Task NO 1 How To Pursue Miss CEO Chapter 641-“Give me a second. I’ll get you some ice.” Joaquin left, but he came back a short while later with some ice wrapped in a handkerchief. Then, he put that on her swollen palm.

Juniper smiled at him. “I can’t stay up with you guys on Fridays anymore, or I won’t be able to wake up on time on Saturday mornings.” “Is that why you were punished?”

“Yes. I was too sleepy, and I dozed off in class.” She pouted. “I see. I’ll remind you the next time, and I’ll tell Jameson too.” Joaquin was applying the ice ever so gently, worried he might hurt her.

“Sure.” After that, Juniper went back to her list of acupoints. “You go ahead. I’ll be quiet.”

“Alright.” In the meantime, Selena was about to see how Juniper was doing when she saw what Joaquin was doing. He was trying to lessen the swelling, and he wiped the water off Juniper’s hand from time to time.

Also, he blew on the swelling so it could go away quicker. On the other hand, Juniper was studying the list of acupoints like nobody’s business.

When Selena realized how close her kids had become, she smiled happily. They’re all grown up. They don’t need me anymore, I think. They can face a lot of things themselves now.

At that thought, she closed the door quietly before going back to her room. It was a lovely night that night, and she could see the moon hanging serenely in the sky from her window. Suddenly, she started missing Pierre. I wonder if he’s doing fine.

Selena thought that she might have overworked herself—either that, or her body might be breaking down since she was down with a cold after working overtime for a few days. She wouldn’t stop sneezing, and her snot wouldn’t stop flowing.

Initially, she thought some paracetamols would be enough to curb her cold, but when she woke up the next day, everything around her spun. When she checked her temperature, she realized she had a fever. Even so, she pushed herself to go through some documents and called a short conference before handling some small matters using her phone.

The kids were picked up by the driver and the servant that day. Noticing something wrong, they quickly went to Selena's room, only to see her lying languidly on the bed, unmoving.

"Are you sick, Mommy?" Juniper touched her face.

"I'm fine. Just feeling listless, that's all. I'll be alright after I get some sl—ah-choo!" Selena sneezed loudly. "Get away kids. Or you'd be down with the cold too."

Juniper had an idea. "Why don't I treat you then, Mommy?"

Selena caressed her face. "I'm scared of your needles." That wasn't a lie; Selena really was scared of Juniper's needles, and she wondered why Juniper loved them. Her daughter would pierce the mannequin with them every day, as if she was performing a voodoo ritual.

"What about moxibustion then?"

"Moxibustion, huh?" Selena didn't know what that meant; she only saw it in TV dramas.

"Yeah. I've got some mugworts here. Can you let me try it out, Mommy? What if it works? Can I?" Juniper swung Selena's arm around. All she had learned so far was theoretical. Strictly speaking, she had never come into contact with a single patient, so her mother would be her first one. Sure, it was experimental, but a patient was a patient.

"Okay, but no needles. Promise?"

"I promise!" Thus, Juniper chased her brothers away before taking the medical kit in her room to Selena's room. Meanwhile, Selena was lying on the bed, watching her as she laid her tools out.

Task NO 1 How To Pursue Miss CEO Chapter 642-Indeed, no needles were used, so Selena was relieved. Then, Juniper took out one moxa stick after another, and additionally, she had the kitchen maid cut some ginger slices for use later. “Mommy, let me take your pulse first.”

Selena only acted as if she was playing a game with Juniper, who took her pulse and then nodded. “Mommy, you’re too tired and haven’t been sleeping well. Besides, you’ve caught a cold. I’ll help you get rid of the cold first, and then I’ll help you get a good sleep.”

“Okay.” Selena grinned while thinking that Juniper was really acting like a true doctor. “Mommy, close your eyes and relax your body.”

As Juniper chanted, she put the ginger slices on their fixed positions before lighting the moxa sticks. “Mommy, you have to tell me if any of them gets too hot.”

“Okay.” The aroma of mugwort permeated the whole room, and Selena closed her eyes to enjoy the warmth. Whenever any of them got too hot, she would point at it, and Juniper would immediately change it. Both of them cooperated well together as mother and daughter.

At the end of the session, Juniper had Selena lie on her stomach and began to give her moxibustion at the acupuncture points on her back.

“Mommy, this is the last one.” After Juniper finished speaking, she realized that Selena did not answer. Upon taking a closer look, she found that Selena had unexpectedly fallen asleep.

Smiling, Juniper waited until the moxa sticks were almost burnt out before she withdrew them all. Then, she covered Selena with the quilt and tiptoed out of the room.

Selena truly had a deep sleep this time, and when she woke up, she found that she really had a good sleep and didn’t even dream of anything. Rubbing her nose, she realized that her nose did not run anymore, and her body felt extremely relaxed. Getting up, she found the smell of mugwort still lingering in the room.

“Mommy, are you feeling better?” Juniper opened the door a crack and poked her head in.

“Come here quickly!” Selena waved at her, who skipped over happily. “Juniper, I feel so much better. Previously, my cold would need to take a week to resolve, but today, I feel like I’m all better already!”

Juniper shook her head. “No, you’re not all better yet! Today, you should start to experience nasal congestion, and then there will be yellow snot. But I can give you moxibustion so you won’t suffer so much. Now that you have a cold, we need to remove the chill from your body. But I guarantee that within three days, you will be back to normal again!”

Selena pinched Juniper’s nose. “You’re amazing!”

“Of course, because I learned it all from Dr. Werner! Mommy, do you know that my master is really super powerful? He has saved so many people!” Juniper had a look of adoration on her face when she mentioned Andy. “I also want to be like him and save many, many people.”

“Good, I support you, and I believe in you. You will become a very good doctor in the future, Juniper!”

“Yeah!”

Sure enough, Selena began to have yellow snot and nasal congestion as Juniper said. Later, Juniper gave Selena three moxibustion sessions, and Selena actually returned to normal again. For the next three days, Selena slept very well. However, she also realized that she should boost her immunity. She felt she was truly too weak to have gotten sick after working overtime for only a few days.

Since she had already signed up for a gym membership, Selena began to find time to go there. After she began to hit the gym, she had more chances of meeting up with Jordyn, and the two often talked about workout-related matters. Later, Jordyn introduced a fitness instructor to Selena.

Task NO 1 How To Pursue Miss CEO Chapter 643-Insomnia

One day, Jordyn sat down in the rest area after running on the treadmill for a while. Then, she asked the receptionist to make a cup of coffee for her.

Selena was a little surprised to see Jordyn drinking coffee. “Jordyn, why are you drinking coffee?”

Jordyn wiped the sweat off her forehead and replied, “I don’t have much spirit today. I’m not in a great state—I have no energy during the day, and I cannot sleep at night.”

While saying this, Jordyn shook her head and smiled bitterly. Next, she looked at Selena strangely. “Are you really younger than me? Your state seems much better than mine. Don’t you have insomnia after giving birth?”

Selena nodded. “I did. There was a time when it was especially bad.”

“Me too. After I gave birth to the older one, I breastfed the kid, and after that, I never got to sleep a full night again. I thought that everything would be fine after the kid was weaned, but even after the kid could sleep a full night without waking up halfway, I could not.

Later, I had my second baby, and, in order to be in a better state, I formula-fed the second kid. But in the end, I still cannot sleep well.” Jordyn sighed deeply. “I really took a lot of drugs for my insomnia, and now, even sleeping pills don’t work anymore.”

Looking at Jordyn’s anguished appearance, Selena empathized with her because she also had insomnia. Insomnia sucks. “Let me ask you—do you know why I work out so hard every day?”

Selena quietly waited for the answer. “I want to live a few more years.” Jordyn smiled. “In the past, when I didn’t have children, I could work twenty-four hours continuously and eat just one meal a day. But now that I have children, I just want to live a few more years.”

This kind of heartfelt talk made Selena at a loss for words. She was also a mother, so she could also understand Jordyn’s feelings. Thus, she grabbed Jordyn’s hands, relying on her grip to convey words that lacked impact.

“Actually, I felt upset for a long time about not being chosen to become the president of the company. I even went to the board of directors to ask why they brought in a helicopter president to lord over me when I had worked hard for the company for so many years. The company told me that it was because I was a woman with two children; they thought I certainly wouldn’t have enough time and energy for the company.”

Jordyn bowed her head and smiled bitterly before continuing, “I was very angry at the time, and I wanted to resign. But later, when I went home to see the children, I dismissed the idea. Since I couldn’t become the president, then so be it.

Perhaps in this way, I would have more time with the children, and also more time to focus on my own health. I’m sure you know that those of us who are working at the top of the company are all exhausted. In fact, all of us are not in good health.”

Hearing Jordyn’s words, Selena couldn’t help but feel her tears coming.

“So I worked hard to get in shape through fitness, hoping to have a healthier body. Then, I began to focus on my insomnia issue. At first, I thought that after working out at the gym, I would be physically exhausted, and so I would sleep like a log for sure. But it turned out that this only worked for the first few days I began my fitness program. Later, no matter how much I increased the intensity, I still cannot sleep at night.”

Hearing these words, Selena suddenly had a bright idea. “I caught a cold a few days ago, and I found a... traditional doctor who checked my condition for me and gave me treatment. In the end, I managed to fall into a deep sleep, and three days later, I completely recovered. Would you like to consult her?”

Selena thought that she could recommend Jordyn to Juniper. If it worked, everyone would be happy; if it did not work, Juniper was after all just a child, so Jordyn would not be so disappointed. Besides, Juniper could also learn a thing or two from treating Jordyn.

However, Jordyn shook her head. “I’ve eaten a truckload of traditional medicine over the past few years, okay? Do you think I haven’t seen a traditional doctor before?”

“But this traditional treatment is very special. It uses a combination of moxibustion and acupuncture. Do you want to try it?”

Task NO 1 How To Pursue Miss CEO Chapter 644-“I’ve tried acupuncture before, but I think I’ve only heard of moxibustion. Not many people seem to do it.” “Yeah, it’s very effective. It’s a traditional tried-and-true method. Why don’t you try it?”

Jordyn looked hesitant; after all, she had met with disappointment for too many times these years. Every time, she would have high hopes for some famous doctor, only to return in disappointment. However, Selena spoke with such conviction, and considering Selena’s identity, Jordyn figured she should know some capable doctors, so she reluctantly agreed.

At the end of the week, Selena invited Jordyn directly to her home, where Juniper was already waiting in the room. In order to facilitate Juniper’s consultation, Selena specially asked the maid to set up a room with a bed and a cabinet for Juniper’s use. There was also a mannequin in the room with various acupuncture points marked on it.

“Is this your daughter? She looks so cute, though it seems that she resembles her father more.” Jordyn touched Juniper’s face.

“Yes, she looks like her father.”

Jordyn looked around the room but didn’t see anyone except for this child. “Where is the doctor you mentioned?”

Selena pointed awkwardly at Juniper. “Here she is.”

Juniper squinted at Jordyn. “Hello, Ms. Cole. I am the doctor.”

Looking at Juniper, Jordyn did not say anything for a long time. Then, she looked at Selena with a dumbfounded expression. “Hey, Selena, are you kidding me? She’s just a child, so how can she be a doctor? Is this a prank? Even though I didn’t agree to work for JNS Corporation, you shouldn’t play this kind of joke on me, right?”

If it weren’t for them being gym friends, Jordyn really would have lost her temper.

“Don’t look down on me! I’m confident when it comes to dealing with insomnia.” Juniper puffed up her cheeks.

Selena smiled. “Jordyn, I don’t know if you have heard of a Dr. Andy Werner who lives on top of the mountains. My daughter’s talents were acknowledged by Dr. Werner, and she’s now learning medicine from him. She has been learning for a while, so why don't you give her a chance? Anyway, she uses moxibustion therapy, so there's no need for you to take any medicine. Even if she can't cure you, it won't cause any damage to your body. What do you say?"

"Are you talking about the retired Dr. Andy Werner? He should be eighty years old, right?"

"Dr. Werner is exactly eighty years old this year!" Juniper said proudly.

"I heard that Dr. Werner has long since retired, and I've tried to get him to take a look at my health, but I've been there twice and was driven away both times."

Jordyn looked at the little kid in front of her and thought that since the latter was Andy's disciple, she could give it a try. It was mostly because this child was young, and it was because she used moxibustion and not medicine nor acupuncture that she was willing to give it a try.

"Okay, then I'll give it a try and consider myself resting at your place for a while."

Selena narrowed her eyes and smiled. "Okay, Jordyn. I'll leave you to it." Then she looked at Juniper. "Good luck, Juniper! I know you can do it."

Juniper gave a flying kiss to Selena. "Don't worry, Mommy! Ms. Cole, first of all, I need to take your pulse."

At that, Jordyn helplessly shook her head. How could a small child take my pulse? Nevertheless, she also had children of her own, so she decided to play along.

Next, Juniper took Jordyn's pulse patiently. "Ms. Cole, Mommy said you gave birth to two children. Did you not recover well during your confinement and postpartum period both times?"

"I chose the best confinement center, so how could I not have recovered well?"

Juniper shook her head. "Then you must have been working too much during that period."

Task NO 1 How To Pursue Miss CEO Chapter 645-Jordyn smiled awkwardly. "Indeed." "Okay, I understand. Please lie down, and I will make sure you sleep well." Jordyn lay down on the bed as instructed by Juniper, who found the acupuncture points and started the moxibustion therapy.

At the airport, a woman wearing a wide sun hat walked out carrying a rose-colored suitcase. She wore sunglasses, and with the wide brim of her hat, it was completely impossible to see what her face looked like.

Taking off the sunglasses, she revealed a pair of blue eyes full of charm, which attracted many people to cast their gazes toward her. Her lips rose slightly at the scene surrounding her. It's great to be back!

After undergoing moxibustion, Jordyn got up and put on her clothes. The aroma of mugwort did relax her, but she felt that it wasn't very effective. Selena asked Jordyn expectantly, "How was it? Wasn't it very comfortable?"

"It was very comfortable and relaxing; it's just a pity that..." Jordyn smiled awkwardly. "I don't think it has much effect." Juniper was inevitably a little upset. "You'd better go to bed at 9.00PM." She had a stern face on and spoke in an annoyed tone.

But Jordyn stroked her head and replied, "Little one, do you know that if I lie down at 12.00AM, I would be ecstatic to be able to fall asleep at 1.00AM or 2.00AM? And you want me to sleep at 9.00PM? How many people even sleep at 9.00PM nowadays?"

Juniper rolled her eyes. "Anyway, this is my advice. You'd better go to bed at 9.00PM. I don't care if you'd heed my advice or not."

"Juniper!" Selena hurriedly admonished the little girl because she was being a bit rude. However, Jordyn was not surprised, as Juniper was, after all, still young.

"Okay, I will follow the doctor's advice and try to go to bed at 9.00PM, okay?"

Hearing that, Juniper's expression then slightly eased. After sending Jordyn off, Selena came over to comfort Juniper. "Juniper, don't talk to adults like that."

“Hmph, she still doesn’t believe me! I shouldn’t have cured her!” Juniper was clearly upset.

“Juniper, how could you have such an attitude as a doctor? You have to think about it in another way. Even though she doesn’t trust you now, maybe tomorrow, she’ll realize that it’s effective and then bashfully come over and ask you to treat her again. When people don’t trust you, it’s even more important for you to show all of your enthusiasm to convince them.”

Juniper nodded. “Mommy, I have confidence in myself. She will definitely come back to me.”

“Yeah, I believe in you too.”

The next day, Selena finished the company’s business before she set out to pick up the children from kindergarten. At this time, it was almost time for the children to leave the kindergarten, so there were many cars on the road. A man with a limp came toward her car all of a sudden; his body was dirty, and his clothes were torn with several big holes. He knocked on the glass window of Selena’s car. When Selena saw him, she knew that he was begging for money. Some beggars took advantage of the traffic jam to knock on glass windows of cars to beg for money, and they would especially target wealthy people’s cars.

Knowing such a phenomenon existed, Selena also felt quite helpless about it.

“Have pity on me,” the man said while knocking on the car window.

As Selena rolled down the car window, a strange smell wafted in, but Selena did not mind.

“Don’t you know that it’s too dangerous to do this?”

The man smiled nervously. “Sorry, there is no other way except to do this so that I can have a little more money. I have a child at home who has leukemia, and I need money to save his life!”

When he brought up the child with leukemia, Selena was at a loss for words.

Chapter 646

Task NO 1 How To Pursue Miss CEO Chapter 646-This was the most difficult thing for Selena to ignore because her child had once suffered from leukemia, so she could understand the feelings of such parents very much. Thus, Selena picked up the wallet next to her and took out a few bills from it before giving them to the man.

“Thank you, thank you. You are really kind, so I’m sure God will look after you. I wish your family eternal happiness and peace.” The man hastily bowed, took the banknotes, and left with a smile. Selena then rolled up the window, and finally, the traffic jam eased up a little. There were too many cars at the kindergarten.

For some reason, there were many extra cars, and Selena could not find a place to park after driving around for a long time. After some time, she finally found a place to park before she got ready to go pick up the three little ones. There was some distance from where she parked to the kindergarten; since she did not want to let the children walk too far, she parked the car in one of the alleys behind the kindergarten.

At first, she thought there would be no problem since she was just going to park there for a while and leave as quickly as possible, but the alley was eerie and looked really scary, making her suddenly regret parking the car there.

Whatever. I’ll just not park here next time. Thinking of this, Selena prepared to head toward the kindergarten. Just as she was about to walk around toward the kindergarten in front, a large hand behind her suddenly grabbed her neck and dragged her into the dark alley.

With force, Selena stomped on the person’s foot. Grunting in pain, the man let go. But at this very moment, Selena found that there were several strong men hiding in the alley! What was more, she recognized that beggar from before among them and realized this was premeditated!

Selena calmly surveyed these people. “What do you want?” One of them stroked his chin and looked at Selena with a lustful expression. “What else? To have fun with you! Hahahaha...”

The several people all laughed out loud. With a cold smile, Selena said, “Well, let’s see if you have the capability, then!”

She clenched her fists in preparation, but suddenly, she felt all her energy draining from her. Not only did her hands feel weak, her entire body had lost its strength as well.

“Hahahaha...” The beggar continued laughing. “I drugged you when you gave me the money.”

Only then did Selena realize that the strange and unpleasant smell from before was the drug that he had given her! I was careless this time.

Feeling dizzy, she fell to the ground at once, not even having the strength to stand properly. Immediately, the several burly men surrounded her. “Don’t come over!”

If Selena was in her usual state, she would not have too much trouble dealing with these guys, but now, she really didn’t have any strength at all. She tried to stand up, only to find that she could only crawl on the ground.

The first man who came over had a bearded face. He took off the tag that Selena was wearing and handed it to one of the other men. “Go and help her pick up her children. It would be a waste not to let her children watch such a nice scene.”

That tag was issued by the kindergarten. In order to avoid problems, each parent had one tag as credentials for picking up their children. If something prevented the parents from picking up their children, the kindergarten teachers would have to see that tag before they could let other people pick up the children.

“No, don’t...” Selena weakly and helplessly watched them take away the tag to pick up her children, but there was nothing she could do.

“All right. Which one of us should go first?” The bearded man started to make plans. “Rock-paper-scissors. The one who wins will go first.”

Chapter 647

Task NO 1 How To Pursue Miss CEO Chapter 647-“Okay!” The burly men began to play, while Selena felt her vision getting blurry in front of her. She struggled to open her eyes, and when she did, she saw a man undressing while walking toward herself.

“Don’t...” Selena murmured. “Don’t!” She then shouted. “Mrs. Fowler, are you okay?” A man stood before her. “Don’t touch me!” Selena immediately shielded herself and made a defensive posture.

The man hurriedly said, “Mrs. Fowler, we were instructed by President Fowler to protect you and your children’s safety. Don’t be afraid.”

Only then did Selena come to her senses and realize that she was in her car. Juniper was placing a needle into her hand, while Joaquin and Jameson were also there, both staring at her with worried faces. “Mommy, are you okay?”

“Yes.” Juniper turned the needle in Selena’s hand slightly. “Mommy, does it hurt?”

“It’s okay.” “Mrs. Fowler, we’ve dealt with those people just now, but we couldn’t get anything much from them. They just said that someone instructed them to do so, but they weren’t sure who that person was. Looking at their appearance, they should be the homeless in this neighborhood,” the bodyguard said.

Selena frowned slightly. “I don’t think you’ll be able to find out who that person is. That person is very cunning and familiar with me.”

First of all, this person must have known about Selena’s habit of picking up her children here. Furthermore, the person was even aware of her personality and knew that she would not be willing to let the children walk a far distance, so she would choose to park the car in the back. Secondly, they must have known that Juniper had leukemia before and used the excuse to ensure that she would definitely open the car window. Besides, they must also have known that she could fight, and a few burly men might not win against her in a fight. Therefore, in order to ensure that nothing could go wrong, they first drugged her so that she would become weak.

This person is too scary! I must find a way to uncover their identity! Otherwise, my children and I will always be in danger.

“Did you just say that President Fowler sent you?” Selena was confused. Did Pierre come back?

A glimmer of hope rose in her heart at that thought.

“No. President Fowler gave us an instruction before he left. He ordered us to secretly protect the safety of you and your children. Moreover, we cannot get too close or be noticed by you, lest you feel uncomfortable by our presence.”

If there hadn't been an incident today, these people certainly wouldn't have been noticed by her. They were all dressed in civilian clothes, and indeed would never be thought of as bodyguards.

A trace of disappointment flashed across Selena's eyes when she realized that Pierre didn't come back. But when she was reminded that he had made such a thoughtful arrangement before he left, she felt warmth surging in her heart. Fortunately, he has made such an arrangement. Otherwise, I would've been...

She could not even bear to think about the consequences.

“Mrs. Fowler, how should we deal with these people?”

“Send them to the police station. There is nothing we can ask them anyway. Let the police check their criminal records; I'm sure they don't have clean records.”

“Okay.” The bodyguard made a gesture to several other bodyguards, and someone immediately went to carry out the instructions.

“Mrs. Fowler, do you want to go home now? We'll send you back.”

“Okay.”

Back home, Juniper gave Selena an acupuncture session, and Selena felt much better after that.

“Mommy, I don't know exactly what you've been poisoned with, but I just followed the usual method to help you detoxify. Are you feeling better?”

Selena stroked Juniper's cheek. “I'm much better, Juniper. Thanks.”

“Mommy, you don't have to thank me.” Juniper squinted at her mother and smiled.

Chapter 648

Task NO 1 How To Pursue Miss CEO Chapter 648-Selena and her children had just arrived home when Jordyn rushed up to them in a blaze. When she saw Juniper, she picked her up and kissed her several times.

“My goodness, I’d never slept so well! I can’t believe that I woke up late in the morning! You know what? It was the first time in my life that I was late!” Jordyn felt immensely proud of her tardiness. “Did you sleep well?” Selena asked.

“Yes... it was my best sleep!” Jordyn felt like she was dreaming when she recalled what happened yesterday. “Last night, as usual, I did not even think about going to bed at 9.00PM, but as a result, I began to yawn at 8.00PM, which had never happened in the past!”

Jordyn picked up Juniper and continued, “Little Doctor, you’re really too amazing. I actually slept until dawn without dreaming at all. Then, the alarm clock that went off as usual also failed to wake me up, and I was late.”

Selena looked at Jordyn’s glowing appearance and was genuinely happy for her. “Little Doctor, I’m sorry. I shouldn’t have said those things yesterday. I sincerely apologize to you, okay?”

Juniper huffed and turned away. “Look, she’s still holding a grudge!” Jordyn and Selena laughed. “Hey, Little Doctor, I now know that I was wrong, okay? Next time, I won’t dare to belittle a little brat like you.”

“I’m not a little brat!” “Yes, yes, yes. You’re not a little brat—you’re a doctor!” Hearing that, Juniper laughed as well. “Little Doctor, you should give me another moxibustion session quickly. I want to sleep comfortably tonight.”

Juniper shook her head. “There’s no need to do it today. One session should be enough to improve your sleep for the coming week. The best effect will be during these three days. So, you’ll just need to do it again in a week.”

“Is that so? How amazing! It works better than taking sleeping pills! Selena, thank you so much!” Jordyn thanked Selena from the bottom of her heart.

“Don’t mention it, Jordyn.”

“Ms. Cole, you need to quit coffee and sleeping pills. If you don’t have much energy during the day, you can put some ginseng pieces in your mouth. Besides, don’t tire yourself out too much at work; it’s best to go to bed early and get up early every day. Also, don't exercise after dark." Juniper spoke eloquently.

Jordyn was very surprised. "Why can't I exercise after dark?"

"You should work when the sun is up, and rest when the sun goes down. This has always been the rule passed down since many generations ago. During the day, we absorb yang energy, while at night, we absorb yin energy. If you exercise after dark, you're spending yang energy; if you stay up late, you're absorbing too much yin energy. The imbalance of energy between day and night will cause one to get sick." Juniper thought for a moment and continued, "But you should continue to exercise because the muscles are connected to the spleen, and so it will strengthen it. When the spleen functions well, the body will be much healthier too."

"Okay, sure. I'll listen to you! From now on, I will only listen to you, little brat—oh, sorry, Little Doctor!"

In the evening, after Selena put the children to bed, she suddenly felt a little afraid when she recalled the incident today. She felt that it would be so much better with Pierre around; at least no one would dare to harm her so blatantly.

Standing by the window, Selena looked up at the moon outside. The phone rang at this time, and she froze when she saw the number on the phone screen. For a moment, she even thought she was hallucinating!

She rubbed her eyes, but the phone was still ringing, and it was still the same number. Trembling, she pressed the answer button.

"Hello?"

"Did you miss me?"

The moment Selena heard that familiar voice ringing in her ears through the receiver, tears began to fill up her eyes.

By now, he has been gone for more than a month, right?

Read Novel Task NO 1 How To Pursue Miss CEO Chapter 649

Task NO 1 How To Pursue Miss CEO Chapter 649-Selena really missed Pierre so much. "Are you crying? Why are you so emotional now?"

Selena sniffed and tried to keep herself calm. "Where are you?" "It's a secret." Pierre couldn't tell her, as everything about his whereabouts had to be kept secret. "Well, how are you doing?"

"Not bad. I just miss you." Pierre's voice was slightly teasing and frivolous, but Selena felt delighted.

"Are you tired?" Selena did not tell Pierre what happened today. Since he could not personally come over to protect her, it was better not to tell him.

"I'm fine. I've been eating and sleeping well, so don't worry." Selena sighed. She missed him and had so much to tell him, but at this moment, she did not know how or where to start.

"The children are asleep. Should I wake them up to come talk to you?"

"Nevermind. Let them sleep. I just want to spend some time with you." "Okay. They're all fine. Juniper is studying medicine from Dr. Werner, and she's doing very well. I caught a cold the other day and she gave me moxibustion therapy; I got better in no time."

"You caught a cold?"

At this moment, Selena realized that she had spoken too much and let slip about her illness. "Yeah, but it wasn't serious." "You must've been exhausted. I left too abruptly and did not set up a lot of things properly. I'm sure that has caused you a lot of trouble."

"What are you saying? All of this is my responsibility. I'm fine, so there's no need to worry about me. The children are also behaving well... When are you coming back?" Selena rubbed her nose.

She had just finished speaking when some static came from Pierre's side. It seemed that the phone reception was not very good.

"Hey, Pierre, can you hear me?"

"What did you just say? The reception is not great on my side."

"I asked when are you coming back," Selena repeated.

“I might—” Then came the sound of static again. The reception was very poor, so Selena did not hear his words clearly.

Then, she heard Pierre say, “I have something else to do, so I’ll go and get busy first. Bye now.”

Beep, beep...

Pierre hung up, while Selena held the phone in a loss. It took such a long time for him to call once, yet he surprisingly hung up after just two minutes. Sigh... I wonder when all of this will end.

But at least she now knew that he was well. As long as he was safe, there was nothing more she needed.

At Diamond Hill Villa.

This was the place the Murray Family stayed in when they visited Astoria. Now, it had become Meredith’s residence. She had a cigarette in her hand and was on the phone. “Trash! What a bunch of trash! They can’t even fight a woman!”

Meredith paced back and forth while smoking a cigarette, simply furious. She had thought that by finding a few burly men, she could give Selena a taste of being raped and show her how pathetic she was in the red-light district, but she didn’t expect that the gang would not be able to get the job done. The failed move made her extremely frustrated.

As soon as she came to Digton City, she realized something. She didn’t see Pierre around, and coupled with her understanding of him, she concluded that he was not in Digton City. If Pierre wasn’t here, no one would try to contact him, so this was a good opportunity to take a strike at Selena.

It seems I need to think hard and not act so rashly now. Selena is a smart woman, so after this incident, she will definitely be more careful. Thus, I’ve got to do things slowly.

After calming down, Meredith took a long drag on her cigarette before making an international phone call. It took a long time for the phone to be answered.

“I’ve told you not to call me like this.” Linda’s voice seemed a little agitated because she didn’t want the Murray Family to know a single thing.

Task NO 1 How To Pursue Miss CEO Chapter 650-“Okay, then I’ll make it short. I failed the first time, and I need money now.” “You failed? Didn’t you say you would succeed soon?” Linda’s voice was very low, but she was still obviously angry.

“Excuse me, but this is not a trivial matter. You too know Selena’s identity. How can I get rid of her so easily? If it were that easy, you wouldn’t have asked me to do it; you would have done it yourself.”

Linda had to admit that Meredith was right. “I am asking you to kill her, not toy with her. Let me tell you—you’d better not fool around. It’s futile. You should kill her immediately!”

However, Meredith sneered, “Do you think it’s that easy to kill someone in Digton City? I don’t want to get my hands dirty.”

Then, Linda also calmed down. “How much longer do you need to finish the task?”

“It’s hard for me to estimate, but I will update you on the progress. I need money now, so you must get me a sum of money right away.”

“How much do you need?” Linda knew that Meredith was at the end of her rope since she had nothing now. Everything Meredith had now was provided for by Linda herself.

“20 million? What are you going to do with so much money?” Linda found it unbelievable.

However, Meredith shrugged her shoulders. “Don’t you have to spend money to find a killer? My food and lodgings require money, right? I’ll tell you this now: This money won’t even be enough for you to hire a killer.”

“Okay. I’ll send it to you as soon as possible, but you also have to get rid of Selena as soon as possible.”

Meredith curved her lips. "You seem to be very impatient about her death. Why are you in such a hurry? Is there something else you're hiding from me?"

"The more you know, the faster you'll die. Meredith, remember—you're not irreplaceable!" After saying that, Linda hung up the phone.

Tossing the phone aside, Meredith felt that something was not quite right. If Linda truly wants revenge, she should've agreed with my actions of torturing Selena. After all, death is the greatest relief for anyone. But Linda only wants to kill Selena, so her death must benefit her somehow. Otherwise, she would not have been in such a hurry. It seems that this woman is hiding something from me.

Soon, the phone rang, and Meredith answered it. "What did you find from your investigations on the matter I told you about?"

"I've found that during this period of time, she basically just goes to three places: The company, the gym, and her house. Occasionally, she will go to the kindergarten to pick up the children, but nowhere else."

"Gym?" Meredith didn't know that Selena had started going to the gym. That is a great place to strike! Her lips slightly hooked up, and soon, she cooked up another plan.

Since the last incident when she went to pick up her children from kindergarten, not only was Selena more cautious, she also went to the gym more diligently.

Like Jordyn said before, she was especially afraid of dying after becoming a mother, so she must have a healthy body for the sake of her children and Pierre.

As soon as she arrived at the gym that day, Selena came out of the locker room, whereupon a man in professional sportswear approached her. "Miss Yard, right?"

"Yes, that's me. And you are..." Selena looked at the bright and handsome young man in front of her with a confused expression. She did not know him.

"Your previous fitness coach, Kevin Shell, has resigned. Therefore, I will take over his job. Do you think it's okay with you?"

Selena and Kevin got along quite well, so she was obviously a little disappointed. “Why did he resign?”
