the saber, his entire being gradually influenced by the statue, as if entering a state of unity with the statue.

Suddenly.

Ye Tians Saber Dao realm connected with a mysterious space deep within the statue.

Boom!!!!

Ye Tians consciousness instantly entered a mysterious space within the statue.

In the dark void.

Ye Tians consciousness appeared here, and in front of him was a sphere of light.

As he approached the sphere of light, a voice rang out.

Those with weak heart conditions, remember not to touch the sphere of light!

Hearing this voice, Ye Tian halted his steps.

At this moment, he also felt a sense of danger, as if death was imminent.

The heart condition it seems that the Saber God Sect places great importance on it. Perhaps this sphere of light is a powerful inheritance, but only those with a strong heart condition can withstand it.

I have not trained my heart condition, so I probably don't meet the requirements.

Ye Tian speculated.

He was able to enter this inheritance space probably because he possessed a Supreme saber technique talent and a not low realm in the Saber Dao, which resonated with the statue, allowing him to enter the inheritance space, but he did not meet the heart condition requirement.

Hell temporarily give up! Ye Tian did not want to take a blind risk. Moreover, he wasn't truly giving up, but preparing to cultivate the Great Sun Sutra.

The Great Sun Sutra could train the power of the heart condition. Perhaps with the help of the Great Sun Sutra, he could train his heart condition to the required level.

Thus.

Ye Tian sat cross-legged and began to study the Great Sun Sutra.

Top-tier comprehension talent, activate!

Time talent, activate!

Day by day, Ye Tian studied the Great Sun Sutra and immediately began to cultivate it.

As soon as he began to cultivate, Ye Tians consciousness entered a fantastical space of consciousness. A great sun appeared in the space, shining brightly, and Ye Tian was situated under this great sun.

But while cultivating the Great Sun Sutra, Ye Tian felt like a mere mortal, enduring the scorching heat of the great sun.

At this moment, Ye Tian, like a mortal, endured unimaginable agony.

If it were only for a moment it wouldnt count for much.

But Ye Tian needed to endure for a long time, not just a day or two.

Cultivating the Great Sun Sutra is indeed torturous. Now I know why the Great Sun Sutra can temper a persons heart condition. Enduring under such conditions year after year, ones heart condition wouldnt be strong if they couldnt keep up!

Ye Tian thought to himself.

Although it was his first time cultivating, he surprisingly managed to endure a day with ease.

If it were other Heavenly Prides, that definitely wouldnt be possible.

However, each time Ye Tian copied and integrated talents in the past, he would endure unimaginable pain. His heart condition wasnt very strong, but his tolerance for pain and torment far exceeded others.

Moreover,

With a 20-fold increase in comprehension and a 30-fold acceleration of time, every day Ye Tian cultivated the Great Sun Sutra was equivalent to 600 days of cultivation for the Emperor-level of the Saber God Sect in the past.

One could imagine how fast Ye Tians cultivation speed was!

The Great Sun Sutra was divided into six levels: the first level was the Small Sun Heart Condition, the second level was the Medium Sun Heart Condition, the third level was the Great Sun Heart Condition, the fourth level was the Scorching Sun Heart Condition, the fifth level was the Exploding Sun Heart Condition, and the sixth level was the Sunless Heart Condition.

The so-called Sunless Heart Condition represented a heart condition being strong enough to withstand any hardship. Even the collapse of the universe wouldnt affect this persons heart condition.

This heart condition, unaffected by any negative factors, was the highest realm of heart condition.

Ye Tians current heart condition didnt even qualify for the first level of Small Sun Heart Condition, hence, when cultivating the first level of the Great Sun Sutra, he found it extremely painful. Normally, when cultivating the first level, then he shouldnt feel pain, but rather comfort instead.

In the blink of an eye, a month passed.

Under the 30-fold acceleration of time talent, Ye Tian had already cultivated for a full 30 months, enduring more than two years of the scorching heat of the great sun, his heart condition almost collapsed several times, but he ultimately persevered!

On this day.

Ye Tians heart condition power surged dramatically, and the magnificent sun in the space had no effect on Ye Tian anymore.

He had mastered the first level of the Great Sun Sutra, and his heart condition improved significantly!

Opening his eyes, Ye Tian was filled with fatigue.

Phew, I finally cultivated the first level of the Great Sun Sutra and reached the Small Sun Heart Condition! Time to sleep!

Ye Tian collapsed to the ground and slept, sleeping for a full three days and nights.

Upon waking, Ye Tian felt refreshed.

Continue cultivating the second level of the Great Sun Sutra!

Ye Tian began to cultivate again! This time, as soon as Ye Tian activated the second level of the Great Sun Sutra, a much larger sun appeared in front of him, and the scorching sensation was far greater than before.

Persist! Keep persisting! Ye Tian passed out multiple times, but upon waking, he continued to cultivate.

Chapter 433: Heavenly Dao Characters! A True Great Opportunity!

Three months in the outside world passed, but under the time talent, Ye Tian endured the scorching of the great sun for seven to eight years, falling unconscious many times.

If it werent for Ye Tians incredibly resilient will and having mastered the second layer of the Great Sun Sutra, he would have succumbed to the unbearable conditions long ago.

Eventually, Ye Tian successfully cultivated the second layer of the Great Sun Sutra, advancing his heart condition to the Medium Sun State.

Ye Tian didnt proceed to cultivate the third layer of the Great Sun Sutra. According to the scripture, to cultivate the third layer, one must possess a divine soul, as an Emperor-level soul simply couldnt withstand the power of the Great Sun Sutra. Forcibly activating the third layer would incinerate the entire soul into nothingness.

The Medium Sun Heart Condition of the Great Sun Sutra has significantly increased my heart condition! Ye Tian felt distinctly different, as if he had grown a lot.

Calm and steady, his heart as tranquil as water.

Moreover, his powerful heart condition allowed him to nearly avoid mistakes in battle, prevent going berserk, and grasp control of his power more swiftly.

Even with his cultivation skyrocketing manyfold, Ye Tian wouldnt lose control of his power but could thoroughly control his physical body in a short time. Such was the advantage of a strong heart condition.

With my current level of heart condition, I should be able to obtain that inheritance, Ye Tian speculated.

Then, he approached the statue again, touching it with his right hand to communicate with the inheritance space inside.

Soon, Ye Tian connected, and his consciousness entered the inheritance space, seeing the light orb once again.

Ye Tian walked towards the light orb.

The first time he came, he felt danger when he approached the orb, but this time, he felt no such thing.

Clearly, as Ye Tians heart condition strengthened, meeting the inheritances requirements, he no longer sensed any danger.

Thus, Ye Tian extended his hand and touched the light orb.

Boom! A terrifying force of consciousness engulfed Ye Tians spiritual body in an instant.

The next moment, Ye Tian found himself in a mysterious world, witnessing the birth of a baby, with his consciousness attached to it.

He could do nothing but watch the baby grow slowly.

Soon, Ye Tian realized this wasnt the real world but a memory.

He was receiving a memory inheritance.

From an ordinary person to an Emperor-level, God-level, True God-level, Great God-level, Planetary System-level Ye Tian witnessed the entire journey of a powerhouse from weakness to strength. If not for Ye Tians heart condition being strong enough to reach the Medium Sun State, he might have been assimilated by the endless memories.

In the end, he saw this powerhouse become a Galaxy-level entity, but soon after, was gravely injured in a battle with an alien race and returned to the Saber God Sect. Then, he created a statue, leaving his memory inheritance within it as a legacy for the Saber God Sect.

Ye Tian thought the inheritance had concluded, but then

Boom! An ancient character appeared, leaving him stunned.

Heavenly Dao characters!

Had it been before, Ye Tian wouldnt have known what Heavenly Dao characters were, but now he did.

Through the memory inheritance of this Galaxy-level powerhouse, Ye Tians horizons had expanded manifold. Although he couldnt learn any techniques or secrets from the memory scenes, as they were merely experiences, he gained a wealth of knowledge and secrets, which was one of his greatest gains.

For instance, the Heavenly Dao characters, which were the primordial characters that appeared at the birth of the universe. Each Heavenly Dao character represented a type of origin inheritance. The appearance of an origin character would definitely provoke countless powerhouses to fight over it.

And before Ye Tian was one such Heavenly Dao characterSaber! From the memory inheritance, Ye Tian learned the origin of this Heavenly Dao character, which the powerhouse obtained during a battle with an alien race, and it was the most precious thing he acquired before his death. For this Saber Heavenly Dao character, he killed three Galaxy-level beings of the alien race at the cost of his own life.

Ye Tian learned about this from the memory inheritance, originally thinking that the Heavenly Dao character had been taken by the Saber God Sect, only to find it unexpectedly within the statue.

The memory inheritance from this powerful being was incomplete, lacking mundane life details and ordinary memories, documenting only significant events and important experiences. Thus, the specifics of what had happened were unclear.

At this moment, however, Ye Tian couldn't contain his excitement.

He had obtained a Heavenly Dao character, which, if known to Planetary System-level and Galaxy-level powerhouses, would certainly incite envy and jealousy. They might even go against the commands of the human upper echelons to target a Heavenly Pride for it.

I absolutely must not let this leak out! Ye Tian told himself in his heart.

The Heavenly Dao character had significant uses. For instance, this Heavenly Dao character, Saber, could allow Ye Tian to quickly comprehend saber techniques, delve into the realm of Saber Dao, and carve out a Saber Dao path truly his own.

From the memory inheritance, Ye Tian understood that Supreme saber techniques were the highest level a saber wielder could learn, beyond which saber techniques could not be learned.

In fact, beyond that lay the realm of Saber Dao ultimate techniques, which couldn't be taught but had to be created and comprehended by oneself.

In short, Saber Dao ultimate techniques were terrifying. Once mastered, they would truly be earth-shattering.

But creating a Saber Dao ultimate technique was incredibly difficult, without any references, relying solely on personal exploration. Even those Galaxy-level saber wielders, having comprehended the Saber Dao to ninety percent, couldn't create a Saber Dao ultimate technique.

However, with a Heavenly Dao character, Saber, one could comprehend the Saber Dao to a complete realm and even create a Saber Dao ultimate technique.

Moreover, Ye Tian learned another great secret.

That was, great divine abilities also required Heavenly Dao characters. Otherwise, even if one acquired the cultivation method for a great divine ability, it would be hard to even begin cultivating it.

Originally, the first great divine abilities didn't need any auxiliary items, just a Heavenly Dao character, to be successfully cultivated. Once merged with a Heavenly Dao character, the corresponding great divine ability could be mastered.

For example, the Heavenly Dao character, Fire, if obtained and merged, could allow one to master a fire-attribute great divine ability.

But Heavenly Dao characters, being so rare, were almost manifestations of the laws origins.

Due to the scarcity of Heavenly Dao characters, later generations thought of alternative methods, using rare materials with law powers as substitutes for Heavenly Dao characters, leading to the development of various divine ability cultivation methods.

Ye Tian's Phantom Gold Thread Divine Ability, Great Flame Extinguishing Hand, and Water Sinking Realm were such examples. If Ye Tian could obtain the gold, fire, and water Heavenly Dao characters and merge them into his body, he wouldn't need those rare materials and could easily master the three divine abilities.

So, the true great opportunity is the Heavenly Dao character, Saber. Although the memory inheritance is also invaluable, it still pales in comparison to the Heavenly Dao character.

Ye Tian excitedly touched the Heavenly Dao character, Saber, in front of him, feeling the character.

Quickly, he understood the direction represented by this Heavenly Dao character; it signified a swift saber.

Among the Heavenly Dao characters, Saber, not all were the same; some Saber represented speed, some defense, some sharpness, and some dominance.

Although different Heavenly Dao characters, Saber, had various meanings, they all ultimately represented the pinnacle of Saber Dao.

Boom! The Saber Dao character, Saber, transformed into a ray of light and merged into the depths of Ye Tian's soul, taking root there.

In this way, as long as Ye Tian didn't reveal the presence of this Heavenly Dao character, others wouldn't be able to detect the Saber.

In the next instant, Ye Tian's consciousness returned from the inheritance space.

Standing in front of the statue, Ye Tian bowed slightly and said, Universal True Lord, thank you!

The Universal True Lord was the owner of this statue, the powerful being who had provided Ye Tian with the memory inheritance and the Heavenly Dao character.

Ye Tian received such precious inheritance from this deceased powerhouse and paid his respects to express his gratitude, although it was of no practical use, it represented Ye Tian's attitude and respect.

Ye Tian didn't leave immediately but sat cross-legged, beginning to sort through those memories.

He had acquired the memories of the Universal True Lord, and the memories of a Galaxy-level powerhouse were vast. Compared to the memories of a Galaxy-level powerhouse, Ye Tian's own life experiences were but a drop in the ocean.

Had it not been for Ye Tian's strong heart condition, able to accommodate many memory inheritances, he would have lost himself, and his soul might even have shattered.

At this moment, Ye Tian began to clear or seal away some unnecessary memories, keeping only the precious ones.

As time passed, Ye Tian's brain, initially swollen with endless memories, gradually eased.

Chapter 434: Heart Condition and the Child of the Universe

After a few hours, Ye Tian opened his eyes.

With a heavy exhale, Ye Tian stood up.

He glanced at the statue before turning to leave.

For him, there was no longer anything of value or opportunity here.

At this moment, Ye Tian was filled with excitement.

His gains this time were incredibly significant, almost beyond belief.

Aside from the Heavenly Dao scripts and the memory inheritance from a Galaxy-level entity, the other treasures he obtained from the temple were also unimaginably valuable.

Previously, Ye Tian was unfamiliar with these treasures, but after receiving the memory inheritance from the Galaxy-level entity, he understood the origins and values of these items.

It could be said that even the wealth of True God-level or Great God-level beings paled in comparison to Ye Tians.

After leaving the temple, Ye Tian saw Raging Sun Heavenly Pride and Crescent Moon Heavenly Pride waiting outside.

Both of them seemed to be in good spirits, smiling, indicating that they too had made some gains.

Ye Tian had spent quite some time inside the temple, and during this period, the two of them had scavenged through the ruins, naturally finding some treasures. Although their findings couldnt compare to Ye Tians, it was still a fortunate opportunity for them.

Can you leave this place, Heavenly Pride of Ten Thousand Laws? Crescent Moon Heavenly Pride approached and asked.

What if I can? Ye Tian responded indifferently.

Would you be willing to take us with you? We are willing to pay a price! Raging Sun Heavenly Pride hastily added.

They both lacked the necessary tokens to leave this Saber Realm fragment world.

Unless they reached the True God or the Great God level, they wouldnt be able to leave. However, that would take an unknown amount of time and would mean giving up the chance to become a Child of the Universe, as it was impossible to reach that realm here.

The difference between the nineteenth and twentieth physical limits might seem small, but it was incredibly difficult to bridge. Without a significant opportunity, it was impossible to break through this barrier.

Thats why they needed to accumulate a vast amount of destiny and take advantage of the opportunity presented by the end of the Heavenly Pride battle, along with the grand opportunity offered by the four dominant forces, to break through the twentieth physical limit and become a Child of the Universe.

But at most, only one or two might have the luck to become a Child of the Universe; no more.

That's why Raging Sun Heavenly Pride and Crescent Moon Heavenly Pride were so eager to leave and return to the outside world.

But without the ability to leave on their own, they had to rely on Ye Tian's token.

Ye Tian looked at Raging Sun Heavenly Pride and Crescent Moon Heavenly Pride, speaking plainly, What price can you offer? I do not lack resources or divine crystals. If you can provide spatial wondrous objects or origin artifacts, I might consider taking you with me.

Raging Sun Heavenly Pride and Crescent Moon Heavenly Pride were stunned upon hearing about spatial wondrous objects and origin artifacts. Such treasures were beyond their possession. Even major forces treasured origin artifacts, and they had never even heard of spatial wonders.

We don't have those, Crescent Moon Heavenly Pride said helplessly.

If you don't, then it's unfortunate, but I cannot take you with me. After all, we are in competition with each other! Ye Tian made his stance clear.

Just then, Raging Sun Heavenly Pride spoke, What if I share a secret with you? Would you take us then?

What secret? Ye Tian was curious.

The secret to becoming a Child of the Universe! Raging Sun Heavenly Pride revealed.

At this, Crescent Moon Heavenly Pride's expression changed, and she looked at Raging Sun Heavenly Pride gravely, Raging Sun Heavenly Pride, you

Seeing the reactions of Raging Sun Heavenly Pride and Crescent Moon Heavenly Pride, Ye Tian realized that the secret involved was significant.

Becoming a Child of the Universe might not be as simple as he thought.

Although Ye Tian had received the memory inheritance from a Galaxy-level powerhouse, that powerhouse was not a so-called Child of the Universe. At the Emperor level, he was merely an ordinary seven-star peerless Heavenly Pride.

Therefore, in the memory inheritance of this Galaxy-level powerhouse, there was no information about becoming a Child of the Universe.

Thus, Ye Tian was somewhat interested in the secret mentioned by Raging Sun Heavenly Pride.

Isn't becoming a Child of the Universe simply about having the strength of a nine-star peerless Heavenly Pride and breaking through the twentieth physical limit? Ye Tian inquired.

Of course, it's not that simple! Raging Sun Heavenly Pride replied with a cold laugh. The secret about becoming a Child of the Universe has been spread by the four dominant forces of the Hengpan Galaxy. Do other Galaxies really think it's just about having the strength of a nine-star peerless Heavenly Pride and breaking through the twentieth physical limit? Over the long years, some Children of the Universe have been born in the Pan Star Field, but all these Children of the Universe emerged from the Hengpan Galaxy, with no Child of the Universe from any other Galaxy!

Hearing this, Ye Tian's expression changed.

If key information was hidden about becoming a Child of the Universe, then even with his strong capabilities, he might not be able to become one.

Raging Sun Heavenly Pride, speak out, and I'll take you out of here! But you must swear that what you say is true and you're not hiding any other secrets! Ye Tian promised.

Raging Sun Heavenly Pride, are you really going to reveal it? If our backing dominant forces find out, you know the consequences, Crescent Moon Heavenly Pride warned.

Raging Sun Heavenly Pride smirked, looking at Crescent Moon Heavenly Pride, and said, Fine, I'll reveal it, and I'll leave. You can stay here by yourself.

Crescent Moon Heavenly Prides expression froze, and his face was a sight to behold!

Crescent Moon Heavenly Pride, if youre unwilling, then leave! Ye Tian waved his hand, indicating that he didnt need both of them. As long as Raging Sun Heavenly Pride was willing to reveal the secret, it didnt matter whether Crescent Moon Heavenly Pride spoke or not.

Heavenly Pride of Ten Thousand Laws, I was wrong. Im also willing to speak! Crescent Moon Heavenly Pride quickly conceded with a laugh, clearly also wanting to leave. What use was secrecy and loyalty? His earlier words were just a momentary lapse of judgment. Now, thinking about it, those words seemed foolish.

Moreover, even if they did speak out, their backing dominant forces wouldnt know.

Stop wasting time, just speak! Ye Tian said impatiently.

Alright, Ill tell you! Raging Sun Heavenly Pride hurriedly said. Actually, the conditions of becoming a nine-star peerless Heavenly Pride and breaking through the twentieth physical limit to become a Child of the Universe are indeed true. However, the four dominant forces have concealed an important piece of information: the heart condition.

Humanity in the universe categorizes the martial warriors heart condition into seven levels. Generally, the heart condition of an Emperor-level martial warrior is at the first level, but to become a Child of the Universe, one must reach the fourth level of the heart condition.

If the heart condition cant reach the fourth level, then even if you endlessly absorb and refine countless amounts of chaos yuan qi, you wont be able to break through the twentieth physical limit.

Forcing a breakthrough would only cause the physical body to collapse, leading to death!

Raging Sun Heavenly Pride paused for a moment before continuing, The four dominant forces have hidden this requirement of the heart condition and strictly control the methods for cultivating it.

Crescent Moon Heavenly Pride and I possess the methods for cultivating the heart condition, but it can only be cultivated by one person and cannot be passed on to others.

In the Hengpan Galaxy, aside from the four dominant forces, only a few nine-star powers possess the methods for cultivating the heart condition.

As for Galaxies outside of the Hengpan Galaxy, I estimate there are hardly any methods for cultivating the heart condition, and even if there are, they are very rare and possibly incomplete.

Its actually the heart condition!!!! Ye Tian was thoroughly shocked.

He had only recently obtained the method for cultivating the heart condition, which was the Great Sun Sutra.

Now, he had cultivated the second layer of the Great Sun Sutra, and the entire scripture consisted of six layers.

According to Raging Sun Heavenly Prides categorization of the heart condition, the heart condition corresponding to the second layer of the Great Sun Sutra should belong to the third level.

To become a Child of the Universe, one needed to elevate the heart condition to the fourth level. Currently, Ye Tian was at the third level, meaning he was only one level away from meeting the requirement.

However, Ye Tian had to admit that elevating the heart condition to the fourth level was extremely difficult because, according to the Great Sun Sutra, the soul of an Emperor-level being simply couldnt withstand the cultivation of the third layer.

But without cultivating the third layer of the Great Sun Sutra, it was impossible to elevate the heart condition to the fourth level.

This seemed to be an unsolvable problem.

Suddenly, Ye Tian realized an issue.

The reason he couldn't cultivate the third layer of the Great Sun Sutra was due to insufficient soul strength

But what if he could enhance his soul strength?

Chapter 435: A Viable Method, Strengthening the Soul Talent!

If I could enhance the strength of my soul, perhaps I could cultivate the third layer of the Great Sun Sutra! Ye Tian thought.

However, enhancing the strength of the soul proved to be exceedingly difficult.

For Emperors, there was a direct method to enhance the soul's strength: transforming the soul into a divine soul. In doing so, the soul would become extremely powerful.

However, this would mean no longer being considered an Emperor, which would preclude the possibility of becoming a Child of the Universe.

Therefore, this method was not feasible.

The enhancement had to occur without transforming the soul.

Ye Tian recalled the memories and inheritances of the Universal True Lord, wondering if there was information about enhancing the soul's strength within them.

Quickly, he searched through the inherited memories and found information related to the strength of the soul.

Soul Training Technique!

The inherited memories included a description of the Soul Training Technique, but Ye Tian had only inherited memories, not the actual techniques.

He was also unsure if the Universal True Lord possessed the Soul Training Technique.

As a result, Ye Tian was currently unable to enhance his souls strength.

Suddenly, he turned to Raging Sun Heavenly Pride and Crescent Moon Heavenly Pride.

What level are your heart conditions at now? Ye Tian asked.

The third level!

The third level! Crescent Moon Heavenly Pride and Raging Sun Heavenly Pride said in unison.

Clearly, both of them, like Ye Tian, were at the third level of heart condition.

Ye Tian was not surprised by this.

Raging Sun Heavenly Pride and Crescent Moon Heavenly Pride had the methods to cultivate their heart conditions and had likely acquired these methods a long time ago. With so much time passed, even if their cultivation speed was slow, they could still elevate their heart conditions to the third level.

Evidently, they too were stuck at the third level and were unable to advance to the fourth level.

Do you two know how to elevate the heart condition from the third level to the fourth level? Ye Tian asked again.

He wanted to know if these two had any other methods. If there was an easier way, he would definitely choose the simpler method.

Raging Sun Heavenly Pride spoke up, Its extremely difficult to advance from the third level of heart condition to the fourth level. We dont know how to do it!

Ye Tian noticed a flicker in the eyes of Raging Sun Heavenly Pride and Crescent Moon Heavenly Pride.

Really dont know? Do you know about the Soul Training Technique? Ye Tian suddenly asked.

You know about the Soul Training Technique? Crescent Moon Heavenly Pride looked at Ye Tian in surprise and exclaimed.

But as soon as he spoke, he regretted it.

He knew he had let something slip.

You clearly know about the Soul Training Technique, yet youre trying to hide it from me. Tell me, do you have the Soul Training Technique? Ye Tian said coldly.

Crescent Moon Heavenly Pride replied helplessly, You are our competitor, which is why we wanted to keep it a secret. But since you also know about the Soul Training Technique, we wont hide it anymore. Indeed, I know about the Soul Training Technique, but I dont possess it.

I dont have the Soul Training Technique either! Raging Sun Heavenly Pride added.

Are you really not deceiving me? Ye Tian frowned, somewhat disbelieving.

Its true. We dont have it. In fact, the entire Pan Star Field lacks a complete Soul Training Technique inheritance, Crescent Moon Heavenly Pride said truthfully. The Pan Star Field struggles to produce a Child of the Universe precisely because it lacks the inheritance of the Soul Training Technique. To elevate the heart condition to the fourth level at the Emperor level, one must possess a very powerful soul. The Heavenly Prides of the Pan Star Field, lacking the Soul Training Technique inheritance, can only use some treasures to enhance their souls strength. Although the process is slow, as long as there are soul treasure resources, its possible to enhance the souls strength. Another method is to forcibly enhance a Heavenly Prides strength using a Soul Origin Artifact. But there is only one Soul Origin Artifact in the entire Pan Star Field!

Soul Origin Artifact!

Ye Tian was genuinely surprised; it was the first time he had heard of a Soul Origin Artifact.

You said there is a Soul Origin Artifact in the Pan Star Field. Where is it located? Ye Tian inquired with curiosity.

Its in the hands of the leader of the Undying Army! Crescent Moon Heavenly Pride disclosed.

The Undying Legion was one of the four dominant forces in the Pan Star Field and the most mysterious. Its strength was subtly superior to the other three dominant forces.

So, doesnt that mean the Undying Legion could easily produce a Child of the Universe? Ye Tian furrowed his brows.

Thats not necessarily true. Even if ones soul strength is enhanced, elevating the heart condition to the fourth level is still exceedingly difficult. Moreover, even if one reaches the fourth level of heart condition, surpassing the twentieth physical limit remains challenging. In short, becoming a Child of the Universe is difficult! Difficult! Difficult! Raging Sun Heavenly Pride and Crescent Moon Heavenly Pride sighed deeply.

Other Heavenly Prides envied the nine-star peerless Heavenly Prides, believing they were only a step away from becoming Children of the Universe. However, the nine-star peerless Heavenly Prides themselves were also troubled, for the more they knew, the more they realized how difficult it was to become a Child of the Universe.

Some even lost all confidence in their pursuit of becoming a Child of the Universe.

The Soul Origin Artifact of the Undying Legion is definitely beyond my reach. Using a Soul Origin Artifact to enhance soul strength is not an option for me, Ye Tian pondered.

With no Soul Training Technique available in the Pan Star Field, the only viable method seemed to be using resources to gradually enhance soul strength, which would require a massive amount of soul treasure resources.

The four dominant forces might have the capability to nurture a nine-star peerless Heavenly Pride and strive to enhance their soul strength, but Ye Tian had no such force to rely on; he could only depend on himself.

Now that the Heavenly Pride battle had commenced, the resources to enhance soul strength were probably all collected by the dominant forces and not available to others, making it impossible for him to acquire these soul resources.

Ye Tian closed his eyes, immersing his consciousness in the memories inherited from the Universal True Lord, meticulously recalling these memories to find information related to the soul.

He refused to believe that there were only a few methods available and was convinced that other methods existed, which he had merely overlooked.

Raging Sun Heavenly Pride and Crescent Moon Heavenly Pride did not disturb Ye Tian, speculating that he had been provoked.

In their view, Ye Tian was previously very confident about becoming a Child of the Universe. After all, his strength far surpassed that of an ordinary nine-star peerless Heavenly Pride, placing him among the top in the entire Pan Star Field.

However, Ye Tian now understood that becoming a Child of the Universe was not as simple as he thought, requiring the enhancement of soul strength and the elevation of heart condition to the fourth level.

With no Soul Training Technique available in the Pan Star Field and no access to a Soul Origin Artifact, one could only rely on a vast amount of soul resources to enhance soul strength.

Previously unfamiliar with Ye Tian, they could confirm he was not from the four dominant forces, nor was he a Heavenly Pride from the Hengpan Galaxy, likely hailing from another Galaxy.

Without the cultivation from one of the four dominant forces, the hope of becoming a Child of the Universe was incredibly slim.

They believed they still had a chance to become Children of the Universe, but Ye Tian had no hope.

Therefore, they thought Ye Tian must have been shocked by this reality and was unable to accept it.

But in reality, Ye Tian was not disturbed; being at the third level of heart condition, he remained composed.

As time passed, Ye Tian remained engrossed in the memories of the Universal True Lord.

Suddenly, he discovered a segment of memory that was easy to overlook because it lacked substantive content and consisted of only a sentence.

Even the Universal True Lord didnt have much recollection of this memory. If Ye Tian hadnt carefully reviewed the memories, it might have been missed.

Soul Strengthening Talent!

This was a soul talent! Soul talents were generally categorized into offensive and defensive types.

Ye Tian possessed both offensive and defensive soul talents, but fundamentally, these talents did not alter the souls strength; they merely added to the souls attack and defense capabilities.

However, the soul-strengthening talent was different; its essence was to instantly make the souls strength robust, comparable to that of a divine soul.

This soul talent was exceedingly rare. The Universal True Lord had only heard of it by chance and had included the words soul-strengthening talent in the memory inheritance, but had never actually seen a possessor of this talent.

Ye Tian decided not to inquire Raging Sun Heavenly Pride and Crescent Moon Heavenly Pride further, as he believed they likely knew nothing about the soul-strengthening talent.

I can only investigate the soul-strengthening talent after leaving here. If I encounter someone with this talent, I can copy their soul-strengthening talent! Ye Tian thought to himself.

Lets go, lets leave this world! Ye Tian stated indifferently.

Thank you, Heavenly Pride of Ten Thousand Laws! Crescent Moon Heavenly Pride and Raging Sun Heavenly Pride exclaimed excitedly.

Chapter 436: Strengthening Soul Talent Information!

Ye Tian took out the authorization token and activated it.

Come stand by my side!

Ye Tian said to Raging Sun Heavenly Pride and Crescent Moon Heavenly Pride.

Raging Sun Heavenly Pride and Crescent Moon Heavenly Pride immediately stood beside Ye Tian.

At that moment, the authorization token emitted a faint glow, enveloping the three of them.

Whoosh! In an instant, Ye Tian and the two Heavenly Prides passed through the world barrier, leaving the fragmented world of the saber realm and returning to the outside world.

In the Broken Void Planetary System.

Within the shattered space, Ye Tian, Raging Sun Heavenly Pride, and Crescent Moon Heavenly Pride appeared one after another.

At this time, the Broken Void Planetary System had reverted to its previous state.

The cosmic destruction caused by the battle between Raging Sun Heavenly Pride and Crescent Moon Heavenly Pride was no longer present, having been restored by the laws of the universe.

However, the spatial rifts and areas of temporal turbulence could not be mended, even by the universal laws.

Ye Tian parted ways with Raging Sun Heavenly Pride and Crescent Moon Heavenly Pride.

Afterward, Ye Tian left the Broken Void Planetary System, then boarded a six-star cosmic spaceship, passing through the spatial turbulence to return to the Hengpan Galaxy.

Before long, Ye Tian returned to the Hengpan Continent.

In Qingzang City on the Hengpan Continent.

Ye Tian had returned here, planning to visit the Search God Pavilion again.

Search God Pavilion.

After entering the Search God Pavilion, Ye Tian approached a counter.

I would like to purchase some information!

Ye Tian immediately said.

What information would you like to buy, sir? the beautiful staff member asked with a smile.

I want to know who in the Hengpan Galaxy possesses a soul-strengthening talent, Ye Tian inquired.

The staff member was curious, as Ye Tian was looking to buy such information, but she didn't know what a soul-strengthening talent was. So, she said, Please wait a moment, sir!

The staff member then relayed Ye Tian's request to the specialized information personnel within the Search God Pavilion.

Inside the Search God Pavilion.

Several True God-level information personnel received the message from the staff member.

Soul-strengthening talent is there such a talent? one True God wondered curiously.

The other True Gods thought carefully, then shook their heads in unison.

Clearly, they were also unaware of what a soul-strengthening talent meant.

This was somewhat embarrassing! As True God-level information personnel of the Search God Pavilion, they were expected to possess knowledge far beyond other True Gods, yet they had never heard of strengthening soul talent.

If they were to say they hadn't heard of it and passed this information to the staff member, it would be embarrassing if it became known that the Search God Pavilion was unaware of strengthening soul talent.

Investigate!

The True Gods utilized the Search God Pavilions internal database and ancient texts archive.

Working together, they began investigating the soul-strengthening talent.

Soon, they found information related to the soul-strengthening talent.

It turns out that the soul-strengthening talent is a rare talent that enhances the soul. No wonder we didn't know about it! a True God exclaimed.

Suddenly, another True God frowned and said, But the customer wants to know who in the Hengpan Galaxy possesses this talent. How are we supposed to find that out? Even we didn't know about it and had to consult ancient texts and databases to find records about it.

Even if we send people to investigate, it would be a huge project, and I doubt we can find anything!

Yes, if we were to conduct a thorough investigation, the cost would be too great, even for a God-level powerhouse.

Lets just say that even the Search God Pavilion finds it difficult to pinpoint the whereabouts of those with the strengthening soul talent. We only have information on a few individuals who possessed this talent in the past. We can offer him that information to see if hes interested. If he wants it, well sell it to him; if not, theres nothing we can do!

Those individuals who possessed the strengthening soul talent in the past were warriors and fierce beasts from many years ago. They have long since passed away. That person probably wont be interested in buying such information.

No matter if he buys it or not, well just say that. Its also a good excuse. We cant let it affect the reputation of our Search God Pavilion. Otherwise, it would be embarrassing if we couldnt provide any information at all.

The True God-level information personnel relayed the relevant information back to the staff member.

At the counter.

Ye Tian had been waiting for a long time and finally received a response from the beautiful staff member.

Sir, our Search God Pavilion only has information on a few individuals who possessed a soul-strengthening talent in the past. Those individuals, both warriors and fierce beasts, have long since perished. They were from a very long time ago.

This is a rare soul talent, and currently, we have not heard of anyone possessing such a talent.

If you wish to know who currently possesses the soul-strengthening talent, Im afraid we at the Search God Pavilion cannot provide that information.

The staff member apologized.

Ye Tian frowned slightly, feeling somewhat disappointed.

But then he thought it made sense. Given how rare the soul-strengthening talent was, it was already quite impressive that the Search God Pavilion knew about it.

Expecting to buy information on the whereabouts of individuals with soul-strengthening talent from the Search God Pavilion was indeed a bit fanciful.

You mentioned earlier that there had been individuals with soul-strengthening talent in the past. Sell me their information, Ye Tian said.

Sir, those individuals were warriors and fierce beasts from a very long time ago, and they have all fallen. Their information might not be of much use to you, the staff member said, curious.

Ill buy it. Just tell me if the Search God Pavilion is willing to sell, Ye Tian inquired.

We will sell! the staff member quickly responded.

Immediately, the staff member transmitted the information.

Soon after, the price for the information was sent down.

Sir, it will cost 100 Divine Crystals! The information is quite rare, so the price is a bit high. Please understand, the staff member explained.

Without saying another word, Ye Tian took out 100 Divine Crystals on the spot and handed them to the staff member: Here are 100 Divine Crystals, give me the information.

Ye Tians generosity astounded the staff member. For an Emperor-level, even if prideful, to take out 100 Divine Crystals at once to purchase information that seemed of little use seemed rather extravagant and wasteful! But the staff member didnt inquire further and quickly processed the transaction for Ye Tian.

Before long, Ye Tian obtained the information and left the branch of the Search God Pavilion.

In a rented villa in Qingzang City.

Ye Tian took out the information orb containing the information and browsed through it carefully.

The information orb contained data on three individuals with the soul-strengthening talent.

One was a human, and the other two were fierce beasts.

The human was a True God-level powerhouse from 5 million years ago, with only Supreme-level cultivation talent. Thus, his lifetime achievement was limited to the True God level.

This True God did not die of natural causes but was slain by someone. As for who killed him, that was no longer traceable.

In short, there was very little information about this True God-level powerhouse.

The other two with the soul-strengthening talent were fierce beasts. One was a God-level fierce beast, while the others origins were more extraordinary, being a Planetary System-level fierce beast.

There wasnt much information about the God-level fierce beast, only that it had appeared in the Pan Star Field and was the pet of a God-level powerhouse. The secret of this beasts soul-strengthening talent was accidentally revealed by its owner.

Given the rarity of the soul-strengthening talent, this piece of information was also collected by the Search God Pavilion.

The appearance of this God-level fierce beast was even more ancient, dating back 8 million years, and it had long been deceased.

As for the Planetary System-level fierce beast with the soul-strengthening talent, the Search God Pavilion had slightly more information recorded.

Although this Planetary System-level fierce beast appeared even earlier, 11 million years ago, there werent many powerful fierce beasts in the Pan Star Field, so this one caused quite a stir.

From the records, Ye Tian learned that this Planetary System-level fierce beast not only possessed the soul-strengthening talent but also had aggressive soul talents and a disguise talent.

This Planetary System-level beast had infiltrated a nine-star human power, using its disguise talent and an artifact that aided in disguise to pose as a human warrior. That nine-star power did not detect its true identity.

This Planetary System-level fierce beast had joined this human nine-star level power when it was still at the God level and grew all the way to the Planetary System level.

In the end, this Planetary System-level fierce beast brought a great disaster to the entire Pan Star Field.

Eventually, its identity was exposed, and many Planetary System-level powerhouses joined forces to hunt down this Planetary System-level beast! The battle involved not only this Planetary System-level beast but also some alien races. Many Planetary System-level powerhouses fell at the hands of this Planetary System-level beast.

It seemed that because of this Planetary System-level beast's unusual identity, a Galaxy-level powerhouse among the human high command only sealed it instead of killing it.

Now, 11 million years have passed, and that Planetary System-level fierce beast must have died of old age.

That Planetary System-level beast should be dead by now, but it was sealed, so its body should be intact. If I could enter its sealing site, wouldn't that be

Ye Tian suddenly thought.

The source says 1.1 million years ago, but I think it meant 11 million.

Chapter 437: Finally, There's a Way

Emperor-level corpses could remain intact for a thousand years, which made one wonder how long the corpse of a Planetary System-level powerhouse could last without decaying.

Ye Tian speculated that the Planetary System-level fierce beast had died only a few million years ago, so its physical body should be very well preserved.

Talent imprints were stored within the soul, but in reality, the talent manifestation was fused with the physical body.

Even though the Planetary System-level fierce beast was dead, its talents were still merged with its body. Therefore, Ye Tian's talent copying ability could replicate the talents of the deceased beast.

If Ye Tian could enter the sealed land of that Planetary System-level fierce beast, he could copy the talent that strengthened the soul.

This was currently the only opportunity for Ye Tian to copy a talent that could enhance the soul.

Otherwise, the chances of him finding a talent that enhanced the soul among countless galaxies in the Pan Star Field were like finding a needle in a haystack.

According to the records, that Planetary System-level fierce beast was sealed in the Penglai Planetary System of the Hengpan Galaxy.

The Penglai Planetary System was the territory of the Penglai Sect, an eight-star level sect. It was the sect that the Planetary System-level fierce beast had infiltrated, a nine-star level force at the time.

However, after the incident back then, the Penglai Sect suffered heavy losses, and the Galaxy-level powerhouses were almost completely lost.

Thanks to the assistance of the four dominant forces in the Pan Star Field, the foreign experts were repelled, and the Penglai Sect was saved.

The Galaxy-level powerhouse who had sealed the Planetary System-level fierce beast was one of the Galaxy-level powerhouses from one of the four dominant forces, the Divine Desolation Hall.

Without the help of the four dominant forces, the Penglai Sect would have been annihilated long ago. Even so, the Penglai Sect had fallen from a nine-star level force to an eight-star level force.

Its a bit troublesome! Ye Tian frowned in thought.

The sealed land was not somewhere just anyone could enter. After all, it was the place where a Galaxy-level powerhouse had sealed a Planetary System-level fierce beast. The difficulty of entering was unimaginable.

If the Planetary System-level fierce beast were still alive, even Galaxy-level powerhouses would not dare to enter, as doing so would mean becoming enemies with the four dominant forces.

But now that the Planetary System-level fierce beast was probably dead, the so-called sealed land no longer served any purpose, and there might be a chance to enter.

In the following days, Ye Tian kept inquiring about the situation of the sealed land of the Planetary System-level fierce beast.

However, since Ye Tian had already visited the Search God Pavilion, he was worried that going there again would attract the attention of some interested parties.

Therefore, he inquired through other means.

One day, Ye Tian purchased information about the sealed land of the Planetary System-level fierce beast from a huge commercial association.

That sealed land has actually become a cultivation space for the Penglai Sect.

Ye Tian was quite surprised when he saw this information.

It turned out that 200,000 years ago, a powerful being from the Divine Desolation Hall entered the sealed land and found that the Planetary System-level fierce beast had already died, so the sealing array was lifted.

However, because of the identity and background of this Planetary System-level fierce beast, the Divine Desolation Hall did not dare to dissect it.

Although a Planetary System-level fierce beast was very valuable, and its entire body was a treasure, the Divine Desolation Hall did not lack these resources, so they did not take the beasts corpse away.

In the end, the Penglai Sect re-arranged the formations, transforming the sealed land into a cultivation space.

Although the Planetary System-level fierce beast was dead, its aura remained. For emperors, this aura was like the heavens themselves. Even from a distance, it was difficult to withstand this aura.

Even some emperors would tremble in the presence of the corpse of a Planetary System-level fierce beast, overwhelmed by its aura.

Therefore, the Penglai Sect often sent emperors into this trial space to experience the aura of the corpse of the Planetary System-level fierce beast, using it to temper their bodies and refine their wills.

More importantly, after the death of a Planetary System-level powerhouse, the place of their fall would slowly evolve into a domain of natural laws.

For example, if a Planetary System-level powerhouse proficient in the fire element laws were to fall, the place of their death would gradually evolve into a fire element domain. If a warrior with fire element talents entered, their cultivation speed could increase manyfold, and it would even help in cultivating fire element divine abilities.

The place where the Planetary System-level fierce beast had fallen, which was highly accomplished in wind element laws, had already transformed into a wind element law domain.

If a prodigy cultivating wind element divine abilities entered, this wind element law domain would be an absolute treasure for them.

A Planetary System-level fierce beast, a domain of wind element laws, in this case, I really might have a chance to enter the sealed land of this Planetary System-level fierce beast!

Ye Tian murmured to himself.

Strictly speaking, this matter had nothing to do with the Divine Desolation Hall anymore.

As long as the Penglai Sect allowed him to enter the sealed land of the Planetary System-level fierce beast, all problems would be solved.

But how could he persuade the Penglai Sect to allow him to enter the sealed land? Ye Tian pondered for a long time.

Bribing the higher-ups of the Penglai Sect with treasures was definitely not going to work.

He wanted to use a very simple method, one that would go unnoticed, because he didnt want others to know his purpose.

Suddenly, Ye Tian thought of a method.

Soul Transfer Talent!

Ye Tian hadnt used this talent for a long time.

It had to be said that this talent was incredibly heaven-defying, having aided Ye Tian many times. Moreover, once he occupied someone elses body, it was very difficult to detect.

Ye Tian only needed to capture one of the Heavenly Prides of the Penglai Sect and then use the Soul Transfer Talent to take over his body and enter the sealed land.

This method is feasible!

Thus, Ye Tian began to gather information about the Heavenly Prides of the Penglai Sect and the time when the sealed land would be opened.

In just a few days, Ye Tian had gathered all the necessary information.

The sealed land was set to open in five months, so Ye Tian planned to make his move four months later.

As for the target, Ye Tian had already chosen one.

He selected a six-star peerless Heavenly Pride who possessed a God level wind element law and had cultivated wind element divine abilities. His status among the many Heavenly Prides of the Penglai Sect was not the highest, but certainly not the lowest either.

This six-star peerless Heavenly Pride definitely qualified to enter that sealed land. This guy had a terrible character, fond of killing and liked to invade indigenous planets to abduct others wives and daughters.

In the Hengpan Galaxy, where the law of the jungle was revered, many indigenous planets were not protected by the laws of the Hengpan Galaxy.

Therefore, even if this six-star peerless Heavenly Pride committed outrageous acts, no one would sanction him.

Ye Tian, having learned about such a six-star peerless Heavenly Pride within the Penglai Sect, naturally chose him as his possession target.

Killing this person, Ye Tian wouldnt feel the slightest bit of guilt.

Time flew by, and four months passed.

During these four months, Ye Tian didnt make much progress.

After all, his strength was already at the top tier among the nine-star peerless Heavenly Prides, naturally making it difficult to advance further.

Its time to depart!

Ye Tian left the Hengpan Continent and quickly arrived at the Penglai Planetary System on a cosmic spaceship.

The Penglai Planetary System was vast, with the Penglai Sect located in one of its worlds.

This world was called the Penglai Realm, a world opened by the Penglai Sect many years ago.

Outsiders couldnt enter the Penglai Sect at all, only members of the Penglai Sect had the freedom to enter.

It might be troublesome for Ye Tian to enter the Penglai Sect, but he didnt need to enter the Sect.

Because the six-star peerless Heavenly Pride was always in the Myriad Flower Stars Qingyue Building in the Penglai Planetary System.

Qingyue Building was a place for romantic pursuits and also the favorite hangout of the six-star peerless Heavenly Pride.

With one month left until the opening of the sealed land, the six-star peerless Heavenly Pride naturally wasnt in a hurry to leave.

One day, Ye Tian arrived at the Myriad Flower Star in the Penglai Planetary System.

He disguised himself to enter Myriad Flower Star, and it was impossible for anyone to recognize him.

Soon, he arrived near Qingyue Building.

With the copy talent, he found the six-star peerless Heavenly Pride.

Heavenly Pride Feng Yue, soon you wont have the chance to indulge anymore! Ye Tian muttered to himself.

Qingyue Building wasn't a powerful force, and there were only a few God-level powerhouses here.

But Ye Tian chose not to act directly; he was looking for an opportunity.

He was waiting for Heavenly Pride Feng Yue to leave this place. After all, it was crowded here, and there were a few God-level powerhouses lurking in the dark.

If he acted, he could definitely capture Heavenly Pride Feng Yue, but it would draw the attention of others, which was not conducive to his plan.

Ten days passed, and Heavenly Pride Feng Yue finally left Qingyue Building, apparently preparing to return to the Penglai Sect.

Whoosh! Heavenly Pride Feng Yue transformed into a beam of light and left Myriad Flower Star.

Shortly after he left Myriad Flower Star, a giant hand suddenly appeared in the starry sky, reaching out towards him in an instant!

Not good!

Heavenly Pride Feng Yue was terrified.

The person who made the move was far stronger than him. There was no aura of divine power on this hand, so it shouldn't be a God-level powerhouse, but a very powerful peerless Heavenly Pride.

Before he could react, the giant hand had already descended, snatching him away in an instant and pulling him into a space.

In the next moment, the starry sky returned to calm, and the figure of Heavenly Pride Feng Yue had completely disappeared.

The person who made the move was none other than Ye Tian!

Chapter 438: Acquiring the Soul-Strengthening Talent

In the Penglai Planetary System, on an unnamed minor planet, Ye Tian arrived. He glanced at the situation within the Xumi Realm in his palm, only to see Feng Yue, the Heavenly Pride, attacking the surroundings of the Xumi Realm, trying to break out. However, his strength was too weak to even come close to breaking the spatial barrier of the Xumi Realm.

Let me out! Feng Yue roared within the Xumi Realm.

However, his escape was destined to fail.

At that moment, Ye Tians soul power entered the Xumi Realm and he deployed his hypnotic talent on Feng Yue.

Feng Yues soul power was not weak either, and his soul was protected by a soul treasure.

At first, he indeed withstood Ye Tians hypnotic talent. However, when Ye Tian repeatedly attacked him with his aggressive soul talent, Feng Yues soul treasure could no longer fully protect his soul.

His soul began to suffer damage, which intensified with each attack.

Half an hour later, Feng Yue could no longer withstand Ye Tians hypnotic talent and was completely hypnotized by Ye Tian.

Ye Tian didnt immediately use his soul transfer talent on Feng Yue. Instead, he attempted to hypnotize him to learn some basic information from Feng Yue.

Otherwise, if he took over Feng Yues body without understanding the situation, it might easily expose him later.

Its always better to be cautious! Immediately after, Ye Tian began to interrogate Feng Yue and learned many things from him.

As Ye Tian had guessed, Feng Yue did indeed obtain the qualification to enter the sealed land.

Each Emperor-level individual who obtained the qualification was given a token by the Penglai Sect.

Only by holding this token could one pass through the outer formation of the sealed land and enter its interior.

Ye Tian also inquired about what to pay attention to when entering the sealed land and whether he needed to report to the Penglai Sect. Feng Yues answer relieved Ye Tian; he just needed to be present when the sealed land opened, without even needing to return to the Penglai Sect.

This also reduced Ye Tians risk of exposure.

After asking a bunch of questions and resolving his doubts, Ye Tian directly applied his soul transfer talent to Feng Yue.

On the ground, Ye Tian stood in front of Feng Yue. With the soul transfer talent activated, Ye Tians soul instantly entered Feng Yues sea of souls.

Under the effect of the soul transfer talent, Ye Tians soul took control of Feng Yues soul.

Naturally, Feng Yues soul was extinguished! Thus, Feng Yue was considered to have fallen.

Ye Tian was not afraid of the Penglai Sect knowing about Feng Yues fall. He had asked Feng Yue; such Heavenly Prides in the Penglai Sect wouldnt have soul lamps.

Even some of the Penglai Sects God-level and True God-level powerhouses wouldnt leave behind soul lamps.

Creating a soul lamp wasnt difficult, but there were far too many disciples in the Penglai Sect.

If every Heavenly Pride, God-level, and True God-level individual had a soul lamp, the Penglai Sect would need to prepare countless soul lamps. Moreover, the fall of Heavenly Prides, God-level, and True God-level beings happened quite frequently. If the Penglai Sect were to investigate every time a soul lamp extinguished, they would be overwhelmed. This is why a large force would only prepare soul lamps for important individuals. Once a soul lamp became unstable or extinguished, the force would then send someone to investigate.

Feng Yue, being a seven-star peerless Heavenly Pride, held an average status in the Penglai Sect, comparable to an ordinary God-level powerhouse.

After successfully executing the soul transfer talent, Ye Tian successfully took over Feng Yues body.

He opened his eyes and moved Feng Yues body around.

With Ye Tians current talents and Feng Yues physical condition, he could exert the combat power of an eight-star peerless Heavenly Pride.

However, this time he was only aiming to replicate and strengthen his soul talent and did not need to engage in combat, so his strength didnt really matter.

First, hide my original body!

Ye Tian hid his original body in an underground space on this planet, concealed by various hiding formations.

Immediately after, Ye Tian began to adapt to this new body.

He didnt leave right away because there were still more than ten days until the sealed land would open.

He planned to head to the sealed land on the last day.

As time passed, the day when the sealed land was about to open finally arrived.

Lets go!

Ye Tian, in Feng Yues body, left the planet and rushed toward the sealed land.

The sealed land of that Planetary System-level ferocious beast was located in a quiet stretch of space.

At this time, this part of space had gathered quite a number of Emperor-level, Heavenly Pride, and God-level powerhouses.

These God-level powerhouses were from the Penglai Sect, responsible for opening the sealed land and sending the Emperor-level individuals and Heavenly Prides into it.

At that time, Ye Tian arrived! When Ye Tian came, some Emperor-level individuals and a few Heavenly Prides greeted him, but most Heavenly Prides only glanced at him with disdain, seemingly looking down on Ye Tian.

No, it should be said that they were looking down on Feng Yue! Ye Tian knew the reason, as Feng Yue had a poor character and his actions were somewhat extreme, which led to the disdain of many Heavenly Prides and even offended quite a few of the same sect.

Using Feng Yues body and being despised by these Heavenly Prides was quite normal.

Ye Tian didnt care about the gazes of those Heavenly Prides and remained mostly silent, not speaking much.

Originally, a few Heavenly Prides had a good relationship with Feng Yue, but seeing that Feng Yues demeanor was somewhat off today, they thought he was just in a bad mood and didnt come over to chat with him.

As time passed, more and more Emperor-level individuals and Heavenly Prides arrived.

About half a day passed.

A God-level powerhouse spoke up, Its about time. Open the sealed land.

Boom!!! Several God-level individuals took out the key to open the sealed land. The starry sky trembled, and soon a light gate appeared.

This light gate was the entrance to the sealed land.

You all, holding the tokens, enter the sealed land one by one. You only have one month's time, and you must come out after a month! one of the God-level powerhouses reminded.

Yes! the Emperor-level individuals and Heavenly Prides of the Penglai Sect responded.

Swish swish swish!!! One after another, Heavenly Prides holding tokens flew into the light gate, entering the sealed land, and Ye Tian followed closely behind.

As soon as Ye Tian stepped into the sealed land, a slight smile appeared on his face, and his eyes gleamed with ecstasy.

The sealed land had turned into a vast space, and deep within the space was an immensely large corpse of a ferocious beast, perfectly preserved. It was the Planetary System-level ferocious beast that possessed the soul-strengthening talent.

Upon entering this space, everyone found a suitable place to begin their cultivation.

After all, this was a place of wind attribute law creation. Here, comprehending wind attribute divine abilities or using the wind attribute yuan qi to temper the body could help break through physical limits.

Some people kept moving towards the corpse of the Planetary System-level ferocious beast, using its oppressive aura to continuously pressure their bodies and temper their will.

Ye Tian also approached the corpse of the Planetary System-level ferocious beast.

As he neared the corpse, the oppressive aura from the depths became stronger, affecting the body he was in.

Although Ye Tians copy talent was also suppressed here, he could still observe within a thousand miles.

Thus, Ye Tian only needed to get somewhat close to the corpse of the Planetary System-level ferocious beast for his copy talent to envelop it.

Whoosh! Ye Tians vision revealed the talent situation of the Planetary System-level ferocious beast.

Seeing this, Ye Tian finally breathed a sigh of relief.

Although his plan was perfect, he was still afraid of failure until the very last moment.

If the corpse of the Planetary System-level ferocious beast no longer had its talent, making it impossible to view and copy the soul-strengthening talent, then all his preparations would have been in vain! Fortunately, he succeeded!

[Soul Strengthening Talent: Top-tier]

Seeing this talent, Ye Tian immediately copied it.

As for the other talents of the Planetary System-level ferocious beast, Ye Tian wasnt interested, as those talents were of no use to him.

With the soul-strengthening talent in hand, Ye Tians goal was achieved.

But he couldnt leave now, or it would be too suspicious.

Lets cultivate here, even if it means wasting a month! Ye Tian thought to himself.

Immediately after, Ye Tian occasionally used the oppressive aura of the Planetary System-level ferocious beast to temper his physical body and will, while also comprehending the wind attribute laws in the depths.

Although he didn't have any wind attribute divine abilities, comprehending the wind attribute laws would still be beneficial for his future, making the cultivation not a waste of time.

In the blink of an eye, a month passed.

On this day, Ye Tian was the first to fly out of the sealed land, quickly disappearing into the starry sky.

Although his actions were a bit strange, others just thought Feng Yue couldn't stand the solitude and wanted to enjoy himself in the Myriad Flower Star, so no one suspected Feng Yue's identity.

Chapter 439: Fourth level of Heart Condition!

After leaving the sealed area, Ye Tian returned to the unnamed planet where his true form was hidden.

As soon as he returned, he deactivated his soul transfer talent, causing his soul to return from the body of Heavenly Pride Feng Yue to his original form, instantly turning Heavenly Pride Feng Yue's body into a corpse.

After destroying Heavenly Pride Feng Yue's corpse, Ye Tian boarded a six-star level cosmic spaceship and left the Penglai Planetary System.

Not long after, Ye Tian returned to Qingzang City on the Hengpan Continent, where he started a retreat in a villa he was temporarily residing in.

The first thing Ye Tian did during his retreat was to integrate and strengthen his soul talent.

Integrate!

Ten minutes later, Ye Tian successfully integrated the soul-strengthening talent. He tested it immediately by activating it, and in an instant, the strength of his soul increased by 20 times. If his soul's previous strength was comparable to ordinary tofu, it was now akin to frozen tofu.

I should be able to start cultivating the third layer of the Great Sun Sutra now! Ye Tian thought expectantly.

Thus, he prepared to attempt cultivating the third layer of the Great Sun Sutra. Sitting cross-legged, he closed his eyes and operated the third layers technique of the Great Sun Sutra.

Boom! In an instant, Ye Tians soul consciousness arrived in a starry sky, where a sun hung high, its terrifying flames capable of burning the void, roasting Ye Tians soul consciousness.

Had he not activated the soul-strengthening talent, Ye Tians soul might have already shattered. But now, with the talent activated, his soul could withstand the cultivation of the third layer of the Great Sun Sutra. Of course, this didnt mean Ye Tian couldnt feel the torment and pain from the roasting.

At that moment, Ye Tian experienced unimaginable torture and pain, the unbearable suffering constantly affecting his heart condition.

Simultaneously, Ye Tian also activated his time talent, accelerating time by thirty times.

As time passed slowly, Ye Tians heart condition gradually strengthened. There were many times when he passed out, but he kept persevering.

Every so often, Ye Tian had to rest since continuously maintaining the third layer of the Great Sun Sutras cultivation with the soul-strengthening talent was a significant pressure.

It was also necessary to occasionally release his soul to relax.

In the blink of an eye, a year passed! One day, Ye Tian finally mastered the third layer of the Great Sun Sutra.

By then, his heart condition had reached the fourth level, fully meeting the requirements to become a Child of the Universe.

Moreover, mastering the third layer of the Great Sun Sutra also significantly enhanced Ye Tians soul strength, an additional pleasant surprise.

My heart condition now meets the requirements, but I still lack enough destiny. The destinies of the other nine-star peerless Heavenly Prides surpass mine. Its time to sweep through the Heavenly Prides of the Hengpan Galaxy!

After making this decision, Ye Tian immediately set out. In the following period, many eight-star peerless Heavenly Prides of the Hengpan Galaxy suffered. Ye Tian sought them out one by one, challenging these eight-star peerless Heavenly Prides and defeating them almost instantly, stripping them of their destiny.

As time went on, Ye Tians ranking on the Heavenly Pride Gold List kept soaring.

He reached the 50th, then the 40th, 30th, and 20th places on the Heavenly Pride Gold List. At this rate, it wouldnt be long before Ye Tian entered the top 10.

Some forces were unhappy with Ye Tians rapid progress, as defeating too many eight-star peerless Heavenly Prides indeed broke some unspoken rules.

One such force that took a disliking to Ye Tian was the Sword Emperor Sect, one of the top nine-star forces in the Hengpan Galaxy, which stood just below the four dominant forces.

The Sword Emperor Sect, being one of the dozen top nine-star forces, was far superior to ordinary nine-star forces.

If the Sword Emperor Sect had a being surpassing the Galaxy level, it would have the qualifications to become a dominant force in the Pan Star Field.

This demonstrated the strength of the Sword Emperor Sect. They took issue with Ye Tian mainly because of the Panyun Stars Yun Family, which had risen to become the strongest branch of the Yun Family, largely due to their association with the Sword Emperor Sect.

Previously, Ye Tian had killed many Heavenly Prides from the Panyun Stars Yun Family.

As Ye Tians fame grew, this matter was naturally publicized. Since the Sword Emperor Sect was the backer of the Panyun Stars Yun Family, ignoring the situation would seem negligent.

Moreover, some Heavenly Prides from the Sword Emperor Sect had also been challenged and defeated by Ye Tian, causing dissatisfaction among some of the sects higher-ups.

The Sword Emperor Sect also had a nine-star peerless Heavenly Pride named True Sword Heavenly Pride, who had been in seclusion until recently.

On this day.

The True Sword Heavenly Pride of the Sword Emperor Sect issued a declaration, stating that he would soon arrive in Qingzang City on the Hengpan Continent to challenge Ye Tian.

This challenge letter was also delivered to Ye Tian in Qingzang City on the Hengpan Continent by a True God-level powerhouse of the Sword Emperor Sect.

In Qingzang City, Hengpan Continent.

A True God-level powerhouse appeared in front of Ye Tian, presenting a letter and said, Heavenly Pride of Ten Thousand Laws, this is a challenge issued to you by our sects True Sword Heavenly Pride. I hope you will not leave Qingzang City in the coming days!

As soon as he finished speaking, the True God-level powerhouse vanished.

Ye Tian opened the envelope and read the contents, smiling slightly, I was just thinking about challenging a nine-star peerless Heavenly Pride, and I hadn't decided whom to challenge. It seems the True Sword Heavenly Pride has taken the initiative to come to me!

After putting away the challenge letter, Ye Tian quietly waited for the arrival of the True Sword Heavenly Pride.

In the Divine Desolation Hall.

Upon hearing the news of the True Sword Heavenly Prides challenge to the Heavenly Pride of Ten Thousand Laws, Crescent Moon Heavenly Pride burst into laughter.

That guy, the True Sword Heavenly Pride, is not as strong as me. Daring to challenge the Heavenly Pride of Ten Thousand Laws is seeking death!

He was very aware of the strength of Ye Tian, the Heavenly Pride of Ten Thousand Laws, who was definitely among the top of the nine-star peerless Heavenly Prides and even had the capability to slay ordinary nine-star peerless Heavenly Prides.

The Heavenly Pride of Ten Thousand Laws possesses a Mystic-level spatial talent and has even mastered a spatial divine ability, making him the most formidable existence among the nine-star peerless Heavenly Prides. If the Heavenly Pride of Ten Thousand Laws wishes to kill the True Sword Heavenly Pride, there would be no escape for the latter.

I hope the True Sword Heavenly Pride does not anger the Heavenly Pride of Ten Thousand Laws; otherwise, his fall is certain! Crescent Moon Heavenly Pride thought with schadenfreude.

Elsewhere.

The Raging Sun Heavenly Pride of the Eternal Sect also reveled in his misfortune.

He knew that the True Sword Heavenly Pride from the Sword Emperor Sect wanted to stand up for the Yun family and those Sword Emperor Sect disciples defeated by Ye Tian, aiming to defeat Ye Tian and make a name for himself in the Hengpan Galaxy.

Unfortunately, the True Sword Heavenly Pride had no idea about Ye Tians true strength.

This time, he was definitely going to take a fall! However, as nine-star peerless Heavenly Prides, they were competitors, and naturally he wouldnt share information about the Heavenly Pride of Ten Thousand Laws with the True Sword Heavenly Pride.

If the True Sword Heavenly Pride were to fall this time, it would be good news for both Raging Sun Heavenly Pride and Crescent Moon Heavenly Pride; they would be more than happy! Three days later, when the news of the battle involving the True Sword Heavenly Pride had spread widely, he set off for Qingzang City in the Hengpan Continent.

At the same time.

Many Heavenly Prides and notable figures from the Hengpan Galaxy also arrived in Qingzang City, ready to witness this battle between nine-star peerless Heavenly Prides.

They were also very curious about who would win this battle within Qingzang City.

Ye Tian emerged from the cultivation room, sensing the presence of many powerful beings and the silhouettes of numerous Heavenly Prides.

The number of martial warriors in Qingzang City had multiplied compared to before, and even outside Qingzang City, many warriors had gathered.

At this moment, Ye Tian knew that the True Sword Heavenly Pride was on his way and would soon arrive.

For him, there was no pressure regarding this battle; the outcome was already determined.

He would win! The True Sword Heavenly Pride would lose! However, he pondered whether to kill the True Sword Heavenly Pride. If he did, it would undoubtedly offend the Sword Emperor Sect, which seemed to have no benefits for him.

Perhaps, I can take advantage of this challenge to benefit myself!

Ye Tian suddenly thought.

Suddenly.

He smiled! He had come up with a plan, and if it succeeded, this challenge would undoubtedly be an opportunity.

It all depends on how much the Sword Emperor Sect values the True Sword Heavenly Pride!

Ye Tian thought to himself.

Ye Tian, come out for a battle!

The voice of the True Sword Heavenly Pride came from outside Qingzang City.

The True Sword Heavenly Pride had arrived!

Boom!!! Ye Tian stepped out of Qingzang City and walked towards the sky, facing the True Sword Heavenly Pride above at a height of one hundred thousand meters.

True Sword Heavenly Pride, have you considered the consequences of challenging me? Ye Tian asked, with his hands behind his back and a calm demeanor.

Of course, I have considered it. If you are afraid, just admit defeat. According to calculations, admitting defeat like this will result in a slightly lesser loss of destiny! The True Sword Heavenly Pride said arrogantly, laughing.

Then, let the battle begin! Ye Tian drew his saber, his fighting spirit surging.

Good, Ill let you see the might of the True Sword Heavenly Pride! The True Sword Heavenly Pride unsheathed his sword.

The battle began!

Chapter 440: Threatening the Sword Emperor Sect! Scheming to Acquire the Saber Dao Origin Artifact!

True Sword Heavenly Pride was not weak. His many talents had been elevated to the God level, one by one. He also possessed a Supreme swordsmanship talent, having cultivated a Super God level sword technique to the perfected stage.

As soon as he made his move, he displayed a perfected Super God level sword technique.

Sweeping Void True Sword! Slash!

Boom! The void seemed to have been split open by True Sword Heavenly Prides sword, as a terrifying force erupted.

This sword was not only fast but also contained immense power, representing the full strength of True Sword Heavenly Pride.

Ye Tian, after all, was a nine-star peerless Heavenly Pride. Even if True Sword Heavenly Pride was confident, he did not dare to underestimate Ye Tian, hence he went all out from the start.

Ye Tians face remained calm as he swung his saber, unleashing a perfected Super God level saber technique Phantom God Saber Technique! With a loud boom, Ye Tian and True Sword Heavenly Pride each retreated a distance, their first exchange ending in a stalemate.

Suddenly.

Countless wind blades enveloped Ye Tian in the void.

Wind attribute divine ability Endless Wind Blades! And this was no ordinary wind attribute divine ability; it was a top-tier wind attribute divine ability that True Sword Heavenly Pride had cultivated to the peak of the major realm, just one step away from the perfected realm.

With a wave of his hand, Ye Tian caused countless golden threads to shimmer in the void, slicing through the wind blades, demonstrating the terrifying power of the perfected top-tier gold attribute divine ability, Phantom Gold Thread Divine Ability.

Perfected Phantom Gold Thread Divine Ability!

True Sword Heavenly Pride was slightly surprised, but not overly so.

Boom! True Sword Heavenly Pride and Ye Tian clashed time and again, seemingly matched in strength.

However, unbeknownst to them, Ye Tian was concealing his strength, not only reducing the power of his spatial talent but also refraining from using many of his supportive talents.

He was deliberately hiding his skill, even deceiving the high-ranking members of the Sword Emperor Sect lurking in the shadows.

Soon, several minutes passed.

To everyone's eyes, it seemed that Ye Tian and True Sword Heavenly Pride would end in a draw.

But at that moment, Ye Tian instantly unleashed the Spatial Divine Form Divine Ability.

Boom! A colossal Spatial Divine Form appeared, its boundless spatial pressure enveloping the entire area.

In the next instant.

Ye Tian controlled the Spatial Divine Form to strike True Sword Heavenly Pride.

The terrifying spatial force directly inflicted severe damage on True Sword Heavenly Pride.

At this moment, True Sword Heavenly Pride was dumbfounded.

The situation had been evenly matched until now, so why had it suddenly reversed?

His spatial talent froze space, and Phantom Gold Threads enveloped the area, doing their utmost to prevent other powerhouses from intervening.

Meanwhile.

Ye Tian's Spatial Divine Form struck again with a palm, this time with the Xumi Palm.

The Spatial Divine Form, being a spatial divine ability, could also perform the secret techniques from the Mila Sutra, with the Xumi Palm being one of them, hence it could be executed.

No!!!

True Sword Heavenly Pride was in utter panic.

Already severely injured by Ye Tians Spatial Divine Form, and with space around him now frozen, making it difficult for him to dodge this palm in his current state, he could sense that if he couldnt evade this palm, he would be finished.

Break for me!!!

True Sword Heavenly Pride exerted all his strength, trying to break free from the binding and avoid the palm.

Unfortunately, he still failed! Ye Tians Xumi Palm descended, seizing True Sword Heavenly Pride, not only inflicting further severe injuries but also trapping him within the Xumi Realm, completely confining him.

At this point, True Sword Heavenly Prides life was entirely in Ye Tians hands.

The battle concluded! The crowd was in an uproar! No one had expected the outcome to be such. Just a second ago, they thought it would be a draw, but in the next moment, the situation changed.

Not only was True Sword Heavenly Pride defeated, but he was also captured.

Heavenly Pride of Ten Thousand Laws, True Sword Heavenly Pride has been defeated.
Release True Sword Heavenly Pride,

A God-level powerhouse from the Sword Emperor Sect appeared before Ye Tian, speaking in a commanding tone.

This God, what are you saying? I dont understand,

Ye Tian feigned ignorance.

You wont release him?

The face of the God-level powerhouse from the Sword Emperor Sect changed.

At this moment, the other onlookers also realized that the situation had escalated. This was no longer a simple sparring between Heavenly Prides.

Ye Tian was challenging the Sword Emperor Sect! Wasnt this audacity a bit too much?

Youre not qualified to talk to me. Have a Planetary System level powerhouse speak to me instead!

Ye Tian said sternly.

What, you.

The God-level powerhouse from the Sword Emperor Sect was furious.

If it were just an ordinary Emperor level opponent, he would have crushed them with one hand by now.

But Ye Tian was a Heavenly Pride, and even he dared not act rashly against him!

Suddenly.

A voice descended Hes not qualified am I qualified enough now?

A middle-aged man clad in black armor emerged from the void, his faint aura astonishing many God level and above powerhouses.

Black Abyss Sword Monarch!

Many God level powerhouses recognized the identity of this Planetary System level powerhouse.

Ye Tian also recognized him. As a renowned Planetary System level powerhouse of the Sword Emperor Sect, Black Abyss Sword Monarchs reputation was no small matter. Crucially, his cultivation talent was of the Cosmic level, and with further cultivation, he could reach the Galaxy level.

With the arrival of such a prominent figure, many powerhouses respectfully greeted, Greetings to Black Abyss Sword Monarch!

Black Abyss Sword Monarch himself has come, what a pleasant surprise!

Ye Tian appeared very calm on the surface, but his heart was filled with joy.

His Copy Talent had already scanned Black Abyss Sword Monarchs talents, revealing his cultivation talent

[Cultivation Talent: Cosmic level]

Ye Tians cultivation talent was also of the Cosmic level, and if he wanted to enhance his cultivation talent further, he would need to merge two Cosmic level cultivation talents.

However, such a level of cultivation talent had been elusive to him in the Hengpan Galaxy, as it was quite rare.

Those Galaxy level powerhouses naturally possessed Cosmic level and above cultivation talents, but Galaxy level powerhouses were not so easily encountered.

Black Abyss Sword Monarch was the only one Ye Tian had seen possessing a Cosmic level cultivation talent!

Copy!

Ye Tian immediately copied Black Abyss Sword Monarchs Cosmic level cultivation talent.

Heavenly Pride of Ten Thousand Laws, youre quite bold. Do you realize youre facing a nine-star force? Although youre a nine-star peerless Heavenly Pride, unless you grow to a Planetary System level, youre not qualified to talk to us.

Do you understand?

Release True Sword Heavenly Pride. I wont hold your arrogance and unreasonableness against you!

Black Abyss Sword Monarch stated.

Ye Tian replied with a smile, Sorry, I have no intention of simply releasing True Sword Heavenly Pride.

According to the rules of Battle of Heavenly Prides, even if I killed True Sword Heavenly Pride, it wouldnt matter.

If the Sword Emperor Sect wishes for me to release True Sword Heavenly Pride, then you must agree to a condition!

You dare to threaten the Sword Emperor Sect?

Black Abyss Sword Monarch was angered, and killing intent started to emerge.

Its not a threat, just a trade. If the Sword Emperor Sect is unwilling, then Ill kill True Sword Heavenly Pride! Ye Tian spoke lightly.

Black Abyss Sword Monarchs face changed several times, wanting to refuse Ye Tian. The Sword Emperor Sect had invested a huge price and countless resources in cultivating such a nine-star peerless Heavenly Pride. Giving up like this would mean a massive loss for the Sword Emperor Sect.

Moreover, without this nine-star peerless Heavenly Pride, the Sword Emperor Sect would be completely out of the competition for Heavenly Pride battles.

Therefore, True Sword Heavenly Pride could not die!

Speak, what do you want? Black Abyss Sword Monarch calmed down and asked.

Its simple, I want to borrow a Saber Dao Origin Artifact for ten years of cultivation! Ye Tian stated.

You want to borrow a Saber Dao Origin Artifact for cultivation!

Black Abyss Sword Monarch finally understood Ye Tians plan, which was clearly to use True Sword Heavenly Pride to obtain resources from the Sword Emperor Sect, aiding his own power enhancement.

What a cunning plan!

You really want to extort the Sword Emperor Sect like this, arent you afraid that the Sword Emperor Sect will kill you in the future?

Black Abyss Sword Monarch also threatened.

An ordinary nine-star peerless Heavenly Pride would indeed be fearful.

After all, unless a nine-star peerless Heavenly Pride never advanced to the God level, once they did, the Sword Emperor Sect could easily send a powerhouse to kill them.

But Ye Tian was not afraid! As long as he advanced to become a Child of the Universe, he would definitely attract the attention of the human races upper echelons.

He had already inquired clearly that the human race places great importance on the Children of the Universe. No force was allowed to harm a Child of the Universe, otherwise, they would face the wrath of the human races upper echelons.

Not to mention the Sword Emperor Sect, even the four dominant powers of the Pan Star Field would not dare to kill a Child of the Universe.

Since advancing his heart condition to the fourth level, Ye Tian was fully confident in becoming a Child of the Universe, so he was not afraid of offending the Sword Emperor Sect.

As long as he could grow quickly, even if he offended the four dominant powers, he did not care!

Black Abyss Sword Monarch, just say whether you agree or not. There's no need for threats.

If the Sword Emperor Sect doesn't agree, I will kill True Sword Heavenly Pride!

Ye Tian responded with certainty.

Black Abyss Sword Monarch took a deep breath and said, Ten years is too long. I can only give you five years at most. That's the limit of my authority. If you disagree, then go ahead and kill True Sword Heavenly Pride!

Five years is also fine! Ye Tian nodded.

Actually, he mentioned ten years as a high demand, intentionally extorting.

Had Black Abyss Sword Monarch offered one year, he might have agreed. Unexpectedly, Black Abyss Sword Monarch was so generous to offer five years.
