

Tattooed Luna by Mrs Smith

Tattooed Luna by Mrs Smith Chapter 426-As she got closer, I started to realize there were tears in my eyes that I quickly tried to push away. It was fine for Penny to see that side of me but not all the other alphas and lunas that were in attendance tonight.

Penny handed off her flowers as I met her before the stage. Holding out my hand, I smiled at her. "You look so beautiful." I whispered as we walked up to the front. Alpha Thomas was waiting patiently for us as we approached.

"Welcome!" He yelled out. "We have come to celebrate the union of Alpha Colt and Luna Penny. Cheers erupted, making Penny blush. Alpha Thomas held up his hand, quieting everyone.

"They have decided to do things a little differently, and start with the vows.

Alpha Colt, please go first." a "penny, from the moment our eyes met and you became mine... I've felt like the luckiest man alive. Our lives have been anything but peaceful but you have adapted. More than once, you have risen above for not only my sake but for our packs. Your heart is massive as it makes it's impact on the future generation, ensuring our future. More than once, you have stood up to me and helped me see things in a different light. The encouragement and support I have received from you has made me a better alpha and a better man.

I know that will continue over to being the best dad I could be. I couldn't imagine going through all this without you beside me. You have given me the support and push that I needed to be able to do half the stuff I have done recently. Coming home to your smiling' face gives me more satisfaction than anything else. With you beside me, I am unstoppable. We are a team...

behind the desk and off. I love you." Penny had tears running down her face as I spoke. I felt nothing but love coming from her and I tried to push all my love back at her. "Luna Penny, please take your turn." After a moment, she started.

“Growing up, we were not in the same circle but yet I was always around you. I watched you grow up, going through different challenges and I watched you learn from each one of them.” She was wearing the bracelet I made for her. My eyes went to it and nodded in understanding. “T admired your strength. I’ve always been someone that has been happy to be hiding behind someone. Never needing the recognition or anything but just seeing the smiles on people’s faces was enough for me. Since becoming your mate, I had to learn to be in the spotlight. There was a time I doubted my ability but someone wise told me to not compare myself to anyone.

I could chose what my luna legacy was about.

Choosing what was dear to my heart was important and you did nothing but encourage and push me to achieve my dreams. I have been able to make these changes because of the strength I learned from you. Everyday, I watch you lead our pack. I see the respect in their eyes and how much they look up to you. You inspire me to continue to grow and be the best luna I can be...

Tattooed Luna by Mrs Smith Chapter 427-“Penny, repeat after me. “I, Alpha Penny of the Midnight River Pack, accept Alpha Colt of Blue Fang Pack as my mate and Alpha.” “I, Alpha Penny of the Midnight River Pack, accept Alpha Colt of the Blue Fang Pack as my mate and my Alpha.” Alpha Thomas held up the ceremonial knife. “With this knife, you will spill your blood. Combining your blood as one, making you as one. The connection between Alpha and Luna is unbreakable. The connection between Alpha and Alpha is even more intense.

From this day forward, Alpha Colt and Alpha Penny will be the strongest couple on this planet.” | Alpha Thomas handed me the knife and then gave the chalice to Penny.

Since she was so pregnant, we asked to not move to another place. So, I went ahead and cut my palm and allowed my blood to spill. After it was done, I tied my own hand with the cloth Alpha Thomas held. Switching sides, Penny sliced her palm and allowed some blood to spill before Alpha Thomas helped her tie the cloth around her hand.

Taking the cup from Penny, I swirled our blood together before drinking half of it.

The rush I got was intense. I was a little light headed at first but then a – wave of power and raw strength filled me. Handing the cup to Penny, she finished it and I watched her go through the same emotions.

Only when we both settled down, did Alpha Thomas continue. “It is with my great pleasure to announce, Alpha Colt and Luna Penny!” ~— We turned and waved at everyone cheering for us. Music started blasting as we made our way down the aisle.

Penny didn’t want a formal meal so as soon as we reached the end, the music changed to more of a party atmosphere. Servers came out with different appetizers and drinks. If I remember correctly, there was about ten different options. A table of them was still placed on the side for those to wanted to try them all but people were still going to be walking around. £ “Congratulations!” Ice ran up to me and gave me a huge hug before moving on to Penny.

“Thanks, sis.” I said as I shook Alec’s hand.

“Congratulations, Alpha.” I heard beside me. Looking over, Sherry was standing there in a beautiful but basic black gown. Her hair was curled and she appeared to have even put some makeup on. When my eyes met hers, she gave me a bow before looking nervously around.

“Thank you, Sherry. It is a pleasure seeing you this evening.” “I wanted to start here since it will be easy for me to slip out unnoticed if I get too overwhelmed.” She whispered.

“I’m just glad you made it to what you did.” Penny said in a perfect luna fashion.

“Oh shoot.” Ice looked down and back up at Alec.

“What’s wrong?” Penny asked.

“I need to pee but I didn’t think about how I was going to do it in this outfit.” Ice was wearing a very dressy pant suit.

“I’second that.” I muttered.

JER * “Alpha, there is a situation.” A guard mind-linked me.

“For fucks sake, what is it?” I NE responded.

Tattooed Luna by Mrs Smith Chapter 428-“Take it to the morgue and leave everything with the body. I will look at it when Luna’s ceremony is over.” | ordered the guard.

“Colt?” Penny’s voice sounded beside me. “What’s wrong?” Sparks erupted down my arm. Looking down at my beautiful mate, I tried to push my anger to the side.

“Nothing that needs addressed right now.” A slow song just started playing.

Grabbing he wrist, I pulled her out into the dance floor. We were the only ones dancing but I didn’t care. Surely, it wouldn’t take long for everyone else to join in.

€» “Not omitting things from me, are you?” Penny asked, all knowingly.

“Maybe but do you really want to talk shop tonight?” I whispered, not wanting to tell her but not wanting to lie either.

“Not really but it was important enough to piss you off like this, shouldn’t I know about it?” “How can I be pissed off when I have you in my arms?” I tried to kiss her to get her mind off the subject but she dodged me.

“Colt... I thought we were a team.” Penny wrapped her arms around my neck and locked her hands together.

Her bump kept us a little bit apart but it was still comfortable to dance slowly.

“You really want to know that bad? Can’t just have fun tonight and worry tomorrow?” Sighing, I looked into her eyes.

"I want you to confide in me. Don't hide things because you think it will upset me.

I want to stand beside you and handle that stuff. Even though turning a blind eye so I can focus on my projects might happen, I still want you to be able to talk to me." "There is so much to tell. More specifically, there was a body found outside of our pack. I don't know anything else but I had a bad feeling about leaving Gunther. We tracked him to a castle and then to an auction." I told her in the mind-link.

"Why did you leave then?" Penny asked.

"I needed to come back to you." "Oh..." Penny's face scrunched up.

"I wanted to come back. Even if I would have stayed, there isn't anything that said something would have happened. I might have just followed him back to the castle. Without more men, it would have been incredibly dangerous for Alec and I to even interfere with anything. I would have had to just watch from afar so it was probably best I wasn't there." "You probably would have jumped in there and that could have resulted in you being injured or something." Penny agreed.

"Exactly, you did me a huge favor by making sure I came home." "Who was the guy?" Penny asked, still in the mind-link. More and more people were dancing beside us.

"No idea. They just told me they found someone. I'll look and see who it is when we get home." "Do you need to leave now?" Penny asked as the song stopped.

"He won't be much more dead in a few hours." Walking over to the table, everyone was sitting down and talking.

"Penny! If you had to choose between Jasper and Jacob to win in a foot race, who would it be?" Kris asked me.

"Really?" I asked as I pulled out a chair for Penny and then took my own seat.

"Cripple over here thinks he can still beat me." Jacob laughed. Sherry just looked like she was in pain trying to smile.

"Without a doubt!" Jasper laughed.

“Why is this an argument?” Penny asked, taking a drink of water.

“That is great!” Penny said with a smile.

Tattooed Luna by Mrs Smith Chapter 429-“Little slow, bro.” Jacob gave him a ‘sorry about your luck’ look.

“Alright, I accept your challenge.” Jasper sat up and smirked at Jacob.

“A challenge? When did I challenge you?” Jacob was back peddling hard.

“] heard it and accept it as well.” Alec said very alpha like. “We shall have a one mile race. Colt and I will organize the event to be held in the next week or two.” «gcares?” Jasper looked at Jacob like he already won.

“you wish, Crip.” Jacob held up his drink to Jasper. Jasper met his drink to Jacob’s and the toast sealed the deal.

«1 Jove how parties bring us together.” I said, shaking my head at their level of childishness.

“Speaking of parties, are you girls going to have a baby shower?” Sherry asked.

“Qh, yeah at some point. In a month, we have that Halloween Party.” Penny said.

“We should do it soon. With triplets, who knows when you will give birth.

Multiples always come early.” Ice said, trying not to smile too big. @ “I haven’t even boughten anything.” Penny looked worried.

“We can look through it all tomorrow and buy whatever we need.” I told her to ease her mind.

«phat would be great!” Penny breathed a sigh of relief.

“Do you know the genders?” Ice leaned forward in excitement.

“We do but I want to keep it a secret right now.” Penny said to my surprise.

“Aw! Really? How will I know what to buy you?” “She is having three babies, I think you could probably buy her a little of everything and it will get used.” Jacob said as he took a sip of his drink.

“He isn’t wrong. There are so much stuff that is greens, yellows, grays and blacks!” “Well, sure but what if I want to buy a dress?” Ice challenged.

“You are going to buy your niece a dress and not a free tattoo?” Jasper teased.

“They will get that anyway.” “I never got a free tattoo!” I complained.

“I didn’t either and I’m her mate.” Alec grumbled.

“First off, I charged you before we were even mated. Afterwards, what’s yours is mine so whatever. As for you, Colt, you always paid me extra since you knew I was saving to travel. Third, my niece or nephews can have whatever they want, when they want it and Aunt Ice doesn’t say no.” “We might need to find a better babysitter.” Penny whispered like she was trying to hide it but she was loud enough for everyone to hear.

“Hey!” Ice faked looking hurt but the rest of us laughed.

“We aren’t raising spoiled children here.” I said.

“You were a spoiled kid.” Jacob laughed.

“Don’t act like you didn’t enjoy the benefits!” Ice quickly jumped in.

“We should go streaking!” Emmy yelled and put her arms out above her head.

“I think it’s time we head home.” Jasper said as he looked at her with worry in his eyes. We all busted up laughing as Emmy danced to the music by herself.

“Is she really that drunk?” Sherry asked, laughing as well.

“Congratulations!” “Thank you!” Penny beamed.

“Look at that. A whole party and no interruptions!” Jasper sighed as he tossed Emmy over his shoulder.

“1 Jake drunk Emmy.” Ice laughed as she put her arm through Alec’s as we | made our way out of the event center, | started tearing stuff down.

“Give it a few months and all you girls can have a fun night.” Alec muttered in dull excitement.

“Please, try to rein in that enthusiasm.” Penny laughed.

Tattooed Luna by Mrs Smith Chapter 430-“No can do.” Alec nodded as he pulled Ice to their car. Jasper was in the distance trying to get a fighting Emmy in his car and Jacob headed straight to his. We walked over to the car Emmy brought for us to head home in.

Opening her side, I let her get in before going to the drivers side.

“Do you want me to drop you off and then go to the morgue or do you want to go with me?” I asked, putting the car in drive, we were first out of the parking lot.

“I’ll go with you.” Penny said simply, like we were just going to get ice cream.

“You sure?” I asked.

“Sure am.” Penny looked out the window. Reaching over, I took her hand in mine as we drove the hour home. At some point, Penny’s eyes closed but her head never left the head rest. It wasn’t until we pulled into the driveway at the pack house did I wake her up.

“We’re home already?” She asked, looking around confused.

“We are. You fell asleep quickly.” Getting out, I walked over to her side and opened the door for her.

“I haven’t been sleeping the best.” “Why didn’t you just let me take you home?” I asked as we walked inside.

“I won’t be sleeping better until this belly is gone.” Yeah, there wasn’t anything I could do to help with that.

“Maybe you need more pillows under you for support?” I tossed an idea out there.

“Maybe.” Penny yawned as the morgue door came into view.

“Alpha...Luna.” The guard bowed.

“Are you the one that found him?” I asked as he opened the door.

“No, patrol did. I have been standing guard until you came.” We walked inside and the guard went over to the cooler. Opening the door, he pulled the dead guy out. “Is this how he was found?” Penny took a deep breath in and a few steps back. Looking at her, I waited to make sure she was steady before looking back at the guy. His face wasn’t touched but every inch of him was black and blue. That is, where the skin was still attached. Chunks of flesh were crudely torn from his body. Some were hanging on by a thread and others were just completely missing.

“Yes. He was naked when we found him, except he had this stuffed into his mouth.” The guard handed me a phone.

Pressing the side button, it turned on and asked for a thumb print. “Did you or anyone open his phone?” “No, Alpha.” The guard had taken a step back and watched from a distance.

Grabbing the guy’s thumb, I held it up to the thumb print and pressed down.

My blood ran cold as I read the message. Looking at the guy, I never seen his face before and this wasn’t a coincidence. Vin found out about my guy and he had him mutilated.

It was like the phone had a factory. He very well could have been since I had to leave but this means Vin is way ahead of me.

“Who is it?”
