

Tamer Family 51

Chapter 51: The Winged Tiger's Breakthrough

“Roar!”

Just as Yang Chen was about to lose his confidence, a tiger's roar suddenly erupted from within the city wall.

Immediately after, a five-meter-long, three-meter-tall demon beast with five-meter-long wings on its back swooped down from the sky.

A beam of light shot out from the mouth of the demon beast. Its power was no less than that of the spirit stone crossbow. In an instant, the demon beasts near the entrance of the city wall were cleared.

“Winged Tiger!”

Yang Chen's eyes were filled with joy when he saw the Winged Tiger.

The Winged Tiger turned its head to look at Chen Yang, then took a few steps towards the demon beasts. Immediately after, a roar sounded.

“Roar!”

Along with this roar, a terrifying aura of a late-stage Demon General gradually spread out from the Winged Tiger's body.

As the Winged Tiger let out an angry roar, the demon beasts kept retreating. Some of the weaker demon beasts were even so scared that they lay on the ground and did not move at all.

The double suppression of bloodline and strength made this group of demon beasts who were about to break through the defense line retreat.

“Awoo!”

Just as this group of demon beasts was about to give in, a wolf howl suddenly sounded from behind the demon tide. Immediately after, a late stage demon general mystic armor wolf slowly walked to the side of the winged tiger.

“Mysterious Armored Wolf, I didn’t think that there would be such a demonic beast in this demonic horde.” Seeing the appearance of the Mystic Armored Wolf, Yang Chen understood that only by defeating it would the second wave of the demon horde truly pass.

“Winged Tiger, I’ll leave it to you.”

Yang Chen waved his hand to signal for everyone to disperse and make room for the winged tiger.

The demonic beasts retreated one after another. In just ten minutes, a large battlefield was cleared for the Mystic Armored Wolf and the Winged Tiger.

Then, accompanied by a wolf roar and a tiger roar, the two late-stage demon generals officially fought.

The Mystic Armored Wolf was not an ordinary demonic beast. As a Mystic Armored Wolf that contained the bloodline of a peak demonic general, its most special feature was its wolf skin that was comparable to armor.

Its powerful defense gave the ordinary Mystic Armored Wolf the ability to dominate the Demon Generals.

As for the Winged Tiger, it was even more extraordinary. The Demon Venerable bloodline allowed it to use its innate demonic arts at the Demon General realm.

The light beam that cleared the demonic beasts earlier was the Winged Tiger's innate demonic art, Tiger Origin Break!

The so-called innate demonic art was a killing martial art that was formed by the blood in the body of a demonic beast when it reached the peak of Demon Venerable.

After becoming a Demon Venerable, he no longer needed to rely on his claws and teeth to fight.

The winged tiger had innate yao arts and might not be able to break through the defense of the mysterious armored wolf. In this battle, it was still unknown who would win.

Bang!

The two demonic beasts instantly collided. Because of the wings on the back of the Winged Tiger, it had a lot of initiative when fighting with the Mystic Armored Wolf.

The wolf relied on its powerful defense to exhaust the winged tiger.

In a short time, the two demon generals had exchanged hundreds of moves. The outside of Chen City was full of potholes, full of traces of the two sides fighting.

Up until now, the two sides were still evenly matched.

All of a sudden, the black-armored wolf seized the Winged Tiger's weakness and pounced in front of it. It bit down on the Winged Tiger's front claw with its sharp teeth.

Although the winged tiger roared in pain, its beast eyes revealed a human-like smugness.

When the wolf released its mouth and prepared for the next wave of attacks.

A terrifying energy gathered in the Winged Tiger's mouth and poured out, targeting the wolf's head.

Bang!

Following a shocking explosion, the Winged Tiger flew backward and fell heavily to the ground. Its face and forelimbs were filled with wounds, and blood flowed out as if it was free.

“Winged Tiger!”

Seeing the Winged Tiger like this, Yang Chen subconsciously wanted to step forward, but as the Winged Tiger shook its head, Yang Chen retracted his right foot.

As for the front, after the dust settled, the wolf lay motionless on the spot. Its huge wolf head disappeared at this moment.

The Winged Tiger’s attack completely turned the wolf’s head into dust. As for the Winged Tiger, if it had not flapped its wings crazily when the explosion sounded, it would probably have been affected by the aftershock.

“Beautiful!”

Chen Yang was stunned by the Winged Tiger’s actions. He didn’t expect that the Winged Tiger, who was a demonic beast, would actually take the initiative to sell a flaw to seduce the enemy.

No matter what, the Winged Tiger had the last laugh in this battle.

“Roar!”

Carrying the aftershock of killing the Mystic Armored Wolf, the Winged Tiger let out another tiger roar, scaring the demon beasts into retreating.

As for the depths of the demon tide, after a long silence, a wolf howl sounded again. Following this wolf howl, the demon beasts retreated one after another.

“Victory!”

It was unknown who shouted victory. Then, the entire city wall fell into ecstasy.

Meanwhile, the citizens of Chen City quickly opened the city walls and brought Chen Yang and the others back.

Leaning on the city wall, Yang Chen let the doctor treat his wounds while squinting his eyes and listening to the joy on the city wall.

“We really won! If they could repel the second wave, they would be able to repel the third wave. Sooner or later, the demon tide would retreat.”

“That’s right. The Chen Clan Leader is powerful and has such a terrifying subdued beast. A mere demon tide was nothing!”

“It is also my Chen Cheng’s luck to be able to have a family like the Chen family. If it was any other family, they would have been destroyed by now.”

Listening to the joyful laughter on the city wall, Yang Chen suddenly felt that his previous crazy actions seemed to be worth it.

The demon wave did not come again, giving Chen Cheng a chance to catch his breath.

Under the leadership of the county magistrate, the masons of Chen City repaired the city wall overnight. Before the sun came out, they finally patched up the hole.

Then, they did not stop and continued to strengthen the city wall.

As for Yang Chen himself, his eyes were half-closed as his thoughts drifted into the distance. Who knew what was going on outside Chen City...

At this moment, outside Chen City.

Chen Xuan rode on the Gale Wolf and left Chen City for a day. With the power of the Gale Wolf's legs, coupled with Chen Xuan's bloodline ability, the journey was smooth and they basically toured all over Nanyang County.

However, the smile on Chen Xuan's face had already disappeared.

Demonic beast! Demonic beast!

Other than demonic beasts, there was nothing else. The entire Nanyang County was under the attack of the demon horde.

Moreover, Chen Xuan had personally witnessed a city being breached by the demon wave. The wails of the people in the city were something that Chen Xuan could not forget even now.

At this moment, Chen Xuan only had one destination left, and that was Song Cheng.

After investigating Song Cheng's situation, Chen Xuan could go back and report to Chen Yang..

Chapter 52: The Situation Outside (1)

Song City, on the city wall.

"Father, I'm scared."

A fourteen or fifteen-year-old child fell into the arms of a middle-aged man. He looked at the demonic beast below the city wall with a sobbing tone.

“Don’t be afraid, don’t be afraid.”

The middle-aged man touched his son’s hair and looked at the Song family guard behind him, pleading, “Lord, can you let me go down? I’ll just kill a few more demon beasts.”

“Cut the crap!”

The Song Clan member lashed the man’s back with his whip.” All Song City residents above the age of 14. have to go up the city wall to defend against the demonic beasts.”

“This is the rule of the family head. You still dare to bargain? If you dare to talk nonsense again, I’ll kill you!”

As he spoke, he lashed out even harder, scaring the child in the man’s arms into wailing.

As for the man, he could only comfort his child while smiling apologetically at the guard.

This scene was seen by the group of martial artists. The young man leading them frowned and then planned to go forward.

His friend beside him quickly stopped him.” Brother Zhaoling, what do you want?”

“Naturally, I’m going to seek justice! If a fourteen-year-old child was sent today, he would be thirteen tomorrow. It wouldn’t be long before all the children would be sent up.”

The man called Brother Zhaoling said angrily.

“Brother Zhaoling, lower your voice! Moreover, he wanted these commoners to resist the demon tide. No matter which aristocratic family it was, they would do the same. It was just that the Song family had gone a little overboard.”

” Moreover, Brother Zhaoling, you still bear the hope of the Qing family rising up. If you lose your life because of recklessness, how can you face your ancestors?”

Hearing this, Qing Zhaoling clenched his fists tightly and took a deep breath.” I understand.”

Qing Zhaoling immediately turned his head away and hypnotized himself that he did not hear or see anything.

Below the city wall, in a depression.

Chen Xuan, who had heard the sound from the city wall, sighed deeply.

The Song family actually sent their children to resist the demon tide. They were simply crazy!

Although the other aristocratic families had also sent out their citizens to resist the demon wave, they would all protect their children and give them hope. These people would also do their best to resist the demon tide because their children were in the city.

No matter who you are, you have to go to the city to resist the demon!

“The Song family will suffer the wrath of heaven sooner or later!” Chen Xuan, who was born as a commoner, did not have a good expression towards this kind of aristocratic family that wantonly exploited the common people.

“Fortunately, I met the patriarch. Otherwise, I would have been pushed to the city wall.” After letting out a faint sigh, Chen Xuan turned around and left.

Two flowers bloomed, each showing a branch.

At this moment, in Song City, in the Song Residence.

The Prefectural Governor looked at Patriarch Song with an unfriendly expression. "Patriarch Song, when the Chen family sent the news over, you didn't believe it. Now that the demon horde is at the city gates, do you believe it?"

"You!" Master Song paused for a moment before sighing, "Sigh, it's useless to say all this now.

Lord County Governor, for now, we can only think of a way to resist the demon tide."

"Humph! I'll leave this idea to Patriarch Song. Forgive me for not accompanying you. Farewell!" The county governor waved his sleeve and left the Song family angrily.

Pa!

When Master Song saw this, he smashed the chair he was sitting on into powder in anger. Then, regret appeared on his face. If he had believed the Chen family's news, even if he had gone to investigate, perhaps the outcome would have been different.

But now, it was useless to regret. He could only push more commoners to the top and try his best to retain the strength of the Song family.

Chen City.

After the second wave of attacks from the demonic beasts was disintegrated, there was no sign of the demonic beasts making a comeback for an entire day.

Yang Chen heaved a sigh of relief. If he had time, he could reinforce the city walls and recover his spiritual energy.

Below the city wall, bonfires were being lit up. This demon wave had given the people of Chen City a good meal.

This Demonic Beast meat was a great tonic for martial artists in the Qi Refining stage.

Even the direct descendants of the Chen family were not so extravagant as to eat demon beast meat for every meal. Now, this demon wave gave the people of Chen City the chance to eat demon beast meat.

Yang Chen took a deep breath as he looked at the children who were drooling beside the bonfire. His eyes became determined.

Even if it's for these children, I have to protect the city!

“Patriarch, General Chen Xuan has returned.” At this moment, the First Elder brought Yang Chen a piece of good news.

“Is that so? Quickly, come with me to welcome Chen Xuan.” Chen Yang wanted to know the situation in the outside world too much at this moment. He hurriedly brought Chen Xuan down the city wall and jumped all the way to Chen Xuan.

“Chen Xuan pays his respects to the Patriarch!” Chen Xuan saw that Chen Yang had come to welcome him personally, so he quickly got off the wolf and knelt down.

“There's no need to be so polite.” Yang Chen supported Chen Xuan and pulled him up in the air. “Tell me about the situation outside.”

“Patriarch, let's go back and talk.” Chen Xuan said with a smile.

Immediately, Yang Chen pulled Chen Xuan's arm and walked toward Chen Cheng with a smug look on his face. Take a look, this is my Chen family's guard, that's how powerful he is.

Chen Xuan was shocked when he saw the clan head treating him with such courtesy.

Then, he suppressed the excitement in his heart and followed Chen Yang to Chen City. At the same time, a thought appeared in his heart.

I, Chen Xuan, will only follow the Patriarch's lead in this life!

Chen City, on the city wall.

After reaching the city wall, Chen Yang could no longer hold back and quickly asked, "Tell me, what's the situation outside?"

Chen Xuan slowly shook his head. "Family Head, the situation outside is not optimistic. The entire Nanyang County was hit by the demon tide."

"Even the Song Clan suffered heavy losses from the demon horde."

"As for the other aristocratic families, their vitality has been greatly damaged. I also saw with my own eyes that Liu City was attacked by demonic beasts. The entire Liu Family, a ninth-rank aristocratic family, died in battle. The entire Liu City was like hell on earth."

"On the other hand, Mo Cheng, Feng Cheng, and Li Cheng were prepared because we informed them in advance. The losses were still acceptable."

After listening to Chen Xuan's report, the smile on Chen Yang's face disappeared. "What's wrong with these animals in the Endless Mountain Range? They actually dare to act like this."

"Aren't they afraid that the royal family will clean them up?"

“If they consider the consequences of their actions, then they are not demonic beasts.” Chen Xuan said disdainfully.

“Since no one in Nanyang County can help us, we can only save ourselves.” Yang Chen took a deep breath and a fighting spirit radiated from his body.

“Now, let’s see if we can’t hold on first, or if this demon beast can’t hold on first!”

At the same time, outside the Beast Tamer Sect in Jiang Prefecture.

Demon Monarch Scarlet Refinement flicked his tongue and roared at the Zifu Disciple of the Beast Tamer Sect.

The Spirit Eared Fox on his back quickly translated, “Luo Rong, I wonder if you are satisfied with the gift my king brought?”

Luo Rong was about to explode from anger. He wanted to go out and fight Demon King Chi Lian, but when he saw the two demon kings beside Demon King Chi Lian, he swallowed his anger.

“Demon King Scarlet Refinement, aren’t you afraid that the royal family of Da Qian will punish you for your actions?”

Chapter 53: King De Shun

“My king said that we are not afraid even if the royal family’s ancestor comes, let alone the Great Qian royal family!” Spirit Ear Fox said arrogantly.

“Oh? Is that so?”

At this moment, a dignified voice exploded in the sky. Immediately after, a black dot quickly swept over from the horizon.

It was an eagle-type demon king that was about 30 meters long. On the back of the demon king stood a person in luxurious clothes.

This person had a resolute expression and his eyes were cold and sharp. The terrifying aura emitted from his body would even terrify a Pulse Unsealing expert.

As for the people of the Beast Tamer Sect, if not for the fact that their Zifu Disciple was guarding them, not a single one of them would have stood up.

This person glanced at Demon Monarch Redrefinement and said indifferently, "Red Refinement Demon King, you sure are arrogant. Let alone my ancestor, I can skin you alive today!"

"On account of the two sides' agreement, I can let bygones be bygones if you retreat quickly."

"Hiss hiss hiss!"

"My king said that if we want the demon horde to retreat, we have to return our king's son to us."

"Nonsense!"

The man's expression turned cold. "A son of a Spirit Eye Python? How can you say such nonsense?"

"Revered Lord Luo Rong, let's work together and teach this Redflame Demon King a lesson."

When Luo Rong heard this, he also looked at Demon Monarch Redrefinement with an unfriendly expression. "Supremacy De Shun, I think it's fine."

Immediately, the two Zifu Disciples and the two demon monarchs charged at Demon Monarch Redrefinement.

Immediately, a great battle began.

Demon Monarch Redrefinement originally thought that he wouldn't fail again after finding help. However, he really did not expect the royal family to react so quickly and even send this person over.

King De Shun was the leader of the four kings under the Great Qian King. His cultivation was so strong that he could be said to be the number one person in the Great Qian Zifu.

Most likely, only the royal family's Patriarch, who had surpassed the Zifu level, could suppress King De Shun.

With King De Shun's participation, Demon Monarch Scarlet Refined was forced to retreat. He had no choice but to temporarily stop fighting.

“Hiss hiss.”

“Reverend De Shun, please stop for now. My king is willing to negotiate.”

“Why didn't you say that earlier?” King De Shun smiled disdainfully. Then, he stood in the air with Luo Rong and waited for Demon Monarch Redrefinement to speak.

The venerable was a form of respect for the Zifu Disciples, just like Reverend Core Condensation.

Now that Demon Monarch Redrefinement had addressed King De Shun as a Supremacy, he had already given in. King De Shun was curious as well. He wanted to hear what Demon Monarch Scarlet Smelting had to say.

“Honored Sir De Shun, Honored Sir Luo Rong, our Great King is speaking the truth. As long as you hand over my king's son, not only will the demon horde retreat, but my king will also give you a large amount of compensation.”

Hearing the Spirit Eared Fox's words, King De Shun subconsciously wanted to retort. But thinking about it carefully, what if it was true?

It was not strange for demon beasts to do anything.

"Stay here. You can't go anywhere," King De Shun said indifferently. "I'll discuss it with Venerable Luo Rong and give you an answer in an hour."

"Alright, we're willing to wait."

Immediately, King De Shun glanced at Luo Rong. Then, the two of them rushed into the Beast Tamer Sect.

When they arrived at a secret chamber, King De Shun asked, "Venerable Luo Rong, I don't think this matter is fake. Tell me what happened."

Luo Rong thought about it again and again and decided to tell King De Shun everything he knew.

After hearing Luo Rong's words, King De Shun frowned. "You mean that Demon Monarch Crimson Refinement's son was snatched away by King De's manor's young prince?"

"I didn't mean that. I'm just telling Reverend De Shun what I know." Luo Rong laughed.

King De Shun frowned. This was not easy...

This King De was a First Prince, and his rank was even higher than his, King De Shun. Furthermore, King De's seniority was extremely high. He was King De Shun's grandfather.

Otherwise, he wouldn't have been conferred the title of First Prince.

And that young prince was King De's favorite junior. If he made a big fuss, even the old ancestor would be alarmed.

Luo Rong saw through King De Shun's difficulties and immediately said, "Reverend De Shun, I think that Demon Monarch Redrefinement is spouting nonsense."

"I reckon that the Demon Sovereign in the Endless Mountain Range has some sort of agreement with the Great Kun Dynasty and intends to cause trouble for us from behind."

"Reverend De Shun, don't destroy the royal family's harmony because of the demonic beast's words."

Hearing Luo Rong's words, King De Shun pondered for a moment, then said, "This matter is of great importance. I have to let the king know."

"How about this, you and I will go out and stabilize Demon King Redrefinement first. I estimate that in less than three days, King will give an order."

"Alright."

Immediately, King De Shun and Luo Rong arrived in front of Demon Monarch Scarlet Smelting. Looking at Demon Monarch Scarlet Smelting, King De Shun said coldly, "I have already sent someone to verify this matter. You can wait for three days."

"In these three days, the demon horde is not allowed to attack the Jiang Prefecture."

"Hiss hiss." Redrefinement nodded.

"My Great King said that this demonic beast's ferocity has already been stimulated and it's impossible to stop it. Besides, there was not enough time."

"Red Refined Demon King, you are shameless. With your leg strength, you can send the message to all parts of Jiang Prefecture within a day."

“As for its ferocity, with the Demon Venerable guarding it, what ferocity can’t be suppressed?” King De Shun immediately planned to make a move.

It was still Luo Rong who had sharp eyes and quickly stopped King De Shun. Then, he looked at Demon Monarch Scarlet Tempering. “Demon Monarch Scarlet Tempering, this doesn’t look like a negotiation, right?”

“My Great King said that the Demon Venerable can choose not to attack. This is our bottom line. As for the rest, we’ll talk about it when my king’s son arrives.”

When Luo Rong saw this, he persuaded King De Shun, “Venerable De Shun, this is enough. Without Venerable Demons interfering, the eighth-rank aristocratic families in the river state would be able to survive.”

“But what about the ninth-rank aristocratic families and the people of Da Qian? They couldn’t withstand the demon general’s attack.” King De Shun said worriedly.

“Aiyo, King De Shun, put away your compassionate heart. So what if they died? It wouldn’t be long before another batch was born.”

“As for the ninth-rank aristocratic families, we can eliminate a batch of them in this demon wave. Those who survive will have a chance to reach the eighth rank. Only then can we increase the strength of Da Qian.” Luo Rong said.

King De Shun nodded, and could be considered to agree with Luo Rong’s view. It was just that there was always some uneasiness in his heart.

If he was so cold-blooded, then all the geniuses born from the commoners would probably be unfaithful to Da Qian.

At this moment, in Chen Cheng.

Looking at the Chen family members being carried down one by one, Chen Xuan could not help but ask, "Patriarch, is it all worth it?"

"We can totally let those who are not from our Chen family go up the city wall to resist first."

"Grand Elder, these commoners are the water, and we are the boats. One had to know that water could capsize a boat as well."

"If we can obtain the admiration of these people and make them proud to join the Chen family, our Chen family will be able to truly develop."

"How can the Chen family compare with the world?"

Chapter 54: Secret News

Chen Xuan was stunned. He did not know that Chen Yang was so ambitious.

The head of a ninth-grade aristocratic family actually wanted to dominate the world. If it were anyone else, Chen Xuan would definitely ignore them.

However, if it was what his family head said, Chen Xuan had a feeling that such a day would really come.

"But Patriarch, outsiders can't be trusted like family members." Chen Xuan said again.

"Grand Elder, the situation is a little small." Chen Yang smiled as he brushed the dust off the Great Elder's shoulder. "Great Elder, wouldn't a family member betray the family?"

"Throughout the Great Gan Dynasty, most of the aristocratic families collapsed because of the betrayal of their own people."

"At the end of the day, it's still that family head who doesn't have any methods."

Chen Xuan understood. At the same time, his admiration for Chen Yang increased even more. With such an ambitious family head, the Chen family would have no worries.

“Of course, we can marry her and bring her into the Chen family. If that was the case, wouldn’t they also be members of the Chen family?” Yang Chen added. “Besides, aren’t there still ruins? These ruins can completely increase the strength of our clansmen.

At that time, these geniuses would join the Chen family because of their reputation, but they would also be afraid of the Chen family because of their strength.

I don’t believe that these people would dare to betray me.”

Listening to Chen Yang’s narration, a scene appeared in Chen Xuan’s mind. Under Chen Yang’s command, countless geniuses were willing to go through fire and water for the Chen family.

After a while, Chen Xuan came back to his senses.” Compared to the head of the Chen family, you’re more suitable to be the emperor who reigns over the world.”

“You can’t say that. I, Chen Yang, am a good person and will never betray Da Qian.” Yang Chen said as if he was a good person.

Time flew by, and in the blink of an eye, three days had passed.

To Yang Chen’s surprise, the demon beasts did not attack for three days. If it were not for the fact that the demon beasts were still wandering outside Chen City, Yang Chen would have thought that the demon tide had retreated.

In a secret chamber in the Beast Tamer Sect, the Deshun Commandery Prince also received the Human King’s edict.

“The Human King has decreed that since the founding of Da Qian, no one has ever heard of a Red Refined Python and a Spiritual Eye Python giving birth to a child.”

“I have ordered the Deshun Commandcry Prince to drive all the demonic beasts that invaded our Great Gan back to the Endless Mountain Range.”

After hearing the Human King’s decree, King De Shun frowned and looked at the old man who came to announce the decree.

“Prince De, why did His Majesty issue such an edict? Isn’t this forcing the demon beasts to break the alliance agreement with us?”

“You have to know that the entire Great Kun is at war. If the demon beasts of the Endless Mountain Range attack Great Qian, how are we going to defend?” King De collected the imperial edict and then chuckled. “Since His Majesty has decreed, we will obey.”

“Prince De, forgive me for being blunt, but if your residence really took the Red Smelting Python’s child, you can just return it to the Red Smelting Demon King.” King De Shun asked again.

Upon hearing this, the smile on King De’s face disappeared. “Dcshun Commandcry Prince, you have to know that you are a disciple of the Great Qian Dynasty’s royal family and will obey the king’s orders!”

“This chaotic order cannot be called!” King De Shun was also unhappy and immediately snorted.

As the number one person in the Great Qian Purple Mansion and the strongest person under the royal family’s ancestor, if the Deshun Commandery Prince was unwilling to act, even the Human King could not force him.

When King De saw this, a smile appeared on his face again. “Deshun Commandery Prince, what if this is the will of our ancestor?”

“What did you say?” King De Shun was shocked. “Why would the ancestor issue such an edict?”

“That’s right, I did.”

At this moment, an elderly figure appeared in front of King De Shun." I am very pleased that Li 'er is always thinking for Great Qian."

"However, it's better for you to follow this edict."

"Yes, sir!" King De Shun did not expect the old ancestor to actually come. Immediately, he could only carry out his orders.

After King De Shun left the secret chamber, King De could not help but ask,""Ancestor, De Shun's words are true. Why should we tear up the alliance?" "Even if what the ancient book said is true, when the Red Refined Python turns into a Sovereign, who knows how long it will take. Can our Da Qian hold on?" "Even if we can hold on, the addition of a Demon Sovereign in the Great Qian Dynasty will only cause the other dynasties to join forces to resist or even attack the Great Qian Dynasty together."

"Is this really worth it?"

After hearing Prince De's words, the royal family's ancestor smiled and patted Prince De's shoulder."Lu 'er, do you know that the Red Smelting Python has the bloodline of the Feiyi?"

Prince De nodded." I learned about this in the academy, but the Feiyi bloodline in the Red Smelting Python is already extremely thin. It's useless."

"Yes, but if you make peace with a Spirit Eye Python that has the bloodline of a Spirit Awakening Python, the Feiyi bloodline in the Red Refined Python that is born from it will suddenly increase when it becomes a Demon Emperor."

"Is there such a thing?" King De looked at the old ancestor in surprise.

"This is the information I got from the outside. It's normal that you don't know.""With the Feiyi Bloodline, the Red Refined Python can attempt to break through to that realm."

“Even if I don’t succeed, I’ve already reached half a step. At that time, no matter how many empires joined forces, what could they do?”

“In order to plan this matter, I’ve been searching for a long time.

Unfortunately, in the Endless Mountain Range that corresponds to Da Qian, there is only one red-refined demon monarch.”

“Otherwise, it wouldn’t have developed to this point. However, all of this was within my expectations. All the losses were worth it.”

After hearing the ancestor’s words, Prince De finally understood that everything was planned by the ancestor.

However, Prince De still did not understand one thing.” Ancestor, how can you be so sure that the red refinement demon monarch will make peace with the spirit eye python?”

“It’s still because of the Spirit Awakening Bloodline. A Spirit Eye Python with this bloodline is undoubtedly a peerless beauty to a Red Refined Python.” “Similarly, due to the Spirit Awakening Bloodline, the Spirit-Eyed Python will also like Demon Monarch Red-Refined. With our plan, it’s only a matter of time before the two of them make peace.”

“Ancestor, I understand. However, I’m afraid that our Great Gan will have to suffer from the demon horde all year round.” Prince De said.

“It doesn’t matter. As long as we can obtain the Fei Yi, so what if the people are in misery?” The ancestor was disdainful.

“Right, let Lan ‘er nurture the Red Refined Python. Only then can Lan’ er make a great contribution and take over the position of Human King.”

“I understand.” Prince De nodded, his eyes flashing with determination.

All of you, the people of Da Qian, have survived for so long under the protection of the royal family. It was time for him to contribute his strength to the royal family.

Outside the Beast Tamer Sect, the Deshun Commandery Prince worriedly walked up to the Red Refined Demon King. Then, he gritted his teeth and said, “After investigation, what you said is all false.”

“Now that I, the King of Da Qian, have given the order, since you don’t care about the alliance agreement, we won’t be polite either!”

Chapter 55: The Negotiations Collapse, and the Demonic

Beasts Tear Up the Covenant

Upon hearing Deshun Commandery Prince’s words, Demon Monarch Scarlet Refining nearly died of anger. Your own descendants have been captured by you, and you still say that I’m lying?

Immediately, Demon Monarch Scarlet Refinement roared in anger, revealing his demon monarch aura.

“My king has said that since your Great Gan is unwilling to return the First Prince’s heir, then the alliance shall be canceled!”

“Tearing up the alliance? Can you make the decision?” Deshun Commandery Prince snorted coldly and slapped down.

Immediately after, a palm print about ten feet long appeared and instantly slapped the back of the Red Refined Demon King.

“Roar!”

Demon Monarch Scarlet Refinement roared in pain and was about to fight the Deshun Commandery Prince when dark clouds gathered in the sky.

In the midst of the dark clouds and thunder, a five-hundred-meter-long snake with dragon horns on its head and three dragon claws on its body appeared.

Beside the snake was a demon king spirit ear fox.

“Since Demon King Redflame is not worthy of breaking the alliance, what about my lord?”The Spirit Eared Fox said coldly.

Seeing the huge snake in the sky, the Deshun Commandery Prince’s eyes flashed with fear.” Flood Dragon Demon Emperor, you actually came?”

Seeing his father arrive, Demon Monarch Scarlet Refinement hurriedly flew up and roared in grievance.

After hearing Red Refined Demon King’s words, the flood dragon’s eyes flashed with viciousness. Then, it spat out a water pillar from its mouth and headed straight for Deshun Commandery Prince.

The water pillar looked ordinary, but the terrifying energy contained in it was something that even the number one person in the Great Qian Purple Mansion, the Deshun Commandery Prince, could not withstand.

At this moment, the royal family’s ancestor appeared and blocked the attack for the Deshun Commandery Prince.

“Flood Dragon, as a Demon Sovereign, you attacked my people. I’m afraid it’s a little inappropriate. Forget it, since you want to break the alliance agreement, then our Great Gan will accept it.”

The royal family’s ancestor leaped out immediately, emitting a powerful aura that was no weaker than the flood dragon.” Flood dragon, since your hands are itching, let me accompany you.””

Immediately, the two sides flew up at the same time. No one wanted to fight here with the children of these two.

Only after ensuring that the aftermath of the battle would not affect the descendants did they officially take action.

Of course, it was only relative that it wouldn't affect them. Even if the place where they fought was some distance away from the land, the aftershocks produced could still crush experts below the Zifu level.

If not for Luo Rong relying on the sect protecting grand array and his own cultivation to block the aftershock for the Beast Tamer Sect...

Even the mountain top of the Beast Tamer Sect would be turned into dust. As for the Beast Tamer City at the foot of the Beast Tamer Mountain, it was the Deshun Commandery Prince who cooperated with the large array left behind by the Beast Tamer Sect's powerhouses to withstand the aftershocks.

As for the other places, there was no need to think about it. Even if they were not crushed into powder, it was almost the same.

At this moment, in Chen City.

The demon wave that had been stagnant for a long time finally could not stand the loneliness and rushed towards Chen Cheng.

This time, the demonic beasts did not choose to attack one side of the city wall. Instead, they chose to attack from all directions.

Such a formation made Chen Cheng's group of city guards flustered. Fortunately, with Chen Yang and Chen Xuan's help, Chen Cheng was able to escape unscathed.

Although the demon wave had caused a lot of trouble for Chen Cheng, it had also caused the city walls to be lacking in demon beasts.

Looking at the demon tide below the city wall, Yang Chen had a plan in his mind," Great Elder, do you think these demon beasts have all swarmed to the bottom of the city wall?"

After Chen Xuan casually killed a Demonic Beast, he looked at the scale of the Demonic Beasts under the city wall.

"If the demonic beasts under every city wall are of this scale, then I'm afraid that the demonic beasts have come out in full force."

"If that's the case, wouldn't there be no one to guard the Spirit Eared Fox?" Yang Chen's eyes lit up.

"Patriarch, are you planning to hunt a Spirit Eared Fox?"

Don't even think about it. The Spirit Eared Fox will definitely have powerful demonic beast guards by its side. We have no chance." Chen Xuan shook his head.

"If we can't fight head-on, we can sneak attack. I plan to let Chen Xuan bring Chen Dao to break through the blockade of the demon horde and sneak into the rear of the demon horde to kill the Spirit Ear Fox." Yang Chen said.

When Chen Xuan heard this, he thought about the feasibility of this plan and said,"The Spirit Eared Fox's defense isn't very strong. If Chen Dao is given a grade nine spirit weapon level arrow, he should be able to kill it."

"Isn't that enough? Pass down the order to see who still has spirit tool level arrows. We'll gather them.

If anyone dares to hide, after the demon tide ends, my Chen family will definitely destroy their race." Yang Chen said.

"Okay, I'll go immediately."

Under Chen Xuan's supervision, in less than an hour, a martial arts aristocratic family offered a Spirit Artifact arrow.

Holding the arrow, Yang Chen couldn't help but laugh, "Alright, you have rendered meritorious service this time. My Chen family will definitely reward you."

When the aristocratic family that offered the arrows heard this, they waved their hands repeatedly. "Chen Clan Leader, we offered these arrows not to ask for a reward."

"I want to give this arrow to the Chen family. Only in this way can it display its true power and help Chen Cheng."

Yang Chen looked at the aristocratic family and said, "Since that's the case, I won't reward you. When the time comes, I'll tell the county magistrate about your achievements and let the county government reward you."

This time, the aristocratic family did not refuse.

The rewards from the county government and the Chen family were two different things.

The Chen Clan had given them a reward, which could be said to have bought the arrows. Now that the Chen Clan had contributed so much to Chen Cheng, if they still dared to accept the reward, they would definitely be scolded to death.

But the reward from the county government was different. It was a recognition of their achievements.

After getting the arrows, Chen Yang called Chen Xuan and Chen Dao to come in front of him. "I'll give you a mission. Go deep into the demon horde and kill a Spirit Eared Fox."

"With the death of the Spirit Eared Fox, the demonic horde will collapse on its own."

“No problem.” The two of them subconsciously agreed. It was only then that Chen Dao reacted.”
Master, I’ve never seen a Spirit Eared Fox before. Do you know what a Spirit Eared Fox looks like?””

Yang Chen was also a little embarrassed.

After a while, Yang Chen said with a smile,” Looks can always lie. You just need to find a fox that is surrounded by many powerful demonic beasts. That is the Spirit Ear Fox.””

“Oh right, I can send my demonic beasts to assist you. Do you choose the Light Flashing Eagle or the Mysterious Wind Wolf?”

“Flashing Light Eagle.” Chen Dao thought for a moment and decided to attack the Spirit Eared Fox from the sky.

“Alright, I’ll escort you out immediately. After you leave, you’ll be on your own.”Chcn Yang patted Chen Xuan’s shoulder.

When Chen Xuan saw this, he patted his chest and said,”Master, don’t you know my ability?” I guarantee that I will be able to kill that Spirit Eared Fox.”

“Alright, follow me.”

Immediately, Yang Chen released the Winged Tiger and the Light Plucking Eagle. After instructing the Light Plucking Eagle, he let Chen Xuan and Chen Dao ride on the Light Plucking Eagle while Yang Chen himself rode on the Winged Tiger to open up a path.

As a demon general tertiary stage demon beast, in less than ten minutes, the Winged Tiger cleared a path in the air and let the Light Plucking Eagle leave..

Chapter 56: Killing the Spirit Eared Fox

“You must succeed.”

After sending Chen Xuan and Chen Dao out of his sight, Yang Chen rode his winged tiger and charged towards the demon horde below the city wall.

Perhaps it was because of the pain, or perhaps it was for some other reason, but there were not many demon generals among the demon beasts under the city wall.

With the strength of the late stage of the Winged Tiger Demon, facing the demonic beasts that surrounded the city wall, it charged in like a wolf entering a flock of sheep. With a wave of its tiger claws, demonic beasts died under its claws.

With the addition of the winged tigers, Southwall quickly launched a counterattack. Coupled with the spirit stone crossbows, in just an hour, they had already eliminated one-third of the demon beasts.

Although there were many remaining demonic beasts, with the strength of the warriors guarding the south wall, it was not a problem to stall them.

Immediately, Yang Chen rode the winged tiger and rushed to the eastern city.

There were not many demonic beasts in the Dongcheng Area, but correspondingly, there were not many martial artists guarding it.

In order to relieve the pressure on the east city, Yang Chen continued to lead the winged tiger to kill the demon beasts below the city wall.

Only after the martial artists of the eastern city could hold back the demon beasts did they rush to the next city wall with ease.

After four hours, Yang Chen finally returned to the city wall. At this moment, countless demonic beasts had died at the hands of the winged tiger.

However, the price was not small. The Winged Tiger currently had no spiritual energy in its body. It could only lie inside the city wall to recover.

In the following demon wave, he could not rely on the winged tiger.

“Patriarch, we don’t have any more spirit stones to use the Spirit Stone Crossbows.” On the city wall, Chen Xuan walked to Chen Yang’s side and said.

“That’s easy to do. We’ll gather all the forces in Chen City. Not to mention much, we can still gather 500 spirit stones.”

“Oh right, take out 500 spirit stones from your family too. That way, when we collect spirit stones, those forces won’t have any reason to refuse.” Yang Chen said.

“Alright.” Chen Xuan nodded and arranged for people to enter Chen City to collect spirit stones from the various factions.

The Spirit Stone Crossbow was nothing. At this moment, Chen Yang was most worried about the situation outside Chen City and Chen Xuan.

After all, this was related to whether they could really resist the demon tide.

At this moment, outside Chen City.

After four hours of flying, the Light Flashing Eagle brought the two of them and arrived at the Endless Mountain Range.

Due to the need to search for the Spirit Eared Fox, the Light Flashing Eagle slowed down, so it took so long to reach the Endless Mountain Range.

However, when they arrived at the Endless Mountain Range, they could not see many demonic beasts.

Chen Dao couldn't even see a demon beast, let alone a Spirit Eared Fox. This made him a little anxious." Chen Xuan, where do you think this Spirit Eared Fox is? We have to find that beast quickly.'"

"Don't be anxious. Let me identify it."

Immediately, Chen Xuan slowly closed his eyes and focused all his attention to listen to the voice beside his ear.

Roar! Jiji. Awooo...

The faint sounds of demonic beasts rang in Chen Xuan's ears. Among these demonic beasts, Chen Xuan felt as if he had heard the voice of one of them.

Where had he heard it before...

Right, wasn't this the roar of the demon tide before it launched an attack?

Immediately, Chen Xuan opened his eyes and said excitedly, "Found it!"

"It's true! Hurry up and go over!" Chen Dao also became excited and hurriedly urged Chen Xuan.

Chen Xuan nodded, then said to the Flashing Light Eagle, "Lord Flashing Light Eagle, you may have to listen to my instructions for the rest of the journey."

Flashing Light Eagle nodded, indicating that it had no problem.

"Very well, Lord Light Eagle, first withdraw your aura and then fly southeast." Chen Xuan said.

Immediately, the Flashing Light Eagle retracted its Demon General level aura and flew toward the southeast like an ordinary wild beast.

After flying for about five kilometers, Chen Xuan suddenly said, "Lord Flashing Light Eagle, stop."

Immediately, the Light Flashing Eagle hovered in the air.

Then, Chen Xuan pointed to a place and said, "Chen Dao, where are you looking?"

Chen Dao looked in the direction that Chen Xuan was pointing at and saw a few huge demon wolves lying on the ground beside a stream. Their heads were constantly scanning the surroundings.

In the middle of these demon wolves, a relatively small demon fox with two big ears was sleeping on the ground.

"That must be the Spirit Ear Fox. But..." Chen Dao looked in Chen Cheng's direction with some doubt.

"At such a distance, how did this Spirit Ear Fox command the demon tide? One had to know that even a Demon Venerable level demon beast's roar would not travel so far."

"Isn't that simple? Just run over and command." Chen Xuan said without hesitation.

"Run over? That would be too troublesome."

"I know what you're worried about. You're afraid that this demonic beast isn't the Spirit Eared Fox we're looking for. I can tell you this clearly. We didn't find the wrong place."

"Because one of the demon wolves roared. It was the wolf howl that sounded every time the demon beasts attacked."

"So it's pretty close. This demon fox is the Spirit Ear Fox we're looking for."

“As for why they are so far away from the demon horde, it’s not difficult to guess. If we get too close, they might be killed by us.”

“It’s better to run far away. Although it’s troublesome, at the very least, we can guarantee our safety.”Chen Xuan explained.

Hearing Chen Xuan’s explanation, Chen Dao no longer doubted it. He immediately took out his bow and arrow and thought about how to kill the fox demon.

“Lord Flashing Light Eagle, come closer. This place is a little far.”

Immediately, the Light Flashing Eagle continued to fly toward the Spirit Eared Fox. After about a mile, Chen Dao stopped,“ Stop.”

Then, Chen Dao took a deep breath and gathered all his spiritual energy into the arrow and his hands.

Then, he pulled the bow to the full moon. The hand loosened and the arrow moved.

Whoosh!

The arrow carried all of Chen Dao’s spiritual energy and flew toward the Spirit Ear Fox.

The moment the sound of air being torn apart rang out, the demon wolf underground reacted and immediately let out an angry roar.

Following this furious roar, waves of demonic wolves that gave off terrifying auras stood up, intending to block the incoming arrows together.

However, it was too late. The arrow, which had gathered all of Chen Dao’s spiritual energy, could fly a mile in the span of a breath.

Before they could release their spiritual energy, the arrow had already reached the Spirit Ear Fox's forehead.

The arrow entered! The Spirit Eared Fox died just like that!

“Haha, you're really something.” Seeing the Spirit Eared Fox dead, Chen Xuan happily hugged Chen Dao.

Chen Dao's defeated face squeezed out a smile.” Well, we'll celebrate when we get back. Let's run first.””

As if in response to Chen Dao's words, as soon as Chen Dao's voice fell, numerous demon general level flying demon beasts rose from the ground and charged towards the Light Rushing Eagle.

“Lord Flashing Light Eagle, run!”

When the Light Flashing Eagle heard this, it looked at the group of flying demonic beasts, and a trace of disdain flashed in its beast eyes.

He immediately turned around and sped toward Chen Cheng..

Chapter 57: The Demon Tide Retreats

Beast Tamer Sect.

The battle between the royal family's ancestor and the flood dragon demon emperor had already lasted for a day.

This battle was undoubtedly a disaster for the things around the Beast Tamer Sect.

Within a ten-mile radius of the Beast Tamer Sect, the mountains collapsed, and the ground was filled with pits. All the plants and animals were turned into powder.

Even the Beast Tamer Sect and Beast Tamer City, which were protected by Luo Rong and De Shun Commandery Prince, suffered some damage.

Fortunately, the battle had come to an end.

Under the gaze of the Deshun Commandery Prince and the others, the royal family's ancestor slowly landed. He glanced at the Red Purification Demon King and said indifferently, "The alliance agreement is now void."

"Both sides will have a buffer period of one year. During this year, the demon beasts in the Endless Mountain Range are not allowed to attack the Great Qian Dynasty, and the warriors of the Great Qian Dynasty are not allowed to attack the demon beasts."

At this point, the royal family's ancestor glanced at Demon Monarch Scarlet Refinement. "I'll give you a day to evacuate all the demon beasts."

Upon hearing this, the Redrefinement Demon Monarch nodded repeatedly. He did not expect this matter to blow up so much.

However, this was also good. The Endless Mountains did not lack demonic beasts. In the past, they were restricted by the alliance agreement and could only fight internally.

Now that there was no restriction from the alliance agreement, if there were too many demon beasts, they could launch a demon wave to release the bloodlust in the demon beast bloodline and relieve some pressure on the Endless Mountain Range.

At the thought of this, Demon Monarch Redrefinement hurriedly left with the other two demon monarchs. The three demon monarchs flew in three directions to evacuate the demon beasts that were attacking the city.

Since the ancestor of the royal family had given it a one-day restriction, the flood dragon demon emperor must have agreed. It did not dare to go against the will of the flood dragon demon emperor.

After the red refinement demon king disappeared, the royal family's ancestor suddenly spat out a mouthful of blood.

When the Deshun Commandery Prince saw this, he hurriedly supported the old ancestor." Old ancestor, are you injured?"

"I'm fine." The royal family's ancestor waved his hand." That flood dragon isn't feeling well either."

"Oh right, after the alliance agreement is broken, the three provinces near the Endless Mountains will definitely be harassed. Therefore, I've decided to send the Regional King to guard these three provinces."

"Li'er, the demon beasts in the Endless Mountain Range that corresponds to the Jiang Prefecture are the strongest. Why don't you guard the Jiang Prefecture?"

Upon hearing this, Deshun Commandery Prince cupped his fists and said with a serious expression,""Ancestor, I will definitely guard the Jiang Prefecture and not let any demon beasts step into our Great Gan!"

"Alright, I'm very satisfied with your ambition. There is another reason why I sent you to guard Jiang Prefecture. Do you want to know?"The royal family's ancestor asked.

"I'm all ears."

"Alright." The royal family's old ancestor nodded and then looked around. When Luo Rong saw this, he hurriedly took out a chair from his storage bag and respectfully placed it beside the royal family's old ancestor.

"Thank you." The royal family's old ancestor looked at Luo Rong with a smile. Then, with the support of the De Shun Commandery Prince, he sat on the chair.

As for the Deshun Commandery Prince, he was half-squatting in front of the royal family's ancestor, listening to his instructions.

“Li ‘er, your talent is the strongest in the royal family. Even I can’t compare to you.”

“Originally, you were supposed to take over as the Human King and then receive the royal family’s nurturing to reach my level.”

“But because of that incident, you were unable to inherit the throne, and the royal family naturally could not fully nurture you. Even the cultivation resources given to you to maintain your realm are under surveillance, so you can only suffer.”

As he said this, a trace of regret flashed across the royal family’s ancestor’s clear eyes.

The Deshun Commandery Prince, on the other hand, felt a surge of grief from the bottom of his heart as he choked, “I understand. It’s all my fault. I don’t blame the clan.”

” You don’t blame the clan, but we do. If our Da Qian was a dynasty, they would dare...”

Speaking up to here, the royal family’s old ancestor glanced at Luo Rong, then swallowed the words that were at the tip of his tongue.

“Since our family can’t nurture you, then you can nurture yourself. In the Endless Mountain Range corresponding to the Jiang Prefecture, there were far more heavenly treasures than in other places.”

“I hope you can make good use of this opportunity to improve your realm. After all, they could not stop them from guarding the border.”

“For this operation, you can establish an organization to kill demons and plunder treasures for you.”

“If you need resources to win people over, feel free to tell me. There’s no problem with that.”

After saying all this, the royal family’s ancestor stood up and disappeared in a few steps.

As for the Deshun Commandery Prince, he looked at the chair that the royal family’s ancestor had sat on and remained silent for a long time.

After the time it took to brew a cup of tea, the Deshun Commandery Prince looked at Luo Rong.” Honorable Luo Rong, please gather all the aristocratic families and forces in Jiang Prefecture in Yi City. I want to commend them.”” “Understood. I’m willing to serve you.”

Luo Rong knew that after a long time, their Beast Tamer Sect would no longer be the ruler of the Jiang Prefecture. And the true ruler was Reverend De Shun.

Since the Ruler had given the order, Luo Rong naturally had to do his best.

Chen City.

It had already been twelve hours since the third wave of demon wave attack began. In these twelve hours, relying on the desperate battle of the city guards, they finally tenaciously resisted.

Six hours ago, Yang Chen had already noticed that the demonic beast’s attacks had started to lose their rhythm.

At that time, Chen Yang realized that Chen Xuan and Chen Dao must have successfully killed the Spirit Eared Fox. An hour later, Chen Xuan and Yang Chen’s return confirmed Yang Chen’s guess.

Without a commander, the threat level of the demon horde was greatly reduced.

According to Yang Chen's estimation, it wouldn't be long before the demonic beasts were completely defeated because they had no command.

Of course, there was another possibility. Without any command, these beasts would not retreat until they were all dead.

Yang Chen could only pray that these bastards were afraid of death.

“Roar!”

At this moment, a furious roar suddenly erupted from outside Chen City. Following the roar, the demonic beasts that were crazily attacking the city wall earlier slowly retreated.

This was not the end. This was not just a temporary retreat, but a complete departure from Chen City.

In order to ensure that the demonic horde would not return, Chen Yang rode on the Light Flashing Eagle and followed them for a long time. Only when he saw all the demonic beasts retreat into the Endless Mountain Range did he heave a sigh of relief.

After returning to Chen City, Yang Chen looked at the hope in the eyes of the people on the city wall. He took a deep breath and then shouted, “We won this battle!”

“Hooray!”

In an instant, the entire Chen City was in an uproar. Countless people ran around to tell each other the joy of victory.

After a while, the people of Chen City who were on the city wall and near the city wall all knelt down spontaneously and shouted in unison, “Thank you, Chen Family! Thank you, Master Chen!”

“Thank you, Chen Family! Thank you, Master Chen!”

“Thank you, Chen Family! Thank you, Master Chen!”

“Everyone! Everyone!” Chen Chongren was really enthusiastic. After Chen Yang shouted more than ten times, his voice slowly fell.

“This battle is the hard work of the entire city. You can’t let this credit go to my Chen family.”

Hearing this, Chen Chengren looked at each other and shouted, “Long live Chen Cheng! Long live the Chen Clan Leader!”

Chapter 58: Deshun Commandery Prince Wants to Reward According to Merit

After the demon wave ended, the people of Chen City began to rebuild their homes. Of course, he couldn’t go outside the city at the moment.

However, repairing the buildings in the city still took a lot of time.

The people who had moved in from outside the city had been eating the food of the people in the city during this period of time, so they also contributed their strength as compensation.

Chen Clan, in the meeting hall.

“Patriarch, the casualties are out.” The Great Elder handed Chen Yang a booklet. On it was a list of the names of the Chen family members who had died in the demon horde.

“How many are there in total?” Yang Chen took a quick glance at the name list and closed the booklet.

“Among them, more than 200 collateral relatives were injured and 104 died. The direct descendants did not die, and the fifth elder was heavily injured.” Chen Xuan said.

Listening to the casualties in the home, Chen Yang's heart thumped, just the death of the person, the person is already equivalent to the collateral five points of the person.

Although he was a collateral relative, he was still a member of the Chen family. It was still a loss for the Chen family.

As for why the Direct Line didn't die, it was understandable. After all, the Direct Line had much more resources than the Collateral Branch, so they were naturally much stronger.

“The family will pay for the medical expenses of the injured. During the recovery period, the family will pay for the cultivation resources as usual.”

” As for the deceased clansmen, please settle their widows. Their descendants will receive double the cultivation resources before the age of 30, and they will not follow the Sequence system. “Yang Chen ordered.

“Yes, I understand.” Chen Xuan nodded and then passed on Chen Yang's order to appease the hearts of the clansmen.

Time passed in a flash, and in the blink of an eye, three days had passed since the demon wave.

After confirming that the demon horde would not return, the people outside the city also returned home in turn. After all, that was their home.

Of course, Chen Cheng couldn't let these people leave so easily.

With the Chen family as the leader, all the forces in Chen City sent out people to form patrols to monitor the situation in the Endless Mountain Range at all times.

After all, this was not only related to the lives of the people outside the city. At the same time, their businesses were also outside the city, so they could be considered to be guarding their own businesses.

The Chen family had also moved their subdued beast business back to Little Green Mountain. At the same time, Chen Yang also planned to personally check on the losses caused by the demon tide.

Just as Yang Chen was about to leave, Chen Xuan ran to Yang Chen's side and knelt on one knee." Master, there's a letter for you.'"

"My letter?" Yang Chen took the letter in confusion, then opened the envelope and read it carefully.

"Patriarch, what's the matter?" Chen Xuan saw Chen Yang's frown and was a little curious about the contents of the letter.

"Take a look." Chen Yang handed the letter to Chen Xuan and said,"This is a letter from the Beast Tamer Sect. It says that there's a Deshun Commandery Prince who wants to reward the various aristocratic families based on their contributions."

"This is a good thing." "Since someone has given it to me, I naturally have to accept it.'"

"But Great Elder, have you ever thought that although this city is also Da Qian's territory, it is more like our own fief?"

"It's only right and proper for us to guard our own fief. Why should we reward them?"Yang Chen asked.

Chen Xuan stroked his beard and gradually frowned."

"Forget it, there's no need to think so much. Patriarch, go to Yi City first. Leave the matter of inspecting the losses to me."

"This is the only way for now."

Immediately, Yang Chen released the Light Plucking Eagle and jumped onto its back. Then, the Light Plucking Eagle flapped its wings and flew towards Yi City.

Yi City was the capital city of Jiang Prefecture, and it was also the city where the Prefecture Overseer of Jiang Prefecture presided over. Naturally, it was much more majestic than the other cities.

Even Beast Tamer City could not compare to Yi City in terms of scale.

This time, all parts of Jiang Prefecture had encountered the demon tide, but Yi City was able to avoid it because of its strong defense and the Prefecture Overseer being a powerful cultivator.

Compared to the other cities that were pessimistic after the war, the people of Yi City were still happy and harmonious.

Outside Yi City, Yang Chen had already put the Light Plucking Eagle into his Imperial Beast Bag and then walked into Yi City.

Just as Yang Chen was about to go in, he suddenly heard someone calling him.

“Chen Clan Leader, please wait a moment.”

Yang Chen looked towards the source of the voice and realized that it was none other than the head of the Mo Family.

“Mo Family Head, how have you been?” Yang Chen smiled.

“What’s there to be safe about? It’s already good enough that you survived this battle. Oh right, Chen Family Head, how is my daughter?” Mo Family Head said nervously.

This battle had come too suddenly. Even if Mo Xingling came back, there was no time.

“Don’t worry, Ms. Mo is very safe.”

After all, Mo Xingling was not from Chen City. Even if the situation was critical, Chen Yang did not let Mo Xingling fight.

“That’s good.” Mo Family Head patted his chest and extended his hand, “Chen Clan Leader, let’s go in together.”

“That’s exactly what I want.”

On the way, the Mo Family Head couldn’t help but ask, “Lord Chen, I wonder how your city’s losses are. This time, my Mo clan’s losses are too great, nearly fifty percent of our clansmen have died.”

“The other losses are even more uncountable. The citizens of Mo City have also lost nearly 60% of their strength.”

“However, I still have to thank Master Chen. If it weren’t for your news, I’m afraid Mo City would have lost even more.”

Yang Chen recalled the name list of the dead and said, “About one-fifth of my Chen family has died. As for the commoners, they were called here by a letter before they could count them.”

The Mo Family Head nodded his head. The loss of the Chen Family was within his expectations. After all, the Chen family had so many demon generals and knew the news of the demon tide in advance. It was only right that they suffered fewer losses.

As for the commoners, although there was no statistics, the Mo Family Head estimated that they were within 50%.

Not long after the two of them left, they arrived in front of the Prefecture Overseer’s Estate. This time, the location where Deshun Commandery Prince was going to reward them was the Prefecture Overseer’s Mansion.

After handing the name card to the guard for inspection, the two of them were led to a hall by a servant.

At this moment, there were already many family heads gathered in the hall. These people were chatting frequently, and there was a sense of survival between their brows.

“Milords, please follow me.”

Under the guidance of the servant, the two of them came to their respective seats. The people beside them were the masters of the various ninth-rank aristocratic families in Nanyang County.

Unfortunately, the Liu Family, which was also a ninth-rank aristocratic family, had disappeared in the demon tide.

Looking at so many clan heads, Yang Chen was stunned. He didn't expect the demon tide to really spread to the entire Jiang Prefecture.

After the two of them sat down, the family heads of the aristocratic families greeted Yang Chen. After all, the Song family was placed with the eighth-rank aristocratic families, and the strongest here was the Chen family.

Yang Chen smiled as he responded to the crowd, thinking about all kinds of things that might happen later.

After all, there must be something waiting for them to reward them..

Chapter 59: Chen Family's Results

Chen Yang was quite far from Yi City. By the time he arrived at the Prefecture Overseer's mansion, all the aristocratic families in Jiang Prefecture had arrived.

After everyone had arrived, the Prefecture Overseer of Jiang Prefecture walked up to the stage from behind the screen.” Everyone, you have given me enough face by coming here despite your busy schedule. I am here to thank you all.”

“Greetings, Prefecture Overseer.” The Prefecture Overseer of the Jiang Prefecture was the ruler of the Jiang Prefecture in name. These family heads did not dare to slack off.

After the two sides finished greeting each other, the Prefecture Overseer continued, “Presumably, before everyone came here, you already know the reason. Then I won’t be long-winded and invite the De Shun Commandery Prince.”

Upon hearing this, all the family heads stood up. When another person walked out from behind the screen, they shouted in unison, “Greetings, Deshun Commandery Prince!”

“Everyone, please excuse the formalities.” Deshun Commandery Prince waved his hand slightly, and Chen Yang and the others felt a force dragging them.

Surrounded by this power, everyone subconsciously straightened their backs.

“Everyone, sit down and continue.” Deshun Commandery Prince waved his hand again. This time, the force wrapped around Chen Yang and the others, pressing them down on their seats.

In just two short sentences, the Deshun Commandery Prince gave everyone a show of strength. Yet this display of power, the Deshun Commandery Prince did not even lose his temper.

All of a sudden, Chen Yang and the other family heads became even more fearful of the Deshun Commandery Prince. They all sat in their seats obediently and did not dare to move.

“Everyone, relax. The next matter will be beneficial to you.”

The Deshun Commandery Prince smiled as he swept his gaze across the heads of the various aristocratic families. Then, he sat at the head of the table and clapped his hands.

Immediately, a few more people walked out from behind the screen. These people all held many yellowed books in their hands and stood motionlessly beside the Deshun Commandery Prince.

“I’m sure everyone already knows that I want to reward everyone. Of course, it was impossible to reward them equally.”

“What I mean is that the aristocratic families will be ranked according to their contributions to the demon wave this time, and then rewarded according to the ranking.”

” As for the standard of contribution...” At this point, Deshun Prince deliberately stopped and kept her in suspense.

All the family heads also focused their gazes on Deshun Commandery Prince’s face, curious about the criteria for the reward.

Taking in the gazes and expressions of all the family heads, the Deshun Commandery Prince did not seem to be bothered on the surface, but he was still quite satisfied in his heart.

After ignoring the aristocratic families for a while, the Deshun Commandery Prince continued,“The standard of assessment is how many Da Qian citizens are left within the sphere of influence of each aristocratic family in this demon wave.”

“Everyone might think that it’s unfair. After all, an Eighth-rank Aristocratic Family controls a large territory, so naturally, more people will survive.”

“Don’t worry about this. The rewards for the eighth and ninth ranks will be given separately. Among them, the comparison was between the Eighth-rank aristocratic families and the comparison was between the Ninth-rank aristocratic families.”

“Moreover, the total value of the rewards given by an eighth and ninth rank aristocratic family is equal. As for the rewards for each ranking, that’s up to everyone to see.”

Then, Deshun Commandery Prince clapped his hands again. Immediately, another group of people walked out from the screen.

Each of them held a pile of yellow paper in their hands. On the paper were written the rewards that could be obtained for each ranking.

After distributing the yellow paper to the various aristocratic families, the Deshun Commandery Prince was not in a hurry to speak. Instead, he waited for everyone to see the rewards before speaking.

The moment the family heads received the yellow paper, the hall was filled with gasps.

The Patriarchs of the aristocratic families all fell into a daze.

There was nothing he could do. The rewards written on this yellow paper were too heavy. A rough estimation was that the rewards of the eighth and ninth rank would add up to 200,000 spirit stones.

Even an Eighth-rank Aristocratic Family would not be able to take out so many Spirit Stones, yet they had all been given to them.

However, in the next moment, the expressions on the faces of the various family heads were different.

Especially the Song family head. When he thought about how the standard of judgment was actually those worthless people, his expression turned ugly.

In order to resist the demon tide, the Song family did not push those useless people out as cannon fodder.

The Song Family Head believed that the other aristocratic families had done the same.

However, in order to ease the regret of ignoring the Chen family's information, the Song family wanted to retain more of their strength, but even women, children, and children were pushed forward.

The number of Great Gan commoners under the Song Clan's influence had decreased significantly.

A sense of pain arose in the Song family head's heart. He had no choice but to comfort himself in his heart: "Forget it, forget it. Even if you're the last, you'll still receive more rewards than the other aristocratic families in Nanyang County."

The Song Family Head was somewhat confident when he thought this way.

After all, if a ninth-rank aristocratic family wanted to obtain a reward that surpassed the last rank-eight, it had to be the first rank-nine.

The powerful families in Nanyang County were all close to the Endless Mountain Range, especially the Chen Family, which was less than a hundred miles away from the Endless Mountain Range.

At such a close distance, even if he had already known about it, he would have suffered heavy losses.

Thinking of this, Master Song felt much better.

"Everyone, I'm sure everyone already knows the reward. Alright, let's start the reward round now."

"When I sent you a letter to gather you here, I had already secretly sent people to investigate the remaining population of your faction."

"Don't worry, those people are all experienced scouts. Even though we can't pinpoint the exact number of people, it's not a problem to compare the size of you."

"This is your ranking, as well as the number of people remaining in your faction."

The Deshun Commandery Prince immediately nodded. The people who had previously stood on both sides of the Deshun Commandery Prince distributed the books in their hands to the aristocratic families.

The aristocratic families who received the booklet quickly searched for their names. If the ranking was high, they would smile in relief. If it was low, they would just sigh.

“How is this possible?” Master Song looked at the book in his hand in disbelief and could not help but exclaim.

Although the exclamation was very soft, it still attracted the attention of many people.

Even the Deshun Commandery Prince shifted his gaze to Master Song. “Master, is there a problem?”

Only then did Master Song react. Where was this place? How could he allow himself to be so impudent? He immediately knelt down and said, “I don’t dare. There’s no problem. I’m just a little shocked.”

“Is your family’s ranking high or low?” The Duke of De Shun asked again.

“All... Neither.” Master Song braced himself.

“Neither? “Then what’s there to be surprised about? It seems that you still have doubts about your ranking. How about this? I’ll get someone to confront you later. We definitely won’t mistreat our Jiang State aristocratic families.”

“No, no, no.” Hearing that the Deshun Commandery Prince wanted to send someone to confront him, the Song Family Head’s eyes widened and he quickly waved his hand to deny it.

“It’s the Chen family. It’s the Chen family’s results that shocked me..”

Commandery Prince Wants to Accept a Disciple

Chapter 60: Bloodline Warrior Chen Yang, Deshun

“Chen family? Was there any family with the surname Chen among the Eighth-rank families?” The Deshun Commandery Prince looked at the Prefecture Overseer in puzzlement.

He knew about all the eighth-rank aristocratic families in Jiang Prefecture, but he didn't know that there was a family with the surname Chen.

The Prefecture Overseer thought for a moment and then smiled. ""! think the clan head Song is talking about is the Chen Clan, a ninth-rank clan in Nanyang County."

"Oh? A ninth-ranked aristocratic family?" The Deshun Commandery Prince's interest was piqued. "Then tell me, why are you surprised by the Chen Family's ranking?"

"Yes." Master Song quickly calmed himself down, his mind working crazily as he slowly said, "It's like this. The place where the Chen family is located is considered a city that is relatively close to the Endless Mountain Range in our Nanyang County and even the entire Jiang Prefecture."

"The terrain is so unfavorable, coupled with the ferocious demon tide, the Chen family was able to obtain first place. This is what surprised me."

After hearing Master Song's words, Deshun Commandery Prince's interest was even higher. "Who is the Chen Clan Master?"

Hearing this, Chen Yang quickly stood up. "Reporting to Your Highness, I am the Chen Clan Head."

The Duke of Deshun looked at Chen Yang's appearance and was stunned for a moment. Then, he narrowed his eyes and confirmed that he was not mistaken. A smile appeared on his face.

"This Chen Clan Leader is actually so young. Come forward."

Hearing this, Chen Yang walked to a place ten steps away from Deshun Commandery Prince under the gazes of the family heads and said in a neither servile nor overbearing manner, ""Chen Yang of the Chen Clan greets the Duke of De Shun."

"Mm, not bad. Your cultivation..."

After the Deshun Commandery Prince carefully identified him, a trace of shock flashed across his eyes. He then looked at the Prefecture Overseer. "Is this Chen Yang really a disciple of a ninth-rank aristocratic family? Not the descendant of that big family?"

The Prefecture Overseer understood the meaning of the words and immediately said, "Chen Yang's parents are from Chen City, and they aren't from any big family."

"And Yang Chen himself has never received the support of that force."

"Yang Chen, let me ask you, how old are you now?"

"Your Highness, I'm twenty-one this year. I broke through to the Meridian Opening realm last year." Yang Chen said.

"Hiss!" The Deshun Commandery Prince took a breath and said, "He broke through to Meridian Opening at the age of 20 without the support of any major powers."

"I'm a little curious now. What grade is your aptitude?"

Hearing this, Yang Chen said awkwardly, "Your Highness, the Chen family is weak. The wondrous stone that can test one's aptitude can only determine whether one can cultivate or not."

"Oh? You actually didn't test your aptitude? Men, bring the aptitude stone over." Deshun Commandery Prince waved his hand.

Not long after, a late-stage Pulse Unsealing guard held an irregularly shaped stone that was about ten inches in length, width, and height.

"Place your hand on this aptitude stone and circulate your spiritual qi. This aptitude stone will flash with different lights according to your aptitude." The Deshun Prince said amiably,

“Yes.”

Chen Yang followed the instructions of Deshun Commandery Prince and placed his hand on the aptitude stone. Then, he mobilized a wisp of spiritual qi and gathered it on the aptitude stone.

One breath, two breaths, three breaths...

Everyone in the hall held their breaths and focused on the aptitude stone, waiting for the result.

Yang Chen was also a little nervous about his own aptitude. Although Yang Chen was confident that his aptitude was not low, who wouldn't want to be higher?

After a while, the aptitude stone shone brightly, and a dazzling orange light flickered.

“Eighth grade aptitude, how is this possible!”The moment the orange light flashed, the Prefecture Overseer revealed Yang Chen's aptitude in disbelief.

It wasn't that Rank-8 aptitude was low. In Jiang Prefecture, Rank-8 aptitude was considered acceptable. In an eighth or ninth-rank aristocratic family, they were all nurtured as the seeds of meridian opening.

However, for Yang Chen, a genius who could break through to Unlocking Meridian at the age of 20, his Grade Eight aptitude was a little low.

All the family heads had different expressions on their faces. No one had expected Yang Chen to only be a Rank-8. Even though most of them were Rank-8.

However, when he saw a dazzling monster with similar talent as him, he could not help but feel a little happy.

Master Song was even more delighted. Rank-8 aptitude would definitely not be able to challenge the Song family's status.

As a result, the Song family's hostility towards the Chen family decreased significantly.

Deshun Commandery Prince had not spoken from the beginning. After thinking for a moment, he continued,""Get the Bloodline Testing Stone."

The Prefecture Overseer looked at Chen Yang in surprise." Your Highness, you mean that Chen Yang is a Bloodline Warrior?"

"I can't be sure now, but Chen Yang's breakthrough to Meridian Unlocking is something that an Eighth Stage talent can't do."Deshun Commandery Prince said.

"But if Yang Chen is a bloodline warrior, why can't I see the bloodline fluctuations in his body?"

"It hasn't awakened yet." the Deshun Commandery Prince said casually.

The family heads did not expect that there would be an accident. They immediately put away their joy and continued to wait for the results.

Not long after, the Bloodline Testing Stone was also brought up. Compared to the Aptitude Stone, this Bloodline Stone was much more orderly. It was ten inches in length, width, and height.

"Drip your blood on it." Deshun Commandery Prince said.

Hearing this, Yang Chen used his right index finger as a knife and slashed his left palm. Immediately, drops of blood flowed down his palm and dripped onto the Bloodline Stone.

Immediately, everyone's eyes gathered on the Bloodline Stone.

Yang Chen didn't think much of it. His parents were from the Humble Class. How could they give birth to a Bloodline Warrior? Unless he wasn't his biological son.

After a while, the Bloodline Stone shone brightly, and a dazzling green light appeared in front of everyone.

Seeing this, Deshun Commandery Prince slapped his thigh and laughed. "I knew you were a Bloodline Warrior, Yang Chen. I didn't expect you to be a Bloodline Warrior of the Sixth Rank."

"It's just a pity that I don't know what bloodline you have."

"But go back and ask the elders of your family. Perhaps your Chen family is a bloodline left behind by a bloodline aristocratic family."

Yang Chen was stunned. Am I not his biological son?

No, just like what the Deshun Commandery Prince said, the Chen Family must be a bloodline left behind by a bloodline aristocratic family.

That was it.

"Yang Chen, are you willing to take me as your master?"

The fact that Chen Yang was a Bloodline Warrior had already shocked all the aristocratic families present. However, they did not expect the Deshun Commandery Prince to throw out another piece of shocking news.

The number one Zifu Disciple of Da Qian actually wanted to take Chen Yang as his disciple!

"This... Your Highness is actually willing to accept me as a disciple?" Not only were the others confused, Yang Chen himself was also a little confused.

What kind of existence was Deshun Commandery Prince, to actually accept him as a disciple?

“Upon hearing this, De Shun ‘Shun’s King smiled and said,” It’s equivalent to a bloodline martial artist of the Sixth Stage, but it’s easier for them to reach the Purple Mansion Realm than a Sixth Stage. Why wouldn’t I be willing to accept a future Zifu Disciple?”

As soon as Deshun Commandery Prince finished speaking, Chen Yang fell to his knees with a thud.”
Disciple Chen Yang greets Master!”

Who cared if there were any consequences? He had to find a backer for his family first..
