

Temptation 106

Chapter 106: Nalan Xue

"Oh, stop it."

When Su Fan touched her, Liu Ye trembled all over, almost letting the water spill. She quickly pushed Su Fan's hand away and then said with a serious face.

"I need to talk to you about something important, be serious."

"Hehe, Director Liu, please go ahead."

Liu Ye said

"Later, we are going to have a very special patient in our gynecology department. You must stay out of sight and let someone else handle it, understand?"

"Ah, I don't understand."

Su Fan shook his head.

Liu Ye had no choice but to explain to Su Fan.

"It's Narlan Xue from the TV station who is coming."

"To do an interview?" Su Fan was confused.

Liu Ye lowered her voice and said.

"Narlan Xue is not just the TV station's director; she is also the mayor's wife. She is coming for treatment."

"The mayor's wife?"

Hearing this, Su Fan was also surprised.

"The mayor's wife has gynecological problems?"

"Nonsense... Our gynecological department doesn't just treat gynecological issues, it's for fertility problems."

"The mayor's wife is infertile, get it?"

"Infertile?"

"Yes, this lady has a very bad temper, and she has been here several times already, scolding the attending doctors bloody every time. Everyone avoids her. Last time, a doctor was fired the day after he misspoke. You have a bad temper, and this situation is very tricky. I don't want you getting involved."

"Although I don't know why Director Zhang promoted you, but, I clearly feel he was reluctant. This time, if you provoke this lady, I guarantee, you won't need to come to work the next day."

"So, do you understand now?"

"So that's it..."

Su Fan nodded his head

Suddenly, he thought about what Bai Man had said last night

He thought Bai Man was going crazy.

He didn't expect Bai Man was considering his situation.

Bai Man really does have a kind heart, but why can't she just speak nicely? No, it should be said that in Bai Man's eyes, there's never been room for him. Does she feel it's necessary to speak kindly to someone like him, a country bumpkin?

In the end, Bai Man still looks down on him, a country boy from a humble background.

"What are you thinking about?"

Seeing Su Fan lost in thought, Liu Ye asked suspiciously.

Coming back to his senses, Su Fan said cheerily.

"I was wondering, Director Liu, are you hungry?"

"Let me feed you."

"Are you out of your mind, this early in the morning?"

Liu Ye gave Su Fan a glance, yet honestly walked towards the staff lounge.

Su Fan hurriedly followed.

Half an hour later, Su Fan walked out of the director's office refreshed.

Back in his own office

Wu Miao was not there.

Zhang Jing was not there.

He circled around several nearby offices, all empty.

Well, well.

Is everyone off today?

Is the mayor's wife really that scary?

As Su Fan was lost in his wild thoughts, he heard someone cursing in the corridor.

"How can such a big hospital not have a single doctor available?"

"I think, your hospital really needs a good overhaul."

A woman with an arrogant air, dressed in a light yellow long dress, carrying a small bag, with her hair done up, was berating furiously.

She was followed by a crowd.

One was the deputy director, and Sun Zhigang, the head of administration, was also present, but at this moment, none dared to say a word; each of them bowed their heads, grinning sheepishly.

"Director Bai, you're right. We will definitely overhaul thoroughly"

"Exactly, exactly, we will take your valuable advice to heart and accept your criticism. You are right to admonish us."

The identity of this woman was thus clear.

Mayor's wife, Yang City TV station director, Narlan Xue.

"This woman, I feel like I've seen her somewhere before?"

Su Fan frowned.
