

Tamer Family 121

Chapter 121: King of Equipment, Zhao

Mingyuan

“That’s right, let the King of Weapons owe your Chen Family a favor.”

“If the King of Refinery knew that your Chen family had a new puppet, he would definitely rush to repair the puppet for your Chen family. Not only would he not want a single spirit stone, but he would also thank your Chen family for giving him this opportunity.”

After all, a puppet of the Condensation Core realm was a sixth-grade spiritual artifact. The Artifact King might not have a few blueprints of this level.’The Deshun Commandery Prince laughed.

Hearing Deshun Prince’s words, Chen Yang finally understood why the Weapon King owed the Chen Family a favor.

“But what if the King of Refinery wants to buy a puppet? The King of Refinery probably doesn’t want to owe us a favor.”Yang Chen said worriedly.

“Don’t you have me as your master? With me around, he can only go and repair puppets for your Chen Clan. He owes you a favor.”

“Unless the King of Refiners can endure the temptation of the new puppet. But is that possible?”The Deshun Commandery Prince laughed.

“In that case, I have to thank Master.”Chen Yang cupped his hands and bowed to the Duke of Deshun.

De Shun Commandery Prince waved his hand, indicating for Chen Yang to stand up." You don't have to be so polite. This is what I should do. After all, I took down that entire mineral vein."

"It's not much, but if it's converted to ordinary spirit stones, it's still not a problem to get a hundred thousand. Your master has taken such a huge advantage. No matter what, I should give your Chen family some compensation."

"You don't have to worry about this. In two months, the King of Refinery, Zhao Mingyuan, will definitely go to Chen City."

"In that case, thank you, Master. If there's nothing else, I'll take my leave." Yang Chen bowed again.

"Go, your clan is busy with matters, there is no need to delay here." Deshun Commandery Prince said.

Chen City, Chen family's inner chamber

After bidding farewell to Deshun Commandery Prince, Chen Yang returned to the Chen Family without stopping.

After arriving at the Chen family, Yang Chen hurriedly called Chen Xuan to the meeting hall.

"Patriarch, why did you call me here in such a hurry?" As soon as they entered the meeting hall, Chen Xuan quickly asked.

"Great Elder is here. Let me show you something good." Yang Chen gestured for Yang Chen to come forward.

"What good stuff?" Chen Xuan came to Chen Yang's side with some doubt.

Yang Chen handed the Imperial Beast Bag to Chen Xuan and said with a mysterious smile, "Great Elder, please sense it."

When Chen Xuan saw this, he took the Beast Tamer Bag and injected spiritual energy into it. After sensing what was inside clearly, Chen Xuan's eyes lit up.

"Patriarch, this...This was the Devil Vine Sunflower Tree? Or a demon general level devil vine sunflower tree?"

"That's right." Yang Chen smiled and nodded," Great Elder, what do you think we should do with this Devil Vine Sunflower Tree?"

"How should we deal with it?" Chen Xuan thought for a moment, then looked at Chen Yang," Master, have you heard of a spiritual plant master?"

"I've heard of it. Why?" Yang Chen smiled.

Spiritual botanists were a branch of beastmasters. They mainly contracted various plant-type demon beasts.

"I suggest that we pick a person from our clan and let him learn from a spirit plant master. After that, we will give him the Devil Vine Sunflower Tree."Chen Xuan said.

"Specially grooming a spirit herb master?"Yang Chen thought about it carefully and then said," I think it's fine. This plant type demon beast is very magical. It's indeed worth specially training a spiritual plant master."

"But Great Elder, who should we choose?"

The two of them fell silent and then said in unison,"Chen Meng."

Yang Chen was stunned for a moment, then he smiled and said,"It seems that Chen Meng is really suitable to be trained as a spiritual plant master."

“Of course.” Chen Xuan echoed, “Chen Meng’s martial talent is at the eighth grade. She’s only 24 years old now, but she’s already cultivated to the seventh level of Qi Refinement.””

“It’s almost certain that I’ll become a Pulse Opening cultivator in the future.”

“And Chen Meng’s personality is more gentle and meticulous, this is exactly the quality that a ling plant master needs.”

“Alright then, I’ll leave the matter of the spirit herb master to the Great Elder. I’ll strive to produce results within three months.”

“As for the Devil Vine Sunflower Tree, we’ll temporarily place it in the clan.

By the way, you must deliver the spirit stones and fertilizer on time. I don’t want the Chen family’s land to become black soil.” Yang Chen ordered.

“Understood.”

Time flew by, and in the blink of an eye, two months had passed.

In these two months, nothing major happened in Chen City, the pass, and Song City.

Everything was calm, as if a storm was brewing.

As for the cultivation of spirit herb masters, the Chen family directly contacted a peak Meridian Opening spirit herb master from the Beast Tamer Sect through Daoist Dao Xuan.

The Chen family offered 500 spirit stones to teach Chen Meng about ling plant masters.

The knowledge of spiritual plant masters was not exclusive to the Beast Tamer Sect, so the Beast Tamer Sect naturally would not care about this.

In addition to the fact that the Chen family was willing to pay five hundred spirit stones, the spirit herb master was naturally very willing to come to the Chen family and teach Chen Meng the knowledge of spirit herb masters.

Chen Meng also worked hard. In just two months, she had already learned how to cultivate plant-type demon beasts and the nature of some plant-type demon beasts.

Chen Yang immediately decided to let Chen Meng refine the Demonic Vine Sunflower Tree into a Life Familiar.

At the same time, he left the task of looking after the Devil Vine Sunflower Tree to Chen Meng.

At first, Yang Chen planned to contract it himself. After all, with the Dao Integration Pearl, he could cultivate the Devil Vine Sunflower Tree to the Core Formation realm without consuming any resources.

However, there were two problems. One was that Yang Chen currently did not have a place for a life contract, so he could not refine the Devil Vine Sunflower Tree.

Moreover, even if there was a quota, Yang Chen wanted to contract those powerful demonic beasts.

Secondly, the energy of the combined Dao beads would definitely have priority over the Winged Tiger and the others.

By the time the energy was given to the Devil Vine Sunflower Tree, it would take at least 20 to 30 years.

After such a long time, what if something happened? After all, ordinary subdued beasts that betrayed their masters wouldn't suffer any damage.

After some consideration, it was better to leave it to Chen Meng.

At the same time, Zhao Mingyuan, the King of Refinery, had also arrived at Chen City with his two disciples.

Outside the Chen family’s gate, Yang Chen respectfully cupped his hands and bowed to the old man in front of him.

To be honest, Zhao Mingyuan’s appearance was quite unexpected.

Chen Yang originally thought that Zhao Mingyuan was either unkempt and immersed in refining, or he was a handsome person who paid great attention to appearance.

In the end, Zhao Mingyuan was like an ordinary old man. He was the kind that could not be seen in the crowd.

You can’t judge a book by its cover!

Yang Chen once again had a new understanding of this ancient saying.

Compared to Zhao Mingyuan, his two disciples were extremely handsome. Although they were not young, they had a different kind of charm.

“There’s no need to be so polite, Patriarch Chen. Where’s the new puppet? Quick, show this old master.” Zhao Mingyuan raised his hand and used his spiritual energy to help Chen Yang up.

“Senior Zhao, don’t be anxious. Please follow me.”

Then, Chen Yang brought Zhao Mingyuan to the courtyard that had been prepared for him.

After arriving at the courtyard, Yang Chen released the puppet.

“Wonderful, wonderful!” Zhao Mingyuan’s eyes lit up when he saw the puppet. After taking a closer look, he could not help but praise it..

Chapter 122: Bringing Master to Catch the Sorcerers

“Patriarch Chen, don’t worry. Leave it to me. I’ll definitely repair this puppet within a year.” Zhao Mingyuan smiled.

“In that case, I’ll have to trouble Senior Zhao. If you need any materials, feel free to tell me.” Yang Chen cupped his hands and bowed.

Zhao Mingyuan waved his hands.” No need, no need. When I repaired the puppet, it was equivalent to obtaining the blueprint for the puppet.”

“I have already taken such a huge advantage, how can I let the Chen family fork out the materials?”

Chen Yang did not expect Zhao Mingyuan to be so kind and easy to talk to.

Of course, the face of the Deshun Commandery Prince also occupied a large proportion.

Seeing this, Yang Chen smiled and said, “Then I’ll have to trouble Senior Zhao.””

Immediately, Chen Yang turned the courtyard where Zhao Mingyuan was located into a forbidden area. He did not allow anyone to disturb Zhao Mingyuan.

Zhao Mingyuan was so happy that he immersed himself in repairing the puppet with his two disciples.

Ten months later, in Chencheng.

“Breaking news, breaking news, the first phase of the Chengyang Pass project has ended.”

In Chen City, more than a dozen 15 or 16-year-old children with cloth bags were waving the yellow paper in their hands.

Some of the victims who had just arrived in Chen City did not know what was going on. They pulled the people beside them and asked, “Fellow villager, what are these children doing?”

“You must be from outside. These children are paperboys. They’re selling newspapers.”

“Chen Bao? Paper boy, what are these?” This person had a face full of question marks.

Seeing this, the man from Chen City smiled and explained, “The so-called report was issued by the Chen Yang family head to the citizens of Chen City to pass on news to the outside world.”

“As for these paperboys, they are specially selling newspapers for the Chen family.”

“With the report, we, the commoners, can also understand the big and small matters of the Great Gan like those big shots.”

“Oh? There’s such a good thing?” Feng Er, who had escaped from the famine, widened his eyes. He had only heard that there was food in Chen City, so he had fled here.

Now, it seemed that not only did they have food to eat, but they could also increase their knowledge.

“Of course.” Qian Wu, a citizen of Chen City, had a proud expression. “I’m not boasting, but which city’s citizens can be treated like us, the citizens of Chen City?”

“Let’s not talk about anything else. Eight months ago, the Demon Slayer Palace organized the Demon Slayer to wipe out the demon tide that was about to invade Jiangyou Prefecture.”

“Yellow level demon slayer Chen Xiao shone in this battle. With the cultivation of level 6 Qi Refinement, he defeated a late-stage level 1 demon beast.”

“In this battle, he killed ten late-stage first-order demonic beasts alone, showing off the might of our Chen City’s martial artists!”

“Even the Earth Realm Demon Slayer and the Core Formation Realm experts appreciated him. They said that if he didn’t die in the future, he would definitely become a Core Formation Realm expert.”

“If it wasn’t for this report, how would we know about such a big matter?”

When Feng Er heard this, he also looked forward to it. Whether it was martial artists or ordinary people, they would feel a deep sense of glory when it came to raising the might of a city.

“Then, fellow villager, can you tell me something else?”

“Still talking?” Qian Wu glanced at the tea stall behind him and deliberately cleared his throat.

Seeing this, Feng Er quickly helped Qian Wu to the tea stall and ordered two cups of tea.

Although there was a famine now, after the Chen family’s governance, Chen City no longer lacked food. Tea stalls like this were still traded in Da Qian gold.

Otherwise, Feng Er might not have been able to treat Qian Wu to tea.

After taking a sip of tea in satisfaction, Qian Wu continued, “There are other major events as well. For example, five months ago, Chen Bao published a major event.”

“The Beast Tamer Sect’s sect master and deputy sect master had an intense argument. They seemed to be arguing about the use of a certain treasure.”

“It’s said that there was even a big fight that time. Even the Beast Tamer Sect’s ancestor was alarmed.”

“This matter has already become a joke among the various forces in Jiang Prefecture. After this report, the citizens of Chen City will also know about this interesting news.”

“Oh, there’s such a thing? However, wouldn’t the Chen family be punished by the Beast Tamer Sect if they publicized this matter?” Feng Er was puzzled. “Punishment? He could not even take care of himself, and he still had the mood to punish others?”

Besides, our Chen Yang Family Head is the disciple of Deshun Commandery

Prince, how can anyone punish him?”

“Besides, they’re promoting this themselves. Why are they blaming others?” Qian Wu said disdainfully.

“Self-promotion? What’s going on?” Feng Er asked.

“We don’t know about this either.” Qian Wu picked up his tea and took a sip.” According to the people outside, it seems to have been publicized by the Vice Sect Master. He said that he wanted everyone to see what a Sect Master who uses his official position for personal gain is like.”

Feng Er nodded.” That’s the case. Isn’t the Chen family taking sides when they publicize it?”

“It’s not that serious. Chen Bao is only circulating in Chen City. Moreover, when it was sold, we asked the Beast Tamer Sect, and the Beast Tamer Sect’s sect master agreed.”

“According to Chen Bao, the Beast Tamer Sect’s sect master is also willing to publicize this matter and let everyone judge whether he is using his official position for personal gain.”

“It’s a pity that Chen Bao’s description is very vague. He only told us about this matter.” Qian Wu said.

When Feng Er heard this, he looked at Qian Wu enviously. “I didn’t expect the citizens of Chen City to know so many big things.”

“Not only do you know about major events, but you also know about many family scandals.” Qian Wu said with a smile.

“A scandal?” Feng Er was a little curious. “What scandal?”

“That’s a lot. For example, the Song family’s scandal.”

Qian Wu finished his tea in one gulp and then smacked his tongue. “The Song family has been searching for children who became orphans because of the famine since half a year ago..”

Chapter 123: Bringing Master to Catch the Sorcerers

“According to the Chen family’s report, the Song family plans to train these children into death warriors.”

“The scale of the assassination is so large that it can probably assassinate all the aristocratic families in Jiang Prefecture. The Chen family also criticized the Song family’s actions in the newspaper.”

“The Song Clan is also giving these orphans a chance to survive by saying that they are nurturing their own men of sacrifice.”

“The two families have been arguing over this matter for several months. Even now, both sides are still scolding each other.”

At this point, Qian Wu took out the newspaper he had bought and handed it to Feng Er. “Look, in the lower right corner, isn’t the Chen family’s words written?”

Feng Er took it and read it aloud.

“Now, the Song family is full of ambition. They don’t care about human morality and seized children during the disaster.”

“The scale of his training of death warriors is even harboring evil intentions! After plundering nearly 100,000 children in half a year, how many of them could successfully grow into death warriors?”

“After becoming a death warrior, with such a scale, wouldn’t he have to assassinate all the forces in Jiang Prefecture?”

“Such a heart-wrenching matter should be resisted by all the aristocratic families.”

There were not many words, but they expressed the Chen family’s point of view. Even Feng Er felt that the Song family was a little too much.

Although nurturing death warriors was a chance for these orphans to survive.

However, the selection of death warriors had always been cruel, and with such a large number of death warriors, just like what the Chen family had said, could it be that they wanted to assassinate all the forces in Jiang Prefecture?

But in any case, these things had nothing to do with Feng Er. Compared to this, he preferred the things in Chen City that were locked and published in Chen Bao.

Since he had chosen to live in Chen City, it would be best if he could learn more about the city.

For example, Feng Er was very interested in this Yang Pass.

“My fellow countryman, before I came to Chen City, I heard about the pass. The Chen family once said that they would stop the demon beasts in the Endless Mountain Range.”

“I’ve been looking forward to such a grand pass for a long time. I wonder if my fellow countryman has the time to take me there.”

When Qian Wu saw this, he immediately put down the teacup in his hand. “Sure, I was just about to go and see the completion ceremony of the first phase of the Yang Pass project.”

Then, Feng Er placed the tea money on the table and followed Qian Wu to Yang Pass in a hurry.

Yangguan is the top of Xiongguan.

Yang Chen stood in the center, surrounded by the Chen family guards. From above the Yang Pass, one could vaguely see the traces of the Endless Mountain Range.

Under the sunlight, countless citizens of Chen City came to pay their respects to Yang Pass.

However, these commoners were somewhat puzzled. Why were the guards of Chen City wearing armor?

If that was all, why was his face covered with armor?

“Disciple, what are you doing? It’s been a month. I’ve been your guard for a month. How can you still act like a disciple?”

A muscular guard behind Yang Chen said.

If he were to unveil this person’s helmet, the scouts would definitely discover that this person was the number one person in the Great Qian Purple Mansion, the Deshun Commandery Prince!

Hearing this, Yang Chen didn’t change the smile on his face and said without turning his head, “Master, don’t be anxious. The scouts have already reported that the Great Kun’s people have already entered Song City.”

“Tonight, we can directly capture the deal between Great Kun and the Song Clan. At that time, we can pull out a malignant tumor in Jiang Prefecture, and Master will inevitably waste this month.”

“Oh? Aren’t you afraid that you won’t be able to catch him? You still have the mood to patrol the Yang Pass?” Deshun Commandery Prince said.

Yang Chen narrowed his eyes. “There’s no hurry. How can such a deal be concluded in a short time?”<sup>11</sup>

“It would take at least a month to bring hundreds of thousands of children out of Song City, let alone Da Qian.”

“Is that King Ke’s butler really someone from Evil Sect’s Fiend Soul Sect?” The Duke of De Shun asked again.

“Whether it is or not, we will know later.”

That night, in a secret chamber of the Song Clan in Song City.

Prince Ke’s butler held a cup of tea and said in an inhuman voice, “Patriarch Song, your actions are a little too slow. In a year, you’ve only collected a hundred thousand children.”

“Master Song, did you take my words to heart?”

When Master Song heard this, he felt as if he was in an ice cave. Beads of sweat appeared on his forehead, and he said in a trembling voice, “Big... Sir, collecting children is a little difficult.”

“The spies of the Chen Clan are everywhere. Just these 100,000 children have already attracted the attention of the Chen Clan.”

“Fortunately, the Chen family doesn’t know about your existence. They only think that my Song family is nurturing death warriors to collect these.”

“If we collect children wantonly, the Chen family will definitely be nervous and send a large number of spies to Song City.”

“If the matter is exposed, the Song family’s destruction is a small matter, but delaying Milord’s important matter would be a great sin.”

“This is your business!” Prince Ke’s butler looked unfriendly. “Forget it, forget it this year. I want at least 200,000 children next year.””

“Two hundred thousand?” Master Song looked troubled. “Sir, where can I find 200,000 children?””

“As I said before, this is your business.””Besides, there’s so much famine now. How can there not be many people selling their children?””

“This...”

Master Song hesitated for a moment, then said, “If it was somewhere else, perhaps this would have happened. However, the entire Jiang Prefecture was supplied with food by the Chen family.”

“In this current famine, there are very few people who starve to death. It is difficult to find so many children.”

When the butler heard this, a cold glint flashed across his eyes. “The Chen family? I had the intention to let him off, but I didn’t expect him to dare to drag down my great matter.”

“Alright, I’ll treat it as a reward for collecting children. One month later, the entire Chen family will be wiped out!”

When Master Song heard this, his eyes flashed with joy. He immediately said, “In that case, thank you, sir.”

“There’s no need to say more. Alright, bring me to see those children.” Butler Ke said.

When Master Song saw this, he quickly stood up and greeted him." Sir, please follow me.""

"Yes."

King Ke nodded and followed Master Song out of the secret chamber.

However, the butler of King Ke and Master Song did not know that their every word and action had already been known by the three people in the sky.

Deshun Commandery Prince stood in the air and used his spiritual energy to drag Chen Yang and Chen Xuan.

After listening to Chen Xuan's account of their conversation, the Deshun Commandery Prince's expression turned ugly." I didn't expect the Song Clan Head to really betray the Great Qian Dynasty."

"Betraying Da Qian is one thing, but he has betrayed Da Qian. However, he actually serves the evil cultivators. This is a betrayal of the human race!"

"Disciple, I'll go down now and destroy the Song family!"

"Master, don't be anxious. To catch a thief, you have to catch the stolen goods. Wouldn't it be more convincing if we attack later?"

"You have to know that the county governor and the Prefecture Overseer are here with us."Yang Chen smiled.

Deshun Commandery Prince thought about it and felt that it was indeed the case. The sudden annihilation of a family would make the other aristocratic families worried if no one else witnessed it.

Immediately, the three of them secretly followed Patriarch Song's group. With De Shun Commandery Prince, the number one Zifu Disciple, covering them, even Zifu Disciples would not be able to discover them.

The Song Family Head turned left and right until they arrived at a sealed area in the north of Song City.

This place was sealed off by the Song Clan and separated from Song City by a stone wall. Apart from the main entrance, no other places were accessible.

Master Song pushed open the door and entered, bringing the butler of the King Ke to this secret place that was supposed to nurture death warriors.

As soon as he entered, he saw many children huddled together.

Seeing this, the butler laughed and said, "Good! Good! Good! All of them were children below the age of twelve and above the age of ten. Master Song, you finally didn't neglect your age."

"Of course. Since Milord has given the order, how could this lowly one dare to be careless?" Master Song said with a flattering expression.

"Good, with these children, my cultivation level will definitely rise!" A blood-red light flashed in the butler's eyes. He shook his sleeves and a wisp of purple smoke blew at the children.

As the purple smoke swept past, the children fell unconscious one after another.

"Why is Your Excellency doing this?" Master Song was puzzled.

"If we don't knock them out, how can we bring them back to Great Kun?" Prince Ke said proudly.

"Bring him back to Great Kun? Humph! Remnant of the Fiend Soul Sect, think about how you're going to get Da Kun back first!"

Chapter 124: Destroying the Song Family, the Chen Family

Covers the Heavens'(i)

“Who is it?”

Prince Ke’s butler suddenly turned around, and spiritual energy surged out. He looked behind him with an unfriendly expression.” Who’s playing tricks? Hurry up and come out, or 1 11 burn your bones and scatter your ashes.’1

“The steward of the Great Kunke Prince’s residence actually came to my Great Gan. If I don’t come out to welcome him, wouldn’t it be disrespectful to the guests?”

Deshun Commandery Prince dragged Chen Yang and Chen Xuan as he slowly descended from the sky. At the same time, the aura of the Supremacy of the Purple Mansion was completely visible, enveloping the butler of King Ke and the Song family head.

“De...Deshun Commandery Prince!”

Master Song looked at Deshun Commandery Prince in horror and collapsed to the ground with a thud.

It was over. Everything was over.

If the Deshun Commandery Prince found out about his betrayal of the Great Qian Dynasty, the consequences for the Song Family...

Prince Ke glanced at the Song family head and pulled him up. He said coldly, “Trash.”

Then, he looked at Deshun Commandery Prince and said calmly, ""Deshun Commandery Prince must be joking. This one doesn't know what Prince Ke's butler is."

"I came down to the Song Family to buy some children to become the family's men of sacrifice. This doesn't seem to violate the laws of Da Qian, right?"

"Yes, yes, yes." Master Song seemed to have grabbed onto a life-saving straw and hurriedly said, "My lord, this lord is here to purchase men of sacrifice, not some butler of King Ke."

"Now that things have come to this, you still want to quibble?" Deshun Commandery Prince said disdainfully when he saw this."

Immediately, Deshun Commandery Prince clapped his hands, and a few people quickly jumped in from outside the stone wall. The person in the lead was the current Prefecture Overseer of Jiang Prefecture.

Behind the Prefecture Overseer was a man in a black robe and a black veil.

The Prefecture Overseer first bowed to Deshun Commandery Prince before looking at Butler Ke." Butler Qi, you should know this person, right?"

As the Prefecture Overseer finished speaking, the black-robed man lifted his black veil and revealed a playful smile." Butler Qi, we meet again."

"It has been 20 years since we parted in the residence of Prince Ke. Back then, did you think that you would see me in such a situation?"

When Butler Qi saw this person, his pupils constricted, but he quickly calmed down." Your Excellency, who is this person? I don't know him.""

"You don't know him?" Before Deshun Commandery Prince could speak, the black-robed man was the first to speak angrily, ""You caused my family to be destroyed, and you say you don't know me?"

“I, Zheng Ming, am the leader of the Shadow Guards, but you, a vile person, have been trying to sow discord and accuse me of treason, forcing me to flee to Da Qian.”

“Now you say you don’t know me?”

Zheng Ming was furious, and his peak Core Formation aura swept out. He gritted his teeth and stared at Butler Qi, as if he wanted to eat him alive.

Butler Qi saw this and said disdainfully, “What does it have to do with me whether you’re the leader of the shadow guards or not? If I don’t know you, I don’t know you. It’s useless even if you say anything.”

Then, Butler Qi looked at Deshun Commandery Prince with a serious expression. “Your Excellency, there are so many people watching. If I have offended you in anyway, you can kill me.”

“There’s no need to frame me like this. No matter what, I’m still a Core Formation cultivator!”

Butler Qi’s righteous appearance made the leaders of the forces who followed the Prefecture Overseer look at each other.

Although they wouldn’t say anything, if the Deshun Commandery Prince didn’t have real evidence, they would still feel uncomfortable.

When Master Song saw this, he quickly echoed, “Your Excellency, my Song Family is truly a good citizen. Why would I betray Great Qian?”

Master Song glanced at Chen Yang. “Someone must have tried to annex the Song Family and bewitched you, saying that the Song Family has betrayed the Great Qian Dynasty.”

“Lord, everyone, please seek justice for my Song family!”

Master Song bowed to the Prefecture Overseer and the others. When everyone saw this, they became even more suspicious of Yang Chen.

Although they didn't say anything, they didn't hide their suspicions. They wanted the Deshun Commandery Prince to produce more evidence.

When Master Song saw this, he looked at Yang Chen smugly as if he was saying, "My Song Family has betrayed Da Qian. If you have the ability, show me the evidence."

The Deshun Commandery Prince glanced at the Prefecture Overseer.

The Prefecture Overseer knew what Deshun Commandery Prince meant and snorted coldly. "Butler Qi, you won't cry until you see the coffin."

"Zheng Ming, take out that thing."

"Alright." Seeing this, Zheng Ming took out a silver stone from his storage bag. Butler Qi's expression changed when he saw this stone.

"Photostone?" Sect Master Wang Hu, who was following behind the Prefecture Overseer, called out the origin of this stone.

"That's right, the Photostone. You may not know Prince Ke's butler, but you should all know Prince Ke."

"He is the only prince of Great Kun. Don't say that you don't know him. Zheng Ming, inject your spiritual energy." the Prefecture Overseer said proudly.

Seeing this, Zheng Ming injected his spiritual energy into it. At the same time, a ray of light shot out from the Shadow Stone.

An illusory light screen slowly opened in front of everyone.

The light screen was playing out what had happened in the past.

“Your highness, if we don’t take Zheng Ming down, then the Shadow Guards won’t be in our hands.”

On the screen, Butler Qi cupped his hands and bowed to the old man in front of him.

The old man’s face also entered everyone’s eyes through the light screen.

“King Ke!” “What?” Sect Master Wang Hu exclaimed and looked at Patriarch Song.” Patriarch Song, what else do you want to say?”

I didn’t expect that you, as an eighth-rank aristocratic family of Da Qian, would collude with Great Kun. You deserve to die!”

“Traitors should be exterminated.. The Meng family requested the Deshun Commandery Prince to exterminate the Song family to show the dignity of the Great Gan!”

Chapter 125: Destroying the Song Family, the Chen Family Covers the Heavens!(2)

“My Long family seconds!”

The Patriarchs of the Eighth-rank Aristocratic Families bowed to the Deshun Commandery Prince and begged him to exterminate the Song Clan.

Seeing this, the Deshun Commandery Prince glanced coldly at Master Song and Butler Qi.” Everyone, what else do you want to say now?”

When Master Song saw this, he collapsed to the ground as if he had accepted his fate.

This time, it was really over. It was useless to quibble anymore.

The Song family’s century-old foundation would fall into his hands. Even the bloodline inheritance would be destroyed in his hands.

Butler Qi didn't act like Master Song. Instead, he sneered at Zheng Ming and said, "I was wondering why you ran away back then. So you had already received the news."

"Why? You must be regretting not being able to kill me. You massacred my family back then. Today, I will kill you to avenge my Zheng family." Zheng Ming gritted his teeth.

"That's what you, Zheng Ming, asked for. No matter what, you're not willing to swear an oath of loyalty to us. Since that's the case, why should we keep you alive?"

"As for today, you still want to kill me? Dream on!"

A ball of blood suddenly appeared in front of Butler Qi, and then he disappeared.

When Sect Master Wang Hu saw this, he blurted out, "Blood Escape Thousand Miles! This Butler Qi was actually a remnant of the Fiend Soul Sect!"

As Wang Hu revealed Butler Qi's background, memories of the Fiend Soul Sect and the Blood Evasion emerged in everyone's minds.

Blood Escape Thousand Miles was the most powerful escape technique among the evil cultivation techniques of the Devilish Soul Sect. It could only be used by those who were not at the peak of the Core Formation realm.

Once he used it, he would instantly flee a thousand kilometers away. Not even a Zifu Disciple would be able to stop him.

Only the higher-beings on the stage had a chance to stop this Blood Evasion Thousand Miles.

If it wasn't for the Blood Escape Thousand Miles, the Fiend Soul Sect's technique wouldn't have been revealed.

Of course, the Blood Evasion Thousand Mile was so powerful that the consequences he had to bear were also very severe.

When a peak Core Formation Stage evil cultivator used the Blood Escape Thousand Miles, his martial arts realm would disappear and he would become an ordinary person.

As for Supremacies who used the Blood Evasion Thousand Miles, they would also decline to become Qi Refinement realm martial artists.

Fortunately, their lifespans would not decrease after they declined. Otherwise, these people would probably die immediately if they used the Blood Escape Thousand Miles.

However, even if their lifespans did not decrease, it would be difficult for them to live to their theoretical lifespans with their martial arts realm after their decline.

Back to the topic, although Butler Qi had run away, the Song family was still around.

The Deshun Commandery Prince glanced at Master Song and announced the final outcome of the Song Family." The Song Family colluded with the Great Kun, betrayed the Great Qian Dynasty, and colluded with the Sorcerers. The heavens forbid it, and the family is exterminated according to the law."

"Considering the contributions of the Song family's ancestors to the Great Gan, we will pardon the Song family's branch family and send them to the battlefield as slaves."

"Children under the age of ten from the Song family's collateral branch will be taken into the royal family's mine as slaves and will not be able to remove their slave status for life."

"Children under the age of three from the Song family's collateral branch will be taken in as the royal family's death warriors."

"The direct descendants of the Song family have all been wiped out!"

After hearing Deshun Commandery Prince's verdict on the Song family, Master Song was stunned on the spot. Then, he laughed crazily.

"Hahaha... Ancestors of the Song Clan, I've let you down!"

At this point, Master Song slapped himself, intending to take his life.

At this moment, the Prefecture Overseer stopped Master Song." Do you want to die? It's not that easy!"

"Your life should be decided by the laws of Da Qian, not by yourself!"

Then, the Prefecture Overseer slapped Family Head Song's dantian and crippled Family Head Song's cultivation.

After declaring the results of the Song Family, the Deshun Commandery Prince looked at the other leaders of the forces." Please bear witness to the Song Family's actions and ensure that I did not slander them."

"We understand." The leaders of the forces bowed, indicating that they knew what to say.

Seeing this, Deshun Commandery Prince nodded in satisfaction. Then, he sighed and said,""The Song Clan made this mistake, but the people of Nanyang County are innocent."

"At this special moment, it's best for everyone not to interfere in the affairs of Nanyang County. Let Nanyang County settle it by itself."

Everyone understood that the Deshun Commandery Prince was telling them that they were not allowed to meddle in the Song Clan's territory.

"We understand."

“Yes, that’s good.”

“Extra, extra! The Song Clan had colluded with the Sorcerers and Great Kun, and had been exterminated!”

A few days later, the news of Song Family betraying Da Qian was spread by Chen Bao to everyone.

The Deshun Prince seemed to want to warn the other aristocratic families and deliberately let the news spread, causing many commoners to yearn for Chen City.

With such a reward, wouldn’t Chen know what was going on in the world?

Of course, this was a small matter. The most important thing right now was the Song Family’s betrayal of the Great Qian Dynasty.

“Humph! Those bastards from the Song family! The Deshun Commandery Prince still left the collateral relatives of the Song family alive. If you ask me, they should all be exterminated.”

“That’s right. Betraying the Great Gan is unforgivable, and he even colluded with evil cultivators.”

“It’s useless for you to say all this. Everything has to be done according to the laws of Da Qian. Compared to this, I’m more curious about who will swallow up such a huge business of the Song family.”

“Needless to say, it must be the Chen family.”

“That’s right. Now that the Chen Family has become a force to be reckoned with, they have become an existence that covers the entire Nanyang County with one hand.”

“That’s right, that’s right.”

In the Gongsun family in Song City, Gongsun Miao, the head of the Gongsun family, gathered a group of elders.

“Now that the Song Family has been destroyed, it’s only a matter of time before the Chen Family enters Song City. What should we do?”

“Patriarch, we can only escape Nanyang or even Jiang Prefecture to save our family.”

“My Gongsun family is no different from ants to the Chen family. If we run away, the Chen family probably won’t chase after us.” The great elder of the Gongsun family said,

When Gongsun Miao heard this, he paced back and forth and said, “Good! Let’s do as the Great Elder says. We’ll escape. As for the hatred with the Chen family, we’ll take revenge on another day!”

Then, under Gongsun Miao’s command, the Gongsun family quickly packed their bags and prepared to leave the Gongsun family.

“Everyone, where are you rushing to?”

Just as the Gongsun family was about to escape, Chen Xuan stroked his beard and suddenly appeared in front of Gongsun Miao on the Green-horned Barbarian Bull.

“Chen...Chen Xuan!”

Gongsun Miao’s expression changed drastically. He subconsciously wanted to escape, but when he thought of the Gongsun family, he immediately stabilized his footsteps and said with a flattering expression, “I didn’t know that the head elder of the Chen family had arrived. I hope you can forgive me for not welcoming you.”

“Alright, why are you saying these polite words? Don’t you know why I’m here?” Chen Xuan said with a smile.

When Gongsun Miao saw this, a bitter expression appeared on his face." The Chen family has already succeeded. Can't you leave my Gongsun family a way out?"

"Leave a way out?" Chen Xuan said disdainfully, "Why is the Gongsun family head living more and more backwards? How can you say such childish words?" "If your Gongsun family wins, will you let my Chen family off?"

When Gongsun Miao saw this, he knew that he could not live on. He immediately knelt on the ground and kowtowed to Chen Xuan.

"Grand Elder Chen, Gongsun Miao doesn't wish to live. I only wish for the Chen family to remember the ancient method and spare the lives of the Gongsun family's collateral relatives so that the Gongsun family's bloodline can continue."

"Ancient technique? It's not impossible, but your branch family can't stay in Jiang Prefecture." Chen Xuan said.

When Gongsun Miao saw this, he kowtowed heavily again." Thank you for your benevolence!"

Immediately, Gongsun Miao severed his meridians and died.

"Patriarch!"

When the other direct descendants of the Gongsun family saw this, they revealed resentful expressions towards Chen Xuan. Even the collateral relatives were no exception.

When Chen Xuan saw this, he glanced at Gongsun Miao's corpse." Sigh, I also want to spare the lives of the Gongsun family's collateral relatives, but look at their eyes. It's obvious that they regard my Chen family as their mortal enemy."

"I don't want to raise a great enemy for the Chen family. Since that's the case, I can only cut the weeds and remove the roots."

At this point, Chen Xuan struck out with his palm and instantly killed dozens of Gongsun family members.

Behind Chen Xuan, the Dragon Knights whistled out and harvested the lives of the Gongsun family members.

Half a day later, the Gongsun Family was destroyed.

Chen Clan, in the meeting hall.

After being responsible for destroying the Gongsun family, Chen Xuan rushed back to the Chen family without stopping.

“Master, now that the Song family has been destroyed, when are we going to take over the Song family’s business? If it was too long, it was inevitable that the other aristocratic families would have second thoughts.”Chen Xuan said worriedly..

Chapter 126: Receiving the Song Family’s Business

“What you said makes sense. How about this? Let’s first calculate the Song family’s assets.”Yang Chen ordered.

“Yes.”

Chen Xuan nodded and continued asking,”How does the Patriarch plan to deal with those children?”

Yang Chen thought for a moment, then said,” Ten years old can be tested for talent. Let’s test it first and absorb those with talent.””

“Those without talent, if their parents are still alive and only sold to the Song family, we will return them to their parents.”

“If they are orphans, then let’s see if the other aristocratic families have anything they need and try our best to give them a chance to live.”

“Understood. But what should we do with the children we’ve absorbed? Take him in as a general?”
Chen Xuan asked again.

Yang Chen pondered for a while and said, “No, I want to create a spy organization and let Chen Ying train them. I want them to become outstanding spies in ten or twenty years.”

“The name of this organization is the Piercing Guard. “I want them to pierce through all the secrets that we want to know but have been hidden.”

“Understood. I’ll give the order immediately.”

After settling the children down, Chen Yang and Chen Xuan went to a town called Yu Town together.

This town had the Song family’s main business, the spirit herb business.

Yu Town, Song Family’s spiritual herb farm.

Looking at the boundless spiritual herbs in front of him, Yang Chen couldn’t help but laugh, “This spirit herb business can provide the Song family with a net profit of more than two thousand spirit stones every year.”

“Now that my Chen family has taken over, the profits of these spirit stones will belong to our Chen family.”

“Not only that, but this spiritual herb can provide food for the Green-horned Barbaric Bull and the Fire-maned Horse. It can save a lot of costs.”

“That’s right.” Yang Chen nodded and said, “Let the Fourth Elder take charge of Yu Town. Our Chen family’s deterrence is not enough. If there are no strong people taking charge, I’m afraid it will be difficult to maintain this business.””

“In addition, support a martial arts aristocratic family in Yu Town to assist Fourth Elder.”

“Understood.” Chen Xuan nodded.

After dealing with the business at the spirit herb farm, the two of them rushed to Song City without stopping. To be precise, they were in a small village in the north of Song City.

This village looked ordinary, but those who knew the secrets hidden in this village would not underestimate it.

“I didn’t expect that the Song family’s ling fields were hidden in this small village.” Outside the village, Chen Xuan could not help but sigh.

That’s right, this village had a spiritual field that the Song family had placed here.

Yang Chen didn’t know why the Song family placed the ling fields here. However, Yang Chen knew that the Chen family would take the spiritual fields.

“Let’s go in and take a look.”

Then, the two of them stepped into the village.

“Stop!”

Not long after the two of them entered the village, a loud shout stopped them.

At the same time, people with sharp swords rushed out of the houses and surrounded Yang Chen and Yang Qing.

Yang Chen glanced at the villagers and was a little surprised. These people actually had martial arts cultivation.

Moreover, everyone's cultivation was not weak. Those few old people were actually at the eighth level of Qi Refinement.

This kind of strength, other than opening meridians, could completely be compared to a ninth-rank aristocratic family.

"This is the territory of my Zhao family. Please leave!" A white-haired old man among the villagers berated.

"Impudent!"

Seeing these people speak rudely, Chen Xuan's body trembled. Waves of spiritual qi swept out and enveloped this group of people.

To Yang Chen's surprise, these people remained calm in the face of the pressure of a Pulse Unsealing expert.

Immediately, Chen Yang waved his hand, indicating for Chen Xuan to put away his spiritual energy. Then, he cupped his hands and smiled, "Chen Yang didn't know that there was a family living here. If there is any disturbance, please forgive me."

"Patriarch Chen, there's no need to be so polite. Please leave quickly." the old man said coldly.

"Don't be rude!"

At this moment, an old voice came from behind the group of villagers.

As soon as the voice fell, the villagers made way for him. Then, an old man holding a walking stick, trembling as if he could be blown away by a gust of wind, slowly stepped forward.

"Please forgive my clansmen for their rudeness. This old man will apologize to you on their behalf." The old man cupped his hands at Yang Chen.

Yang Chen was about to say something, but his pupils constricted. This was because Yang Chen sensed a terrifying aura from this frail old man.

"Reverend Ning Dan?"

Yang Chen took a deep breath and smiled, "I didn't expect that there would be a Venerable Ning Dan here."

"Patriarch Chen, there's no need to be so polite." The old man raised his hand, and a wave of spiritual energy was released from his hand, lifting Yang Chen up.

"I've already guessed the purpose of Family Head Chen's visit. Please follow me, Family Head Chen."

With that, the old man led his clansmen and slowly left. When Chen Yang saw this, he looked at Chen Xuan and immediately followed.

The group of people turned left and right and came to a piece of farmland. In the middle of the farmland, there were stalks of spiritual rice.

"Patriarch Chen, these spirit fields can contribute nearly a thousand spirit stones to the Song family every year. I think the Chen family head came to our place for this ling field." The old man smiled as he held his walking stick.

"Senior has discerning eyes." Chen Yang cupped his hands and smiled, "I came here for this spiritual field. I just didn't know that there was a senior here, so there was a misunderstanding."

"It's fine, it's fine." The old man smiled and waved his hand." Since the Chen Family is here for the ling fields, then take them away."

"I only hope that the Chen clan leader will give this old man face and not disturb my Zhao village anymore."

When Chen Yang saw this, he came to the side of the ling field and broke off a piece of ling field. He placed it under his nose and smelled it before returning to Chen Xuan's side.

"Patriarch, how is it?" Chen Xuan asked softly.

"No problem." Yang Chen shook his head.

"Then why didn't the Song family take the ling fields? If he planted it here, wouldn't he be putting a piece of fat meat beside others?" Chen Xuan asked curiously.

Yang Chen saw this and looked at the old man." I don't know either. Let's just ask.""

Immediately, Chen Yang came to the old man's side." Senior, I have a question.

I don't know if I should ask.""

The Zhao Clan Leader smiled." Ask away, Chen Clan Leader. I'll tell you everything I know.""

"It's like this. Why didn't the Song family take these ling fields away and place them in your esteemed land?" Yang Chen asked.

"Clan Leader Chen is puzzled about this. The reason why Clan Leader Song didn't take the ling fields away was because of this old man's obstruction."

“This old man still has a bit of strength, and the Song family can’t force him too much. They can only agree to let the ling fields be placed in my Zhao Village, and we’ll split the harvest equally.” Patriarch Zhao laughed.

“I see.” Chen Yang nodded, then looked at the Zhao Clan Leader, “Then Senior, why did you let my Chen Clan take the ling fields? “You have to know that our Chen family’s strength is far inferior to the Song family..”

Chapter 127: Dark Iron Mine, Ninth Aunt Is Going Home in Glory

” Master Chen, you must be joking. If the Chen family is weak, how can they destroy the Song family?” Patriarch Zhao stroked his white beard and smiled.

Seeing this, Yang Chen was stunned for a moment before he said, “The royal family was the one who did this. It has nothing to do with my Chen family.”

“Alright, this old man doesn’t care if the Chen Clan plotted this or if the Song Clan deserves it. It’s best that the Chen Clan take the spirit field as soon as possible in exchange for the stability of my Zhao Clan.” Patriarch Zhao laughed.

“Junior understands.”

Yang Chen nodded, and with a burst of spiritual energy, he took all the spiritual fields into his pocket.

Then, Chen Yang looked at the members of the Zhao Clan. “Clan Leader Zhao, why are the nobles living in seclusion here?”

“With the strength of the nobles, they can find a city and establish a clan. Isn’t it much better than here?”

“If you don’t mind, I can give you a city from the Song family’s territory.”

“I thank you for your kindness, but my Zhao Clan is already used to this place, so we won’t move.” Zhao Clan Leader smiled and waved his hand.

Seeing this, Chen Yang once again cupped his hands at the Zhao Clan Leader.” In that case, Chen Yang will take his leave.””

Immediately, Chen Yang and the other left Zhao Village. After leaving, Yang Chen turned to look at Zhao Cun,” Great Elder, after the Piercing Guard finished training, the first target to investigate is the Zhao Clan’s secret.”

“I understand.”

Chen Clan, in the meeting hall.

After taking over the Song family’s business, Chen Yang brought Chen Xuan back to the family to discuss matters.

“Patriarch, according to the statistics, the Song family’s annual income is as much as five thousand spirit stones. Excluding the cost, it was 3,500 spirit stones.” Chen Xuan handed Chen Yang a booklet.

“Five thousand spirit stones a year? This can’t be right.” Yang Chen frowned.” Although I don’t know the exact amount of spirit stones the Song family has earned, I’m not sure.”

“But as an Eighth-rank Aristocratic Family, the Song Family’s annual income should be around 10,000 spirit stones.”

“Why does the Song Clan only earn 5,000 spirit stones a year? How could they afford to raise an Eighth-rank Aristocratic Family?”

In the past, the Chen family's annual income was as much as 1,000 spirit stones, but they were still living in poverty.

The strength of an Eighth-rank Aristocratic Family was about ten times that of a Ninth-rank Aristocratic Family, so the consumption was naturally more than ten times that of a Ninth-rank Aristocratic Family.

Even if it was 10,000 spiritual stones, it was still not enough for an eight-rank aristocratic family to earn 5,000 spiritual stones a year.

When Chen Xuan saw this, he smiled awkwardly and said, "Patriarch, you might not know this, but these are indeed all the Song family's earnings in Nanyang County."

"5,000 spirit stones is enough for an Eighth-rank Aristocratic Family?" Chen Yang looked at Chen Xuan in confusion.

"Patriarch, you might not know this, but Nanyang County, Jiangyou County, Aiming County, Zuoling County, and Youling County, the income of the Eighth-rank aristocratic families in these five counties is around five thousand spirit stones." Chen Xuan said.

"Oh, I'd like to hear more about it." Yang Chen asked curiously.

"Patriarch, do you know that the territory of these five counties is only the size of two ordinary counties?"

"With a small territory, the profits will naturally be less." Chen Xuan explained.

Chen Yang was even more confused.

"Then why is it divided into five counties? It can be divided into two counties. Moreover, with such a small amount of income, how could these Eighth-rank Aristocratic Families continue to survive?"

“These two questions have the same answer.” Chen Xuan smiled and said, “Master, do you know about black iron?”

“Darksteel is a Grade Eight Mystical Material. It is the main material for crafting Grade Eight or Grade Nine Spirit Weapons, and it is also a necessary material.”

“One jin of dark iron can be sold for about ten spirit stones. On the other hand, refining a ninth-grade spiritual artifact would consume an average of ten catties of dark iron.”

“Could it be that there is some connection between the five counties and the black iron?” Yang Chen asked.

When Chen Xuan heard this, he nodded. “Family head’s guess is right. The reason why the territory the size of two counties is divided into five counties.

It was because there was a dark iron mine at the border of the five counties.”

“This dark iron mine can produce at least fifty thousand spirit stones every year.”

“If such a large meteorite mine is monopolized by one family, after one to two hundred years of accumulation, it will at least create a strong rank eight or even rank seven force.”

“The Beast Tamer Sect was naturally unwilling, so they split this place into five counties. Let the five Eighth-rank Aristocratic Families split the profits of the dark iron ore.”

Yang Chen understood. I was wondering how such a small territory could accommodate five Eighth-rank Aristocratic Families. So it was because of the Darksteel Mine.

“According to Grand Elder’s words, the Song Clan’s biggest business is in this dark iron mine.

Now that the Song Clan had been destroyed, the remaining four eighth-rank aristocratic families had divided up the Song Clan’s share.”

“That’s right.”

Yang Chen thought for a moment and then said, “I remember that the Eighth Elder’s wife, my Ninth Aunt, is a branch descendant of the Xu family, an eighth-rank aristocratic family in Aiming County.””

“She’s been married to our Chen family for so many years. It’s time for her to go back and take a look.”

“What do you mean?” Chen Xuan looked at Chen Yang’s face seriously and nodded. “I know what to do.””

Half a month later, outside the city gate of Xu City in Aiming County.

The city gate was tall and majestic. On the plaque of the city gate were two large golden words.

“Xu Cheng.”

Looking at the majestic walls of Xu City, countless pedestrians stopped and yearned for it.

The entire Jiang Prefecture knew that Xu City was a city guarded by the Xu Clan, an Eighth-rank Aristocratic Family.

The Xu Clan was an established eighth-rank aristocratic family in Jiang Prefecture. They had been an eighth-rank aristocratic family in Aiming County for 400 years.

After generations of management, the family’s foundation was much deeper than that of a new eighth-rank aristocratic family..

Chapter 128: Dark Iron Mine, Ninth Aunt Is Going Home in Glory

However, the Xu family had been having a hard time recently.

A few years ago, the royal family of the Great Gan recruited the ancestors of the various families. Naturally, the Xu family's ancestor was also recruited.

However, before the Xu family could wait for the news of the ancestor's achievements, they first obtained the ancestor's corpse.

Although Da Qian had compensated the Xu Family with many resources, it was enough for the Xu Family to give birth to another Core Formation Realm expert.

However, distant water couldn't quench the current thirst, and the future Core Condensation cultivator couldn't guard the current Xu family.

The ancestor of the Xu Family was the first generation of the Xu Family after reaching the Eighth Stage. He was now more than 370 years old.

He was only twenty years away from reaching the 400-year limit. No one knew how long the Xu family ancestor could last.

If the ancestor died and a new condensed core was born, then the Xu family's 400-year-old eighth-rank family would probably fall.

The Xu family still had external problems.

After the Song Clan was destroyed, the Song Clan's share of the Darksteel Mine should be divided equally among the remaining clans.

However, because of the death of the Xu Clan's ancestor, the other three eighth-rank aristocratic families avoided the Xu Clan and divided the Song Clan's share.

If that was all, it would be fine. After all, the Xu family was weak. Taking the Song family's share would only cause trouble for him.

However, the tree wanted to be quiet, but the wind did not stop. The other three aristocratic families not only occupied the Song family's share, but also the Xu family's share. They had plans to swallow up the Xu family's share.

Under such internal and external troubles, no one knew how long the Xu family could last.

Back to the main topic.

Today, Xu City welcomed a carriage.

This carriage was pulled by a storm wolf. One look and one could tell that it was from an aristocratic family.

The people outside the city also knew about this and made way for the carriage.

The carriage entered Xu City without any resistance and headed to a building complex in the north of the city.

As an eighth-rank aristocratic family that had been around for hundreds of years, the Xu family was naturally not something that the Chen family could compare to. It was also impossible for them to live together like the Chen family, regardless of whether they were direct descendants or collateral relatives.

The buildings in the north of the city were the territory of the Xu family's collateral family.

The carriage stopped outside a residence. A middle-aged couple walked out from the carriage.

This man had a strong physique and a dignified and steady face.

As for the woman, because she had taken good care of herself, she still looked charming, like an old lady.

This couple was the Eighth Elder of the Chen's, Chen Guang, and his wife, Xu Ningyun.

Chen Guang was the ninth brother of Yang Chen's father's generation. He was now 50 years old and had reached the eighth level of Qi Refinement. He could barely be considered an expert.

Of course, his talent was far inferior to his son, Chen Xiao.

Chen Guang was also happy. Who didn't want their children to surpass them?

"Chen Guang, what do you think of my outfit?"

It seemed like it was her first time visiting her mother's home, so Xu Ningyun was obviously nervous and took it seriously. She specially dressed up.

A purple-blue silk dress, a purple-blue phoenix crown, and an ice-blue pearl necklace made Xu Ningyun look like a woman in her thirties.

Chen Guang glanced at his wife and said absent-mindedly, "It's alright."

"What do you mean by alright?" Xu Ningyun raised her eyebrows. "Can you be more attentive and take a good look at me?"

Chen Guang saw that his wife was angry and smiled apologetically, "Madam, it's not that I don't care, but why do you have to dress up like this when you're going back to your own mother's house?"

"You don't understand."

Xu Ningyun snorted coldly." My brothers and their wives are very wary of me. Even when I sent a letter back, they thought I was going to fight for the inheritance."

"Now that I'm back at my mother's house, they might make things difficult for me."

"I have to prepare in advance so that they can see that I don't care about what they value."

"Alright, alright. We're family."

"Cut it out." Xu Ningyun glared at him.

"Beautiful, very beautiful. Compared to you, I feel a little inferior."

"At least you know how to talk." Xu Ningyun's eyebrows jumped, and her face was filled with joy.

"Let me tell you, you have to give me enough face this time. When the time comes, you can do whatever you want, even take a concubine."

"Don't talk nonsense. I never thought of taking a concubine."

"It's okay. Just pretend that I'm not here."

"Even if you weren't here, I would say the same. I, Chen Guang, will never take a concubine in my life."

"At least you know what's good for you."

Xu Qiu was an ordinary member of the Xu family.

Xu Qiu, who was now in his seventies, no longer worked hard for the family. He raised flowers and played with birds in the house every day, surrounded by his descendants, and enjoyed the joy of family.

Xu Qiu's strength was considered weak. He was at the eighth level of the Qi Refinement Stage, so he was considered decent among the Eighth-rank Nobles.

Otherwise, he wouldn't have been able to get it. This was considered a good house among the collateral relatives.

Today, Xu Qiu did not take care of the flowers and plants. Instead, he wore a brand new brocade robe and sat in the main hall. His eyes seemed to be anxious, as if he was waiting for someone.

Xu Qiu's descendants also gathered in the main hall.

"Boss, go and see if your third sister is here." Xu Qiu had not seen his daughter for more than twenty years, so he was naturally a little anxious.

Back then, he was unwilling to marry his daughter to the Chen family. A newly ascended ninth-rank aristocratic family, even if it was a direct descendant, how much happiness could his daughter enjoy if she followed him?

She might as well marry a branch family disciple of an eighth-rank aristocratic family. Putting everything else aside, she was still an eighth-rank aristocratic family, which was much stronger than a ninth-rank aristocratic family.

However, since his daughter was willing, he could only endure the pain.

Now that he heard that the Chen family was especially prosperous, he wondered if his daughter had enjoyed the good fortune.

Seeing this, the eldest son of the Xu family said hesitantly, "This... Father, Third Sister and I don't get along. Back then, it was because of me that she ran away from home in anger."

"Now that you want me to welcome you, isn't this..."

“How long has it been?” Xu Qiu glanced at Boss.” You were young and ignorant back then. Now that more than twenty years have passed, what kind of conflict can there be?”

“This...” Seeing this, Boss Xu braced himself and said,“”Alright, 1’11 go now.”

Outside Xu Qiu’s house, Xu Ningyun looked at the house that she had not seen for more than twenty years. She took a deep breath and slowly said,“Xu family, I, Xu Ningyun, am back!”

At this moment, two men in embroidered robes walked out from Xu Qiu’s courtyard.

Although he was already in his fifties, his appearance was no different from a thirty-year-old due to his cultivation.

When the eldest son of the Xu family saw his younger sister, he quickly went up to her with a smile.” Third Sister, you’re finally back. It was my fault back then. I mismatched you here.”

” Big Brother doesn’t have to be like this. “That was when I was young. I’ve long forgotten about it.” Xu Ningyun quickly replied.”

“I haven’t been home for so many years because there are too many things to do in the Chen family. I have to take care of everything, so I really don’t have time to come back.”

Chen Guang glanced at his wife. Since when did Xu Ningyun have to worry about the Chen family’s matters?

Forget it. At this time, he had to give his wife some face.

Sure enough, when he heard Xu Ningyun’s words, the eldest son of the Xu family was stunned. Then, the smile on his face widened.” Sister, you’ve worked hard.””

Then, the eldest son of the Xu family looked at Chen Guang.” This must be brother-in-law.””

“Chen Guang greets my brothers.””

“Aiyo, brother-in-law, you don’t have to be so polite.”

The eldest son of the Xu family quickly went forward and helped Chen Guang up. A flattering smile appeared on his face.” Brother-in-law, it’s not easy for you to come here. You have to stay a little longer this time.””

“Yes, I will.” Chen Guang nodded.

“Brother-in-law, this isn’t the place to talk. Come in with me.””

“Brother is right.” Xu Ningyun smiled and nodded. Then, she turned to the Xu family servant and said,“Come, come and move the things.”

“This was brought by Chen Guang to present to father.”

Immediately, a few servants walked out from the main residence and came to the carriage, carrying the things that Chen Guang had brought down one by one.

There was a bag of rice, a jar of wine, a piece of demon beast meat that weighed nearly a hundred jin, and some miscellaneous tea leaves, fruits, and vegetables.

It seemed rather normal.

Of course, rice, wine, and meat were all different.

For example, the difference between spiritual rice and rice, spiritual wine and wine, demon beast meat and ordinary beast meat was not small..

Chapter 129: Chen Yang’s Plan to Seize the Mine’s Portion

Although Chen Guang did not say what the item was, the eldest son of the Xu family was a martial artist. He could naturally sense the spiritual energy contained in it.

“Sister, what are these things?” The eldest son of the Xu family asked immediately.”

When Xu Ningyun heard this, she said proudly, “This rice is ninth-grade spiritual rice. If consumed for a long time, it will have a significant effect on Qi Refining martial artists.”

“Father is old and needs this spiritual rice to maintain his cultivation. There were 100 catties here. It should be enough for his father to eat for a while.” “As for this wine, it’s a ninth grade spirit wine, Spirit Origin Wine. I don’t think

I need to explain the effects of Spirit Origin Wine.”

“As for this Demonic Beast meat, it’s Demonic General level Demonic Beast meat. It can provide a large amount of Qi and blood for father, and it won’t be a problem for him to prolong his life.”

Although the eldest son of the Xu family was a branch disciple, he was also a member of an Eighth-rank aristocratic family. He had seen the world, but he was still shocked by the Chen family’s generosity.

With these gifts, those who didn’t know better would think that Chen Guang married a woman from the Xu family.

The eldest son of the Xu family looked a little unnatural. Then, he smiled obsequiously and said, “This... It seemed that his sister had enjoyed a lot in the Chen family.”

“Of course.” Xu Ningyun’s eyes were filled with pride.” Chen Guang is the eighth elder of the Chen family. As his wife, it’s my first time visiting my family. Naturally, I’m valued.”

“In addition, my son, Chen Xiao, has already reached the sixth level of the Qi Refining realm at such a young age. My son is hardworking. As a mother, my status in the Chen family is naturally not ordinary.”

When the eldest son of the Xu family heard this, he echoed with a smile, “Of course.”

The news of Xu Ningyun returning home to visit her family quickly spread. Naturally, this gift was also known to the collateral relatives of the Xu family. In response, the Xu family members all sighed at the Chen family’s generosity. “Damn, a daughter should be like Xu Ningyun. I’m afraid Xu Qiu won’t be able to earn a gift from visiting his family in his lifetime.”

“Back then, I was glad that my daughter wasn’t like Xu Ningyun, who married a newly promoted ninth rank aristocratic family disciple. But now, it seemed that her taste was far inferior to Xu Ningyun’s.”

Some were envious, some were jealous.

Especially those who were stronger than Xu Qiu, their eyes were red with jealousy.

They were stronger than Xu Qiu and could give their children more things than Xu Qiu.

But in the end, none of them could compare to Xu Qiu when they were old.

At the same time, these people also had fantasies in their hearts. It was impossible for their daughters to marry off, but there was still their granddaughter. If their granddaughter married off to the Chen family, not only would they be able to enjoy happiness, but they would also be able to enjoy Xu Qiu’s treatment.

Under the envious gazes of the crowd, the three of them brought their gifts and entered Xu Qiu’s courtyard in a grandiose manner.

In the main hall.

When Xu Qiu saw Xu Ningyun, her tears flowed uncontrollably. She held Xu Ningyun's hand and wanted to say something, but she could not open her mouth.

In the end, she could only say, " Daughter."

At this moment, Xu Ningyun was also in tears. She knelt down and hugged Xu

Qiu. She had thought of something to say, but she could not say it.

Fortunately, the eldest son of the Xu family was afraid that the two of them would cry too much, so he quickly pulled Xu Ningyun up." Father, Third Sister, you can't cry like this. What if you cry too much?"

"Yes, yes, yes." Xu Qiu wiped the tears from the corners of her eyes." I want to live for a while longer. I still want to enjoy the blessings my daughter has given me."

"By the way, why isn't my grandson here?"

Xu Ningyun saw this and wiped the tears from the corners of her eyes. She then smiled and said,"Father, Xiao 'er is a Yellow Grade Demon Slayer of the Demon Slayer Palace. He's usually busy and can't spare time to visit Father."

"Yes, yes, yes. Look at my brain."Xu Qiu patted his forehead." Xiao 'er showed off during the demon wave in Jiangyou County. Even Reverend Ningdan praised him."

Xu Qiu looked at Chen Guang.

Xu Qiu wanted nothing more than to strangle Chen Guang to death for the person who had stolen his daughter.

Fortunately, the Chen Family had turned the world upside down. Even an Eighth-rank Aristocratic Family had to give face to the Chen Family.

In addition to the profits from selling food, the family did not lack cultivation resources. Chen Guang had also made a fortune. Now that he had cultivated to the eighth level of Qi Refinement, there was hope for him to open his meridians.

His daughter would follow the path of the future Pulse Unsealing, and perhaps she would also become a Pulse Unsealing in the future and enjoy two hundred years of lifespan. She would be much stronger than him.

When Chen Guang saw Xu Qiu looking at him, he quickly cupped his hands and bowed." Greetings, father-in-law.""

"Alright, alright, no need to be so polite." Xu Qiu helped Chen Guang up and then said with a smile,""Chen Guang, you should stay with Ning Yun for a few more days."

"Yes, no problem."

Seeing that Chen Guang had agreed, Xu Qiu's smile grew wider." Alright, alright, alright. If there's anything you need in Xu City, just let me know. I still have some status in Xu City.""

Xu Qiu's words were true. This level 8 Qi Refining stage was not something that anyone could offend in Xu City, even if Xu Qiu was not a member of the Xu family.

When Chen Guang saw this, he continued to bow." I do have something to ask father-in-law for help."

"Tell me quickly." Xu Qiu did not expect that his son-in-law, who was so capable, would actually ask him for help.

"Father-in-law, please invite Master Xu here."Chen Guang said.

"This..." Xu Qiu was in danger. He was only a collateral relative, so how could he invite the family head just like that?

Even the Direct Line didn't say that they would casually invite the family head over.

"Dear son-in-law, allow me to ask one more question. Why did you invite the family head over?" Xu Qiu asked.

"This matter concerns the Chen family, please forgive me for not telling you.

His father-in-law only needed to say that the eighth elder of the Chen family was looking for him." Chen Guang said.

When Xu Qiu saw this, he sighed and looked at the eldest son of the Xu family." Boss, go and invite the family head over.."

Chapter 130: Chen Yang's Plan to Seize the Mine's Portion

"This..." The eldest son of the Xu family was a little troubled." I'm afraid I won't even be able to see the family head before I'm chased out."

"It's fine. As long as big brother says that my Chen family has something to see the family head, they won't dare to stop him!" Speaking up to this point, Chen Guang changed his humble attitude and said with a domineering expression.

"Alright, alright."

The eldest son of the Xu family was intimidated by Chen Guang and subconsciously went out.

He only woke up when he left the main hall. However, since he had already come out, the eldest son of the Xu family could only bite the bullet and head to the direct descendant of the Xu family.

“Stop!”

In front of the main entrance of the Xu family’s residence, the Xu family’s guards stopped the eldest son of the Xu family.

“I’m a member of the Xu family’s branch family. I’m here to see the family head.” The eldest son of the Xu family said respectfully.

When the guards saw this, they looked at each other and immediately said, “Why have you come this time?”

When the eldest son of the Xu family saw this, his heart skipped a beat. It was over. He really couldn’t even enter the door now.

But even so, the eldest son of the Xu family still braced himself and said, “My third sister has returned. Her husband is the eighth elder of the Chen family and is requesting to see the family head.”

“A married woman has returned, and the family head has to be dispatched. Even the direct descendants don’t have such treatment.” The Zuo family’s general’s eyes revealed a mocking expression.

“Shut up.”

The guard on the right chided the guard on the left and looked at the eldest son of the Xu family. “The Chen family you mentioned, is it the Chen family of Nanyang?”

“That’s right.”

“Wait here, I’ll go report.”

About ten minutes later, the general returned, and the person who followed him was the Xu family’s head.

“Where is the Chen Clan’s eighth elder now?” Master Xu asked.

The eldest son of the Xu family was stunned. He did not expect his brother-in-law to be so famous. He asked the family head to see him and the family head really came.

When had the Xu family’s master ever gone to see his son-in-law?

When the Xu family head asked him, the eldest son of the Xu family came to his senses and quickly said, “Reporting to Patriarch, my brother-in-law is at my house. I’ll get him to come over now.”

“No need. I’ll go see it myself. Lead the way.” Master Xu said.

“Alright, alright.”

The eldest son of the Xu family hurriedly brought the head of the Xu family to his house.

Along the way, countless members of the branch family watched attentively. They only recovered when they saw the Xu family head enter Xu Qiu’s residence.

For a moment, the entire branch family was in an uproar.

The family head had actually come. Could it be because of Xu Ningyun’s return?

But when had he ever heard of a family head welcoming his daughter home? If everyone was like this, wouldn’t the family head be so busy?

Thinking about it, it was still because of the Chen family. The Chen family was strong and powerful, and even Xu Qiu’s family enjoyed such glory.

In the main hall, Xu Qiu was anxiously waiting for the results.

To be honest, he wasn't sure if the family head would come. However, his son-in-law had already spoken. Even if it was embarrassing, he had to make a trip to the main courtyard.

Now, he could only pray that the family head was free and could let his son-in-law pay him a visit.

"Brother Qiu, why didn't you tell me that Ning Yun was back? It's as if I, as an uncle, don't like my niece."

Suddenly, a voice came from outside the main hall.

Xu Qiu was stunned when he heard the voice.

This... Wasn't that the voice of the family head? The family head actually came personally!

Xu Qiu had originally planned that it would be good enough if the family head was kind enough to let Chen Guang go and see him. However, who would have thought that the family head would actually come personally?

Xu Qiu immediately stood up to welcome him.

At this moment, the Xu family head also walked in. Seeing this, he quickly helped Xu Qiu to a chair and scolded, "Brother Qiu, you're not young anymore, and you haven't even broken through to Unlocking Meridians yet, so why do you still care so much about etiquette?"

"Besides, why do we need to be so polite when we meet?"

"Good, good. The Patriarch is right." Xu Qiu laughed.

"Hmm?" Anger appeared on Master Xu's face. "What did you call me? You should call me Brother Li, understand?"

“Yes, yes, yes. It’s my mistake. I should call you Brother Li.”

Seeing this, Master Xu smiled again.” That’s right.”

After exchanging a few words with Xu Qiu, the Xu family head looked at Chen Guang. Seeing this, Chen Guang cupped his hands and bowed,”The eighth elder of the Chen family greets the Xu family head.”

The Xu Family Head was stunned for a moment before he hurriedly returned the greeting.” Xu Yingli greets Elder Chen.””

Xu Yingli knew that Chen Guang said this because he had something important to discuss with him. Xu Yingli immediately looked at Xu Qiu.

When the cunning Xu Qiu saw this, he quickly smiled and said,””Boss, quickly help me out. Let’s see if the banquet is ready.”

“Yes.”

The eldest son of the Xu family quickly helped Xu Qiu up. At the same time, the Xu family members also left.

Soon, only Xu Yingli and Chen Guang were left in the main hall.

Outside the main hall, Xu Qiu looked at the sun. He had never felt so happy before.

Even the head of the Xu family called him brother. Xu Qiu didn’t even dare to dream about it.

In the past, Xu Yingli would not even look at him in the eye even if Xu Qiu addressed him as the family head with a flattering expression, let alone a brother.

Thinking about it, this was all his daughter's credit. She had found a good husband, and even he was enjoying the glory.

"Daughter, the most glorious thing in my life was giving birth to you."

"Father, you flatter me."

In the main hall.

Xu Yingli looked at Chen Guang." Elder Chen, what's the matter?"

When Chen Guang saw this, he put down the teacup in his hand and smiled."My clan head sent me here to save the Xu clan from its predicament."

"Oh? What predicament does my Xu family have? Elder Chen, please tell me the truth." Xu Yingli said.

When Chen Guang saw this, he smiled and shook his head." Master Xu, no matter what, I'm still the son-in-law of the Xu family. Why do you have to hide it from me?"

"Besides, everyone knows about the Xu family's difficulties. How can we hide it?"

Xu Yingli sighed." Sigh, the Xu family is in trouble!"

"It is precisely because it is difficult that my master sent me to save the Xu family."Chen Guang said with a smile.

"I'm willing to listen to Elder Chen's teachings."

"I don't dare to teach you. If you save the Xu family, my Chen family will also benefit."Chen Guang took out a piece of yellow paper and handed it to Xu Yingli.

“This is a letter from my family head to the Xu family head. After you read it, you will know the Chen family’s plans.”

Xu Yingli glanced at Chen Guang, then took the letter. After reading it carefully, he looked at Xu Yingli again.” Chen Clan Head, you mean to join forces with my Xu Clan to compete for the Darksteel Mine’s share?”

“Naturally.” Chen Guang nodded.

“But the Chen Family is only a Rank-9, and my Xu Family is also exhausted. How can we compare to those three peak Rank-8 aristocratic families?” Xu Yingli was puzzled.

Seeing this, Chen Guang picked up his teacup and blew at the hot air. Then, he leisurely took a sip.” Since my Chen family dares to ally with the Xu family, we naturally have the confidence to deal with the three aristocratic families.”

When Xu Yingli heard this, he held his teacup and kept thinking about the possibility of Yang Chen’s plan.

After a while, Xu Yingli crushed the teacup in his hand and said, “Alright, I agree to the Chen family’s request! However, I don’t understand. Since the two sides are planning to form an alliance, why isn’t the Chen Clan Leader here?”

“Of course, I’m not looking down on Elder Chen. It’s just that it’s better for the two family heads to discuss such a major matter.”

“I understand what Master Xu means, but has Master Xu ever thought that if my Master visits the Xu Family, wouldn’t it give the other three families time to prepare?”

“Now that the Chen family is using me as an excuse to form an alliance with the Xu family, it will definitely be able to numb the three great families. If we suddenly work together, we can achieve great things.” Chen Guang said with a smile.

Xu Yingli understood and immediately smiled." 1 see. 1 was too rash. Please forgive me, Elder Chen.""

"By the way, Elder Chen, when will our two families take action?"

"According to my family head, this matter should not be delayed. On the fifteenth of this month, our two families will take action."Chen Guang said.

"The 15th of this month? Doesn't that mean there are still ten days left?" Xu Yingli pondered for a while and then nodded." Alright, the fifteenth of this month." Then who should we deal with first?"

"Chu Clan of Jiangyou Prefecture."

"Chu Clan of Jiangyou Prefecture? Why the Chu Clan? The Chu Clan is quite far away from our two clans."Xu Yingli frowned.

Chen Guang raised his eyebrows and smiled." 1 chose the Chu family first because the two families in Zuoling County and Youling County are brothers."

"In the past, we were originally a family. Now that the world had changed, the hatred between the two families had long been eliminated. What was left was only the kinship between the two families.."
