Chapter 241

“Ready?” He asked, giving me one last chance to stay.

“I am.” Reaching over, I took his arm and brought my legs up to my chest. His hand grabbed my right thigh as I laid my head down on his shoulder. Holding onto his arm, Alec started driving us home.

“What do you want to order for supper?”

“Something sp icy.”

“Chinese?” Alec asked after a second.

“That sounds good.” The trees flew by as we drove back to our pack. The radio was off and it just seemed peaceful.

Alec slowed the car down as we made our way to the boarder. There wasn’t a guard in sight. The gate was laying on the ground, smashed. Everything in me was screaming.

Something bad had happened. Alec’s whole demeanor changed as he floored it. I could feel sierra pacing behind my eyes as we drove up to the heinous scene in front of us. Three men with guns guided us to park and get out.

All the warriors were on the knees with their hands behind their heads. Rope kept them tied together.

Luna Erin was positioned the same but Alpha Marc's face was bloody. He was kneeling before Alpha Rip.

Darin was smiling at me as I stepped out.

"Where have you been? You been missing all the fun!" Darin walked over and grabbed my arm. Yanking me forward, I heard a gun click. I was able to see just enough as someone put a glock against Alec's temple.

"Try anything and she dies." A warrior from Alpha Rip's pack said in a very cocky tone.

"What are you doing here?" I asked, firmly.

"We can't invade but it seems you have abandoned ship." Alpha Rip looked around, annoyed.

"It's me that you want." I said, avoiding Alec's eyes. His hands were being tied and he was being forced to kneel beside his warriors.

"It really is." Darin grabbed my face and forced his lips against mine. I still had control of my body so I did what I have been wanting to do. Bringing my knee up, I smashed his balls. "FUCK" He screamed as he doubled over. A warrior came over and slapped me across the face, busting my lip open.

Within the same second, a gunshot rang out and blood splattered across my face. As a b*dy fell against me, I realized the warrior that hit me was now dead, as I wore his blood.

“How many times do I have to tell you f uckers that you do not lay a hand on her!” Alpha Rip looked incredibly pis sed off. “Get up. You are embarrassing yourself.” He kicked Darin in the leg.

“Just take me and leave them all alone.” I watched as something was sprayed in Alec’s face. As much as he tried not in inhale, he was forced to. The anger in his eyes were obvious but they weren’t black anymore. They had given him wolfsbane and took away his wolf. Looking around, they had done the same to all the warriors.

“My dear, it seems Alpha Marc doesn’t know how to attack but I sure do.” Alpha Rip pointed the gun at Henry and fired.

“NO!” I jumped in front of his gun. “Just take me. I am the one you want. Take me. What kind of Alpha shoots an unarmed man after you taken away their wolves? A coward one.” I spit. I still had my wolf and I knew she flashed before my eyes.

“You know what, you are right. I do enjoy the battle and this was just too easy.” Alpha Rip pointed the gun at Alpha Marc.

Chapter 242

The gun went off quickly before I could react. It hit him in the stomach, causing him to fall forward, gasping for air.

“Let’s load up! Take her with us!” Dark grabbed my arm as he pulled me along. I was able to give Alec one last look before I was shoved in the trunk and the door was slammed shut. The engine started up and we were peeling out within seconds.

It only took a few minutes but I felt the shift of power. I felt Alpha Marc die and Alec become alpha now.

Making me, the luna. My wolf instantly grew, ready to fight. However, with their warriors and mine not having their wolves, I had to wait till the right time.

Alec POV

“KRISTEN!” It me a second to the rope off since they took away my wolf. They were already out the gate by the time I was able to stand up and take a few steps.

“Alec.” I heard dad spit. I was f u c k i n g p i s s e d. She willingly allowed them to take her but it wasn’t like we had a choice. If she would have fought, we all would have died. She saved us.

“THE F U C K HAPPENED?” I roared as I turned and looked at my dad. Blood was starting to run down his cheek.

“MARC!” Mom was screaming as she held onto dad but he was only looking at me.

“I’m sorry, son.” He said before his eyes rolled back. The pain instantly stabbed my heart as he died but the power shifted immediately. I knew I wasn’t feeling the full effects but I knew I was now the Alpha.

“Move them and then we are leaving.” I ordered. My men were working on freeing themselves at this point. The few that got free picked up my dad and Henry and carried them to our morgue.

Twice now she had been kidnapped and I couldn't stop it. It all happened so quickly that I was at a loss. Alpha..." A warrior came up to me, without even thinking, I turned around and punched him square in the mouth.

"WHAT THE F UCK HAPPENED? WERE YOU ALL TAKING A F CKING NAP WHEN THEY BROKE DOWN

THE GATE? THERE ISN'T AN OUNCE OF BLOOD ON ANYONE!" I was seeing red as I walked over to my vehicle. "GET A F UCKING VEHICLE AND MOVE!" I yelled. Everyone instantly ran to the garage but I wasn't about to f ucking wait. I was done waiting. My father allowed this to f ucking happen with his s hit of information he was promised.

My foot never left the gas peddle as I peeled out. As I went over the hills, the tires never even touched the “Wolfsbane, Alpha.” The warrior next to him said.

Chapter 243

“He tied us up and brought Alpha Marc in front of him. He kept asking where everyone was in our pack and why it was empty. He kept asking where Luna Kristen was. Alpha Marc and everyone here didn’t tell him anything. However, Alpha Alec and Luna Kristen showed up. They immediately sprayed Alpha Alec with the spray and forced him down. Luna Kristen jumped in front of the gun and demanded to be taken to spare our lives. Even called Alpha Rip a coward for wanting to kill us when we were wolfless. Alpha Darin forced himself on Luna Kristen but she kneed him in the balls. A warrior slapped her and Alpha Rip instantly killed his warrior for hitting her. He also killed one of our warriors. In the end, he took Luna Kristen and shot Alpha Marc. Alpha Marc is dead.”

I didn’t realize the audience we gained. There were a few gasps and cries from people. “Alpha Rip has my sister.” Colt said dangerously calm. Penny ran back inside.

“Where the fuck is Jasper?” I asked, realizing he wasn’t here.

“Alpha Rip put Beta Jasper in another trunk. He has both Beta Jasper and Luna Kristen.” I couldn’t contain my anger. I was able to punch three guys out before two people grabbed me and pulled me off my men.

“HERE!” Penny came running out with a black bag. She came right up to me and stopped. I was still being held back but she didn’t seem to care. Grabbing a bottle out of the bag, she tipped it up to my lips and forced me to drink. The liquid touched my tongue and vanished.

Pain erupted down my spine as I fell to the ground. With one knee on the ground and one hand, I felt my wolf make his appearance. He was fucking pissed off and nothing was going to stand in his way. I knew my eyes were black.

“Warriors, prepare for battle.” Colt said. I looked up and his face was stoic but he lifted an eyebrow at me upon seeing my eyes. He went to turn and walk away but another car came barreling down the road.

I was standing up and ready for a fight when Emmy got out of the drivers seat. A young boy got out from the passenger seat. "Colt!" She ran forward. I could see how much her belly has grown.

"What is it, Emmy?" Colt had incredible restraint.

Emmy stopped and looked around at the scene in front of her. Her words got caught in her throat as she looked at me. Tears were in her eyes but all she probably knew is my dad was dead and I was now her alpha.

"Alpha Colt! I broke through the firewalls! I'm in!" The little kid must be Beckham.

"My men will be coming through, do not stop them." I said harshly before speeding on. Colt was running out of the packhouse with Jacob on his heels. Thankfully, my men had the decency to drive fast and pulled in right behind me.

"What's going on? Where is Kristen?" Colt asked.

I didn't answer him. Instead, I got out and walked over to one of my warriors that was getting out of his own car. Grabbing him by the throat, I drug his ass and tossed him down at Colt's feet.

"Tell him what fucking happened!" I yelled. His looked ashamed and scared as he bowed down. My other warriors came over and knelt down too as he started talking.

"We were relaxing on the porch. Alpha Alec and Luna Kristen spent the morning here so we didn't have anything to do..." I got even more pissed off over his excuse. Punching him in the temple, he fell over, knocked out.

"You're up but this time don't fucking make excuses." I said dangerously calm in the next warrior's face.

"Alpha Rip came full blast with his guns shooting. As soon as we realized what was going on, he was standing in front of us. He sprayed some spray in our face that took away our wolves." He said quickly.

Chapter 244

The first part of some chemicals they were mixing. Multiple beakers were filled with different color liquids. Some were using bunsen burner to heat some of these up.

"What is all this?" I asked, in slight horror and in fascination.

"Different recipes. This one is the wolfsbane spray we use to quickly suppress the wolf. We also have different poisons and our latest creation..." Alpha Rip put on a glove and picked up what looked like a black bath bomb. "This little bomb will release a deadly toxin into your drinking water. Just drop this in a water tank and the entire city will be dead as soon as their lips touch it."

"What's in it?" I asked.

"It's a family secret." Alpha Rip looked at me that made me know I needed to stop asking questions. Darin pulled me out of that room and down a hallway. "There are many things that we are looking into.

This one, I know Alec will be most fond of learning about.” Alpha Rip paused in front of a door before opening it for me to look into.

There was multiple men hunched over welding stations with welders masks on. I didn’t understand at first until I got closer and realized it was a little bee. “Make the connection now? This little guy will fly to its target and blow up. It releases a deadly sleeping powder that will knock the person out cold for hours or forever.”

I turned my head to look at Alpha Rip when I realized how many they had made. The entire wall was covered in a shelf. Thousands of these little bees, sat, waiting for their mission. They looked so realistic that if you put a regular bee beside it, you might miss the difference.

“This next room might intrigue you.” Darin laughed as he pulled me out of that room and to the next.

Alpha Rip opened the door and Darin pushed me inside.

There was what looked like a bird sitting on the table. A black screen was directly in front of me and nothing was playing. On the left wall was the entire layout to our pack. They did what I did and used the pictures to map out what it looks like. They had three tunnels circled. Each location named, like pool or packhouse. However, it was the bird that disturbed me. With shaky hands, I grabbed it gently and lifted it in the air. Immediately, something started moving on the black screen in front of me. The higher I raised the bird, the realization hit me. It was a drone but shaped and disguised as a bird.

Even if we were looking for a drone, no one would question a bird in the air. Turning it over, I saw the tiniest camera lens. Suddenly, it moved to my face. “I can control it with this.” Darin came around the table and showed me the remote. It was a standard X-box controller that he had reprogramed to the bird.

He demonstrated how he zoomed in and easily controlled it. “What is the range of this?” I asked,

Chapter 245

Judging by the look on their faces, I was not going to like this. The hallway was dark but the footsteps I heard coming down the hall were quicker than I wanted to hear. I expected to hear screaming or yelling but I didn't hear any of that.

Darin opened the door as Alpha Rip put his finger over his lips, signaling for me to be quiet. The room was pitch black except for one chair that sat in the middle of the room.

"Alpha Rip, you wanted to see me?"

"Yes, Thomas. Please come in. I believe you know our guest." There was a thud before the lights turned on. Jasper had been tossed on the ground but his face was pointed upward. "Actually, you may not know Ms. Kristen here. Let me introduce her, after all, she is your Luna now." Alpha Rip grabbed my hair and yanked me forward into the light.

Judd stood in front of me. To his credit, he kept his face passive the entire time. "I don't know these people." He said in a confused voice.

Alpha Rip nodded to the warriors who grabbed Judd and drug him to the chair. "I did hope this would go smoothly."

“What are you doing?” Judd yelled.

“Thomas...” Alpha Rip started.

“Dad... don’t forget his real name.” Darin said. He was standing behind me. I didn’t even realize he was there so when he spoke, I jumped a little. Darin looked down at me and laughed. His hands grabbed my hips and pulled me against him. “Don’t worry, baby. This will be over soon and I will comfort you.” He whispered quietly in my ear.

My l*p started quivering as he placed a soft k*ss to my neck but my fist balled up. Anger was winning. I felt his member stiffen behind me but thankfully his attention was refocused on the scene in front of him.

“That’s right. Judd...” Alpha Rip clapped his hands together as if to make a show of this. Once Judd was tied down, a warrior spayed the mist in front of his face, making his wolf vanish.

Judd’s face didn’t pale but he got pissed off. “What is going on here?”

Alpha Rip snapped his fingers and the lights flickered on. The one thing in this room other than us, was a baseball pitching machine and it was directly in front of Judd. Judd’s face fell as he realized what was going to happen and started struggling against the rope.

Alpha Rip walked up to the machine and turned it on. “This is how this is going to work I am going to ask

At one point, I looked over and it read, 105mph.

The warriors walked up and ripped his shirt off and his cut his pants off his legs, leaving him in only his boxers. "Were you put under as a spy from Alpha Marc?"

"Just kill me because you aren't getting s hit from me!" Judd spit. His eyes never left the machine as Alpha Rip bend over and picked up a ball. Placing it in the machine, the ball flew out and hit Judd in the stomach. Instantly, spit went flying as Judd doubled over in agonizing pain. By the time he sat up, his stomach had already formed a light blue spot where the ball hit. I could even see marks from the stitches on the ball.

"I actually already knew that answer so it wasn't a big deal. You see, Kristen... Judd was placed as a spy for your father-in-law. However, I had downloaded an app to his phone when he didn't realize that made all text messages come to my phone. I saw every exchange between them. You want to know how I have managed to stay ahead of Marc every turn, that's why. I knew you guys were going to hit the garage so I moved the entire business locations." Alpha Rip smiled at me.

Chapter 246

So Judd didn't betray us but Alpha Rip found a way to spy on the spy. "I thought you had help with Angela to kidnap me?"

"Ah, your brain is something special." Alpha Rip came over to me and put his hand on my head, like my father used to. "We did indeed. You see, Darin was actually Angela's mate."

Gasping, I took a step away from Darin in complete shock. "Why are you so shocked? Angela was a good lay but she loved Alec and I wanted you. It really worked out in our favor. She told us about the tunnel that was already in place. Since our tunnels weren't 100% finished and we hadn't fully collected all data, we went with her recommendation of using that one."

"We couldn't have our other tunnels found already. That would ruin our plans." Alpha Rip laughed and walked back to the machine.

“Did you and Angela reject each other?” I asked.

“No. We both didn’t want to risk our wolves. As long as she stays away from me then I don’t give a hit what she does. However, I heard she is in your cells so it’s not like she can go f uck whoever she wanted. It really has worked out for the best. I get to keep my wolf, I don’t have to feel the pain of her f ucking anyone and I still get to get you.” Darin was looking directly at me.

“Now that you have learned the truth, do you want to put a ball in as punishment for his lack of awareness?” Alpha Rip held up a ball for me.

“No.” I said and backed away against the wall.

“Very well.” Alpha Rip put the ball in himself. I watched in horror as it hit Judd in the center of his chest. His face turned purple as he screamed out in agony.

“Any other questions you have?” Alpha Rip asked, pulling my attention away from Judd.

“The rogues. Why did you send them to kidnap me?”

“My s tupid son has much to learn about getting s hit done.” Alpha Rip shook his head at Darin.

“Why me? It can’t be just because you like how I look.” I kept looking between the two men. At this question, they both turned and looked at me and smiled.

“We have a certain situation that needs address and you would be the perfect person to help me with it.”

Alpha Rip tossed a ball to one of his warriors. “Finish up here and clean up. I don’t want to see any stains.”

Darin grabbed my arm and pulled me out, no one picked up Jasper but left him on the floor. Alpha Rip shut the door, completely drowning out Judd's screams of pain. We walked around a couple hallways and turned a few corners when we walked into a room with a massive screen. It was the entire length of the wall, floor to ceiling. There was pictures of different buildings, different people and even blueprints of other inventions. Pretty much everyone I loved or knew had their picture on the wall with some writing that I couldn't read.

"This room is called M.A.R.C room or Midnight Aerial Rotoscaping Camera. Ironical... I know. This high tech camera allows me to get high resolution video of whatever I desire. In this case, my target has been someone that is a little closer to my heart."

A picture of Penny filled the entire screen. "What?"

"You see, I have learned a few things over the years. I don't have a mate currently. Not because she died or anything but because she never marked me. I marked her so the bond would be formed enough that I could survive but she never marked me so I still have my free will. She is safe, don't worry but that isn't what's important right now. What's important is what happened in the first year of us finding each other."

"Stupid bitch." Darin grumbled and took a seat. He looked like a toddler throwing a temper tantrum.

Chapter 247

"Anyway.." Alpha Rip took a deep breath and ignored his son. "Do you know the name Alpha Ivan?"

"Isn't that your dad?" I asked trying to remember.

"Close but no. That is the most common misconception that people believe. Alpha Ivan is actually my mate's father. Cassie was the only child born to Alpha Ivan. When he met his... untimely death, Cassie took over the Alpha role. However, since I was her mate, she eventually agreed to pass over the title of Alpha to me."

I had a sick feeling in my stomach about what he meant about agreed. Knowing him, he abused her probably emotionally, physically and mentally. "Oh no." I whispered.

"You got it!" Alpha Rip snapped his fingers. "However, Cassie had a boyfriend that she was in love with or something hit like that. When I met her, she was already five weeks pregnant. Scared for her unborn child, she tried to pass the child off as mine. However, when the baby was born and to my surprise, the baby looked identical to her real father."

Alpha clicked another button and a man shared the screen with Penny. She looked like a female version of him. It was scary how close they resembled each other. However, I was right when I saw that photo of Judd and him at the bar.

“Do you know anything about werewolf law, Kristen?” Alpha Rip’s voice changed. He was no longer telling a fun story.

“The first born of alpha blood is the sole heir to the title.” I said in a flat voice. That makes Penny the heir to Midnight River Pack.

“Exactly. I ordered for that baby to be killed. It is my greatest regret that I did not do it myself when I saw the little f ucker but that is another story. However, Cassie managed to get word out to her boyfriend and together they got the baby out. It took me years to find the kid and be able to track her down.”

“I’m confused. Why did you build tunnels to Alpha Marc’s pack if you were after Penny?”

“Well, that is the million dollar question.” Alpha Rip stood up and started pacing around. “You see, Penny’s dad is working with the very same man that is being tenderized by a baseball machine. They have been working together and for Alpha Marc for decades. Slimy little f ucker. When my s tupid son wanted to use rogues, he asked Judd to hire some to make an impact. Judd, still playing both sides, had Zac that is his name by the way Zac organized an attack to kidnap you. We were going to trade for Penny but Alpha Rup looked at Dann in complete anger. "THAT IS WHY WE DON'T F UCKING USE ROGUES!

"Let me get this straight. The turmets were built as a future plan to take down Alpha Marc when the time because you have been trying to get your hands on Zac for f ucking years. So, you decided to kidnap me to issue a trade for Penny to kill her so Darin would take over as Alpha? Thus drawing out Zac for you to kill and since she is now mated to Colt, you would get all three packs."

"It's it wonderful with years of planning come together nicely."

"Plans change." Darin stood up. "After seeing you, I wanted you for a mate. If I kill Alec, I will now be named Alpha of that pack without having to fully attack now, or we could still do that."

"Long story short, kill Penny, Alec and Colt and gain all this area for yourself." I clarified.

"Correct." Alpha Rip smiled. "However, we do need your help with the programing of this." Hitting a button, an aerial shot of Blue Fang back came into view with a target covering it all. The worst part, it was all live footage.

Chapter 248

Warning! Possible triggering events ahead!

"What?" I said breathlessly.

"Well, you guys moved everyone to one pack so it will just be easiest to level the entire pack. I have acquired a very large explosive. Unfortunately, we have not been break through their firewalls. In order to detonate it, I need this the nine digit password. That is where you come into play."

"What makes you think I am going to help you?" I stared in horror as I watched people come and go around the entire pack. They looked like little white dots but they were people.

"I figured you would need some incentive." Alpha Rip snapped his fingers and the screen changed. The video being shown was an image of Judd. His face was completely flattened by the baseballs. He was missing his teeth and there was massive gas hes acrossed his b*dy. If I didn't see what was happening, I would have no idea who that even was.

The warriors untied him and allowed his b*dy to fall on the floor. Dragging in off to the side, two more warriors came into view with someone who was struggling against them. After punching him a few times to get him to settle down, they got him seated and tied down. It wasn't until they walked away did I realize it was Jasper.

"No..." I whispered as I took a step back.

"You can stop this." Darin took a step forward.

"How?" My heart sank as I watched a ball hit him in the shoulder..

"Chose me. Bare my pup, not Alec's. I have come to agree that we will not mark each other so it doesn't matter if you reject him. Plus, I rather your wolf not die so have my pup."

My mouth dropped open. I either allowed him to have S** with me and save Jasper or sat here and watched Jasper be completely flattened and he would probably still force me to have S** with him. Quickly, I started formulating a plan. There was no f ucking way I was going to allow either to happen but I was scared s hitless and pis sed off.

“JUST STOP HURTING HIM!” I yelled as I watched a ball hit Jasper in the eye. Blood splattered everywhere.

“Good choice!” Alpha Rip pushed a button. “Stop.” He said into the microphone and clear relief spread across Jasper as he hunched over. His breathing was relaxing.

“Glad you feel that way. Dad has some stuff to attend to so I think we should make sure you will stay true

“What about Jasper?” I asked as I struggled to stay on my feet.

“I guess not having your wolf is making you clumsy.” Darin laughed. It was then I realized he was under the impression I was sprayed when I wasn’t. I felt a little better about the situation I was put in but how I was going to get out of this mess, I had no idea.

“Where are you taking me?” I kept faking on falling so I could get a look at what was around.

“I anticipated your choice and have set up a little spot for us. That way, you can show me how honest you are being with me. If you do not satisfy me, I will inform my father and he will continue on with Jasper.”

I kept telling myself I needed to stay strong. I needed him to be at his most vulnerable in order for me to overpower him. He needed to think I agreed to his plan. Alec’s face flashed in my mind, telling me all I needed to do was stay alive. This was not the end of my story.

“Here we are!” I was so lost in my thoughts that when Darin slammed me against the wall, my breath was knocked from me. His l*ps covered mine as his had ripped my romper. Exposing my bra, his hand painfully gripped me. I could feel his di ck pressed firmly against me

Chapter 249

"S-shouldn't w-we go inside?" I asking in a shaky voice as he moved down my neck. It took everything in me to not protest against his touching.

"You are right. I want you laying under me." Darin unlocked the door and pushed me inside. All I saw was a mattress and chains on the wall before he tossed me down.

Before I could even react, Darin fl*pped me over and was on top of me. My Romper was completely ripped off, instantly causing me to panic. My heart started racing as Darin's filthy hands ran down my b*dy. A little whimper escaped my l*ps before I felt a fierceness build up in me.

"NO!" I yelled, causing him to stop. He had just forced my legs apart with his head inches from me.

"What?" His face smiled as he came up to me. "Are you rejecting this?" His hand slapped me so fast across the mouth that I was stunned. Blood filled my mouth as I turned back around to look at him.

"I didn't say that! I- I prefer to be on top." The lie quickly came to me.

"Okay." Darin stood up and pulled his s hit and pants off before taking his underwear off. His d ick bounced as it was finally free. I couldn't help but compare. Alec was thicker and much bigger than his little penis.

"Alright, let's see what that mouth can do." Darin laid down as I moved over to the side.

My hands shook as I reached up and grabbed the chains. "I want to use these."

Darin's hand painfully gripped my wrist. He squeezed hard enough until there was a snap. "Don't fucking think about it."

Cradling my hand against me, I kept trying to think of a plan. My wolf was ready for a fight. I knew my heeling would help with the pain but I didn't know what to do.

"Suck it." Darin grabbed the back of my head and shoved it down until his dick was pressed against my cheek. Darin's claws sank into my hip and left long and deep scratches down my thigh to my knee. "Get your ass over here."

Not wanting him to penetrate me, my hand quickly wrapped around his dick and I shoved his dick in my mouth. His head snapped back as his pressure lightened up on my head. He moved me up and down as tears filled my ears. When he pushed himself deep in my throat, my fangs descended and I bit down hard.

Blood filled my mouth and I felt his body twist to get me off of him but I held on. His fist hit me in the ribs a few times before he grabbed my head and pulled me off his di ck. Making sure my fangs were deep in his d ick, they left huge ga shes the entire length.

“What about Jasper?” I asked as I struggled to stay on my feet.

“I guess not having your wolf is making you clumsy.” Darin laughed. It was then I realized he was under the impression I was sprayed when I wasn’t. I felt a little better about the situation I was put in but how I was going to get out of this mess, I had no idea.

Chapter 250

“She’s gone!”

“Darin is dead!”

“FIND HER! I WANT HER ALIVE!” Alpha Rip’s voice boomed across the walls as the door handle started shaking. “CHECK EVERYROOM. SHE CAN’T BE FAR!” I heard shouting as everyone scattered out.

As the footsteps went off into the distance, I was able to look around at the room I was in. There wasn’t any way I could stay here. I needed to keep going. As much as I wanted to get out, I couldn’t leave without Jasper. If they haven’t figured out the code yet, they might not be able to. However, the only way for me to completely take it off line was to use the code. The code I didn’t even know.

This room was completely empty. Three offices chairs and one folding table but nothing worth anything. Not even a fire extinguisher to use as a weapon.

Pressing my ear to the door, there wasn’t any sounds or footsteps. Slowly, unlocking the door, I peaked out. There wasn’t any nerves, only anger. My wolf wanted to take over. Quietly slipping out, I started tiptoeing down the hall. I was very much aware that I was only in my bra and underwear with no shoes. As I came up to the corner, something red caught my attention. I wasn’t even sure what I was doing but I reached out and pulled the fire alarm.

Instantly, the alarm went off. Red lights started shrieking as it turned around and around. Men started shouted and running out of rooms in the distance. I kept trying to creep my way back the way Darin brought me but men kept coming and going. Every time I would see an opening, someone would turn around the corner. More than once, they ran by me. My heart was pounding but they were more focused on something else to pay attention to their surroundings.

"Where is she?" I heard Alpha Rip's voice boom down a hallway.

S hit! Grabbing a door, my hand shook as I tried to open it but it was locked. Moving to the next door, it was locked as well. "S hit!" I whispered out loud.

"That bitch is done fucking with my shit!" His footsteps sounded like they were right around the corner.

"Sir! There is movement on our northern perimeter." The footsteps stopped.

"What?" Alpha Rip asked, dangerously calm.

"There is movement on the northern side. The front line cameras picked up something."

"Do I have to fucking do everything around here?" He roared. "Find her or I will kill you." He said before I heard his footsteps fade away.

My wolf extended her claws, knowing a warrior was going to come around the corner. As if right now cue, he turned and had to double take as he saw me. However, I was quicker and sliced his throat. His scream was caught as blood sprayed me. Dropping to his knees, I just left him there. There wouldn't be any way to clean up the blood.

Jasper was just right down the hall in front of me now. Carefully, I turned the corner to see if anyone was there. Not sure if the Moon Goddess finally started to bless me, but the hallway was empty. As quickly as I could without making any sounds, I crept down the hallway as I stayed bent over.

Grabbing the door handle, it was thankfully unlocked. Immediately, going inside, I only had a second of relief before I realized there was a warrior standing there with a baseball in his hand.

Jasper looked at me before looking at the warrior. He could only see out of one eye and it looked like he took a few more balls to the chest but he was alive. The warrior dropped the ball and came after me.
