Chapter 11 - If I make a mistake, please let the law punish me

“If I make a mistake, please let the law punish me.”

Even in this situation, Sonia didn't yell out of form, but calmly complained to the viewers in her heart:

“It's forcing me to practice sword again, and it's for me to fight Felix. What do you want me to do?

Break into the starry noble society and become your spy?”

“It's not as complicated as you think,” the viewer said: “Just to arrange a battle for you, and the strongest person here is him, which happens to be so, nothing more. It has nothing to do with whether he is aristocrat or not, Of course it's better to be a nobleman. I especially like seeing noblemen being beaten up. If you can, can you step on his face with your foot after you win... Forget it, I heard that some star nobles are very abnormal, you still fight His ass... forget it, when I haven't said it.”

“Can you change someone? I don't want to get involved with Felix!”

“Why?”

“I studied him a little bit.” Sonia said, “He is strange and dangerous.”

As the most accessible noble son of Jianhua University, Sonia naturally also chose Felix as a hunting object. But after some intelligence gathering, Sonia gave up this seemingly attractive option.

has nothing to do with his * attributes, Sonia does not think that “Fa” is her obstacle. What really stopped Sonia was Felix’s family status and his ex-girlfriends.

Although it is rumored that Felix is the walking and multiplication machine of the Ten Maidens, after a simple observation, Sonia discovered a secret-Felix never took his girlfriend to spend the night outside.

Felix lives in a villa off campus. Every night after training, he will drive away from school. His “Pentium Silver Tiger” is the only one on campus, and Sonia occasionally meets him at night. He never took his girlfriend to leave school at night, and always went home alone.

Of course, it is also possible that he likes daylight, but Felix changes his girlfriend every three days, and there are many noble ladies. Sonia does not believe that he can wipe people out in three days.

It is better to say that he is collecting stamps rather than lust.

Secondly, as the son of the Duke of Vosloda, he has been reduced to Jianhua University. It is hard not to think of whether he is involved in any political disputes.

Sonia is not interested in fighting and growing with him. She hopes to catch the young master of the upstart new aristocracy that has emerged in recent years, so that she can enjoy her success and have a lot of room for manipulation. If the means are good, it is not impossible to divide the family property. .

All kinds of factors add up, Sonia can be said to be lack of interest in Felix.

She has a whole forest, so naturally she doesn’t have to hang from this tree, or even stay away from him-part of the reason is that Sonia has never been in contact with nobles, and her knowledge of nobles is obtained from novels.

The traditional aristocrats in the novel, except for the male protagonist, are all villains who oppress the good and righteous and commit murderous acts. The aristocrats who are not evil enough will even be kicked out of the aristocratic ranks and become commoners.

Sonia, who has always been cautious or pessimistic, naturally doesn't think she can meet a good nobleman. And Felix's traditional aristocratic image, which is obviously more biased towards the villain, naturally made Sonia stay away.

"So, if you are asked to fight him, you are likely to get in trouble?"

"That's it!" Sonia said quickly, "I don't know what you want me to do, but I am so weak now, after all, I have to develop well first, and if I can be low-key, I should be low-key. I shouldn't—"

"This is simply great." The viewer said: "I just want you to get into trouble. I hope you can make a high profile all the way and kill all enemies in front of you to scum... and this is not your wish. ?"

"Where did I have such a naive and arrogant wish!" Sonia roared.

"Then," the viewer bowed and saluted: "I wish you a victory in the first battle, beat the swordsman genius, and kick the starry nobleman."

"No, I will never—"

"Felix Vosloda, a genius of swordsmanship."

Sonia raised the wooden sword, pointed at Felix, and said in an arrogant tone that she would never use: "Nuo Da is a sword flower, and you are qualified to be my stepping stone to summon Shu Ling."

"Can you dare to fight with me?"

There was an uproar in the training ground. The swordsmanship apprentices showed expectant expressions. Celia almost bit her lips. Sure enough, her target was Felix, and she also used such an old but effective way to directly talk to Phil. Lix catches up!

Ingulite said in amazement: "Sonia, you have just trained for two hours. Even if you have a swordsmanship test, you must wait until tomorrow..."

"No, it should be now." Felix walked out of the crowd and stared at Sonia closely, "Two hours, three thousand six hundred swords, from beginners to swordsmanship, you are the most talented person I have ever seen. , Is also the second person who frightens me. If I don't take up your challenge now and I wake up tomorrow, I won't even have the courage to draw a sword in front of you."

"Now, it may be the only chance I can beat you. Even if others think that you are inadequate and bully you because of your lack of physical strength, I can't take care of it-at least after defeating you tonight, I still have the qualifications to chase your back. And courage!"

"And you are right, Nuo Da is a sword flower, and I am the only one worthy of your challenge. Those Void Swordsmen who are older than me are nothing more than water droplets and stones to motivate Void knowledge, and they cannot be compared with you and me. . So... come on!"

While was speaking, a large area of the training ground had been vacated, and the two of them stood facing each other holding training swords.

Sonia uses the most common mid-stage posture, but Felix holds the sword in one hand, the sword is held high and sideways, looking like it is full of flaws.

"Fluctuating posture..." Even if Ingulite was a little worried about Sonia, she couldn't help but look forward to their competition at this time.

The Vosroda family is famous for swordsmanship. There are four secret stances that can summon Shu Ling, and the wave stance is one of them.

In the swordsmanship faction, the posture is not only the cultivation method, but also the summoning method, and even more the combat method.

In other words, the reason why the swordsman can summon Shu Ling is because he has enough understanding of the combat training of this swordsmanship posture, so as to arouse the resonance of the virtual realm, and turn the knowledge of the virtual realm into a Shu Ling.

Every basic magic spirit summoned by the swordsman on his own means that he has perfectly mastered the corresponding swordsmanship stance.

Felix had also tried it with others before, but because Ingulite concentrated on studying (not popular), she couldn't get any news, so this was the first time she saw the legendary fluctuation posture, and couldn't help but see the hunting heart. At first, I thought about finding a chance to compete with Felix anytime.

At this time, she found Sonia's cheeks flushed and she kept winking at her. Ingulite was a little puzzled. After a little thought, she understood: Sonia was showing off to her that she was able to see the fluctuation posture first!

Although you are geniuses, I will definitely catch up with you!

Ingulite clenched his fists and made a cheering gesture with Sonia.

Sonia is completely helpless-isn't the distress signal in her eyes obvious enough? Why doesn't Ingulite hurry her away!

“What’s the point of fighting with you controlling my body like this? Even if you win, you win. I’m just a bystander.” Sonia said in her heart, “If you just want to control my body, then do whatever you want. Anyway, I can’t resist again.”

“But last night you let me undergo a trial in the dreamland and you let me do swordsmanship training. It should have allowed me to grow, right? Why don’t you let me control my body back, and I promise to fight with people, even if one Not enough, can I just hit two?”

“Do you think it counts, one plus one equals two?” The viewer standing next to Ingulite said, “And, who told you that I was controlling your body fighting?”

“Isn’t it you or me?”

“It’s you.” The viewer walked up to her and held out her sword tip a little higher: “Do you think I really choose someone to fight with you? Do you think I can really ignore your will? , UU reading www.uukanshu.com forcibly control your body?”

“Why do you train swordsmanship? Because you defeated me in a dream last night, you realize your talent for swordsmanship, you know that you have the opportunity to gain strength, and you know that you have wasted too much time.”

“That’s why you came here, working hard to drain the last drop of stamina, just to let others see, let your roommate Ingulite see that you have the talent to be proud of in addition to your appearance!”

“Why would you challenge Felix? From the first time you saw him driving the Silver Tiger on the school road, seeing him being sought after by everyone, seeing him becoming a hot spot in the school, you are already jealous of him, envy him, and hate him. He. You can’t complain about your mother who has worked hard to nurture your mother, so you can only resent this kind of person whose family status far exceeds yours.”

“Why can they be born with everything? Why can they beat themselves everywhere?”

“Don’t lie to your heart, Jian Ji.” The viewer said: “It is you who want to defeat him, it is you who want to prove that you Sonia Servi is no worse than anyone!”

“You came to the training ground, you held the wooden sword tightly, and you wanted to be dazzling! Everything comes from your sincerity!”

“Actually, I’m really curious, why do you think I am controlling you. After all, no one can see me except you. Don’t you feel strange about it? Don’t you doubt...I am a view of real existence. Or is it a phantom of your soul?”

“I’m finished, now, you can put all the responsibility on me, and then...” The viewer stood next to Sonia, pointing at Felix and said: “... Enjoy the pleasure of trampling on genius with peace of mind!”

pedal!

There was a loud noise, and the two raised their swords at the same time, and they fought together!
