

Temptation 1001

Chapter 1001

"You need to heal my injuries and, if conditions allow, perform an eye transplant for me."

"Furthermore, I want half of the Yagyu family's interests."

"This is my bottom line. If you don't agree, then just kill me."

Yagyu Zhengren was very straightforward and didn't haggle with Su Fan this time.

After finally getting rid of Yagami Takuji and the others, why should he settle for a trivial gain? Why would he be a servant to Su Fan for that?

Unexpectedly, Su Fan agreed to his demand.

Su Fan nodded and said, "Alright, you can have fifty percent of the current Yagyu family's interests."

"However, as the Yagyu family continues to develop in the future, of the additional gains, you can only take ten percent, and the remaining ninety percent will be mine."

"Of course, there's another way to divide it, whether now or in the future."

"The Yagyu family's interests will always be thirty percent for you and seventy percent for me."

Without a second thought, Yagyu Zhengren said, "Seventy for you, thirty for me."

He didn't truly want to die. Life is so wonderful, and having barely escaped death, he couldn't just die like that.

Moreover, he had witnessed Su Fan's capabilities. With Su Fan being there with him, rather than reporting to the Hall of King Yan, it was evident that even a master like Yagyu Shigetaka had died at the hands of Su Fan and his people.

Not only that, but he was also aware of how severe his injuries were.

Having sustained such severe injuries, it was already remarkable to be alive; now he not only survived but could also return to peak condition.

The Yagyu family's interests originally had little to do with him.

But in the future, he could always take thirty percent of the profits from the Yagyu family's operations and have Su Fan as a promising ally and backing.

Yagyu Zhengren could clearly calculate this.

Although the final outcome differed significantly from his expectations, his future life would obviously be better than before.

Su Fan didn't stay in Japan for too long.

After negotiating a collaboration with Yagyu Zhengren, he brought everyone back to China.

Of course, he was quite considerate.

He left Ning Zhengde and Ning Tianhe behind.

Otherwise, with Yagyu Zhengren being so severely injured, a random person with intentions against him could easily take him out.

Yagyu Zhengren didn't cause any trouble.

It's not that he didn't want to, but he knew the proper course of action.

Currently, he couldn't possibly contend with Su Fan, and cooperating with Su Fan was the best choice.

Later, he'd realize that there never was, and never would be, a chance to surpass Su Fan in his lifetime.

Hence, no matter what thoughts he had, he could only remain Su Fan's servant forever.

The fall of the Yagyu family allowed Su Fan to finally breathe a sigh of relief.

Although he had enemies more vexing than the Yagyu family, unlike other adversaries, the Yagyu family was the most troublesome.

As long as he was alive, the Yagyu family would continue to act against him.

The Kutodara Temple of Esoteric Buddhism, and the Paliaya Castle in England, were both more formidable than the Yagyu family.

But aside from a word about pursuing the death of Dampa, the Kutodara Temple had no further response.

The Paliaya Castle had also quieted down for the moment.

It was unclear whether they were preparing a bigger scheme or had given up on pursuing him.

Yang City, Bai Yulan Villa District, Villa No. 5.

After returning from Japan, Su Fan's life returned to normal.

His villa was now filled with women.

Ning Miaoxi, Zhen Bingyu, Yagyu Seion, Yagyu Kaori, and Chen Mei were all there.

But currently with Su Fan was Yagyu Kaori.

Su Fan and Yagyu Kaori were discussing matters in a very unique way.

Su Fan sat on the bedroom sofa, while Yagyu Kaori knelt before him, serving him attentively and offering him advice.

Chapter 1002

Yagyu Kaori is a very capable woman, both in bed and out.

At this moment, Yagyu Kaori is licking Su Fan's little member like it's a lollipop, while speaking.

"Once Yagyu Zhengren's injuries recover, given the current state of the Yagyu family and his prestige,"

"he can effectively take over all the Yagyu family's business."

"There are only two issues that need to be dealt with now."

"These two problems must be solved for the Yagyu family's enterprises to continue developing."

"One issue is whether the Resounding Bug formula can completely control Yagyu Zhengren."

"The other issue is how to get past Yagyu Jyugong and the Kawabata family."

Su Fan has some admiration for Yagyu Kaori.

This woman can still think so clearly and swiftly at such a time.

His hand was not idle but placed on Yagyu Kaori's soft peaks, constantly kneading.

Even though Yagyu Kaori was blushing and her face was burning, she was still able to think swiftly and clearly.

In terms of strategy, this woman is quite gifted, and only Chen Mengfei can compete with her.

While playing with the two small melons in front of Yagyu Kaori, Su Fan casually said:

"The Resounding Bug formula is very powerful and won't pose any problem."

"Even if other Divine Doctors were to intervene, they couldn't unravel this formula."

"As for Yagyu Jyugong and the Kawabata family, what are your thoughts?"

Yagyu Kaori did not say what she thought because she couldn't speak at the moment.

She had put Su Fan's little member into the deepest part of her throat.

After a while, Yagyu Kaori couldn't stand it anymore, so she spat out Su Fan's small member, then coughed violently.

She also responded to Su Fan's previous question.

"Yagyu Jyugong is missing and might not even be alive, so we don't need to worry about him for now."

"As for the Kawabata family, what they need is the Yagyu family's compliance."

"As long as the cooperation between the Yagyu family and the Kawabata doesn't change, there won't be any conflict."

"However, Yagyu Jyugong and the Kawabata family remain potential threats."

"Even if we don't find a way to get rid of them, we must have the power to do so."

Yagyu Kaori has inherited the fine tradition of the Yagyu family, always finding ways to root out enemies, even potential ones.

Su Fan approves of her approach.

By preparing well now, when the storm hits, there will be no panic.

Su Fan thought for a moment and decided to tell Yagyu Kaori everything he could about his current affairs.

Since he had already taken possession of Yagyu Kaori inside and out, he could trust this smart and obedient woman a little more.

After listening, Yagyu Kaori slightly parted her lips and said:

"In that case, the most important thing for you now is to find the sixth woman with an extreme Yin constitution."

"If possible, it's best to find all nine women with the extreme Yin constitution."

"Having absolute power can solve all problems easily."

"But why are you aiming to win the Huaxia Famous Doctors Tournament?"

Yagyu Kaori felt a tinge of emotion in her heart.

Su Fan told her so many secrets, which means he already trusts her completely.

Even though she's just an ordinary person who can't practice martial arts, Su Fan didn't underestimate her or treat her as a mere plaything.

Since this is the case, she is willing to use her body to give Su Fan the ultimate pleasure.

She is also willing to use all her wisdom to help Su Fan achieve whatever he aims to accomplish.

Chapter 1003

Su Fan, of course, would not hide anything from Yagyu Kaori.

"Even though the last twelve volumes of the Qi Huang medical canon have been lost."

"But one of the benefits of winning the Huaxia Famous Doctor Competition is that you can view the remnants of the Qi Huang medical canon, advancing your medical skills further."

"Not only that, but some artifacts left by ancient medical sages will also be awarded to the champion."

"Additionally, I can solve a very important mystery."

"After winning the Huaxia Famous Doctor Competition, I might discover the true identity of my enigmatic grandfather."

Strictly speaking, Su Fan does have a backing.

His backing might be unimaginably powerful.

Even though he is now a Martial Artist at the Gang Qi Realm, he still cannot fathom the depths of his grandfather.

If he had to describe what kind of person his grandfather is, he could only say the man is a medical genius, a Land Immortal.

His grandfather is even more mysterious than the elusive Yagyu Jyugong!

The most straightforward point is that even on the dark web, you can't find any information about his grandfather.

There are very few people in this world who can maintain such secrecy.

Such a situation only has two explanations.

His grandfather is so low-key and mysterious that no force has taken notice of him.

Another explanation is that his grandfather has extraordinary influence, perhaps even affecting the dark web.

Erasing all traces of him from the dark web to the maximum extent.

Whether it's the former or the latter, it's incredibly astounding.

Inside the room, silence fell once more.

Because Su Fan's small avatar once again ventured deep into Yagyu Kaori's throat.

This time, Su Fan did not hold Yagyu Kaori's head to launch the fiercest assault.

He lifted Yagyu Kaori, who had been kneeling on the ground for over an hour, onto the sofa.

Yagyu Kaori's long legs were quickly hoisted onto his shoulders as he swiftly achieved a perfect union with her.

Even though Yagyu Kaori tried her best to endure, Su Fan's impressive size forced her to scream uncontrollably.

Left with no choice, she had to let her mind drift.

During this time, Yagyū Kaori spoke with some difficulty.

She was experiencing a painful yet ecstatically beautiful sensation, but she still spoke.

"What do you plan to do about the female head of the Chen family?"

Su Fan shook his head: "I don't know."

He was telling the truth; he really didn't have any good strategies.

Chen Mengfei was different from ordinary women; he had virtually no means to breach her defenses.

But Yagyū Kaori said, "Have you considered only engaging with her in the most primal form of mutual satisfaction?"

Her words seemed nonsensical, yet they contained some logic.

Generally speaking, when a woman is taken by a man, she needs that man to be responsible.

Being responsible means allowing the woman to live more comfortably, perhaps even enjoy a very privileged lifestyle.

Conversely, if a man can help a woman, be responsible for her, and provide her with an affluent material life.

Then this woman might be conquered by this man and willing to be with him.

Su Fan's strategy was just like that—providing Chen Mengfei with enough benefits to exchange for a chance to engage deeply with her, to stir passion.

But Chen Mengfei lacked nothing, so he never had the opportunity to make a move.

This time, Yagyu Kaori offered him advice from an unbelievable perspective.

That Chen Mengfei, after all, is a woman, and a normal woman at that.

Since she is a normal woman, she will have normal desires.

Can he make Chen Mengfei want to seek him out to satisfy those desires?

Su Fan felt that Yagyu Kaori's words made sense.

But achieving this would undoubtedly be extremely challenging.

Chapter 1004

With Chen Mengfei's looks and figure, as well as her family background, the number of men in this world who desire her is countless.

Yet to this day not a single man has succeeded.

It's evident how difficult it is to seek Chen Mengfei.

Su Fan pondered for a while and did not continue thinking about this matter.

Thinking about matters related to Chen Mengfei right now is pointless.

Rather than longing for the meat that cannot be eaten for a while, better to enjoy the meat in the bowl thoroughly.

Thus, Yagyu Kaori bore the chaos of wild pounding and fierce impacts.

From the originally quiet bedroom came the rhythmic, dense, crisp sounds and Yagyu Kaori's wanton cries.

Su Fan's intense charge left Yagyu Kaori drenched in fragrant sweat, her exquisitely beautiful face flushed with red.

Every thrust from Su Fan received a wonderful response from Yagyu Kaori.

She quietly savored Su Fan's burning intensity, and accommodated artfully.

Her expression showed naturally, while her voice was intentionally made to cry louder and louder, giving Su Fan a great sense of accomplishment.

Making Su Fan feel that each of his assaults had thoroughly conquered this alluringly beautiful woman.

Yagyu Kaori can be described as a truly perfect woman, capable of making a man feel ecstatic with her whole being, and also serving as his strategist.

Apart from being unable to practice martial arts, she is practically perfect.

Of course, she has one flaw, which is that she is infertile.

To Su Fan, such symptoms are no big deal.

However, Su Fan has no intention of curing Yagyu Kaori's flaw; since Yagyu Kaori has this flaw, he can more recklessly, without reservation, infuse his life's essence into Yagyu Kaori.

Under Su Fan's fierce assault and Yagyu Kaori's unabashed acceptance,

Yagyu Kaori's whole body was convulsing.

Streams of clear water flowed down, akin to rivers breaking their banks, cascading continuously.

At this moment, no matter her natural talent, she couldn't think.

Apart from clinging to Su Fan and screaming loudly, she had no other thoughts.

Su Fan had previously withstood the impact of clear flowing streams.

But this time was particularly intense; he endured at least ten times the impact of the clear streams before Yagyu Kaori gradually withdrew from the pinnacle state of bliss.

At this moment, Yagyu Kaori was gasping for air.

All the prior actions seemed to have taken half her life.

Su Fan held Yagyu Kaori in his arms, not separating from her, and under Yagyu Kaori's astonished gaze, went further.

This was something ordinary men couldn't do, nor could ordinary women endure.

Su Fan's dragon head entered the mysterious realm, achieving a deeper fusion with Yagyu Kaori.

Yagyu Kaori was so happy she almost fainted, yet dared not move a muscle.

Su Fan lifted Yagyu Kaori, and they sat face to face.

This position made both of their sensations more acute.

When they talked about matters, it was still dusk; now looking outside, it was already dark outside the villa.

That night, Su Fan didn't leave, and they fell into slumber together in this close position.

By the next morning, they were still not separated.

But Su Fan had to go to work at the hospital; despite Yagyu Kaori's tenderness, he could only enjoy Yagyu Kaori's tender abode again tonight.

When Su Fan left, Yagyu Kaori's secret garden remained unable to close for a long time.

During this period, Su Fan's life had returned to normalcy.

Yet the dark web was constantly bustling.

From Iru D's disappearance to the fall of the Liu Sheng family, the dark web remained lively.

Martial Artists of the Hua Qi Realm and Gang Qi Realm were the mainstay and backbone on the dark web.

Some Martial Arts Grandmasters were also relatively active on the dark web.

Chapter 1005

The most discussed topics on the dark web at the moment are the King of the Magic Staff from the Philippines, Iruidi, and the fall of the Yagyu family from Japan.

Coincidentally, both Iruidi and the Yagyu family have grudges against Su Fan.

So, despite the lack of direct evidence, many people on the dark web are certain that Su Fan is behind these two incidents.

No matter how heated the arguments on the dark web get, Su Fan ignores them.

During this time, Chen Hanqing is also very busy.

Su Fan handed him a large number of Dark Web Crystal Cards, all carrying immense wealth.

The vast wealth of Iruidi, the Yagyu family's numerous high-ranking members, and some of Su Fan's other enemies.

Now, it has all been transferred to Su Fan's account, and his account holds a frightening amount of funds!

When Su Fan was heading to the hospital, he received a call from Chen Hanqing.

"Mr. Su, the funds from those Dark Web Crystal Cards have all been transferred to your account."

"Other items stored in various banks and auction houses are also being transported to Yang City."

"These items will be directly delivered to Villa No. 5 in the Bai Yulan Villa District."

Su Fan nodded and said, "Thanks for your hard work."

After ending the call with Chen Hanqing, Su Fan glanced at his wealth on the dark web.

Not knowing is one thing; seeing it is a shock.

Previously, Bai Man's family was in chaos over fifty million in funds.

In the end, he generously put up the money.

Now his dark web account holds seven billion US Dollars, approximately 48 billion Huaxia Coins.

And these aren't stocks or other securities, but cash flow.

Even on the Forbes rich list, there aren't many with seven billion US Dollar cash flow.

Of course, the Forbes rich list doesn't reflect the entirety of global wealth.

Many wealthy individuals on the dark web rich list don't appear on the Forbes global rich list.

But nonetheless, Su Fan's seven billion US Dollars are real money, capable of making an impact.

He plans to invest a substantial portion of this money into his business empire.

Seven billion US Dollars could place him around 400th on the world's rich list.

Publicly, only about four hundred people globally have more money than Su Fan.

However, on the dark web rich list, it's a different story.

Although the dark web rich list might not be completely accurate, Su Fan's rank hovers around 1000th.

Currently, he is personally wealthier than Chen Mengfei, but the Chen family's total assets still far surpass his and Dongfang Pharmaceuticals.

Not only the Chen family, even the Ning family's total assets far exceed his and Dongfang Pharmaceuticals.

Driving all the way to the Affiliated Hospital of the Medical University, every doctor in the hospital looked at him with nothing but admiration.

People treated him more politely than they did Mayor Jiang Gao.

However, not long after Su Fan arrived at the hospital, chaos erupted.

The chaos was because the hospital's elevator had an accident!

The elevator suddenly dropped from the top floor to the second floor.

Just as Su Fan was about to start a new day's work, the commotion outside began.

"Something happened! Something happened!"

"The director is in trouble!"

Upon hearing this, Zhou Jie immediately ran out.

After all, Zhang Haitao was her nominal husband.

Su Fan also felt slightly surprised. Although Zhang Haitao was old, he should've been able to live for several more years. What could have happened?

He quickly arrived outside the office and saw Bai Man.

Bai Man jogged over, intending to find him.

"Mandy, what's going on?" Su Fan asked, puzzled.

Bai Man grabbed his hand and said, "Director Zhang is in trouble, come with me quickly."

As Su Fan followed Bai Man, running to save someone, he asked, "What happened to the director?"

Chapter 1006

Bai Man said while running, "Not long ago, the hospital's elevator malfunctioned."

"The dean and two doctors descended rapidly from the top floor to the second floor."

A rapid descent and a sudden climb in an elevator are both terrifying events.

An elevator's freefall is little different from jumping off a building, if not more serious.

Su Fan followed Bai Man directly to the emergency room to start saving lives.

The injured this time were the hospital dean, Zhang Haitao, and two orthopedic attending physicians.

Among these three, one had a broken neck and died on the spot.

The remaining two were severely injured.

When Su Fan entered the emergency room, doctors were already trying to rescue Zhang Haitao and the other doctor.

He didn't waste time and immediately joined the rescue effort.

Zhang Haitao was quite unlucky; he could have been active for a few more years, but after this accident, he might have to retire early.

Outside the emergency room, it was crowded with people.

Everyone was quite concerned about Dean Zhang.

Although Su Fan is now the star doctor in the hospital, Dean Zhang has contributed much and suffered for the hospital, and he also decides everyone's job security.

If Dean Zhang were to pass away, the new dean might not be willing to engage in certain under-the-table dealings as he did.

Zhou Jie, Bai Man, and others all waited outside the emergency room.

This emergency procedure lasted a full four hours before there was an outcome.

With Su Fan's involvement, the lives of Zhang Haitao and the other orthopedic doctor were saved.

However, both individuals were still not out of danger and required further treatment.

As Su Fan exited the emergency room, many doctors swarmed around him, eagerly inquiring about the situation.

"Director Su, how is the dean?"

Su Fan replied truthfully, "The dean hasn't completely escaped danger yet and needs continued treatment."

"But we can basically determine that he has passed the most critical stage."

"I will fully commit to treating and rehabilitating the dean next."

There were still some things he didn't mention, that was Zhang Haitao could basically say goodbye to the hospital.

The old Zhang was already aging, and after this ordeal, his body would become extremely weak.

In the future, he would spend most of his time resting at home, unable to make waves at the hospital anymore.

After Zhang Haitao steps down, he will either run for dean or directly become the dean of the affiliated hospital of the medical university!

In his hands, the affiliated hospital will firmly retain its position as the top hospital in Yang City and become one of the leading hospitals in China and even worldwide.

Upon hearing Su Fan's words, everyone had different expressions.

Although Zhang Haitao had many issues, he did get things done once he was paid.

Many doctors' levels and positions did not match.

If Zhang Haitao falls, those people's positions are evidently precarious.

Zhou Jie was somewhat sad; strictly speaking, she didn't have a strong marital relationship with Zhang Haitao.

She was like a canary kept by Zhang Haitao, but now that an accident happened to him, she was still quite sad.

Next, she went directly to the intensive care unit to stay by Zhang Haitao's side.

What Su Fan said to the other doctors earlier, Bai Man didn't believe.

On their way back, Bai Man directly and straightforwardly asked, "Xiao Fan, how is the dean's condition?"

With Bai Man, of course, he could speak the truth.

"Very bad, although we've basically saved him, he won't be able to work in the future and can only rest at home."

Bai Man understood that Zhang Haitao's term as dean was over.

She looked at Su Fan and asked in a low voice, "Do you want to become the dean?"

To other doctors, becoming the dean might be an unattainable dream.

But for Su Fan now, becoming the dean of the affiliated hospital was as easy as reaching into a bag and taking it.

After Bai Man asked, Su Fan nodded, "Yes."

Although for the hospital, this would be a very significant personnel change.

But Bai Man still said, "Then congratulations in advance."

Su Fan smiled slightly and didn't speak.

Because at this time, the two had arrived outside Bai Man's office.

Chapter 1007

Su Fan pushed Bai Man into the office and casually closed the door.

Without giving Bai Man a chance to react, he embraced her, kissing and nibbling in a fit of passion.

After a long kiss, he finally released Bai Man and said:

"Sister Man, from now on in the hospital, it's just the two of us calling the shots."

Bai Man didn't argue with Su Fan's words.

Given her relationship with Su Fan, plus her position as the deputy director.

From now on, it was indeed up to her and Su Fan in the hospital.

Thinking about Su Fan's Eastern Medicine Company, which was quite special.

She couldn't help but express some concern, saying, "Will there be significant changes in the hospital once you become the director?"

Su Fan nodded, pointing to a building outside the window and said:

"In the future, the Medical Conference will have the First Affiliated Hospital and the Second Affiliated Hospital."

"New doctors will first be filtered through the Second Affiliated Hospital."

"Doctors and other staff with strong professional ability can join the First Affiliated Hospital."

"The First Affiliated Hospital will also implement a last-place elimination system."

"Doctors without strong professional abilities will be assigned to the Second Affiliated Hospital for retirement."

Both Su Fan and Bai Man were aware of the numerous leeches within the hospital.

Many doctors, though highly titled, had very mediocre medical skills.

Su Fan wanted to build a top-notch global hospital, and of course, he couldn't have even half a doctor like that.

Zhang Haitao led the affiliated hospital, struggling their way to become a first-rate hospital in Yang City.

Su Fan, on the other hand, would lead the Medical University Affiliated Hospital, step by step, to become a top hospital globally.

However, those matters were still distant.

While looking to the future, one must also be grounded in the present.

Su Fan soon had his large hand climbing Bai Man's soft peak.

At the same time, he asked, "Sister Man, did you miss me during this time?"

Bai Man rolled her eyes and retorted, "Where did you go?"

Su Fan casually replied, "I went to Japan to settle some troubles."

Hearing this, Bai Man couldn't help but feel a bit dazed.

Su Fan back in the day was just a young man docilely managed by her.

Now he had become impressive, not only being worth a lot but also having his own business and soon becoming the director of the affiliated hospital.

Not only that, but he had also been able to resolve cross-border issues.

Most men, after achieving success, tend to look down on their first women.

Su Fan was evidently different, as his restless hands and that little guy making her uncomfortable indicated.

Bai Man should understand exactly how much Su Fan liked her.

When it came to Su Fan, Bai Man found herself unable to refuse, nor did she wish to.

To be honest, during the time Su Fan was away, she did want to have some intimate moments with him.

The hospital was filled with apprehension, but Su Fan and Bai Man's interests were not affected.

The two quickly completed a deeper integration.

Su Fan's strong stature made Bai Man extremely uncomfortable.

Although Su Fan wanted to enter Bai Man's mysterious domain and go further with her.

However, he knew it needed to be done step by step; if done all at once, Bai Man might faint instantly.

Therefore, his actions were gentle, as the current gentleness was certainly for the sake of upcoming intensity.

Bai Man had previously completed high-difficulty integration with Su Fan, and that feeling for Bai Man was extremely wonderful and joyful.

This time, while bearing Su Fan's advances, she also secretly harbored a certain longing.

At the same time, in Japan, at the Liu Sheng family mansion.

Ning Zhengde and Ning Tianhe had already been sent away by Yagyu Zhengren.

Though this guy hadn't recovered yet, he didn't want two overseers around him.

Daring to send Ning Zhengde and Ning Tianhe back home at this time, of course, he had his own confidence, which came from another woman.

Chapter 1008

Yagyu Zhengren had been philandering for most of his life, and even he didn't know how many women he'd been with.

But among these women, there was one who was quite special.

Because that woman was the daughter he had with his first wife, Yagyu Ayame.

In the hospital room, Yagyu Zhengren sat on the bed, while Yagyu Ayame sat on the sofa with a sneer, looking at him.

What she wanted to do most now was to pierce Yagyu Zhengren's heart with the katana in her hand.

She was indeed his daughter, but he had done something terribly frightening to her when she was just a young girl.

If not for that horrific experience, she would not have entered the sordid trade, becoming a slut to be ridden by a thousand, fucked by ten thousand people.

However, her life was destined not to be mired forever.

She gained the favor of a major figure from the Kawabata family, the Yagyu family's benefactor.

Now, she was already one of the core martial artists of the Kawabata family.

As Yagyu Ayame looked at Yagyu Zhengren with a mocking face, Yagyu Zhengren smiled and said, "I'm old."

Yagyu Ayame replied, "You don't seem like you need me to take care of you in your old age."

Yagyu Zhengren nodded, "I don't need you to take care of me in my old age, but I want to give you an opportunity."

This time, Yagyu Ayame did not speak, but her meaning was clear.

That was, what qualifications did Yagyu Zhengren have to say this to her now?

Yagyu Zhengren indifferently said, "Go back and check Su Fan's information, and you'll change your mind."

Although Yagyu Zhengren wasn't a match for Yagyu Kaori, he was definitely not a fool.

This experience had already made him fully aware of Su Fan's potential.

Yagyu Ayame was just a thug and toy at the Kawabata family.

However, if she could pledge loyalty to Su Fan, in the future, she might have a chance to become a true core figure in the Kawabata family.

Su Fan, far away in China, of course, didn't know Yagyu Zhengren was so capable.

His injuries weren't fully healed yet, but he had already begun laying plans in Japan.

But Su Fan's troubles were far from over.

This time, it was the monks of Kuta Temple from Tantric Buddhism who came to settle accounts with him.

The monks of Kuta Temple were accustomed to killing others in the name of eliminating demons and defending the path.

This time Su Fan had killed the Danba Master of Kuta Temple, which was considered reckless beyond belief.

The Tantric sect hadn't troubled Su Fan before because they couldn't spare the attention.

Now, an important Buddhist event in the Tantric sect had concluded, and Su Fan would have to pay the price.

In Tantric Buddhism, at Kuta Temple, in a meditation room, Fu Zan Master was practicing.

Tantric Buddhism had many monks, but not all monks were masters.

Only a very small portion of these monks could become masters.

Fu Zan Master had six dakini, pure maidens serving the holy Buddha.

According to the teachings of Tantric Buddhism, the yin-yang union of a master and dakini could purify all suffering, all pain, and all sin in this world.

In the eyes of ordinary people, these individuals were, of course, seen as lunatics.

But among Tantric believers, all of this was extremely sacred.

At this moment, Fu Zan Master was practicing with the six dakini.

After finishing his practice, he would go to exorcise demons.

Su Fan, of course, had no idea that he had once again become a demon.

During this time, he had been treating Zhang Haitao and another orthopedic doctor.

Under his care, both had recovered quite well.

Zhang Haitao's condition was even personally inspected by the leaders of the city's health office.

Therefore, before Zhang Haitao had fully recovered, two appointment consultation agreements had already been delivered to Su Fan and Zhang Haitao.

One appointment was for Zhang Haitao to become the lifelong honorary dean of the affiliated hospital of the Medical University.

The other appointment was for Su Fan to become the dean of the affiliated hospital of the Medical University.

However, this wasn't a formal appointment, but a consultation agreement, requiring consent from both parties before the formal appointment could be made.

So at this moment, Su Fan came to Zhang Haitao's hospital room.

On the hospital bed, Zhang Haitao spoke somewhat unwillingly, "Xiao Fan, I was unlucky not to take the hospital to the next level."

Su Fan earnestly said, "The Dean has already done very well; if it were someone else, they wouldn't have been able to lead the hospital's development so quickly."

These words were half-true; he and the shrewd Zhang Haitao obviously would not fully believe it.

Chapter 1009

Zhang Haitao was very unwilling; he originally thought he could hold on until Su Fan won the provincial championship and even achieved a good ranking in the national renowned doctor competition.

By that time, choosing to retire would leave no regrets.

During his tenure as hospital director, he cultivated a top-notch doctor for the hospital, which would indeed allow him to retire with honor.

Now, unfortunately, he encountered an unlucky incident like the elevator malfunction.

After a sigh, he could only look at Su Fan and ask, "Little Fan, what are your plans after becoming the director?"

Su Fan casually replied, "I will fully prepare for the renowned doctor competition next, as for the hospital's various regulations, they will still follow those set by Director Zhang."

Hearing this, Zhang Haitao was naturally very gratified.

Although unwilling, at this point, he could only choose to retire with honor.

After Zhang Haitao agreed to take on the honorary title of lifetime honorary director, the position of the affiliated hospital director fell to Su Fan.

The notice about the transition between the old and new directors quickly became known to everyone in the hospital.

For a while, some were happy, and some were worried.

However, although Su Fan wanted to make extensive upgrades and transformations to the hospital, he wasn't in a rush.

There was still a transitional period for many doctors.

The inauguration ceremony for Su Fan was to take place in two weeks.

For other chief physicians to become the director, they must first become deputy directors.

But Su Fan becoming the director was the aspiration of the people and the fulfillment of their wishes.

In terms of medical skills, capability, or sense of responsibility, he won the respect of the vast majority of people in the hospital.

Therefore, many doctors found him becoming the director to be natural.

Although he was to attend the inauguration ceremony in two weeks, Su Fan's life recently had not changed much from before.

It was still the same routine of the hospital, company, and home.

Since the downfall of the Yagyu family, his life had gained a brief calm.

He now still had two enemies: Paleia Castle in England and Kuo Toa Temple of Tantric Buddhism.

And there were also Yagyu Jyugong, as well as the Kawabata family of Japan, these two potential enemies.

Of course, there were also others, lurking and watching him covetously from unseen places.

But regardless, his life during this period was peaceful.

Up next, he had four things to schedule.

The foremost thing was the inauguration ceremony of the director of the affiliated hospital of the medical university in two weeks.

After the inauguration ceremony, he needed to help Ning Zhengde and Ning Tianhe take down the second branch of the Ning family.

Then, he was to participate in the city-level competition of the China renowned doctor competition.

The last thing was to find a way to obtain the sixth woman possessing an extremely yin physique.

Apart from these four things, there were indeed some other matters, big and small, to handle.

But those things were not urgent, so there was no need to rush.

Su Fan, at this moment, arrived at his company.

The progress of Oriental Medicine was extremely rapid.

The existence of Su Fan provided Oriental Medicine with technological barriers unimaginable to other companies.

In addition, he provided the company with substantial funds.

Not only that, but Oriental Medicine also became strategic partners with giants like Gu Yu Capital.

In this situation, the development speed of Oriental Medicine was naturally astonishing.

Oriental Medicine had developed from the most promising company in Yang City to the leading company in Yang City.

This time, Su Fan came to the company and happened to see Shen He.

During this period, he had been busy traveling far and wide.

As for Shen He and Wang Xiaoxiao, he hadn't spent time with them for quite a while.

Thinking of this, he went to his office and had Shen He and Wang Xiaoxiao come to his office.

His office was divided into a working area and a resting area; the place he intended for Shen He and Wang Xiaoxiao to go was, of course, the resting area.

Chapter 1010

Su Fan used to come to the company and wouldn't stay long.

Most of the time, Su Fan was meeting with Chen Hanqing and Zhao Chunqiu to discuss things.

This time, Shen He and Wang Xiaoxiao were a bit puzzled, not knowing why Su Fan called them over.

In the CEO's office, Shen He and Wang Xiaoxiao saw Su Fan.

Su Fan poured a cup of coffee for each of them and then sat down between them.

He wasn't shy with Shen He and Wang Xiaoxiao either.

He embraced them with one arm around each.

After being held by him, Wang Xiaoxiao couldn't help but laugh, "I thought President Su called us here to talk about work, but it turns out he came to flirt."

Su Fan shook his head, "I'm not flirting, I'm openly planning to 'devour' you both."

Although Shen He had been with Su Fan for a long time, she was still somewhat naive.

At this moment, she even asked, "Isn't it really about work?"

To her question, Su Fan answered with his actions.

Shen He was directly pulled into Su Fan's arms and kissed.

Shen He was a very feminine woman, beautiful and virtuous, clearly a good wife and mother type.

After being kissed by Su Fan, her pretty face immediately blushed and gradually became burning hot.

Su Fan kissed her once, and then held Wang Xiaoxiao in his arms with one hand.

Then, holding the two, he walked toward the rest room of his office.

After Wang Xiaoxiao was thrown onto the bed, she curiously asked, "President Su isn't going back today?"

Usually, when Su Fan visited the company, he would head to Villa No. 5 in the Bai Yulan District.

But judging from Su Fan's demeanor today, he clearly didn't intend to return.

Su Fan nodded, "To me, staying at the company is the same as going home."

As he spoke, he had already pinned Shen He down.

Shen He had some hesitation towards his fiery passion.

But her hesitation was clearly futile; her apparent reluctance only made Su Fan more eager to conquer her thoroughly.

While Su Fan was engrossed in the tender scene, the Fu Zan Master of the esoteric sect had already left the tenderness behind.

The Fu Zan Master was originally planning to secretly infiltrate Yang City to assassinate Su Fan.

But shortly after setting off, he was contacted by the Kawabata family.

Although the Yagyu family was currently in the hands of Yagyu Zhengren and still served the Kawabata family, Yagami Takuji's eldest daughter, Yukai Yagami, had married a real power figure of the Kawabata family.

Upon learning that the Fu Zan Master was going to settle scores with Su Fan, the Kawabata family was certainly willing to assist.

The fall of the Yagyu family made both the Kawabata family and the esoteric sect's Kutuo Temple feel threatened.

For this operation, both sides wanted it to be foolproof.

As a result, these two factions naturally collaborated.

Fu Zan Master was a very capable martial artist, currently in the late Gang Qi Realm with a perfect mastery, and had a record of skipping levels to kill Gang Qi Realm peak masters.

To ensure Fu Zan Master could flawlessly behead Su Fan, the Kawabata family sent him six assistants.

This time, they were different from before with Demba.

They wouldn't challenge Su Fan directly or fight him in a tournament.

Both the Fu Zan Master of the esoteric sect and the six experts of the Kawabata family were planning to assassinate Su Fan.

Furthermore, considering that Yang City was Su Fan's stronghold, where he had many helpers, the Fu Zan Master and his team didn't act rashly after meeting up.

They started investigating Su Fan more deeply to find the perfect timing to strike.

With the formidable strength of the Fu Zan Master and the professionalism and caution of the Kawabata family's six assassins, this time, if they didn't act, it was fine, but once they did, Su Fan was bound to meet a violent end!
