Chapter 501: Receiving Invitations Successively

The surroundings of the Warsoul Tablet was in a complete uproar as the gazes of everyone converged onto the group of people before them while carrying complicated expressions.

All of them knew clearly that it wasn't just Chen Xi and his companions, even the name of the Darchu Dynasty was spread throughout the entire Primeval City and shake the hearts of every single person in it.

Even if it was in the boundless years of the past, basically the entire top 30 of the Warsoul Tablet was occupied by the formidable experts of the top Dynasties and Prestigious Clans, and it was like an iron law that no one could shake.

But today, everyone from Chen Xi's group had charged into the top 20, and Chen Xi had even ascended the first ranking to reign supreme above all. It was equivalent to completely breaking the unshakable iron law that no one from the ordinary Dynasties was capable of entering the top 30, and it shook the hearts of all.

"Everyone, I'm leaving for a while. Why don't all of you stay with Brother Ling first, and I'll come back to look for all of you in a while?" Chen Xi paid no attention to the unusual gazes shot at him from the surroundings, and he directly spoke out to Huangfu Qingying and the others.

Huangfu Qingying was stunned and asked. "What're you leaving to do?"

"It's a long story, I'll tell all of you once I get back." Chen Xi pondered briefly before he spoke out. Actually, he intended to go take a look at Yu Xuanchen as the brief moment he saw Yu Xuanchen caused him to have a slight feeling that something was wrong in his heart.

After he finished speaking, Chen Xi turned and left decisively and without the slightest hesitation.

"This fellow is always so mysterious." Young Master Zhou couldn't help but mutter as he watched Chen Xi's figure vanish.

"Friends from the Darchu Dynasty, I'm Xue Ranchen. If you don't mind, we don't we get to know each other?" While Chen Xi left, Xue Ranchen who'd always been paying attention to the happenings here was finally unable to refrain from walking over, and he cupped his hands towards Huangfu Qingying as he spoke.

Huangfu Qingying looked at this young man that had originally obtained the 5th ranking yet was pushed down by Chen Xi and Su Qingyan to the 7th ranking, and she knew that he was from the Huaiyin Kingdom's Xue Clan and possessed a significant status.

But she didn't feel ill at ease and smiled in a natural and graceful manner. "I'm Huangfu Qingying, this is Zhao Qinghe, Young Master Zhou, Ling Yu, and this is Senior Brother Ling Ze from the Dartang Dynasty."

"I know very well. The five positions in the top 30 of the Warsoul Tablet have been occupied by all of you, and all of you are even from the same Dynasty. Such a thing is truly enviable. I believe that all of you will surely be able to make a great display of talent in the final test of in the Primeval Battlefield that's happening soon." Xue Ranchen spoke sincerely, and his gaze inadvertently glanced at Ling Ze as he spoke before being withdrawn by him.

This leading figure from the Xue Clan always had an icy cold and arrogant bearing, yet for the sake of engaging with Huangfu Qingying and the others, his attitude was actually extraordinarily friendly, causing Huangfu Qingying and the others to be surprised in their hearts.

Of course, all of them understood as well that the change in Xue Ranchen's attitude was surely related to the measurement of their strengths from before.

"Daoist Brother Xue is too kind, all of this was only luck." Chen Xi wasn't present so Huangfu Qingying took the role of 'leader,' and she smiled as she spoke in an elegant, dignified, and flawless manner that fully revealed the social ability that a princess of an imperial family ought to possess.

Xue Ranchen shook his head and smiled. He originally thought that since Chen Xi had left, he would be entirely capable of relying on his identity to make these disciples of an ordinary Dynasty reveal slight reverence towards him. After that, he could make use of the opportunity to invite them to join his forces, and he wouldn't have to worry that they wouldn't agree. Moreover, they might even be grateful to him.

But based on the current circumstances, his wishful thinking had obviously been misplaced. This graceful and beautiful young woman wasn't an ordinary figure that was so easily fooled.

"Everyone, I presume you've just arrived at Primeval City and don't have a place to stay yet, right? I have some empty residences over at my place. If all of you don't mind, you can stay at my place for a while. I'll surely welcome all of you with open arms and host a feast for your arrival." Xue Ranchen stopped trying to cover it up and directly put forward his invitation.

Huangfu Qingying and the others were stunned, and they seemed to have never imagined that Xue Ranchen would actually invite them so warmly.

"Brother Xue's place is neighboring to the Shang Clan, so it's probably not good, right?" Before Huangfu Qingying and the others could reply, the beautiful and lively Su Qingyan on the other side had already walked over while smiling lightly. At this moment, she walked over barefooted in her white clothes with a grin on her face, coupled with her black hair that was like a waterfall, her attitude seemed extraordinarily warm like a celestial maiden, and it caused others to be unable to feel aversion towards her.

"In my opinion, why don't Big Sister Huangfu and all of you stay temporarily at my Darkhan Dynasty's territory? According to my knowledge, the Shang Clan has captured two of your companions from the Darchu Dynasty, and it's still planning to form an alliance with the Feng Clan and Xue Clan. It will probably be slightly unsafe if all of you stay at Daoist Brother Xue's territory." Su Qingyan smiled sweetly, and she casually revealed too many obscure secrets, causing the expressions of Huangfu Qingying and the others to instantly go grim.

They naturally knew who the two companions Su Qingyan spoke of were, but they never expected that it was just as Chen Xi had guessed, Zhen Liuqing and Qing Xiuyi had really been captured by the Shang Clan!

At this moment, Huangfu Qingying was terribly upset, and she wished for nothing more than to chase after Chen Xi who'd just left and tell this to him so that she could hear his opinion.

"Hmph! Who said that my Xue Clan is forming an alliance with the Shang Clan? That's the Shang Clan's own wishful thinking! My Xue Clan didn't agree to it!" Xue Ranchen's expression instantly darkened extremely when he saw Su Qingyan had come out to disturb the situation.

"Oh?" Su Qingyan's eyes lit up when she heard Xue Ranchen's reply, and she ran her hands through the black hair above her ears as she smiled. "That's good. Truthfully speaking, if the three great Prestigious Clans were to join together, then there probably would be no power in the entire Primeval City capable of going against all of you."

"Miss Su, don't presume that I don't know your Darkhan Dynasty is communicating with the Darjou and Dartang Dynasties with the intention of forming an alliance to go against us!" Xue Ranchen didn't hold back in the slightest and answered with ridicule.

Huangfu Qingying and the others instantly came to an understanding. The reason they had suddenly become such welcomed figures to the point that even existences like Xue Ranchen and Su Qingyan took the initiative to speak to them was none other than the rankings they'd obtained on the Warsoul Tablet.

This ranking was presumably something that even the three top Dynasties and three Prestigious Clans wouldn't dare overlook. After all, if they were able to rope Huangfu Qingying and the others in, they would undoubtedly be able to greatly increase their strengths, and Xue Ranchen and Su Qingyan probably held the thought of roping them in.

"Sorry, when Chen Xi just left, he'd already said clearly that Young Princess Huangfu and the others would listen to my arrangement. So there's naturally no need for the both of you to worry about their residences." Right at this moment, the nearby Ling Ze suddenly walked forward and smiled as he spoke directly.

Xue Ranchen and Su Qingyan that were in a verbal battle were stunned when they heard this, and they stopped their dispute with great tacit understanding before shooting their gazes towards Ling Ze. After that, both of them frowned. "The Dartang Dynasty's Ling Ze?"

"Precisely." Ling Ze smiled.

Meanwhile, the other cultivators in the surroundings of the Warsoul Tablet noticed this scene as well, and for a time, all of them sighed with emotion and envy in their hearts.

They're only disciples from an ordinary Dynasty, yet drew the warm invitation of two top Dynasties and a Prestigious Clan from an Ancient Kingdom. Such an honor is something that few are able to enjoy.

When they saw the Dartang Dynasty had actually made a move earlier than them, Su Qingyan and Xue Ranchen both frowned, yet were unwilling to give up. Both of them looked once more at Huangfu Qingying and the others, and they seemed to want to hear what they said.

Huangfu Qingying said apologetically, "Chen Xi really did leave these instructions. I'll remember the great hospitality of both of you, and I'll come visit both of you another day."

“Since it’s like this, then I’ll be taking my leave first. Big Sister Huangfu, remember to come play with me when you’re free.” Su Qingyan blinked her eyes and stopped at just the right moment. She didn’t put on a display that was too warm, and she turned and left elegantly as soon as she finished speaking.

Huangfu Qingying couldn’t help but laugh in her heart as she looked at Su Qingyan’s leaving figure that was graceful and moving. Not only is this woman beautiful, she’s extremely intelligent.

Subsequently, Xue Ranchen chatted for a while before turning around and leaving, and he seemed to have given up the thought of inviting Huangfu Qingying and the others to join his side.

“I never expected that luck has turned in our favor, and we’ve become such welcomed figures.” Young Master Zhou chuckled.

Huangfu Qingying disregarded him instead, and then she turned to look at Ling Ze before she said with profound meaning in her words, “Brother Ling, do you really want to invite us to the territory of the Dartang Dynasty?”

According to her knowledge, the eight areas of Primeval City had already been divided up by the various powers. For example, the Shang Clan controlled the northwest area of Primeval City. If cultivators from an ordinary Dynasty wanted to have a foothold in the city, then they had to depend on these powers.

She hadn’t thought of this problem before this because Chen Xi was here, and she only had to listen to his arrangement. However, Chen Xi has just left a moment ago, and she didn’t know when he would return, so she could only temporarily make decisions for everyone.

“Of course.” Ling Ze replied without the slightest hesitation. “Those companions of mine from the Dartang Dynasty will surely be extremely welcoming towards all of you, so there’s no need for all of you to worry about anything else. Just leave everything to me.”

When he spoke up to here, Ling Ze spoke with a slightly teasing tone. “Even if I wanted to trick all of you, I have to ask if my younger brother agrees.”

“That’s true.” The nearby Ling Yu rubbed his head as he grinned.

“Alright. Since it’s like this, then we’ll trouble Daoist Brother Ling Ze.” Huangfu Qingying spoke seriously. She knew that since Ling Ze dared answer so firmly, he’d surely made sufficient preparations. Even if they really entered into a battle with the Shang Clan for the sake of saving Qing Xiuyi and Zhen Liuqing in the future, the forces of the Dartang Dynasty would surely not stand idly by.

Of course, they would have no choice but to pay a price as well, and the price would be that they had to become allies with the Dartang Dynasty for any future actions.

“Haha, it’s no trouble at all! If Young Princess Huangfu still acts so courteously, then you’ll really be treating me like an outsider.” Ling Ze roared with laughter. Being able to invite Huangfu Qingying and the others to join his side caused him to feel extremely happy as well.

He could even imagine that after his companions from the Dartang Dynasty found out about it, they would surely be extremely satisfied. After all, the rankings of this group of people on the Warsoul Tablet were all in the top 20, and one of them was even the first!

Chapter 502: Layer Upon Layer of Traps

Swoosh!

Chen Xi flashed swiftly along the direction Yu Xuanchen left towards while his Divine Sense stretched out like a net to carefully search every single place he passed by.

Yu Xuanchen's actions of briefly flashing by the Martial Emperor's Warsoul Tablet earlier was extremely odd, and he was worried this fellow had suffered the deception of Huangfu Changtian as well and would meet the same end as Lu Xiao.

Because he'd already confirmed that Huangfu Changtian was within Primeval City, and according to what Zhao Qinghe said, this fellow might have already gathered together with the experts of the Darxuan Dynasty and was waiting to ambush and kill his companions.

Sometimes, Chen Xi was extremely unwilling to believe that Huangfu Changtian would actually do such a despicable thing and was actually able to make a move against his own companions. This was simply unscrupulous and vicious to the extreme.

Hmm? I'd have already arrived at the northeast area of Primeval City in another short moment. According to what Ling Ze said, this area is controlled by the experts of the Darxuan, Darjin, Darqin, and Darqian Dynasties... Chen Xi swept his gaze towards the distance, and his heart couldn't help but constrict.

After all, Huangfu Changtian had converged with the forces of the Darxuan Dynasty, and if Yu Xuanchen had really entered into this area, his situation would truly be worrying.

Nevermind. Even if it's the lair of a dragon, I probably have to trespass it today. Chen Xi took a deep breath and didn't think any further as he continued flashing straight ahead.

After 15 minutes passed, Chen Xi suddenly stopped moving, and his gaze glanced towards an enormous building before him.

This building was vast and magnificent, it occupied an extremely large area and was like a palace, and it emitted an ancient aura. Moreover, Chen Xi's Divine Sense caught Yu Xuanchen's aura in a small courtyard before the palace.

Most shocking to Chen Xi was that it wasn't just Yu Xuanchen in the small courtyard, but even Fan Yunlan was there!

Could it be that both of them were deceived over by Huangfu Changtian? Chen Xi's eyes narrowed slightly. He didn't alert the two of them and executed the Starsky Wings with his full strength instead, causing him to seem like a strand of a translucent shadow that soundlessly approached the magnificent building.

Within the small courtyard, Yu Xuanchen looked at the nearby young woman who wore a red dress and had a charming and beautiful appearance, and he couldn't help but speak out in surprise. "Miss Fan, why're you here as well? Could it be that you received Brother Huangfu's message as well?"

Fan Yunlan was stunned, and then she shook her head and said, "No. I heard Chen Xi and the others would come here, so I rushed over."

When she spoke up to here, her beautiful brows couldn't help but press together slightly, and her clear eyes swept the surroundings with slight impatience.

Just moments ago, she received Huangfu Changtian's message that Chen Xi and the others were about to arrive at Primeval City, and he asked her to gathered together with everyone here.

Even though she wasn't familiar with Huangfu Changtian, but everyone was from the Darchu Dynasty after all. After they arrived at Primeval City, they ought to take care of each other, and coupled with her looking forward to meet Chen Xi, she naturally wouldn't suspect if Huangfu Changtian had any ulterior motives, causing her to agree without the slightest hesitation.

However, after she arrived here according to Huangfu Changtian's instructions, not only did she not see Chen Xi, she didn't even see a single figure, and all of this faintly felt slightly strange.

But before she could arouse suspicion in her heart, Yu Xuanchen had arrived successively, and this caused her to heave a sigh of relief in her heart. After all, since a familiar face had arrived now, it ought to not be a trick.

Of course, this so called 'familiar face' was only someone familiar in terms of his face, and Fan Yunlan hadn't even spoken a single word to Yu Xuanchen even when they were in the Darchu Dynasty before this, so it was naturally impossible for there to be many topics of conversation between them, causing the atmosphere to seem slightly silent.

"Nevermind, I'll go out and look first, and I'll return a while later." Fan Yunlan was getting tired of waiting, and she turned around with the intention of leaving.

"Miss Fan, wait a moment." The nearby Yu Xuanchen shouted out abruptly. "I think Chen Xi and the others will surely return in a short moment. If you leave at this moment, then wouldn't it be too regretful if you lose the opportunity to meet them?"

Fan Yunlan was stunned as she silently returned to where she stood earlier. Right, what if I lose the opportunity to meet Chen Xi? It has been so long since I entered the Primeval Battlefield, yet I still haven't met him, so I can't miss such an opportunity. Not to mention that so long as I'm able to meet him, so what if I wait another three days and night?

Right at this moment, a wave of footsteps sounded out outside the small courtyard.

Have they arrived? Fan Yunlan's beautiful eyes lit up. However, before she could make any reaction, she saw a group of unfamiliar people pushing the door open and walking in.

These people numbered around 14 or 15, they wore various types of clothes and were made up of both male and female members. All of them possessed formidable auras and cultivations at the Rebirth Realm, whereas the young man in the lead who wore a light blue luxurious robe and had a gorgeous appearance even possessed a cultivation at the 4th tempering of the Rebirth Realm, causing him to seem extremely conspicuous.

Fan Yunlan couldn't help but be stunned when she saw so many unfamiliar faces, and then she realized that the situation was far from good. Because she clearly noticed that the gazes these people shot at her fully revealed dense disdain and hatred.

"Shit! Brother Yu, we've fallen for a trap!" Fan Yunlan swiftly send a voice transmission to Yu Xuanchen.

"It...can't be, right?" Yu Xuanchen was stunned and muttered.

Fan Yunlan's beautiful brows couldn't help but knit together. This fellow Yu Xuanchen looked to be sedate and alert, so how could his reaction be so slow? Could it be that he didn't notice that these fellows intend to harm us?

After the group of people entered the small courtyard, they blocked the surroundings and remained silent while only crossing their arms and laughing coldly. The gazes they shot at Fan Yunlan and Yu Xuanchen seemed as if they were staring at prey that were about to die, cruel and savage.

"Haha, Miss Fan, Brother Yu, long time no see." Right at this moment, a wave of roaring laughter sounded out from outside the small courtyard as Huangfu Changtian who wore a bright yellow robe with pythons embroidered on it walked in, and a trace of complacency couldn't help but suffuse the corners of his mouth as he glanced towards Fan Yunlan and Yu Xuanchen.

"Huangfu Changtian, what exactly is going on?" asked Fan Yunlan coldly. She sized up the surroundings as she spoke, and her heart instantly fell to rock bottom when she noticed all her paths of retreat had been sealed tightly.

Huangfu Changtian paid no attention to her and walked towards the young man in the light blue luxurious robes instead, and then he cupped his fists and said, "Crown Prince, that woman is one of Chen Xi's mistresses, and you can surely make Chen Xi feel overwhelmed with grief if you kill her."

As he spoke, he turned around to look at Fan Yunlan before introducing with a grin. "This is the Darxuan Dynasty's Crown Prince, Lu Tianze. The fellow Daoists by his side are from the Darxuan, Darqin, Darjin, and Darqian Dynasties as well. Get to know them so you'll at least be able to be a little bit more at ease when you die."

Fan Yunlan didn't care which Dynasties these bastards came from, and she only stared fixedly at Huangfu Changtian before gritting her teeth and asking. "Why did you do this?"

She was unable to wrap her head around why this fellow Huangfu Changtian would help outsiders to harm her. Aren't such actions a little too despicable and shameless?

"Why?" Huangfu Changtian muttered, and then his gaze instantly became icy cold as he said gloomily, "Do you even have to ask? Chen Xi killed my younger brother, so can I not take revenge for my younger brother?"

"Then why don't you go look for Chen Xi yourself? Why rely on the strength of others to bully a woman like me? You're simply not a man!" Fan Yunlan sneered.

"Hmph! Chen Xi can kill my younger brother, so I can naturally kill you. Who asked you to have such a vague relationship with Chen Xi?" Huangfu Changtian wasn't infuriated in the slightest, and he said indifferently, "Not to mention, the Fellow Daoists of the various Dynasties by my side have irreconcilable enmity with Chen Xi. After all, that fucker Chen Xi was too rampant and killed the experts of countless Dynasties on the Isle of Fallen Treasures. He's simply a devil that's wicked to the extreme! Presently, he has vanished without a trace, so everyone can only vent their anger on people like you who have an intimate relationship with him."

"A pile of bullshit. I think all of you are afraid of fighting Chen Xi head on, right? You're all a group of trash that are cowards like mice!" While in a hopeless situation, Fan Yunlan's mind calmed down instead, and as she spoke, she swiftly sent a voice transmission to the nearby Yu Xuanchen. "Brother Yu, listen to my commands later, and we'll charge out together. Even if we die, we must not fall into their hands, otherwise our end would surely be extremely miserable."

However, to Fan Yunlan's astonishment, Yu Xuanchen actually smiled strangely after hearing her voice transmission, and then he turned around to arrive by Huangfu Changtian's side before he shook his head and sighed. "Miss Fan, I'm afraid I've disappointed you. I'm living well now, so how could I possibly risk death to charge out with you?"

"You've betrayed everyone just like Huangfu Changtian and submitted to these bastards?" No matter how calm Fan Yunlan was, her heart couldn't help but jerk fiercely and feel disbelief when she saw this sudden scene.

She truly never imagined that from the beginning until the end, all of this was a trick that others had planned, and it was for the sake of drawing her into a trap before annihilating her.

Could it be...that I'm really going to die here today? Fan Yunlan's gaze swept past Huangfu Changtian, Yu Xuanchen, and the experts of those other Dynasties, and all she saw was icy coldness, cruelty, complacency, and hatred.

"Bastards?" The Darxuan Dynasty's Crown Prince, Lu Tianze, sneered suddenly, and then he stared gloomily at Fan Yunlan as he said, "It's useless even if you continue cursing, and if you want to blame someone, you can only blame Chen Xi. Don't worry, I won't kill you so easily. I'll extract your Soul Core so I can't let Chen Xi have a good look when I see him, and I'll let him experience the feeling of being overwhelmed with grief."

"Crown Prince, this little girl is too beautiful. How about you let all of us have some fun, and it wouldn't be too late to extract her Soul Core after that."

"Yeah, just look at her smooth and fair skin, it looks so supple. Hehe."

"Oh, this suggestion isn't bad!"

Everyone by Lu Tianze's side brazenly sized Fan Yunlan up, and their gazes were extremely lascivious as well. They even emitted a wave of savage and teasing laughter, causing them to simply seem like a pack of hungry wolves that were staring at a snow white lamb.

Even though Fan Yunlan was from a Devil Sect, yet she was only a woman in the end. So she was instantly angered to the point her entire body shivered when she heard such shameless and obscene words. Her charming face flickered between a livid and ashen expression as she gnashed her teeth with hatred to the point her teeth almost shattered. They were too despicable, and these fellows were simply unlike cultivators and even more obscene than scoundrels in the mortal world!

“Since everyone has such interest in her, then how about I subdue her first before everyone plays with her at their discretion? Haha...” When he saw Fan Yunlan’s helpless and despairing appearance, Huangfu Changtian couldn’t help but roar with laughter, and then he stretched out his hand to grab towards Fan Yunlan.

Talisman Emperor

Chapter 503: That Figure

Swoosh!

As soon as he finished speaking, Huangfu Changtian’s figure suddenly shot out explosively as a violent blast from his palm descended like a mountain, and it directly pressed down onto Fan Yunlan.

Fan Yunlan had hated Huangfu Changtian to the bone since long ago. At this moment, when she saw he was actually assisting the enemy with the intention of capturing her to allow them to violate her, the hatred in her heart instantly erupted like a volcano as she flashed out lightly, and then her delicate hand flipped before slapping out directly at Huangfu Changtian’s palm.

Bang!

Terrifying True Essence airflow blasted out from the point of collision, causing the leaves that had fallen on the surrounding ground to be instantly explode into powder while the violent gale caused the entire small courtyard to be shaken to the point of trembling violently.

The gale swept out as Huangfu Changtian staggered back a few steps before a mouthful of blood sprayed fiercely out of his mouth, and his expression was covered in astonishment. When did this woman’s cultivation become so terrifying?

Before he could react, killing intent flashed in Fan Yunlan’s eyes as powerful True Essence condensed at the tip of her finger like a sharp sword that contained Dao Insight and emitted a brilliant glow, and it shot towards Huangfu Changtian’s throat like a bolt of lightning.

She truly hated this extremely despicable traitor too much. Not only did he use the relationship between her and Chen Xi, he even drew outsiders over to cause harm to her, and such a scourge that assisted the enemy to commit evil had to be killed to vent the hatred in her heart.

“Brother Huangfu, let me assist you.” Yu Xuanchen’s expression couldn’t help but go grim when he saw this scene, and his thin figure flashed out right away and attacked Fan Yunlan from the side.

“Fuck off!” Fan Yunlan’s beautiful hair fluttered, her gaze was like bolts of lightning, and her charming and fair face was covered in dense killing intent. She stepped on the sky as she fiercely slapped out with a flip of her palm, and it directly blasted Yu Xuanchen flying like a kite that had its string cut off, causing him to be in an unspeakably sorry state.

But after Yu Xuanchen joined in, Huangfu Changtian was able to escape calamity in the end. His figure retreated explosively while the gaze he shot at Fan Yunlan carried a trace of terror, and he didn’t dare make another move against her.

On the other side, Yu Xuanchen similarly revealed deep terror. Just like Huangfu Changtian, he didn’t expect that Fan Yunlan would actually be so difficult to deal with.

“Trash! No wonder you have to submit to the members of first-rate Dynasties. Both of you can only be dogs for others with this little bit of strength you possess.” Fan Yunlan knew she’d lost the initiative, so she didn’t continue pursuing Huangfu Changtian, and she glanced coldly at Huangfu Changtian and Yu Xuanchen as she spoke with disdain.

“You...” Huangfu Changtian and Yu Xuanchen’s expressions went grim.

“Hmph! Your strength isn’t bad. But unfortunately, you’re bound to be unable to escape today. Everyone, make a move together and capture this woman!” Right at this moment, Lu Tianze shouted out explosively, and he’d already flashed out explosively to assault Fan Yunlan as he spoke.

Bang!

As soon as Lu Tianze finished speaking, the gazes of everyone who’d been watching coldly from the sidelines since the beginning had turned ghastly, and they didn’t utter a word of nonsense before besieging Fan Yunlan from all directions.

Their cooperation was extremely tacit as they made a move, and their auras rumbled as they fully sealed up all of Fan Yunlan’s paths of retreat while their powerful and terrifying True Essence swept towards Fan Yunlan like the tide.

Fan Yunlan’s eyes couldn’t help but squint as she looked at the ferocious attacks that poured down like a rainstorm. Her own strength was merely at the 4th tempering of the Rebirth Realm, so she was practically incapable of dodging when faced with the joint attacks of these 15 Rebirth Realm experts.

This won’t do. Even if I die, I can’t allow my Soul Core to be imprisoned by them. Otherwise, it will surely bring endless troubles to Chen Xi... If it’s like that, then why don’t I end my own life... At this split second, Chen Xi’s tall figure that had a warm and handsome smile couldn’t help but appear in Fan Yunlan’s mind, and she sighed deeply in her heart before a wisp of ruthlessness and resoluteness gushed out from her eyes.

However, right when the attacks that covered the heavens and the earth were about to blast onto her and Fan Yunlan intended to end her own life, an ear piercing sound of the sky being torn apart resounded out abruptly as a black figure flashed out explosively like a ghost and appeared before Fan Yunlan. A dazzling crimson glow gushed out explosively like the sun, and it transformed into a round barrier.

Bang! Bang! Bang!

The attacks that covered the heavens and the earth blasted fiercely onto the barrier and caused numerous violent ripples to undulate as a wave of violent winds swept out. However, no matter how violent the ripples were, the crimson glow flowed about on the barrier and remained unmoving, and it firmly protected the two figures within it.

The dazzling crimson glow was like blazing flames that caused Fan Yunlan’s pitch black and clear eyes to be unable to help but narrow. Subsequently, she saw the figure that stood before her.

Under the illumination of the gorgeous crimson glow, the figure was tall and straight like a sword, and it seemed that even if the heavens collapsed, it would be unable to bend this figure’s backbone.

This was the most familiar figure to Fan Yunlan in all these years, and it was precisely this figure that had carried her up Ascension Peak and fought his way into the waterfall of Dao Insights...

The scenes from when she participated in the Allstar Meeting flashed swiftly within her mind. At this moment of extreme danger from being besieged by numerous enemies, Fan Yunlan actually seemed to be infatuated as she stared at the figure before her with a pair of eyes that were enshrouded with the glimmer of tears.

The tall figure finally turned around and smiled to the beautiful woman behind him, and his eyes were filled with a dense apologetic and guilty expression as he said with a gentle voice, "Sorry, I'm late."

When she saw Chen Xi's familiar appearance and voice, Fan Yunlan's body couldn't help but shake as she bit her cherry lips and shook her head stubbornly, yet the crystalline tears in her heart couldn't be controlled any longer and fell from her eyes.

Just moments ago, she thought that she wouldn't be able to see Chen Xi again anymore. Now, as she looked at this man that appeared in her dreams appearing before her, she suddenly felt slightly worried that this was a dream or a hallucination before death.

Indescribable and piercing pain gushed out from Chen Xi's heart when he saw Fan Yunlan's alone and helpless appearance. He took a deep breath before patting Fan Yunlan's shoulder, and then he said with a light voice by her ear, "I guarantee that I won't let you suffer any grievance in the future, just leave the rest to me."

Fan Yunlan suddenly raised her head and said anxiously, "You..." She hadn't finished speaking when Chen Xi had already covered her cherry lips with his fingers.

"Believe in me." Chen Xi smiled.

"Mmm." When she saw the warm and clear smile that was like sunlight on Chen Xi's face, the terror, fury, resentment, anxiousness, and despair in Fan Yunlan's heart was completely wiped clear, and her heart felt calm and warm.

The crimson glow dimmed down before completely vanishing in the end.

The gazes of Lu Tianze and the others instantly became gloomy when they saw this scene and Chen Xi who was before Fan Yunlan, and Lu Tianze said with a ghastly tone, "Where did this ignorant fool come from? He's actually trying to be the hero! Truly laughable! There are actually idiots that are still doing stupid things like this now?"

"Crown Prince, he... He's Chen Xi." Huangfu Changtian's pupils couldn't help but constrict when he saw Chen Xi, and then he swiftly explained.

"Chen Xi!" Now, everyone including Lu Tianze was stunned slightly, as they seemed to have never imagined that the opponent they took great pains to find an opportunity to kill would actually suddenly appear before them just like this.

"Hahaha... We spent so much effort to find him, yet he makes an appearance right before us!" After Lu Tianze was stunned, a wisp of wild joy appeared on his face as he stared at Chen Xi with a ghastly gaze and said, "I never imagined that you're so stupid to actually come walking right into a trap. The heavens are really benevolent!"

As he spoke, he stretched out his hand to point at the people by his side. "Open up your fucking eyes and look. Not only are the experts of my Darxuan Dynasty present here, there are also the members of the Darqian, Darqin, and Darjin Dynasties. All of them hate you to the bone, yet you actually dare come here alone. You're truly courting death!"

"Crown Prince, you must be careful of his person. Even though his cultivation is only at the initial-stage of the Rebirth Realm, his combat strength is terrifying to the extreme, and you have to be on guard against him." Huangfu Changtian spoke in a low voice from the side.

"Brother Huangfu is correct. This kid, Chen Xi's, natural talent is shocking to the extreme. Early on when we were still in the Darchu Dynasty, his combat strength had already far surpassed cultivators of the same cultivation, causing him to be formidable to the extreme." Yu Xuanchen nodded as well.

"Hmph! I've already gained an extremely clear understanding of his ability, both of you don't have to say anything further." Since Lu Tianze dared to make a move against Chen Xi, he naturally knew of the numerous magnificent feats Chen Xi had performed on the Isle of Fallen Treasures, but he still had the confidence to annihilate Chen Xi here today.

Huangfu Changtian and Yu Xuanchen instantly went silent when they heard this, and only the serious expression on their faces couldn't be dispersed.

"There's no need to be worried. My Crown Prince has already set up the Nine Mountain World Suppression grand formation in the surroundings of this small courtyard long ago. He can't escape even if he wants to." An expert from the Darxuan Dynasty couldn't help but explain when he saw their serious expression, and his voice revealed a trace of indifference. Obviously, he felt that Huangfu Changtian and Yu Xuanchen were too careful and cowardly.

"So the Crown Prince has already set everything up since long ago, it couldn't be any better." Huangfu Changtian and Yu Xuanchen heaved a sigh of relief, and they recover their relaxed expressions.

It was even to the extent that Huangfu Changtian even had the mood to tease Chen Xi. "Oh, I forgot to tell you. Lu Xiao and Zhao Qinghe were killed by me. It couldn't be helped, who asked them to be members of the Darchu Dynasty?"

Chen Xi had always been watching coldly from the side when Lu Tianze and the others were speaking with each other, and his expression didn't reveal the slightest ripple even when he heard Lu Tianze intended to seal off all his paths of retreat with the Nine Mountain World Suppression grand formation. But now, when he heard what Huangfu Changtian said, his eyes instantly shot out a string of cold lights as he said coldly, "So, you're already determined to betray the Darchu Dynasty?"

"Betray? A man chooses a good leader to follow! Would I be able to come here alive from the Primeval Battlefield if I followed by your side? Don't be stupid, an ordinary Dynasty has utterly no authority to speak in the Primeval Battlefield, and 99% die in the final test. I did this because I was looking out for myself, understand?" Huangfu Changtian expressed contempt towards Chen Xi.

“You think like this as well?” Chen Xi paid no further attention to Huangfu Changtian, and his gaze moved to look at Yu Xuanchen while his icy cold expression revealed an oppressive might.

Yu Xuanchen didn't dare look Chen Xi in the eye, and he stayed silent for a long moment. Obviously, he tacitly approved of Huangfu Changtian's views.

“I was unwilling to admit it since the beginning, and I even left a trace of hope in my heart. I felt both of you were coerced into carrying out such despicable deeds, yet now it would seem that I was thinking too much about your feelings.” As his mutters drifted out into the surroundings of the small courtyard, Chen Xi's expression had already become more and more icy cold, and it became indifferent and ruthless in the end. “It's good like this as well. I won't have any burden in my heart from killing both of you.”

Chapter 504: Turning The Situation Around

Chen Xi's voice revealed a strand of resoluteness and a wisp of killing intent, causing the expressions of Huangfu Changtian and Yu Xuanchen to go slightly pale.

Rumble! Right at this moment, Lu Tianze suddenly gestured with his hand, causing divine lights to charge into the sky before the images of nine enormous mountains pressed down from midair. Each of these nine mountains were different, either solitary, gorgeous, or craggy. All of them emitted various resplendent bright lights as they revealed the form of the nine palaces variant of the eight trigrams and pressed down onto the surroundings of the small courtyard.

Instantly, the entire small courtyard seemed as if it had completely lost contact with the outside world, it was as if one had fallen deep into a prison, and it caused one to feel oppressed and suffocated.

Nine was the limit of numbers. At the instant the Nine Mountain World Suppression grand formation appeared, the phenomena it revealed displayed extreme suppression and locking down of aura, and when one was within this grand formation, it caused one to have the despairing feeling of being unable to escape, even if one grew wings.

Moreover, Chen Xi clearly felt that the glow emitted by this grand formation was actually capable of suppressing the circulation of True Essence, and it caused him to be only able to exert less than 80% of his strength.

“Shameless boasting! Let me see for how long you can stay jumping about beneath my Nine Mountain World Suppression grand formation!” Lu Tianze sneered repeatedly. In his eyes, Chen Xi was already a trapped beast on the verge of death.

“Oh? Then go ahead and try!” A vertical eye suddenly surged out from the space between Chen Xi's brows. The eye of deep and pitch black, and it actually had the phenomena of the sun and moon alternating and the milky way flowing reflected within it.

Swoosh!

The Divine Ability, the Eye of Divine Truth, swept the sky and practically instantly saw through a weak point within the grand formation, and then the sword in his hand slashed out with a shake of his arm, causing a vast sword qi to surge out and erupt with an aura that seemed to intend to obliterate the heavens.

Rumble!

The entire small courtyard was shaking as the dazzling sword qi drowned out the entire surroundings, and it shook the nine mountains in midair to the point they actually started trembling violently.

Bang!

In the end, an enormous bang resounded out as if the heavens had collapsed and the earth had split apart. The small courtyard exploded apart, shocking everyone to the point of moving backwards and swiftly dodging.

Dong!

Like a god that had descended into the mortal world, Chen Xi took a step forward to directly arrive beneath the sky, and then he stuck his hand out and grabbed, causing a Formation Disk that glowed with nine dazzling starry lights to appear on his palm.

“How could this be possible!? He destroyed my grand formation with a single strike! This is something that even an Earthly Immortal Realm expert isn’t capable of achieving!” Lu Tianze’s expression went grim and was shocked to the point he roared out loudly.

The expressions of everyone else went grim as well. Just a moment ago, victory was within their grasps, yet never had they imagined that Chen Xi would actually destroy their greatest reliance in a mere instant!

Some of them were even unable to restrain themselves from arousing a slight intention to flee.

“In terms of the Dao of Talisman Formations, is anyone amongst you more skilled than me? You tried to use a formation that’s full of flaws to trap me, what else are all of you but idiots?” Chen Xi mocked them coldly.

He swung his hand as he spoke, causing the Formation Disk to flew out and once again transform into the Nine Mountain World Suppression grand formation, and it completely locked down the surroundings.

The only difference was the target of suppression had been changed.

When they saw this scene, the expressions of Lu Tianze and the others went gloomy. They never imagined that in only a blink of an eye, Chen Xi had actually successfully refined the Nine Mountain World Suppression grand formation, and he’d even suppressed them within it!

Chen Xi truly felt extreme hatred in his heart because Fan Yunlan had actually almost fallen into a hopeless situation, and she would have lost her life if it wasn’t for him arriving on time. Most detestable of it all was that Huangfu Changtian and Yu Xuanchen assisted the enemy and acted wantonly. They were simple worse than animals!

So he’d utilized his entire strength since the moment he made a move. His sword was the Quasi Immortal Artifact, the Skysorrow Sword, the Divine Ability he utilized was the Eye of Divine Truth that could see through all things, and coupled with his understanding of the Dao of Talismans, undoing the Nine Mountain World Suppression grand formation was simply effortless.

Bang!

Chen Xi who stood in midair stretched out his hand, causing boundless thunderstorm vortexes that enveloped the area before him to be developed, and it shook open the earth as it swept out in all directions.

“AH... No!” Huangfu Changtian cried out loudly, and he was terrified and uneasy. He actually noticed that he didn’t even have the strength to struggle, and he was helpless.

At this moment, he finally deeply understood how big the gap between him and Chen Xi was, and it was simply like the difference between an ant and a mammoth!

Chen Xi imprisoned him from afar, and held him up as he said coldly, “I won’t kill you now. Didn’t you think first-rate Dynasties are extremely strong? Alright, just stay there obediently, and I’ll let you see exactly what sort of trash they are!”

Slap!

As he spoke, Chen Xi slapped Huangfu Changtian, causing all the teeth in Huangfu Changtian’s mouth to fall out while mixed with blood that flew out of his mouth, and even his lower jaw was shattered by this slap.

His entire body was slapped flying before falling on the ground, causing dust and smoke to rise from the ground, and he was in an extremely miserable state.

“Stay there obediently, otherwise, you’ll die right away,” said Chen Xi indifferently.

Huangfu Changtian’s long hair was disheveled as he wailed, and his eyes were filled with terror. All those years ago in the Darchu Dynasty, even though he knew that there was quite a gap between himself and Chen Xi, he’d never felt afraid.

However, now he was really afraid, terrified, and he didn’t even dare struggle because he knew that it was useless. This fellow Chen Xi always stood by his word, and so long as he’d said something, there was nothing he couldn’t do.

“The same goes for you.” Chen Xi glanced at Yu Xuanchen on the other side as he warned coldly.

Yu Xuanchen instantly shuddered as his legs started trembling uncontrollably. It was too terrifying! This fellow Chen was simply like a devil god, and it was utterly impossible to use the level of his cultivation to measure him.

From the time Chen Xi broke apart the formation, gained control and slapped Huangfu Changtian, and warned Yu Xuanchen, the entire process only occurred in the time for a few breaths. However, it was in this extremely short amount of time that the entire situation was completely turned around.

The various abilities revealed by Chen Xi caused Lu Tianze and the others to feel unstoppable pressure, and they finally understood that even if they’d prepared sufficiently, they’d still underestimated Chen Xi’s strength.

“Kill! Everyone, make a move together and kill that woman first!” Lu Tianze’s expression was gloomy as his eyes flickered endlessly, and he inadvertently glanced at the distant Fan Yunlan, causing his eyes to light up as he shouted out coldly.

Swoosh!

As soon as Lu Tianze finished speaking, four figures by his side flashed out explosively at practically the exact same moment. Two amongst these four people had already stepped into the 3rd tempering of the Rebirth Realm, and the remaining two had a cultivation at the 2nd tempering of the Rebirth Realm. Such a force could already be considered to be quite strong when placed in a first-rate Dynasty.

The four of them attacked jointly, causing powerful True Essence to spread out as a formidable pressure directly enveloped towards Fan Yunlan. They obviously understood that only by capturing Fan Yunlan would they be able to threaten Chen Xi, so they executed their strongest martial techniques as soon as they attacked, causing the sound of the Dao to rumble and the sound of slaughter that tore apart one’s eardrums to explode out.

At practically the exact same moment, Lu Tianze and the remaining experts made a move against Chen Xi with the intention of jointly entrapping Chen Xi and not allowing him to head over and rescue Fan Yunlan.

However, their thoughts were bound to only be wishful thinking.

Before they could even approach Chen Xi, they noticed to their shock that it was merely an afterimage of Chen Xi left in the sky before them, whereas Chen Xi himself had appeared before Fan Yunlan long ago!

The speed that was almost like teleportation shocked the distant Huangfu Changtian who didn’t dare move to the point of trembling as his face went ashen.

Bang!

Violent True Essence whistled over like a surging mountain torrent. However, right when these attacks were about to arrive before Fan Yunlan, the air in midair exploded apart abruptly as a black figure carried along a vast and powerful pressure as it whistled over, and a dazzling sword that carried boundless Sword Insight drew out a string of afterimages as it forcefully blasted and slashed apart all the attacks, causing them to dissipate and vanish.

Those four people that attacked were instantly shocked by Chen Xi’s speed and strength. But, as Rebirth Realm experts of the Darxuan Dynasty, their experience wasn’t lacking, so they didn’t fall into panic because of this, and they gritted their teeth and charged forward once more instead.

Swoosh!

Chen Xi’s figure shook. He who’d executed the Starsky Wings with his entire strength had a speed that was entirely capable of comparing with teleportation. Amidst a flash, a sword image that contained various Dao Insights had directly appeared before an expert of the Darxuan Dynasty.

This attack that arrived suddenly instantly caused that person to go pale from shock, and he practically unconsciously mobilized his True Essence and caused the defensive magic treasure on his body to glow before forming a golden barrier on the surface of his body.

However, a trace of cold disdain arose on the corners of Chen Xi's mouth when faced with a defense like this. The attack of the Skysorrow Sword in his hand didn't change, and it directly and fiercely slashed onto the golden barrier.

Bang!

A shattering bang resounded out, and under the astounded gazes of everyone present, the extremely strong defensive barrier was blasted apart into pieces in an instant. Moreover, the head of the person within the barrier was directly slashed into two, causing blood to flow as a variety of internal organs fell to the ground, causing the scene of his death to be extremely horrifying.

After annihilating a Rebirth Realm expert with a single strike, Chen Xi's expression remained indifferent, and he didn't dally in the slightest to seize the instant the other three were stunned by this scene. Three fierce and swift sword lights tore through the sky at almost the exact same moment, and they were like three shooting stars that directly slashed apart the treasures in their hands before slashing horizontally through their chests.

Pu! Pu! Pu!

Three muffled sounds resounded out as the three Rebirth Realm experts were slashed into half, and their demise was no better than the first expert that died before them.

"Bastard!" Meanwhile, Lu Tianze had completely recovered from his shock, and his expression turned extremely gloomy and savage. In the blink of an eye, four Rebirth Realm experts had fallen, and such a loss was something that even his Darxuan Dynasty was unable to bear.

The expressions of the others changed as well, some were shocked and furious, whereas some were terrified. They were unable to wrap their heads around how a fellow at the initial-stage of the Rebirth Realm was capable of exerting such a terrifying combat strength, no matter how they racked their brains.

Swoosh!

But before they could attack furiously, Chen Xi's figure that was like a ghost had already flashed out explosively to arrive before them, and the Skysorrow Sword in his hand droned and howled as if it was impatient to drink the blood of its enemies.

Presently, in the hands of Chen Xi, this Quasi Immortal Artifact that came from the Darjin Dynasty's Crown Prince, Pei Yu, erupted with boundless potential, and it was even slightly more formidable than the Talisman Armament in terms of might. So it was simply an invincible weapon of slaughter when used to annihilate his enemies.

Unless one possessed a magic treasure of the same rank or a combat strength that completely surpassed Chen Xi, otherwise, one could only fall beneath his sword.

But regretfully, there weren't many Quasi Immortal Artifacts, and it was even to the extent that they could be described to be rare like phoenix feathers and qilin horns. Even if it was amongst experts of the first-rate Dynasties, only their core experts were capable of possessing one.

Chapter 505: Revealing His Overbearingness

Chen Xi moved like a ghost that was unpredictable and traceless.

In the next instant, he'd already appeared before Lu Tianze. The Skysorrow Sword carried a blazing sheen as it tore through the sky and slashed down with unparalleled speed.

Bang!

An ear piercing and enormous bang redounded out in the heavens and the earth as blazing light exploded out. Lu Tianze's figure staggered back a few steps and seemed to be in a sorry state, yet he didn't suffer a heavy injury, and it couldn't even be considered to be a light injury.

He's actually blocked Chen Xi's killing strike.

It turned out that a long blade that overflowed with cold lights had appeared abruptly in his hand. The long blade was completely snow white with talisman markings surging on its surface, and it seemed as if a lifelike dragon was swimming about within the blade.

The airflow in the surroundings actually had a layer of icy mist that was bone piercingly cold, formed upon it because of the appearance of this long blade, and it seemed as if the surroundings had entered into a dreamlike state of severe winter.

As the Crown Prince of the Darxuan Dynasty, Lu Tianze naturally has no lack of treasures in his possession, and this icy cold long blade was called Snowdragon Blade. Just like Pei Yu's Skysorrow Sword, Qin Xiao's Mountainform Seal, and Xu Lengye's Flaming Peacock Fan, it was a Quasi Immortal Artifact that even Earthly Immortal Realm experts coveted.

A Quasi Immortal Artifact? As expected. Chen Xi wasn't surprised in the slightest that his attack didn't succeed, and he only sized up the Snowdragon Blade in Lu Tianze's hand with a calm expression.

Presently, he didn't just possess the Quasi Immortal Artifact, Skysorrow Sword, he still had the Flaming Peacock Fan, the Mountainform Seal, and the Golden Dragon Armor, and it would absolutely shock others to death if he withdrew all of them, so he naturally wouldn't be afraid of the Snowdragon Blade.

Actually, strictly speaking, the utilization of Quasi Immortal Artifacts depended on the extent of one's comprehension of Dao Insights and cultivation. Otherwise, even if one possessed a Quasi Immortal Artifact, it would be difficult for one to exert its greatest might, and it was even to the extent that it might be seized away by another.

For example, Chen Xi originally possessed an extremely high grasp of the Sword Dao, and he'd already cultivated the Myriad Convergence Sword Scripture to the point of combining the eight sword moves into one and attained the Enlightened Sword Heart. So he was naturally capable of exploding out with an even more formidable might when utilizing the Skysorrow Sword.

On the other hand, even though Xu Lengye, Pei Yu, and Qin Xiao possessed Quasi Immortal Artifacts, they lost to Chen Xi in the end. It wasn't that their magic treasures weren't formidable, but it was due to their strengths being far too inferior when compared to Chen Xi.

Lu Tianze had a cultivation at the 4th tempering of the Rebirth Realm. In the eyes of others, a cultivation like this could already be considered to be at the top amongst the cultivators in Primeval City, yet it was still pitifully weak to Chen Xi.

After all, when he was in the Isle of Fallen Treasures that day, Chen Xi hadn't even advanced to the Rebirth Realm when he'd slaughtered the Sword Crazy Kid, Taishu Huarong, who was at the 4th tempering of the Rebirth Realm. Even though he'd relied on the might of the Flaming Peacock Fan, yet it was sufficient to discern exactly how terrifying Chen Xi's strength was.

Now Chen Xi's body refinement and qi refinement cultivations had advanced into the Rebirth Realm, and he'd even overcome the legendary Phoenix Tribulation of Rebirth. So he seemed to possess a cultivation at the initial-stage of the Rebirth Realm, yet his combat strength was so formidable that it was utterly not something an ordinary Rebirth Realm expert could compare to.

Thus he was naturally not afraid in the slightest when facing Lu Tianze who held the Quasi Immortal Artifact, Snowdragon Blade.

Through the head on collision with Chen Xi earlier, Lu Tianze clearly felt how terrifying Chen Xi's strength was as well. After all, he was an expert at the 4th tempering of the Rebirth Realm, yet was struck to the point of staggering back by a single strike of Chen Xi's. If it wasn't for the protection of the Snowdragon Blade, he'd probably have been slashed in two by that strike.

His expression instantly became extremely heavy. Even if there were still around nine of them left, his mood was still heavy to the extreme when facing an opponent like Chen Xi, and it was even to the extent he aroused the thought of fleeing.

However, when he saw the Nine Mountain World Suppression grand formation that suppressed the surroundings, his heart instantly fell to rock bottom, and he understood that he only had a single choice now — Fight a bloody battle until the end.

Actually, when he intended to deal with Chen Xi earlier, Lu Tianze had already made sufficient preparations, and he utterly didn't dare to take Chen Xi as an ordinary person. But, up until the moment he really fought Chen Xi, he finally noticed that all his preparations and understanding of Chen Xi seemed to be useless and a cause for dejection.

Simply speaking, it wasn't that he'd underestimated Chen Xi, but the strength Chen Xi revealed was too out of his expectations, and it was something that others were unable to imagine no matter what.

Who would be able to imagine that a fellow at the initial-stage of the Rebirth Realm would actually be able to slaughter existences that were at a level higher than himself?

Who would be able to imagine that this fellow's cultivation in the Martial Dao would be so heaven defying?

Who would be able to imagine that this fellow would actually be able to see through the flaws of the Nine Mountain World Suppression grand formation with a single glance before destroying it with a single strike and taking control of it?

Moreover, all these things that couldn't be imagined had caused the unbelievable scenes before Lu Tianze and the others at this moment.

Chen Xi's actions of easily and casually killing four people successively shocked everyone present. It shocked Huangfu Changtian and Yu Xuanchen to the point of being dumbstruck on the spot in the distance, and their expressions were ashen while they felt even more afraid of making a rash move.

Lu Tianze and the others converged to face Chen Xi together, and it seemed that only in this way would the heaviness in their hearts be able to be eased up slightly.

Presently, only nine of them remained, including Lu Tianze.

Moreover, the composition of these nine people was extremely complicated. They were respectively from the Darxuan, Darqin, Darqian, and Darjin Dynasty. All of them had come for the sake of taking revenge for their companions that had perished on the Isle of Fallen Treasures, yet never had they imagined that Chen Xi would actually be so formidable, causing their situation to become slightly precarious.

Chen Xi didn't continue attacking, and he sized Lu Tianze and the others up before he said abruptly, "This northeast area of Primeval City is controlled by your Dynasties, right?"

Lu Tianze and the others were stunned as they never expected Chen Xi to actually ask such a strange question at this moment.

"It's good like this as well. After I kill all of you, I can seize this area and occupy it for my Darchu Dynasty..." Chen Xi suddenly started smiling.

However, this smile was like the smile of a devil in the eyes of Lu Tianze, and it was unspeakably cruel. Not only does this fellow want to kill us, he has actually placed his sights on my territory!

Om!

Chen Xi gestured with a raise of his hand, causing the Nine Mountain World Suppression grand formation that suppressed the surroundings to be withdrawn by him, and an expanse of clamorous noise that seethed with excitement instantly sounded out from outside.

It turned out that long ago since the battle started, the numerous cultivators in the nearby area had noticed the phenomena here, and all of them started looking over here. Unfortunately, because the grand formation had sealed up the surrounding space and separated it from the outside world, it caused them to be utterly unable to see the battle that occurred within the small courtyard.

But even then, they were still able to determine that a battle was surely being carried out within the small courtyard. Moreover, the Crown Prince of the Darxuan Dynasty, Lu Tianze, had personally made a move.

The reason was extremely simple, the Nine Mountain World Suppression grand formation was Lu Tianze's trump card, and it possessed a rather great reputation. How could they possibly not know about it?

The more mysterious a thing was, the more it aroused the curiosity of others.

A grand formation suppressed the area within this small courtyard while a figure like Lu Tianze was participating in it, so it naturally drew the attention of more and more cultivators.

All of them were scattered nearby the small courtyard while looking at it from the distance. At this moment, when they saw the grand formation being removed and clearly saw the scene within the small courtyard, they instantly went into an uproar.

"Look, it really is the Crown Prince of the Darxuan Dynasty, Lu Tianze!"

"The northeast area of Primeval City has been taken control of by the Darxuan, Darqin, Darjin, and Darqian Dynasty. Since they've actually appeared here at this moment, could it be that someone entered the northeast city gate without paying the price of a treasure and drew down their attacks?"

"Eh! Wait! That's Chen Xi! Chen Xi who just crushed the peak expert of the Feng Clan, Feng Jianbai, to attain the first on the Warsoul Tablet!"

"He's Chen Xi? My god! Why would he be in battle with the members of these Dynasties?"

"Who knows? But I heard that even top Dynasties like the Dartang and Darkhan Dynasty and the Prestigious Clan, the Xue Clan, are trying to rope this fellow in. These Dynasties are only first-rate Dynasties, yet actually dare to go against Chen Xi, they truly are filled with resolution."

The discussions of the distant crowd weren't covered up, and it was transmitted over extremely clearly. Most of them were exclaiming with admiration about the brilliant achievements that Chen Xi obtained earlier.

However, when these voices fell into the ears of Lu Tianze and the others, it wasn't inferior to a thunderclap that shook them to the point their faces went pale, and their minds almost collapsed.

The first on the Warsoul Tablet?

Crushed the peak expert of the Feng Clan, Feng Jianbai?

The Dartang Dynasty, Darkhan Dynasty, and Xue Clan are trying to rope him in?

All of this was like a sledgehammer that struck one after the other on their hearts, causing the gazes that Lu Tianze and the others shot at Chen Xi to simply seem as if they were staring at a freak and filled with disbelief.

They finally understood that they'd underestimated Chen Xi once more. If they knew that he'd attained such shocking accomplishments long ago, would they have foolishly come to seek revenge?

On the other side, the expressions of Huangfu Changtian and Yu Xuanchen were exceedingly unsightly, and they felt as if the heavens had played a great trick on them. If they knew earlier that Chen Xi had become so formidable, why would they submit beneath Lu Tianze and the others?

At this moment, both of them were terrified out of their wits, and their intestines had gone green with regret.

“Do you know why I removed the grand formation? It’s extremely simple. I want everyone to see the consequences of offending my Darchu Dynasty. Moreover, I want to announce to the entire city that this northeast area has been occupied by my Darchu Dynasty!” At this moment, Chen Xi’s gaze was like bolts of lightning, his back ramrod straight, and his entire body emitted a vast aura. He had a mighty imposing aura that seemed as if he would remain unmoving no matter what struck him, and even though his voice was flat, it was clearly transmitted to every corner of the surroundings.

These words blew past the surroundings like a hurricane, causing the hearts of everyone to tremble without end. They believed that these words would cause a monstrous stir, and even if Chen Xi hadn’t taken action on these words yet, it would still cause the entire Primeval City to be shaken.

Chen Xi was sending out a signal that he was extremely displeased, and it wasn’t merely to warn Lu Tianze and the others but was also to display some sort of resolution to the Dynasties in the outside world!

He wants to become the one who controls the northeast area of the city in the capacity of an ordinary Dynasty? If news of this were to be spread out, it wouldn’t just shock the various Dynasties, even the top Dynasties and Prestigious Clans from Ancient Kingdoms would probably be stirred.

At the side, Fan Yunlan looked at the tall figure that was mighty like a god, and a wisp of an indescribable feeling of being at ease gushed out abruptly from her heart. Never had she imagined that for the sake of protecting her, this fellow that was originally warm and kept a low profile would actually display such overbearingness and look down upon the world!

This...is my man? How fortunate am I... Extraordinary splendor flowed within her eyes as she muttered lightly, and her gaze that shot at Chen Xi actually seemed to be infatuated.

Chapter 506: Unrestrained Slaughter

A single sentence from Chen Xi shocked everyone present, and it caused the hearts of everyone to tremble without end.

However, to Lu Tianze and the others, these words of Chen Xi’s were undoubtedly a type of judgment towards them, and besides causing them to be shocked, it caused them to be furious to the extreme.

“Chen Xi, you dare talk big like this?!” A Rebirth Realm expert from the Darjin Dynasty mustered up the courage to shout out.

“It isn’t your place to say if I was talking big. Moreover, I don’t intend to prove it to you. After all, you’re about to die, and it’s meaningless to waste time talking to a dead person,” said Chen Xi calmly.

The expressions of some people went grim yet most of them felt terrified, and they felt extremely great dread.

They knew clearly that these words of Chen Xi's were equivalent to indirectly giving them the death sentence, so who would be able to remain unafraid? When faced with death, even an exalted figure with extremely high ability would feel terrified.

"You... Could it be that you aren't afraid of arousing public indignation and causing your Darchu Dynasty to fall into eternal doom!?" A young man cried out while appearing to be tough on the surface. He was truly too terrified, and he was extremely afraid of having his life ended right away.

"Arousing public indignation? What a joke!" Chen Xi suddenly turned around and erupted with a peerlessly formidable imposing aura as he shouted. "I only know that continuously tolerating all of you will only make all of you go even further. Only by killing, killing until all of you are horrified would I be able to make all of you completely fearful and not dare linger on like detestable ghosts that won't go away like before!"

These words were like thunderclaps that shook the hearts of Lu Tianze and the others repeatedly, causing them to feel a piercing pain from their eardrums as their heads swelled, and all of them felt terrified to the extreme.

"You're going too far! Do you think you can be run rampant by yourself!?" Someone shouted out loudly.

"Noisy!" Chen Xi lightly spat out a single word as the Skysorrow Sword slashed out like a dazzling golden crow that rose into the sky, and it crashed down while emitting a rumbling sound, instantly shattering the person apart and causing him to transform into ash.

It was just so simple, a Rebirth Realm expert was instantly crushed into powder and vanished from the world.

For the sake of deterring everyone and for the sake of allowing all the experts in the distance to see it, this sword strike of Chen Xi's seemed to be struck casually, yet he'd actually exerted his entire strength coupled with the Skysorrow Sword, allowing him to attain such a terrifying effect.

Obviously, this deterring effect was extremely good. It shook the distant spectators to the point their pupils constricted as they revealed expressions of shock, and their eyes revealed a trace of dense terror.

On the other hand, Lu Tianze and the others were horrified by this sword strike. The person that died was standing just before them, yet they didn't have the time to rescue him and could only look on helplessly as he died. This strong visual impact caused their hairs to stand on end.

As the Rebirth Realm experts of first-rate Dynasties, even though they were inferior to those top Dynasties and Prestigious Clans, they still possessed an extremely formidable might. They were normally supreme existences that were flattered and chased after by the experts of the various ordinary Dynasties no matter where they went. But now, they seemed like prisoners that were waiting for judgment and death, and this feeling was absolutely terrible.

"Chen Xi, we're disciples of first-rate Dynasties. You can't treat us like this. Could it be that you want to bring calamity to your Darchu Dynasty?" Lu Tianze and the others were horrified, and someone hurriedly chose his words and roared loudly.

"First-rate Dynasties? Hah, you're still using such insubstantial things to threaten me at a time like this? Laughable!" Chen Xi swung his sword once more, causing a sword qi to tear through the clouds before crashing down like an enormous pillar that held up the sky, and it directly crushed that person into pieces.

The hearts of all the distant spectators shook. Chen Xi was using actions to prove that he utterly didn't care what level of Dynasty an expert was from. So long as one offended his Darchu Dynasty, he would kill anyone without mercy.

Swoosh! Swoosh! Swoosh!

Suddenly, three figures flashed out explosively from Lu Tianze's side, and they flashed out towards three directions, left, right, and backward. Obviously, these three people had already communicated via voice transmission earlier, and they wanted to rely on such a method to catch Chen Xi off guard and flee.

However, what they never expected was that Chen Xi seemed to have expected that this would occur since long ago. With a swing of his hand, an enormous seal that was vast like a mountain, a feather fan that overflowed with the glow of flames, and a sword qi that seemed like a river of stars rumbled out in unison, and they annihilated the three people that fled towards three directions.

"AH!!!" Three exceedingly miserable shrill cries resounded out. Under the shocked gazes of everyone present, one of those three people was smashed into a pile of mush, the other was burned into ash, and the final one was slashed apart into powder. The state of all of their deaths was horrifying to the extreme.

This strike instantly shocked Lu Tianze and the others to the point their hearts that were waiting for a chance to make a move fell completely to rock bottom. They were both terrified and astounded, and their expressions were unsightly to the extreme.

"Flaming Peacock Fan, Skysorrow Sword, Mountainform Seal! This fellow actually possesses three Quasi Immortal Artifacts!"

"As expected, Xu Lengye, Pei Yu, and Qin Xiao were really killed by Chen Xi. Otherwise, how could their trump cards have fallen into Chen Xi's hands?"

"His strength was already something that an ordinary person was unable to compare to, and now that he possesses such powerful weapons, would anyone in Primeval City be able to subdue him?"

"He can't be resisted, he can't be resisted!"

All the distance spectators felt suffocated when they saw those three magic treasures that revealed terrifying strength, and they felt even more terrified of Chen Xi.

"Chen Xi, do you know what sort of calamity acting this way will bring to you, your companions, and even the Darchu Dynasty that's behind you?" At this moment, Lu Tianze had calmed down instead, and he stared at Chen Xi while he spoke calmly.

Bang!

Replying to his question was a sword strike of Chen Xi's that directly killed the final companion of Lu Tianze's behind him, and Chen Xi struck resolutely and without the slightest hesitation.

Even the distant spectators felt extremely terrified when they saw this scene, because any sort of threats seemed to lose its efficacy when used on Chen Xi. Is there anything in this world that can cause him to feel fear?

“You...” Lu Tianze’s pupils dilated as he shouted out loudly. “Do you think you can be without worries after you kill us? Let me tell you! Presently, the Shang Clan has already captured two young women of your Darchu Dynasty, and that Shang Kun even intends to use those two young women as cultivation vessels to cultivate a devil technique, whereas you have become the one and only obstruction towards him successfully cultivating this devil technique because he can only cultivate it after killing you. How long do you think you can go on showing off your strength for?”

Chen Xi suddenly fell into silence when he heard this, and his long hair covered his face in the shadows, causing others to be unable to see his expression.

Cultivate a devil technique!?

The hearts of all the distant spectators went cold. They’d once heard that the Shang Clan’s inheritance was from the Maiden Devil Sect, yet never had they expected that it was actually true.

But what caused them to be curious was why Chen Xi had become the one and only obstruction towards Shang Kun successfully cultivating the devil technique? Using those two young women as cultivation vessels and having the requirement of killing Chen Xi, isn’t this devil technique too evil...?

On the other side, Fan Yunlan expression darkened when she heard this. She was similarly from the devil sect and naturally had a good understanding of some cultivation techniques of the devil sect.

According to what Lu Tianze said, Shang Kun is surely cultivating the Maiden Heavenblessing Technique!

Only a cultivation technique like this would use the vitality of young women as the vessel and seize everything from them. After he succeeds in this, he’ll be able to cultivate the Chaotic Devilbody that possesses an extremely terrifying might.

At this moment, Fan Yunlan believed that what Lu Tianze said was true. Because the cultivation technique of the Maiden Heavenblessing Technique was something that only disciples of the devil sect were capable of knowing.

Lu Tianze paid no attention to the strange gazes from the surrounding people, and he couldn’t help but heave a sigh of relief in his heart when he saw that Chen Xi seemed to have the intention of stopping. Truthfully speaking, the pressure Chen Xi caused him to feel was truly too great, and it almost forced him to the point of collapse. If it wasn’t for this, he would absolutely not speak of such secrets in public.

After all, the Shang Clan was a Prestigious Clan from an Ancient Kingdom, and its forces were extremely formidable and far from something his Darxuan Dynasty could compare to. If it wasn’t for the sake of coercing Chen Xi with this, he wouldn’t dare do reveal this matter no matter how brave he was.

“If you let me off today, I can help you plead to Young Master Shang Kun to let your companions off. How about it?” When he saw Chen Xi keeping silent for a long time, Lu Tianze felt even more at ease, and he felt he’d slightly grasped the initiative.

Right at this moment, Chen Xi suddenly raised his head, and his handsome face was expressionless, indifferent, and icy cold. Moreover, his eyes were deep and seemed as if they could devour the souls of others.

As he looked at Chen Xi indifferent and expressionless face, Lu Tianze's heart jerked as a bad feeling arose in his heart.

"If they die, I'll bury the entire Shang Clan with them." A simple, direct, and flat line of words were lightly spat out from Chen Xi's mouth, yet it was like a piercingly cold whistling flow of air that caused everyone present to go cold as if they'd fallen into a pit of ice.

Even though his words were simple, the killing intent within these words shook the hearts of everyone.

"You... Have you gone mad!? That's the Shang Clan, a clan that possesses an extremely intimate connection with the great powers of the Dark Reverie. There's no lack of existences that are on friendly terms with the Shang Clan amongst the emissaries of the Dark Reverie that will arrive in Primeval City three months from now. Aren't you afraid of being directly annihilated and being unable to enter the Dark Reverie for your entire lifetime?" Lu Tianze's was shocked by Chen Xi's words to the point his scalp went numb, and then he couldn't help but howl loudly.

The hearts of the spectators trembled without end when they heard this as well. In the countless years since the Primeval Battlefield had been opened, there had never been a single disciple from an ordinary Dynasty that dared speak such ruthless and resolute words towards a Prestigious Clan of an Ancient Kingdom. This is simply madness!

Even Huangfu Changtian and Yu Xuanchen were shocked to the point their entire bodies shook. They expected that Chen Xi's resolution to save them would be extremely great, yet they never expected it would actually be so great!

"If we didn't betray him, then would Chen Xi save us like this if we encountered danger?" Both of them looked at each other before lowering their heads with dejection, and their minds droned with a mix of regret and hatred.

But comparatively speaking, Huangfu Changtian was in a slightly better state. Chen Xi had killed his younger brother, Huangfu Chongming, causing them to have irreconcilable enmity between each other, so he didn't have much hope that Chen Xi would assist him.

On the other hand, the nearby Fan Yunlan was extremely certain that Chen Xi would surely keep to his word, because he was the type of person that would surely do as he said, and it was precisely this behavior that was extremely foolish in the eyes of others that allowed him to obtain the support of so many friends.

Bang!

When faced with Lu Tianze's cries and the various gazes the spectators shot at him, Chen Xi seemed like an unconcerned party, and his expression remained unchanged. In the next moment, he'd already vanished on the spot and appeared before Lu Tianze, and then his sword flashed through the sky and slashed down.

Chapter 507: Shocking Everyone

Bang!

The sword qi was like the tide and carried a myriad of blazing streams like a raging silver river, and there were even the phenomena of the alternating between sun and moon and surging thunderstorms within it, causing its impetus to be shocking to the extreme.

Since Chen Xi cultivated the Myriad Convergence Sword Scripture to perfection and achieved the height of converging a myriad of variations into a single strike, every single sword strike of his wasn't constrained by certain moves or Dao Insight, and they were executed according to his will, yet every single move contained the traces of Grand Daos and was terrifying to the extreme.

For example, when he slashed out this sword strike at this moment, it possessed a resolute imposing aura of slashing apart the wind and waves as it pressed forward with indomitable will, and it was all powerful and possessed oppressive fierceness. It was like the heart of a sword cultivator, nothing couldn't stop it, nor could anything taint it, and it was translucent, bright, and resolute in slaughter!

This was the state of the 'Enlightened Sword Heart.'

There were a myriad of sword cultivators in the world, yet only one in a million was capable of attaining this state.

Lu Tianze felt suffocated when facing this exceedingly terrifying strike. He felt the blood in his entire body was on the verge of being frozen and shattered into pieces by this ghastly and chilly Sword Insight while great terror arose in his heart, and he felt a powerless feeling as if he was on the verge of death.

But it was exactly under the stimulation of death that his survival instinct aroused his potential, causing an expression of ruthlessness to flash within his eyes, and then he'd already soared into the sky while the Snowdragon Blade in his hand slashed out madly at the same time.

Swoosh! Swoosh! Swoosh!

The blade lights were like snow that sealed the sky in ice. Rumble! An enormous snow white Chiwen[1] charged out abruptly from within the blade lights. It was completely suffused with bright, clear, and chilly light, its eyes were crimson red, and it was proud and indifferent.

The Chiwen was a formidable divine beast of the ancient times that was supposedly the son of the ancestor of dragons. At this moment, the mighty aura of a dragon that looked down on the world flew out along with the blade light, and it caused the heavens and the earth to be cast into shadow.

All the spectators exclaimed with admiration in this heart. Lu Tianze lives up to being a 4th tempering Rebirth Realm expert as the combat strength he exploded out with while holding the Quasi Immortal Artifact, Snowdragon Blade, can't be underestimated.

Bang!

The snow white Chiwen that surged out explosively in midair instantly collided with the sword qi that struck right at it, and the scene that appeared after this was like the scene of an ox being skillfully sliced up by a butcher.

The sword qi that contained the traces of Grand Daos directly cut through the snow white Chiwen and sliced it apart before it dissipated.

“What!?” Everyone hadn’t even recovered from their previous shock when they saw this scene, causing them to be instantly shocked to the point their minds shook, and they almost forgot to breathe.

No matter what, Lu Tianze was the Crown Prince of the Darxuan Dynasty, an expert at the 4th tempering of the Rebirth Realm, so he was entirely capable of surmounting levels to do battle while having a Quasi Immortal Artifact in hand. Yet now, he was easily suppressed by Chen Xi!

This wisp of sword qi that Chen Xi executed was vast and gorgeous like a flowing river of stars, and it was beautiful to the point it caused one’s heart to tremble while its lethality was terrifying to the point it caused one’s scalp to go numb.

“How could this be?” Lu Tianze was unable to accept this, and he suddenly roared furiously as he waved his blade to attack once more.

For a time, the heavens and the earth in the surroundings were covered in snow as ice crystals fluttered about in the sky and condensed into a 3km long snow white Chiwen that roared proudly in the sky once more. The Chiwen was covered densely by dragon scales, its crimson eyes seemed to be burning, and its whiskers fluttered about as if it had really appeared once more in the world.

Subsequently, it directly attacked Chen Xi.

“Slash!” The distant Chen Xi shouted coldly and indifferently.

Under the combination of the Enlightened Sword Heart, the Skysorrow Sword exploded out once more. This time, the sword qi seemed like the plow of the heavens, and it plowed out a striking trail on the sky, and it simply seemed as if it was plowing the heavens.

Bang!

The unparalleled sword qi plowed the sky as it descended. Even though the snow white Chiwen was lifelike as if it was real and the blade qi even possessed monstrous might that sealed the heavens and earth in ice, before this sword strike with an aura that shot into the skies, it was directly plowed apart into two pieces before collapsing and shattering.

The spectators were bedazzled by this scene and remained speechless for a long time.

“Impossible! We’re both utilizing Quasi Immortal Artifacts and my cultivation is higher than yours by more than a level, yet how could I possibly be unable to defeat you?” Lu Tianze’s eyes were filled with disbelief, and then an insane and savage expression gushed up onto his face. “I don’t believe it! How can a little ant from an ordinary Dynasty like you be a match for me!?”

“Snow brambles, enclose the heavens and the earth!” He roared furiously and hysterically, and he exerted all his might to execute this strike.

For a time, the snow and blade light that covered the heavens transformed into bramble chains that covered the heavens and the earth before condensing into layer after layer of cages that locked down the surroundings before crushing down at Chen Xi.

But right at this moment, a pair of wings that emitted starlight suddenly appeared on the back of the distant Chen Xi, and then the wings flapped abruptly, causing Chen Xi to directly charge over like a strand of flowing light.

Swish!

Sword qi flew out both horizontally and vertically from the Skysorrow Sword in Chen Xi's hand as he flashed repeatedly in midair.

Chen Xi's current body refinement cultivation had already attained the Rebirth Realm, and he'd even cultivated a formidable technique like the Universe Starslayer Bodyforging Arts. So long as his Soul Core wasn't obliterated, he was capable of reconstructing his body with a single thought. Thus, not to mention Lu Tianze, Chen Xi even dared to go against an expert at the perfection-stage of the Rebirth Realm.

Bang! Bang! Bang!

All the snow brambles and cages that covered the heavens and the earth were shattered, and they were utterly incapable of obstructing Chen Xi's figure that charged forward.

"No!!" Lu Tianze was completely beaten to the point of being terrified, and he tried to dodge in horror.

But how could he escape before the Starsky Wings that were entirely capable of comparing to the technique of teleportation!?

Chen Xi's left hand directly stretched out like the hand of a Fiendgod and directly squeezed Lu Tianze's throat, causing his throat to emit coughing sounds, yet be utterly unable to speak.

Since the beginning of the battle until now, it had only been a short moment. But the dangers and terrors of the battle caused the hearts of all the spectators to surge up and down to the point they were unable to restrain their feelings. At this moment, as they looked at the tall figure that possessed an oppressive imposing aura like a Fiendgod, they couldn't refrain from arousing deep fear and terror in their hearts.

"This is the great figure you didn't hesitate to betray the Darchu Dynasty for?" Chen Xi held Lu Tianze by the throat as he turned around and looked coldly at Huangfu Changtian and Yu Xuanchen.

His voice was calm yet when it entered into the ears of Huangfu Changtian and Yu Xuanchen, it wasn't inferior to a thunderclap, and it shook them to the point their lips trembled and they were scared out of their wits.

Earlier, Lu Tianze was absolutely an existence that they could only look up to and play up to in their opinion, and they didn't hesitate to betray the Darchu Dynasty and cruelly kill their companions for the sake of obtaining Lu Tianze's acknowledgment and join Lu Tianze's forces. However, now, when they saw Lu Tianze being held in Chen Xi's hand like a dead dog, the depression and hatred in their hearts had already reached its limit.

At this moment, both of them were utterly in despair.

Being held by the neck by Chen Xi like a little chick in front of everyone caused Lu Tianze to have an expression of being overwhelmed by shame and resentment, and he was suffocated to the point his face was completely red and he almost spat blood.

He struggled violently, yet even though Chen Xi's left hand seemed ordinary, it contained a strength capable of tearing a mountain apart, causing Lu Tianze to be utterly incapable of struggling free of it, and he seemed like a helpless wooden puppet that was pitiable and in a sorry state instead.

"No! No!" Lu Tianze's eyes were red. Such humiliation was simply more painful than being slapped in public, and it caused this Crown Prince of a first-rate Dynasty to feel unprecedented shame.

But compared to this shame, the terror from being on the verge of death drowned his heart and mind. He was truly terrified of Chen Xi, and Chen Xi was simply like a cold and emotionless devil in his heart.

"Don't kill me. I can give you anything that you want, and all I ask is that you spare me. I swear to the heavens that I won't seek revenge on you ever again!" When he thought of how he hadn't even seen how the Dark Reverie looked, yet was about to die at Chen Xi's hand, Lu Tianze instantly seemed as if he'd gone mad, and he roared and cried out loudly.

"Do you think that you're capable of giving me what I want?" A trace of dense ridicule suffused the corners of Chen Xi's mouth, and he exerted force with his left hand as he spoke.

Crack!

At the same time that he broke Lu Tianze's neck, energy stretched out from his palm to completely annihilate Lu Tianze's Soul Core, causing him to be completely annihilated.

Bang!

Lu Tianze's corpse fell to the ground, causing blood and flesh to spray out as it became mutilated from the fall, and it jolted awake Huangfu Changtian and Yu Xuanchen who were in great terror.

"Chen Xi, I was wrong. I beg you, please forgive me. I utterly didn't think of killing the member of our Darchu Dynasty after joining the Darxuan Dynasty, and it was they who forced me to do this." Yu Xuanchen shivered as he pleaded with a miserable voice.

Huangfu Changtian forcefully refrained himself from begging for mercy despite feeling extreme terror, and he gritted his teeth as he said, "Chen Xi, kill me if you want. But you have to think it through clearly. Once my father finds out about this matter, your Chen Clan will surely be completely destroyed. At that time, even if you enter the Dark Reverie, you'd have lost your loved ones forever. Do you want to see such an outcome happen?!"

Bang! Bang!

Two muffled bangs resounded out at practically the exact same moment, and Huangfu Changtian and Yu Xuanchen's heads were smashed apart like watermelons before their corpses crashed to the ground.

It wasn't Chen Xi that did it but Fan Yunlan. After she killed the two of them, she arrived by Chen Xi's side and explained. "I'm truly sick of their faces. You wouldn't blame me, right?"

Chen Xi shook his head and said, “They deserved death. I wouldn’t have made things difficult for them like this if they only betrayed the Darchu Dynasty, but they helped outsiders bully our companions, and it was too despicable. So their death is nothing to be regretted.”

“I was worried you wouldn’t be able to do it.” Fan Yunlan smiled lightly at the side.

Chen Xi smiled, and then he swept his gaze towards the people in the surroundings.

Even though he didn’t speak a word, yet the icy coldness in his gaze terrified everyone to the point they didn’t dare continue staying here, and they dispersed towards the surroundings. If they still didn’t leave, then it would be too unfortunate if this fellow, Chen Xi, that killed without batting an eyelid, were to take them as companions of Lu Tianze.

“Since Lu Tianze is dead, there’s no one controlling this northeast area of Primeval City. Let’s go. We’ll head to the territory of the Dartang Dynasty to call over the members of our Darchu Dynasty, and we entirely don’t have to stay beneath the roof of another and act according to the will of another.” Chen Xi withdrew his gaze and grabbed Fan Yunlan’s hand before flashing towards the distance.

Her hand being grabbed by Chen Xi caused Fan Yunlan’s body to stiffen, and then a wisp of indescribable happiness gushed out abruptly from her heart. She held a smile on her face that radiated beauty, and she followed obediently by Chen Xi’s side with while feeling delighted in her heart.

On this day, Primeval City fell into an uproar.

“Five experts of the Darchu Dynasty successively ascended the top 20 of the Warsoul Tablet, and Chen Xi even ascended the first ranking to look down upon all experts!”

“The forces that occupied the northeast area of the city were completely annihilated. All the experts of the Darxuan, Darqin, Darjin, and Darqian Dynasties were annihilated, and they completely lost all candidates to enter the Dark Reverie, whereas only a single person caused all this — Chen Xi!

“Chen Xi...”

“Chen Xi...”

The numerous major incidents that happened today and shocked the hearts of all were related to a single name, Chen Xi!

This name seemed to possess strange magic and was known by all the cultivators in the city overnight, and it became the hottest topic of discussion in the city that everyone took delight in talking about.

Chapter 508: Losing His Composure Repeatedly

In the vast hall at the northwest area.

Just like before, Shang Kun sat cross-legged by himself on the throne at the center of the hall. The hall was empty and grand like a Daoist hall where the gods of ancient times gathered, and it emitted a solemn aura from every corner.

As he sat cross-legged there by himself, Shang Kun frequently had the feeling of looking down upon all things, as if he'd transformed into a god that controlled the entire heavens and the earth.

He liked and enjoyed this feeling of controlling everything.

Control was sometimes even more terrifying than destruction. Because if one could control the rise and fall of the world, the life and death of all beings, and the alternation between all things, then would there be anything in this world that one was unable to accomplish?

If you were willed to live, then even the god of death couldn't take you away.

If you were willed to die, then no one in the universe could save you.

This was control, the final objective that Shang Kun pursued since he was young.

Moreover, he knew that he would only be able to attain his goal by entering the Dark Reverie and becoming a Heavenly Immortal or an even higher existence. So even if he enjoyed the supreme feeling created by this hall, he didn't indulge or become drowned in this feeling.

Conversely, Shang Kun was an extremely calm person, and he was like this since a young age.

When he was very young, the elders in the clan had praised him. An ignorant child, yet he possesses a heart that wouldn't change even if a mountain collapsed before him, he's almost perfect.

Someone that was perfect was a flawless existence, and it was obvious how high this evaluation was.

Shang Kun really lived up to their expectations. He was extremely outstanding since a young age, and not only did he possess dazzling natural talent, his mind was calm like snow and shockingly strategic. This was the reason why he was able to become the leading figure in the younger generation of the Shang Clan.

Feng Jianbai, how will you go against me after I cultivate the Chaotic Devilbody successfully? Just you wait, the first ranking is bound to belong to me... Shang Kun muttered, and then he took a deep breath as he got rid of the distracting thoughts in his mind. After that, he withdrew a jade slip and once again started looking through it carefully.

This jade slip recorded everything related to Chen Xi, his origins, identity, cultivation... Even all the incidents related to him were recorded in order within the jade slip.

It was precisely this extremely detailed piece of information that caused Shang Kun to not dare look down upon Chen Xi since the beginning. Conversely, after he knew everything about Chen Xi, he even felt slight admiration towards this fellow in his heart.

A jinx from an impoverished little clan that belonged to no sect was instead capable of carrying out such shocking and major events. Moreover, he was safe and sound until now, causing it to simply be like a miracle.

Shang Kun felt that if he was Chen Xi, it would probably be impossible for him to do any better.

Firm and tenacious disposition, resolute in slaughter. His cultivation looks to be ordinary, yet his combat strength is shocking to the extreme. Moreover, he keeps a low profile and conceals his strength without revealing it. Up until now, no one had found out exactly how many trump cards he has... Shang Kun's slender palm rubbed his chin as his azure blue eyes were suffused with an icy cold sheen, and he seemed to be lost in thought. Unless one knew him through and through, it's indeed easy to overlook a person like him.

When he thought up to here, Shang Kun took a deep breath and forcefully suppressed the ripples in his heart as he shook his head.

Actually, a trace of restlessness had appeared in his heart since he found out that Chen Xi had entered Primeval City, and he urgently wanted to abandon all reason and go annihilate Chen Xi before using Qing Xiuyi and Zhen Liuqing to cultivate the Maiden Heavenblessing Technique so that he could surpass Feng Jianbai and attain the 1st rank on the Martial Emperor's Warsoul Tablet.

But the calmness he developed for many years allowed him to endure in the end. He knew that when facing an opponent like Chen Xi, the slightest bit of impulse might disturb his plans and cause everything to come to naught.

Stomp! Stomp! Stomp!

A wave of footsteps resounded out from outside the hall, causing Shang Kun to come back to his senses and once again recover his extremely calm appearance.

"Young Master, things aren't going well!" The person that arrived was Shang Ping, and he took a deep breath to forcefully restrain the shock in his heart before cupping his fist. He knew that he absolutely couldn't be in a confused mess before the Young Master, otherwise he would surely suffer the detest and aversion of the Young Master.

"Speak." Shang Kun spoke casually with a calm and confident bearing.

"The scouts reported earlier that Chen Xi and the other four members of the Darchu Dynasty have all ranked into the top 20 of the Warsoul Tablet!" Even though Shang Ping tried his best to make himself stay calm, his voice still trembled slightly. Obviously, the shock this matter brought him was extremely great.

"Oh?" Shang Kun was stunned, and then he suddenly smiled. "The Darchu Dynasty's karmic luck is really strong. Did you come looking for me for this small matter?"

"Young Master, this isn't the main point." Shang Ping turned anxious instead when he saw this, and then he said swiftly, "Chen Xi who you asked us to pay special attention to, he... He..."

Shang Kun frowned and said with displeasure, "Speak frankly!"

A trace of a bad feeling had faintly arisen in his heart. He knew Shang Ping extremely well, and unless Shang Ping had encountered something that shocked him extremely, otherwise, Shang Ping would absolutely not lose his composure like this.

"Chen Xi is ranked the 1st!" Shang Ping couldn't endure the shock in his heart any longer, and he spoke out in a hoarse voice. As soon as he finished speaking, he seemed as if the strength in his entire body had been extracted completely, and he was gasping for breath.

“The first?” Shang Kun was stunned, and then he went silent for a long time before he said with slight disbelief, “It’s...the first on the Warsoul Tablet?”

Actually, he’d already determined from Shang Ping’s expression that it was pretty close, but this matter was too shocking. So when he’d just heard it, it shocked him to the point he almost lost his mind, and even the calmness he was proud of had almost collapsed.

Shang Ping nodded as his expression changed indeterminately, and a wisp of shock that couldn’t be eliminated still rose in his heart when he recalled the scene from before.

“So in other words, Chen Xi has only just stepped foot into Primeval City, yet has pushed Feng Jianbai down from the 1st position?” Shang Kun muttered to himself. He entire didn’t notice that his voice similarly carried a trace of shock and a slight sense of loss, and he lost his calm from before.

Defeating Feng Jianbai on the Warsoul Tablet had always been Shang Kun’s objective, and for the sake of attaining this objective, he didn’t hesitate to capture Qing Xiuyi and Zhen Liuqing with the intention of cultivating the Chaotic Devilbody and competing with Feng Jianbai.

It was precisely for the sake of this objective that he’d specially paid attention to Chen Xi with the hope of obtaining a complete grasp of Chen Xi’s abilities before eliminating Chen Xi so that he would be able to complete the final step of cultivating the Chaotic Devilbody.

However, presently, this objective was completed before him by a young man that he intended to kill. This sort of intense shock was like a tempestuous storm that fiercely charged at Shang Kun’s mind and caused him to be unable to return to calm for a long time.

The atmosphere in the hall instantly became depressed and oppressive.

Shang Ping looked carefully at his clan’s Young Master as he sighed with emotion in his heart. Even a figure like the Young Master has been shocked to the point he almost lost his calm, Chen Xi...can feel proud of himself!

“I truly never imagined that I’ve still underestimated him.” Shang Kun laughed with self-ridicule before taking a deep breath and forcefully suppressing the restlessness in his heart, and then his gaze had already become extremely calm as he asked. “Chen Xi has so many enemies. Since he made an appearance before the Warsoul Tablet, didn’t he cause a battle?”

“No.” Shang Ping shook his head and said with a complicated expression, “After Chen Xi obtained the first, it drew the Darkhan Dynasty and Xue Clan to try and rope him in. Perhaps his enemies were afraid of this and hesitated to make a move against him.”

“The Darkhan Dynasty and Xue Clan?” Shang Kun’s eyes narrowed slightly, and his voice carried a trace of seriousness. “Did he agree?”

“No.” Shang Ping shook his head once more.

However, before Shang Kun could heave a sigh of relief, Shang Ping continued. “Even though the Darkhan Dynasty and Xue Clan didn’t succeed, Chen Xi’s group left with the Dartang Dynasty’s Ling Ze. It’s not difficult to conceive that they’ll surely join the forces of the Dartang Dynasty.”

“How troublesome.” Shang Kun sighed lightly, yet his expression didn’t reveal much seriousness. Even though the situation had exceeded his expectations, he was confident he was still able to control everything.

Shang Ping heaved a sigh of relief in his heart when he saw the Young Master was able to keep his composure. Truthfully speaking, when facing an enemy like Chen Xi, he wasn’t willing to offend Chen Xi unless he had no other choice.

“Young Master, things aren’t going well!” Right at this moment, an anxious voice sounded out abruptly from outside the hall, and the voice was heavy while revealing a trace of panic.

After that, Shang Que charged into the hall like a gust of wind, and even if he’d worked hard to calm down his feelings, the panic in his expression was unable to be hidden no matter what.

“Bastard! What the fuck are you shouting for!?” Shang Kun couldn’t help but shout out coldly. After he heard Chen Xi had obtained the first on the Warsoul Tablet, he’d forcefully suppressed the restless feelings in his heart. At this moment, when he saw Shang Que who he relied on as his right hand man actually lose composure like this, Shang Kun couldn’t help but become furious.

Shang Que’s figure shook, and he finally recovered slight clarity before cupping his fists and said bitterly, “Young Master, it’s truly not going well. Chen Xi actually annihilated over 10 experts of the Darxuan, Darqin, Darjin, and Darqian Dynasties by himself, and he took control of the northeast area of Primeval City!”

“What?!” Shang Kun’s expression instantly went grim when he heard this, and a tempestuous storm arose in his heart. He was unable to maintain his calm any longer, and he muttered. “Why is it like this? Is this fellow’s strength really so formidable?”

The nearby Shang Ping was shocked to the point he felt suffocated as well. Annihilating all the experts of four first-rate Dynasties by himself. Is... Is this something a disciple of an ordinary Dynasty is capable of accomplishing!?

“Young Master, this matter is absolutely true. Numerous cultivators witnessed this scene with their own two eyes. Moreover...” Shang Que hesitated to continue, and his expression changed indeterminately.

“Moreover what? Speak up!” Shang Kun was furious. What’s wrong with my subordinates today? All of them seem as if their throats are being choked and losing composure repeatedly. They’re really only good for show!

“Moreover, Chen Xi said that if Young Master dares to use those two young women to cultivate, then he’ll annihilate our entire Shang Clan without leaving a single soul alive...” Shang Que gritted his teeth and spoke of this matter.

Bang! Shang Kun struck his palm on the ground, causing the rock to shatter apart and an enormous and deep hole to be blasted open, whereas his expression was already completely livid while his crimson red hair fluttered, causing him to seem like a furious god.

“He actually dared to threaten me... He actually dared to threaten me...” Amidst his muttering, Shang Kun suddenly turned around and walked out of the hall with large strides. He’d already decided that he would use Qing Xiuyi and Zhen Liuqing to cultivate his devil technique right away, and even if an extremely great risk existed, he wouldn't hesitate!

Talisman Emperor

Chapter 509: Breaking and Entering

This place was a completely dark stone room that was gloomy and damp, and the air emitted a pungent moldy stench.

If she was at her usual state, Zhen Liuqing would be able to easily break open this stone room and escape. However, she was unable to achieve this now, and it was even to the extent she didn't even have the strength to stand up.

She was poisoned.

This poison was both colorless and odorless, yet was capable of sealing one's cultivation and soul, and it was called the Devildew Immortal Intoxication Powder. Even an Immortal could be intoxicated by it, causing how formidable this poison was to be obvious.

But even though it was called a poison, the Devildew Immortal Intoxication Powder wasn't poisonous, and it only sealed the cultivation and soul, causing one to temporarily lose the ability to fight.

"Do you think someone will come rescue us?" Zhen Liuqing had her back towards the icy cold wall as she turned around to look at Qing Xiuyi at the side.

Within the gloomy stone room, Qing Xiuyi's peerlessly beautiful face was hidden by the shadows. She sat cross-legged on the ground while maintaining a ramrod straight posture, and even though she was in this simple and damp environment, she still emitted a solitary bearing as if she stood aloof from the world.

She didn't reply to Zhen Liuqing, or perhaps, since the moment she found out she'd been poisoned and was locked up in this stone room, she hadn't spoken a single word and seemed as if she'd resigned herself to her fate.

But Zhen Liuqing knew that this proud woman that was a reincarnated Heavenly Immortal hadn't resigned herself to her fate, and it was even to the extent that she didn't even have feelings of dejection, resentment, or anger.

She just sat upright there calmly while making the best use of every minute to try her best to cure the poison. This sort of persistence looked to be useless, and any other person would probably have given up since long ago. But Qing Xiuyi had persisted all along until now, and she'd never given up.

"I have a strong premonition that an unforeseen event is about to occur to you very soon. Perhaps it will be today, or perhaps tomorrow." Zhen Liuqing muttered to herself, and her plain and graceful face was actually suffused with a trace of disappointment and a sense of loss.

"Are you sure?" Qing Xiuyi who'd never spoken all along had actually spoke out abruptly at this moment. Obviously, she wasn't as indifferent to her situation as she seemed on the outside.

"Very." Zhen Liuqing was stunned, and she said with rather confident tone, "Don't forget that I'm from the Mistwater Pavilion, and what I'm most adept in isn't battle, but stellar divination techniques."

Qing Xiuyi fell once more into silence.

Zhen Liuqing smiled and jested. "Do you think Chen Xi will cry if we die?"

"Guessing that is silly." There was finally a trace of fluctuation in Qing Xiuyi's feelings when the words Chen Xi were mentioned, and her voice carried a trace of disdain. She seemed to be very sure that Chen Xi would absolutely not feel sorrow and shed tears for her death.

"I think it isn't bad. At least, it can prove if he cares about us, and whether he cares more about you or me." Zhen Liuqing chuckled.

"You want to use your death to verify that?" asked Qing Xiuyi.

"Then do you think there's a possibility for us to escape now?" Zhen Liuqing replied with a question.

Qing Xiuyi's beautiful brows knit together as she pondered seriously for a short moment and replied.

"Yes!"

"Yes?" Zhen Liuqing was stunned.

"Do you know of Tai Chi?" Qing Xiuyi didn't reply to her with certainty but spoke of another thing.

"Of course, the Grand Dao of Tai Chi is a type of extremely rare Grand Dao profundity. Unfortunately, it's said that no one has been capable of comprehending this Grand Dao for a long time." Zhen Liuqing replied without thinking.

"Good. Do according to what I say later, and we might be able to succeed." Qing Xiuyi's eyes were suddenly suffused with a wisp of a brilliant sheen, and it seemed like bolts of lightning flew out of his eyes, causing her to seem extraordinarily shocking within this gloomy stone room.

"What should I do?" Zhen Liuqing instantly became excited when she heard this. Would anyone be willing to wait for death if they could live?

Young Master Zhou stood proudly on the wall of the northeast gate of Primeval City while full of satisfaction and spirit.

Just not long ago, he could only stay in the territory of the Dartang Dynasty. Yet now, he possessed a territory of his own instead. So how could it not cause him to be delighted?

After all, this was a piece of territory in Primeval City, and besides those top Dynasties and Prestigious Clans, which ordinary Dynasty was capable of this?

When he recalled the brilliant expression that gushed onto Ling Ze's face when he heard Chen Xi had taken over the northeast area by himself, Young Master Zhou couldn't help but laugh happily.

Yeah, who would have imagined that Chen Xi would be able to achieve this? This fellow really knows how to ceaselessly create miracles and pleasant surprises!

On the other side, Zhao Qinghe had a happy mood as well. The deaths of the traitors, Huangfu Changtian and Yu Xuanchen, caused him to finally be able to vent his hatred, and he felt that he was finally able to face the deceased Lu Xiao.

“Be careful. Chen Xi isn’t here now, and he asked us to guard the entire northeast area. Don’t let other seize this opportunity where he isn’t around to seize this area from us.” Huangfu Qingying reminded them from the side.

It wasn’t just Young Master Zhou and Zhao Qinghe, even Ling Yu and Fan Yunlan’s heart went cold and they didn’t dare dally when they heard this.

Primeval City was also called the city of eight directions, and it was divided by eight pathways that led to the outside world.

Every single area divided by the pathways was controlled by a power. Moreover, it wasn’t merely for the sake of forcefully collecting treasures from the cultivators that entered the city, nor was it merely for the sake of taking this place as their territory to draw in the forces of various other Dynasties into their ranks. There was an even more important reason.

Supposedly, for the sake of resisting their enemies during the ancient times, the gods had once divided Primeval City into eight areas and buried numerous magic treasures that possessed monstrous might, and every single magic treasure was stronger than a true Immortal Artifact.

Moreover, every time the final test of the Primeval Battlefield arrived, one of such treasures would emerge in every one of these eight areas, whereas one who was able to obtain these treasures would surely be the one that controlled the area.

As for exactly why it would be like this, there was rarely anyone who knew.

But after another three months, the emissaries of the Dark Reverie would arrive at Primeval City, and at that time the answer would be revealed.

All in all, occupying an area of Primeval City beforehand was absolutely beneficial.

“Right, where did Chen Xi say he’s going?” Young Master Zhou asked abruptly.

Everyone else was stunned. Right, where did Chen Xi go?

“It ought to be related to Qing Xiuyi and Zhen Liuqing.” Fan Yunlan pondered for a long time before she said in a light voice, “He has probably headed to the northwest area, the territory of the Shang Clan, to acquire information.”

“That bastard! That’s the territory of a Prestigious Clan from an Ancient Kingdom, yet he headed over alone just like that. Isn’t he too rash? At least...he ought to have brought us along!” Young Master Zhou grumbled.

“If all of us go over, then who’ll look after this territory of ours?” Fan Yunlan was rather composed instead, and she said, “Don’t worry. Since Chen Xi dared to go over alone, he surely has sufficient confidence. Not to mention, have you ever seen him fail?”

Everyone knew that what Fan Yunlan said was correct, yet being unable to assist Chen Xi still caused them to feel slightly regretful.

“Alright, there’s no point in speaking any further. Guarding this territory properly is the best assistance you can give Chen Xi,” said Huangfu Qingying.

Chen Xi concealed himself in the shadows of a distant corner as he looked at the vast and magnificent building that seemed like a place, and he muttered to himself. This is the base camp of the Shang Clan. I wonder where Miss Qing and Miss Zhen are being kept...?

Om!

In the next moment, his powerful Divine Sense stretched out via the Rippling Echo technique, and it was like wave after wave of ripples that swept towards the vast building.

Since he advanced into the Rebirth Realm, Chen Xi’s Divine Sense had broken through once more, and it was only a step away from being able to compare with Earthly Immortal Realm experts. Moreover, even ordinary Nether Transformation Realm experts had Divine Senses that were inferior to him.

In next to no time, his Divine Sense had locked onto two targets.

Shang Que and Shang Ping.

The two of them were chatting in the hall, and they entirely didn’t notice that every single word they spoke was captured clearly by Chen Xi.

“It’s the first time I’m seeing the Young Master turning furious, it was truly too terrifying.” Shang Ping spoke with a lingering fear in his heart. “But on the other hand, Chen Xi is really formidable to be able to provoke the Young Master to such an extent.”

“He isn’t just formidable. You haven’t seen how he kills, and his combat strength is something that even I’m extremely afraid of. I wonder how that fellow cultivated to become so formidable?” Shang Qiu sighed.

“Formidable? So what!? He actually dared talk big and threaten the Young Master. Now the Young Master has gone to directly take revenge on those two little girls. If Chen Xi finds out, he’d probably regret speaking such words.” Shang Ping laughed. He didn’t witness the scene of Chen Xi slaughtering Lu Tianze, so he was naturally unable to understand Shang Que’s feelings.

“Regret, huh...” Shang Que muttered, and then he sighed once more. “It’s extremely risky for the Young Master to use those two young women to cultivate at this moment. If he fails, those two cultivation vessels will probably die right away and be unable to be reused.”

“How could the Young Master possibly fail with his natural talent?” Shang Ping disapproved. “I on the other hand, anticipate exactly what sort of end those two young women will face after their cultivations are completely sucked dry by the Young Master. Will they die directly, or will their blood flow in the opposite direction, cause their internal organs to be incinerated and directly become disabled?”

“It isn’t so exaggerated. The Maiden Heavenblessing Technique only refines their cultivations and absorbs it for the cultivator’s own benefit. After they lose their cultivations, they would directly die at most and won’t suffer any pain. It’s even to the extent that if they’re treated in time, their lives can still be saved.” Shang Qiu shook his head.

“Oh?” Shang Ping’s eyes spun as he laughed slyly. “Big Brother Shang Que, if I request the Young Master to agree to give those two little girls to me after he finishes cultivating with them and allows me to properly have some fun with them, wouldn’t it be very delightful? Those are Chen Xi’s women, and just thinking about it causes me to be excited.”

Shang Que was stunned and was just about to say something when his expression suddenly went grim.

Swoosh!

He soared up into the sky while roaring at the same time. “Who is it that’s sneaking around!? Get the fuck out!” His voice was like a thunderclap that was filled with killing intent.

Bang!

The reply to his question was an enormous bang as the vast and hard door of the building seemed to have suffered a swift and explosive strike, causing it to instantly be crushed into powder. Moreover, the two disciples that guarded by the door didn’t even have the chance to let out shrill cries before being crushed to their deaths.

Amidst the dust and smoke that suffused the air, a tall figure swiftly flashed out with a monstrous imposing aura that was like the aura of a Fiendgod.

Talisman Emperor

Chapter 510: Assaulting The Shang Clan Alone

The content of the conversation between Shang Que and Shang Ping was like a thunderclap that struck him, shaking Chen Xi to the point his mind was in chaos.

He entirely never imagined that Shang Kun had already started laying his murderous hands on Qing Xiuyi and Zhen Liuqing, and once Shang Kun was allowed to succeed, both of them might even perish!

No matter how complicated his feelings towards Qing Xiuyi were, she was the mother of Chen An in the end. If she were to die, how would he face Chen An in the future?

Moreover, he cared extremely about Zhen Liuqing as well. This plain and graceful woman had once helped him greatly in the Darchu Dynasty, and she’d even revealed her feelings towards him on many occasions. These feelings were so heavy, and he was similarly unable to overlook it.

At this moment, both of them had fallen into peril, and the blow it struck on Chen Xi was obviously enormous.

It was precisely under these circumstances of his mind shaking intense that caused a trace of fluctuation to appear in his Divine Sense, allowing Shang Que to notice it.

But Chen Xi couldn't care about all of this anymore. He was already provoked to the point his flames of rage blazed like a furious ferocious beast, and he directly blasted the Shang Clan's palace door apart before charging in.

He wanted to rescue Qing Xiuyi and Zhen Liuqing, and no matter who it was, they would be unable to obstruct his footsteps!

If... If both of them are really unfortunate and perish... Then I'll annihilate the Shang Clan and make them all be buried along with the two of them!

At this moment, Chen Xi was already furious until the limit. Yet it just so happened that besides surging and blazing flames of rage, there was a trace of indifference, emotionless indifference, in his eyes.

Chen Xi, who'd survived from countless slaughters and battles, didn't just possess terrifying combat techniques now, he also possessed an extremely tenacious will to fight.

His indifference and rage were unable to affect the level of combat strength he was capable of exerting, and it instead stimulated the killing intent in his chest to go mad while his fighting spirit rose steadily!

Swoosh! Swoosh! Swoosh!

Numerous figures flashed out from all over the vast building of the Shang Clan's, and they converged towards Shang Que, who was in midair.

As the most mysterious Prestigious Clan, an entire 50 disciples of the Shang Clan had entered the Primeval Battlefield this time, and it far surpassed the other Dynasties and was even a little more than the amount of people from the other three top Dynasties.

Moreover, all these Shang Clan disciples possessed formidable strengths, and all of their cultivations were at least at the 3rd tempering of the Rebirth Realm, causing their strength to be horrifyingly strong.

It was precisely because they possessed such strength and reserves that the Shang Clan was able to occupy an area of Primeval City and the northwest city gate to become an overlord.

Only the three top Dynasties, the Xue Clan, and the Feng Clan were able to compare with the Shang Clan.

"Who is it?!"

"Which bastard is looking for trouble?"

"He actually dares come behave atrociously in my Shang Clan's territory. He must be annihilated, otherwise, how would my Shang Clan continue standing in Primeval City?"

Meanwhile, after they heard Shang Que's explosive shout, these disciples of the Shang Clan instantly rushed over from all over, and all of them had murderous looks on their faces while their eyes emitted cold lights.

As the disciples of a Prestigious Clan, they'd never imagined that there would actually be someone that dared trespass into their base camp and put on a display of might? He's simply tired of living!

“Shut up! All of you must be careful when you make a move later and go all out!” Shang Que glanced at the people by his side, and his brows couldn’t help but knit together tightly as he looked at the tall figure that charged over from afar.

Everyone was stunned and felt slight disbelief. At this moment, they’d already noticed the distant Chen Xi, and it was extremely difficult for them to understand why Shang Que’s tone was so serious when only dealing with a single person.

“He’s Chen Xi, the 1st ranked on the Martial Emperor’s Warsoul Tablet. Just moments ago, he alone annihilated the power that controlled the northeast gate... Even though our Shang Clan isn’t afraid of him, yet it’s best to be slightly careful when fighting him.” When he saw the indifference of his companions, the nearby Shang Ping couldn’t help but frown, and he swiftly warned. “Presently, the Young Master is in closed door cultivation and is unable to get away. So we can only rely on our own strength to annihilate him. Everyone ought to understand how serious the situation is, right?”

The hearts of everyone went cold, and their expressions became serious along with this.

“He’s coming! Prepare for battle!” Shang Que spoke out abruptly.

“Tell me where Shang Kun is, otherwise I’ll show no mercy!” Chen Xi’s figure that was straight like a spear stopped abruptly, and he emitted a fierce and oppressive imposing aura that caused him to seem like a Fiendgod as his icy cold gaze swept the distant crowd of people while he spoke with a resolute voice the reverberated into the surroundings.

“You’re courting death!” A Shang Clan disciple exploded with rage when he saw Chen Xi was so arrogant, and he flashed out towards Chen Xi while holding a spear that flowed with green lights.

Hiss! Hiss!

A spear image flashed through the sky as a green brilliance erupted, and it was like a myriad of verdant flowers blooming violently while covering the heavens and the earth. The fierce, swift, and terrifying force of the spear pierced the sky into pieces, causing sonic booms and hissing sounds to resound out.

This was a Rebirth Realm cultivator at the 3rd tempering. He wasn’t conspicuous in the crowd, yet the force he exploded out with was rather shocking, and it obviously showed how deep the hidden resources and reserves of the Shang Clan was.

Bang!

However, when facing this terrifying strike, Chen Xi only raised his hand and punched out. A force that was powerful like a mountain, sea, tide, sun, and moon crashed down from midair, and it seemed like the heavens and the earth had collapsed while the sun and moon were falling together.

Grand Obliteration Fist — Chaotic Obliteration!

Chen Xi had cultivated this fist technique that possessed an extraordinarily great might to an extremely skilled and proficient level long ago when he was in the Primitive Sea, and he’d slaughtered countless formidable sea demons with it. At this moment, the might of his fist shot into the sky when he executed it, and it directly shattered and obliterated the myriad of spear images that were like green flowers.

Pu!

The Shang Clan disciple that charged over was directly minced apart by the force contained within this terrifying punch, and he didn't even have the chance to let out a shrill cry before transforming into an expanse of bloody rain that sprayed down from the skies.

The pupils of all the Shang Clan disciples constricted when they saw this scene, and they were extremely shocked. He annihilated a companion of ours with a single strike?

"Form the formation! We'll make a move together!" Shang Que let out a sharp and explosive shout.

In the next moment, the 40 plus Shang Clan disciples moved out in unison. Their True Essence rumbled as divine wheels illuminated the sky, and they formed a grand formation before blasting down upon Chen Xi.

On the other hand, Shang Que and Shang Ping had retreated far away instead, and they controlled the entire situation.

As far as they were concerned, since they'd deployed so many people from their side, all of them possessed cultivations that were more than a level higher than Chen Xi, and they'd even formed a grand formation, no matter how formidable Chen Xi was, he would surely die on the spot.

Rumble!

The grand formation formed from numerous Shang Clan disciples emitted a dazzling divine glow as it charged straight forward and shook the sky. It was like a dazzling and resplendent sun that was rising gradually here, shocking all the cultivators in the entire Primeval City and causing all of them to look over successively.

"What a terrifying might. Who's that battling over there?"

"Look, quickly! The battle actually occurred in the base camp of the Shang Clan. Could it be that the top powers have started fighting with each other?"

"Wait, the final test of the Primeval Battlefield hasn't begun. None of them would be stupid enough to start an all out battle now! This ought to be a small scale battle for revenge."

"Let's go! Wouldn't we know after going to take a look?"

At this moment, Primeval City was stirred as the numerous cultivators rushed over here in unison. A battle had actually broken out in the base camp of the Shang Clan, and it was such a great scene, so they couldn't help but be curious.

In next to no time, they noticed that it wasn't a power that was in battle with the Shang Clan, and it was merely a single person!

Most of the people were stunned when they saw this scene. A single person going against the power of a Prestigious Clan? Isn't this too ferocious?

"My god! It's Chen Xi again!"

“What? It’s him again? This fellow attained the first on the Warsoul Tablet right after he entered the city today, and then he slaughtered the four first-rate Dynasties that controlled the northeast area. Now, he has come to battle the Shang Clan, it’s simply... It’s simply indescribable!”

“Such a maleficent existence has actually appeared in the Darchu Dynasty, I wonder if it’s a blessing or a curse?”

When they recognized that the person in battle with the Shang Clan was Chen Xi, the cultivators that rushed over from all over were in an uproar, and their expressions were filled with disbelief.

But in next to no time, they were drawn by the battle in the distance.

At this moment, Chen Xi had transformed into an over 60m tall giant with three heads and six arms, and a vertical eye was completely open between his brows while countless dazzling and resplendent thunderstorm vortexes coiled around him. When looked at from afar, he looked like a god of thunderstorms that emitted a terrifying aura that intended to obliterate the heavens and the earth.

Every single punch he struck out carried the rumbling of thunder while violent thunderstorm vortexes swept through the heavens and the earth. Any martial technique, magic treasure, and Divine Ability was instantly crushed and devoured before him, causing him to reveal peerless divine might and ferocity.

His figure was tall like a mountain, yet utterly didn’t affect his speed. Under the combination of the Starsky Wings, his figure simply seemed like a thunderstorm that moved indeterminately, and he rampaged about swiftly like a ghost.

Due to the fact that he possessed the Eye of Divine Truth, he was able to instantly see through the various flaws of his enemies before carrying out an attack. Thus, even though the grand formation formed by the numerous Shang Clan disciples was terrifying, it was unable to injure him after a long time, and it was instead shaken by his thunderstorm vortexes to the point it was almost unable to support itself any longer, causing everyone to be shocked.

After all, this was a grand formation formed from over 40 Rebirth Realm experts, and every single one of them possessed cultivations that were more than a level higher than Chen Xi. However, at this moment, they were actually almost unable to resist Chen Xi’s attacks, so how could it not shock everyone?

Bang!

An enormous bang that shook the heavens and the earth resounded out as an extremely blazing chaotic flow of light exploded out from the battlefield and swept towards the surroundings. The palace, rocks, plants, everything was crushed and instantly evaporated while countless enormous cracks were blasted open on the ground like spiderwebs, causing dust and smoke to suffuse the air and obstruct the sight of everyone.

In the next moment, a wave of shrill cries resounded out as a few tens of figures were blasted flying while blood sprayed from their mouths, and they were in extremely sorry states. Obviously, they’d suffered heavy injuries.

The scene was extremely magnificent. Rebirth Realm experts were being blasted to the ground one by one while emitting shrill cries successively, causing the hearts of the distant spectators to shake greatly, and their jaws were almost shocked off.

“Tell me where Shang Kun is!” Within the dust and smoke that suffused the sky, Chen Xi who was tall like a mountain appeared within everyone’s field of vision. His gaze was icy cold, his voice indifferent, and he directly flashed towards those heavily injured Shang Clan disciples as he spoke.

However, right at this moment, an aura of danger suddenly gushed into his heart, causing Chen Xi to stop moving right away before swiftly looking towards the distance.
