Chapter 521

Task NO 1 How To Pursue Miss CEO Chapter 521-After that, Pierre brought Selena out and headed to a hospital. Before driving, he looked up the best bone specialist in the city before bringing her to this hospital and got his man to queue up to get a number as there were still people queuing at the emergency department. A while later, Pierre's man ran back excitedly.

"Young Master Pierre, Young Mistress Fowler, we don't have to wait anymore! Apparently, someone named Mr. Murray called the hospital beforehand and got Young Mistress Fowler on the fast lane to enter."

Pierre's face immediately darkened. This Jason Murray is being too nice toward Selena.

On the other hand, Selena felt conflicted as well. A part of her felt overwhelmed that Jason was being so caring toward her, but the other part of her was praying hard that Pierre wouldn't be jealous again as she had only managed to calm things down. "Let's go. We might still need to queue for a long time if we don't!"

Without saying anything, Pierre carried Selena to the doctor's office to examine her ankle. Then, Selena had to get an X-ray to make sure that her bone wasn't injured. Still, since her ankle was sprained, the doctor gave her medicines to remove her blood stasis and informed her about things to take note of before giving her the greenlight to go home.

After returning to the hotel, Pierre massaged Selena's leg and applied the medicines based on the instructions without complaining, causing her to feel bad again. When they got into bed at night, Pierre still didn't say anything as Selena inched closer to him anxiously before hugging him.

"Hubby, are you still jealous? There's really nothing between Jason and I. You're the only person in my heart, and I really love you." Upon saying that, Selena gave him a hard peck on his cheek.

Then, Pierre turned toward her. "It's time to sleep."

Selena couldn't help but feel like something was wrong when he didn't say anything as she had expected him to continue acting jealous. Has he really realized his mistake and won't be jealous anymore?

She really couldn't understand because this wasn't like Pierre at all. Nevertheless, Selena fell asleep not long after as she was really tired.

When she woke up the next morning, she figured that she should still thank Jason for helping them out at the hospital because of his arrangement prior to their arrival, so she was planning to message him on WhatsApp as they had added each other yesterday. While Pierre wasn't around, Selena quickly opened her WhatsApp. However, she suddenly realized that Jason's contact had disappeared!

She remembered Jason's WhatsApp contact name well because she saved it herself, but it was gone now! After going through her entire WhatsApp, she still couldn't find anything! How could a contact just disappear into thin air?

Figuring that there might have been a glitch on WhatsApp, Selena wanted to look for the name card that Jason gave her yesterday as she recalled placing it in her handbag during that time. However, she couldn't find the name card after going through her handbag. That's weird.

Right then, Pierre and the kids' voices rang out from downstairs. It seemed like they were having their breakfast. There's no doubt about it anymore. It's that man's doing! He must have deleted Jason's number on my phone and threw his name card while I was asleep last night!

Selena didn't know if she should cry or laugh as she hit her head slightly. How am I even supposed to talk to him about this? After freshening up, she went downstairs to have breakfast with the kids. However, she was limping as her ankle still hurted.

"Why didn't you call out for me so that I could carry you?"

Their presidential suite had two storeys, and it was too huge. Selena initially imagined that this was just like staying back at their home, and the kids would even get more space to play, but she expectedly injured her leg. Now, it became very troublesome for her to use the staircase.

Chapter 522

Task NO 1 How To Pursue Miss CEO Chapter 522-“It’s fine. My injury isn’t that bad.” Selena took a seat at the dining table before she pretended to ask nonchalantly, “By the way, since Jason helped us to get on the fast lane at the hospital yesterday, should we thank him out of politeness?”

There was a hint of faltering in Pierre’s eyes before he lowered his head and continued eating. “We should. Didn’t you add him on Whatsapp? You should message him there.”

“I know, but I can’t seem to find his number on my Whatsapp contact list anymore. I wonder what’s wrong.” She continued acting as if she was oblivious while she refreshed her phone.

“Is that so?” Pierre gave her an innocent look. “Why is he like this? I can’t believe he acted like a gentleman and pretended he cared about you just to block you right after!”

Selena gave Pierre a look. I can’t believe that my husband is so good at putting the blame on others!

This man’s methods are impressive.

Selena really wanted to clap and cheer for him right then.

“I know, right? I guess there’s no need for me to contact that man anymore.” Still, she didn’t want to expose Pierre since this meant that he was still jealous. Well, he can continue being jealous, then. Haha!

“Also,” Selena said as she recalled what happened yesterday, “I’ve got a lot of information from yesterday. Madeline told me that she heard someone telling her that they bought the bracelet from the auction, so it’s possible for us to track the buyer.”

Due to Selena’s injury, it was impossible for her to go out for now. Hence, he brought the children out to play in her place so that the kids wouldn’t be upset, leaving her alone in the hotel, feeling bored.

When the hotel's landline rang, she was coincidentally playing with her phone on the couch.

"Hello?"

"Hello, Mrs. Fowler. Mr. Murray and Miss Oberlin would like to visit you. Are you alright with that?"

It's Jason and Jane!

She didn't see why she should reject them, so she agreed. "Sure."

Then, Selena hurried upstairs to change her outfit. By the time she was back downstairs, Jason and Jane had already reached her doorstep.

While they sat on the couch, Jane had her hands around Jason's arm, as if she was trying to assert dominance.

However, it was obvious that Jason didn't like what she was trying to do as there were many instances where he tried to push her hands away, but to no avail.

Selena had a feeling that the two of them would break up soon.

"Miss Yard, I heard that you went to the hospital yesterday. Is your ankle alright?"

"It's fine. I just sprained it; my bone wasn't injured. I was just thinking of contacting you to thank you for arranging the fast lane for us yesterday, Mr. Murray."

Still, Jason's composure was calm and gentle. "I initially wanted to text you yesterday, but something happened to my WhatsApp, and I couldn't find your contact anymore for some reason."

When he realized that he couldn't locate Selena's WhatsApp contact, he figured that there was a glitch on WhatsApp, as there was no way he would have thought it was Pierre's doing.

"Is that so? Well, let's add each other's contacts again, then."

Right then, she couldn't help but think about how pissed off Pierre would be. After deleting Jason off her WhatsApp contact list and thinking that he had managed to fool her, she'd added him again after a few hours!

Since the two of them were speaking in Astoric, Jane couldn't really understand what they were talking about. Even though she knew the language, she couldn't really keep up with their conversation as she only understood some parts of it.

"Jason, I heard that Miss Yard and Mr. Fowler are already married with kids. In that case, shouldn't we address her as Mrs. Fowler?" Jane asked in broken Astoric.

Read Novel Task NO 1 How To Pursue Miss CEO Chapter 523

Task NO 1 How To Pursue Miss CEO Chapter 523-Her reminder was really straight to the point. Still, Selena felt helpless. Since Jane already knew that I'm married to Pierre, why would she still fear that I'd steal her man?

"It doesn't matter. It's just a form of address anyway."

"Mrs. Fowler, I know that you're well known in Astoria and Springvale as the best wedding gown designer in Eastern countries, so can I ask for you to design a wedding gown for me?" Jane spoke in English this time.

"Are you getting married, Miss Oberlin?"

Right then, Jane leaned on Jason's shoulder with a contented look. However, there wasn't any ounce of happiness on Jason's face.

"Jason and I are getting married soon. As I really like Eastern cultures, I was hoping that I could have a wedding gown with Eastern elements. Can you design a red gown for me?"

"We call that Astara dresses here." Selena corrected her.

"Well, they're gorgeous." Even though Jane was asking her for help, her arrogant and ignorant attitude really made her feel uncomfortable.

If Jason weren't involved, Selena really didn't want to help her. However, since she owed Jason a favor, she could now repay it through Jane.

“Jane, I don’t think that’ll be suitable because Mr. Fowler and Miss Yard are here for a vacation, and they may not have time for this. Moreover, Miss Yard has injured her ankle and needs to rest,” Jason said with a stern face.

Immediately, Jane got upset as she couldn’t sit with the fact that Jason kept standing up for Selena.

Right then, Jason’s phone rang. After answering the call, he frowned, as if something had happened.

“Jane, I need to settle something, so I have to leave immediately. Miss Yard, I’m really sorry about this.”

“It’s fine. You should go do what you need to do. We will meet each other if there’s a chance in the future.”

However, Jane didn’t look like she wanted to leave. “Jason, since I’m having a nice conversation with Mrs. Fowler right now, I think I’ll stay back a bit longer. You should go first.”

This was Selena’s first time experiencing how shameful a woman could be when she wanted to.

As Jason really looked like he was in a hurry, he gave Selena a look and nodded before leaving. It was obvious that he knew what kind of a person Jane was, but it wasn’t appropriate for him to call her out as she was still his fiancée after all.

After Jason left, the smile on Jane’s face disappeared immediately and was replaced with anger and disdain.

“Miss Oberlin, what kind of a wedding gown would you like for me to design?” Although Jane wasn’t likeable at all, Selena tried her best to maintain her composure as there was no point trying to pick a fight with a little girl.

“I’m already engaged to Jason.” Arrogance was plastered all over Jane’s face when she talked about Jason, as if getting married to him was her proudest achievement.

“I knew that.” Selena could already tell that they were engaged as Jane was already talking about wedding gowns.

“So, I want you to stay away from him.”

Selena chuckled lightly. “Miss Oberlin, I think that you have misunderstood. I’m already married.” Then, she raised her hand up to flash the diamond ring on her ring finger. “I have three adorable children as well as a husband whom I love very much.”

However, a disdainful smile appeared on Jane’s face. “I’m obsessed with the East. I really love Eastern culture, food, as well as... gossip. I’ve heard a lot about you in Astoria, and I know that you’re a very manipulative woman, seeing as you were able to get to where you are now. I also heard that you had a boyfriend that you dumped. All in all, you have complicated relationships with men.”

Task NO 1 How To Pursue Miss CEO Chapter 524-Selena gave Jane an impressed look. Looks like this Western woman really knows a lot about the East, and she didn’t even let gossip slip past her.

“Jason and I have been engaged since we were very little. We grew up together and we really love each other, so you’d better leave him alone.” However, Selena started laughing. “Is that true?”

“What?” “So, the two of you grew up together and love each other a lot. If that’s so, why did you go the extra mile to come over to assert your dominance?”

Selena’s rebuttal made Jane’s face freeze. “You’ve been very hostile toward me ever since I ran into Jason last night, and you’d even come over to warn me today. Do you know what that means?”

Jane’s facial expression faltered slightly. “What does it mean?”

“It means that you’re insecure. You feel that Jason is a man that would get seduced by pretty girls anytime, and you’re not sure if he really loves you, nor if you can capture his heart.”

“That’s bullsh*t!” Jane was angered. “I’m just here to warn you! You’d better take my words seriously!” Pissed off from being humiliated, she stood up.

“Also, you’d better design my wedding gown until I’m satisfied. If not, don’t even think about making it out of here alive!”

Then, Jane strutted away in her high heels.

She wondered what happened between her and Jason to make her insecure to this extent.

Still, one thing that Selena could be sure about was that their vacation at Yucaria wouldn’t be so smooth sailing anymore. She initially just wanted to look for her bracelet, but they ended up in so many troubles.

On the other hand, Pierre saw Jason’s car leaving when he was coming back.

“Is that Jason Murray’s car?” he asked the driver in front of him, for he was an Astorian who was working in Yucaria and knew the city well. “That’s right, Mr. Fowler. That’s Jason Murray’s car. The Murray Family is renowned here.”

Staring at the direction that the car was driving from, Pierre commented, “It seems like they were heading from the hotel.”

Immediately, Pierre’s face darkened.

Visiting a friend at the hotel? Doesn’t that mean that he visited Selena?!

Why does this man show up everywhere we go?!

Does he have some sort of preference for married women?

Upon noticing Pierre’s facial expression, Joaquin shrugged. Pierre hadn’t been emotionally stable ever since he got back, so the boy figured it was better to avoid him.

When they got back to the hotel’s entrance, Pierre carried the children out of the car. “The three of you head upstairs first.”

He wanted to smoke downstairs as his smoking addiction was acting up again.

Suddenly, Juniper yelled, "Let's see who can run the fastest! One, two, three, let's go!"

Then, she dashed and ran into Jane, who was leaving in a fit of rage, coincidentally.

When Juniper knocked into Jane, she fell down from the impact before she stood up hurriedly and apologized. "I'm sorry."

Staring at the dirty little girl in front of her, Jane got even more pissed off, so she raised her hand and slapped Juniper's cheek. "Move away!"

Immediately, Juniper started crying.

However, Jane ignored her and continued leaving.

"Stand right there!" Joaquin roared.

Startled, Jane turned around to see another child. She spat disdainfully, "What's your problem?"

"Apologize to my little sister!" he demanded.

Task NO 1 How To Pursue Miss CEO Chapter 525-"Apologize? She's the one who ran into me first, so it's only fair for me to slap her as punishment." Jane shrugged before leaving with a disdained look on her face.

Then, the three of them could only return to their room dejectedly. Today was initially a fun day, but they came back without playing for long because they were worried that Selena might feel lonely staying alone in the hotel. Still, they didn't expect this to happen.

While they were in the elevator, Juniper wiped her tears off. "Let's not tell Mommy about what happened just now."

"Why? Mommy and Daddy are awesome, and they will surely help you to get your revenge!" Jameson exclaimed.

“Mommy is injured. Moreover, we are in a foreign country and not at home, so it’s better to not cause any more trouble.” Juniper lowered her head.

She had gotten more mature after recovering from her illness.

“I’ll get revenge for you,” Joaquin declared.

“How can we get revenge? We don’t even know who she is.” Juniper and Jameson turned toward Joaquin.

“We will know once we look her up.” Joaquin’s facial expression was calm and collected as this was a piece of cake for him.

When they returned, Selena immediately noticed that Juniper’s cheek was swollen. “What happened, Juniper?”

“Don’t be worried, Mommy. I fell down accidentally just now.” She decided to not tell the truth and turned toward Jameson and Joaquin before winking at them.

Still, Selena could sense that something was off.

Instead of an accidental injury, Juniper’s swollen cheek looked more like it had been hit by someone.

But who would hit a child?

If Selena hadn’t checked the surveillance camera, she wouldn’t have known that Jane was the one behind this!

The Oberlin Family were the descendants of the nobility and had good cultivation as well as temperament; how dare she hit a little child that was barely of age!

Still, Jane’s warning was right—this was the Oberlin Family’s territory. If she really went to pick a fight with Jane or failed to deliver a satisfying wedding gown, it would be hard for them to leave this place.

So, she should give the matter a further thought.

Still, Selena's heart ached at the thought of her daughter getting mistreated but was afraid to tell her about it.

On the other hand, Jason rushed back to Murray Group.

The Oberlin Family was no doubt the most renowned family in Yucaria; they were the descendents of nobility and had a family enterprise, so they were well respected. Meanwhile, the Murray Family was the richest family in Yucaria.

The Murray Family was one of the earliest Astorian descendants who moved to Yucaria, and their family business had been doing very well in Yucaria after working hard for decades, so they had managed to become the richest and most influential family among the Astorian descendents.

Jason was leaning onto his office chair in the president's office while a man dressed in a business suit bowed slightly. "President Murray, we've already managed to find out the person who bought the bracelet during the auction."

"Who was it?"

"It's a woman from Astoria who is now Scott Jensen's wife."

"Scott Jensen?" Jason stared at the man who was reporting in confusion.

"That's right. I've already looked into it. Scott Jensen married a woman from Astoria a while back, but not many people knew about it because they didn't throw a wedding. Still, you should know Scott's character. I don't think his wife will last for long."

That man was notorious for being a thug. Although he was once from a famous family, their family's status had been removed since they started venturing into illegal businesses after the country cancelled the national relief for descendents of nobilities that they had taken advantage of.

Chapter 526

Task NO 1 How To Pursue Miss CEO Chapter 526-Scott recruited a few others to start his illegal businesses and managed to do well in it, allowing him to earn more and more money during these few years. Since they were unreasonable, no one dared to cross them.

Jason's goal would be harder to achieve if Scott was involved. "How old is the woman from Astoria?"

"It seems like she's just barely over her twenties. I heard that she's very beautiful and managed to get Scott to fall hopelessly in love with her. Nevertheless, I have never seen her before; those were just rumors I heard."

"Can you ask her out to meet in private?"

"That... might be difficult. President Murray, you should know that Scott Jensen is a perv, and he would always want his woman to be around him. Moreover, we don't have any good reason to ask her out."

This was the mission that his grandfather gave him—to find the bracelets. Still, he couldn't manage to find them after many years.

A year ago, Jason found out that the jade bracelet was auctioned in Astoria, so he went there himself to join the auction. However, he didn't have enough money and failed to get the bracelets. Moreover, he had no idea who won the bid as no details were revealed.

A few days ago, Jason found out that the other bracelet was up for auction as well, but the auctioning button in his room malfunctioned at the very end, and he could only watch as the bracelet got auctioned off with the mere price of 50 million.

After the auction, Jason went to the auctioneer to protest that his button had malfunctioned, hence the results shouldn't count, but the auctioneer told him that it was his fault for being unlucky. Moreover, when they went to his room to check his button, they couldn't find any problem with it.

Jason didn't know what to say.

The fact that he couldn't manage to get either one of the jade bracelets and could only watch as other people won the bid really pissed him off.

He couldn't believe that he couldn't complete the only mission that his grandfather gave him!

Recently, Jason had been a bit depressed; he wasn't in a good mood as he couldn't get the bracelets. Secondly, it was because of Jane.

The Murrays and Oberlins were family friends; the Oberlins helped the Murrays out when they moved to Yucaria, which was why they were able to get to where they were right now—that was why they had a marriage contract.

Unfortunately, the marriage contract couldn't be fulfilled as both families had never had children that were suitable for each other.

Finally, when it reached Jason's generation, Jane became a match for him. Although he was 5 years older than she was, it wasn't considered a huge age gap for the Westerners.

Moreover, Jason's grandfather was already old, so he could only accept this marriage contract as he didn't want to go against his grandfather's wishes.

Still, he really couldn't bring himself to like Jane, for she was too much of a princess and very arrogant because of her family's status. Also, she was very open-minded, just like every other Western girl, and had offered him her body on many occasions.

It was just that Jason kept avoiding her as he preferred gentle and conservative Eastern girls.

Right then, Selena's face flashed past his mind. She had a typical Eastern look and belonged to the type of girls that he liked. Jason couldn't help but feel like Selena looked very familiar, as if she had appeared in his life before.

She felt really familiar.

At that moment, Jason's thoughts were interrupted by the sound of door knocks.

"Come in."

His secretary entered his office. "President Murray, Miss Oberlin is here."

It's Jane again. Why won't she leave me alone?

Read Novel Task NO 1 How To Pursue Miss CEO Chapter 527

Task NO 1 How To Pursue Miss CEO Chapter 527-"Tell her I'm busy." "But—" Right when the secretary spoke, Jane strutted in on her high heels before shrugging and giving Jason a ridiculous look. Then, the secretary had no choice but to leave and close the door.

"Jason, why are you lying? Do you not want to see me that badly?" Jane asked with accusation evident in her tone.

However, Jason only pointed at the files piling like a mountain on his desk and didn't say anything else. Immediately, Jane's anger dispersed. What Selena said just now was only half of the truth. Although they might not love each other, Jane undoubtedly loved Jason.

She had been curious about Astoria since she was young and really loved everything related to it, not to mention Jason, the Astorian. Jane worshiped and loved him since she was a kid and genuinely wished that she could marry him one day. Hence, when she knew about their marriage contract, she was ecstatic.

At that moment, Jane walked toward Jason's side. "Jason, Mrs. Fowler promised to design me an Astara dress, and I think you'll without a doubt like it."

"Why would you want to trouble Miss Yard when she's just here for a vacation for a few days?" Jason's attitude remained cold.

"She was willing to do it and felt really honored."

Right then, he gave her a look. "Do as you please, then. I'm going to work now."

Still, Jane refused to leave as she walked around the table and headed right in front of Jason. “Jason, I truly want to know what’s wrong with me. Why won’t you like me?”

“No. I’ve always known that you’re not happy with our marriage contract because you don’t like me, so can you tell me what you don’t like about me?” Jane tried to be as nice as possible when she was asking Jason because she really loved him. All I wish is for him to love me the way I love him.

“As you can see, I’m swamped right now, and I still have many things that I have to do.”

However, Jane snatched Jason’s pen away and threw it on the table before forcing him to look at her. “Look at me! I’m so gorgeous and mesmerizing that many men fall for me, but why won’t you even look at me?”

Still, Jason became even more annoyed when she did that. “That’s enough!” He got up angrily before taking a few steps backward.

Dumbfounded, Jane reached out to grab Jason’s hand, but he pushed her hand away. “D-Don’t be angry, Jason. I really love you. Will you only love me if we sleep together?” As Jane was speaking, she started undoing the buttons on her shirt.

Immediately, Jason turned around. “Jane! Put your shirt on right now and stop embarrassing yourself! Why won’t you have some dignity?”

Jane shook her head. “Jason, I know that the Astorians are all about being conservative, but I feel like that’s too fake. Most of the girls from Yucaria are as expressive as I am, and we are straightforward in our words and actions. I really love you, and I want to have your body as well as your love and caring.”

Jason knew that he wouldn’t be able to stop Jane once she started acting up. This spoiled girl can unquestionably resort to anything.

“Can you please wear your shirt? We can talk about it slowly.” He could only force himself to calm down.

“Talk slowly?”

“That’s right. I feel like love and intimacy can’t be separated, so I will definitely not touch you if I don’t love you. Moreover, in Astorian culture, we tend to save our virginity for the first night after our marriage.”

Task NO 1 How To Pursue Miss CEO Chapter 528-Finally, a grin appeared on Jane’s face as she slowly wore her shirt back. “Cool. That’s romantic, and I like it. If you’re into that, I’ll go along with you.”

Jason sighed in relief, as she finally stopped trying to strip. Then, he sat on his chair and took his pen again. “Jane, I’m really busy right now.”

“I know, my darling. I got too impatient today, as I was beyond jealous when I saw how you looked at and spoke to Selena yesterday night, and it was different from how you usually would act. I guess I was honestly jealous, and I hope you won’t be angry at me because I really love you, Jason. I love you so much that I’m going insane.”

Jane apologized anxiously. “I won’t do things that you don’t like anymore, but I still hope that you can fall in love with me and love me like how I love you.”

“Alright, darling. I know that you’ll surely fall in love with me because of how attractive I am. You’re not in love with me right now because you still don’t understand me.”

Then, Jane patted his shoulder lightly. “Why don’t we get dinner together later?”

“I’ll text you if I’m free.”

Upon hearing Jason saying that, she was finally satisfied.

Still, Jane gritted her teeth in anger when she thought of Selena after leaving Jason’s office. Since her birthday was almost here, she had decided to throw a birthday party and invite Selena so that she could embarrass her there.

I must let Selena completely humiliate herself so that Jason would hate her too!

Meanwhile, in Scott's mansion, a woman was sitting in front of a dressing table and applying her makeup. There was no doubt that this woman was a beauty, as she had a gorgeous face along with a sharp chin, mesmerizing eyes, as well as full cheeks.

Although she was stunning, there wasn't anything special about her beauty, so it was hard for her to leave others an impression.

This was Linda.

She wasn't dead yet.

Instead of killing her, Hades fired a shot on her leg and kicked her out of the organization, leaving her to fend for herself.

Right now, Linda was filled with nothing but hatred. She hated how cruel Hades was, for he never spared her any glances and shot her even though she loved him so much.

However, she hated Selena more. If it wasn't for her, she could have gotten a chance to be with Hades!

I want my revenge!

Linda spent some of her savings on plastic surgery. After working with Selena, she understood that a nice face was the best weapon a woman could have in achieving the impossible. At least, that was how it was for Pierre and Hades, who were attracted by Selena's 'sultry' face.

After all, men are all animals!

Using Selena's picture, Linda got the plastic surgeon to alter her face according to Selena's face, so her face now had some resemblances with Selena's face, and these resemblances were already enough!

Linda knew that she couldn't return to Astoria, as Selena surely wouldn't let her off the hook, and she couldn't go to Springvale because Hades was there. Therefore, in the end, she could only go to Yucaria and had managed to seduce Scott in no time.

Since Scott was a pervert and Linda was smart, he was wholly seduced in no time, and she quickly became his wife.

Linda changed her name to Laura after she came to this place, and she could tell that Scott was drunk from his voice.

Right then, Scott staggered into her room. “What on earth are you planning to do by spending 50 million on a bracelet? Didn’t you say that this bracelet will be very useful? Now, tell me. What is it for?”

Read Novel Task NO 1 How To Pursue Miss CEO Chapter 529

Task NO 1 How To Pursue Miss CEO Chapter 529-Scott wasn’t a good man, and he became another person entirely when he was drunk. “Don’t get so act up. You’ll know in the future!” Linda immediately rushed over to Scott to calm him down.”

“In the future? What future? If you don’t tell me about it, I’ll sell the bracelet!” Scott grabbed Linda by her hair and started pulling it. “Do you want me to sell it?!”

“Alright, alright. Stop messing around. I’m moving onto the next stage of my plan soon!” Linda explained before Scott finally let go of her hair and she massaged her scalp. I would never get together with this sh*tty man if it weren’t for revenge!

Then, Scott pulled Linda into his embrace. “I can’t just spend 50 million for nothing. I want to have that woman!”

“Who are you talking about?”

Scott was one of the invited guests during the party, and he had set his eyes on Selena ever since then! Obviously, Linda knew that Scott was a pervert.

Although they were married, it didn’t stop him from cheating on her with other girls. Still, Linda was already used to it. In fact, she wished that he could get more girls so that she wouldn’t have to waste her time on him.

“That woman is too gorgeous, and the red gown she wore last time was so seductive. I could really drool at the thought of her!” Scott had a hard grip on Linda’s chin. “I know you can do this. As long as you get her into my bed, I’ll promise you anything.”

“Is that true?”

“Yes!”

“Alright. You better keep your promises!” Linda didn’t want to pass on a good opportunity like this. Although she despised the fact that Selena had the ability to make every man fall in love with her, she also couldn’t wait to see Selena getting pressed against Scott roughly!

One ought to know that Scott was a really rough man!

“Still, I need to plan this well, so don’t be too impatient.”

“You have to be quick! I can’t wait that long!” Scott really couldn’t wait to tear the red gown that Selena wore apart to devour her.

“However, I want to taste you right now!” Then, he carried Linda back to their bed.

At the same time, as Selena sprained her ankle, she couldn’t go anywhere these few days because she had to apply medication and massage her ankle every day. Moreover, her ankle was completely swollen, so it was hard for her to walk around.

Although she couldn’t wait to get her revenge every time she recalled Juniper’s injury, she could only halt the thought as of now.

On the other hand, the waiter gave Pierre and Selena an invitation card. It was an invitation card for the couple to attend Jane’s birthday party.

“Birthday party? Who does she think she is to invite us?” Pierre immediately threw the invitation card to the side.

However, Selena turned around to pick the invitation card up. "It's Jane. I completely offended her during the party last time because of you forcing me to wear that red gown, and she hates me so much now because our outfits clashed."

"Does she hate you because of the outfit or because of that person?" Pierre harrumphed coldly.

He obviously knew that Jane and Jason were engaged, as they had a marriage contract and had to marry each other, so Jason would surely attend her birthday party.

"What's nice about birthday parties, anyway?"

"Come on! I heard that Jane is a princess and I've never seen a princess' birthday party! Why won't you bring us there, Daddy? There will surely be much nice food and fun games there. We might even make new friends!"

Juniper threw Pierre an innocent look, and her large doe eyes really made him unable to reject her.

Task NO 1 How To Pursue Miss CEO Chapter 530-Ever since Juniper got sick, both Pierre and Selena had been spoiling their daughter even more.

"Juniper, there's absolutely nothing fun about a birthday party."

"Alright, alright. We can go." Pierre immediately surrendered.

Still, she was somewhat jealous of Juniper as well because why hadn't Pierre treated her like this whenever she wanted something?

"Mrs. Fowler, have you gotten my invitation card?"

"I have."

"That's great! You must attend it by then! Also, can I make a request as a birthday girl?"

Forcing herself to be patient, Selena replied, "Of course you can."

However, she was facepalming mentally. Are all Yucarian girls so shameless?

"I'm guessing that you're surely stuck at thinking of what present to buy me, so you won't mind if I request a birthday present from you, am I right?"

"Sure." Although Selena was smiling, she was already cursing Jane in her mind.

"I want a gown that's designed by you. I know that there isn't much time left, so I don't mind if it is any gown from your boutique. I really like all of the gowns that you sell, and I'll wear them to greet all of my guests on that day itself. What do you think?"

"That's fine by me."

All the gowns sold in Forever Gown were very expensive, and they were all exclusively made. None of the gowns were for sale, so even Selena had to return the red gown after she wore it. This woman truly wasn't holding back!

"Thank you so much!" Jane immediately hung up.

At the same time, the smile on Selena's face vanished. However, Pierre, who was sitting at the side, started laughing. "Since when are you so two-faced?"

Nevertheless, Selena looked really done. "You don't even know how much of a cruel person Jane is. She's the Oberlin Family's most spoiled princess, so it's better if we don't offend her, but still, she honestly has no shame!"

Joaquin, who overheard everything Selena and Pierre said, kept quiet. During the night, he went back to his room after having dinner and took his laptop out before he started getting busy.

Right then, Juniper snuck in quietly. "Jojo, what are you doing?"

"I'm making a layout," Joaquin answered while his eyes were completely fixated on his laptop screen.

"What kind of layout?"

"A layout to get revenge for you. I must make that woman pay for what she has done." The stern facial expression on Joaquin's face unquestionably resembled Pierre's.

Seeing how serious her brother was, Juniper squinted before giggling. "That's great!"

However, she stopped giggling after a while. "But, wouldn't that be too risky, Jojo? We are just kids, after all."

How could they do anything to adults when they were just kids?

"That's why no one would ever suspect us because we are kids." Joaquin was confident as Juniper nodded vigorously. "I'm sure that your plan will be successful!"

After giving Juniper a look, he started smiling. For Juniper, my plan must succeed this time!

On the other hand, Selena made a trip to her store to pick out a pink gown before altering and redesigning it again. Then, she bought a huge gift box to fit the gown and wrapped it as Jane's birthday present.
