Chapter 171

“We could just do a small ceremony in dad’s office so you can mind-link people.” Alec offered as he knocked on the door. “Though, I’m not sure I need Calvin to have that much access to me.” I laughed as Jasper opened the door. He only had shorts on. “Did we interrupt?” “No.” Jasper shrugged as he let us in. Emmy was sitting on the couch, typing away on her computer. “We are just working from our room today.” “Why so?” Emmy glared at me as I walked over to her. “Still pissy?” “I was never pissy.” “Well good because we were going to invite you guys to take a ride with us to get BBQ.” Leaning down, I noticed she was working on blueprints for a new pool. “You can’t put the slides there. They need to be here.” I said instantly. “What, why?” You can’t have the slide drains overlapping your pool drains.” Emmy frowned. Slamming her computer down, she stood up. “I could use some fresh air and food. However, if you want to look at my blueprint for one second and find an error than you will be coming the pool with me this afternoon and helping me fix it.” I stood and looked at her. She has been incredibly moody lately. Her face was a little puffy and there was a glow to her. “Are you pregnant?” I looked at both guys and their jaws had dropped. Emmy’s face went pale as her mind started racing. “Pregnant? You think I am pregnant?”

“Your mood swings... just, when was the last time you had your period?” Emmy opened her mouth but closed it again. “Emmy?” Jasper asked. He was clearly confused and shocked. “You guys have been together long enough that if you got pregnant on the first time you fucked, you could be. Wolf pregnancies are quick and ranking members even quicker.” I shrugged. Emmy ran to the bathroom and shut the door. I could hear a few drawers open and close before I heard “Yeah. I mean, it would be extremely early but it’s possible. You guys have been mated a whole week longer than us.” I shrugged. Jasper started pacing as I walked over and stood by Alec. The clock slowly ticked each second as it went around a few times. Jasper was ready to lose his shit when Emmy opened the bathroom door. She was visibly shaking as she looked at Jasper. Her hand covered her mouth as she shook her head yes. “You’re pregnant?” Jasper clarified as he walked up to her. “I am...” He had to take the test from her since she was shaking so bad. “Oh, Em.” Jasper wrapped her in a hug as he was processing his own emotions. “I’m going to be a dad?” Slipping my arm through Alec, we watched them process the news. Emmy had tears running down her face faster than Jasper could wipe them away. “Let’s give them some space.” I whispered to Alec. He nodded and we left their room and went up to ours. “I guess you could be pregnant too.” Alec said after a second. “Well, that would be too early to know but I guess I could be. Timing is not ideal, we should probably be more careful.” I said as I pulled down my pants and grabbed a tank top. “I don’t know. A little kid running around seems fun to me. Then they would be the same age as Jasper and Emmy’s kid, best friends even.” “You want a kid now?” I asked. “What happened to traveling?” I asked. “The kid can come with. I want a whole gang of kids.” Alec came up behind me and wrapped his arms around me. “You would be so fucking sexy with a belly with my child in it.”

“Back up there, there’s not baby there yet!” I pushed him away so I could pull my pants up. “There will be if you keep wearing those pants.” Alec made a whole show of looking at me up and down. I was tucking my tank into them.

“I thought you liked my birthday suit the best?” I laughed as he stuck his tongue out and came at me again. Dodging him, I grabbed my boots. “Oh, I do but I like the whole process. You know, see the goods then you have to go find them.” Alec grabbed his own shirt and put it on. “Well, I doubt Emmy and Jasper are going to want to go swimming but we can go back to that little pond in the woods after we eat.” I said as I slowly walked up to him. Rubbing my hands down the sides of my breast and past my thighs, his eyes got dark. He was leaning against the couch so it was easy for me to slip between his legs and press my b*dy against his. Alec’s hands instantly went to my a ss. “Hmm, I like the sound of that.” Alec whispered. WRapping my arms around his neck, I pushed my breast into his as my hands went through his hair.

“Hmm, we could skip the BBQ, I’ll eat something else.” Alec whispered as our lips grazed each others. He started leaving small k*ssees down my neck and to my breast that were popping out. One hand of his cupped my tit and squeezed hard. “But Alpha... I whispered in his ear. I felt and watched goosebumps run down his b*dy and visibly shake when I called him alpha. “I wouldn’t want to spoil your supper.” I moaned each word as I returned the favor of leaving small nibbles down his neck. There was a knock on the door right as Alec growled and squeezed my a s s hard. “Hold that the gave him a quick peck before pushing off of him. “I’m going to kill them.” Alec stood up and adjusted himself before nodding for me to open the door. “Hey!” Jasper and Emmy stood at the door with smiles on their faces.

“Congratulations! I’m so happy for you!” Opening the door, they walked in. Emmy immediately gave me a hug and Jasper shook Alec’s hand. “Thanks. I still can’t believe it.” Emmy was smiling from ear to ear. “Can we still go with you guys to eat? I am starving.” “Of course.” I said, slightly disappointed I wasn’t going to be able to torment Alec “We can still ride. It is still safe so, we are ready if you are.” Emmy smiled at Jasper. “Yeah, can you guys go ahead and get our bikes out and ready. I need to ask Kris something real quick.” Alec asked Jasper. “Of course. We will be getting it ready. mmy Alec grabbed my neck and turned me around before k*ssing me hard. His other hand went to my pants and expertly unbuttoned them as he pushed me to the couch. I was still wet so when he was able to shove them down just enough, his finger slipped right in. “Oh, yes, Alpha!” I moaned in his mouth. Alec showed no mercy as he turned me around and shoved me over the couch. I could hear his own pants unbuttoning before they fell to his ankles. Without warning, he shoved his dick into me and started ramming all the Sual tension out of him. Grabbing a fist full of hair, he pulled it back, releasing my moans. “Fuck, your tight.” The pressure was building as he continued to ram it into me. “ALEC!” I screamed as my or ga sm hit and so did his. “And that... is how a baby is made.” Alec sounded very pleased with himself as he helped me stand back up.

“You want to be a dad that bad?”

Chapter 173

“Yeah, why not?” Alec smiled at me as I went to the bathroom to clean up. I wasn’t sure I was ready to be a mom but that was only because of the threats against me right now. “I’m ready.” I said as I came out. “Come here.” Alec was leaning against the couch again. This time, I stopped as I stepped between his legs and laid my head on his chest. “Tell me why you feel so unsure about being a mom.” “It’s just with the threat of this kidnapping thing and everything else, I am just worried something would happen to the baby if I am in an unsafe situation. I don’t plan to be but if I am pregnant, I can’t shift. What if a rogue knocks over our vehicle again and I have to fight a rogue in my human form?” “Well, firstly, you could be attacked by a rogue any day.” Alec tried to make it a little easier for me.” However, if it makes you feel better, we can be more safe until everything calms down.” “Thank you.” I said as I looked up at him. He gave me a small k*ss before slapping my ass.

“We better get going or they will come back up here for us.” Alec said as we stood up and headed towards the door. “However, I still could have gotten pregnant already. So, this conversation might be moot.” I looked around to make sure no one was in the stairs before I kept this conversation going. “Little Alec Jr.” Alec tasted it as it rolled off his tongue. “About that...” I laughed as I walked into the garage. “About time!” Jasper said. “Sorry. Alec had to take a s hit.” I couldn’t help but laugh at the look I could feel from him. “Guys literally poop for hours.” Emmy agreed with me as she put on her helmet. “Agreed.” I said as I blew him a k*ss and got on my bike. Alec just shook his head as he got his helmet on also.

Emmy and I took the lead as we pulled out. It felt amazing to be on the road again. The wind blowing against me as I melted into the natural curves of the road. Taking the back roads, we were able to watch the wildlife around us. It was honestly the most beautiful and peaceful thing on this planet. All too soon, we came up to my favorite BBQ place. Feeling rather clingy for some reason, I took Alec’s hand as we walked inside. He was slightly confused but welcomed it. Even when we had to let go to walk “Take for four?” The hostess asked. “Yes, please.” Emmy answered with a smile. “Perfect. Right this way.” She grabbed a few menus and showed us to a booth in the corner. “Is this okay?” “That is perfect. Thank you.” I said as I slipped in. Emmy and I were on the inside and Alec and Jasper were on the outside. Alec put his hand on my inner thigh, holding it. Slipping my arm around his, I held on to him. Our actions didn’t go unnoticed by Emmy. She knows I am not a physical touching person so for her to see this, it was a big deal. Instead of calling me out on it, she just smiled at me and took a menu. Which, I greatly appreciated. “Mr. Alec and Ms. Kris! I’m happy you are back!” Ira walked up to us. “Thank you! Are you our waitress today?” I asked with a smile. “Sure am.” I watched her eyes land on our arms. “What can I get you guys?” “Dr. Pepper for me.” I said. “Ice tea.” Alec said. “Tea with lemon please.” Emmy answered. “Mt. Dew.” Jasper smiled nicely at her, which earned him a poke.

“Perfect. Any appetizers?” Ira asked as if she didn’t notice the poke. “What did you give us last time?” Alec asked.

Chapter 174

“Oh, those poppers?” “Yes, can we please get some of those?” Alec asked. “And fried pickles!” Emmy said a little loud. Her face got red as she sat back. “Of course! I’ll get that in and be right back!” As she walked off, I saw Brittany in the distance. “Look who it is.” I said and nodded towards the kitchen area. Alec followed my eye. “I’m surprised she still works here.” Alec frowned. “Why?” Emmy leaned forward, ready for the gossip. “Last time we were here, she sat beside Alec and didn’t realize who I was. Started talking a bunch of s hit before I gracefully introduced myself.” I said as I put my other hand on top of the hand that was resting on Alec’s. “I’m sorry I missed that!” Emmy laughed. I would have loved to have seen that.” “It was great. Though, I was used to people questioning why I was around Alec in the first place.” “For the record, I was always on your side.” Jasper whispered.

“Who’s else side was there?” I asked, confused. “Angela’s.” “Ah, that’s right. I forgot about her.” I nodded. “Which reminds me, I am sad the bar is closed. I could really go for some dancing.” “Ahh, I can’t drink can I?” Emmy frowned as Ira came back with our drinks. “Here you all go. Appetizers will be out shortly. Do you know what you want to order?” She looked around. “What are you going to get?” Alec asked me. “My usual. The pu-” “Pulled pork no bun with fried okra?” Ira finished for me. “You’re good.” I nodded.

“I like to think so.” She smiled and laughed. “For you Mr. Alec?” “I’ll do the brisket with cheesy potatoes and beans.” “Okay, and you for you ma’am?” She looked at Emmy. “I’ll do the special today.” It was a half slab of ribs with fries. “Perfect and you sir?” “I’ll do the pork as well but with a bun and cheesy potatoes and beans.” “Awesome. I’ll get that right in for you.” Ira took our menus with her as she walked away. “I like her.” Emmy said. “I love her. She is amazing at her job.” “Are you guys still wanting to go swimming this afternoon?” Emmy asked us. “We can. I wasn’t sure what you guys wanted to do. If you wanted to stay in, that would be okay. I know you got some big news and if you wanted alone time, we understood.” I was giving them an out. Honestly, the pond sounded more fun than the pool. “We haven’t hung out in forever. I want to go swimming!” Emmy said with enthusiasm. “Then we will go swimming.” I said. Something about making a pregnant girl happy was satisfying. Alec was slightly annoyed but kept it hidden. “So, what are you guys plans all week. The only thing I know we have schedule is the school test thursday.” “Well, apparently, I need help with the design of the pool. We got approval for it to be done but I needed to finalize the plans.” Emmy frowned. “I’ll be happy to help you tomorrow.” I said as our appetizers came out. Emmy instant put a pickle in her mouth. Ira looked alarmed as Emmy had to spit it out because it was hot. She drank half of her tea before she could talk. “Oh no! Are you okay?” Ira looked at Emmy concerned.

"I'm good and those are hot but so good!" The relief was clear on Ira's face. "Oh good. Be careful. I brought some ranch for you to dip them in. That should help with the tempature of them." "Thank you, Ira!" Emmy said with a smile as she started blowing on the pickle. "Don't come between a pregnant woman and her food." I mumbled as I took a pickle and gently ate it. Jasper and Alec worked on the poppers. "These are really good." Jasper said with a mouthful. Today's Bonus Offer GET IT NOW

"You guys sure have quite the manners." I joked. "There is something we need to talk to you about." Jasper looked at Emmy. She looked panicked as she looked at him. "Here? Now?" She whispered. "It's okay." Jasper tried to consol her. She looked scared. "What is it?" I asked, looking between the two. "Emmy and I would like..." Jasper started. "Here is your food. Pulled pork no bun." She set my plate in front of me. "Ribs for the lady. Pork with bun for you sir and lastly brisket." Ira set our food in front of us. "Do you need anything else?" "I think we are good. Thank you!" I said to her. Ira walked away and I picked up my fork to start eating. Neither Alec or I asked what he wanted. Instead, they started eating. Alec glanced at me but didn't comment. We ate in silence. Every now and then, Emmy would lift her head up but shake it before putting it back down and taking another bite.

In reality, I found it hilarious she was struggling so bad at asking me what she wanted to. I had fini first. Waiting patiently for everyone else to finish, I looked out the window. I watched as two black pulled out. Nudging Alec on the leg, I got his attention. I felt him follow my gaze as we watched Darin his gang exit the vehicles. "Emmy, are you done eating?" I asked. "Just about." "Let me rephrase that, you are done eating. We need to leave." I said as I looked at her. Jasper looked alarm as Alec pulled out his wallet. Tossing a hundred on the table as Darin walked in. He looked around for a second before spotting us. My back was to him but I could feel his gaze on me.

"Well, isn't this a pleasant surprise?" His voice sent chills down my spine. My whole b*dy cringed at his very existence. "A surprised indeed." Alec said as he placed his hand over my legs. "We were just leaving actually." "Oh darn, I should have came sooner. Ms. Kris. I heard your shop is about finished being remodeled?" "It is. Still have a few things to do actually. I am actually very thankful it got vandalized. This remodel is His l*p twitched in annoyance but held it still. "That's great something good came out of something so bad. I would still like to book something with you." "Unfortunately, it will still be a week or so before I start to schedule stuff. I have a backlog I need to finish before I book anything new. I have multiple people book out before my store was destroyed that need booked first. I'm sure you can understand." "I see. Well, I will be waiting your call then." Darin said. "Yes, I believe Ira is trying to seat you. If you would excuse us, we need to head out." I said firmly. Darin looked back at Ira who was indeed waiting for him. "Very well. I'll see you on saturday then. Save a dance for me." He said before he allowed Alec and Jasper to slide out. Ira took them to a booth on the other side of the restaurant. We all made a quick escape but something in me told me we would run into rogues on the way home. As soon as we were outside, I pulled Alec to the side. "I'm afraid he will call in a rogue attack on us. Can we take an alternate route? It's one thing with the four of us but with Emmy..." Alec nodded as we went back to the bikes. "Jasper, Emmy, follow us. Keep an eye out for rogues." Alec said as we put our helmets on. Starting our bikes, we took off. Alec turned into a random street. It would completely take us out of our way but if it kept Emmy safe. "What's that?" Emmy yelled.

Chapter 176

"Nothing. Just keep going." I said as we all floored it. Even with the alternate route, we made it back in two hours. No rogue attack but our nerves were shot. "Why don't you girls get changed and meet us in the office." Jasper kissed Emmy's forehead. "Okay." Emmy said as she ran up the stairs. "You better send warriors to scout out the route to make sure it is safe for humans." I told Alec. "Already on it." He nodded as he went into his office. Heading towards the bedroom, I heard some crying. Slowly, turning the corner, I saw Emmy on the ground. "Emmy? What is wrong?" I asked as I knelt down. "I'm sorry, my hormones are all over the place. I usually am this badass girl and lately I don't even recognize myself." "Honey, you're pregnant. It's okay. These things happen." Grabbing her shoulders, I helped her stand and walked her to her room. She opened the door for us. Slowly, we walked to her bed so she could sit down. "I hate that I can't be the person you need me to be right now." "I don't need you to be anyone but you. You need to focus on your baby and it's not healthy for you to stress this much while being pregnant. Maybe you need to take a few days off?" "You would be okay with that?" She looked at me confused. "Why wouldn't I be?" "Jasper thought we needed to all be present and accounted for but we were hoping..." she trailed off. "Just spit it out." I smiled at her. "That I could cut down to part time? With the baby and my hormones... and now this stress." Emmy shook her head. "I need to get my emotions in check." "I agree with that but of course you can take some time off. We will still need Jasper but you can stay in bed. Hell, you can work from your bed for all that I care. I just want this baby to be healthy." "I love you." Emmy said as she dried her eyes. Wrapping her arms around me, she held me tightly. "I love you too. You're like a sister to me. I'd do anything for you." "Will you wear the pink but you wear the pink bathing suit?" Emmy joked. "You're funny." I laughed as I pulled away from her. Going to her closet, I grabbed her the skimpiest one she had. "Wear this. I am going to go change and I'll come back and get you." "Okay, I'll be here." Walking out of her room and up the stairs, I was able to make it to my room as Alec had walked through the door. "Hey." I said jumping up behind him. "Why are you just getting here?" He asked shutting the door behind me. "Emmy had a breakdown. She wanted to ask us if she could take her workload down some. Work part time." I said as I went to the closet and pulled out my black suit. "And you said?" Alec pulled off his shirt. "That it was okay but Jasper was still needed and if she wanted to work from her bed she could." Alec nodded as he pulled out his swim trunks. "I agree with that." "Any word on the rogues?" I asked as I started pulling off my clothes to get on my "Not yet. Still looking around. Frowning, "Do you think I overreacted?" "Not even a little." Alec grabbed two beach towels as I put on my cover. "Okay." Alec slapped my ass as I put on my flip flops.. "Ready?" I asked. "Yeah, let's go." Alec said as he opened the door for me. We walked down to Jasper's and Emmy's room. Knocking on the door, Emmy answered with a smile. "Hey, ready to go?"

"We are." "I had the carts pulled around." Alec said as they walked out. "Perfect." Jasper took Emmy's hand and we walked down the stairs and to the golf cart that was waiting out front. It had four seats in it so we got up front and Emmy and Jasper sat in the back. Alec drove into the woods and to the pond we visited once before.

"And that Emmy, is how your are suppose to drive." I teased as we got out. She stuck her tongue out at me, making me laugh as I tossed my towel down. Slipping off my cover and flip flops, I jumped right in. I heard a splash beside me. As my head broke the surface, two more splashes echoed. "This feels amazing." I said swimming over to Alec. He grabbed my hand and pulled me tightly against him. "It really does." Emmy said as she hung onto Jasper as well. "Ice, I've been meaning to ask, how is Colt and Penny doing?" My body tensed around Alec. He started rubbing my back as I turned to look at Emmy. I saw Jasper narrow his eyes but he didn't comment. "Really good. She has struggled a little with changing into the role, I know you can understand but she is doing great." "Yeah, it is really hard." Emmy was oblivious to my lie. Jasper, was not. Thankfully, he didn't call me out on it. I couldn't tell if it was because Alec mind-linked him or just because he knew better. Either way. I was grateful. "I can be for sure. I'm excited for prom. That dress I have is killer." Changing the subject, Alec kissed my cheek. He was basically holding me like you would a baby. He could touch and I could not so it was nice.

Jasper was doing the same for Emmy. "Me too. I want to dance. It's been forever since we were able to." "Hopefully things settle down-" Alec's phone started ringing. Leaving me alone, he swam to the edge and got out. "Hello?" He answered. He was quiet for a moment before answering. "Okay." "What happened?" I asked as he slipped in. He walked up to me and pulled my face to his. "You were right. There was about a dozen rogues they found. Two are still alive and being brought to our cells. You save a lot of people today. Including us." He kissed me hard as I melted into him.

"That's crazy." Emmy was in shock. "To think of what could have happened." "Don't. You can't do that." Jasper said as he pulled her around to him. They went off into their own part of the pond and we went into ours. Although we could see each other, we ignored one another. "Oh, Alec. I can't believe that happened." I said as I looked into his eyes. "I'm proud of you for listening to your gut." "Thank you. I just... I'm ready for this week to be over. However, I have a feeling things are just getting started." I whispered as I laid my head on his chest for comfort. "Just know that I will always keep you safe." Alec held me close for a few moments until he tilted my head up for a kiss. It was soft at first but deepened. Soft moans met our ears from the other side of the pond. Reaching down, I wrapped my hand around his dick. It was already hard as I started stroking it. Alec slipped two fingers in me as we kept kissing. I had to really focus on not moaning as Alec worked me. Pushing his pants down, his penis was free. Alec pulled me against him, forcing his penis in me as the moans from Emmy grew louder. was happening between Alec and I wasn't a fuck session but more of need. We needed each other right then. Another narrow escape of death. We had so many at this point that it almost felt normal. This was different. This was saying, we are still here. We are still alive and we love each other. It was slow as he took his time with me. We looked into each other eyes as he pulled out and pushed back in. All too soon, our b*dy's shuddered as our or gasp hit. Once again, he came deep in me. "At this rate, protection will be pointless if you don't start pulling out." I whispered in his ear. "Ah, I'm sorry. I can't help it. You feel so amazing." Alec was still deep in me. 3/2

"Is that why you are still in me." I laughed. "Exactly Complete accident. "Liar, liar." I said as I nibbled his ear. "I can't wait to see you shake your ass on the dance floor." "If I make it there." I teased. "What do you mean?" "After you see the dress, you might not allow me to go." "Hmm, that so?" Alec asked as he studied my face. "Yup. That is so." "I might just rip it off you before and we won't make it because you don't have a dress." "I won't be wearing anything under it. You can fuck me before, during and after prom." Licking his ear, his dick got hard in me. I felt my walls tight with his growth. Alec's phone rang again. "Hmm." Looking back, he debated if he wanted to answer it or not. "Just go." I sighed. "It might be important." hee Alec groaned as he pulled out of me and adjusted his pants. However, he was still hard when he exited the water. I watched his b*dy as he stood up from answering the phone. Water dripped down each curve of the muscles that framed him. The tattoo had turned out amazing. It looked like the wolf was staring right at me. Each time he flexed, it looked like the wolf moving. I was truly good at my art. "Time to go." Alec said in a very authoritative voice. "What's going on?" Jasper asked, his voice was still full of lust. "They found something in the cell phone." "I thought they linked it to a building in the city? Jasper asked as the they started swimming over to the edge. "They did but I guess there is more now. Come on, we need to go." Alec grabbed a towel and started drying off. Jasper and Emmy got out first and then I was able to slip out. Alec handed me my towel as he picked everything up. Tossing me my shoes, he carried my cover to the cart. His whole demeanor had "What aren't you telling us?"! asked in the mind-link. "They found pictures too." "Of?" "Us. The night we got shot at. We messed around in the store. There are pictures of us from then and there are even pictures of us from yesterday." We were in the cart as Alec drove clearly pissed off. My head snapped to him as he finished his sentence. "You-you mean I am being followed? I am being photographed in my own pack?" My jaw dropped. Alec didn't respond but his knuckles got white on the steering wheel. Pure anger rolled off him as we pulled up to the packhouse. Jasper was instantly aware and his mood shifted to fit Alec's. He didn't need to know the reason to become protective. "Emmy, why don't you go to our room and shower?" She looked between the men and then finally at me. "Ice?" "For the sake of not stressing you out, please?" "Something happened." She concluded. "I'll tell you later." I promised. She took a deep breath and put a hand on her stomach. "Okay." Grabbing her stuff, she went to their room and we went to Alpha Marc's office. "What the F UCK?" Alec roared as he busted the door open. "Look for yourself." Alpha Marc pointed to his computer. He was standing off to the side, not looking at them. I was thankful for that. Nothing like your father-in-law looking at you fucking his son.

Following Alec, I watched as he shifted between pictures. Sure enough, there was us in front of the mirror in my shop. Then as we saw my shop after being destroyed. Next was when I was walking just outside the packhouse. "Go back." I said. Alec did as I asked. It was a simple picture of me sitting at the pool with Emmy. It was clearly from a higher view point. "Go to the next one."

Chapter 179

It was a picture of Alec and I walking. "That was just outside the packhouse. Remember? We went for a random walk." Alec said. I remember it. It was only a few minutes but to get from fresh air. It was after we watched that movie. Colt had me sign the last will and testament. I had wanted to walk a little before bed. "The view point is from above. All of these are that way." I said to everyone. "And zoomed in?" Alpha Marc said. We don't have any buildings that tall that would fit that angle for some of these photos. Like that one with me at the pool. There is no buildings anywhere close in that angle that would create that shot." "What are you thinking?" Alec asked in a very restrained anger. "Like a drone or something. This could have been a screen shot."

"A drone can be powered from miles away." Alec almost yelled. Putting my hand on his shoulder, I tried to calm him a little. "Meaning, it doesn't have to be someone from our pack. It could be someone in a tree, just outside of our territory. "How did you get these?" Alec turned to look at his dad. "They got them from the phone. This phone didn't take them but someone sent them to this phone. It was password and cryptid but we got it opened." all "Did you get anything else?" I asked. "The phone is linked to that business. The number that sent the photos is also from the same business." Alpha Marc crossed his arms. "What can we do about a fucking flying drone?" Alec stood up so quick that it knocked me over. Thankfully the desk and Alpha Marc caught me before I fell down. Alec, however, took the chair and threw it out the closed window. "ALEC!" Alpha Marc yelled. "I got it." I told Alpha Marc. "Alec. Come on." Grabbing his hand, I pulled him out of the office and walked up to our bedroom. His body was shaking with anger as he started picking shit up and throwing it around the room. "HOW AM I SUPPOSE TO KEEP YOU SAFE WHEN THE FUCKING SKY IS THE ONE SPYING ON YOU?" Alec was seriously losing his shit. The couch got turned upside down, the arm chair was on the balcony and the dresser was laying on the floor. However, I just let him go at it until he threw something that hit one of the pictures I drew that he framed. "ENOUGH!" I yelled. Alec was leaning against the wall, breathing heavily. He didn't respond but he looked at him. His eyes were full of anger. "Do you feel better now our entire room is destroyed?" "No." His knuckles were white as he kept them balled up. "Let me think. We can come up with a plan that will be fitting." I didn't make any move to touch him. "FUUCKK!" Alec growled as the bedroom door opened and Jasper walked in. He looked around before looking at me for any injuries before turning his attention to Alec. "Missed a spot." He said as he sat down on the edge of the bed. "Fuck off, Jasper." Alec rolled his eyes and started pacing. "We wil-" I started. "WHAT'S THE F UCKING PLAN THEN?" Alec turned and yelled at me. He was seriously losing his s hit.

"Maybe you need to go for a run. Let your wolf out and go kill something." Jasper had stood up and moved over to me like he was going to protect me. "Come on. I'll run with you." Alec's anger was reaching a boiling point as Jasper grabbed his arm and pulling him towards the door. Alec ripped his arm out of Jasper's reach and took off running out the balcony. "NO!" I yelled as Alec jump off and shifted midair. Landing perfectly on his paws, he took off running. "You better get going, Jasper." I said quietly. A second later, our bedroom door slammed against the wall. Half jogging to Alpha Marc's office, I barged in without knocked. No one was there. I couldn't mind link anyone. Running straight to Emmy's room, I busted down the door to get in.

"What the hell?" Emmy bolted up from her bed. "Mind-link Alpha Marc. Tell him I need him. It's an emergency." Emmy closed her eyes and did exactly. what I asked without question. "He is in the kitchen." Without even explaining, I ran down to the kitchen and met him in the hall. "You need to issue an emergency cover order or whatever you have here. Alec hasn't calmed down yet and his wolf took off. Jasper went after him but people should not be out right now. Have the warriors ready." "F uck. He hasn't lost control like this in a long time." Alpha Marc went to his office. "We will need to track him down. Your wolf is going to need to find him if Jasper hasn't already." "I can't f ucking mind-link anyone and Alec's is blocked." "Alright. Denounce your ties. Right now." Alpha Marc looked at me and puffed his chest. I was so caught off guard that it took me a minute to do it.

A sharp pain of sadness shot through my heart but it was the right thing. 1, Kristen Jefferys, future luna of the Black Moon Pack, denounce my ties to the Blue Fang pack." It was like a knife was stabbed in my stomach, making me bend over in pain. My eyes filled with water but I kept repeating I was doing this for Alec. "I, Marc Andrews, Alpha of the Black Moon Pack, accept Kristen Jefferys as a member of my pack and as the future luna." Alpha Marc said quickly. "I, Kristen Jefferys, accept my position a member of the Black Moon Pack and as their future Luna." Instant pounding filled my head. So many voiced covered every inch that I could barely function. "Good, Let's go." Alpha Marc grabbed my arm and pulled me along with him. The light was blinding as I tried to clear my head as much as possible. "Shift." He said as I heard his bones break. "Sierra." I called in my mind through all the voices that were trying to mind-link me. She came forward and pushed me back as she shifted. I only caught bits and pieces of everything as I tried to focus on pushing all the voices back. I saw some warriors looking around at someone. Alpha Marc had slowed to a walking pace but next thing I saw was Alec's wolf. He wasn't backing down. "Alec." I mind-linked him. "Why are you in pain?" Alec asked in extreme restrain anger. "I denounced my ties and joined the pack. My head is overflowed with voices right now. You need to calm down." I caught a glimpse of Sierra walking in front of Alpha Marc and going up to Alec's wolf. He was angry but he knew she was his mate and therefore the only person that could get close to him right now, "You what?" His wolf looked into Sierra's eyes. I couldn't read his expression very well. "How are you still awake?" "You needed me." I said as I continued to fight the pain. "You didn't need to do that." "Alec. You jumped out the window. I couldn't reach anyone. I couldn't mind-link anyone. You were blocking me until right now. I had to go find Emmy to link your dad because he wasn't in his office." "You did this because of me?" "Please calm down and tell everyone to go away." I couldn't take it and I just wanted to shift back and pass out. Black spots were dancing in my vision, Alec's wolf howled loudly as his demeanor changed. After a few seconds, I caught a glimpse of Alec in his human form. "I'm good. You can leave now." He walked up to Sierra. She had laid down and started whimpering. "Is she okay?"

"Is she okay?" I heard Jasper ask. "She denounced her ties and is now officially a pack member. She needs to pass out but refuses to let go until I was calmed down. Everyone needs to leave so she can shift back." "You heard the man, Luna needs some privacy." All I could hear was footsteps as they left. Alec was still full of anger but he had finally refocused himself.
