Chapter 26 - Hunting record

There was a blast, and the two simultaneously rushed in opposite directions to avoid the blast!

However, there was a sudden explosion in the air, and the shotgun shot by the hunter exploded into a shotgun, and both Yaxiu and Sonia were inevitably scratched by the shotgun!

Yaxiu thought it would be very painful, but when the bullet passed through his body, he only felt that he had lost something. He felt as tired as he had just run 400 meters.

He suddenly remembered that he is now in a state of consciousness, not a real body at all, and being hit by a bullet is only a loss of soul energy.

Compared to the suddenly realized Asia, Sonia, who had gone to the Void Realm Improvement Class, had long expected this.

She rushed towards the hunter after seeing Chi evading, and at the same time held up the wooden sword and slashed towards the hunter far away. The body of the sword gathered dim white light, and it turned into a crescent wave and rushed towards the hunter with the wave!

“Wave Sword!”

This is the secret magic spirit and wave sword of the Vosroda family! The relatively rare long-range attack Shu Ling in the swordsmanship faction can derive powerful attack miracles such as “Splitting Wave” and “Silver Wheel Burst”!

“Three thousand craftsmanship, with one gun in your hand, only fast and unbreakable, all invincible!”

The hunter sang while avoiding, his long gunshot tube shimmered, and he even shot another gunshot! Obviously it looks like an old flintlock!

But Yaxiu and Sonia, who had been prepared for a long time, were naturally no longer in a hurry. Without mentioning that Yaxiu used a lazy donkey to roll to escape, Sonia directly took the knife and rushed forward, playing a whirling wave slash!

Clang!

Not only was the bullet shot directly knocked into the air, even the hunter who was a few steps away was severely cut by the Whirling Wave, and even the long gun was cut off the gun tube!

Needless to say, Ya Xiu rushed directly to the bear and hugged the hunter. Sonia, who had recovered from Juhe, made three moves and two moves, and raised the wooden sword with a fierce blow!

There was no sound. Under the crit of the wooden sword, the hunter turned into a thick fog and dissipated, and a notebook made of cowhide leather fell onto the rocky ground.

“Hey, hey, you almost burst my head!”

Ya Xiu looked at the wooden sword that was cut into the rock, and touched his head with lingering fear.

“Isn’t it a little too close.” Sonia’s voice was full of regret, and she bent down and picked up the cowhide notebook. After turning two pages, she shook her head and handed it to Ya Xiu.

Yaxiu took it and found it was a... how do you say, hunting records?

The first page of is the information of a mouse. It contains the mouse’s weight, size, skin color, cause of death, and even a photo of the mouse being nailed to the wall by a bow and arrow.

The second page is a spider, the third page is a rabbit, the fourth page is a roe deer... Finally there is a little difference to the tenth page, not only because the prey this time is a ferocious carnivore, the wolf, but also because of the note of the owner. Learned a new skill: he used a trap to kill the wolf.

To page 23, the person who was registered on the note this time was an orc soldier with a full body armor and a long gun.

The next twenty pages are all orc soldiers who were shot to death, but what attracts Ashiu's attention is that the owner of the note seems to have abandoned his past bow and arrow skills and used the blunderbuss brought by the orc soldiers to match the traps in the jungle. Fight against an entire army of orcs with your own strength.

The note did not include any details about the owner of the note, but Ashiu could faintly see a story: a teenager born in a hunter family since he was a child, living in a jungle village, inheriting the hunting skills of his father's generation, but suddenly an army of orcs appeared Destroyed everything about them. Their proud bow and arrow skills can't shoot through the armor of the orcs, but the fire blunders of the orcs can easily shatter their bodies.

The young man abandoned his bow and arrow and learned the art of gunshot at an astonishing speed. Then, in this jungle where he could not go the wrong way with his eyes closed, he hunted the orc soldiers like a * of death and avenged the villagers.

From the expressions of the orcs before death, the horror of the teenager can be seen: the expressions of the first orcs who died were calm, and they should have been headshots suddenly while peeing and shit; the expressions of the orcs who died behind became more and more frightened. On the run; the last dead orc abandoned his weapon and hid in a bush, his face was pious, as if begging death not to notice him.

After the orc soldier died, the owner of the note seemed to have a confused life. The hunting objects in the note included animals, people, orcs, goblins, rich men, robbers, prostitutes, and ordinary people.

After a hundred pages, the owner's hunting object was suddenly fixed: the orc.

has a total of three hundred pages of information, all of which note different orcs hunted by the owner.

Although none of the above is mentioned, Ya Xiu can guess one or two from the cause of the orc's death:

First of all, the orcs were killed by the owner of the note with the "Admirer 5 Standard Rifle";

Secondly, there was more than one bullet hole in the orc.

Therefore, Ash inferred that the owner of the note should have joined the army and killed the orcs in the war.

He didn't just kill soldiers, but also children, women, old people, and even his own comrades in arms... No matter who the opponent was, he did not change his weapon, and would always end the opponent's life with a blaster.

Further on, the note master seems to have settled down, not only because his hunting objects are herbivores such as rabbits and deer, but also because the people who died in his hands are no longer soldiers and robbers, but maids, servants, and slaves.

It is worth mentioning that the rate of death of servants is not slow.

He probably has a manor with many servants serving him, but because of the aftereffects of the war, he is equipped with guns at all times. Once he has doubts, he has no hesitation to shoot the servants...

Suddenly, an old woman appeared in the hunting notes.

Axiu guessed that she was probably the wife of the owner of the note, because what she saw in her eyes was not panic, fear, or loss, but pity.

pity for the owner of the note.

When Adam turned to the last page, he was convinced that the deceased in the information was the owner of the note:

「Carbin Stoly」

“Human Race·Male·56 Years Old”

“Weight: 72 kg”

“Height: 1.76 meters”

“Features: brown skin~www.mtlnovel.com~ hairy, body odor.”

“Cause of death: Killed by a bow and arrow.”

In the photo is a well-dressed vicissitudes of old man. He has raised his hand to the enemy, but he will never have time to pull the trigger because the arrow went through his eyes and pierced his head.

Ah Xiu didn't know who killed him with a bow and arrow. It might be a former enemy, it could be the son of an old woman, or a thief who robbed the house; Ah Xiu didn't know why he was better than a bow and arrow this time. Slow, is the body sluggish, or is it because of contempt for bows and arrows?

Anyway, Cabin Stoly's hunting record is over here, maybe his name will appear in the hunting record of others.

Turning to the end, Ya Xiu found an iron medal in it. I don't know the words on the medal, but since it's made of iron, the value is definitely not high. It is probably the first medal that Carbine has won in his life.

Maybe this medal represents the golden moment in Carbine's life.

Ya Xiu picked up the medal, felt a warm current flowing into his hand, and then a message popped up in the light curtain:

「Continuous Shots」

“One Wing Shu Ling”

“Restriction: Must have long-range shooting tools”

“Basic effect: After one shot, you can immediately take a second shot.”

“Passive effect: increase the accuracy of long-range shooting.”

“Sometimes it's a few seconds slow, and I won't be able to catch it for a lifetime.”

At the same time, a message pops up automatically in the game:

“It is detected that the currency can be recharged, do you want to exchange points?”
