Chapter 311

Colt POV My blood was f ucking boiling. We just f ucking buried our dead, buried my father, opened Kristen's shop, f uck, the club is due to open friday! Kristen is pregnant! Emmy is pregnant and she almost lost Jasper. Penny is now pregnant with my f ucking child and now her life is in danger? My foot stayed on the gas the entire way to the packhouse. I didn't even think twice about leaving the pack today. This whole f ucking thing has me sick t o my stomach. How Alec managed to reign in his temper was confusing the hell out of me right now. Kristen is my sister and I was pis s ed but Penny is my mate and that is completely different. "We don't even know if this was true. Let's talk to Zac, get some clarity and make a plan. There is only two of them." Alec was trying to talk reasonable but I wasn't capable of listening. "Bring Zac to my office now!" I commanded the warrior that was standing guard over Cassie and Zac's room. "Yes, Alpha." He said back in our mind-link. The gates barely opened as I flew through them.. Rocks peppered the packhouse as slammed on my breaks. Sliding around the center floral display and packing on the other side. Alec managed to exit the vehicle before me and stay one step ahead as we made our way inside. I was vaguely aware of everyone scurrying away and the men standing up straight, ready for a fight.

"Colt." Alec stopped in front of my door and had the nerve to put his hand on my chest, stopping me. Neither one of us had our shirts on yet so you could clearly see how worked up I was. "Do not go in there "How the f uck did you keep it level when it was Kristen that was f ucking kidnapped?" I yelled. "By understanding the only way to get her back was to make the right move. If you go in there hot headed, you could f uck this whole thing. up. You don't want to know how I took my aggression out when we got her back." Alec lifted the corner of his lip just a tad. Scowling, I turned away form him. I did not want to talk about how he defiled my sister. "She wasn't pregnant then." I whispered." "Exactly. You have your unborn baby's life at stake. Make the right move." Alec whispered so low that I barely heard him. He didn't need me to answer as he opened my office door. "Colt? Um, Alpha Colt. Why was I tossed in here like I f ucked up something?" His voice did little to hide his irritation. "Cut the cr ap and just talk to me." I said as I walked in and stood behind my desk. Alec stood by the door. "What is this?" Zac looked around before looking at the windows. "They are bullet proof and you cannot jump through them. Don't think about it." I said. He looked like a caged animal that wanted out. "Tell me why I am here." He demanded. "Watch your tone." I said deadly before I sat down to show him that I meant no harm...currently. This seemed to confused him but he stayed standing. "Did something happen? Is Penny okay?" "Penny is fine. I want to know what you know about Vin and Gunther." "Vin and Gunther? Why?" that they were not part of the body count and Zec did a double tax eten melund Alec "Excuse me? What do you mean they weren't killed?" "Apparently, they slipped out of the building before we got there. They are still alive and out there somewhere "I was watching his Movements Zac sat down in an armchair and looked at the ground. "Who told you that?" "Tanya His neck snapped up when I said he name F ucking Tanya is alive? I thought I killed her

"What the f u c k is going on here?" I said leaning forward. "Gunther was the gam ma and ten time worst than Darin. He makes Darin look like a toddler. He has literally killed a girl by f u c k i n g her face to the point she couldn't breath and died. Vin isn't much better but he didn't have the power that Gunther had. Tanya is just as evil. Part of me thinks that she was Rip's daughter. However, only men were wanted to if she was his daughter, he didn't give a s h i t about her and tossed her to live with the rest of them." "This just keeps getting better and better." Alec muttered. "I believe Tanya was the one telling them what to do. They are st u p i d as f u c k but she is not. If you caught her, there is a reason. Where is Penny?" My eyes met Alec's instantly. He was out the door before I could even say anything. "Continue." I forced out from my mouth. "What did she say?" "She only said it was an eye for an eye." Zac stood up and started pacing. "I don't understand. If Tanya lived, why come after Penny?" "Was Tanya pregnant when you attacked her?"

"F u c k if I know." "Would the baby been Vin's or Gunther's?" "Meaning she lost the possible baby of Gunther's? Making him want to kill Penny's future kids?" Zac asked. "Why are we even talking about Penny? Kristen was the one that killed them." 1/3 "Tanya looked right at Penny and said she took something and they want it back." "Penny never took any pregnancy or anything from them." Zac looked at me like I was crazy. "No, but you might have." I said and didn't leave the resentment from my voice.

"I have done nothing but protect my daughter!" Zac roared as he pointed at me. I was still in my chair as I leaned back and looked at him. Alec came back in and nodded to me before just standing there. Good, the girls are safe and so is Tanya. "What did you do so bad that they want to kill Penny because of it?" I asked. "I did what I had to!" Zac yelled. "That's not good enough! Your sins are coming back and this time, they affect my family. You being her biological father does not trump her being my mate. You will sit down and tell us what you did in the. past so we can figure out why they want something from Penny." "I honestly don't know. I lived with the rogues and slept in trees. I used to break into buildings for street cred and even participated in a fight club. I have killed more men from fighting than I anything. None. of them were anything worth anything. They were all druggies or rapist. I never touched a female that didn't okay it. I killed anyone I saw that did it. F u c k, I even saved more girls the same way I left I Penny. Every few months, I would hear something about an imminent threat on Penny's life and I would put a stop to it. I f u c k i n g saved this pack more times that you even realize!" Zac glared at me. "At what point did Rip come after you?" I ignored his comment. He might have been right but he could have very easily came up to my dad and told him what was happening and didn't. 29 m ô, the who w a n g t u m i k and Penny Gunther has a mis "Why did pinu samosi at Tanga and khu đ o ù you Think she dim?? Chapter 313

"Anything else you want to tell me? Now is your chance." I said, unsure of how to handle this. "Let me go back in. I'll figure out what is going on." Zac ignored my question and slammed his hands on my desk. "I've spent my entire life protecting her, I'm not about to sit back and do nothing." "Watch your tone." I said as my eyes shifted back. "With all due respect, I'm leaving to figure this out. I rather us be on the same page and work together but I'll do what I need to." "What about Cassie?" I asked. "She will understand. This is our daughter."

"You are part of my pack now. There are rules you must follow or we will have bigger issues on our hands." I could see Alec nod behind Zac. He approved of him going under. "You can't just kill to kill. We need evidence and not just your word." "You're not going to fight me on this?" Zac looked taken aback but almost giddy with excitement. "Zac, I knew from day one you were going to be a pain in my ass one way or another. If you want to go under and figure this out, that is one thing I don't have to figure out on my own. If you die in the process, oh well. Don't get me wrong, I will send my entire army to save your stupid ass but at the end of the day, I'll be alive for Penny. If you pull this off, Penny might be one step closer to forgiving you. I haven't forgotten you got my beta killed that day. I don't forgive. So yeah, you want to go under, I'm not stopping you. Better your death than my men." "...and Zac?" I said after he turned to leave. "What?" He turned to look at me. "If I find out you lied to me or mislead me in anyway, I'll kill you myself. You will report to me daily." "Understood." Zac nodded before walking out the office. Alec shut the door behind him and took a seat in front of me.

"If he dies..." "One less headache for me." "Would Penny forgive you?" Alec asked. "What would you do in my position?" "I'd make the same call but Penny is not Kristen." Alec said. I just sighed at that. No, she wasn't. Penny was everything sweet and loving. Her heart was massive and she cared more about others than she did herself. Penny was someone that needed my protection. Part of me knew Kristen could handle what was being thrown at her. As much as I hated it and it tore me up, I knew she would survive. Penny, I'm not so sure. I wanted to protect Penny from everything bad in this world. She needed to raise our kids in my mother's house with a warm heart and the freedom that comes with peace. I had dreamed of the day of walking into our house with kids running around screaming. Penny with frizzy hair, standing over the stove, making dinner for our family. Penny has dreams of saving kids like her and I wanted her to be able to achieve that. She was an alpha too but I think she only thinks of herself as a Luna. However, she doesn't know how powerful she really is. She is truly unstoppable if she wanted to be. 23

"This is your rodeo but it might not be a bad idea to put someone else under to keep an eye on things." Alec said. His finger tips were against each other in front of him. When he did that, he looked like his dad. "I just might know someone." As soon as the words were out of his mouth, the image of Brad popped in my head. Picking up my phone, I hit the forbidden speed dial number nine. It was one I hoped to never have to use. The phone picked up and only breathing was on the other end. "Mansion blackbird.” I used our code word that was burned in my head. “I heard Brian died. My condolences. “I have a situation.” “You know what the cost is.” It was a statement, not a question.

“I’m prepared.” “This must be something juicy.” “You heard Rip and Darin died and my mate took over as Alpha?” “I hear many things.” “Rumor has it, Vin and Gunther survived and are after my mate.” “Interesting. Your dad never had this much drama.” Ignoring that comment, “Penny’s dad is Zac and he wants to go under and figure out what they are up to. I need you to find things out and keep an eye on him.” 12 “Hmm, I’ll get back with you.” Click! He hung up on me. “What’s the payment?” Alec asked.

“Favors.” Alec just raised an eyebrow at me. “There was a reason dad forced Kristen to train and why we never seemed to be attacked.” “Maybe it’s not a bad idea to work with Penny on a few moves.” Alec suggested. “Even with her being pregnant?” “Even basic self defense moves can save someone’s life. She just needs to hold them off until we get there.” “Your acting like she will be in that position.” That annoyed me. “I didn’t anticipate Kristen being kidnapped once and voluntarily get taken. Knowing what that would mean for herself.” Alec’s face darkened. “She wouldn’t have survived it had your dad not trained her or had such a powerful wolf.” “She had 18 years worth of training and still came out looking like a boxing bag.” “But she was alive.” Alec said and stood up. I had to give him that. “Let’s keep things running like normal. We don’t know how imminent this threat even is. I say we gather information and go from there. Be safe and what not but I can’t ask Kristen to close shop again just yet.” “I agree.” Alec slapped me on the shoulder as we walked out. “You know we are a team in this.” “I sure hope so, I only willingly doubled your territory.” I joked with him. “Me or your sister?” Alec snorted. 212 “Is there a difference?” We walked out of my office and out to the car. There wasn’t a single bone in my body that felt good about making that call but I’d do anything to protect Penny. “Kristen doesn’t know about him.” I didn’t need to elaborate for him to understand. “Understood.” Alec didn’t even look at me but kept his eyes out the window. If there was one thing I knew about Alec, it was his ability to keep his word. Everyone was sitting on the porch when we got back. Laughing like they relaxed and weren’t worried. Three of them were pregnant so it wasn’t the worst thing they were relaxed. I was happy to see Jacob.

and Jasper were sitting on either side at the bottom of the stairs. If there was an attack, they would be front and center. I suddenly became aware I still didn’t have a shirt on. Neither one of us said anything as we walked up. I gave Penny a kiss on the cheek. before sitting down in the step below her. Draping my arm over her legs, I just listened to their conversation. “Okay, so we will come out earlier to help.” Penny said. “Help with what?” Alec asked. He had walked up to the top and was leaning against the post. 30

“Decorating for prom.” Emmy said. “Sherry and Penny are going to come out earlier and help get it all ready. “The club is having their grand re-opening Friday.” Kristen look at me like she wasn’t sure anymore. “Yeah, it is.” Making a mental note to highly increase security. “I have an envelope for you with dates. The Halloween party is a go. I'd like to do it at the event center too if that is open." Penny said to Kristen. -"Perfect. I'm excited to dress up." Kristen rubbed her hands together and looked at Alec. "What are you going to go as, Colt?" Jacob asked me. "A bodyguard." I wasn't in the mood to be thinking about Halloween. "Oh boo!" Kristen gave me a thumbs down. "Get more creat

"Beauty and the Beast." Sherry said. "Oh! I like that!" Penny smiled. "You don't want my wolf walking around a party." Shaking my head looked at Kristen. "We have a long time to think about it." Alec said and stood up straight. "We need to head home. There is some stuff I need to do." I told the group and stood up. "Not staying for supper?" Kristen frowned at me. "I've had enough of you for one day. Last thing I want is to sit through as for Halloween." I tried to make a joke at Kristen. She just looked at me like I was stupid. "What a good brother." She smacked my arm. "I try." I said as I walked off to get the envelope for Penny. Truthfully, I didn't want to see anyone right now and I knew I needed to come clean to Penny about what just happened. As much as I wanted to keep her in the dark, I knew that wasn't an option.

Grabbing the envelope, I headed back to the group. They had all stood up and the girls were hugging each other goodbye. "Here, Ice." "Thank you." She said and took it out of my hands. Giving me a hug, but whispered so quietly in my ear that I knew no one else heard it. Congratulations, you will be such a great dad." I gave her an extra squeeze before letting her go. Our eyes met and I knew I didn't need to respond, that she knew my thanks. "Ready?" Penny asked, separating us. "Yeah." Kristen walked back to Alec. After a nod to Alec, Penny walked back to the car and got in.. The tension was thick but I was more focused on how Penny was going to react to this. Jacob didn't mutter a single word, nor did Sherry. The entire drive, was nothing but suffocating silence. However, I wanted to talk to Penny without being in the pack house. Jacob, Sherry... we are going home for the evening." Penny had reached for the door handle but stopped. "Oh? Oh, okay." Jacob said and motioned Sherry to get out. Penny didn't say a single word as they got out and shut the door. 2/2 but enough that we could sleep here okay. Getting out, we walked up to the steps and sat down. The warm breeze gently tossed Penny's hair as she patiently waited for me to speak. "I'm sorry..." I started. "I'm not going to like this, am I?" Penny nodded and looked away from me. "Probably not." I said truthfully. "You heard what Tanya said. Alec and I spoke to the only other person who knows the inner workings of Rip." It was silent for awhile before she spoke. "Zac." "Yeah. He thought he killed Tanya but confirmed who Gunther and Vin were. He is going to go back under and see what he can figure out as to why they are after you." I dropped that bomb and looked at the silhouette of my beautiful mate. She was looking up at the stars but closed her eyes when I finished speaking.

It was hard to figure out how she felt. There was some indifference, worried and even some happiness. It was a long time before she spoke again. "You trust him to do that?" "Not even a little. He did keep you safe your whole life so I'm hoping that will continue." "He is putting his life at risk." it was a statement, not a question. "Yes. Penny, it isn't a perfect solution but as he lives his whole life. under the radar, he is the best person to figure this out. I don't trust will tell me the truth. I don't trust he won't break the law but I do believe he will do what is required to save your life." "At what expense?" Penny said, smally. "My only concern is for your health and our baby's." "What about the consequences to you?" "Don't care. If you are alive, that is all I care about." I answered truthfully.

"...and if he dies?" "Well, I'm sorry you didn't get the chance to know your dad but he was responsible for Ace's death..." "This is all business form you." Again, it was a statement, not a question. "My mate and unborn baby's life was indirectly threatened, this is personal. Sending Zac in... that was business but I can't pretend I will lose any sleep if something happens. I'll still send everyone to save his s stupid as s but I'll still sleep just fine." "What about Cassie? If he dies, she will too. "Then they will finally get their happily ever after." I shrugged. "I would love for you to develop a relationship with her but I'll chose your life. over hers any day." "I don't like any of this." Penny said and looked at me. "I don't either. This way be nothing. It could just be two guys that are blowing smoke and need to be eliminated. They just had everything taken from them. The chances of this being much is very little." I tried to soothe her. "You realize Tanya got into the pack without being questioned." There was a fire in her eyes that surprised me. "Kristen checked. Tanya wasn't ever listed as a pack member. She got onto their territory without being noticed. The land is massive. Which is why we gave them half, plus they deserved it, someone got in undetected." "Da mn. I'm assuming she will tell Alec. I'll still follow up with him. We will need to make sure out boarders are secure as well." "How are you going to do that?" Penny asked. "We really need to get the new warriors trained but I'll run a night check tonight and see how things are developing. This will tell me where we are slacking and need to improve." I hated night time runs but there was no avoiding this. "Kara came by the office." Penny said with a frown. "Oh? Why?" I was confused and surprised by this. I don't think I have even spoken to her since Penny and I mated. "She wanted a job. I guess she planned on being Luna so she didn't. have a future planned." "I'm sorry you had to deal with that. Did you give her a job?" Flande "I did. I told her she can assist Mrs. Summers at the center. Until it opened, she can help in the kitchen." "That was nice of you." Putting my arm around her shoulders, I pulled her against me. The sparks are something I'll never get tired of feeling. "You are one amazing Luna." "I hope so." Penny and I sat there for a few minutes before she spoke. again. "When does Zac leave?" "I'm honestly not sure. He might have already left to tell you the truth. Are you wanting to see him before he leaves?" I asked, unsure of what she wanted. EVD

Penny POV "Not one f ucking word!" Colt stood up so fast from his desk that the whole things bounced up and scooted forward just a little. Jacob had just came into our office with the mail when Colt had his little out burst. "Who?" Jacob asked confused and glanced over me at. "Zac! He left before we even got back from the baby shower and I haven't heard one f ucking word from him. He was suppose to check in everyday." The anger flowing through Colt was unreal. However, there hasn't been a single incident or hint of a threat on me or this pack. Everything has been quiet. It feels almost normal still. We had this pack meeting in an hour and then we needed to head down to the club for the re-opening. Colt has even had Alec bring in some warriors for extra security surrounding this event. I wasn't even going to try to talk to him or call him down. The mood swings weren't bothering me but I think Colt got all the pregnancy symptoms instead. Other than wanting to sit down, I was feeling rather normal. No, I just am going to sit here in my own chair and focus on my own s hit. "You know how these things go. He might not be able to." Jacob was trying to play devil's advocate. The look Colt just gave him, told him to shut up. "Anyway, people have started heading towards the guy for the meeting. Sherry has ordered a computer and has finished the menu. She is changing and will be down shortly."

"How is she doing?" I asked. "It took her a long time to open up to me. It was like a slap in the face. "I'm proud of her for not allowing it to suck her down." "She has been trying to remember anything that might help." Jacob grabbed the back of a chair and leaned forward. "It's not a horrible idea to interview the women..." Colt stated. "Yes it is! You will do no such thing!" I said instantly.

"Why?" Colt looked over at me. Standing up, I crossed my arms over my chest as I walked up to the boys. "They have been traumatized. Let's just rip open the wounds that are still healing! No, we will wait till there is an actual threat before we force those poor women to go down that dark memory." Colt put his head down as he tried to calm himself. "Alright." He said after awhile. "We need to head down to the meeting. We are suppose to be celebrating." Looking at my watch, it said we wasted half an hour on this pointless conversation. "See you both down there." Jacob pushed off from the chair and left the office, leaving the door open. "Come on. Let's head down there. Maybe we can start early." Holding out my hand, Colt took it but yanked me towards him. Burying his head in my neck, he took a few deep breaths as his hands wrapped around me. He was trying to calm himself down. Wanting to distract him, my tongue grazed his ear as I let out a soft moan that I knew would awaken something in him. A deep growl ran up his chest as his fingers tightened against my skin. "You want to play that game?" Colt said as he moved his hand under my shirt. M "Alp...oh! I'm sorry!" A girls voice cried as she knocked on the open door. "I'm so sorry! The door was opened..." Stepping back from Colt, I looked over to see Kara standing there with a nervous expression on her face. There was also some sadness in there that didn't surprise me. "What is it?" Colt asked but kept his arms around me as I turned to face her. "I.. um...." She looked around before taking a step back. "N-nothing." Before we could say anything, she ran out of the room.

"That was weird." I said and took a step away from Colt. "That is for you to care about. I have other matters to worry about. than her." Colt sighed as I grabbed his phone. He put his hand on my lower back as we made out way out of our office down down to the conference center. It was already filling up as we made our way to the front. Sherry was already sitting there. There was a forced smile on her face and she looked rather pale. "Hello." She said lightly as I sat down next to her. "How are you doing?" I asked. I hadn't added to her list of stuff to do, I unsure of what she wanted. I had plans to include her in the Luna ceremony if she was up for it. "Doing okay." She said and shrugged.

"When you are feeling up to it, I have more stuff to get your help with No rush just whenever." "I'm actually good with more work. That will keep my mind busy." Sherry looked relieved. "Perfect, I'll email you what I am needing help with." Colt sat beside me and Jacob sat on the other. "Everyone is about here." Colt said and put his arm around my chair. "Oh good. We need time to change and get to the club. I want to make sure things got set up how I instructed." I said as I looked at my watch. Running late was not in my vocabulary. It caused me so much anxiety to not have things done correctly and ahead of schedule that I would go out of my way to make sure things went smoothly. "What are you wearing tonight?" Sherry asked me. 1/3 "I have a red pencil skirt and black silk blouse I am wearing." I was starting to look bloated. Not really pregnant but like I have gas. "I can't decide what I want to wear." Sherry said. "My other choice is black leather pants with heels if the skirt doesn't look good. You have those brown pants suit that fits you amazingly. Wear that!"

"That's a good idea!" A smile spread across her face. Colt stood up and whistled. "Thank you all for coming." His voice boomed across the room as silence fell. "We have many things we need to discuss so please pay attention." I was looking around and my eyes landed on Cassie. He was sitting on a walker that had a built in chair. Sitting by the door, she was barely visible but Ms. Lucy was standing beside her. "First thing, tonight is the Club's reopening. If you are of age, you are welcome to attend. I cannot stress enough that good behavior will be the only thing tolerated. The news will be there and any inappropriate behavior will be dealt with accordingly. Secondly, we are still tying up loose ends and as much as we are finding a new normal, I must encourage all women to remain cautious. Travel in packs and or with your mates. The risk is very minimal but I just want everyone to be safe. Especially when there will be alcohol involved." Colt paused and looked at everyone. He had everyone attention and not a single soul was talking. "Next, the housing development is making great improvements. They are getting ready for interior items. Luna Penny has assigned houses. per family. If you wish to have a say in how it is finished, please fill out the forms and submit it to the head of construction. His name is Spencer. You can find these forms by the pack house door with the your name and house number associated with your name. P 2/3 cony na un different styles you can choose from or mix and match. These need to be completed by next Friday or we will choose for you." Some people nodded and others whistled in approval or clapped. Either way, this was the simplest way I could figure out how to make everyone happy and not go overboard with styles.

"Next, you will see Cassie walking around. As most of you know, Cassie has been imprisoned for 19 years and is getting her strength back. She is also Luna Penny's birth mother. Zac is her biological father and was set to join the warriors but has been stationed else where for the time being. Please welcome them and come to us for any concerns." A few people turned and looked at Cassie. A little blush crept up on her cheeks but she smiled and waved. Ms. Lucy put a hand on her shoulder and smiled at her. My face stayed passive. Colt sat down and it was my turn. "The long waited review." I said and stood up. "The buildings going up. are a new program that I am implementing this year. First one, Mrs. Planters, please stand up." A woman in her mid 40s stood up and waved around. She reminded me of Ms. Frizzle. "Mrs. Summers is the director at this center. It is called Director of the Development and Rehabilitation center. They will have programs include orphanage/ daycare, basic development and skills, emotional center and transition program for those with extra needs." A around of applause sounded for her before she sat down again. "Mr. Kent is the Director of the Advanced learning center." A male next to her stood up. He was going grey but I saw some of the women start to giggle. "There programs are for advanced studies for all ages, testing center, on-line schooling options and college courses." Another round of applause but this was was more women. I guess the term silver fox would be appropriate. "Mrs. Planters- Director of Early childhood Development center, a 24/ 7 daycare for working parents from birth to 5 years of age." Another long blonde hair and pencil thin legs. "All these programs are focused on the development of kids from birth to college age. All kids are welcome. Any wolf that needs a roof or food will be able to get everything they need. Like myself, I was an orphan and needed the help. I am proud to say that the resources for those kids are now available. Each center is due to open at the beginning of the school year. However, each program needs volunteers or paid workers. Please see each director for those positions." I waited a moment for the applause and everyone to quiet down. "We also have prom on Saturday. Again, we shouldn't have to tell everyone to be on their best behavior. This was to make it up to everyone since we were on a lockdown. Next, we will have mine and Luna Kristen's Luna ceremonies soon. Most likely in September. There will be a Halloween party on Halloween night. We are inviting multiple packs in hopes mates are found and even chosen mates could meet. Please start thinking about costumes." Colt stood up as everyone started whispering excitedly. "The last bit of news, I would like everyone's attention!" Everyone instantly closed their mouths and looked up at us, eagerly. "I am happy to announce that Luna and Penny and I are expecting our first pup!" Everyone lost their minds. The voice was so loud that I had to cover my ears. Colt put his arm around my waist and pulled me against him but was smiling as he looked at his pack. There was nothing of pure proudness flowing through me. Everyone was standing up and clapping. Even the new members were smiling from ear to ear. This was some good news that the pack needed. Colt eventually raised his hand for everyone to settle down. "Everything is going good go far but please assist me in making sure 2/3

"Thank you all for coming!" Colt said when things quieted down." Have a good evening! As much as we would like to hang around, we need to go change and head out." People got up and started leaving. Colt took my hand and walked us out of the room. Thankfully he kept a firm grip because people kept trying to get my attention to say congratulations. As soon as we were in the our room, Colt pulled me into a huge before gently pushing his lips against mine. I wasn't a shove me against the wall and f uck hard kind of girl. I liked the gestures and romance. However, being spontaneous was a dark luring thought. Right now.... Right now I wanted it hot and heavy. Usually I Colt took his time undressing me but the impatience got the better of me and I dropped his pants first. "W-what?" Colt asked in confusion but I didn't answer him. Instead, I got on my knees and shoved his di ck into my mouth. Looking up at him, his eyes rolled back in his head as a deep growl vibrated up his chest. I was never that confident in my di ck sucking skills but watching Colt enjoy this was very satisfying to me. Only when his legs shook and his saltiness went down my throat, did I stop. "You have never done that before." Colt said as he grabbed my face and kissed me.

"I'm trying new things." I said as his tongue went down my neck. "Hmm." Colt walked over to the couch and pulled my shorts down. before sitting me on top of him. Pulling me towards him, he kept kissing me as I felt his finger slipped inside of me. This was a new 13 position too. Tumayo Colt never made me do anything outside the basic. My hands shook as I reached down and pulled off my shirt, revealing the white lacy bra under it. Pulling his finger out, he grabbed my hips and picked me up, hovering over his di ck. As shocked as I was, I looked into his eyes and gave him the approval. As his d ick entered me, I couldn't help but allowing my eyes to roll back and my head to sag from the pleasure. This was a new kind of pressure that really hit a spot. "F uck, your so tight." Colt growled as he unhooked my bra. His hands started showing me how to move my hips, forwards and backwards. His eyes never left mine as he watched my reaction. With my hands. on his shoulders, I used him as leverage to increase my speed. His claws dug into my hips and his eyes turned black. "Oh, Colt!" I moaned loudly as I felt the pressure increase. "F uck!" Colt groaned as he shot his load into me as my climax hit. I'm sorry." He said between heavy breathing. "Why?" Uncertainly ran through me. "It felt so good. I wasn't able to hold out. This is a new side to you." Colt's hands cupped my face but he didn't make a move to pull out of me. "I know. I'm not sure what got into me. I wanted to try something new." "Is the pregnancy increasing your desire?" Colt asked as his fingers ran through my hair. "I guess, maybe? I just know that trying some new things sound fun where I wasn't sure about them before." "That's nothing to be ashamed about. Whatever you are comfortable WILL, W mym just too me wal comfortable with." Colt said and there was a seductive smile on his face. That both excited me and scared me. "Oh? I don't mean I am going to write them down and have a check list." That seemed way to vulnerable! "How about I will randomly throw stuff in there. Keep it spontaneous. Let's set up a code word so if it is too much, I'll know to back off."
