Task NO 1 How To Pursue Miss CEO Chapter 326-“Megan, can’t you stay out of trouble just for once? Why won’t you obey the rules even in jail? Two years will pass in a flash! I don’t have time to pick up your pieces behind you if you’re going to keep causing trouble!” Meredith was already panicking after Pierre began doubting her, so her tone was rather unkind after catching wind of Megan’s shenanigans.

However, Megan maintained a look of grief. “Meredith, you have to get me out of here! Didn’t you promise to come up with a solution? Do you have one now? I really can’t stay here any longer! Please, I’m begging you to get me out of here!” She could no longer tolerate the torture from the other inmates. I can’t take this anymore!

“I can’t even take care of myself now, so I don’t have time for your bullsh*t! Besides, you brought this upon yourself by making a foolish attempt on Selena’s life when you don’t have what it takes to kill her! I wouldn’t have to deal with so much trouble now had you succeeded in killing her!”

Upon noticing the vicious look on Meredith’s face, Megan was utterly baffled. I’m her sister! I have always been obedient to her! I did whatever she told me to do, and even helped keep the most important secret in her life! she thought. In fact, she never expected such treatment from Meredith.

Meredith finally calmed down after a while. “Just stay put while you’re in there. Don’t reach out to me unless you have a valid reason, because I also have a lot on my plate. Besides, have you ever seen a celebrity who frequently goes on jail visits?”

“Meredith...”

Seeing the look of dejection that Megan wore had Meredith softening her attitude. “Alright, alright, you don’t need to give me that look. Stop playing the victim in front of me. Don’t worry; I’ll work on rescuing you after I deal with Pierre.” With that, Meredith stood to leave without even looking back. She was in a foul mood today, so she wasn’t inclined to spend time fretting over Megan’s problems.

After that, the prison officer led Megan away, who noticed that Meredith hadn't even inquired about the injury on her face. Instead, Meredith lambasted her for putting herself in that situation.

Megan felt disheartened. She knew that Meredith wouldn't rescue her. After all, Meredith had been selfish ever since they were young, as she only ever thought of herself. Now that she was imprisoned, of course Meredith would be cutting ties with her, let alone lending a hand, especially when Meredith was in no position to do so. Thus, she knew she had to help herself.

Meanwhile, in Springvale.

Selena was gradually healing from her injuries. Nobody would notice the wound on her arm after she put on clothes and took extra care to not bump into anything, so she had resumed her routine to visit Juniper in the hospital. Juniper was in good condition, while the doctor was still insisting that Selena should either find Juniper's biological father or give birth to another child when they still had time.

After leaving the hospital, she stared out of the window in a daze while sitting in the car. Her floating thoughts were all about Pierre as she wondered what he was doing. They had been texting each other recently on WhatsApp.

"Miss Yard, there's a construction site ahead of us, so we'll have to take another route." The driver stopped momentarily. The driver was assigned to her by Hades, but he was actually there to monitor Selena so that Hades could track her at all times.

"Okay." Selena didn't care if they took a detour since she had nothing else to do anyway. Therefore, the driver drove the car onto another route. When they passed by a mansion, she noticed the playground in it. There were a few taller facilities that could be seen even from outside.

Task NO 1 How To Pursue Miss CEO Chapter 327-"Whose mansion is this? It's located in such a remote area! The owner even built a playground for the kids," Selena asked casually. "Don't you know this is Mr. Hades' mansion?" The driver also gave her a similarly casual reply.

“That’s Hades’ mansion?” She stared at the mansion and the playground in it in awe before she was hit with a realization. “Stop the car!” The driver hit the brakes hard. “What’s the matter, Miss Yard?”

“Turn around. Let’s check out the mansion.” Hesitating, the driver reminded, “Miss Yard, Mr. Hades’ orders are that we can only spend two hours outside the house. We already lost a lot of time due to the detour, so—”

“I’m only taking a quick peek. It won’t take long.” The driver thus relented, turning the car back to the mansion. With how remote and unassuming the mansion looked, it certainly was Hades’ style. After Selena got out of the car, she headed for the entrance of the mansion.

There was a truck in front of the mansion, while a lot of stuff was lying around on the ground. The doors were open, while the workers were all busy with their tasks, so nobody was there to stop Selena from entering the mansion. She never knew Hades built a mansion for himself so close from the castle, so it took her by surprise.

Soon, she noticed that the mansion was lavishly decorated as if a wedding was to be held there. Her heart skipped a beat. Might Hades be thinking of holding a wedding with me?

Her doubts persisted as she continued to walk inside. Then, she heard a child’s laughter from the playground. If Hades was indeed planning to host the wedding in the mansion, the playground must’ve been built for Juniper, as he loved Juniper enough to do just that. However, she wondered who could be in there since Juniper was still hospitalized.

With that in mind, Selena headed toward the playground, only to see Jameson shrieking on the swingboat. She thought she was dreaming when she first saw him, so she rubbed her eyes just to make sure that they weren’t playing tricks on her. When the swingboat stopped, Jameson got off it while yelling, “Miss Yard! Gosh, am I mistaking someone as you? It really is you! Hahaha, is this a dream?”

When he was finally in front of her, she lifted him in her arms to caress his chubby face. It wasn’t until then that she was certain she wasn’t dreaming. “Jamie, why are you here?” Tears rolled down her cheeks as she asked, “Do you know how long it has been since your father and I have been looking for you?”

Selena was holding Jameson a little too tight, so he had to clear his throat.
“Miss Yard, you’re choking me!”

It wasn’t until then that she let go of him and gave him a kiss on his cheek.
“Oh, I’m sorry. I was too agitated.”

“Miss Yard, I missed you loads! I have been ever since I ate that pudding! I’m not lying!” Jameson was swirling around like a top on the ground due to how elated he was.

“I missed you, too.”

At that moment, Sasha approached them with a few people behind her. Jameson hid behind Selena in shock as soon as he saw her. “Miss Yard, this woman is fierce! I’m scared!”

“Miss Yard, please hand the child over to me.” Having spent years around Hades, Sasha recognized Selena at first glance. She also knew Selena was the one whom Hades would be marrying soon.

Selena stood up for Jameson. “You should allow me to bring the child with me since you know who I am. He doesn’t belong here.”

“You’ll need Mr. Hades’ permission for that. Without his permission, I will not allow anybody to take the child away.”

“What if I insist?”

Task NO 1 How To Pursue Miss CEO Chapter 328-“You can try.” With that, Selena sprang to action without holding back, but Sasha defeated her in an instant. Her arm stung with pain as she thought, This woman is a top-notch fighter! I never knew someone like her exists despite having spent four years with Hades.

“Miss Yard, you won’t be able to beat me. I suggest you spend your time recuperating since your wounds have yet to heal. Even if you want to take the child with you, you’ll need Mr. Hades’ permission. Someone, see her out!”

After that, she was thrown out from the mansion before she could even speak to Jameson. It took her some time before she could stand up on her feet again.

All she could do was sigh while staring at the entrance, as she acknowledged that there was no way she would be able to take Jameson with her right away. When she hurried back to the castle, she bumped into Barbie, who inquired, "Selena, where have you been?"

However, instead of answering her question, Selena threw Barbie another question. "Where is Hades?"

"He's in the study." Hearing that, Selena made her way to the study as rage burned within her, and then entered the room without even knocking on the door. Hades lifted his head to see her seething before quickly noticing the blood that was seeping down from the wound on her arm. With a frown, he asked, "How did your arm get hurt?"

He stood up to walk toward Selena, but she took a step back just when he was about to touch her shoulder. "Why is Jamie with you?"

Hades' heart sank. How did she know about that?

Upon noticing that he seemed to be avoiding her, Selena clenched her fist. "You took him away from me! You planned the abduction and framed me as the culprit so that the Fowlers would hate me! You did all this just so I would return to Springvale and to you! Isn't that right?" Selena shouted with all her might. While she was on her way back, she finally pieced the puzzle together, as well as realizing that Hades was the one who'd framed her. He must have done it because he knew I got together with Pierre!

Hades didn't know how to explain himself. Although he wasn't directly involved, it wouldn't have happened if he hadn't egged things on. Back then, he assumed that Selena was snooping around Pierre to get more intel, but his intuition was telling him that Selena might fall for Pierre, which would risk the operation. Therefore, he didn't try to prevent the incident from happening, as all he wanted was for Selena to withdraw herself.

"Hades, you're such a despicable jerk! Don't you know how much sorrow and self-blame I had to endure when I thought Jamie was dead?" Selena had an outbreak, as she never expected Hades to stoop so low just because of his self-professed love for her.

Hades didn't feel like explaining himself, as Jameson was indeed with him.

Selena took his silence as affirmation. "Hades, someone like you will use any means necessary to achieve your goals! I will never marry someone who has no qualms using children and framing me!" Due to anger, Selena was being too ruthless, but she realized she might have crossed a line as soon as she said so, as she couldn't afford to offend Hades.

Apparently, he was irked by her words, as his gaze turned ice-cold in an instant, a gaze so piercing that it sent the chills down Selena's spine. "Did you just say you won't marry me? Great, absolutely great." He walked up to her before suddenly grabbing her chin in his hand to force her to look upward at him. "I will make sure that you marry me!"

There is already no going back as soon as he said so, so things won't end that easily. Selena thought while staring at Hades fiercely.

Task NO 1 How To Pursue Miss CEO Chapter 329-"Aren't you sad and blaming yourself for what happened? Haven't you been hoping to find the child so you can clear your name? Alright, I will fulfill that wish of yours! As long as you agree to marry me, I will return the child to you so that you can hand him back."

Selena was irked by the sinister and self-conceited smile that Hades wore, yet she could do nothing about it. "Why must it come to this? You're using a child—"

Before she could even finish her sentence, Hades cut her short. "Yeah! I am despicable and shameless! I will achieve my goals with any means necessary! I will do anything to clear my path! So, are you going to take on or reject my offer?"

His tight grip on Selena's chin was starting to pain her. The craftiness in his gaze told her that he was absolutely serious. "It's fine if you don't agree." He moved closer to whisper into her ear. "Since I already killed so many people, I don't care if I kill one more child. How about that?"

Selena clenched her fists tightly, but in the end, she let go of them. "Is all of this even necessary?" Her tone sounded less agitated than before. She understood Hades well enough to know that while he never easily made decisions, he wouldn't easily change them once he did. Since he hid the fact that he was preparing a wedding from her, she knew he'd never considered failure as an option.

Now that Selena knew Jameson was alive, there was no more reason for Hades to hide anything. "Yes, I will follow through my plans!" He sounded resolute.

"What is even the point of all this? Even if I marry you, I will only hate you instead of love you since you conquered me through such despicable means."

"All a man needs is a woman by his side! Nothing else matters!" Hades let out a mirthless chuckle. "Did you assume that Pierre loved you? He just wants to claim your beauty and career for his own due to his possessiveness."

Hearing that, Selena snorted. So that's why he wants to marry me. It never was because of love, she thought. "Okay, I promise to marry you. Can you release Jamie now?"

"Of course not! Do I look like an idiot? I will lose my only bargaining chip if I let him go. Only after you become my woman will I release him. I won't go back on my word." Finally, Hades let go of her chin, which was already numb from his grip.

"I need to take a trip back to Astoria."

"Trying to seek help?" Hades chuckled. "Jameson is with me, and Pierre knows this. He would have already rescued his son if he could, so don't you even think of enlisting his help. You're the only one who can save his son."

Selena bit on her lip upon hearing that. No wonder Pierre never mentioned a word about Jameson. He already found him. He must have not told me because he didn't want it to become a threat.

"You know me; I'll marry you if I promised to. I'm only returning to Astoria to find Juniper's biological father. I need to settle that as I can't let Juniper keep on waiting just because of my own circumstances."

Hades frowned upon hearing that, eliciting a smile from Selena. “What’s the matter? I bet you don’t have the guts to do that. Are you afraid that I won’t come back once I leave, or are you afraid that something else might happen?”

“You don’t need to taunt me like that.” Hades was able to discern that Selena was trying to trick him into letting her go. While he couldn’t do much to help in regards to finding Juniper’s father, he acknowledged that Selena needed to find the man.

“Alright, you can go.” Then, he added, “One month. Our deal will only be effective for one month. As soon as time’s up, I won’t guarantee Jameson’s safety.”

Task NO 1 How To Pursue Miss CEO Chapter 330-“Sure.” With that, Selena left the study. As soon as she stepped out of the room, Hades swept everything down from the table onto the floor. His eyes were blood-shot as he thought, Who was it? Who revealed to her that Jameson is here? I was forced to resort to such lowly tactics!

Without wasting any time, Selena caught a flight to Astoria. She was short on time, so she didn’t want to waste even a single minute. After all, she wasn’t even sure if a month’s time would be enough for her to find out who Juniper’s biological father was.

When she was mulling over her circumstances after getting into her car, the ringing of her phone interrupted her thoughts. Despite noticing that it was from an unknown number, she still picked up the call anyway. “Hello.”

“Hello, are you Miss Selena Yard? I’m calling from Digton Correctional Center. Do you know Megan Yard?”

“Yes.” Selena didn’t even want to mention her name. “She has been wanting to meet you, so do you have time to drop by at the facility for a visit?”

Hearing that, Selena bit on her lip. Might her sudden request to meet me have something to do with Juniper’s biological father? She supposed she would rather leave the prison empty-handed than let the opportunity pass her by, so she replied, “Alright.”

Hence, she drove to the prison right away. Soon, she arrived at the visitor's corner following the prison officer's lead. A moment later, Megan was being led out by an officer. As soon as she saw Selena, she rushed over with her handcuffs still on her to pick up the handset at the counter. Selena picked up the handset too and spoke into it. "Why do you want to meet me?"

"I'll tell you who Juniper's biological father is in exchange for you getting me out of here." Megan's eyes were filled with hope and longing; it was obvious that she couldn't even bear to stay here for any longer.

"What are you trying to pull here?" Selena wouldn't trust Megan that easily, as they didn't reach an agreement last time they tried to negotiate. Besides, Selena would never want Megan out of prison unless it was absolutely necessary to do so.

"I'm serious about this! Get me out of here! I don't want to stay here for any longer!" Megan was weeping quietly. She dared not weep out loud as she feared the prison officer's scolding. After that, she rolled up her sleeve to reveal the scars on her arm. She even unbuttoned her clothes carefully to reveal the even more visible scars on her skin.

"The other inmates tortured me everyday. These scars are from the cigarettes they pressed on me. I'm sorry, Selena. I know I did you wrong when I fell in love with Finneas back then.

I was jealous of you and your marriage, so I set you up to be raped and impregnated. I know now that I made a mistake, so please help me! I'm begging you! Please!"

When Selena saw those terrible scars on Megan, she realized that she had never expected to see the latter in such a state, but she wouldn't take pity on evildoers like her. However, since Megan begged for her help, she decided to take advantage of that. "I can help you, but I will need to know who Juniper's biological father is right away.

I can't wait till you're released. You know it'll take a while before I will be able to secure your release, but it'll be too late for Juniper if I wait till then, so I need to know who her father is now."

After opening her mouth, Megan lowered her head, seemingly in deep thought. She was worried that Selena would leave her to rot in jail if she revealed the truth now, but in her current situation, she could only trust that Selena would keep her promise.

Upon noticing Megan's hesitation, Selena stood up from her seat. "I won't be wasting my time here if you aren't going to tell me." "Hold on!" Megan cried out loud. "You have to promise me that you'll get me out if I tell you now!"
