

Technician's Manual - Chapter 15

"Bring me a toast, a glass of milk... what is that? Braised Lala Fatty? Let me have one too."

Ya Xiu sat down with the dinner plate and watched the dining crowd in the restaurant.

In addition to prisoners wearing classic skins, there are also many prison guards eating here. This prison does not seem to have a hierarchical system. The guards and prisoners seem to be equal. In other words, the guards do not care about the prisoners at all, and the prisoners will not deliberately.

Annoy the prison guards and build a harmonious prison with each other.

The prison guard can understand it regardless of the prisoner Yaxiu. After all, it is human nature to fish, but why should the prisoner stay away from the prison guard?

After all, people with good brains can break the law. Those who can enter the prison must be fools who are ignorant of the current affairs, such as a certain cult leader who was arrested by a few police (hunters).

The same is true. Those prisoners must have a bad brain, but why don't they provoke and tease the guards?

"Because it's locked."

Jian Ji sat next to him, poked the braised Lala Fei with her finger, and said casually: "Your nape chips are all locked. You are not allowed to attack others, you are not allowed to insult others, and you are not allowed to hurt yourself. The reason why Broken Lake Prison is so free—every bone and nerve of yours are shackles and shackles."

“Look, there is a pictorial on the wall over there, “Creating a Civilized Prison”, with pictures of executed prisoners and students. It seems that the creative achievements here are good, and there will even be students coming here for spring and autumn trips.”

Ya Xiu touched the back of his neck subconsciously and opened his eyes wide: “This—this is a bomb in my neck—”

“Do you really want to speak so loudly?” Jian Ji pointed at the prisoners who came over.

Axiu immediately blocked his mouth with toast: “So as long as I wear this chip for a day, wouldn’t it be impossible to escape from prison? There must be a positioning function in the chip!”

“More than that, if they want, they can even make the chip emit a strong current, which will directly stop your heart.” Jian Ji spread her hands: “So what you said is correct. In theory, you can’t escape from this prison. Don’t even talk about escaping. Go out, when you want to dig a tunnel with a spoon, the chip will stop you from destroying public property.”

“There is no way in theory, but what about in practice?” Ya Xiu took a sip of the milk and found it unexpectedly sweet.

“Actually...none.” Jian Ji rolled her eyes: “I’m not here, how can I know so much?”

“Where did the information you just mentioned come from?”

“There is also a copy of “Encyclopedia of Broken Lake Prison” in your light curtain folder. I looked through it when I was free.”

Ya Xiu was stunned, thinking so, Jian Ji is just a paper man in the game, how could she know about this world?

But this is troublesome. She can actually look through other files in my light curtain. I also want to see if there are any mysterious websites in this world...

"I can't do anything about escaping from prison, but if you want to become stronger, I have a few ways." Jian Ji said, "In short, you should find someone else to fight. There is nothing better to understand than fighting. You say yes. Right, viewer?"

"Wait, according to what you said, prisoners can't attack others, then how can I make a sultry fight?" At this time, Ah Xiu finally reacted. This prison has already banned the possibility of inmates from the root.

"Ask me everything, do you want to escape or I want to escape?" Jian Ji sneered: "Then you have to call mother when you are hungry?"

"Mom! Grandma!"

"Looking for death!"

Ya Xiu touched her forehead, thinking that it was really unfair. It was clear that Sword Fairy was illusory, but why did she bounce her forehead so much...

A Xiu looked around for a week and found that the bald-headed man just took a glass of milk to drink, and he walked over and sat across from him. After knowing that other people could not beat him, Ya Xiu suddenly became bolder.

"Hi, my name is Ya Xiu, what is your name?"

"Hi, Ya Xiu, I have a boyfriend." The bald man was very friendly.

Axiu was immediately stunned. He felt that the nearby guards and prisoners also looked over after hearing the words, and quickly explained: "I didn't mean that, I just have some questions to ask you!"

"I understand, I understand, really." The bald-headed man nodded very understandingly: "When you strike up a conversation, it is really embarrassing to meet someone like me who actively confesses to have a partner. But my love for my boyfriend is Pure and sincere, and can't accommodate the slightest suspicion, so from the beginning, show your attitude and be kind to everyone. You are also a good boy, Axiu. I believe you can definitely find your love too."

"I...no...I just..."

"Ask." The bald-headed man gestured with encouraging eyes: "You don't need to be so embarrassed. It's just a normal thing to fail to strike up a conversation. If you can't think of a perfunctory question for the time being, I can wait slowly. But honestly Ah Xiu, the way you got my attention is too old-fashioned, and you deliberately knocked down my milk, like a schoolboy..."

It's all right now, there are all human and physical evidence, and it can't tolerate Ya Xiu's denial.

Axiu suddenly felt that the eyes around him became subtle. He opened his mouth and finally gave up explaining: "I want to ask, if I want to fight, is there a way?"

The brawny bald man was startled slightly, "Are you new here? Ah, I think of it, you are the one who has been very popular in the news these days...the head of the Four Pillars Church?"

"Well~ I am actually quite interested in the Four Pillar God, but unfortunately I have a boyfriend, otherwise I can give you a chance..."

Ah Xiu really couldn't stand it anymore and wanted to turn around and leave, but he had to listen to the next sentence of the bald man: "If you want to move your muscles and bones, then you are really looking for the right person—ah, I haven't introduced myself yet. I. It's Ronald, a member of the Death Fight Club."

"Dead Fight Club?"

"Because of the chip, we can't hurt others. But the death fight club has obtained the permission of the warden. During the death fight, we can temporarily lift the chip restriction and fight. This is the exclusive benefit of the death fight club members."

Ya Xiu was surprised: "Does the prison even agree to this kind of thing? So humane?"

Langner shook his head: "But there is a price to do this. The biggest price of UU reading www.uukanshu.com is the origin of our community's name."

"Death fight?"

"That's right." Langna drank the milk, stretched out his big tongue to lick the milk mark on his mouth, and looked at Ya Xiu with a calm look.

"If you participate in a death match, one of the parties must die before it can end. The death match, the death will stop."

Ya Xiu blinked: "But... the prison uses so many methods to restrict us, will they allow us to kill?"

"If someone died, it doesn't mean that you killed someone." Langner said with a smile: "There is a medical room next to the death battle table. As long as the body can be maintained intact and the time of death does not exceed five minutes, it can be rescued by dragging it to the medical room. Of course, as for what sequelae left behind, it is uncertain."

“Moreover, even if a prisoner is really dead, the prison won’t care. After all, all the prisoners here are going to die.”

There is a feeling of ‘people will die if they are killed’, and Ya Xiu agreed: “Yes, yeah, after all, people will die.”

“Huh? You seem to have misunderstood what I mean.” Ronner was a little surprised: “Have you never heard of the reputation of Broken Lake Prison outside? Didn’t you watch the Blood Moon Trial on the 1st and 15th of each month?”

“what?”

“All the prisoners in Broken Lake Prison, all, are death row prisoners.” Lang Na said calmly:

“There is no appeal, no escape, deprivation of political rights for life.”

“After entering the prison, all prisoners can eat and sleep well, exercise, watch movies and play games, but the only thing that is not allowed is deprivation of their lives-even their own lives.

Because waiting for us, there is always only one ending- “

“Participating in the Blood Moon Trial, under the eyes of the public, the death was extremely miserable.”
