Tattooed Luna by Mrs Smith Chapter 431-“Was there anything else found on him?” I asked, trying to keep my cool.

“No, that was it.” “I want a full examination with fingerprints and everything on this man.” I commanded before grabbing Penny’s arm and pulling her out of the morgue.

“Colt? What is going on?” Penny asked again as we left the morgue.

“Give me a second.” I said and continued to guide us out of the packhouse and into the car. As soon as we were both locked in, then I pulled out my phone.

Dialing Alec’s number, I had to wait three rings before he finally | answered.

“This better be important.” “My informant was found dead outside of my pack tonight.” Silence. Alec didn’t speak but there was some wrestling of clothing before I could hear Ice in the back ground.

“Who’s on the phone?” “Are you sure?” Alec asked, ignoring Ice.

“His phone was found on him with our last exchange.” “Damn. Vin?” “That’s what I think. Not sure how Vin found out about it or how he even found him.” “We need to find his informant.” Alec | muttered.

“Alec, he was mutilated. We have to assume he talked.” % “He didn’t know anything that would cause us concern, did he?” “Nothing major. Just kept tabs on Zac.” I said, calming down.

“He’s had a bullseye on his back for years, this wouldn’t change that.” Alec was trying to rationalize it.

“Damn.” “Yeah. I’ll come over tomorrow and we can figure out our next move.” Alec sighed.

“Okay.” I said before I hung up.

“I take it that was your informant?” Penny said after a moment, “Yeah. He had been following Zac.

Basically just keeping me updated on things. He was one that dad used and was the reason dad always stayed one step ahead.” “Vin tortured him.” Penny said quietly.

“Yes, he did.” “You should have stayed. You could have saved him.” Penny sounded like she was crying. Looking over, I saw a single tear slip down her cheek.

“We don’t know that. Vin could have had him way before I even got there.” “What do we do now?” Penny asked as I put the car into drive.

“Go to bed and figure out our next move in the morning,” I said. I wasn’t sure how to feel. I was more pissed than anything but I don’t understand how he even figured out who it was.

This was a low blow and now I needed to play on the same field as him.

Getting home, Penny and I walked up to our bedroom. “Can you unzip me?” Penny asked as she turned around.

“Sure.” My mind was focused on anything Vin might know now. So, when I unzipped Penny and walked away, I wasn’t fully prepared for her to come up and unbuttoned my shirt for me.

I was only half paying attention when she pulled it off me and started working on my pants. My hands ran up and down her arms but my mind was still focused on what I could do about Vin.

Sparks erupted across my chest but it wasn’t until my dick entered something warm and moist that my attention got adverted completely back to Penny.

Looking down, she was looking up at me with my dick in her mouth.

“Pennnnny.” I moaned. One hand went to the back of her head and the other rested against the wall for support.

Fuck, I loved when she was straight forward. It had been so long since we made love. With the pregnancy and everything else going on, one of us was always passed out before anything could happen.

Her hands wrapped around my legs and dug into them. I had to force my knees to stay straight and not buckle under the pleasure. She didn't let up and didn't slow down.

"Oh, Colt!" She moaned as I slipped my finger between her legs.

"Please!" She begged.

I didn't bother answering as I just lowered myself. Due to her bump, I couldn't see her face but her hands grabbed handfuls of the sheets when my tongue licked her lips. Her legs moved up and down the harder I sucked.

Tattooed Luna by Mrs Smith Chapter 432-"Oh! OH! OH!" Penny got louder and louder the faster I moved until she was about to cum and I stopped. Her eyes rolled back but I didn't give her a second before I shoved my dick deep into her core.

Instantly, her head snapped back as she screamed out my name. Each time I pumped in and out, I watched her body react to mine. Legs trembling, her hands wrapped in her own hair with her eyes stuck on mine. Her swollen plump breast bounced with each thrust, almost choking her as I moved.

«yES!" She screamed as her orgasm hit at the same time mine did. Pumping a few more times, I made sure I was empty before falling beside her on the bed.

"Thanks." She muttered as she patted my hip.

"Thanks?" I asked, laughing as I tried to catch my breath.

“Good job?” Penny looked at me and smiled. “Good effort? Which adjective would you like?” “None of those.” Penny laughed as she rolled over into my arms and we fell asleep together.

“What time is Alec coming over today?” Penny asked. I had gotten up and got dressed by the time she even opened her eyes.

«I am going to go meet him at our office. Come up with a game plan on how we want to move forward.

That was a big fuck you from Vin so now we need to repay him.” ~~ “Any ideas on how you are going to do that?” Penny asked.

“None. I’ll call you when we are finished.” I said as I walked over.

Bending down, I gave her a kiss before walking out. “Love you.” “Love you!” She yelled but T’was already on the stairs.

It was record time between making it to my car and the time arrived at the packhouse. Either there just wasn’t any traffic or I drove way too fast. Either way, no one died so it was okay...right? «About time you got here.” Alec was sitting on the porch when I got out of 2/0 my car.

“How long have you been here?” “Five minutes.” Alec shrugged as I walked past him.

“Barely anything.” Rolling my eyes, we made it to my office before I set my keys down.

«Kristen had a plan for us.” Alec crossed his arms over his chest as he looked at me.

«What is that?” I asked. Sitting down in my chair, I looked at him, waiting.

“Bomb the castle.” «Do what?” asked to make sure I heard correctly.

«Flatten the bitch.” Alec took a seat.

“What about all the innocent people in there?” I asked. Surely there was some girls in there that didn’t deserve to die.

“Every war has collateral damage.” Alec shrugged.

“Kirsten came up with this?” I asked, not sure I believed it.

“She said find a way in and poison them. I said flatten it.” Alec shrugged.

“That sounds more like it. Poisoning them will still kill innocent people.” “We could try to sneak in and do some damage.” Alec offered.

“Like how?” “What if we use Zac to our advantage?” Alec had a look in his eye that made me feel like I wasn’t going to like this plan.

“Let him get captured and get brought into the castle. He can release some poison or something.” “Maybe, or he could end up like my informant.” “Do you know when the next sell or event will be?” Alec kept on thinking.

“I don’t. If we do anything to the castle, they will realize that Gunther and Kara are being tracked.” “That is if they haven’t already. You did show yourself to Gunther.” Alec reminded me.

“He didn’t find it since I can still see I want to punch him in the gut like he did us.” I wanted to hurt him as bad as he hurt us.

“Why was this not your first plan?” I asked.

«I still want to flatten it. Fuck them all and just drop a few bombs.” Alec sighed.

Tattooed Luna by Mrs Smith Chapter 433-“I have another idea.” Alec leaned forward.

“What’s that?” I was ready to kill someone.

“My team has a newly developed airborne virus. It’s a viral bug that when breathed in, causes your blood to not clot and you bleed out. Similar to snake venom. We would need to introduce it into his air conditioning system. There is an antidote we would need to give Gunther and Kara.” «Why wasn’t this plan A?” “well, it’s not 100% effective and still lightly experimental. They might still live. Their systems might not be deadly.” «well, we can watch and who doesn’t die can get shot.” I said simply. Even if it doesn’t work, we can still watch them panic.

«still need to get the antidote to Gunther and Kara.” Damn. “What is it?” “p pill.” «Hmmm.” There wasn’t a lot of options.

«gneak in and lay it in their bed?” I was clearly aware of the sarcasm in my voice.

«or command a girl to doit.” Alec looked at me.

“What?” “penny took over that pack. As her mate, you are their Alpha too. If they didn’t denounce their ties when they were forced to serve Vin, they will have to obey you.” “well, shit. Still need to get close though.” Standing up, I moved to the window.

«you would. Every move you make will have to be precise. You can’t make a mistake or you will be dead. We can’t take an army.” «we could take a few men.

Not many.

just the top of the elite. They would have to stay next to you and that will be hundreds of yards away.” «We can have a few people as coverage.

My men are trained.” I saw Alec shrug in the window reflection.

«what’s life without a little excitement.” I said dully.

“They are still at the castle. Might as ls” +15 BONUS well get a move on while they are still there. Otherwise, they might take a trip and we could miss them.” Alec stood up.

“Alright...” The office door opened and Penny walked in. “How soon can.

You be ready?” @&» Shutting the door, Penny walked to her desk and sat down. “Give me an hour or so. I need to get my men and things ready.” “Alright.

Call me when your ready.” I sighed.

“Penny.” Alec nodded at her and walked out.

“So, I take it you are going to be gone again.” Penny didn’t even look at me but kept looking at her computer.

“Yeah, not sure how long.” I said as I walked over to her. When I got close enough, I saw she was looking at baby stuff.

“We can’t let that man’s death go.” Penny sighed.

“I like the dark greens but the light shade.” I said pointing to a pattern.

“Sage green?” “Sure. I like that green with blue and creams or a deep blue with grays.” I pointed out a few more designs.

“What about for our daughter?” “Is there a flower design in that color scheme?” I asked.

“Sure.” Penny types something in and floral designs popped up.

“This one.” I said and pointed one out.

“Do you like that?” I asked.

“I do actually.” Penny sounded surprised. “Thanks!” “We will need to paint their rooms.

These colors don’t match what is in there.” I watched her shift through a few different things and add it to her chart.

“This is like....stupid expensive.” Penny looked at me.

Not wanting to see how bad this is going to hurt, I didn’t look. “We have three kids coming, it wasn’t going to be cheap. Pick out everything we need.

You need to make a registry for the baby shower so you can put some items on that.” “True...” Penny looked unsure.

“It’s really okay. We will be fine and we don’t exactly have time to look around, Just buy what you picked out.” Kissing her cheek, I stood up and walked over to my desk.

“When do you need to leave?” “As soon as Alec is ready. We set up a plan. Not sure how good it will be but we shall see. The hard part is attacking without giving Gunther and Kara away.” “Hopefully you just kill Vin and then it’s a moot point.” Penny said like she was only half listening.

“That would be the hope anyway.” “Don’t get killed. I’m not raising triplets by myself.” Penny gave me a look. I was looking at the trackers when I glanced up and saw her expression.

ww TY EON “I’ll do my best.” Smirking, I got up.

Most of my stuff was still packed but I needed to pack more clothes. Going to the closet, I started pulling out a few different combat options.

“Exactly how long do you plan on being gone?” Penny’s voice was much closer than I expected.

“I honestly don’t know. Hopefully just a few days. Depends on how well the plan gets executed.” “Is it dangerous?” Looking out, Penny was sitting on the floor, against the wall. She was watching me toss stuff on the floor with partial amusement and concern.

“Everything is dangerous but Alec will be there and we are bring the top of our elite men. The goal is to not be seen so hopefully I won’t be in any real “That’s not a bad idea.” Apparently, she took it factual.

“Moon Goddess with your belly being the world. Little Red Riding Hood. Hell, cut up a baby doll and make three sets of arms and legs coming out of your belly with blood.” “Wow, that was a lot.” Penny looked at me like I grew three heads.

“Hey, that Moon Goddess wasn’t bad.” I said defensively. I thought that was good for coming up with it at the drop of a dime.

“It was actually. I’ll keep thinking but I like that idea.” “Thanks. This is all I should need. I have a few more things but then I need to get done and we will head out.” “Yeah. Just be safe please.” Penny sighed as she looked at me.

“I will. I’ll text you often and let you know I am alive and well.” I promised as I kissed her cheek.

“You better.” She said as my phone rang.

Tattooed Luna by Mrs Smith Chapter 434-We had to take a van this time. Alec was driving, I was in the passenger seat and five men were in the back.

These men ranged from skinny and short to tall and wide. However, they all excelled in their own ways with their own specialties. However, all of them were extensively trained on the sniper and long range rifles.

Their hand to hand combat were impressive but it was knife skills that really shined. If we had twenty more of these guys, we would rule the entire world.

Only Alec and I have ever beat them and we had the alpha power advantage.

By the time we arrived, it was late into the night. Since everyone had slept the drive and Alec and I switched off, we drove straight to the castle. The trackers were still there, moving around the castle. Parking about four miles from the castle, we walked three until we found a good lookout position that was higher up.

Alec and I waited as the men set everything up. The only thing making any noise was the owls hooting in the distance. Taking a sniper, I got on my stomach and looked through the scope.

It was insane how good I could see.

People walking around the castle, even this late at night shocked me. Every room in the castle was pitch black. We would need to scope out all the cameras he had up. Thankfully, we already had a good idea of where they were at and what traps he had but we needed a much larger area this time.

However, we had a secret weapon there. The smallest guy, Blake, was actually a tiny dude. So much so that he wolf was literally the size of a normal wolf. His skills were so good that he even moved and acted like the animal.

With no human component to it, his wolf blended in so perfectly that he actually spend a summer with a wolf pack. Using him, we would be able to map out the layouts and blend in.

I watched him shift and run off. The only down side is wolves roam in packs. If we had a single wolf walking around the castle, that would look suspicious. He needed to join a pack and get them to come around the castle. Till then, we were collecting data.

Pulling out my phone, I texted Penny.

'We made it, turning phone off, text in the morning. Love you.' Immediately turning it off, I put it in my bag and waited.

Alec had a map that he pulled out from last time. It was what we marked last time. We were able to even get some from when we watched Gunther leave the castle. Following him was easy enough and I don't think he even realized he was being followed.

Though, he did turn around a few times so maybe he did.

"How many guys did you see?" Alec came over me to. Going back down to my stomach, I started counting.

"At least five." I kept looking around for me but didn't see much. "There is one person at the front doors and one at each corner from what I can see.

Then there are men walking around." "At least two men in direct eye contact at all times over each part of the castle." Alec summarized.

"Seems that way." The front door opened and I watched Vin step out.

"Holy fuck." I said, surprised.

"What?" "Vin is standing at the front door! Get me a bullet!" I whispered as I kept my eyes on him. Alec moved around behind me before shoving a bullet into my hand. I had to take my eye off Vin to load the gun. Fuck, if I was able to just shoot him and leave, that would be fucking great! Loading it in, I looked through the TE scope again but this time, he wasn't there. "Do you see him?" "Lost him." My heart rate was going so fast that I had to close my eyes and focus on steadying myself. A fast heart rate is the difference between a kill and amiss. Looking through again, I noticed the men running around more urgently. "Something is happening." I said. I had a weird feeling about this. A few more men got their guns and laid down beside me.

Alec grabbed one and looked too. The front door opened and Gunther stepped out, looking rather pissed. He was looking at the men, yelling something but I wasn't a lip reader.

"Can anyone read his lips?" Alec asked.

"Not from this distance." Someone replied.

"From the East!" I heard. We all moved our attention to the East as three men were dragging another man in.

"Colt, where is Zac on the tracker?" Alec asked.

"P11 kill him." I whispered angrily as I got up and went to my bag. Pulling out my phone, I had to turn it on.

We watched as the men were hit a few times but nothing more than that.

Their mouths looked like they were yelling but we couldn't make anything out.

"Colt..." Alec asked.

Tattooed Luna by Mrs Smith Chapter 435-"Damit, what the fuck are we going to do?" I asked.

"Hold up." Alec said.

"What's happening?" Laying down and looking through the scope, I saw as the men stood up. The guards brought them inside the castle before Vin and Gunther walked in behind them.

Closing the door, the guards outside started walking around like they did before.

"They went inside." "Fuck, they will probably torture him the way they did my informant." "Colt, you can't let that happen." Alec sighed.

-y CV VNU “Fuck. Fuck. Fuck. Okay, this is what is going to happen. I am going to move in now. Somehow, I’ll sneak into the castle. You boys need to get eyes on all sides of the castle and provide cover for me. I’ll plant the damn pills and find the bastard.” “Colt, you’re going in basically blind.” Alec looked over at me. I couldn’t see his expression but I could feel his judgement.

“Do you have a better idea? Would you like to go?” I asked as I dug through my bag. Pulling out different knives and other objects that might help me.

novelenglish.net “You heard him. I need a man on every side of the castle. Not a single window is to be dark.” The men instantly grabbed what they w TV BUNS needed and walked off in different directions. “Alec, if something happens to me...” ~ “Don’t. Don’t say that.” Alec shook his head.

“I’m serious man. This is the single most dangerous thing I have ever done.

If something goes wrong...” I had to pause. The thought of not coming home to my mate and my children...

“I’ll take care of her.” Alec put his hand on my shoulder. “You just focus on coming out of there alive.” Alec handed me my ear piece. Turning it on, we waited until the men all got into position. “Alright men, there is no room for error.

All your training comes down to this. Alpha Colt’s life is on the line, don’t fuck this up.” Alec nodded at me. Time to start my journey.

I had a little ways before the security cameras started, however, | stayed against the trees as much as possible.

Pushing Penny from my mind, I had to work on steadying my heart rate.

novelenglish.net Irregular heart beat is how mistakes are made. Calm heart, calm mind. That is what I kept repeating over and over in my head. @ “Getting close to the cameras. Slow your pace.” T heard in my ear. It would be stupid of me to not listen to these men so I did just as I was told. Hugging the trees, my feet slowed down so minimal sounds to nothing was heard.

“STOP!” I heard urgently. My body became a statue. “Go on the other side of the tree, there is a camera with thermal scanning. Wait till I tell you then move to the tree to the north.” Slipping around the tree, I waited as my eyes looked around. Even with wolf vision, I didn’t see a single camera.

“There is a camera to the west so stay on the east side.” I heard another man say.

“Now!” Jumping to the tree to the north and hugging the east side, my breath stayed slow and steady.

Pausing, I didn’t move in case there was another camera but no one said a word. I almost wished they would tell me what tree for the entire way but since I didn’t want to speak and let my breath get picked up, I stayed quiet.

Slowly, I moved from tree to tree.

Everyone was quiet enough that I started to wonder if they were still there.

Every now and then, I would pause and wait. Not sure why but I waited for someone to jump out and yell boo or even a sound of a gun. After a few moments of nothing, I would move on to another tree.

novelenglish.net “Thermal on your right. Hold till signal.” T heard. My back instantly pressed against the tree and waited.

Thankfully, T didn’t have to wait long.

“Now!” He said, my body reacted instantly as I moved to the next tree.

“I can’t be certain but watch your footing. I am catching glimmers of string reflectant.” Crouching down, I tried to look at the forest floor in the moon light. It was almost impossible to see but I started noticing a few Thankfully, when I finally did get to the castle, the guards looked half asleep.

Walking around with their heads pointed upwards to keep their eyes open.

“You will have exactly a five second window to leap from the tree you are against, to that bush under the window. There are thermals on the trees and the guards are canvassing.

Best option is to tuck and roll. Stay low and don’t get too high.” Understood.

Need to pull some James “As soon as I say go, go. Hold your position.” He said. Holding my breath, I waited in the crouch position.

easy, being still in the bush on my back was another. Still, I became a pole and just waited to see if they spotted me.
