

Tattooed 51

Chapter 51

"You weren't jealous?" Jasper asked Emmy. "I mean, I didn't like it but you are the beta and have to run the pack. The responsibility comes with talking to girls. I know I could have said something and you would have made room for me." "What she said." I said as I looked at Alec. "I got to go to school. Come tell me goodbye." Jasper tickled Emmy as they ran off before he slapped her on the ass. "I'm glad she is happy here." "She hasn't once smiled or laughed like that." "Really?" "Yeah." "I could tell you why." I said as I gathered our trays and carried them to the drop off window. "Why?" "Jasper needs to allow her to do things her way. Not his mother's way. She is good and all he is doing is belittling her talents. She doesn't feel heard." "She told you that?" Alec asked as we made our way to his office. "I can see it in her" He opened his office door for me. I sat on his couch on one said and he took the other. "You weren't jealous?" 1 "First off, you didn't exactly look for me. Second, we aren't mates yet so I'm just so random girl and is claiming a seat next to you. Not cool. People will think we are a couple. You said I was a business transaction."

Alec glared at me. "That was for Cash's benefit. You should know differently." "Well, I'll wait till you parade me around." "The ice princess wants a parade?" Alec chuckled. "No, just to be accepted and wanted."

Chapter 52

"That's dramatic." Emmy sighed. "It's not. Emmy. If that information gets in the wrong hands, they could organize an attack on this pack. That would kill people. As beta female, your job is still to protect the pack with your life. This is what it means to me a ranking wolf." "You grew up knowing you would lay down your life for a pack member?" "So did your dad. He was a top warrior. Yes, we were trained but we never saw battle. Now you are a ranking wolf, you have to take this seriously." "Oh wow. Now I understand why you want to travel!"

"Emmy. That's not why I want to travel. I wanted to get away from Anna. I wanted to get away from having to constantly watching over my back. Living on eggshells. I absolutely love being a ranking wolf. I get to help people. Colt and I opened that bar so our pack would have jobs. When someone comes to you and thanks you for helping them, it's the most rewarding thing. You will find what you like here. Where you want to help. Once you find what your passionate about, all this will be worth it." "Thank you. I already feel so much better." Emmy had tears in her eyes want "I know you will be a great beta female. Your heart is pure gold and when you figure out where you want to put that focus, it will be worth it." "You're right. I just need to keep pushing on." Emmy gathered her stuff. "I'm going to go put this away and I'll bring up lunch." "Thank you." I said as I watched her leave. As soon as she was gone, I started cleaning up my mess. "You're a natural." Alec started. "One of my many talents." I shrugged.

Grabbing my phone, I called the answer machine at the shop. I only had one tattoo that was going to last three hours. He canceled due to his grandmother dying. "What's wrong?" Alec noticed my change. "My pack member canceled his appointment due to his grandma dying. I wish I could take him something. Maybe I can get Colt to do it." "I'll take you and then you can do my tattoo that needs to get finished H

"What's up?" Colt asked as I got out of the car. "Frankie canceled his appointment because of his grandma. Figured I'd come give him a basket." "I thought so, so I brought one up for you." Colt handed me the basket. "Alec." Colt shook Alec's hand. I "An n is in a frenzy so as much as I want to see you, you better get going" "Noted. Thanks Colt!" The boys nodded as we got back in the car. Giving Alec directions, we were able to make it to Frankie's house easily. There was a fair amount of people there. "If you don't want to come, I understand." I said to Alec as I got out. "I'll wait for you outside" Alec leaned up against his car as I walked inside the house. "Kirs! You didn't have to come! I'm so sorry." Frankie was a mess. "Don't be sorry." Sitting the basket down on the table with the other cards, I was pulled into a conversation.

It took me 15 minutes to break free. As I walked outside, I saw Alec checking his watch. "Kris?" A small voice sounded behind me. It was Frankie's daughter. She was three years old. Kneeling down, she ran towards me. Hugging me with everything she had in her. "Oh Isabelle. You will see her again." I tried to comfort her. Sally, Frankie's mate came out to get her. "Mamma!" Isabelle cried. "I'm sorry, she has been a mess." "Are you going to plant a flower?" I asked "Yes." "Isabelle? Maybe you help mommy and daddy pick out a flower to your grandma." Isabella sniffed but nodded. "Otay."

"Thank you." Sally said as I waved good ye and she went inside. 1 Alec just held the door open for me as I got in. A second later, he was doing the same. "Sorry that took longer than I expected." "It's okay." It was me this time that reached out and took his hand. He accepted it without a fight. Sending butterflies to my stomach. Waving as we passed the guards, we drove with the windows down to my shop. The wind felt great in my hair. Pulling up to the front, there was storm clouds in the distance. "Are we suppose to get rain?" "I didn't think until later Alec mumbled as he looked on. Unlocking my door, I relocked it after Alec walked in. Setting my stuff down, I started pulling out everything I needed. "Assuming you have a pain tolerance, we can get in done tonight but we can stop if needed." "S hit." Alec took his shirt off and sat down so his back was facing out. "This is cold." Spraying his back, I started cleaning it up. There was a few scratches on his shoulders that made me chuckle. 1 "What?" "I told your not to let any girls scratch your back." Alec turned and looked at me. "You going to charge me for what you did?" "Maybe... But not in money." I flirted as I pushed him back around. "What would the princess want then?" Turning my gun on, I started working. "Hmm, any suggestions?" "I don't know what you want. A date? Back rub?" "Hmm, I was thinking something more... Exciting." "Oh? Like what?" "A midnight bike ride." "I think I could handle that. Let me get it figured out." Alec agreed more easily than I figured he would.

"Really? Perfect." "Did you think I was going to say no?"

Chapter 54

"I'm going to prove to you that is just what I am going to do." It took me a second to respond. "Oh?" "Do you not think you are worthy of that?" Alec asked, "It's not that, it's I have all these hopes and dreams and as much as I try and be a good person, will they come true?" "What are your hopes and dreams?" "Ask me again on Friday." I teased as this was getting too personal. "What do you plan on wearing?" "A tux. Maybe with a red tie." "Not a bad choice." I approved. "Okay. I need you to lay down now." Alec stood up and I adjusted the chair. He laid down and I had to fight the memories away from last night. "Alec?" "Yes...?"

"Why were you grumpy this morning?" "I spent the night with you only to see you with your legs around another guys head. Why do you think?" "So you didn't regret the night?" Alec looked up at me. "Don't ever question that again. I'll never regret the moments we spend together." His eyes looked pissed I even asked. "Okay." Alec put his head down so I could continue. Alec placed his hand on my thigh as I kept working. His thumb rubbed the inner part. "I didn't realize how sensitive you were." "1. Am not. Sensitive." The audacity. "You are even though you hide it well."

"If I hide it so well, how would you know?" "The vulnerability you showed me last night plus the tid bits you say, you don't show that easily. The fact. you can't even tell Emmy you love her." "Yeah... Well... You cam in your shorts." It was a lame comeback "First time for everything." Alec sighed. "When did you leave my bed to go back to yours?" "Oh, 4:30 or so. I wanted to get a run in, I just got back when I heard the cheering from outside." "Ah." "How did you sleep?" "Really good. Best night of sleep I had ever gotten." "You're welcome." Alec muttered. "Pretty sure it was because of the mattress." I teased him. A deep groan ran up his b*dy. "Is that so?" "I guess you will have to try harder next time." A sly smile erupted on my face as I looked into Alec's eyes. His hand moved to my inner thigh as his finger slipped between my panties. His other hand moved my chair so he could access it better. Picking me up, Alec shifted my hips forward. All the while laying on his stomach. All he could do was play with my clit. "Go, on. Finished my tattoo." Alec pitched down a little making me jump. Doing as he asked, I tried to focus but it was hard. His finger would speed up and slow down. My breathing was labored. It took almost four hours to complete his tattoo as I would reach the breaking point and he would expertly slow down, causing me to whimper. "There. All done." I said in a shaky voice. Alec's phone started ringing. With one hand, he answered it. "Hello?" Pause. Alec refused to let me go. "She is finishin "She is finishing up my tattoo. We will be there shortly." Click.

"I'm done." I repeated. "Want to go look at it?" It was hard to talk. "Let's go" Alec stood up without removing his hand. Somehow, he switched hands so his other hand went down my shorts. He stood up and made me stand up and walked to the mirror. Taking the original on to him as my legs were giving out. Alec moved my leg to the side as he sl*pped three fingers inside me as I stood and wanted him finger f uck me. "Oh!" "What was that?" Alec whispered in my ear. He found that spot and bared see down as his hand squeezed my t its. His di ck was har against my back.

Chapter 55

Something sparked in me as I thought two can be play this game. Reaching around, I sl*pped my hand under his shorts. Grabbed his d ick, I started stroking it. "You are playing with fire." Alec warned "I'm ready." I said. "Not yet." Alec pulled his hand out of me and yanked my shorts down to my ankles. I was so focused on those that I wasn't prepared to stop him from taking my shirt and bra off. In seconds, I was standing in front of him, as s n*ked. Pulling me down, Alec moved my legs up and out so I had a full view of myself, "watch me f uck you." He growled in my ear. My eyes stayed glued to his fingers that moved around me so perfectly. My hands grabbed his shorts for support and because I couldn't grab his neck. "Oh! Oh! Oh!" As soon as I about climaxed, Alec removed his fingers. I

"What was that?" He teased. My face was flushed, tingly as I couldn't speak. "Please?" I begged. Alec whipped me around before putting his face between my legs. My hips buckled as he got to work. Riding his face, my hand kept him there. "Oh, Alec. Please!" His fingers came back as he sucked my c lit. Finally, I was permitted to org asm. His b*dy shook to as I laid there, spread for him to see. 1 Groaning, Alec moved over me. "You okay, hun?" Hun? No one has ever called me a pet name. "Yup. See,... totally... unaffected." I said between breaths. "Yeah, okay. Probably shower before we head back." "Okay." I said but didn't move. "Come on. Jasper is waiting on you to train."

"You literally sucked me dry and expect me to train?" I said skeptical. Alec broke down laughing. "Yes, I do." He pulled me to my feet and pushed me in the bathroom. "I'll clean this up, you clean that up. "You caused all of this" I said as he closed the door. Rinsing off in the shower, I put back on my clothes. I'd need to change anyway to fight. When I got back out there, Alec literally had everything cleaned up and in the sterilizer. "How...?" "I watched you do it. It wasn't hard. Come on." Alec pushed towards the door and turned the lights off. "Wait." He said right as I was about to unlock the door. Turning me around, he planted the most gentle k*ss to my l*ps. "Good luck on training." "Hmm, maybe I should train more if that's what you are going to do before hand." I muttered as I unlocked the door. "I would rather you not." Alec rolled his eyes. Right as he was about to unlock his door, screeching tires came around the corner. "Get down!" Alec threw himself on me as bullets peppered his car. Thankfully they didn't stay around and sped off. "You okay?" I asked as I looked at the vehicle. "Yeah, I'm good." Alec stood up and pulled me with him. "We need to go." I said. Alec got in his car to see if it would start. It did, I was barely in the car as he floored it. "Call your dad and have him meet us at my pack." Alec sounded like a different person. Se xy yet so scary. I didn't hesitate to pull my phone out of my purse and dial dad's emergency line. "Kris? What happened?" "Get Colt and get to Alpha Marcs place. Alec and I were just shot at!" "Are you hurt?"

"No, Alec saved me." That's when I noticed how pale Alec was. "Alec? Were you shot?" His eyes started to closed. "DAD!" I screamed as Alec's car ran off the road and into a tree. The world went black for a second before my adrenaline kicked in. I was thrown from the car. After a quick exam, nothing was broken. Alec's head was against the air bag.

Chapter 56

"Alec!" The car was against a tree and I landed on the hood. Sliding off, my legs protested but I ignore it. Whoever shot at us might come back. I needed to get Alec out of here. After three tries, I was able to get the door open. Blood was running down Alecs arm. Ripping off my shirt, I used it as a turaquette to stop the bleeding. Grabbing a stick, I was able to tighten if correctly before. using a hair tie to fasten it. Feeling in his pockets. I found his phone. I had to push him back so the face ID would recognize him. Thankfully, it worked and I called his dad. "Alec." "It's Kris. We were leaving the tattoo shop and someone drove by and shot at us. Alec was hit on the shoulder. We tried to drive away but he passed out and we crashed. We are just past the old bridge. Get here quick, I don't know if they will come back." "I'm coming!" "My dad was suppose to go to your house I was on the phone with him when we crashed. Call him, I don't know where my phone is." "Got it. Need anything?" "Alec needs a a doctor or he will be lose his arm." I heard the sound of a speeding car. "S hit, I think they are back. Hurry." I hung up and I put his phone in my bra. Slinging Alecs arm over my shoulder, I heaved him out of the car. Shifting positions, I did a modified fireman's carry as I hid him in the brush. There was no way I was going to be about to take him far but I could by us time. I heard the car stop and three doors slam. "Come out and play!" I heard the sound of a gun being coc ked. As quietly as possible, I snuck around as I could attack from behind. One male stayed at the car as the other two moved into the forest. I smelled their stench as I got closer, rogues. Still, this wasn't random. Sneaking up, I jumped at the last minute, using my claw to slice his neck. Blood sprayed everywhere as I grabbed the gun from his grasp. "Stop right there, missy!" Slow, I looked up at the two rogues that stood in front of me. Their guns pointed at me. "No." I pointed my gun at the first guy "No?" "If I'm going out, one of you are going with me." I said stubbornly. "What do you want?" "You." The second one said. "For who?" "Come with us and find out." They started moving so one was behind me. This wasn't good. No matter where I moved, they shifted. "I think not." A large familiar growl echoed. Ace. That meant my dad. It all happened so quick. One gun went off, then mine. Ace fell behind me and something smashed into my chest. I fell back over Aces b*dy. It was as if time stood still. Colt's face looked into mine as I watched two wolves tear into each rogue. "Alec..." I tried to point but my b*dy was being pulled around. "Get her to the hospital!" It was like I snapped out of it. "NO! Alec!" "Where's my boy?" Marc came over to me. Jasper and Cash were behind him with Andrew and Judd. "I hid him, keep him safe" I had to fight to stay awake, “be-behind the log...” I pointed upward Marc ran to go look resting my head against Colt, I watched as they drug down a lifeless b*dy. “Take him first.” I said Marc. Jasper punched a tree as my focus was coming back. My chest hurt like a mother, Looking down, there was blood. “Colt?” “You were shot, Ice.” Mrs. Smith Author Π Thanks for reading!

Chapter 57

Pulling down my bra, I pulled out Alec’s phone. The bullet was impacted into it. There was already an impressive purple bruise forming. “I’m okay.” Resting my head against Colt, my eyes landed on the lifeless b*dy of Ace. “He saved me.” z “He loved you.” Colt wrapped his arms around me as silent tears ran down my face. “Stupid fool! We had a plan!” Jacob was just as distraught as Jasper. “Your turn, miss.” Another ambulance showed up and helped me get into the back. “We are going to take her in to get all this glass removed.” “We will be there shortly.” Colt said as he looked back at Ace. “Jasper, need a ride to the hospital?” “Yes.” He jumped in and grabbed my hand. “Thank you for saving Alec.” Tears swelled in his eyes as the door shut and we started driving. I just felt numb. Ace lost his life and Alecs was barely hanging on. All because they wanted me. The EMTs started a line and put in a dose of antibiotics. They checked my head to make sure it w too terrible looking. “That looks okay.

“Yeah, the tree broke my fall.” I said sarcastically bit chy. “How long t long till we are there?” Jasper asked. “In thirty seconds.” Right on cue, it came to a stop and the doors opened. As they wheeled me in, I made eye contact with Marc. He ran over to me. “Is she okay?” “After we hung up, I put Alec’s phone in my bra. Here.” I handed it back to him. His fingers touched the bullet that was stuck in it. “Maybe you will be able to save it.”

Marc was silent before straightening up.” You saved Alec, I will forever be in your debt. I understand you lost one of your tonight.” “Ace. Yes.” More tears came down. “We need to take her back.” Marc stepped back and the gurney started moving again. Two hours later, they picked all the glass out and stitched up my forehead. Magically, no broken bones, just hematomas and deep bone bruising. Colt came in with a wheel chair. “Ready?” “I’m not leaving.” “I know, we are going to see Alec.” “Is he okay?” “He’s awake. Come on. He’s threatening to get up if he doesn’t see you.” That made me smile as I got in the wheel chair. Colt gave me his shirt since they cut my bra off. I still had my shorts though. We went down a few hallways before we heard yelling. “Alec calm down before they have to sedate you!” I heard Marcs voice. “Where is she?” He yelled. “Right here.” I said quietly. Everyone turned and looked at me. “You’re alive!” Alec tried to get out of bed but three pairs of hands were holding him down. Standing up, Colt helped me to his bedside. Alec scooter over so I could sit. His hand wrapped around me in a hug. “Are you okay?” “Your phone saved me.” I said. “What?” Alec asked. “Here.” Marc handed Alec’s phone back to me. Alec looked at the bullet. “What happened?” I realized dad walked in the room too.. “Kristen!” He came up to me and gave me a hug.

"Daddy!" "I heard the crash. I was so f ucking scared." Dad dried his eyes. "We all did." Colt stated. "You were on speaking phone. Jacob and A-ace." "Frankie was my appointment tonight. His grandma died so Alec wanted to get his tattoo finished. So we we went there. After it was done, Jasper was suppose to train with me to get me ready for Saturday. We heard the tires,..." My eyes closed as tears fell down. Alec grabbed my hand. "They shot at us." "Alec got on top of me and covered me. I didn't know you were hit!" More years started streaming "We got thrown from the car Landed on the hood Lost my phone I was able to open Alec's door and his phone was there. After I put a turaquette on him, I called you" I looked at Marc "I heard their car so! carried Alec and hid him. He wasn't moving and lost so much blood Anyway, I heard their car doors knew there was at least three. I can't take three by myself so I snuck around. I was able to kill one but they heard. I had the gun," I couldn't continue as I broke down. Alec pulled me towards him as I cried.

Chapter 58

"Ace disobeyed an order. He was suppose to get the flank as I knew his judgement was clouded. When he jumped in, they panicked and shot. He took one bullet and your phone took the other. It was right over her heart." Dad said. "It saved her life." "Did they say what they wanted "Marc asked. "They wanted me." I said quietly. "You?" Marc asked to clarify. "Didn't say why. Said they were there for me. I was thinking about going with them to get them away from Alec." "Never put your life in danger for me. You hear me? Never!" Alec said firmly as he forced me to look at him. "Marc, where do we stand?" Dad asked as he looked on. "I bare no ill will. As far as I'm concerned, she saved his life and then protected him with hers. If my son is right, she will just as much my daughter as yours." "We track them together." Dad held out his hand.

"Kill them all." Marc h ook dads hand as their alliance strengthened. "For what it's worth, you have our deepest sympathy at the loss of your future beta. It goes without saying, whatever you need." "I appreciate it" Dad looked at me. "I need to get back and inform his I'm "I'm staying here." "I'll stay with her." Colt said. "We aren't going anywhere." Marc sat down Dad k*ssed my forehead and looked deep in my eyes. parents.

"I love you kiddo." "You too, dad." Dad and Jacob walked out. Colt sighed as he took a seat on the other side of the room. "What did they say for you?" I asked Alec. "Tissue damage mainly. Should heal soon but it did nick the artery. You really did save my life." I nodded as I looked down at the floor. The room fell silent as we were all processing what do say. Alec pulled me back so I was resting against I saw a light flash, forcing my annoyance to come out. "The f uck Colt?" "How did you know it was me?" He chuckled. "You are the only one st upid enough or brave enough to take a picture right now." "Emmy has been blowing up my phone wanting to talk to you. I told her you were sleeping. She didn't believe me." "Have Jasper go get her and bring her here." I muttered. "I think he's already got her. She wasn't taking no for an answer and now that Jasper knows Alec is okay..." "Okay." Opening my eyes, I looked over at Colt. "Colt tell me the truth." "Not good. In time." I nodded as I went back to closing my eyes. "You didn't even ask him anything?" Marc looked weird out "They got this twin language. It takes some getting used to "Alec muttered. "Where is SHE?" We heard Emmy yell. "I'm her alpha and she is worried about you." Alec sighed. "Get used to it." I said as Emmy came barreling in. She looked at how Alec and I were laying before coming over to me. "I'm okay." Sitting up, she hugged me. Tears fell down both of our faces. "I was so worried. Ace died! He was.... a brother to us! He loved you. Like truly loved you." "I know. Emmy, I know."

Emmy grabbed a tissue and dried my eyes. "Are you okay?" Emmy asked Alec. "I'm fine." His tone was not a pleased one. I assume it was because of the fact Ace loved me. "Emmy, let her breath." Jasper grabbed her shoulders and pulled her back. "Alec?" "I'm good man." "What the f uck happened?" "Emmy, do you mind getting me something light to eat at the cafeteria?" I asked. "Of course!" Emmy ran out of the room. "We were headed back when someone drove by and shot at us, I took one to the shoulder. We tried to drive away but I passed out. Kris went through the windshield: She put a turaquette on me and called dad. Then she hid me and killed one. Ace saved her by taking a bullet and she took a bullet to her heart." Alec tossed his phone at Jasper. "Your anger is misplaced. Don't be mad at her."

Chapter 59

"You are mad at me? You blame ME for this?" Jasper had the decency to look ashamed. Alec put his hand on my shoulder and gave it a squeeze, "Ice, calm down. Tensions are high now. He almost lost his alpha." "Yet he f ucking didn't! Because I f ucking saved him! It wasn't your f ucking pack that lost someone! If you need a f ucking tampon to rein in your emotions then look in my purse but you better get the f uck out of my eyesight!" My eyes shifted to straight black. Colt stood up. "Jasper, you need to leave." "Kristen, honey, look at me." Alec tried to get my attention away from Jasper. Jasper was frozen in his did my wolf spot as he looked at me. Marc stood up and pushed Jasper out. Only when he was gone, relax. Alec put his arm around me and held me close. It helped calm me down. My eyes shifted back. "That is the quickest I've seen her wolf calm down." Colt muttered. "Do you still doubt we are mates? Alec asked, a little smugly.

"Nope." Colt sat in front of me. "Kris." "What?" "Look at me." "He's right. This is all my fault. They wanted me. Alec got hurt because they wanted to kidnap me." "No, Kristen. This isn't your fault and Alec would agree with me." "I do. None of this is your fault." Alec rubbed my back. "You just need to sleep. Come lay down on the couch." Colt helped me down and put me on the couch. Putting a pillow under my head, he covered me with a blanket. "Close your eyes and go to sleep." Colt played with my hair until I fell asleep. Alec's pov I got it bad. I was already falling in love with that girl, Watching her brother put her to sleep irked me. That was my f ucking job. I didn't need to wait till Friday to know she was destined to be mine.

Everything s Kristen. Jasper told me about how he felt towards Emmy was how I felt towards Stu pid f ucking Jasper. He pis sed her off more than I had ever seen so far. Her eyes were f ucking black!! that.

"This isn't her fault." Colt whispered to me. "Never thought it was." He was too damn protective of her but I get it. She is special. Just didn't like it. "Get your man in line before she does. Her wolf is ancient and loves the taste of blood." That confession shocked me. "I'm gathering that. What else should I know?" "My wolf is the twin of hers. This isn't a threat but we don't lose and we don't stop till there are bodies. I've been able to keep her reined in but if it's true, your her mate, that's your job now. You need to figure out a way to be able to soothe her." 1200 "How has she not lost it on An n?" "Two reasons. One, me. I've stopped it. Two, killing An n would kill our dad. He already lost one mate." "So she deals with it." "Kristen has the kindest soul. It balances out the blood she has spilled. If you notice, she doesn't even think about the rogue she killed with her fingers. She's upset Ace died. The fact she cares keeps her grounded." "Did she love him too?" Mrs. Smith Author Thank you all for reading!

Chapter 60

Alec POV "Not in that way. He's always been a big brother to her. One she would occasionally make out with but that was it. I commanded Ace to never take it further. I don't think she knows that. However, she used him for stress relief when An n was at her worst. Ace knew that but he got caught up in her. For what it's worth, it was never about choosing between you two. It was about choosing you and not hurting Aces feelings." "Good." "Do you love her?" "Just about." I said without hesitation. "Good. She needs a strong man to look after her. I knew I wasn't going to fill that role forever. I'm trying to not get in the way but damn if I won't be there for her. I had to listen to her scream daddy before the sickening sound of metal hitting wood. The sound of her b*dy going through glass is one I'll never unhear." "I was hoping I could make it to my pack before I passed out. I honestly didn't feel it at first. My only thought was to get her home and safe." "Tomorrow's Wednesday. Obviously she won't be going to school. Hell, she should have just tested out of high school in 8th grade." "Assuming you're beefing up security on Friday?"

"Yes." "I'll send my men over too." "We'd appreciate it." "Anything for her" I muttered. "Agreed."

"Listen man, I'm sorry about Ace. I truly am. Losing a best friend and beta is hard." Colt nodded his head as he looked at Kristen. Sighting, he reached a hand out to me. "I'll get going. I'll get you both new phones tomorrow. I'll be taking this to get it analysed." 1 "Thanks, man." Jasper walked as Col Without missing a beat, Colt delivered a perfect right hook, knocking Jasper over. Unfortunately for Jasper, he was still awake, Colt grabbed his shirt and pulled him close. You better watch your mouth around my sister or next time there will be more blood." Dropping him, Colt stepped over him and walked away. "Fuck." Jasper groaned as he stood up "You deserved it." I said glaring at him. "Yeah, I know. I thought you were dead. You were lifeless with blood covering you." "Need that tampon my girl offered you?" "Your girl huh?" "Believe so." "She will be a damn good Luna." "That she will. Maybe you will live to see it." "When do you get to get out?" X "I'm leaving tomorrow regardless. Only staying here because she is sleeping." "Emmy's pissed at me." "We need to talk about her." "Fuck" "You need to let her do things her way and not how your mother did them. Let her try new project and figure it out. Stop holding her back." "Is that you or Luna over there talking?" I got a warm satisfied feeling from him calling her Luna. "Both."

"Okay. I'll release the reins." Jasper sighed. "I'm standing guard. That is my punishment. Marc took Emmy home after she chewed my ass out." "Good. Go guard and let me sleep." I wasn't tired but I was done talking. Jasper went to leave but stopped, and looked at me. "I'm glad your okay and I'm sorry for my behavior." "It's not me you need to apologize to." I said. Jasper nodded and walked out the room. Closing the door behind him. Closing my eyes, I drifted into a restless sleep. I was in and out of it until I felt movement beside me. Looking down, Kristen crawled into bed with me. Wrapping my girl arm around her, I finally slept decently. Kristen's pov A sound woke me from my sleep. Alec was still sleeping peacefully but the angry voices outside woke me. As I tried to get out of bed, my muscles reminded me that I got thrown through a windshield. Gingerly walking, I put my ear to the door to listen. "You are not going in there!" Jasper whispered angrily. "The fuck I'm not!" I was Jacob. 1 Opening the door, I walked out. Both boys froze as they realized they were in deep s hit now. "What the fuck is going on here?"
