Tasting All My Mates by Alexis Dee

Chapter 3

3–The Bad Alpha King

After rejecting me, he walked past me as I stayed on my knees, trembling in agony. Elaine had rushed downstairs to support me on my feet and take me back to my room. I would have argued with her but I wasn't in a state to mumble a word out my lips.

Sadly enough, every time a mate as strong as an Alpha or Alpha King rejects you, the wolf gets weaker and weaker

I got rejected by the Alpha King, Nia was going to suffer a lot now.

I stayed in my bed and cried for hours, hoping the pain will subside anytime sooner but it didn't and I ended up feeling all the pain and crying throughout the afternoon.

After it seemed like the pain mitigated, I rolled out of the bed to take a shower. Ethen and Vinona must have heard from their daughter about the events that led to me getting rejected by my mate but none of them came to check up on me.

They have never let me adopt their surnames or call them mom and dad, I just don't even know why adopt me when they didn't want me?

After I took a warm shower, I stood in front of the mirror and stared at my face in silence while being wrapped in a towel.

'Are you upset that I caused the rejection?' I asked Nia, feeling bad for her. She was now much weaker than before, I wasn't even sure how much power and strength she had now. *

'No! I think you did the right thing. I would have been upset if you had let him have you after he cheated on you and attempted to rape you,' she replied with a mild softness in her tone. I could hear her trying to sound fine for me, that is why I thought she was the best wolf even if she was a weak omega.

'But now you are in pain because of that,' I mumbled and looked away from my image in the mirror.

The physical pain will go away, it wasn't your fault,' she had only spoken a few words to comfort me when the knock on the bathroom door startled me into looking in its direction.

"Come out and deal with the trouble you have brought upon us," Vinona yelled from the other side, making me frown at her statement.

"I am sorry! What is going on?" I asked from behind the closed door, taking off the towel to slip into a green tunic and blue jeans.

"Lord Shaun has sent his Royal Beta and Gamma to collect you," those words coming out of her lips froze me in my skin, "They are going to present you to the werewolf court as Alpha King Corbin has filed a complaint against you," the more she explained why I was summoned, the more my heart started losing beats.

OT

"What? that's ridiculous. If anything—he should be getting punishment for a rape attempt against me," I was hurrying up and getting dressed to come out of the bathroom and maybe persuade Vinona or Ethen to talk to Lord Shaun and stop him from taking such a step against me.

My adopted father, Ethen Dolan was a gamma guard of Lord Shaun's Royal lockers, he will listen to him,

I opened the door to the bathroom and witnessed my entire so-called family in my bedroom.

"Ask Elaine! She was here when it all went down," I pointed at Elaine, who steadily nodded to admit my claims were not false.

"I don't care what happened and whatnot, Lord Shaun's guards are waiting outside for you," Vinona was the boss in this house, with all of them being the Gammas and I being the Omega only had given them more power over me.

"Do you even realize how you have ruined our perfect evening with this court session?" Ethen shook his head in disappointment, whilst Vinona grasped my arm to shove me ahead. I was panicking inside my skin, there was no way anybody would listen to me.

It was a hated Omega vs the most loved Alpha King ever.

I stood no chance, but then when walking downstairs, I recalled the support Elaine gave me when she took me back to my room earlier. Maybe I can use her as a witness against the Alpha King, it was the only way for me to survive.

I was grabbed by the guards at the door and shoved in a truck like an animal. There were beta cops sitting around me just in case I try to escape. My parents were asked to follow us in a car and they did.

Sadly, this is how the court worked here. One complaint and you are dragged before the werewolf jury without a lawyer or anything.

It was going to be my words against the Alpha King's words. I was supposed to defend myself since it was a regular court hearing.

The beta cop handcuffed me and dragged me in front of the werewolf counselors and the jury.

Corbin was already sitting comfortably in his chair, the mere sight of him reminded me of the rejection and my heart ached. It was truly heartbreaking that not only did he cheat on me with my sister, rejected me but was also dragging me here.

"So, Corbin you have filed a complaint against her for seducing you and then viciously attacking you for not taking her virginity?" The judge read his complaint, making my feet go numb. I looked around and saw the disgust on everybody's faces.

It was bullshit!

When did I try to rape him?

"I never—" I got up from my seat to speak but the cop on the side pulled me down with force.

"If you interrupted us again, you will get a double penalty," the judge warned me, turning his attention back at Corbin again.

"Yes! She did," he replied, calmly folding his arms over his chest and shocking me.

"Miss Enya Fosters! What do you have to say in response to that?". The judge from the start didn't look very understanding of me. He looked bored when waiting for my side to be heard.

"It is not true. He tried to rape me and when I fought back, he rejected me. You can ask my sister, Elaine was there," I swiftly looked over to her and the attention shifted to her.

- Corbin steadily straightened his back and looked her way. I had a feeling she was going to take my side after he left her naked in the room and came over demanding I sleep with him earlier.

"I am not done yet," Corbin spoke up just when Elaine was getting ready to speak.

"Sure, what do you have to say," the judge let Corbin speak again. The frown on my forehead grew wider because I had no clue what he was planning to lie about now.

"As you all may know, she is my mate and on her 18th birthday, I was supposed to make a decision of either accepting or her rejecting her. So I visited her home to—," he paused, "To reject her and that angered her into grabbing my genitals and begging me to take her virginity and accept her," he shrugged his shoulders confidently while everybody gave me quizzical looks.

He was lying bluntly and they were happily listening to him.

"Why were you going to reject her?" the judge asked him before I could demand Elaine to tell the truth, but it is fine, I can wait because when the truth comes out, he will look like even a bigger fool.

"Because—

," he took a long pause before looking in the direction of Elaine, "because I was going to accept her sister Elaine Dolan as my mate!" as he finished, Elaine and Vinona covered their mouths in shock and relief.

My heart raced inside my chest hearing him lay down a perfect trap for Elaine.

"But Enya said Elaine is a witness to your assault against Enya," the judge mentioned my claim but I have already lost my hope because Elaine spoke up.

"I am a witness, but I witnessed Enya begging and assaulting Corbin because he didn't want to sleep with her," she announced loud enough and I lost the case. I was shocked, disappointed, and angry. Every body was muttering slangs and calling me names for attempting such a disgusting thing toward The Alpha King.

My eyes streamed tears down right when that happened, they all played me.

"She is lying," I couldn't hold it back anymore, I got up on my feet and shouted my lungs to bleed.

"You were the one who wanted Elaine to testify;". The judge gave me a disappointing look while the cops grabbed my arms to pull me away from everyone.

"Wait! What is going on? that can't be it. He is lying! I am innocent," I was screaming while locking eyes with Ethen, hoping he would say something but no! he remained in his seat because his beloved daughter was going to get accepted by the Alpha King. The title of Luna Queen burdened them into letting go of the girl they have adopted.

"Enya Fosters! You are punished to spend two years in an academy for the spoiled powerful; werewolf creatures with no rules, In The Academy Of Beasts," it was declared that I will be doomed to stay in an academy where the powerful creatures are tamed but instead they just take their waves of anger out on the omegas without any circumstance.

I was shoved into the same truck without being given a chance to go back and pack my stuff after they injected a little bit of a wolfbane into my body. They said I will receive my stuff directly in two days.

This academy where they were taking me was owned by an old Rouge couple. They had managed to make shit tons of money and create an academy, get permission from the werewolf council and use the academy as a punishment for the werewolves who are out of control.

I sat in tears among the cops, unable to process this big change because it all happened so suddenly. We reached the academy The academy of beasts in two hours and the cops dragged me out. The warden was already made aware of my arrival so it didn't take long for the academy guard to grab my arm and keep hauling me to my room.

"It is almost midnight so just settle in the room for now. You will hear from the warden and the principal in the morning," the guard muttered, opening the door and shoving me inside a dorm room.

My mind was still blank from the wolfbane they have injected in me to prevent me from struggling.

I was now standing inside my new home, my dorm room but what shocked me was the fact that I had roommates and not some ordinary roommates.

They were sexy werewolf guys.
