Chapter 711: Agree to Inform!

“The Supremes of the myriad races have arrived!”

The Master of the Primordial Era gazed at the numerous Supremes of this cosmic era flying toward them and flew out from the temporary palace.

Boom! The two sides met in the starry sky, and the auras of the Supremes clashed.

“First Divine Lord, what’s the matter? Are you planning to end the Myriad Realms Divine Child Plan now? It shouldn’t be time yet, and it seems that the true Myriad Realms Divine Child hasn’t been born!” The Master of the Primordial Era spoke.

The First Divine Lord and the other Supremes naturally knew that the Myriad Realms Divine Child had not yet been born. Even though Ye Tian had captured ten Children of the Era, unless he killed them or made them admit defeat, he could not seize their destiny.

Thus, Ye Tian had not yet become the Myriad Realms Divine Child, and the Myriad Realms Divine Child Plan had not concluded.

Boom!!!!

The First Divine Lord took a step forward, facing the Master of the Primordial Era directly, and said, “Master of the Primordial Era, indeed, the Myriad Realms Divine Child Plan has not concluded. However, there has been a slight change in the Myriad Realms World. For the sake of our friendship, I came to inform you, to avoid any unnecessary conflicts between us.”

“What change?” The Master of the Primordial Era and the other Supremes’ expressions slightly changed, sensing something amiss.

“Supreme Kunwu, you contact Ye Tian!” The First Divine Lord said.

“Alright!”

Supreme Kunwu stepped forward, took out the communication device, and contacted Ye Tian, who was in the Heavenly Realm of the Myriad Realms World.

Boom!!!! The projection of the area where Ye Tian was located in the Heavenly Realm was cast into the void.

Ye Tian stood amidst a mountain range, displaying the scene of the ten Children of the Era being suppressed in his hands.

Supreme Kunwu said, “Our race’s Ye Tian has already captured ten Children of the Era. According to reason, Ye Tian can kill these ten Children of the Era and then seize their destiny, becoming the Myriad Realms Divine Child and inheriting the cosmic position of the Myriad Domains Envoy! However, these ten are Children of the Era after all. Losing even one would cause great heartache for a force.

Furthermore, these are ten Children of the Era.

If Ye Tian kills them, there’s no guarantee that the Supremes wouldn’t break the agreement, leading to unforeseen circumstances. Therefore, we came to inform all the Supremes!”

“What do you want to do!!!!”

The Master of the Primordial Era’s face turned dark.

At this moment, the faces of the Supremes behind the Master of the Primordial Era also looked bad, especially those Supremes behind the ten Children of the Era, who were even more furious. If it weren’t for the Master of the Primordial Era warning them not to act rashly, they might have charged forward.

“Nothing, just whether the Supremes want to save the lives of these ten Children of the Era. If it doesn’t matter, then we’ll let Ye Tian act!” The First Divine Lord said.

“Wait!” The Master of the Primordial Era quickly said, “Speak, what conditions do you have? Just say them!”

The Master of the Primordial Era was very clear that their real purpose was not to kill those Children of the Era. After all, doing so would not benefit them much.

Among the forces of the twelve cosmic eras, there were not only ten Children of the Era, and if they hadn't grown up, even killing them wouldn't change the situation, it would only cause conflict between both sides.

Moreover, if the First Divine Lord and his group wanted to kill those ten Children of the Era, they wouldn't have come to find them.

Therefore, as long as the First Divine Lord's conditions were met, those ten Children of the Era would be safe.

"How did you avoid the Great Cosmic Destruction? We want to know this secret!" The First Divine Lord asked eagerly.

As the First Divine Lord of the Immortal Race and almost the strongest Supreme in the current cosmic era, he could hardly make any further progress. Once the Great Cosmic Destruction arrived, he would almost certainly perish.

Therefore, he wanted to avoid the Great Cosmic Destruction! If it could be avoided, it would mean eternal immortality, living through one cosmic era after another. In that case, even if he couldn't transcend, it wouldn't matter.

"Impossible!" The Master of the Primordial Era instinctively responded.

"What, you don't want to tell? If you're unwilling, then the lives of these ten Children of the Era will not be in my hands to decide!" The First Divine Lord said with a smile.

"Master of the Primordial Era, don't be hasty. Our clan's Ling Wu is still inside; he is a top-tier Child of the Era. He absolutely cannot fall in there!" A Supreme spoke.

Under the persuasion of several Supremes, the Master of the Primordial Era said, "How about this, let us discuss it, alright?"

"Fine, take your time to discuss. We're not in a hurry!" The First Divine Lord said.

Currently, it was the Master of the Primordial Era and the other Supremes who were in a difficult position, not them.

In the First Divine Lord's view, the lives of ten Children of the Era were undoubtedly very important to the Master of the Primordial Era. After all, the birth of a Child of the Era was not easy, and the forces of the twelve cosmic eras had few numbers. Even if they created new races, developing them would take a long time, so they couldn't be indifferent to the lives and deaths of these Children of the Era.

Moreover, revealing how to avoid the Great Cosmic Destruction was just a piece of information. If the Supremes of the twelve cosmic eras knew it, telling the Supremes of the thirteenth cosmic era wouldn't be a big deal.

Thus, the First Divine Lord believed there was a high possibility that the Master of the Primordial Era would speak.

Meanwhile, the Master of the Primordial Era and the other Supremes were discussing.

"Everyone, what should we do now? How to avoid the Great Cosmic Destruction is an extremely important secret for us. If we reveal it before that existence tells this cosmic era's forces, would it offend that existence?" The Master of the Primordial Era asked.

Nether King Supreme said, "It shouldn't. That existence told a few Supremes of the twelve cosmic eras. Telling the Supremes of the thirteenth cosmic era wouldn't matter.

As long as we don't reveal the true purpose or the secrets of that existence.

We can just share half of the secret without mentioning that existence.

Moreover, even if we tell them, they cannot avoid the Great Cosmic Destruction, making it a useless piece of information.

Exchanging a useless piece of information for the lives of ten Children of the Era is absolutely worth it.

Don't forget, every Child of the Era has the potential to break the limit and become a transcender.

That existence hopes we can birth more transcendents, so we can't give up the lives of these Children of the Era.

If we confront the myriad races in the future, they will surely know as well. Telling them earlier won't matter."

"I agree with the Nether King Supreme. As long as we don't reveal the core secrets, just the secret of avoiding the Great Cosmic Destruction isn't a big deal. After all, they can't replicate it!" Golden Light Supreme, said.

After a discussion, the majority of the Supremes agreed to inform the First Divine Lord and others about the secret of avoiding the Great Cosmic Destruction.

Swoosh! The Master of the Primordial Era stepped forward, coming before the First Divine Lord, and said, "First Divine Lord, we agree to inform you about the secret of the Great Cosmic Destruction, but you must release those ten Children of the Era!"

"Alright, I can guarantee that!" The First Divine Lord said.

Chapter 712: The Secret of Avoiding the Great Catastrophe of the Universe!

Upon hearing the First Divine Lord promise to release the ten Children of the Era, the Master of the Primordial Era sighed and said, "Very well, I will tell you the secret of avoiding the great catastrophe of the universe."

The First Divine Lord, the First Demon Lord, Kunwu Supreme, and others immediately showed solemn expressions and listened intently to the Master of the Primordial Era's account.

The Master of the Primordial Era said, "The universe, in our eyes, is an immensely vast celestial body. But in the chaos, the universe is just an ordinary world.

The universe has its birth and also a day of destruction. However, before it is completely destroyed, it undergoes one great catastrophe after another, which is a self-protective measure of the universe.

I was born in the First Era of the Universe. During this era, the universe had just been born, resources were incredibly abundant, and opportunities were vast. Even though cultivation had to start from scratch, the powerful beings in the chaos left their legacies in the universe, ensuring that cultivation did not go astray.

In the First Era of the Universe, I achieved supremacy, and as a top-tier Child of the Era, I became a Supreme. Even other powerful Supremes seemed like ants to me.

Unfortunately, I couldn't transcend because I didn't break the five universe limits when I was at the Emperor level. Becoming a Supreme was a later opportunity that allowed me to reach the combat power of a top-tier Child of the Era.

Because of this, I had no chance whatsoever to transcend.

But I accidentally discovered a legacy that explained the mysteries of the universe.

One of these mysteries excited me greatly because it offered a chance for me to live through another era of the universe!"

The Master of the Primordial Era paused, then continued, "This legacy told me that the universe enters a cycle every twelve eras. The thirteenth era is the new cycle era.

As long as a special reincarnation supreme treasure is created, one can use it to reincarnate, bypassing the origin of the universe, and enter the new cycle era directly.

Since the universe also undergoes a cycle, the origin of the universe in the thirteenth era would enter a period of weakness, unable to govern the beings from the previous twelve eras who sneaked over. Essentially, the origin of the new universe era would erase everything from before. This way, if we manage to sneak into this new era, the universe's origin would suppress us but not eliminate us, as we would be seen as a different type rather than those who must die.

You might have noticed why previous eras could cultivate the physical body, yuan force, and soul without restrictions, but this era restricts the soul and especially the physical body. It's because the origin of the universe is in an extremely weakened state, so it has to suppress the growth of beings in this era. Once the next era comes, everything will be restored.

Therefore, this thirteenth era is an incredibly special era, and it is why we could live until this era!"

“Master of the Primordial Era, you managed to reincarnate into this era, why could people from other eras also do so?” the First Divine Lord questioned.

“Hahahaha!” The Master of the Primordial Era laughed loudly, “Because I left the legacy and the reincarnation supreme treasure. Other factions from the eleven other eras acquired this reincarnation supreme treasure, allowing them to reincarnate into this era.

However, the power of that reincarnation supreme treasure is limited. It can’t allow more people to reincarnate into the thirteenth era, so only a few Supremes and a handful of Children of the Era could reincarnate.”

“Hmph, Master of the Primordial Era, in the end, you could only live one more era. Why did you hide this from us and act so high-profile? Surely you have more secrets you’re keeping from us?” the First Divine Lord questioned again.

The Master of the Primordial Era coldly replied, “First Divine Lord, I do not need to answer that question. I have already given the answer.

Additionally, I will tell you one more secret. That reincarnation supreme treasure is gone. Even if it still exists, it is useless to you.

Now is the thirteenth era, and since the universe cycles every twelve eras, the rules change each time. I can no longer create a reincarnation supreme treasure that can reach the twenty-fifth era of the universe!”

The First Divine Lord looked disappointed. If what the Master of the Primordial Era said was true, they had no way to avoid the great catastrophe of the universe.

“First Divine Lord, the Master of the Primordial Era must still be hiding secrets from us. I believe their true goal is still transcendence.

Didn’t he mention that he had acquired the legacy of a great power from the chaos? With the methods of the Master of the Primordial Era, he couldn’t have destroyed that great power’s legacy. Maybe we can find it too!” the Second Divine Lord transmitted his thoughts.

“After we return, have the clan members search with all their might!” The First Divine Lord made the decision.

“Alright, we will release the ten now!” The First Divine Lord responded.

Immediately, Kunwu Supreme contacted Ye Tian and released the ten Children of the Era.

In the Myriad Realms World, Heaven Realm.

Ye Tian released the Children of the Era one by one, under the condition that they admitted defeat.

Faced with the threat of death, these Children of the Era naturally surrendered.

As soon as these Children of the Era admitted defeat, Ye Tian’s destiny surged many times over.

At the same time.

A scroll appeared in the void above the Myriad Realms World, and a massive phantom shadow enveloped the heavens and earth, connecting with the universe’s origin.

In the next instant.

Ye Tian was drawn out of the Heaven Realm by the scroll, standing in the void.

Then—Boom! The power of the universe’s origin surged into Ye Tian’s body. This power was extremely pure, similar to the power from the Desolate Realm back then.

“Start cultivating the Chaos Golden Desolation Technique!”

Ye Tian reacted immediately and began cultivating the Chaos Golden Desolation Technique.

This technique came from a powerful being in the chaos, immensely mysterious and incredibly difficult to cultivate.

Following the normal method of cultivation, progress was too slow.

Now, with the addition of the chaotic origin power, Ye Tian's cultivation speed increased rapidly! Initially, Ye Tian had cultivated the fifth layer of the Chaos Golden Desolation Technique to the entry peak realm. Now, he instantly broke through the barrier and advanced to the minor completion stage of the Chaos Golden Desolation Technique! Mid minor completion! Late minor completion! Peak minor completion! Major realm! Mid major realm! Late major realm!

Suddenly, Ye Tian no longer felt the influx of chaotic origin power, and the fifth layer of the Chaos Golden Desolation Technique stabilized at the late major realm, not far from perfect completion.

Opening his eyes, Ye Tian sensed the urgent need for energy within his body.

He could continue to enhance his physical body, which would significantly increase his combat power once again! Whoosh, whoosh, whoosh! A large number of Galaxy-level beings were transferred out of the Myriad Realms World, and Ye Tian followed suit.

At this moment, Ye Tian noticed that many Galaxy-level beings remained in the Myriad Realms World. Although some of their destinies had increased significantly, the gains were not substantial.

This time, the Myriad Realms World Divine Child plan ultimately forged only one person, and that was him—Ye Tian!

“What a pity!” Ye Tian sighed.

But for the execution of the plan, the myriad clans could only sacrifice these Galaxy-level beings.

“Ye Tian, let's return!”

Kunwu Supreme appeared beside Ye Tian, grabbed him, and instantly returned to Kunwu Supreme's temporary palace.

Chapter 713: Ten Thousand Years Later

The plan for the Myriad Realms Divine Child concluded, and the Supremes from the Twelve Cosmic Eras departed with their respective Children of the Era.

Shortly after, the various races of the universe also left one by one. Kunwu Supreme took Ye Tian and left early, concealing their presence and taking a different route back to the human territory, which added quite a detour.

Kunwu Supreme did this to avoid interception by the Supremes of the Twelve Cosmic Eras.

After all, Ye Tian had embarrassed the Master of the Primordial Era and the other Supremes this time, also causing the Children of the Era to lose their chance to become the Myriad Realms Divine Child. Although they still gained some destiny, it didn't match the potential rewards.

Not long after, Ye Tian and Kunwu Supreme returned to the human race.

Upon their return, Ye Tian and Kunwu Supreme discussed the matter of the Great Cosmic Destruction.

"Kunwu Supreme, did the Supremes of the Twelve Cosmic Eras reveal any secrets about the Great Cosmic Destruction?" Ye Tian asked.

"They did!" Kunwu Supreme replied. "It aligns with your previous speculations. They came to the thirteenth cosmic epoch through reincarnation!"

Kunwu Supreme then explained the details of reincarnation, the treasure of reincarnation, and the secrets of the new cosmic epoch.

After listening, Ye Tian frowned and said, "Kunwu Supreme, I feel like they are hiding something. If all of this was orchestrated by the Master of the Primordial Era, did he really leave a legacy just to let the Supremes of the Twelve Cosmic Eras live through another epoch? What's the point of that? Moreover, those who reincarnated into the current cosmic epoch are only Supremes, Children of the Era, and potential supreme-level figures. No one else."

"If a force's supreme discovered the treasure of reincarnation and could reincarnate into the current cosmic epoch, they would surely bring their relatives. Even if the number of places was limited, they wouldn't give them to other Supremes but would bring their relatives to live another cosmic epoch."

“Besides, it’s unusual for the Supremes of the Twelve Cosmic Eras to unite. Without a common interest, how could the forces of the Twelve Cosmic Eras come together?”

“Exactly, so the Master of the Primordial Era must have hidden some crucial secrets. The only clue now is that so-called legacy. There indeed are strong beings from the chaos in the universe, most of whom happened to encounter this universe and casually threw in some legacies. I once obtained such a legacy.”

“So, the strong being’s legacy mentioned by the Master of the Primordial Era is likely real. If we find that legacy, we might uncover the secrets the Master of the Primordial Era is hiding!” Kunwu Supreme said.

“If we could capture a Supreme, we might directly extract the secrets from them!” Ye Tian murmured.

“That’s too difficult!” Kunwu Supreme shook his head. “Those Supremes are incredibly powerful. Even the weakest among them is likely stronger than I am. If we attack the Supremes of the Twelve Cosmic Eras, it would mean war. This is not something a single race can withstand.”

Ye Tian nodded silently. Given the current strength of the various races in the universe, a war was indeed inadvisable.

Not to mention, the Master of the Primordial Era alone would be a formidable opponent. If it weren’t for the suppression of the cosmic origin, the Master of the Primordial Era alone could sweep through all the Supremes.

“Ye Tian, grow quickly. I have a feeling that something big will happen in the near future!” Kunwu Supreme sighed.

“I will, Kunwu Supreme!” Ye Tian replied with a nod.

After leaving Kunwu Pavilion, Ye Tian returned to the Tian Pavilion.

This time, the Myriad Realms Divine Child plan had brought Ye Tian substantial gains, but it also put some pressure on him.

This pressure didn't come from the Children of the Era, although they were formidable, and some might be even stronger than Ling Wu. What truly made Ye Tian apprehensive were those Supremes.

No one knew what the Supremes' true intentions were. Perhaps in the near future, war would break out.

At that time, would the human race be able to withstand the attacks of those Supremes?

In the days that followed, Ye Tian mostly stayed in the Holy City to cultivate.

He had recently cultivated the fifth layer of the Chaos Golden Desolation Technique to the late major realm. His physical body still had a long way to go in terms of improvement, and he could continue to enhance his physical strength.

Therefore, he planned to focus on increasing his physical power and aim for the perfected realm of the fifth layer of the Chaos Golden Desolation Technique.

This would take time!

Years passed, and in the blink of an eye, ten thousand years had gone by.

For ordinary people, ten thousand years was an unfathomably long time, but for cultivators like Ye Tian, a mere ten thousand years was nothing.

During these ten thousand years, the Tian Pavilion developed at a pace far exceeding other forces, producing many planetary system level, galaxy level, and even several Universal Gods.

Among them, Xiao Yue and Ye Yu both advanced to the battle power of Universal Gods, and they were very powerful ones at that.

Furthermore, Fairy Mingyue, who had joined the Tian Pavilion, reached the peak of the Universal God realm.

One day, Fairy Mingyue came to see Ye Tian.

When Ye Tian saw her, he asked, “Fairy Mingyue, are you here to say goodbye?”

Originally, the agreement between him and Heavenly Venerable Blazing Fire was for Fairy Mingyue to serve the Tian Pavilion for ten thousand years. During her tenure as the chief artifact refiner, she diligently crafted weapons, contributing significantly to the rapid development of the Tian Pavilion. At least half of the credit for its growth belonged to her.

Recently, Fairy Mingyue had successfully advanced to a supreme treasure level divine master, capable of crafting ordinary supreme treasures, though her success rate was not very high. She had just crossed the threshold into this level.

Even so, her status was higher than that of many dominators.

Naturally, Ye Tian hoped she would stay longer.

Unfortunately, the agreed time was ten thousand years. After that, Fairy Mingyue could leave the Tian Pavilion, and he couldn’t stop her.

“Master, I’m not here to say goodbye. I want to stay in the Tian Pavilion!” Fairy Mingyue said.

“Why?” Ye Tian was both surprised and curious.

Logically, Fairy Mingyue could leave the Tian Pavilion and return to the Blazing Fire Heavenly Palace, where she could become a high-ranking member, possibly even a vice palace master.

After all, Blazing Fire Heavenly Palace was a Heavenly Venerable level force, far surpassing the current Tian Pavilion.

Fairy Mingyue explained, “Master, I want to stay in the pavilion because I feel it suits me better. Here, I can fully showcase my artifact refining skills. Although the progress might not be as rapid as in Blazing Fire Heavenly Palace, I believe the Tian Pavilion will eventually surpass it. I don’t want to miss this opportunity!”

“Does Heavenly Venerable Blazing Fire know about your decision?” Ye Tian asked.

“The ancestor knows,” Fairy Mingyue replied. “Before coming here, I discussed it with him, and he agreed with my decision.”

Ye Tian pondered for a moment and then said, “Alright, you can stay in the Tian Pavilion from now on.”

“Thank you, Master!” Fairy Mingyue said.

Chapter 714: Striving for the Universal God Realm!

Fairy Mingyue then retreated.

“With Fairy Mingyue staying at the Tian Pavilion, its development would not be hindered, and I would have less to worry about. However, the most important thing right now is strength!” Ye Tian sighed.

Currently, his strength had increased rapidly. Compared to ten thousand years ago, his power had surged dramatically. Back then, his Chaos Golden Desolation Technique was only at the fifth layer of the major realm. But now, with ten thousand years of effort and the assistance of numerous treasures, he had found some that could aid in cultivating the Chaos Golden Desolation Technique, accelerating his progress.

Through long periods of diligent cultivation and substantial resource assistance, he finally cultivated the Chaos Golden Desolation Technique to the perfected realm of the fifth layer, and his physical body had also been cultivated to its limit.

Additionally, Ye Tian had made rapid progress in other areas. For instance, the Spear of Hellish Void had been cultivated to the major realm. This was a significant advancement. For others, no matter how high their talent, it would have been difficult to elevate a space great divine ability from the minor realm to the major realm within ten thousand years. Even with the ability to accelerate time, it would have been impossible.

This success was mainly due to Ye Tian having absorbed a trace of the universe’s origin. It was a true origin, a fragment cut from the universe’s origin by a transcender battling it. This trace of origin allowed Ye Tian to comprehend many rules and witness the evolution of countless laws, equivalent to instantly absorbing numerous Heavenly Dao characters.

Therefore, his cultivation of great divine abilities was unrestricted, unlike others who could not reach such heights. Ye Tian even believed that many Space Supremes could not cultivate a space great divine ability to the major realm and might still be in the minor realm.

Moreover, the Wheel of Time, another time great divine ability, was also cultivated by Ye Tian to the major realm. The Five Elements Divine Wheel, another great divine ability, had been comprehended to the peak of the major realm, just a step away from entering the perfected realm.

In addition to this, the realm of the Chaos Dao was at the extreme of the Dharma Aspect Realm, just one step away from completely entering the Origin Realm. Unfortunately, Ye Tian had too many aspects to cultivate, so progress was not as rapid as imagined. If he focused on cultivating just one aspect, progress would have been faster.

“Next, I need to strive for the Universal God Realm. My accumulation is nearly at its peak, and it’s difficult to progress further in other areas. However, after breaking through from the Galaxy level to the Universal God level, one’s comprehension undergoes a transformation. Even an ordinary Galaxy level martial artist, after becoming a Universal God, could create some powerful secret techniques. The more one accumulates at the Galaxy level, the greater the transformation after breaking through to the Universal God level.

Given my accumulation and potential, the transformation would be even greater. Moreover, with my current combat power, there’s no need to fear the so-called Thunder Tribulation,” Ye Tian thought.

Striving for the Universal God Realm mainly involved transforming the internal world into an internal small universe. The power of a small universe was a highly advanced force, similar to the force of heaven and earth within the universe, completely controlled by the Universal God.

A Universal God could even use the power of a small universe (microcosm) to suppress a region of space, achieving effects such as solidifying time and space. Additionally, becoming a Universal God would bring a small transformation to the body. For instance, in this cosmic era, even if the universe’s origin suppressed physical cultivation, preventing those above the God level from cultivating physical strength, a Galaxy level martial artist breaking through to the Universal God level would have vitality comparable to a fourth-tier life form, with a body akin to a pseudo-fourth tier.

This rule was established by the Great Dao and couldn’t be altered by the universe’s origin. Since Ye Tian was already a sixth-tier life form, reaching the Universal God level would bring a small transformation to his body.

While it was impossible to directly transform from the sixth tier to the seventh tier, he could still advance by one or two small stages. For example, if he was at the early stage of the sixth tier now, he might advance to the mid-stage of the sixth tier or the late stage of the sixth tier.

No matter the extent of the advancement, it would be a significant improvement for Ye Tian.

On this day, Ye Tian left the Human Territory and arrived at the edge of the universe. He aimed to break through his bottleneck and face the Thunder Tribulation once again. This time, he did not inform anyone else.

At the edge of the universe.

Ye Tian sat cross-legged in the void, beginning to operate the secret technique for breaking through from the Galaxy level to the Universal God level. This technique initiated the transformation of his internal world into a small universe.

Transforming the internal world into a small universe did not involve expanding the world continuously. Such an approach would never succeed in the transformation. The true transformation required compressing the internal world into a singularity, then detonating that singularity to simulate the Big Bang, forming a small universe.

Though this process seemed perilous, there were no significant issues as long as one's talent reached the Universal level. However, if one's talent did not meet the Universal level, it would be impossible to complete the breakthrough. Forcing the breakthrough could result in the person exploding into nothingness. This was why those without sufficient talent at the Galaxy level remained at that level for their entire lives, never daring to attempt breaking through to the Universal God level.

As time passed, Ye Tian's internal world slowly compressed into a singularity. At this moment, Ye Tian's aura became nearly imperceptible, as all his power was concentrated into a single point, making it difficult for the outside world to sense his presence.

"Explode!" Ye Tian shouted internally.

Boom! In the void within him, the singularity exploded, expanding into an unseen space. Countless galaxies, star systems, and planets were born, and the barriers of the small universe quickly formed.

Though this seemed to take a long time, it actually happened in an instant. After several months, Ye Tian finally sensed that his small universe had stabilized.

“My small universe is this vast?” Ye Tian was astonished.

He had observed the small universes formed by others after breaking through to the Universal God level. Compared to others, his small universe was at least a hundred times larger.

“It seems my potential is so immense that it created such a powerful small universe,” Ye Tian speculated.

Immediately, he took out a large amount of chaos rare earth. To stabilize the small universe quickly, chaos rare earth was an excellent resource. This time, he had prepared a large quantity of chaos rare earth, and with time acceleration, it would take only one or two months to fully stabilize the small universe.

Swish! Large amounts of chaos rare earth were absorbed into Ye Tian’s small universe, merging into its barriers, gradually making the small universe stable and powerful.

At this point, Ye Tian had truly entered the Universal God realm.

Just then, endless Thunder Tribulation clouds formed in the void. His Thunder Tribulation had arrived.

Chapter 715: Plan: Collect Innate Supreme Treasures!

Boom!!!! The boundless tribulation clouds emitted terrifying thunder rules, and their aura far surpassed that of ordinary Universal Gods, even comparable to some Dominator level experts.

Gazing at such an astonishing tribulation cloud, Ye Tian murmured, “No wonder the Immortal True Lord of the Immortal Race didn’t dare to attempt the Universal God realm back then. With his strength, if he had dared to try, he wouldn’t have been able to withstand such a tribulation. Even holding a powerful Supreme Treasure, he would have undoubtedly perished!”

Of course, for Ye Tian, such a tribulation was nothing much.

Boom!!!! The first tribulation descended, striking towards Ye Tian.

Ye Tian easily withstood the force of the tribulation, and even tried to draw its power into his small universe, absorbing and refining the tribulation's power to enhance the stability of his small universe.

Only Ye Tian dared to do such a thing. Other Defiers would have to focus all their energy on resisting the tribulation, not having the time or energy to absorb and refine its power! This time, the tribulation consisted of eighteen strikes, each more powerful than the last. The first strike alone was enough to kill an average Supreme Prince, and only top-tier Supreme Princes could withstand it.

Boom! The second tribulation immediately followed, continuing to strike Ye Tian.

Boom! Boom! Boom! Ye Tian easily endured one strike after another. No matter how terrifying or powerful the tribulation's force was, it couldn't cause him any substantial harm, merely tickling him.

Finally, the fifteenth tribulation descended.

"Not bad. The fifteenth tribulation alone is enough to match the full-force attack of a weaker Child of the Era!" Ye Tian thought to himself.

He saw the fifteenth tribulation transform into a Heavenly Dao Divine Sword, tearing through time and space, slashing towards him.

If it were any other Child of the Era, they would surely treat this fifteenth tribulation strike with utmost seriousness. But Ye Tian casually threw a punch.

Crack!!! The Heavenly Dao Divine Sword formed by the fifteenth tribulation was directly shattered by Ye Tian's punch, dispersing into countless fragments of tribulation power.

"Still too weak!" Ye Tian remarked.

The sixteenth tribulation soon followed, its power twice that of the previous one, enough to severely injure a weaker Child of the Era. Yet it was still easily shattered by Ye Tian's punch.

The seventeenth and eighteenth tribulations, though formidable, were not enough to threaten even someone like Ling Wu, let alone Ye Tian.

Ye Tian effortlessly passed through this tribulation.

“The tribulation for a Universal God isn’t frightening. For some powerful Defiers, it’s not difficult. The truly terrifying tribulation is that of a Transcendent. That’s the real horror! Ling Wu, whom I met, was both a top-tier Child of the Era and a Defier.

Even with his talent and strength, attempting transcendence was exceedingly difficult. Over the course of twelve cosmic eras, many Defiers were born, but only Heavenly Monarch Yun Tan successfully transcended, illustrating how challenging the path to transcendence is.

Many exceptionally talented Defiers likely reached the pinnacle of the Supreme level but ultimately perished under the transcendence tribulation.” Ye Tian thought to himself.

Ye Tian didn’t feel arrogant. Although he easily passed this tribulation, he had never witnessed the transcendence tribulation, and no one knew how terrifying it truly was or whether he could actually transcend.

Therefore, he had to continuously accumulate strength, solidifying his foundation at each stage. Only then could he hope to survive the transcendence tribulation at the pinnacle Supreme level and become a true transcendent.

Ye Tian took out his spaceship, boarded it, and headed back towards the Sanctuary.

Soon, Ye Tian returned to the Tian Pavilion in the Holy City and began another period of cultivation.

Over the twelve cosmic eras, the various forces had stabilized, creating their own races within this new thirteenth cosmic era. Though these new races couldn’t immediately enhance their strength, they served to expand their population and provide destiny.

Additionally, these races facilitated a closer connection with the current universe, reducing the time they were suppressed by the universe. Eventually, they would fully integrate into this cosmic era.

On this day, the Supremes of the twelve cosmic eras reconvened for a meeting.

During the meeting, the Master of the Primordial Era spoke on behalf of the group, “Everyone, after ten thousand years of development, our major forces have integrated well into this cosmic era. Our strength is gradually manifesting more effectively in this era. Our Children of the Era have also advanced to their respective levels. Except for one weaker Defier who perished in the tribulation, the others are all safe. Given the current trajectory, the situation looks promising. However...”

This “however” caused the Supremes to grow serious, knowing what the Master of the Primordial Era was about to address.

“However, our hope for transcendence remains slim. If we cannot transcend, everything we’ve done will be in vain. It’s time to initiate our true plan. The myriad races of this cosmic era are unaware of our plan, which greatly increases our chances of success!” The Master of the Primordial Era continued.

At this point, Nether King Supreme spoke, “Master of the Primordial Era, isn’t it a bit early to execute that plan? We agreed not to act against the myriad races for a hundred thousand years. Acting now would be...”

“Hmph!” The Master of the Primordial Era snorted, “Nether King Supreme, are you scared? Among all the forces present, your Nether Race is the most useless and the easiest to suppress. If not for that entity choosing your Nether Race, you would have long been annihilated in the cosmic cataclysm.”

Though Nether King Supreme felt angry at being scolded and ridiculed, he dared not refute.

The Master of the Primordial Era continued, “Moreover, we are merely executing our true plan, which doesn’t require battling the myriad races. We’re not breaking any rules. We must collect Innate Supreme Treasures without the myriad races knowing.

For the Supremes of this thirteenth cosmic era, Innate Supreme Treasures are no different from other treasures. We can completely exchange them with treasures of equivalent level, preferably trading for the Strongest Supreme Treasures level of Innate Supreme Treasures.

These treasures are most useful to us, and collecting enough will ensure half of our plan's success. Additionally, we need to gather ordinary Supreme-level Innate Supreme Treasures. For this, we can have the Children of the Era collect them, while we Supremes focus on the Strongest Supreme Treasures level of Innate Supreme Treasures."

"Let's first trade with ordinary cosmic races and avoid provoking the Immortal Race and Demon Race for now, to prevent arousing their suspicion. The myriad races are not united, so our purpose won't be exposed quickly!" Another Supreme remarked.

"Agreed. Let's discuss the details further and then start executing this plan!" The Master of the Primordial Era concluded.

Chapter 716: The Celestial Capital!

After some discussion, the Supremes, including the Master of the Primordial Era, began to formally implement their plan.

Simultaneously, they informed certain Children of the Era and Supreme-level princes about parts of their plan, instructing them to collect ordinary Supreme Treasures. Thus, the mission to collect innate treasures began!

At first, the Master of the Primordial Era and others kept a low profile, targeting some of the common large clans of the universe and high-level races, offering higher prices to purchase the innate treasures these races possessed.

To these races, there wasn't much difference between innate treasures and acquired treasures—they were all Supreme Treasures! In this era of the universe, there wasn't a clear distinction between innate and acquired treasures; everything was classified into three levels: ordinary Supreme Treasures, top-tier Supreme Treasures, and strongest Supreme Treasures.

Therefore, in their eyes, all Supreme Treasures were weapons with similar effects.

So, when the Master of the Primordial Era and his associates offered higher prices for the innate treasures, these races were naturally happy to make the exchange, seeing it as a profitable deal.

Moreover, the Master of the Primordial Era even offered additional resources, which made these races even more eager to comply.

As time passed, the Master of the Primordial Era collected some innate treasures.

Unfortunately, the number of innate treasures in the entire universe was very limited. The Master of the Primordial Era and others needed to collect the innate treasures from this era of the universe; treasures from other eras were useless, equivalent to acquired treasures.

Three hundred years later.

The Supremes held another meeting to discuss their progress.

“This won’t work, the speed is too slow. We have only been approaching some common large clans of the universe and high-level races. Too few of these races possess innate treasures, and some of the so-called innate treasures are rumored to be fake. The true innate treasures of this universe are mostly held by the powerful large clans of the universe, the Immortal Race, the Demon Race, and some scattered Supremes. It’s time to trade with some of the powerful large clans of the universe!” proposed the Master of the Primordial Era.

“If we do that, the Immortal and Demon Races will become aware and suspicious,” one of the Supremes questioned.

“Let them be suspicious. As long as they are willing to trade, it won’t be a problem. If the Immortal and Demon Races are unwilling to trade, other large clans of the universe will be happy to. As long as they are willing to trade innate treasures, no price is too high!” responded the Master of the Primordial Era.

“Very well, each of us will be responsible for negotiating with a large clan of the universe!” declared the Heavenly Venerable of Golden Light.

“Agreed!” the Supremes nodded in agreement.

In the territory of the Human Race, there was a giant city located at the edge, named the Celestial Capital.

The Celestial Capital was a very prosperous place, one of the few areas where the Human Race allowed other races to enter.

In this city, there were many different races present, including those that did not have good relations with the Human Race.

Although the Celestial Capital was built by the Human Race, it had its own set of rules. Once anyone entered the Celestial Capital, they were not allowed to fight each other.

In fact, even the high-ranking members of the Human Race could not violate the rules of the Celestial Capital.

Because of this, other races dared to enter, which contributed to the prosperity of the city.

The Human Race established the Celestial Capital to facilitate trade with other races. After all, no single race had all the resources they needed, and some resources the Human Race lacked had to be obtained from other races.

The Celestial Capital housed many businesses and trade companies from other races, allowing powerful individuals to purchase resources from these races, while other races could obtain Human Race resources and treasures in the city.

In summary, the Celestial Capital was a small-scale trading hub for all races.

Not only did the Human Race have such a place, but most other races had similar hubs.

On this particular day...

A masked Supreme arrived at the Celestial Capital, causing an immediate stir.

Upon entering, he went straight to the highest tier trading area and presented a top-tier Supreme Treasure, one of the highest grade within top-tier treasures, just below the strongest Supreme Treasures.

When this Supreme announced that he was willing to exchange this highest grade top-tier Supreme Treasure for any innate treasure of the top-tier level, even if its power was weaker, it shocked the entire Celestial Capital.

Soon, the high-ranking members of the Human Race became aware of this.

However, this Supreme hid his identity, emanating only a trace of supreme aura, making it impossible to determine his true identity.

Given the high status of a Supreme, naturally, no one dared to target him.

If it had been just one top-tier Supreme Treasure, it wouldn't have caused such a stir among the Human Race. But this Supreme presented several top-tier Supreme Treasures, all with the same exchange requirement, making it a seemingly losing deal.

Thus, the high-ranking members of the Human Race had to take notice.

In the Holy City, five or six Supremes temporarily sent their avatars to discuss the matter. Kunwu Supreme was absent, but Curse Supreme was present.

“Everyone, you should all be aware of what’s happening in the Celestial Capital. We don’t know which race that Supreme belongs to, but he is using the highest grade top-tier Supreme Treasures to exchange for top-tier innate treasures, regardless of their quality. This is definitely a losing deal! Even within top-tier Supreme Treasures, there are varying levels of quality!”

“Could it be a trap?”

“It’s not a trap. The Celestial Capital is our Human Race’s territory. If an alien Supreme dared to cause trouble, they wouldn’t escape!”

“If it’s not a trap, why would someone conduct such a strange trade?”

“No matter what, we should go and take a look. Divine Blade Supreme, you go and check it out. After all, your Divine Blade Alliance is good at commerce. If there’s no issue, you can make the trade!”

Divine Blade Supreme pondered for a moment and said, “Alright, I will go and take a look. If there’s a problem, be ready to act!”

“No problem!” the other Supremes responded.

With a swish, Divine Blade Supreme’s avatar dissipated.

Shortly after, his avatar arrived at the Celestial Capital.

Without knowing the situation, Divine Blade Supreme naturally wouldn’t send his true body; an avatar was sufficient to handle the matter.

As soon as he entered the Celestial Capital, Divine Blade Supreme sensed the presence of that Supreme.

“This is....” Divine Blade Supreme was shocked.

Although the other’s aura was hidden, the trace he could sense was far beyond his imagination, definitely not an ordinary Supreme, possibly even stronger than Primordial Supreme!

“Could it be a member of the Immortal or Demon Races? No, the aura doesn’t belong to their Supremes....” In an instant, Divine Blade Supreme understood.

This was a Supreme from one of the Twelve Cosmic Eras! “May I know which Supreme from the Twelve Cosmic Eras you are?” Divine Blade Supreme asked from afar.

“The Second Cosmic Era, Tian’en Supreme!” Tian’en Supreme appeared before Divine Blade Supreme and said.

“So it’s Tian’en Supreme. May I know why you have come to the Human Race’s Celestial Capital?” Divine Blade Supreme asked cautiously.

Tian’en Supreme took out his top-tier Supreme Treasure and said, “To trade!”

Chapter 717: The Acquisition of Innate Supreme Treasures!

“What on earth are you doing with these transactions?” Divine Blade Supreme frowned.

“We’re not up to anything, just doing business as usual. I’m offering top-tier supreme treasures in exchange for lower-tier Innate Supreme Treasures. From a trade perspective, dealing with me is a huge profit! Divine Blade Supreme, as many Innate Supreme Treasures as you can provide, I can exchange for higher-level supreme treasures. Even if you’re willing to offer the strongest among the Innate Supreme Treasures, I’m still open to trading.

If you’re not satisfied, we can also provide some additional resources or even some inheritance, how about that?” Tian’en Supreme proposed.

“What!” Divine Blade Supreme was utterly shocked. Such a trade was practically a loss, almost like giving away resources!

“This is definitely suspicious,” Divine Blade Supreme thought.

After a moment of silence, Divine Blade Supreme said, “Tian’en Supreme, I need to go back and discuss this with the other Supremes. Can you wait a few days?”

“I can, but my time is limited. I’ll only wait for three days. After three days, if no one comes to trade, I will leave the Celestial Capital. There are many races in the universe, and I have many options!” Tian’en Supreme responded.

“Understood!” Divine Blade Supreme agreed.

With a swish, Divine Blade Supreme’s incarnation dissipated into the heavens and earth.

Watching the disappearing incarnation of Divine Blade Supreme, Tian’en Supreme murmured, “Human race, even if you have doubts, how can you resist such immense profit? Hehehe!!!” A sinister laugh echoed in the heavens and earth, but the people in the Celestial Capital remained unaware.

On the other side.

Divine Blade Supreme contacted the other Supremes and convened a meeting with most of them. Only a few who were in seclusion and unreachable were absent; the rest were present.

At the meeting.

Primordial Supreme asked, “Divine Blade Supreme, what is the matter that you’ve summoned us for?”

Divine Blade Supreme recounted the appearance of Tian’en Supreme in the Celestial Capital and the offer of trading supreme treasures.

“Tian’en Supreme from the Twelve Cosmic Eras conducting such a trade is too strange,” Kunwu Supreme frowned.

Primordial Supreme said gravely, “I heard about this not long ago. You should know I have many incarnations, one of which is hidden among the alien races. Recently, I heard of such transactions. However, I did not interact with the Supremes of the Twelve Cosmic Eras, so I am unsure if the trade was completed. But this kind of trade is happening not only among us humans but also among other races in the universe.”

“Strange, if the Supremes of the Twelve Cosmic Eras engage in such trades, won’t their losses be immense?” Divine Blade Supreme wondered.

“There must be a purpose. According to what Divine Blade Supreme said, Tian’en Supreme only wants Innate Supreme Treasures and is willing to pay a higher price for them. So, the Supremes of the Twelve Cosmic Eras must be collecting a large number of Innate Supreme Treasures. However, we don’t know the purpose behind their collection.”

“Why don’t we refuse to trade them our Innate Supreme Treasures and directly expel Tian’en Supreme?” a common Supreme suggested.

“Impossible!” Primordial Supreme shook his head, “It won’t be effective. If they are only trading with our human race, expelling them won’t prevent their goal. They have many races to trade with.”

But now, they traded with all the races of the universe, making it impossible for every race to resist the temptation and refuse the deal.

According to my guess, most races were willing to trade, nearly all of them.

In this way, our Human Race's refusal to trade wouldn't have any effect.

Moreover, judging by the current situation, the trade benefited us, allowing us to acquire some resources we needed from the Supremes of the Twelve Cosmic Eras."

"Yes. However, after the trade succeeded, we also needed to report the situation to the other major races of the universe. If the universe's myriad races united, there might be hope to discern the intentions and purposes of the Supremes of the Twelve Cosmic Eras!" Kunwu Supreme proposed.

"Alright, let's do it this way then." Primordial Supreme agreed.

Following this, the Supremes withdrew their avatars and began taking out the Innate Supreme Treasures stored within their forces.

However, they didn't take out all their Innate Supreme Treasures, usually only one or two per force.

On the third day.

The Supremes all arrived at the capital of the Heavenly Domain.

The capital of the Heavenly Domain.

Supreme Tian'en sensed the presence of the many Human Race Supremes and smiled slightly, "They all came!"

He knew that the Human Race had agreed to the trade.

As expected.

After the Human Race Supremes arrived, they immediately began trading with Supreme Tian'en.

After some bargaining, the Human Race traded eleven Innate Supreme Treasures with Supreme Tian'en, obtaining thirteen supreme treasures in return. The grades of these treasures were very high. Among them, one Innate Supreme Treasure was a strongest supreme treasure, but its grade was somewhat low. However, they managed to exchange it for a very powerful top-tier strongest supreme treasure, making a significant profit.

Additionally, Supreme Tian'en also gave the Human Race seven or eight top-tier inheritances and numerous resources.

"To all the Human Race Supremes, happy trading. If you wish to trade again, you can use this communication jade pendant to contact me!"

Supreme Tian'en handed the Human Race a communication jade pendant before leaving the capital of the Heavenly Domain.

After Supreme Tian'en left, the many Human Race Supremes looked at the various treasures and resources in their hands, showing contemplative expressions.

"The items are genuine. The Twelve Cosmic Eras paid such a huge price; it would be impossible if they didn't have a purpose.

Innate Supreme Treasures, why are they collecting so many Innate Supreme Treasures? Could it be that Innate Supreme Treasures have other uses that we don't know about?" Primordial Supreme muttered.

"Contact the Immortal Race and the Demon Race. The alliance of the myriad races to oppose the forces of the Twelve Cosmic Eras, the Immortal Race and the Demon Race are still the main leaders. Our Human Race is currently still relatively weak and cannot do much." Kunwu Supreme said.

"Yes, contact the Immortal Race and the Demon Race!" The other Supremes also nodded in agreement.

Three months passed in a flash.

The entire universe started to become restless, all because of the Innate Supreme Treasure trading incident involving the Twelve Cosmic Eras.

Several Supremes from the Immortal Race and the Demon Race also gathered, starting a discussion.

The participants included the first Divine Lord, the second Divine Lord, and the sixth Divine Lord of the Immortal Race, and the first Demon Lord, the third Demon Lord, and the fifth Demon Lord of the Demon Race.

A total of six Supremes held this small meeting.

The only topic of the meeting was the acquisition of Innate Supreme Treasures by the forces of the Twelve Cosmic Eras.

Chapter 718: Gathering at the Primordial Hall!

During the meeting.

The First Divine Lord of the Immortal Race spoke with a solemn expression, “Everyone from the Demon Race, you should be aware of the recent frenzy among the Supremes from the Twelve Cosmic Eras, collecting Innate Supreme Treasures. This behavior is abnormal. These Supremes are offering values several times higher than those of the Innate Supreme Treasures they seek, and they are only purchasing Innate Supreme Treasures.

The amount they are acquiring involves losses so great that even our Immortal Race couldn’t bear such expenses, yet they seem unconcerned.

Not long ago, our Immortal Race conducted a transaction with them, but it was minimal, just to probe their intentions.

Your Demon Race must have also traded with these Supremes from the Twelve Cosmic Eras, correct?”

“Indeed, we did. However, our Demon Race is not lacking in resources, so we only traded a few Innate Supreme Treasures, not daring to exchange too much for fear they have ulterior motives.

But it seems useless as too many cosmic great clans have traded with them!” the First Demon Lord replied.

“First Demon Lord, what do you think the Supremes from the Twelve Cosmic Eras are aiming for by acquiring so many Innate Supreme Treasures?” the First Divine Lord asked.

“I have no idea!” the First Demon Lord shook his head. “But they wouldn’t engage in a losing trade. These Innate Supreme Treasures must be extremely important to them, to the extent that they would go to any lengths.

To us, Innate and Acquired Supreme Treasures are merely auxiliary combat weapons. But perhaps, to those Supremes, they have other uses!”

“First Demon Lord, are we just going to sit and wait? If they have a plan that could harm us, once they complete it, it will be too late for us!” the First Divine Lord said gravely.

“We are powerless. Unless we capture a Supreme for interrogation.

But those Supremes are too powerful. Only if we join forces can we possibly capture one of their weaker Supremes.

However, this would be tantamount to declaring war. If their reinforcements arrive swiftly, we might all perish,” the First Demon Lord said helplessly.

“Then we have no choice but to wait!” the First Divine Lord concluded.

“However, we need to closely monitor the movements of those Supremes from the Twelve Cosmic Eras. Any sign of trouble, we must act immediately.

Additionally, we need to maintain close contact with the Supremes of other races, ready to mobilize at any moment. I have a feeling that the Twelve Cosmic Eras are not engaged in a simple plan!” the First Demon Lord said in a deep voice.

“Naturally!” the First Divine Lord agreed.

In the blink of an eye, a thousand years passed.

The Supremes from the Twelve Cosmic Eras, along with the Children of the Eras and the Supreme Princes, had collected a vast number of Innate Supreme Treasures. It could be said that three-tenths of the universe’s Innate Supreme Treasures were now in their hands.

Of course, they paid a hefty price, consuming much of their previous accumulations.

On the other side.

Ye Tian had been in seclusion for a thousand years, exhausting the many resources he had acquired in the small chaotic world, finally raising his cultivation to the peak realm of the Universal God.

Moreover, he had perfected the thirteenth set of movements in the Eighteen Golden Body Technique and began practicing the fourteenth set.

It was worth mentioning that Ye Tian had finally mastered the second move of the Heavenly Saber Technique.

The Tiangang Battle Technique had been one of the countless secret techniques created by the transcendent Heavenly Monarch Yun Tan. Just mastering the first move was astonishing, capable of amplifying one’s combat power sixfold. The second move was even more challenging to cultivate.

Up until today, he had only just mastered the second move.

The second move of the Tiangang Battle Technique had even greater power.

It could amplify his combat power eightfold. While this seemed only slightly better than the first move, at his current level, even a small increase in combat power was significant, not to mention a comprehensive amplification! Of course, Ye Tian had many areas needing improvement. After all, he had only recently broken through to the Universal God level, and his accumulation was still far from sufficient. He was still a long way from impacting the Dominator level.

However, Ye Tian did not continue his seclusion. Instead, he chose to emerge.

He needed to understand the current development of the Tian Pavilion and the external situation.

Ye Tian first sought out Ye Yu to understand the present development of the Tian Pavilion.

As he had anticipated, the Tian Pavilion had been steadily growing. They had established the Tian Pavilion Chamber of Commerce, which had spread across various regions of the Holy Domain, expanding their business and attracting more elites to the Tian Pavilion.

As for the external situation, there had been no significant changes.

Ye Tian wanted to learn about the activities of the forces from the Twelve Cosmic Eras, but the Tian Pavilion's level was too low to access such high-level information.

Not wanting to trouble Kunwu Supreme, Ye Tian asked Fairy Mingyue from the Tian Pavilion to inquire with her ancestor, Heavenly Venerable Liehuo, for news.

Soon, information about the Twelve Cosmic Eras was conveyed.

"The forces from the Twelve Cosmic Eras are collecting Innate Supreme Treasures?" Ye Tian was somewhat surprised.

If it were a normal collection of Innate Supreme Treasures, it would not be a big deal. The critical point was that the Supremes from the Twelve Cosmic Eras were purchasing these treasures at several times their value, which warranted deep consideration.

There was undoubtedly something abnormal behind this! Moreover, Ye Tian felt that significant changes were about to occur in the universe, possibly related to these Innate Supreme Treasures.

"All we can do is wait and hope for the best," Ye Tian thought to himself.

Primordial Hall.

Since the forces from the Twelve Cosmic Eras had occupied one hundred star fields, the Master of the Primordial Era had moved the Primordial Hall to one of these star fields, making it the base for the First Cosmic Era. The Master of the Primordial Era had been residing here ever since.

On this day, the Supremes from the other cosmic eras gathered at the Primordial Hall. Led by the Master of the Primordial Era, they obeyed his commands and had set up numerous formations around the hall.

Although the Master of the Primordial Era was not the most powerful among these Supremes, he was one of the strongest. There were several Supremes whose strength was on par with his, but his status was more exalted because he was the one responsible for the entire plan.

Thus, the other Supremes followed the commands of the Master of the Primordial Era, using the Primordial Hall as their core location to initiate their plan.

At this moment, the Primordial Hall housed a vast number of Innate Supreme Treasures, all collected over the years, amounting to a staggering quantity. If any one race obtained these treasures, their power would surely skyrocket.

Now, these Innate Supreme Treasures were piled on a massive altar as if they were mere trash.

“Are all the Supremes here?” the Master of the Primordial Era asked.

“Everyone is here!” Golden Light Supreme replied. “Moreover, the Children of the Eras and the Supreme Princes have also mostly arrived. We are just waiting for your command, Master of the Primordial Era!”

“The formations are also in place. Even if the Supremes of the myriad races come to disrupt us now, we can delay them. Besides, they would only dare to spy and not make a move, so there is no risk!” another Supreme added.

“Excellent. Then let us begin!” the Master of the Primordial Era declared.

Chapter 719: The Arrival of 3000 Supremes!

After the Master of the Primordial Era and other Supremes made their preparations, they distributed the Innate Supreme Treasures above the altar and then activated it.

The sole function of this altar was to extract the cosmic origin power contained within the Innate Supreme Treasures. These treasures, born from the universe, all contained cosmic origin power. However, the power in a single Innate Supreme Treasure was so weak that it was almost imperceptible. A special method was required to extract the cosmic origin from these treasures.

During the cosmic cataclysms of the twelve cosmic eras, the cosmic origin within the Innate Supreme Treasures had been reclaimed by the cosmos. Thus, although these treasures still appeared to be Innate Supreme Treasures, they had lost their cosmic origin and were no different from acquired supreme treasures.

Therefore, the Master of the Primordial Era and his associates could only collect Innate Supreme Treasures from the current cosmic era.

They needed the cosmic origin contained within these treasures, not the treasures themselves.

This was merely one part of their plan. As time passed, the cosmic origin of each Innate Supreme Treasure was extracted by the altar, causing the treasures to fall and significantly lose their power.

Of course, this reduction in power was only temporary. With some effort, the Innate Supreme Treasures could be restored to their full power.

Just like the Human Race's Six Paths Reincarnation Pagoda, even if the origin of a supreme treasure fell dormant, it could still be awakened to its full strength.

One by one, the now powerless Innate Supreme Treasures were moved away by the Master of the Primordial Era and the other Supremes. The number of treasures on the altar dwindled.

In a region outside the Primordial Hall, several Supremes slowly appeared. They belonged to the Immortal Race, the Demon Race, and other significant cosmic races.

At this moment, all the Supremes were extremely solemn.

“Just recently, all the Supremes of the twelve cosmic eras, as well as those Children of the Era and Supreme-ranked princes, gathered in the Primordial Hall. This area has been heavily fortified with a terrifying divine formation. Clearly, they are planning something and don’t want us to interfere.

I suspect they have a grand scheme in mind, one we must be wary of!” The speaker was the First Divine Lord.

“Indeed, the behavior of the twelve cosmic eras suggests it’s more than just a meeting. Otherwise, they wouldn’t all gather in the Primordial Hall and fortify it with such a large formation. I fear they might be planning something that could threaten all races!” The First Demon Lord frowned.

“Should we attack?” one Supreme asked.

“No!” The First Divine Lord shook his head. “We don’t have enough Supremes here to confront them head-on. I have already notified the Supremes of all races, urging them to come as quickly as possible. Once we have enough Supremes, we can consider our next move. For now, let’s try to negotiate with them.”

“Hmm, that seems to be our only option,” the other Supremes agreed.

The First Divine Lord then used his soul power to project his voice into the area of the Primordial Hall.

“Master of the Primordial Era, what are you doing? If you do not explain, we will assume you are engaging in activities that threaten the safety of all races.”

The First Divine Lord’s voice echoed within the Primordial Hall, heard by the Supremes guarding it.

Inside the Primordial Hall.

A Supreme approached the Master of the Primordial Era and the others. “Master of the Primordial Era, all Supremes, the Supremes of other races have arrived and are watching us. They demand an explanation!”

“They’ve come? That’s to be expected. They’ve been watching us, knowing we’ve gathered. Naturally, they’re worried.”

The Master of the Primordial Era sneered. “Ignore them for now. They won’t dare attack just yet. Even if they do, the formations will hold them off for a while. There’s no need to concern ourselves with them.”

“Understood!”

The other Supremes responded.

Outside the Primordial Hall.

The First Divine Lord and the First Demon Lord wore grim expressions. They had sent numerous messages, yet no Supreme had come out to explain.

It was clear that the Supremes of the twelve cosmic eras were not going to respond.

“It seems they are indeed executing some plan, perhaps one that is detrimental to us. They either don’t want to explain, can’t explain, or simply can’t leave the Primordial Hall. We can’t wait too long. If they complete their plan, it could spell disaster for us!” the First Demon Lord said.

“Wait!” the First Divine Lord gritted his teeth. “It’s too dangerous to act now. We will strike once we gather three thousand Supremes!”

At that moment, the Immortal Race had over a hundred Supremes present, but not all had arrived. If something went wrong, it could lead to their decline. Similarly, the Demon Race also had over a hundred Supremes present.

In terms of numbers alone, the Immortal and Demon Races far outnumbered the other major cosmic races. Other major races had sent some Supremes, but even so, they had only gathered 500 Supremes, far short of the required 3000.

As time passed, the number of Supremes increased. However, the vastness of the universe made it difficult to notify other major races, convene meetings to decide who would go, and then travel to the meeting point. Gathering 3000 Supremes was no easy task.

Some ordinary cosmic races had few Supremes and were unwilling to take risks, making it uncertain if they would send any Supremes at all.

Three days passed in the blink of an eye.

“We have 1000 Supremes now!” the First Divine Lord murmured.

“Should we keep waiting? I have a bad feeling that continuing to wait will only lead to trouble,” the First Demon Lord remarked.

The First Divine Lord’s expression changed several times before he finally said, “No more waiting. Attack the formations in this area!”

“Understood!” the other Supremes responded.

At this point, even those who were reluctant had no choice but to act. The situation was too critical to hesitate.

Boom! Boom! Boom! The Supremes unleashed their full power, striking at the formations surrounding the Primordial Hall.

However, these formations were incredibly powerful, using several supreme treasures as their foundation. They far surpassed the typical formations of this cosmic era.

The combined full-strength attack of nearly 300 Supremes only managed to damage some of the outer formations. The core formations merely trembled but remained intact.

“How is this possible? What kind of divine formation is this? Nearly 300 Supremes’ combined attack could destroy a world like the Relic World, yet the core formations here are unscathed!” the First Divine Lord exclaimed in disbelief.

He immediately gave the order, “Continue attacking! Use your supreme treasures! Spare no effort to break these formations!”

The other Supremes complied. As Supremes, they could sense that something monumental was about to happen.

Boom! Boom! Boom! The Supremes relentlessly attacked, while inside the Primordial Hall, the situation reached a critical juncture.

Chapter 720: Restoration of the Chaos Supreme Treasure!

“Have they begun the attack?”

The Master of the Primordial Era sensed that the formation outside was being attacked by 300 Supreme beings from various races. He merely smiled faintly, showing no signs of panic.

“It’s useless. Our plan is almost complete. Supremes of all races, you cannot stop us!”

The Master of the Primordial Era spoke with a hint of excitement.

Inside the Primordial Hall, the other Supremes were equally excited. However, the Children of the Era and Supreme-level princes appeared quite confused.

Although these Children of the Era and Supreme-level princes had generally reached the Universal God realm, they were not privy to the Supreme circle and thus had no idea what the Supremes were doing.

But since the Supremes had summoned them here, they could only comply and wait silently.

Whoosh! The final piece of the Innate Supreme Treasure on the altar was extracted of its cosmic essence and then moved away by the Supremes.

At this moment, the Master of the Primordial Era and the other Supremes sensed the cosmic essence on the altar.

“It’s enough!” The Master of the Primordial Era declared.

“Let’s begin!” Golden Light Supreme added.

Many Supremes started activating the altar, and the stored cosmic essence gradually merged into a cosmic essence orb, which floated above the altar.

“Everyone, take out the Chaos Supreme Treasure fragments!” The Master of the Primordial Era commanded.

He was the first to take out a fragment, which resembled a broken jade pendant, exuding a rich aura of chaotic laws and essence. It was indeed one of the fragments of the Chaos Supreme Treasure.

The Chaos Supreme Treasure was of a level surpassing the Innate Supreme Treasure, vastly more powerful than the Strongest Supreme Treasure. It was a powerful artifact born from chaos itself! In essence, Chaos Supreme Treasures were nurtured within the chaos.

Logically, there shouldn't have been any Chaos Supreme Treasures within the universe. The universe had been expanding since its birth, only to shrink significantly after a great cosmic cataclysm and then expand again in a continuous cycle.

Therefore, if there was a Chaos Supreme Treasure near the universe, it would be swallowed by the universe, allowing it to enter the universe's interior.

However, such a possibility was extremely low. The likelihood of a Chaos Supreme Treasure being born near the universe was minimal.

The chaos was vast, and the number of Chaos Supreme Treasures born in such an immense chaotic region would naturally be limited, as could be inferred from the number of Innate Supreme Treasures in the universe.

Thus, unless a powerful being within the chaos deliberately placed a Chaos Supreme Treasure at the edge of the universe, it would not be swallowed into the universe.

The Chaos Supreme Treasure fragments held by the Master of the Primordial Era and others were such cases, deliberately placed by a powerful entity within the chaos. Each cosmic era's faction possessed one fragment.

There were a total of 12 fragments, and combining these 12 fragments could form a complete Chaos Supreme Treasure.

The exact power of a complete Chaos Supreme Treasure was unknown to them.

Normally, a fragmented Chaos Supreme Treasure would lose a considerable amount of its power, but there was a possibility of restoring a Chaos Supreme Treasure using the cosmic essence.

This time, one part of their plan was to use the cosmic essence to restore this Chaos Supreme Treasure, thereby reviving its power.

Whoosh, whoosh, whoosh!!! Representatives from the eleven other cosmic eras stepped forward, each taking out a Chaos Supreme Treasure fragment and placing it on the altar.

Then, they activated the altar.

This altar not only had the effect of extracting cosmic essence but also the ability to mobilize it to restore the Chaos Supreme Treasure. It was one of the inheritances granted to them by the powerful being from the chaos.

Boom! The cosmic essence began to merge into the twelve broken pieces of the Chaos Supreme Treasure. Gradually, the twelve fragments started to coalesce and heal.

“It can really heal and restore!” The Master of the Primordial Era felt both excitement and relief.

Before this moment, although that being had arranged everything and explained the details of the plan, they had harbored some doubts about its success.

Now, those doubts were finally dispelled.

Success was within reach! As the cosmic essence was rapidly consumed, the restoration speed of the Chaos Supreme Treasure increased.

Ten hours later, a complete jade token appeared on the altar, with only a few faint cracks remaining. The remaining cosmic essence was more than enough to finish the restoration.

Time passed slowly, with the Master of the Primordial Era and the other Supremes fixated on the jade token, not daring to look away.

Then, suddenly, the cracks on the jade token vanished entirely, and a powerful wave of energy spread out. In the face of this wave, the Master of the Primordial Era and the others felt as insignificant as ants.

“The Chaos Supreme Treasure is restored!” All the Supremes exclaimed in excitement.

“Proceed with the second phase of the plan!” The Master of the Primordial Era ordered.

The other Supremes quickly came to their senses and nodded repeatedly.

Restoring the Chaos Supreme Treasure was merely the first phase of the plan; the second phase was the real critical step.

The so-called second phase was to use this jade token to suppress the cosmic essence. In its prime, even this jade token could not have contended with the cosmic essence. However, the Thirteenth Cosmic Era marked the beginning of a new cycle, making the cosmic essence of this era the weakest and thus susceptible to the jade token’s power.

According to that being, this jade token was called the “Essence-Sealing Heavenly Pendant.” It was an extremely rare Chaos Supreme Treasure with the effect of suppressing and sealing the cosmic essence.

Unfortunately, this jade token had been shattered during a cataclysmic battle in the ancient chaos. That being had spent a long time collecting the twelve fragments, but it could not be restored within the chaos and had to be sent into the universe for restoration.

The factions of the twelve cosmic eras had a cooperative relationship with that being. The being helped them transcend, and they, in turn, helped restore the Essence-Sealing Heavenly Pendant and another plan.

Once everything was successful, they would take the pendant into the chaos and deliver it to that being.

“Let’s begin. Only by suppressing the cosmic essence can we make it even weaker. This will allow us to exert our full strength, break the limits imposed by the cosmic essence, and have a chance at transcendence!” The Master of the Primordial Era said.

“Alright, let’s start!” The other Supremes responded.

Immediately, these Supremes began to fully activate the Essence-Sealing Heavenly Pendant.

Though it was a Chaos Supreme Treasure, difficult to control with their cultivation levels, they had been nurturing the fragments constantly and had established a connection with the pendant. Combined with the control techniques given by that being and the collective effort of the Supremes, they managed to activate the Essence-Sealing Heavenly Pendant.

Rumble!!!! With the combined effort of the Supremes, the Essence-Sealing Heavenly Pendant was activated. Its aura of a Chaos Supreme Treasure spread out, suppressing countless star fields.

In an instant, the universe trembled!
