

The Rise Of The Tamer Family

Chapter 6

“Next, let’s welcome the Chen family.”

At last.

Chen Yang quickly calmed himself down. Then, he took the Beast Taming Bag from Chen Xuan and quickly came to Sect Master Wang.

“The Chen family has specially offered the Howling Moon Wolf to congratulate the Young Sect Master!”

With a modest voice, Chen Yang quickly opened the Beast Taming Bag and released the Howling Moon Wolf.

The moment the Howling Moon Wolf was released, it planned to escape. However, when it sensed the aura around it, it quickly sat down and did not move.

“It’s actually a Howling Moon Wolf! One that can cultivate to the peak of the Demon Venerable realm and even have a chance of breaking through to the Demon King realm!”

“A Genesis Demon General, a Ningdan Demon Venerable, and a Purple Core Demon King. This Howling Moon Wolf might become an existence that surpasses the Ningdan realm!”

“I didn’t expect the Chen family to be able to find this Howling Moon Wolf and even have the courage to give it to the Beastmaster Sect first.”

For a moment, all the Patriarchs of the families focused their attention on Chen Yang.

Looking at the Howling Moon Wolf lying in front of Chen Yang, their eyes were filled with complicated emotions.

On one side, they were jealous of the Chen family's good luck. On the other side, they sighed at the Chen family's drive.

"Hehe, the Gongsun family's plan has failed."

Someone said this secretly. Immediately, most of the family heads looked at the Gongsun family.

At this moment, Gongsun Miao felt as uncomfortable as if he had eaten a fly.

Damn it! How could the Chen family be so lucky to find a Howling Moon Wolf!

The appearance of the Howling Moon Wolf shocked everyone. Even Sect Master Wang stood up and stared at the Howling Moon Wolf in disbelief.

After a while, Sect Master Wang came back to his senses. "Good! Good! Good! I'm very relieved that the Chen family is so loyal."

"Dao Xuan, you've taken in a good disciple. How about this? On behalf of my Beastmaster Sect, reward the Chen family well."

"Even if it's a cultivation technique to break through to the Ningdan realm, I can still reward you."

Sect Master Wang's words immediately caused a commotion among the various families. No one expected Sect Master Wang to be willing to reward the Chen family with a Ningdan cultivation technique.

If that was the case, didn't that mean that the Chen family had a chance to become an eighth-grade aristocratic family?

It had been 300 years since a new eighth-grade family had been born in Jiangzhou. If the Chen family really became an eighth-grade family, the situation in Jiangzhou would definitely change.

Especially the head of the Song family, an eighth-grade aristocratic family in Nanyang County. At this moment, his eyes were narrowed, and wisps of killing intent appeared before quickly dissipating.

"Dao Xuan will obey the edict."

The moment Sect Master Wang finished speaking, the white-robed old man with white hair and a white beard cupped his hands and accepted the order.

“Thank you, Sect Master!”

After the Howling Moon Wolf was taken away, Chen Yang returned to his seat calmly. However, the moment he sat down, he glanced at Gongsun Miao.

Other people might not think much of this gaze, but to Gongsun Miao, it was a great humiliation.

Chen Yang was undoubtedly saying that the Gongsun family’s plan had failed.

The dedication ceremony was still in progress, but with the Chen family in front of them, the remaining gifts did not give everyone a sense of satisfaction.

After knowing that the last family had offered a gift, everyone raised their wine and congratulated the Young Sect Master.

At this point, the celebration ended. Chen Yang and Chen Xuan followed Master Dao Xuan to the courtyard where he lived and discussed the treasures given to the Chen family.

“Please have a seat.” As soon as they entered the courtyard, Venerable Dao Xuan gestured for the two of them to sit at the stone table.

On the other hand, Master Dao Xuan picked up a pot of tea and poured a cup for Chen Yang and Chen Xuan under their trembling gazes.

“That beloved disciple of mine, your Patriarch, loves my tea the most. In the past, when we were in the Beastmaster Sect, that brat stole a lot of my tea.”

At this point, Venerable Dao Xuan could not help but look happy. However, in the blink of an eye, this joy turned into pity.

“Unfortunately, your Chen family was too weak. My beloved disciple had no choice but to return to the family to take charge. If he doesn’t have any opportunities in this life, I’m afraid his path to Ningdan will be cut off.”

“Forget it, don’t be sad. You’re the Family Head of the Chen family, right? Tell me, what reward do you want?” Master Dao Xuan smiled and looked at Chen Yang.

Chen Yang first looked at Chen Xuan, then made a decision in his heart.

“Lord, I only want the Beastmaster Sect to mediate the conflict between the Chen family and the Gongsun family.”

“As for the other rewards, I’m willing to give them all to Venerable Dao Xuan to show my filial piety.”

Lord Dao Xuan was stunned at first, then he scolded jokingly, “You sly little thing, do you know how many disciples I have?”

“Lord, you have accepted a total of 103 disciples.”

“Then you know that your Patriarch is the only one who can receive the title of beloved disciple.”

“This...” Chen Yang pretended to be puzzled as he looked at Venerable Dao Xuan. He was already overjoyed.

“Don’t pretend to be confused. I won’t be greedy for your reward. Just ask for the reward.” Venerable Dao Xuan saw through Chen Yang’s thoughts.

When Chen Yang heard this, he took a deep breath. “Venerable One, we’re short-sighted. Please decide on the reward for us.”

“You, how you try to kiss my ass in all ways. Fine. I’ll help advise you.”

Venerable Dao Xuan took a sip of tea, then looked straight at Chen Yang. “I reckon that you guys want that cultivation technique that can break through to the Ningdan realm.”

“After all, with this cultivation technique, your Chen family has a chance to become an eighth-grade family. However, I don’t recommend you to choose.”

“Why is that?” Chen Yang asked cooperatively.

“That’s because your Chen family isn’t strong. With this cultivation technique, you’ll only attract trouble. Moreover, this cultivation technique is quite valuable. If you want this, don’t even think about obtaining any more benefits.”

“It would be impossible in future to ask the Beastmaster Sect to stop the Gongsun family,” said Venerable Dao Xuan.

The value of a Ningdan cultivation technique far exceeded that of a demon beast with the bloodline of a Demon Venerable.

After all, there was only one demon beast, but the Ningdan technique could create an eighth-grade aristocratic family. It was extremely valuable.

“Therefore, I suggest that you ask for less. This will not only enrich your family, but will also leave the Beastmaster Sect indebted to you. In the future, we can help you with your development and block some dangers for you.”

Hearing Master Dao Xuan’s words, Chen Yang subconsciously nodded. Not bad, it was no different from my own judgment.

“As for what reward you want, think about it yourselves. I’ll just help you judge if it’s suitable.”

As Master Dao Xuan spoke, he leisurely picked up his tea and quietly waited for Chen Yang’s reply.

As for Chen Yang, he had already thought of the benefits he could obtain from this trip.

“Lord, I want to ask the Beastmaster Sect to give our family another demon beast breeding qualification.”

“This way, our family’s spirit stone profits will increase greatly. There will also be resources for our Patriarch to cultivate in peace.”

“After all, my Patriarch has worked too hard for the family. It’s time for him to enjoy life.”
