

Tattooed Luna by Mrs Smith

Tattooed Luna by Mrs Smith Chapter 436-As the footsteps pasted, my body relaxed. Instant relief flooded me. Not that the danger was over but the key was to take one obstacle at a time. I was relying so heavily on our men that it was a little anxiety ridden.

“Not detected. Hold position.” I heard in my ear. Shifting over, I stayed below the bush but moved more on my legs so I was in a better position if was discovered.

More than once, I just keep telling myself to stay calm. Calm heart, calm of the bush and attack everyone. However, I kept pushing that down and taking things slow. Slow and steady wins the races.

“In ten seconds, reach up and check if the window is unlocked.” | Looking up, the window was only about five feet off the ground.

However, I was still going to have to jump to get over it. Normally, this wouldn't be an issue but I was judging my time frame was incredibly limited.

“Now!” I was ready. Quickly standing up, I barely lifted it and shut it again before going back down under the bush.

“It's unlocked.” I heard someone say.

“What's inside that room?” Alec asked.

I couldn't judge his tone but he sounded calm.

novelenglish.net “Appears to be a storage room. I can see shelves and boxes.” “So, stuff that can fall and create » . ~~ noise.” Alec summarized with annoyance.

“It's either that, find another window or walk through the front door.” “There appears to be a cellar door in the back.” Another guy side, unsure.

“No visual inside.” “That’s too risky. There could be prisoners or fuck who knows what.” Alec sighed.

“He has about a fifteen second window to stand up, open the window and close it before the thermal will catch him.” Well fuck me. I couldn’t give him them my input as I kept hearing footsteps walk past me. One small whisper and I am found. Fuck, breathing too loudly and I am found. = “Colt, you are going to have to make a quick judgement call. Open the window and assess what it looks like. If you need to close it and wait for the next window, do so.” Alec was being very direct. He didn’t like this plan but we didn’t have many options.

two... NOW!” Standing up, my fingers grabbed the frame and pushed up. The way it slid up was easy but my eyes immediately saw a sensor. Slamming it shut, I got low and ran along the castle walls.

“BREECH!” I heard people yell as they ran past me as I continued to run in the opposite direction.

novelenglish.net “Shit! There was a sensor!” I heard in my ear. £1 “The window! Look around!” The guards shouted. More footsteps filled around me. As I snuck up to the front of the castle, there was a small crawl space under the stairs that led to the front door. As quickly as I could, my body flattened on the earth before snaking in.

Trying to cover my tracks, I pushed my hand back out and smoothed the dirt around. Dust fell on my face as more men ran down the front and began to look around.

“Look in the bushes!” I heard. My breathing wanted to start panting but I kept my body steady. Flattening my body against the wall, I tried to blend in.

“The fuck! Colt! Where are you?” My ear was blowing up but between them and the guards, I couldn’t hear | anything really well. Just catching bits and pieces of it.

“Stairs.” I whispered as I looked around.

“Can you get to the other side of the castle? Most everyone is looking around the window. The door is open if you can slip out on the other side and get inside.

Move quickly as they could see you at any point. No one is guarding the front right now.” Trying not to think, I just moved.

Crawling to the other side, the opening was blocked by a wooden barrier. It was nailed in. If this wasn't a sign to bail, I wasn't sure what was but I didn't have an option at this point. Slowly, I pushed against the wood. Inch by inch, the nails groaned as they came out.

Thankfully, the bushes were full, thick” and completely covered me as I slipped out from the stairs. Pushing the wood back against the stairs, so if anyone looked, it looked normal.

novelenglish.net “Time.” I whispered as I got ready.

Thankfully, it was still completely black out and only the guards had flashlights out. Opening the front door, I tried to make myself as small as possible and slipped in.

“Everything normal. False alarm.” 1 | heard the guard yelled. ) Looking around, the foyer was as what you would expect from a castle.

Massive ceilings that echoed everything. Marble and velvet lined the floors with a huge chandelier. There was a door to my immediate left.

Jumping over, I took a chance and opened it. The only relief I had so far was looking into a broom closet at this point.

Looking at my boots, they were covered in dirt. If I was going to be successful, I needed to get ride of my dirty clothes.

Tattooed Luna by Mrs Smith Chapter 437-Untying my boots, I was able to slip those off easily enough. Then came my vest, however, I needed my vest. Doing the next best thing, I just shook off my clothes, allowing the dirt to fall to the floor. Surly, they wouldn't find this mess until after I was long gone.

“Yeah! YEAH!” The door suddenly opened and I froze. My hands were visible in the light that was coming in from the foyer. “Kiss my ass.” A guy whispered as he tossed in the broom.

He must not have been paying attention because the closet shut a moment later.

“Can you give us an update?” Alec asked in my ear.

[didn't answer right away. Instead, I finished cleaning off my body and listened to the world around me, The night was running out so my time frame was getting shorter and shorter, Once I was sure no one was around, I responded back.

“In a closet off the foyer. Getting ready to move.” “Holy Fuck. Good, your alive.” I heard someone say in relief.

novelenglish.net “Any ideas on where I am going?” I asked as my hand wrapped around the door handle.

“None. Dungeons are usually where the prisoners are kept. However, you need to give the antidote to Gunther first.” “You boys better be ready.” I said before shutting up completely. Turning the knob, I looked out into the lobby.

No sign of guards and assuming they put Gunther and Kara in a guest room, I just started opening doors and looking around.

“Most likely there will be cameras.

Look for anything that could be considered suspicious. I put a laser in your vest that will just make the picture go fuzzy. It only works if the laser is on the camera. The person watching it will think a bug or something is on it and not worry about it. Chances are, there are cameras in every single room. Stay to the shadows and careful with your movements.” So, no pressure. Just be a cameleon and blend in. Getting to the first door, I opened it and didn't see anything. The bed was empty but since I didn't move the door more than an inch, I just shut it and continued on. Going to the next door, I did it again.

Cracking the door — open, I peaked in. When there wasn't anyone in the bed, I closed it and kept going. So far, I found a bathroom, three closets and four bedrooms.

Usually, the kitchen and living rooms are on one side and sleeping rooms are in the rooms above. Taking the stairs, I went as slowly as possible. My socks made it a little slippery but at least I wasn't leaving any tracks from my shoes.

novelenglish.net "Why does he want it done tonight?" I heard a door open from below. Going up three steps, I slipped into the shadow and didn't move. Holding my breath, I continued on. "They aren't going anywhere." "Not sure man, the last guy he cut up didn't say a word. He was fucking pissed off." My heart wanted to start— pounding. My informant didn't talk.

"Yeah but this guy is just a fucking roach that won't die. I don't think it will matter if he talks or not, he won't see daylight." Their voices got quieter and quieter.

They were going to be questioning Zac tonight. That made this even more important to find Gunther and get the fuck out. Moving quicker, I kept checking rooms. A few times, I saw someone in bed but it was either someone I didn't recognize their smell or only had one person in there.

Going to the next hallway, I opened the first door and was about to close it when I saw a little glimmer of a sparkling shoe. Figuring it wouldn't be a maid or servant's shoe, it would have to be Kara's. Slipping in and shutting the door quietly, I was able to get up next to the bed.

The feeling of eyes on me was strong but as I looked around, I didn't see any obvious cameras. Still, I knew they were there. "Please!" Kara's whine came out as she turned over in her sleep. Sweat had covered her face and she was sporting a fresh busted lip. A little purple was starting to show up.

"Hurry up. Wake him up and tell him to take the damn pills and get out! I can see people starting to move around in the windows." I heard in my ear.

novelenglish.net Walking over to Gunther's side, I put my hand over his mouth. His eyes instantly opened and he became defensive.

Dodging a left hook; I push my aura out on him and held my position.

As soon as he realized it was me, he became even more rigid but relaxed.

“The fuck?” “Take these pills. Give these to Kara.” Shoving the pills in his hand, I took a few steps back.

“Take them if you want to live.” I said simply and walked to the door.

Cracking it open, I slipped out and shut it behind me.

“Get to the dungeons. Should be | somewhere towards the back. There is a ton of movement.” One guy said | urgently.

“We only have so many eyes out so be careful.” Another guy said.

Tattooed Luna by Mrs Smith Chapter 438-Before either of us could respond, blood splattered the wall and his eyes glazed over. His body slumped forward, into my arms. Looking to the left, there was a tiny hole in the window.

There was a slight panic before I saw the door beside me. It was work opening the door without dropping him but I managed. It was a bathroom.

Trying to make it look like it was just occupied, I turned the fan on, locked the door and shut it.

“Clean up any blood.” I heard just as I was about to shut the door.

“Don’t fucking shoot them through the temple then.” I barked as I grabbed a towel, got it wet and peaked out from -_y TN TviYe the bathroom. The coast was clear, allowing me to quickly clean the blood.

Tossing the towel into the bathroom, I made sure the bathroom was locked and left the room.

Following the noise, I made it to the stairs and paused. “We don’t have eyes down there.” I heard in my ear.

Looking over, the window was right there. As soon as I went beyond the door, I was alone. Looking around, there wasn’t anyone around me.

“Blake?” I whispered.

novelenglish.net “No word yet.” Alec said.

“I might need a distraction.” I said, voicing my thoughts.

“We got you covered.” A guy said, a little too excited.

“Alec, you remember what we talked about...” I looked out the window. I wasn't sure it was Alec I was looking at but I found comfort in believing it was him.

“You can tell her yourself when you make it out.” Alec replied with a thick voice.

Nodding in understanding, my hand wrapped around the door handle. After taking a deep breath, the door opened and I slipped in. Complete darkness eloped me. The sound of flesh hitting flesh echoed down the hall. How the fuck was I going to get Zac out of here was unknown. There was a door to my left.

Opening it, it was just another fucking closet with bleach and stained bloody rags. We all had closets like this but this one was rather small.

“Set off another alarm. Get the men outside and I'll figure it out from there.” I whispered.

“Seriously? That will bring Vin out and make all the guards mobile.” Someone said over my ear.

“The other option is me killing all these fuckers and them knowing we are here.

Neither option is good but if there is a chance I can do this without being noticed, the better.” “Colt..” Alec said.

novelenglish.net “Do it, Alec.” I didn't hear anything but about two minutes later, I heard another alarm sound.

“WHAT THE FUCK IS GOING ON WITH THE FUCKING ALARMS? WHERE IS PATRICK AND WHY ARE THEY MALFUNCTIONING!” I heard Vin stomp past me with multiple other men fun either way. €» Only when a whole minute went by and there wasn't another man going by, then I decided it was clear. Opening the closet, there wasn't anyone in sight.

Moving quickly, I pulled out my knife as I came up to a room with an open door and bright light.

"Fuck you." I heard a very tired Zac growl.

"You're the dead man." I assumed a guard said as he laughed. Peeking around the room, Zac was looking down. Tied to a chair, his face and body was bloody.

His shirt was off and there was carvings in his skin. I couldn't see exactly what it said but there was only one guard. His back was towards me.

Making a quick attack, without thinking, I just leaped forward. The guard turned around just in time to see me coming with a knife. He couldn't get a thought out before the knife plunged into his neck. Not wanting him to mind link anyone. My hands wrapped around his head, snapping it clean. His body fell to the ground as a pool of blood decorated the floor.

"Colt?" Zac looked shocked and confused.

"Do you know how to get out of here?" I asked. Going behind him, I cut the rope off his hands and legs. His body fell forward but I didn't have time to him to be weak. "Alec, it would be a great time for Blake to show up." I said as I heaved Zac up by the arm.

"Damn! That hurts!" Zac groaned.

novelenglish.net "Don't give a fuck. Get up or we are both dead." I growled back. That did Sy "9 BONUS the trick as Zac somehow gathered the strength and got to his feet.

"I'm at the back door." I told Alec.

"Hold position." I heard. There was no stopping my adrenaline from pumping now. My heart was going and it was all I could do to stop the panic from rising.

"Now! Get in the woods!" "Move!" I said to Zac as I opened the door. Basically, throwing him out the door, we made a mad dash to the tree line. A small wolf was waiting for us.

He got down and I tossed Zac on his back. When he stood up, he looked at i; me.

“Get inside the castle!” By the time we made it back to the base, the yelling had stopped and they had turned on their own self-defense systems.

We “Did we get Vin?” | asked, praying to the Moon Goddess someone managed to kill him.

Tattooed Luna by Mrs Smith Chapter 439-“No. He never made it outside from what I saw.” Alec said as he took a shot.

“How did you find us?” Zac asked. His voice was thick with pain. His breathing was heavy and a layer of sweat had formed on his skin.

Ignoring him, I grabbed the binoculars and looked around. Men were coming out of the castle with blood seeping out of their eyes, nose and mouth. “This is working good.” I said, feeling a little hopefulness.

“Gunther and Kara are bleeding but not coughing like the rest.” Alec reported.

“Eyes on Vin. He ran into the woods with a group of men. No eyes on him.”
“Are you going after him?” Zac asked.

Important notice: Dear readers, Please bookmark our new site: to continue reading the Novels. Thank you.Recommend: Clean Your Brower Cache now to access missing chapters.

“Gunther and Kara took off after him.” The same guy reported.

Alec looked at me. “Hold positions.

Finish off our task here.” Closing my eyes, I just listened to Alec’s gun go off a few more times before he sat up. “It was the right call.” “You let him get away.” Zac had a bitterness to him.

“Why the fuck are you even here?” I rounded on him. “We had a fucking plan and you royally fucked it up! Why can’t you just fucking stay in the shadow and not get caught?” I tried SRE Ea a tr not yell but damn it was hard.

"I had some intel. Didn't count on Vin's men being there." Zac looked away from me.

"Intel on what?" "There was some girls that were being sold. They used to be maids for Vin and I thought they might have some intel on his operations."

"Let's pack it up and go home." Alec said to his men.

"When is the next auction?" I asked Zac.

"Not for another few weeks. After this, might be a long time before they do anything public. Might just stick to private interactions. This was a major punch to Vin's gut. He won't let this go.

This just costed him his reputation." Zac looked at me and meant every word.

"He shouldn't have the man power to retaliate just yet. This would have taken him months to build." Alec chimed in.

"Don't get comfortable. He has allies and could call on them to issue an attack to your packs." Zac looked at us like we didn't take him seriously.

"With our size, he has enough allies to think they stand a chance?" I asked.

"You pissed a lot of alphas off by killing Rip. They might team up with Vin to kill you and then will probably turn and kill Vin after. No one likes Vin but they hate you more." "The enemy of my enemy is my NOME a ac friend." Alec muttered as he kept packing his stuff up.

"Exactly." a "That's not a bad thing. Just fucking attack and we can battle this out. No more of this sneaking around shit." I wanted this over and if a battle was coming and bring it on.

"Only a handful of men made it into the woods." I heard from behind me as the men started coming back.

Grabbing my phone, I loaded the tracking and looked at them. They were running still, like they were being chanced. Zac was too busy watching everyone pack up that he didn't pay attention to my phone. Still, I closed it and put it in my pocket. My feet were getting a little chilly from not having shoes but it is what it was. &9 E.

WY TIS BON “Where are your shoes, Alpha Colt?” Blake asked me as he shifted back into his human form. Sie “Had to take them off. Tracking dirt and leaving a trail.” “I can shift back...” Blake offered, awkwardly.

“I can shift too if needed but thanks.” Sighing, I grabbed the rest of my shit and started off towards the car.

“Little help here!” Zac yelled at me.

Feeling somewhat annoyed by him still, I grabbed his arm and yanked him up.

“Better?” Watching him grimace in pain, he just scowled but kept going.

“How many lives do you have left, Zac?” Alec asked as he came up beside SW 710 BONU us. Probably to make sure I didn’t just kill him myself, “Few more. I ain’t done yet.” Zac had some places reopen and was bleeding again.

Still, my sympathy was extremely low.

No one said a word, not even Zac as we continued the rest of our walk back to the vehicle. Shoving him in the back, we got in. The sun was starting to rise and we were all exhausted. Still, I forced myself to stay awake with Alec.

“You can sleep.” Alec sighed.

“I’m good.” “Where are they?” Alec asked. We were only a few hours from home at this point.

“Still walking in the woods. Headed East.” “Unless they go back and look, he i ize it was us until later.” might not realize it w.

Alec sounded hopeful.

“That would require more luck than I think I have.” That would be nice for Vin to believe Zac did something but I doubted he was that stupid.

“Yeah. We need to assume he knows it was us.” : “We should really bomb that place.

“The biggest question is if he will call in his allies and exactly how much support will he be able to get?”

Tattooed Luna by Mrs Smith Chapter 440-“Colt, you have been staring at that screen for two weeks now.” Penny placed her hands on my shoulders. It has been two weeks since we visited Vin. For two weeks, my eyes felt like they haven’t left the tracking screen.

Gunther and Kara have been stationary at an abandoned houses in the middle of the woods. Never once leaving there.

There was no way of us knowing if Vin was coming and going and without just showing up, we had to act like we had no idea where they were at. It was already risky that we showed up at the castle.

“I know. I’m not sure what I am looking for but I can’t seem to look away.”
“Has there been any word on I movement with the auctions?” Penny asked. She waddled over to the sofa and sat down. Her belly was really rounding out. She was at the point in her pregnancy that women with one baby felt like at 40 weeks. Still, she was being a trouper. Since her blood pressure was staying within the normal range, she has been able to keep doing whatever she wants.

However, at the end of the day, her ankles are pretty swollen. €5 “Some whispers but nothing that was concrete. Zac claims he is healed and ready to go back out there. At this point, I don’t think that is a good idea.

He has used up most of his lives and I might not be there a third time to save his ass.” Sighing, I turned off the tracker and leaned back in my chair.

“I doubt you are going to stop him, either way.” Penny was rubbing her belly with both hands.

“The Halloween party is getting closer.

Are we ready for it?” I asked, changing the subject as that one has been the center of our lives.

“Oh yeah. We are good to go. Food will be arriving soon and all the decorations arrived yesterday.” Penny’s face lit up.

“Decide on a costume?” “I think I am going to go as the Moon Goddess. That will be simple, comfortable and easy to put together.” “Good.” Bp TAA dad “What about you?” Penny looked at me with a raised eyebrow.

“Do you have something in mind you want me to go as?” I asked, trying to read her expression.

“Father time.” Not that it sounded appealing but I didn’t care enough to go against whatever she wanted. “Sure, if that is what you want me to go as.” “You don’t have to.” Penny frowned at me.

“T just don’t want to wear a beard like that.” If I remembered correctly, he had a long gray beard with robes. I was okay with the robes and a large clock hanging down my neck but I’ll drawl the line at the beard.” “Ha!” Penny laughed as the door opened and Alec walked in.

“Did I interrupt?” He looked at Penny with a little amusement. ig We never really told Penny what danger I was in. Obviously, we told her what happened and everything but left out the sheer danger I put myself into.

Not even mentioning what I asked of Alec. That will be an unspoken thing that Alec will take to his grave.

“No. Colt doesn’t want to wear a long gray beard for Halloween.” Alec looked at me. “Would you want to wear it?” I asked in self defense.

“Shit. Kristen wants to dress up as a disco ball and wants me to dress up in 70’s attire. Afro and all.” “Suddenly, a beard doesn’t sound bad at all.” I said, smirking at his expense.

“I said no fro but the rest was fine.” He took a seat and sighed. Ee “I’m sure she already bought you the costume and forgot to tell you.” I placed air quotes around forgot and Alec nodded in response. @ “We just knew you boys were busy and we walked to make sure you had an option. That way, if you didn’t have time to find one before the party, we had you covered.” Penny said as she struggled to stand up. Alec jumped up before I could and gave her a hand.

“Thank you.” “Where are you going?” I asked.

“Lay down. The Chinese I had for lunch is making me swell. I am ready to go home and let you boys talk shop.” “Do you need a ride or do you have someone to drive you?” I asked.

“Will do! Bye!” Penny waved as she walked out and shut the door.

“She looks uncomfortable.” Alec said as soon as he was sure she was out of ear shot.

“How’s Ice?” I asked.

“She is loving being pregnant. Other than no drinking, she has really felt good and loves showing off her bump.

The shop is going great, too.” Alec shrugged as he placed some papers on my desk.

and see who is on his side still, he might be there.” I started thinking out loud.

“We can really play this one of two ways.”
