Chapter 108: Try and You'll Know

Liu Ye's heart skipped a beat.

Others might have been joking, but it was completely different when Nalan Xue said it.

She had the capability.

The coming and going of a hospital director was just a phone call away for her husband.

"I..."

"I am willing to give it a try."

Liu Ye decided to shield Su Fan from the storm.

Su Fan was greatly touched.

"Let me do it."

Su Fan still stood up.

Stepping in front of Liu Ye.

"Su Fan, this has nothing to do with you."

Liu Ye was anxious.

Yet Su Fan spoke calmly.

"It's just a minor illness, I haven't taken it to heart at all, and besides, I don't have the habit of letting a woman take the fall for me."

"A minor illness?"

With that, the surrounding doctors were in an uproar.

An older doctor spoke dissatisfied.

"Doctor Su Fan, although you possess some medical skills, isn't that a bit of an overstatement? Infertility has always been a major illness, and most of Director Nalan's oocytes are already dead, with severe fallopian tube blockage. How could it be a minor illness?"

"Exactly, big talk for no reason."

The crowd looked at Su Fan with dissatisfaction.

Wasn't that an indirect insult to them?

Even Nalan Xue couldn't help but say coldly to Su Fan.

"Young man, I have seen your interview materials, but luck plays a big part. Your actual medical skills are still unknown."

"Furthermore, I have already consulted many famous doctors, been to Hong Kong and abroad, all to no avail. Are you sure you're more skilled than those well-known doctors who've been famous for years?"

Su Fan remained composed.

"Whether I am skilled or not, why don't you try me and see?"

Su Fan's words made Nalan Xue blush.

Any adult would misconstrue such a statement.

"You little rascal, you... shut up."

Liu Ye glared at Su Fan.

Only then did Su Fan realize he had misspoken and quickly corrected himself.

"What I meant was, medical skill is not something to brag about verbally. Since you're here, Director Nalan, you might as well give it a try."

"How do you plan to treat it?" Nalan Xue pressed.

Su Fan replied calmly.

"Acupuncture, massage."

"Acupuncture, massage?"

"Hahahaha..."

The crowd immediately burst into laughter.

"Do you think this is periarthritis or a herniated lumbar disc? Acupuncture and massage for infertility, ovarian diseases, this is the first time I've heard of it."

"This is honestly hilarious, unheard of, utterly ridiculous."

Nalan Xue also scoffed.

"It seems that your title of Divine Doctor is undeserved."

Su Fan did not explain, just stated calmly.

"You will see noticeable results after one time, complete recovery after three. If I fail, I will strip and leave, and I will never work in the medical field again."

Instantly, the noisy corridor fell silent.

Everyone looked at Su Fan as if they had seen a ghost.

That was just too arrogant.

Three sessions of acupuncture and massage to cure infertility, and he dared to bet his career on it.

He must be insane.

Liu Feng and Sun Zhigang were thrilled.

"Su Fan, don't talk nonsense."

Liu Ye panicked, immediately pleading with Nalan Xue.

"Director Nalan, Su Fan is young and impetuous, he speaks off the cuff. Please don't mind him, don't mind him, haha."

But Nalan Xue completely ignored Liu Ye, instead fixing a sharp gaze on Su Fan.

"This is your own claim, no regrets."

"Of course."

"However, I also have a condition."

"You dare to set conditions with me, do you know who I am?" Nalan Xue's mouth curled into a smirk of disdain, her eyes brimming with contempt as she looked at Su Fan.
