Chapter 111

“Well, I got work to do. See you kids later!” Mom smiled at us and walked out. Kristen turned in her seat so she was straddling me. “Going to tell me why you lied?” “Can’t there be some mystery to our relationship?” I sighed as I stood up. Grabbing her hand, I pulled her with me. “No, there can’t be.” Pulling her along, we walked up the stairs and to my library. “Why are you taking me here?” Kris asked. Shutting the door, I locked. “This is a relaxing room and since I know you won’t just let me handle things, I wanted to tell you in here.” Sitting down on one side of the couch, I patted the other for her to sit. “I don’t like where this is going.” Kristen sat facing me with one leg on the couch. Her arm was resting on the back of the couch, as her hand propped up her head. “I don’t either but I told you we are equals and I meant it. For the record, I rather not tell you any of this but that is just because I want you to be happy and not be under any stress.”

“I appreciate that but get talking.” Kristen narrowed her eyes at me. “You know that Darin has developed some weird attachment to you.” I started. Kristen’s eyes instantly narrowed as I could feel she knew she wasn’t going to like where this was going. “Dad tried calling Alpha Rip to see about smoothing things over.” “Let me guess, it didn’t work?” Kristen rolled her eyes and looked out the window. “Exactly. He basically said what happened to Sherry was just boys being boys..” Kristen whipped her head around in shock. Holding up a finger, I continued. “..he said that you intrigued his son and that there wasn’t any harm to it. He ended it with basically saying, let the best man win.” “You’re joking...” Kristen looked at me appalled. “Those weren’t the exact words but yeah, that is the gist. He made it sound like Darin will not be respecting the fact that you are my mate but try to win you over himself.”

Kristen jaw had dropped as she just stared at me. Shock, anger and fear invaded my heart from her. “That’s just crazy.” “Dad prohibited you from tattooing him. Which, just goes without saying.” “Obviously.” Kristen’s eyes widened as the sarcasm dripped off her tongue. 糖 BONUS “And you will have a b*dy guard with you at all times.” Kristen opened her mouth to argue but I put my finger against it. “Don’t even try. Colt, your dad... basically everyone is in agreeance with that. I...” I paused as I was trying to find a way to say what I wanted to in an emotional way that made her understand. “I need you to do this. For my sanity. I-I can’t lose you, Kristen. Please don’t fight me on this.” Grabbing her hands, I tried to sound as sincere as I could. It must have worked as Kristen didn’t respond right away. Instead, her eyes looked down at our hands. She was having an internal battle with herself. I was about to say something when she got up and moved so she was straddling me. With my hands on her hips, she put hers on either side of my face. “I will only agree to this if it is someone I chose.” “Love, it will only ever be me or Colt or Jasper. You get the picture. I’m not putting your safety in a random persons hands.” Cupping the back of her head, I pulled her face down to mine. Our k*ss was gentle as it was more comforting than anything. Resting her forehead to mine, her eyes were closed as she pulled comfort from our embrace. “I can’t deny that he creeps me out and I don’t like him near me.” “Let me keep you safe. Don’t leave pack lands without me. No adventures until this is settled, okay?” Kristen moved her head to my shoulder. “Okay.”

That was easier than I expected. I was just staring out the window, relaxing, holding Kristen when I felt a sharp pain over my mark. My b*dy instantly got aroused as the pain was replaced by pleasure and I shot a load into my shorts. My hands clenched around Kristen as I came down from the high I just got as she was licking her mark on me clean. "What. The. F uck. Kristen?" My breathing was heavy. Tossing her off me, my shorts were sticky from my cu m. "I..." Kristen was laughing so hard that tears were running down her face. Unlocking the door, I just walked out and went straight to our room to change. Never once I ever thought about what it would mean to just f ucking mark someone. Just f ucking randomly. This meant war. "A-alec!" Kristen came into the bedroom as I was cleaning myself off in the bathroom. I had grabbed new underwear and shorts to put on. "The f uck do you want?" I asked, still slightly annoyed. "I'm sorry but I do feel like you enjoyed that." Kristen was leaning against the door frame as I got dressed. "Plus, you promised me a full day together."

"I did... after that stunt, lets go workout." "A workout? I can think of other ways to workout." Kristen tried to grab me as I walked by her. "Naw, I already got off. I'm good." I gave her a look as I opened the bedroom door. "Well, s hit." Kristen made a face as she walked up to me. "Figured getting you off would put you in a better mood but I guess not." Pulling my hand back, I slapped her as s as hard as I could as she passed me. "I'm in a great mood." "OOWWEE" Kristen grabbed her as s as she did a little twirl. "That is going to welt!" Putting my arm around her shoulders, I pulled her along with me. "We haven't worked out together before."

This should be fun." "I have a feeling I am going to resent you by the end of today." Kristen gave me a look. "Oh no, love. By the end of the day, you will be screaming my name for the whole pack to hear." I promised as I opened the doors to the gym. There was enough people in there that Kristen didn't answer back but the fire in her eyes told me this wasn't over. "It's f ucking hot out here." Kristen said looking up. "Yes, it is. Ready?" I asked, lifting an eyebrow at her. She looked at the woods like it was her enemy. "Always." F uck, she is stubborn as hell. However, I gave her maybe five miles before she caved. We took off in a jog until we hit our wall that lines our pack. "This is the edge. It follows the entire path around the pack." "What? No lasers or anything protecting it." Kristen was bent over, clutching her side. "No, just bombs and poison darts." I said amused. "Need a break?" "Nope, just taking in all the beautiful scenery." Kristen stood up and walked passed me. "Great, you can take the lead then." I said allowing her to go first. I watched her sigh as she took off running on the path adjacent to the wall. Watching her tight a ss as she ran was mouthwatering. This really was the most pleasurable runs I have ever had. We ran for awhile before she stopped running and grabbed a tree. "Fine! I cave. I can't jog anymore." She glared at me as I was only breathing heavily.

Chapter 113

My dick twitched watching her move up and down eight times before stepping out. "Your turn." There was a slight cockiness to her. Maybe I should have put more weight on there. Moving the peg to 250lbs, I got under the bar. It was my turn to do eight reps before allowing her to do another set. She moved it back to 150lbs and did eight more like she wasn't even struggling. However, when she stepped out, she moved the peg to 275lbs for me. "Can you do that much, Mr. Alpha?" She put her tongue on the tip of her teeth as she was both flirting and challenging me. "With ease." I said. It was slightly harder but I didn't dare make a face. Returning the favor, I moved her peg to 160lbs. "Your turn to try to impress." "Not a problem." She squinted her face in a fuck you smile before doing the squats. To her credit, she did keep her face passive but I could feel her internal struggle. "Easy." She said when she was done but her thigh was shaking a little.

"Great, let's do some presses then." I said as I moved us over to the squat press. I got on and did my set before Kristen did hers. To her credit, she kept her face passive but her legs were a little shaky. Because of that, I didn't move her weight up but I did add an extra rep onto that. Moving on, we did some calf muscle workouts before Kristen sat down on a bench. "Here." I had walked over and grabbed two waters from the cooler and handed her one. "Thanks." As she took a sip, I watched her thighs shake as much as she tried to hide it. "I was thinking about going for a walk around the perimeter. It would be a good idea for you to come so you know the whole layout." Kristen made eye contact with me. We both knew that meant miles and miles of walking. "That sounds like a great idea." Her eye lids fluttered as she refused to cave. "Not too sore?" I asked. "Nope. I could even jog it a little." Kristen held her head high as she continued to show no weakness.

"Good idea, let's go." Shrugging, I didn't even crack a smile as I turned and started to walk away. I could hear her sigh before she got up. She was angry with herself and I could feel her internal annoyance as we got outside. It was already a hot fucking day. I had to slow down so Kristen was beside me as we made our way to the edge of the forest. Giving her a chance to walk before I called her bluff. Tossing my empty waters in a trash, I waited for her to finish hers and do the same. "It's fucking hot out here." Kristen said looking up. "Yes, it is. Ready?" I asked, lifting an eyebrow at her. She looked at the woods like it was her enemy. "Always." Fuck, she is stubborn as hell. However, I gave her maybe five miles before she caved. We took off in a jog until we hit our wall that lines our pack. "This is the edge. It follows the entire path around the pack." "What? No lasers or anything protecting it." Kristen was bent over, clutching her side. "No, just bombs and poison darts." I said amused. "Need a break?" "Nope, just taking in all the beautiful scenery." Kristen stood up and walked passed me. "Great, you can take the lead then." I said allowing her to go first. I watched her sigh as she took off running on the path adjacent to the wall. Watching her tight ass as she ran was mouthwatering. This really was the most pleasurable runs I have ever had. We ran for awhile before she stopped running and grabbed a tree. "Fine! I cave. I can't jog anymore." She glared at me as I was only breathing heavily.

“Well, you made it six miles and I thought you would quit at five so you did do more than I expected. However, as much as your legs were shaking, I am surprised you made it this far.” “Fuck....you.” She said between a few breaths. All I did was chuckle at her defiance. “Come on.” Holding out my hand, she took it as we kept walking. “How are you not sore?” She asked after a few minutes. “I’m an alpha. We don’t get tired.” I lied. She tripped at that moment but thankfully she was still holding my hand. “Need me to carry you?” She glared but ignored that last part. “I just haven’t worked out in a week or so and have been injured.”

“Well, my little poor luna, let me show you something.” We walked over to a deep creek that ran down our land. Where we were, there was a waterfall that opened up into a small pond before the creek opened up and it drained when it rained. “This is beautiful.” Kristen let go of my hand and walked up to the edge of the waterfall. “Yes, beautiful.” I said but I was looking at her. Taking her shoes and socks off, she sat down on a rock and dipped her feet in. “This feels so good.” Tossing her head back and closing her eyes, the sun was making her sweat sparkle. “Let’s go for a dip.” I suggested. “Do what?” Kristen looked over at me. “Yeah, let’s go for a swim.” I said to her. I mind-linked the patrol. “Keep clear of the pond.” “Yes, Alpha.” They knew better than to question me. “What if someone comes...?” Kristen looked around but I was already taking my shirt off. “No one will.” Next was my shoes and socks. “The patrol...” “Were instructed to stay clear.” Removing my shorts, I was standing here as s n*ked in front of her. The satisfaction of watching her eyes look me up and down sent goosebumps down my back. Taking a step past her, I jumped off the waterfall and into the pond below. The water was almost crystal clear and felt “It’s fucking hot out here.” Kristen said looking up. “Yes, it is. Ready?” I asked, lifting an eyebrow at her. She looked at the woods like it was her enemy. “Always.” Fuck, she is stubborn as hell. However, I gave her maybe five miles before she caved. We took off in a jog until we hit our wall that lines our pack. “This is the edge. It follows the entire path around the pack.” “What? No lasers or anything protecting it.” Kristen was bent over, clutching her side. “No, just bombs and poison darts.” I said amused. “Need a break?” “Nope, just taking in all the beautiful scenery.” Kristen stood up and walked passed me. “Great, you can take the lead then.” I said allowing her to go first. I watched her sigh as she took off running on the path adjacent to the wall. Watching her tight as s as she ran was mouthwatering. This really was the most pleasurable runs I have ever had. We ran for awhile before she stopped running and grabbed a tree. “Fine! I cave. I can’t jog anymore.” She glared at me as I was only breathing heavily..

“A sick joke. You dying is not a joke to me.” I lowered myself in the water so my hand could cup her a ss firmly. “Hmm, can I make it up to you?” Her voice was sultry as she licked my ear. One hand of hers came out of the water and gripped my shoulders for support as the other grabbed my d ick. Fuck, I loved a forward woman. “You can try.” I muttered as she pushed her t its into me and moved to give me a k*ss. Her hand started pumping my already harden d ick. My hand parted her legs before I inserted two fingers into her. She gasped in my mouth and her hand stilled around my d ick as I showed no mercy. Faster and faster I moved as my thumb massaged her cl it. “Oh fuck!” She moaned as her head fell back. Moving her legs around me, I didn't hesitate to shove my di ck in her with one motion. Her nails sank into my shoulders as she cried out. Picking her up, I moved us to another rock. Laying her half out of the water, her bottom half was still in the water but her back was resting on a rock. Giving me full access to them. Moving my motions slower, I started my assault on her t its. She had this sweet spot on the inside of her left one that really sent her into a frenzy. As I hit it, her hips buckled but I wasn't ready for her to c um yet. Moving her up completely on the rock, her as s was just barely out of the water that I could taste her sweet juices.

"Oh! Oh! Oh!" Kristen moaned as she grabbed the back of my head to ride my face. Her legs were shaking around my head as I stopped right before she came. Grabbing her, I pulled her back into the water before slamming my di ck into her. Our rhythm matched as I pumped in and out of her. My l*ps found hers as my hands were firmly on her hips. I knew her legs were tired so I did most of the work. It wasn't until her climax hit that I found mine. I had every intention to ride it out but Kristen wiggled off of me and pushed me against the wall. "Wha-" I asked. She didn't answer but kept trying to pick me up. Confused, I moved out of the water and sat on the edge. Without warning, Kristen shoved my still hard d ick into her mouth. "F uuccckkk." I moaned as I moved so I was comfortable. She grabbed my balls to massage them as she took almost the whole thing in her mouth. Not once did she gag as she moved in and out. Faster and faster until I blew my load keep in her throat. My head had fallen back so when I looked down at her, she was licking her l*ps clean. "Fine." I treaded water as I watched her undress completely before jumping in after me. I don't know what it is about it but something about when a girl comes up out of water just makes my di ck twitch. "This does feel amazing." Turning around, I was going to show her something before two hands pushed down on my head, sending me under water. For a wolf, I was a great swimmer. Turning around, I went deeper before grabbing her ankle and pulling her under with me. Kicking off from the bottom, my b*dy was jetting upward. When I broke the surface, I looked around but Kristen wasn't anywhere to be seen. Looking down, I saw her just laying at the bottom and my heart stopped. "F uck!" I yelled before driving down to get her. Her eyes were closed and little bubbles were coming from her opened mouth. My hand wrapped around her arm and pulled her upward. As soon as I got to the surface, her head broke it as well. "Kristen!" Placing her head on a rock, I gave it a few shakes before putting my ear to her mouth, to listen for breathing. As soon as I did, something wet wiggled deep into my ear. "EWW!" I pushed away as Kristen opened her eyes and laughed. "I scared you!" She laughed but stayed against the rocks.

Glaring at her, I swam back over to her and pinned her against the rocks. My hand went around her throat with my thumb forcing her head to look at me. "Don't ever do that again." My heart was still beating rapidly. Kristen placed her arms around my waist. My one hand was keeping me pushed up against her as I held onto the rocks. They weren't sharp but there was one sticking out at the right height for us to stand up. "It was just a joke." She sighed but looked at my l*ps. I could feel her arousal through the bond.

Chapter 116

Kristen POV That mother f u cker... my b*dy shook one last time before I picked my head up and looked into his humor filled eyes. He was trying not to laugh but his arms kept me from moving too far away. My nipples kept grazing his chest, keeping them hard. "Hmm, I did enjoy that." A half smile finally broke free. F u c k, he was the se xiest man I had ever seen. This little half smile kept my legs shaking. "I see how it is." Pushing myself back up against him, a little water shot up from between my boobs, hitting him in the face. "This doesn't change anything." Blinking a few times, he moved the water off his eyes. "What do you mean?" "Nothing. Are you ready to continue our walk?" "We can't stay here all day?" Licking my l*ps, I tried to make it obvious I wasn't done with him as I looked. down at his.

"Hmm...." Alec grabbed the back of my neck and forced a k*ss that sent a wave of pleasure to my core. I wanted a good pounding. Yes, this was fun but I wanted more. Alec shoved me against the rocks as his finger rammed into me. "Oh YES! DON'T STOP!" I half moaned, half yelled. His hand moved harder and harder as he kept going. Grabbing my legs, he wrapped them around himself as his dic k invaded me. I was so lost in the feeling of his dic k sliding in and out that I was prepared for his finger that went up my a ss. My b*dy clenched around him. "Relax." He whispered in my ear. This was a new feeling. Some pain but once I relaxed and his hand started moving with his d ick, I was left speechless. He filled me completely as he f u c k e d my pu ssy and my a ss. Helping him out, I reached between us and played with myself with one hand as my other held on to him for support. Alec sl*pped two fingers in my a ss and I lost it. Crying out loud, a few birds flew away as Alec growled as he hit his own o rgasm. Only when we both came down, did he speak. "I think you enjoyed that." My head rested on his shoulder. "You think so?" "Come on. Let's get going but I promise there will be more of that." Part of me wanted him to show me "We can dry in the sun." I said as we sl*pped out of the water. My entire b*dy was sore as f u c k. My legs wobbled and my a s s was on fire. Both from the workout and his fingers. Ringing my hair out, we laid on the rocks for a few minutes before we were mostly dry. "Have you done that before?" I asked, somewhat sheepishly. "Done what?" Alec was looking up at the sun, in his own world. Although we shared the bond, it was occasionally hard for me to read him. "Came out here to f u c k someone." I didn't even make eye contact as I wasn't even sure I wanted an answer. Alec turned and looked at me. "No. Believe it or not, I actually saved a lot of stuff for my mate. I know I wasn't a virgin but that doesn't mean I did anything like this." "Did you do butt stuff before?" "Yes." My heart sank a little as I reached over and grabbed my clothes. "Oh." Alec didn't respond as he got up and got dressed himself. I beat him getting dressed. He was tying his shoe so I took the lead and headed down the trail. My hair was knotted and unmanageable. It was all I could do to braid it down the back. When I heard the twigs break, I knew Alec had caught up. This really was pretty. Birds were flying around, squirrels were running up and down the trees and the butterflies were showing their colors off. We walked in silence for a few miles, just enjoying being outside. Looking to my right, the wall was made of stone. It went about eight feet high, like something that was built in the revolutionary times. Vinces had grown up and around part of it.

Chapter 117

A huge gust of wind blew and I caught the scent. My b*dy instantly froze as I became alert to my surroundings. "Kr-?" Alec started to speak but I held up my hand. "Smell that?" I asked in the mind-link. "No?" Alec looked concerned. He looked around but he was tensed and ready. "What did you smell?" "Rogues." Alec's eyes snapped to mine. Pointing to the wall, I motioned for him to take a look. He must have caught my thinking as he quietly walked over. Jumping up, he used his fingertips to lift himself up to the top and barely peak over. As soon as he did, he dropped to the ground, motioning for me to get down. "You're right." I got behind a tree and crouched down as I could hear them just on the other side of the wall. "Stay down, I got warriors coming."

"How many are there?" "A dozen or so." S hit. We could handle a few but not more than that. "Hmm." "You need to quietly head back." Alec said to me. The sound the the rogues scraping the wall echoed across. "The f uck I am! I'm not leaving you to fight them by yourself." "I'm not allowing you to be in danger!" Alec gave me a look but I wasn't listening. "We need to shift before they get over here." I said to him. Not even giving him a chance to explain, I closed my eyes and called my wolf forward. I only took a few seconds before I was standing on all four paws. Sierra stood before him in all her glory. The silver shining in the sunlight. Looking over, Alec had shifted too. His wolf was massive. With matching dark green eyes, his all black wolf. Right as he shifted, a rogue had scaled the wall and dropped on the back of his neck. Without even thinking, my wolf leaped forward. Diving straight into the rogue. Sinking her teeth into his neck, he kicked off from the wall, making up barrel roll off Alec and onto the dirt. Landing on the bottom, my wolf's fur turned red from the blood that rushed out of the dying rogue.

The sounds of growls filled around me. Kicking the dead rogue off, more rogues had scaled the wall. Alec was fighting three at once as two had circled me. The one in front of me lunged forward as the same time the one behind me went low. Dodging to the side, my wolf was able to kick one in the face as the one in the front barely missed her snout. Suddenly, a massive weight landed on my back, almost causing me to fall as a sharp pain erupted on my shoulder. Rearing back, my wolf pinned the rogue on my back against the wall. The rogue in front of me shifted back to his human form. "Don't f ucking kill her!" The teeth instantly came out of my shoulders. Fear washed over me as the guy started shouting orders. "This is who we want! Capture her!" My wolf went into panic mode. Making her incredibly dangerous, she went on the attack. Jumping off the rogue she had pinned, her paws landed on the rogue that shifted, slicing his neck open. Not even waiting for him to die, she lunged at the next one. Biting his thigh, she whipped him around, tossing him against a tree. Before he fell, another wolf ran at him, sinking his teeth into his neck. Our warriors finally arrived. "KEEP ONE ALIVE!" I yelled to Alec. I watched as our warriors limited the threat. The one Alec was fighting, he instantly took his teeth out and knocked unconscious. The warriors were doing the same. I was in shock. What did he mean they wanted me? Was this some bad failed attempt at kidnapping me? I mean, they only sent a dozen or so rogues? My wolf was pacing as she looked at each one. Who didn't have their necks ripped out were laying unconscious. "Kristen." Alec's voice interrupted my thoughts as my head whipped around to look at him. He had shifted back and was wearing a pair of shorts. Holding up a t-shirt, he motioned for me to take it. The warriors were starting to shift back and put on their own shorts.

Grabbing the shirt, I ran off behind a tree and shifted back before putting the shirt on. It only took a few seconds but I stayed behind the tree, gathering my thoughts. It wasn't the attack that bothered me, or the blood and dead bodies. It was what he said about me. Taking a deep breath, I walked back to the battle scene. "What happened?" Alpha Marc's voice boomed angrily. Alec saw me and motioned for me to go to him. The warriors let me pass but more than once I staggered until one took my arm and helped me over to Alec. He slipped his arm around me firmly. "We were walking the boarder. I wanted Kristen to be familiar with our land." "Okay, and?" Alpha Marc was impatient. "A gust of wind hit me and I smelled them. Alec looked over and confirmed there was rogues. He told me to run but I refused. Thankfully, I didn't listen second a minute later, a rogue was on his back." Looking up at him, I realized how scared I was of losing him. "I had shifted by then. My wolf took matters into her own hands and killed him. Next thing I knew, all the rogues had jumped over. Alec was battling three or four and then so was I." "You're bleeding." Alpha Marc motioned to the blood that was seeping through the shirt. Alec pulled back the collar and looked. "I'm fine. Anyway, one jumped on my back and bite me but another rogue shifted and told him not to kill me as I...I was the one they wanted." Alec had ripped my shirt so he could see the bite marks. They weren't terribly deep but they still stung." What do you mean the one they wanted?" He growled. "I don't know. That's why I told you to keep one alive. I got the feeling they were after me. He literally s 'catch her'." I was starting to get annoyed. "I told you to run!" Alec growled. He was angry. Not really at me, but that I got hurt and I was even in that position. "And I told you no!" I took a step back from him. "If I would have left, you would have been dead. It took your warriors far too long to respond! You were a sitting duck out here. As good as you are, there is no way you would have been able to take a dozen rogues all by yourself!" I yelled back. I was pissed too. "Luna, let's take you to the hospital." Jasper stepped forward. He was probably the only one brave enough to speak at this moment but I think it was more to break us up. "1/2 "Don't fucking touch me, Jasper!" I pushed him away as I looked at Alec and crossed my arms. The movement hurt a little but I refused to flinch. "Okay, this is what we are going to do." Alpha Marc held up his hands. "Take the rogues that are alive and put them in our cells. We will interrogate them when they wake up. Take care of the ones that died. Alec, are you hurt?" "No." Alec's eyes never left my b*dy. He was fucking pissed. "Okay, we will handle this. Kristen, go to the hospital." I opened my mouth to protest but he held up a finger. "Your dad and brother will kill me if anything happens to you. Please, just go." "Fine." I slapped Jasper's hand away as I walked away from them. "Jasper, stay here." Alec growled before I felt him follow me.

Chapter 119

My adrenaline was wearing off the more I walked. Blood had stopped running down my arm and started to dry in the summer heat. Flashes of the rogue saying to his men, went across my mind. "Catch her!" He yelled. Who would want me? The only person that came to mind was Darin. The thought of being kidnapped scared me s hites s. As I walked, exhaustion filled me as I started to crash. Stepping over a log, my foot got caught and I fell on my hands and knees. Tears started to well up in my eyes as I couldn't hold back the small sob that escaped my lips. Strong hands wrapped around my waist and pulled me up and against him. Sparks erupted all over my body as he placed me on his lap as he sat down on a fallen log. Alec started to rub my back. "I'm sorry." His words confused me. "What do you mean?" I said looking up at him. A tear fell down my face. "You had to kill someone. It might have been a rogue but he was still a person." "That is what you think is bothering me right now?" I was flabbergasted by this. "Are you not?" "No. That isn't my first time killing someone. Do you not remember the car crash?"

"I do but you didn't kill anyone, and there wasn't a dozen of them." "Alec, since I know you, I have been in three different rogue attacks now. First one when Colt got ran off the road, which I did kill someone. The second is when you got shot and I saved your ass. Now, today. I'm not afraid of rogues. I am afraid of losing you. Seeing the rogue on your back." I shook my head as I looked at his bite marks. They were almost healed. I guess their teeth didn't sink all the way in like mine did. "Alec, if I'm right, they wanted to kidnap me!" My body started shaking as I said those words. Kidnap. It was right up there with being raped as my worst fear. "Shh!" Alec grabbed my face as tears started pouring. "I would die before I allowed you to get kidnapped. I promised to keep you safe." Alec wrapped his arms around me as I let the last of the terror escape me. Once I calmed down, Alec stood up and started walking with me in his arms. I didn't even protest as he carried me. It felt like forever before we reached the hospital. The cool air hit my skin, giving me goosebumps as nurses ran forward with a gurney. "Luna Kristen, we will get you fixed up, okay?" "I'm fine, really. This is all unnecessary." "Let them do their job." Alec sighed as he rubbed the bridge of his nose. Sighing, I leaned back as she started pressing on my wounds. "Does that hurt?" "I literally got bit thirty minutes ago and you are asking if the wounds hurt?" I knew I was being rather bitchy but what kind of dumb question was that. "S-sorry, Luna." She left the room rather quickly and another nurse took over cleaning the wounds. "Kristen." Alec sighed as he looked at me. Looking over at him, his arms were folded and he was still rather pissed off. "I don't want to hear it. I did what I had to do to make sure you lived. This is nothing. I'll heal by the time prom is next week. You won't even see the wounds." "Do you want to call Alpha Brian or do you want me too?" "I guess I'll do it." I held out my hand, asking for a phone, "I don't have mine here. We will do it when I get you home." Alec didn't move a muscle as the nurse worked quietly on cleaning them. After giving me a shot, she nodded from her work. "Anything broken?" She asked. "Doesn't feel like it." I answered moving my arm. "Up to you if you want me to take an x-ray or not." "I think I am okay." Sighing, I just wanted to go home. "Okay. No stitches so just try to allow them to scab over before you do anything too crazy. If you notice any redness, come back as there might be an infection. I did give you a shot of antibiotic just in case. questions?"

Chapter 120

“No. I think I’m good.” “Alright, have a good rest of the day. Alpha Alec, Luna Kristen.” She gave a bow before walking out of the room. “Thank you.” I said before she fully left. Her b*dy paused but she kept going. Sliding off the bed, Alec reached out and grabbed my arm to make sure I was steady. “Let’s go.” Alec gestured for me to head towards the door so I did. This phone call wasn’t going to be a pleasant one. The whole way to the packhouse, we didn’t speak. Alec had his hands by his sides but there was like three feet between us as we walked. I felt rather exposed in my ripped t-shirt. When we got to the packhouse, there was a warrior standing outside the door. That was rather unusual but that was something I’ll tackle later with Alec. Instead, I went straight up to our room. Going to the closet, I ripped the torn shirt off and put on basic shorts and a tank top that had a built-in bra. Alec even helped move it so it didn’t scrap at the bite mark. “Let’s go to dad’s office to make that call.” Alec said as we exited the closet. “Why?”

“He was going to call him anyway about the locations.” Alec shrugged. “Fine. It’s getting late as well. Can we just have food brought up to our room and go to bed early?” “That’s fine.” Alec didn’t even look at me as he walked out of the bedroom and to his dad’s office. Alec knocked once before opening the door. “Brian, your daughter actually just walked in and she has something she wanted to inform you of.” Alpha Marc frowned. He hit speaker before putting the phone down. “Okay? What’s wrong?” Dad’s voice filled the room. “Hey dad.” I said a little timidly.

“Kristen? What’s going on?” “Dad, I don’t want you to get angry.” “F uck Kristen. What did you do?” I was a little taken aback by that. “HEY! I didn’t do anything!” I said in my defense. Alec snorted before he sat down. “Yeah, okay. Tell me what happened.” “Alec was showing me the perimeter of their land...” I started. “Good. You need to know those things.” I could picture dad nodding. “Yes, well, a gust of wind came and I smelled rogues. Alec looked over and there was about a dozen rogues. He told me to run but I didn’t listen and we had about one minute. We shifted and a rogue had already scaled their wall and landed on Alec. Sierra jumped in and saved Alec but we got bit on the shoulder in the process.” “Well, I’m happy to hear that Sierra took action but I’m at a loss why this was a big deal. You have battled rogues before. I have faith you handled it until their warriors got there.” Dad’s confidence in my fighting skills made me give Alec a ‘told you so’ look. He rolled his eyes at me. “Well, at one point. One of the rogues changed back into his human form and said, ‘that’s who we want, get her’ or something similar. Basically, they were after me.” “WHAT?” Dad’s voice echoed across the office. “As soon as I heard this, I told Alec to keep some alive. We have some of the rogues in the cells and will interrogate when they wake up.” “What is being done about my daughter’s safety?” Dad asked. “She will have a guard with her at all times. I have upped warrior posts around the pack and increased border patrol. I think once they wake up we will find they have orders from Midnight River Pack.” “You think so?” Dad asked Alpha Marc. “Alec, Kristen... why don’t you let me and Brian handle it from here.” Alpha Marc took dad off the speaker phone and turned his back to us. I hated being dismissed like that. Standing up, I walked out of the office and stomped my way back to room. “Why are you mad?” Alec asked when he got there and shut the door.

“I hate being dismissed like that.” Laying down on the couch, I leaned back and sighed.
