Chapter 41

"Did you invite the Midnight Moon pack to the kids party?" Dad asked. "I did. It was the polite thing to do." "How stupid could you be? His son has threatened Kristen!" Colt blew up. "Don't forget who you are talking to!" An n shrieked. "AN N!" Dad's voice boomed. "This is serious. He threaten to challenge whoever is mated to Kris. This is a big fucking deal!" "Who knows, maybe he will be her mate. Plus, she wanted out of here so badly, go be with him. I hear he travels a lot. Besides, having a firm mate will be good for her"- The room was quiet. Everyone's jaws dropped. I'm not sure what happened. I was looking out the window one second and the next... I had walked up to An n, looked her in the face and slapped her as hard as I possibly could. Arms wrapped around me instantly and pulled me back. No one comforted An n. She was on the floor bleeding but Colt stood between us.

I wasn't fighting whoever was holding me but my fangs and claws were out, ready for a fight. "An n, go to the hospital and get checked out. I command you to not tell a soul what happened." Dad sighed as he didn't move from his seat. An n got up and left the room crying. Only after she was gone, did dad stand up and walked in front of me. He put his hands on either side of let go. I felt my face and looked at me. "Calm down. Breathe." Dad nodded as whoever was holding me him taking a few steps back before dad put his arm around me and sat me in An ns seat. Looking over, it was Ace that stopped me. His eyes were slits as he stared at the ceiling. "Nothing we can do now." Dad muttered "It will start a war and we need to play nice. See what his next move is. They are a wild card." Alpha Marc started.

"We are bigger than him!" Jasper cracked his knuckles. "We don't want a war. We need to play this correctly. So far, it was just talk. He violated the treaty by going into your shop. I'll call Alpha Rip and have a word with him" dad sighed. "What about Kristen's safety?" Colt started. "He isn't going to school. Keep doing what your doing. So far, other than threatening to challenge her mate, he hasn't threatened her." Dad started. Dad! No! She can't go to school!" Colt continued on.. "I can and I will." The room froze as they looked at me. "I'll accept your protection but I will not allow him to stop my life. I will not hide out in my room like a scared little girl. No, I am an Alpha female, daughter of Alpha Brian and I will not be scared so easily." My voice sounded much more sincere than my heart felt. "Kris, think about this." Ace pleaded. *I have. You guys have no idea what it's like for a girl. Everyday we are Sualized, treated like dirty because we aren't as strong. I am not the lay down and take it type of person. I will not allow him to think he can get away with being inappropriate to me. He will not have that affect on me. I will gladly die before I allow an any man to think he is above me!" Slamming my fist down, dad's desk cracked down the edge. I could tell they weren't happy but I didn't give them a choice. "If he threatens her safety, she stays put." Ace stood up like he had any say in any of this. "I don't think it's her safety we need to watch out for. It's the physical aspect that is in question." Alec spoke up. Ace puffed out his chest like it is a competition. Alec responded and stood up too. "Either is none of your concern. Last I checked, she was still a member of this pack." Ace stated. "For now." Alec was taller so Ace had to look up.

"Alright boys. That is enough." Marc stood up and separated them. "She will need an alpha male to defend her honor against Darin, not a beta." Alec said. Colt jumped in and pulled Ace back before he could punch him, "ACE!" Dad commanded. "Go cool off!" Ace slammed the door open as he stormed out. Jacob followed him but Colt stayed. "Low blow, dude." Colt said to Alec. "I'm not wrong. It will take Alpha blood to beat an alpha. I'm the best shot she has." "Assuming you're her mate." Dad said leaning back. "Correct, sir." "And you truly believe you are?" "I'll know for sure as the week goes on but currently, yes." Alec didn't even look at me. "This is your call, Brian. Regardless of mates, she is your daughter." Marc shrugged as he looked at him "I will assign a warrior to guard her. There will be too much testosterone if you boys do it. If one thing happens, your ass is stuck here till Friday." Dad said the last part looking at me. "Fine." It was better than nothing.

"You kids can go. Marc and I will call Rip." Dad excused us. "Kris?" Emmy said, quietly, "I'm good, girl." I said as I hugged her. "Let's get some fresh air. We walked arm in arm as the boys walked behind us. There was a porch swing that we sat on. The boys either leaned against the wall or against the railing. "It's a beautiful day" Emmy said. "How's things going for you?" I asked wanting the conversation off me. "It's been great. Different. Usually stuff but since I'll be beta female, I have a list of duties that I am learning. I never realized there was so much!" "You will be so good at that. You have a knack for that stuff" I said to her. "Thanks. Jasper's mom has been amazing but I really miss you." "Aw, I miss you too." "Do you think! can come get ready here on Friday?" "Yes please! I wasn't sure who was going to do my hair and makeup" I was so relieved. "I know. Jasper said it was okay. Him and Alec will meet me here. I'll go in early so I'll be sitting with them. when you and Colt enter." "Not looking forward to that." "Please tell me you are wearing the red dress?" Emmy got really excited. "I am. After today, you bet your ass I am." "Speaking of the devil" Alec muttered. He nodded towards the wall way. Annn was being brought back. Are you going to be in trouble?" Alec asked me. "No." Colt said sharply. "At least according to dad." I said as Annn got out. The bruise on her chin was growing. Even had a s in her lip. "Just wait you little bitch..." Annn sneered as she walked inside. me stay with 127 "Maybe you can Emmy asked looking at Jasper and Alec. "Obviously she is more than welcome but that's up to Colt and Alpha Brian what is best." Alec stated politically correct. "Maybe I can stay Thursday night?" Emmy looked at Jasper. He frowned. I assumed he didn't want to spend a night away from her. I had to hide my laughter. "It's okay. We will find a time that works. Maybe when things settle down." "Okay..." Emmy caved as she leaned back. "Remember when you made this dent?" Emmy rubbed a dent in the porch under the swing. "Ha, yeah!" "So stupid" Colt sighed and shook his head. "What happened?" Jasper asked. "Being the princess that she is, was wearing a dress. Annn made her wear it. It was so ugly that we brought out a sewing machine and fixed it. However, it was so long that she stepped on it and fell over. Buttered her chin.” “Truly was an awful dress.” The front door opened and Brian and Marc came out. “That didn’t go well.” Marc sighed. “We will all need to be on high alert moving forward.” Dad was trying to control his anger “A n n is back “Colt stated. “Yeah, she is pi ssed.” “Is Kris safe here from An n?” Colt asked. “Why do you ask that?” Dad looked confused. “Maybe it’s best if she stays with Emmy this week. Not to put a target of your back from Darin, but at least she won’t get retaliation from An n.”

Chapter 43

My h aw dropped. “Wh-” “That would keep her close to Alec if he is her mate.” Marc stated “Mate or not, I’ll die protecting what is right.” Alec vowed. “Please, Ice? Stay with me?” Everyone looked at me. “I won’t force you but I do believe that will be best.” Dad looked at me in the eye. “We would be happy to have you “Marc smiled at me. “Guess I’ll go pack.” I said slightly moody as I got up and walked inside. I expected Emmy to follow me but I didn’t think Colt would let her. We made it to my bedroom before he spoke. “I’m sorry I can’t protect you here.” “I know you are.” “Please use your manners.” “Obviously, Colt.” Pulling out my black duffel, I grabbed everything I needed for the week. “You can leave your dress. Dad has a whole day planned for you.” “And you?” “Yes but completely different type of day.” Colt smirked. He was leaning on the wall by the door.

“Do you think Alec is my mate?” I asked as I picked out my shoes. I kept it basic. “Looking that way” “And Ace?” “Ace needs to move on. What Alec said about the fight was right. Even if it was a low blow.” “I’ve been delt a s hitty hand since day one. I wouldn’t be surprised if Jacob was my mate!” “Ew, don’t say that” Colt scrunched up his face. “Man wh ore is going to catch something one day.” “True. I’m serious though, Darin is bad news. He killed his own mate.” “Here’s a thought, what if Alec isn’t my mate?” “Then at least you get a change of scenery for a week.”

Colt was trying to make it better. “Maybe even help Emmy with adapting. Alec said it’s not going as well as they h “What?” That surprised me. Stopping packing, I looked at him “Yeah, she has been forgetful. Alec thinks she is homesick.” “It’s only been...” “I know but change isn’t always easy.” Colt walked over to me. Putting his hands on my shoulders, he looked me in the eye. “I truly believe this will be good for bother you and Emmy. Please try and have at good week.” 1 “For you, I will.” I “Maybe something good will come from this.” Colt grabbed my bag and pulled me towards the door. “You were always the positive one.” “I’m usually right.” “Why aren’t you more concerned about your mate?” “I’m more worried about you. I’m nervous for sure but I know my “Dam n first born.” I tried to joke. nath in life.” “I did get the better looks and b*dy.” I had to roll my eyes at Colt. He shook his hips as we walked out the front door. Handing my bag to Alec, Colt gave me a big hug. “See you tomorrow at school, sis.” I hugged him back like my life depended on it. “I love you.” I said in the mind-link. “Can’t say it out loud?” Colt responded as I gave dad a hug. “I have an image to uphold. People can’t know I’m soft on the inside.” “Ready?” Alpha Marc asked. “Yes, sir.” Alec already headed to put my bag in the trunk. Giving one last look to my dad and brother, Emmy grabbed my hand and pulled me along. “love you TOO

"Your talking about Angela, aren't you?" Alec stated as his dad was working out what I meant. "Yes." I said bluntly as I looked at Alec in the mirror. "I do not wish to bring drama to your home." "This will be fun." Marc laughed. "In my pack, it's and eye for an eye. Interesting. "Oh." "Within reason but I will see Angela is busy this week." Marc turned back around. "It will be great having you here." Emmy said. After what Colt said, I really looked at her. Her eyes were slightly sunken, she had lost weight and her spark was gone. "I think we need to have a conversation, Emily.' She just noddod in response as her eyes fell. Jasper put his arms around her and held her close. "She is very overwhelmed." "That's okay. Let me help you figure things out. Let's stay home tomorrow and we can spend the day focusing on you." "If I'd know that's all it would take for you to agree to stay home, I would have said this an hour ago Jasper muttered "Seems you have a lot to learn about woman." I joked with him.

"S hit." Jasper tried puffing up his chest. "Did you bring your work? I can help you too?" Emmy asked "I finished it all." "All of it?" "Yes. Literally everything. Unless my assistants have a problem, it's all done." "You have assistants?" Alpha Marc asked. Looking over at Alec, he struggled. He kept some of what I told him to himself. "Yes, sir. I am the head organizer to all school functions. Well, that is until I graduate." "All? For the last four years, it has been you?" He turned and looked at me "Yes."

They have never said your name. Alpha Marc stated. "Correct. That was one of the terms for me doing it. I didn't want any recognition. I didn't do it for the notary." 1 "Why did you do it?" Jasper asked. "Keep me busy and away from An n "I shrugged. "That was a great slap." Jasper laughed. "Which reminds me, can I join the warriors training this week?" I asked Alpha Marc. "Kris, they don't allow ranking women to fight." Emmy said to me. "What?" My ha w dropped as I looked at Alec. job to protect them." Jasper groaned. "They are needed to help make the pack function. It's our job to I looked at Jasper. "She is the daughter of a top warrior. She has been training her whole life. You mean to tell me that you have taken away one of the most important things in her life and you sit there worried why she isn't adapting to your pack?" "Kris, it's fine." Emmy tried to play the peace maker. "It's not fine. Alpha Marc said an eye for an eye. If you can't make Emmy submit, she trains." I folded arms and looked at Jasper. "Little help, Alec?" "Kris has a point, make Emmy submit." I nodded in appreciation for the back up. It made me smile. "Fine, we will battle. "There was smile on Emmys face she was trying to hide. I sat back was looked out the window. We pulled up to the pack house and no one was around. It was strange but it didn't question it. The guys bag seemed to not be bothered by it. Jasper, Emmy and Marc all went inside as Alec grabbed my "Did I just piss off Jasper?" "Yes but dad and I both have been trying to get him to agree to let her fight. Or at least train. That isn't a pack rule but a rule Jasper made up so he could keep her safe after the car wreck we had." "Emmy doesn't need protection. I'm looking forward to see him figure that out. No wonder she is struggling." Alec opened the front door. "Dinning room down that hall. Since it's 6:30. I'll show you to your room and then we can walk around to see everything and go straight to supper." "Am I dressed appropriately?" "We don't have a dress code." Alec said as we started up the stairs. Chapter 45

The pack house massive but had an older feel to it. Built with natural stones, it looked natural and beautiful. I was drawn to it. The aged wooden floors had been restained recently. The smell still lingered in the air the further you went into the house. Warm tones of browns, creams and whites perfectly accented each other. Not a single cobweb hung in the corner of the rooms, telling me his staff was very disciplined. Most places, you could find a web or two. A massive chandelier hung over the foyer but it was of wooden beads that draped down. The whole place gave off a vibe that said we have money but don't flaunt it. "The top floor is reserved for the alphas family and certain guest. You will be staying up there. My room is here. You will be right across the hall. Dad and mom's room is down the hall a ways with a few more guest rooms." Alec opened the door to my room. It was decorated in creams and grays. Very neutral. Still very nice but basic. A guest room. Alec set my stuff on the bed as I looked around. It was smaller with a seating area but not exactly a livingroom. "Second floor is the beta and gam ma families and bottom floor is strictly guest. No one else lives in the pack house." "Why am I up here?" "So I can make sure you are safe." "Maybe we should fight too and see who makes who submit." I muttered as I walked past Alec. Alec grabbed my hand and pulled me against his chest. My mouth went dry as his hand wrapped around my waist. "When I make you submit, there won't be an audience." "I think you got that mixed up. It will be me on top "I left the double meaning swim in his head. His eyes darkened as I took a step away right as there was a knock on the door. I kept walking backwards as Alec reined himself in. "Hey." It was Jasper and Emmy.

"Figured we would join you guys" Emmy looked between Alec and I. "Diiiiid we interrupt?" "No, Alec was just learning something about me. Let's keep this tour going." Jasper was trying not to smile as Alec playfully punched his shoulder. Emmy looked her arm in mine as we walked. 2 "Hold up." Alec muttered. We stopped in front of an elegant door. "This is my personal private library. You may use it." Alec opened the door and my mouth dropped. It was beautiful. Floor to ceiling book shelves. Only there was one wall untouched. "I'm still collecting "A balcony sat directly across from it with two "This is amazing." I started looking through the shelves. Most I have read, some I hadn't had the chance and some I've never heard of.. “Let’s keep going or we won’t finish.” Emmy said, quietly. She was pulling me along as she knew I wouldn’t leave. “Pulling my eyes “Okay...” Pulling my eyes away, I followed them down the stairs. “Down this hall to the right under the stairs, there is a game room, workout room and office space.” Opening each door, I had a chance to look at it all. “The teenagers like to come here, hangout and eat before going home for the night. It’s a place to relax after training or just in general.” Jasper stated “Sounds fun.” “Can be or it can be a headache if we have to break up a fight.” Alec had his arms folded over his chest. “Locker rooms are through the training room.” Emmy filled in. “Better head to the kitchen.” Alec looked at his phone. The dinning room had large double doors. There was a few massive tables that filled the room. “Th a more intimate dinning area but this is where we will be tonight.” “Okay.” I said simply as Alec showed me to my seat.

“This is my mother, Luna Erin. Dad’s beta and Jaspers dad, Andrew and mom, Susan. Then gam ma Judd and his mate Donna. Not sure if you have met my gam ma Kevin and his sister Olivia.” Alec went down the line.

Chapter 46

“This is Kristen Jeffreys, Alpha Brian’s daughter. She will be staying with us this week” “Nice to meet you, Kristen.” Luna Erin spoke first. “She goes by Kris.” Alec told his mother. “Whatever you wish to call me is fine. It is nice to meet you. You have a beautiful house.” I “Kris is just fine! Thank you. I hear you are a busy gal with all the activities you put on.” Luna Erin kept the conversation going as the food got brought out. “Yes ma’am. I am in charge of all the events the school puts on. Until I graduate anyway.” “Why have I not seen your name on the list?” “It was part of the agreement that I remain anonymous from those. I do it to help the teachers out, help the kids that need the extra hand up on their college applications and because I enjoy being busy.” “All that and a tattoo shop?” Beta Susan asked.

“I hope I will be able to continue my business after school. It’s more than a hobby to me.” “Well, I think that’s lovely.” Luna Erin stopped the interrogation. “You will be 18 this Friday. I’m excited for your birthday party!” Gam ma Donna smiled warmly at me. “It will definitely be an event he bit into a green bean. to remember.” I said politely. Alec raised his eyebrows at that comment as The conversation tapered off and left me to be able to sit quietly and try to eat. The food tasted amazing. Some sort of Asian meatball over rice with roasted green beans. There was a hot sauce on it that intrigued me. However, I wasn’t that hungry. I tried to eat as much as I could to be polite but I was only able to eat half of it. The waitress came around and gathered our plates. I saw Alec frown at mine but thankfully he didn’t comment. “Dad, if you don’t mind, I think we will s kip the nightcap and let Emmy get Kris situated.”

“That’s okay.” I was so relieved by this. Kevin, Jasper, Emmy, Alec and myself all stood up. “Thank you so much for dinner and allowing me to stay here this week. If there is anything I can do to help. out, please let me know.” “The pleasure is ours, dear.” Luna Erin smiled at me before we turned to leave. “Kiss as s.”

Kevin muttered to me as soon as we were out the door. Playfully, I gave him a punch in the arm. "Maybe you should take notes on manners?" I smirked at him rubbing his arm. "Don't want to piss off the princess here. She will put you down!" Jasper joined in. "So I've heard. I'm more anxious to hear what you have planned for Angela." Kevin ran up the stairs faster than we did. "Oh! Me too!" Emmy squealed. "Nothing anymore. If I'm staying here, I will not disrespect a pack member." We went into Alec's room, I was much bigger with reds and blacks. Very muscular decor and very much Alec. I watched as everyone took a seat on the couch or arm chair. Leaving me another chair. "Come on. An eye for an eye. Alpha Marc won't get mad." Jasper stated. He completely relaxed into Emmy as she wrapped her arms around him. "Movie?" Kevin asked as he stood up and looked through Alec's stash. "Sure." Emmy called out. It's been a hell of a day but I would try to power through. "Action or horror." I said "What the lady wants, the lady gets." Kevin pulled out a Transformers movie and puts it in. Emmy toss me a blanket before grabbing one herself. "What is it with woman and blankets?" Kevin asked. I assume you are mate less?" I looked at him. Kevin almost looked offended. "So?"

"Only a single man would ask such stupid questions" Jasper sighed. *What he said" smirking, I caught Alec watching me. He was the quiet type, just watching. As I cuddled up with my blanket, I turned sideways so I was comfortable.

Chapter 47

I think I made it five minutes before my eyes closed. Is she sleeping already?" I heard Kevin asked. "It's been a hard day for her." Alec muttered. "Emmy is asleep too" Jasper whispered. "What is the fucking plan, dude? This is not just any chick you brought home." Kevin rounded on Alec. "I know that. I'm convinced she is my mate. I couldn't leave her there." "So you brought the danger here? I heard about Darin. He is ruthless and will mark her against her will the moment she turns 18." "I know that! Colt and I have been talking. He is extremely protective of her. He won't tell me fully why but she has been the attention of Alphas for years."

"Emmy said it was because of how smart she is. She can see patterns and would be a death sentence to any enemies. Why do you think her dad has got to the point he has. Yes, he is ruthless and will kill on sight but she is his secret weapon." "That's not why we are protecting her. Brains or not, she is our allies and we will honor the agreement Alec stated firmly. "Not because you want to fuck her." Kevin muttered. "She is strictly business." Not sure why that stung but it did. "That's a lie and you know it. I seen the way you look at her. If you truly believe she is your mate, this is personal." Jasper called him out. "I'm trying to keep my distance in the off chance I'm wrong," "For what it's worth, even without the brains, she would be perfect for you. She has Luna material all over her." Kevin whispered a little loud.

"Shh. I know that. I'd be proud to show her off. However, the moment we know, Darin will challenge me." "Thankfully it's not till death but that is the extremely serious." Kevin muttered. "I know. I'll be spending the week preparing, just in case. Jasper, you are going to have to make sure she is ready to fight Angela on Saturday.” “You can’t train her?” Jasper asked. Til watch but I don’t think I’ll be able to do what will be needed.” “You honestly think of her as your mate already, don’t you?” Kevin asked. The was a pause. “Just got to bed. I’ll see you guys tomorrow. I’ll stay home tomorrow with the girls.” Alec dismissed them. “Need help with her?” Kevin asked. “Just leave.” Alec said. I heard Jasper scoop Emmy up and the three of them left. I half expected to feel Alec lift me up but after cussing, he went to what assumed was the bathroom and shut the door. When I heard the shower turn on, I quietly got up and went to my room. I had just got into my silk shorts and tank when my bedroom door flew open. “you could have told me you woke up.” “It’s just business right?” I asked as I moved my stuff to the chair. His b*dy froze as he realized I heard it all. “Listen.” I said as I walked up to him. “Care about me or don’t care about me but don’t f ucking have pity on me. I am capable of taking Darin down myself. The only person to ever beat me was my dad. Not even Colt. I’m not a princess, I’m a sarcastic bi tchy girl who was raised as a man with manners. I don’t n be coddled or treated as if I’m helpless. I don’t want a mate that is going to try to keep me from bein I’m not Emmy. I won’t lay down and take it. I-” Then Alec grabbed me. Chapter 48

Alec’s mouth was against mine in seconds as he stopped me up and pinned me against the wall. His d ick was firmly pressed up against my as I soaked my panties. The Sual tension was building as Alec painfully but pleausrably massaging my breast. Our tongues fought for dominance as his grinded against me. I wanted this just as much as he did. The more he touched me, the more I accepted he could be my mate. My b*dy responded to his. Begged for his touch. I was losing my internal battle. A moan escaped my l*ps as Alec ripped open my shirt. Buttons flew everywhere as his mouth closed around my nipples. I had never went this far. My anxiety and self conscious peaked as he assaulted me. “You are so go d-dam n f ucking s exy as hell.” Alec muttered. Words were not coming to my mouth as I watched my nipple, bite and caress my t its. They were the perfect size to fill his hand. Like they were made for him.

My head was telling me to stop but my heart and b*dy wanted... Needed more. Alec came up and looked at me. “I promise not to f uck you yet but allow me to satisfy you.” My b*dy started shaking under his. “...” “Have you never done this?” All I could do was shake my head, I deep growl radiated up his chest as he carried me to the bed. Laying down, he got on top of me. My breathing was heavy as he k*ssed my neck. “You’re shaking.” He looked up at me. His hand cupped my face. “Do you want me to stop?” Yes... No... What did I want? He shifted a little, causing his d ick to rub a sensitive spot between my legs. No.” “I’ll stop if you want. Just tell me. I won’t take your virginity tonight. I’ll save that for when we mark.”

That sent shivers down my spine. “Feel how your b*dy responds to me. See how it leaves goosebumps where ever I touch? This is why I think we are mates. I can’t get you out of my head. You are like a drug.”

His l*ps wrapped around my nipples again as my back arched off the bed. My hands wrapped around him, feeling every muscle bulge in his torso. There wasn't an ouch of fat on this man. His mouth covered mine as he shifted his b*dy off of mine. My legs instantly closed but his hand softly opened them back up. He didn't stop k*ssing me as he moved my shorts to the side, cupping my soaked panties. Freeing my mouth, he kept his forehead against mine. "So wet for me." He lifted his head up and stared into my eyes as one finger curled around my panties and sl*pped between my folds. My breathing was faster his finger massaged my c lit. Giving me a new feeling that causes my eyes to roll back in my head. "Look at me." He said in the softest voice. Obeying, I found his were full of passion, concern and desire. Tell me to stop." He said before his finger hovered over my entrance. After a second, my hand cupped his face and pulled him down to me. Pushing my breast into him as his finger penetrated me. My whole b*dy tensed as he moved in and out before adding another finger "So f*cking tight." I could tell the restraint he was having as he moved slowly but I needed more. "Oh, Alec." I moaned. He looked at me. "Faster!" He didn't need telling twice as his hand became a jackhammer in me. My back arched as the pressure built up in me. "Oh f*uck!" I moaned. "Say my name!" Alec demanded as he attacked my ti ts. "ALEC!" I screamed as my or gasm hit. My b*dy clenched around him as I felt his b*dy shudder on top of me. Only after I came down from my high, did Alec pull out. Sl*pping one arm under my neck, he rolled me towards him. Putting one of my legs through his, I felt a wet spot on his shorts. Alec pulled me to him he stroked my hair. My face was buried in his chest

"Are you okay?" He asked me. "Yes." I muttered as my b*dy gave one last shiver before calming down. My breathing started to level out as my eyes closed. "Sleep." His hand continued to rub my back as I quickly fell asleep. It was the most peaceful night I have ever gotten. The next morning, I was alone. It was still dark out but I was cold. The clock read 5:14am. Deciding I needed a workout, I got up. Not wanting to smell like S, I took a quick shower to rinse off before putting my hair in a messy bun. Grabbing a sports bra, tank and shorts, I was just about ready. My phone didn't have any messages on it, so I sl*pped that in the phone holder of my waist band, with headphones and put my shoes on. The hallway was dark, everything was quiet as I slowly made my way to the training room. Thankfully, it was empty. Getting in a treadmill, I was able to sl*p my earphone on and start my warmup jog. I was half of the way through when there was movement beside me. Glancing over, a very muscular guy nodded and got on beside me and started running. Soon, the place was filling up. Getting off the treadmill, I grabbed two 25lbs dumbbells and started doin, arms. "Sure you can handle that?" A cocky looking guy came up to me. He looked around 18 but the playboy type. "I think I'll be okay." I said as I removed one earphone so I could hear "Need a spotter?" "For what? Curls? Not sure you would be any help."

The room stopped what they were doing and watched the exchange between the new girl and whoever this was. "The name is Calvin. What's your's beautiful?" "Kris." I said as I kept going on my set. "Maybe you should try something lighter. Like this." He picked up a ten pound weight and held it out to me "That seems to be more of your side. Though, it looks like you need more legs than arms." I smirked at his obvious embarrassment. "I don't take kindly to disrespect." He told a step back. "Seems like this new girl needs to learn her place!" I was in the mood for a fight. "Sure. Lets see if you are man enough to take me on," Standing up, I pulled out my headphone, placed my phone down and walked to the mat. Every one had gathered around to watch. Calvin was an inexperienced fighter. His stance was wrong, too jittery. He made the first move as he lunged, I went low and knocked his feet out from under him. To his credit, he caught himself and stood back up quickly. Then he went low, I allowed him to get his arms around me so I would elbow him in the kidney. His b*dy had a temporary lapse that I took advantage of. Wrapping my legs around his neck, I had one of his arms in a submission hold. There was so much cheering that I almost missed Alec's voice. "The f uck is going on here?" He h front of him. "Kristen, let him go." Everyone instantly backed away as he looked at the scene in Calvin gasped for air as he struggled to stand. "Hey!" I said with a smile. "Who can tell me what happened?" Alec folded his arms.

"Calvin started it. He did his usual flirty advances then disrespected Kris by saying she needed ten pound weights instead of the 25. So, she poked fun at his chicken legs and here we are." A girl stepped forward and gave a basic rundown. "I see, is this true, Calvin?" "I was just playing around." "Did you not read the memo that was sent out?" Alec sighed "No.. Alpha." "Obviously, or you would have know that this is Kristen Jeffreys. Daughter of Alpha Brian of the Blue Fang Pack." Calvin's eyes widened as he looked at me. "Nice to meet you. You need a lot of work on your form." "Calvin, you're on graveyard shift. Twenty laps, go. The rest of you back to your workout. Kris, just follow me." Grabbing my phone, I ran after him.

"Why so cranky this morning?" I asked as we turned the corner. Alec looked around before he pushed me into the wall. "I am the only one who gets to touch his b*dy. His hand wrapped around my waist as he growled in my ear. An involuntary moan escaped my open l*ps into his ear. "I'm not going to stop fighting. It wasn't Sual, it was fighting. However, he needs to be taught some manners." There was footsteps so Alec backed away. "Come on." He growled as Emmy and Jasper walked around. the corner. "What's going on here?" Emmy asked. "Alec woke up on the wrong side of the bed, apparently." Alec rolled his eyes at my inside jab. "Okay..." Jasper looked at Alec strangely. "Come on. I need a shower and then we can get breakfast and focus on you all day!" I said as I grabbed her hand and took off running up the stairs. "Someone is in a good mood this morning." Emmy laughed as she sat on the couch, turning the T.V., "Slept good!" I yelled as I got In the shower. There was some soreness between my legs but otherwise.

felt great. As soon as I was done, I was able to get dressed in athletic shorts and a t-shirt. Nothing fancy but I blowdried and styled my hair. After applying some makeup, I was ready. "Wow, all the effort for just me today?" Emmy joked as she stood up. "Just am feeling good today." "That doesn't have to do with a certain someone?" "More the change of scenery" but yes! It had everything to do with a certain someone. We headed out to the kitchen where only Jasper and Alec had beaten us. I sat by Alec and Emmy took her spot by Jasper. Food was lined on the side, Buffett style.

"Help y ladies." Jasper nodded towards the food. "Perfect!" Emmy squealed as I followed her. There was a variety of foods, sausage, bacon, waffles, pancakes and even biscuits and gravy. There was and water. Adding some milk and Sugar to it, I was satisfied. "Found what you wanted?" Emmy came up to me and asked. "1 di-" turning, I saw a group of girls had sat down by the guys. Disappointed, I just shrugged and moved to the end of the table, Emmy followed. "I could have pushed it away..." "You can if you want to sit next to Jasper." I shrugged. Emmy looked over at them and sighed before she sat down across from me. "Are you really going to help me?" Emmy whispered "Yes. I want you to be successful, you are so great with me. Not sure why you are having trouble here." "Jasper wants me to do it his way, not how I think it should be done. We have butter heads." "It's hard letting someone else take over and letting them do it their way." I said as I took a bite of my malt -o-meal "How do you eat such a thing?" Emmy scowled at my choice. "Because it's amazing." I laughed. "Are you sure you are wearing that red dress?" "F uck yes !!" Emmy cheered as we laughed. "I'm so excited to see her face. It will be awesome." "Me too! Let me put stones in your hair!" "Deal!" "YES!!" She pumped her arm down.

"Just not like last time. I looked like a da mn rhinestones frog." Emmy broke out into a fit of laughter. We were both crying by the time the guys walked up to us. "What is so funny?" Jasper asked. "Emmys ability to decorate a frog. Are you guys done with your conversation?" I asked as I dried my eyes. "Why didn't you come back and sit with us?" Jasper almost sounded hurt.
