

Temptation 1101

Chapter 1101

Half an hour later, Lin Lang, with disheveled hair, got up from the grass.

Her gaze towards Renbo Anke was also filled with hatred.

Not only that, she looked in another direction.

Earlier, another secret sect master also joined Renbo Anke in humiliating her.

This made her completely determined to do that thing!

The secret sect has a scripture called the Wonderful Dharma Lotus Sutra.

This scripture is different from the Lotus Sutra and is not profound Buddhist teachings, but a martial arts manual.

However, this manual is specifically for women to practice.

This manual once caused some troubles in the secret sect, so it has been largely destroyed.

She accidentally obtained this scripture but did not dare to practice it.

Because this secret technique requires continuous energy absorption from yang to nourish yin, its only method of practice is to absorb yang and nourish yin.

Once one stops absorbing yang to nourish yin, the life of the practitioner of the Wonderful Dharma Lotus Sutra will gradually wither.

In the past, Lin Lang was unwilling to do this, but now she has no choice.

The many high monks and virtuous ones in the secret sect of course wouldn't know that compared to Su Fan, they are facing a greater crisis.

And this crisis is caused by the twisted teachings of the secret sect.

The impact Lin Lang will have on the secret sect will obviously take some time to manifest.

Renbo Anke, who was the last straw for Lin Lang, had already secretly set out for Yang City.

No one knows when Renbo Anke left the Kutuo Temple.

Nor does anyone know how he got to Yang City.

This has resulted in no one knowing when he arrived near Yang City.

Renbo Anke is different from the Dalai and Fu Zan; he acted alone without seeking any help.

However, before taking action, he still spent some time finding out who was tailing him.

The martial artist secretly following Renbo Anke was Sangbo from the secret sect.

Sangbo never expected that Renbo Anke would discover her presence.

At a roadside, Renbo Anke calmly looked at Sangbo.

His voice was extremely cold as he said, "Do you want to die or live?"

Sangbo, in the beginning, was also a consort.

But she had made contributions to the secret sect and was allowed to practice, even becoming the confidant of Kutuo Temple's abbot Banpo.

Sangbo knew that she was definitely no match for Renbo Anke now.

So she gave up resisting and said, "I want to live."

Renbo Anke said, "Since that's the case, follow my orders."

"If you disobey, I will kill you first and then deal with Su Fan."

"You can try to run away, but I advise you not to."

Sangbo nodded, "I understand."

Renbo Anke smiled satisfactorily and said, "Follow me."

As he spoke, he walked towards a certain place.

As a Martial Arts Grandmaster, he had enough confidence to leave his back to Sangbo.

Of course, he was also ready to take action at any time.

If Sangbo dared to make any move, he would twist her neck immediately.

Under Renbo Anke's lead, the two arrived at a farmhouse in the countryside of Yangcheng Town.

Renbo Anke had obviously done his homework and arranged everything well.

They settled down at this farmhouse.

The owner of the farmhouse and his wife soon came to Renbo Anke's room.

What Sangbo didn't expect was the couple running the farmhouse looked at them and asked.

"Which one of you is the employer?"

Renbo Anke calmly opened his mouth and said, "I am the employer. Are you familiar with Yang City now?"

The couple opposite were not ordinary small business owners; they were mercenaries hired by Renbo Anke on the dark web.

Chapter 1102

The three, Ren Boangk, Danba, and Fu Zan, were different from Dalai.

He wasn't prepared to confront Su Fan directly; instead, he planned to lie in wait.

According to his long-term investigation, Su Fan had a weakness.

That weakness was a woman named Bai Man.

Su Fan might have connections with other women, but those women were all surrounded by experts.

Only Bai Man lived alone in one place.

He didn't even need to hire bandits; hiring a few third-rate robbers would suffice to kidnap Bai Man successfully.

However, something Ren Boangk didn't expect happened at that moment.

The bandit couple across from him didn't answer his question but pulled out handguns instead.

The dark gun barrels were directly aimed at him.

Ren Boangk's expression didn't change much. He calmly asked, "What does this mean, you two?"

This group was hired to deal with Su Fan, yet they turned on him first.

Shen Zhiyong chuckled and said, "After we arrived here, we investigated. Your business isn't easy, so you need to pay more!"

His wife, Yu Qian, also spoke up, "Mr. Employer, the person you want to kidnap is indeed an ordinary person."

"But this ordinary person is not so simple."

"If our intel isn't wrong, Miss Bai Man is a peak Gang Qi Realm expert, Su Fan's woman."

"Although you previously mentioned that the target has a connection with a Gang Qi Realm expert, and we wouldn't have to face this expert."

"But only after we arrived in Yang City did we discover that Su Fan is different from regular Gang Qi Realm experts and has tremendous power in Yang City."

"If you want us to kidnap his woman, you'll need to offer a more suitable price."

Ren Boangk's face did not show any change.

He calmly asked, "How much money do you want to kidnap Bai Man?"

This time, Shen Zhiyong didn't speak immediately but looked at Yu Qian.

It was obvious that the woman was calling the shots.

Yu Qian hesitated for a moment and then held up a hand.

"Fifty million US dollars, this price should be fair, right?"

Ren Boangk smiled, "Indeed, very fair."

But as he spoke, he was already charging towards Yu Qian and Shen Zhiyong.

"Bang! Bang! Bang!"

The two decisively fired, and their accomplices outside, who held sniper rifles at vantage points, also quickly opened fire.

The result was that all their bullets hit Ren Boangk's protective Qi barrier.

Ren Boangk then kicked Shen Zhiyong, sending him flying into the wall with a heavy thud.

With a backhand slap, he knocked Yu Qian to the ground.

Before Yu Qian could react, she suffered a harsh kick to the abdomen.

Shen Zhiyong and Yu Qian were lucky; they were still useful to Ren Boangk.

Though they were beaten senseless, they survived.

The others, however, were of no use to Ren Boangk.

A silver steel ball appeared in Ren Boangk's hand, and as he hurled it suddenly, the pigeon-egg-sized ball flew out.

"Clang——"

A crisp sound was heard as a window shattered.

The steel ball, unstoppable, easily blasted off the sniper's skull.

The other subordinates of Shen Zhiyong and Yu Qian didn't escape their fate either.

In no time, only four people remained alive in this rustic farmhouse.

When Ren Boangk returned once more, Shen Zhiyong and Yu Qian were terrified to the extreme.

He didn't come back empty-handed; he found handcuffs on one of Shen Zhiyong's subordinates.

In Shen Zhiyong's terrified gaze, Ren Boangk approached.

Shen Zhiyong could only plead, "Sir, I didn't know your power, please spare me..."

Ren Boangk didn't bother with any more words and directly cuffed him to an old-style security cage.

Chapter 1103

This old-fashioned anti-theft cage is welded with steel bars. Although it's not aesthetically pleasing, it's extremely sturdy.

After being handcuffed to the steel bars of the old-fashioned anti-theft cage, Shen Zhiyong witnessed a scene that caused him immense pain.

"Rip—"

The sound of fabric tearing filled the air as Yu Qian's clothes were torn open by Ren Boangke.

Despite being a hardened criminal, Yu Qian was terrified, pleading for mercy: "Please spare me..."

Of course, Ren Boangke wasn't going to spare her, and soon, in front of her husband, he began to mercilessly dominate her.

Furious, Shen Zhiyong roared, "Beast! If you have a problem, come at me! Let go of my wife!"

Yu Qian also fought back desperately, but unfortunately, despite both of them having blood on their hands as hardened criminals, they stood no chance against Ren Boangke.

The couple were merely Martial Artists at the Cultivating Qi stage.

While it was one thing for Yu Qian to be pinned down, Shen Zhiyong couldn't even break free, just handcuffed to the steel bars.

"Slap!"

Yu Qian's fierce resistance was met with a stinging slap.

After being beaten into disorientation, Ren Boangke continued to ravage her mercilessly.

Soon, the sounds of Yu Qian's heart-wrenching screams echoed throughout the single-story house.

Though not a good person, she had only ever been with Shen Zhiyong in terms of relationships, never touched by another man before.

While Shen Zhiyong was strong, he was far inferior to Ren Boangke.

Even if Shen Zhiyong was reckless, he wouldn't go so far as to destroy her like Ren Boangke did now, seemingly intent on killing her.

Half an hour later, although Yu Qian didn't die, she was handcuffed in the same place Shen Zhiyong had been before.

As for Shen Zhiyong, he drove away from the farmhouse, dazed and defeated.

Of course, he had no skill to escape; he was allowed to leave because Ren Boangke instructed him to bring Bai Man to this location.

Bai Man didn't live in the employee dormitory of Eastern Medicine, nor did she reside in the Bai Yulan villa area.

Therefore, Su Fan instructed Chen Hanqing to pay special attention to the surveillance around her vicinity.

Su Fan was aware that suspicious individuals had been scouting around Bai Man's place during this time.

Shen Zhiyong's luck was evidently terrible.

Not only had his wife been violated by Ren Boangke, but his attempt to kidnap Bai Man also ran into Su Fan.

As soon as his car entered the surveillance zone, Chen Hanqing relayed this information to Su Fan.

Upon receiving the call, Su Fan went downstairs, no longer waiting at Bai Man's house.

Before too long, Shen Zhiyong appeared in a Honda car not far away.

Although full of rage, Shen Zhiyong understood that he and his wife could not provoke Ren Boangke, a Martial Arts Grandmaster.

The only way out now was to follow Ren Boangke's demands.

What he clearly hadn't anticipated was that Bai Man, being Su Fan's woman, was also out of their league.

After getting out of the car, Shen Zhiyong prepared to move directly.

To deal with a soft woman as a Martial Artist at the Cultivating Qi stage would be a breeze, wouldn't it?

He even intended to vent his anger on Bai Man for a bit before taking her back to complete the task.

But before he could initiate the next step, someone grasped his shoulder.

The powerful True Qi fluctuations from a Martial Arts Grandmaster turned Shen Zhiyong's heart ice-cold.

Su Fan bluntly asked, "Who sent you?"

Instinctively, Shen Zhiyong replied, "No one..."

Halfway through his sentence, Su Fan interrupted him.

"I'll give you one more chance. If you don't tell the truth, I will crush your throat."

This time Shen Zhiyong snapped back to his senses and dared not lie: "It's my employer."

Su Fan asked, "Who is your employer?"

Chapter 1104

Shen Zhiyong shook his head, "I don't know, he hired me anonymously on the dark web."

"But he's at my place now, and he's the one who instructed me to kidnap Miss Bai Man."

Su Fan thought for a moment and asked, "What does your employer look like?"

Upon hearing this, Shen Zhiyong described Ren Bo'angke's appearance to Su Fan.

After listening, Su Fan immediately confirmed that his employer was Ren Bo'angke, as Ice Soul had mentioned.

Su Fan promptly called Ice Soul to inform about the situation here.

Ice Soul and the others quickly reacted.

As Shen Zhiyong drove towards the farmhouse halfway, he encountered Ice Soul's group.

The Dragon Group came with six people this time.

One Martial Arts Grandmaster, five at the peak of the Gang Qi Realm.

The group quickly arrived at the farmhouse in Yangcheng Town, and then realized something was amiss.

Ice Soul glanced at Su Fan and whispered, "Why is it so quiet?"

Su Fan didn't know the reason, so he looked at Shen Zhiyong.

Shen Zhiyong, having no intention to warn Ren Bo'angke, spoke extremely softly.

"All the people at this farmhouse have been replaced by my subordinates."

"But not long ago, my subordinates were killed by my employer."

"Now there are only three alive in the farmhouse, so it's silent."

His explanation, of course, made sense.

Ice Soul and the others exchanged glances and decided to continue infiltrating.

A special forces team member of the Dragon Group appeared on a building, looking down at the room where Ren Bo'angke was.

After observing closely, he said, "I'm Fire Fox, calling Ice Soul. I'm Fire Fox, calling Ice Soul, over."

Beside Su Fan, Ice Soul heard the voice from the communicator and immediately replied.

"Ice Soul here, please speak. Ice Soul here, please speak, over."

Fire Fox's voice continued:

"There's only one woman handcuffed in the security cage in the room, no other targets."

"Repeating, there's only one woman handcuffed in the security cage in the room, no other targets, over."

Soon, information was transmitted back from two other positions by the special forces members.

They have already searched the farmhouse but found no targets.

Though not the strongest in this action group, Ice Soul is the leader.

She quickly made a decision, "Approach the room to take a look, but don't enter casually."

Upon Ice Soul's order, the Dragon Group's special forces team immediately sprang into action.

Su Fan and Ice Soul also arrived at the entrance of the room.

They could see, not far from the security cage, a woman with disheveled hair handcuffed.

Ice Soul immediately pulled Shen Zhiyong over, letting him identify if this was his wife.

Shen Zhiyong couldn't see her face, so he had to identify her by her figure and clothing.

With a glance, he became extremely anxious.

Though he couldn't see the front, the woman handcuffed on the steel security cage was his wife, Yu Qian.

Shen Zhiyong acted without hesitation, directly pushing open the crack in the door.

Ice Soul was slightly surprised but quickly pulled him back, simultaneously pressing down Su Fan, "Get down!"

Sure enough, behind the door were three grenades attached.

"Boom! Boom! Boom!"

Three huge explosions blew the door away.

The room's glass was shattered by the blast force.

Everything in the room was hit by the fragments.

After the explosions, Shen Zhiyong rushed inside, screaming wildly.

Though the fragments from the grenades left the person inside battered and riddled.

Shen Zhiyong still recognized that this person wasn't his wife.

The woman with the floral sleeve tattoo was one of his subordinates, who had been killed by Ren Bo'angke long ago.

Chapter 1105

Su Fan was still contemplating what was going on.

Ice Soul quickly responded and said through the communicator, "Ren Boangk has escaped, see if there are any traces left behind."

"He most likely escaped from the nearby mountain range. Focus the search on the direction leading into the mountains."

After Ice Soul arranged these matters, Su Fan then asked, "How did Ren Boangk know how to use these weapons?"

For most ordinary people and martial artists, they might not even know how to release the safety of a gun or how to use a grenade.

Setting traps using grenades would be even more difficult.

The fact that Ren Boangk could do these things indicated he was familiar with such weapons.

Ice Soul's answer surprised Su Fan somewhat.

"In our records, Ren Boangk has no related background."

"But I suspect he must have been a mercenary before joining the Secret Sect of Kurthas."

While Su Fan and Ice Soul were talking, Ice Soul's communicator received a message from Fire Fox.

Just as she had guessed, Ren Boangk indeed escaped with Yu Qian and Sang Bo.

In fact, when Shen Zhiyong left, Ren Boangk instructed Sang Bo to take Yu Qian and relocate.

He himself stayed not far away, observing the area with binoculars.

He did not know the Dragon Group had already set their sights on him.

He still thought that after laying low for so many years, the Dragon Group had relaxed their watch on him.

Unexpectedly, the Dragon Group really did come this time.

Unfortunately, the members of the Dragon Group were still too inexperienced and couldn't capture him.

Ren Boangk put away the binoculars and boarded a Jeep Wrangler.

Before leaving the Kurthas Temple, he had thought of every possibility and made all preparations.

He was completely different from the three idiots in front.

Even if he couldn't kill, he absolutely wouldn't die at the hands of Su Fan.

Driving the Jeep Wrangler, Ren Boangk soon arrived at the hiding place of Sang Bo and Yu Qian.

Then he said to the two, "Get in the car."

As soon as he finished speaking, Ren Boangk realized something was wrong.

Indeed, not far from Sang Bo, Fire Fox emerged.

Fire Fox had previously discovered Yu Qian and Sang Bo, but didn't alert them.

His ability to track them was thanks to the traces Yu Qian had left along the way.

Yu Qian had left these traces in hopes that Shen Zhiyong would find them.

Unexpectedly, Shen Zhiyong didn't find them, but Fire Fox and the rest of the Dragon Group did.

Ren Boangk immediately tried to drive away, but after a gunshot, the car began to burn explosively.

Even Ren Boangk, who had survived countless gunfight storms, panicked at this moment.

Because this time, he was facing the renowned Dragon Group!

At this point, Sang Bo did not hesitate and fled directly.

Yu Qian also wanted to escape, but Ren Boangk grabbed her and slung her over his shoulder.

Then Ren Boangk began to dive into the mountain ditch.

This time, the members of the Dragon Group realized that Ren Boangk was a bigger fish than they had imagined.

As Ren Boangk started to head into the mountain ditch, Fire Fox, Ice Soul, and several others chased after him.

As for Sang Bo, it was naturally left to Su Fan.

Ice Soul didn't require Su Fan to capture Sang Bo, as long as he could warn him.

But Su Fan did not think so; he intended to capture Sang Bo and extract some information from him.

Sang Bo knew who Su Fan was, and Ren Boangk came to Yang City this time with the purpose of dealing with Su Fan.

Even though Su Fan and she were both at the peak of the Gang Qi Realm, she had no intention of stopping to fight Su Fan.

Like everyone else, Sang Bo didn't know Su Fan's true strength, which was that of a Martial Arts Grandmaster!

After Ice Soul and the others left, Su Fan no longer had any intention of hiding his strength.

With just a few moves, Su Fan intercepted Sang Bo.

Chapter 1106

San Po looked at Su Fan who suddenly appeared in front of her, extremely surprised.

She suddenly thrust her fingers forward, intending to gouge out Su Fan's eyes.

But Su Fan acted first, quickly touching several points on her body, sealing all her meridians.

At this moment, San Po stood like a piece of wood.

Su Fan didn't waste words with her and asked directly, "What is Rinpo Aung Ko's true identity?"

San Po heard this and didn't open her mouth.

Su Fan took out a silver needle and lightly pierced one of the meridians on her.

Suddenly, San Po was in such pain that cold sweat broke out.

She no longer dared to remain silent and immediately said, "I don't know what his true identity is."

"I only know that he once fought in Africa, he seems to have grown up in Africa, and only later joined the Tibetan sect."

Su Fan continued to ask, "Why does the Tibetan sect continuously target me? How many Martial Arts Grandmasters are there in the Tibetan sect?"

Although San Po was the mistress of the abbot of the Tibetan sect's Ku Tuo Temple, it was obvious her knowledge was limited.

"I don't know why the Tibetan sect has constantly sought trouble with you, nor do I know how many Martial Arts Grandmasters there are in the sect."

"Our Ku Tuo Temple is just one of many monasteries in the Tibetan sect."

"As far as I know, there are a total of six Martial Arts Grandmasters in Ku Tuo Temple."

Although the information San Po provided was limited,

it deeply shocked Su Fan.

He had thought that Ku Tuo Temple was just slightly more powerful than the Yagyu family in Japan.

The Yagyu family, which previously relentlessly pursued him, was now completely annihilated.

But it was clear that he could take action against Ku Tuo Temple at any time.

He understood now why the Dragon Team waited for the right opportunity to deal with the people of Ku Tuo Temple.

It wasn't that the Dragon Team didn't have enough experts compared to Ku Tuo Temple.

It's that Ku Tuo Temple had so many experts that a head-on clash would likely result in losses for the Dragon Team.

While Su Fan was interrogating San Po, another Dragon Team squad arrived.

Interestingly, this time the leader was actually a woman.

Su Fan didn't know if this was a coincidence or if there were more female Martial Artists in the Dragon Team.

In fact, this was certainly a coincidence.

The male-to-female ratio within the Dragon Team was approximately three to one, making the occurrence of female group leaders relatively rare.

Facing Su Fan now was a delicate young girl.

At first glance, she appeared to be only eighteen or nineteen years old.

In fact, Hong Yuan was already twenty-one; she just looked young.

Hong Yuan approached Su Fan and took out her credentials.

"I am a member of the Dragon Team, codenamed Hong Yuan."

"Has the target been restrained?"

Like Bing Po, Hong Yuan was also a leader of a six-member team.

Her other team members were already arriving one after another.

After verifying that Hong Yuan's credentials were legitimate, Su Fan nodded.

He had already obtained quite a bit of useful intelligence from San Po's mouth.

Next, he planned to assist Bing Po and others in bringing Rinpo Aung Ko to justice.

After handing San Po over to Hong Yuan and her team, he went off to join Bing Po's six-member pursuit.

In the mountains, Rinpo Aung Ko was still desperately fleeing.

This time he underestimated the Dragon Team; he hadn't expected that the Dragon Team had been keeping an eye on him the entire time.

He was in the heartland of China, and this time it was clear he wouldn't get away.

At first, being pursued by only Bing Po's six members, he found it hard to cope.

Soon, both Su Fan and Hong Yuan's team of six joined in the chase.

At this point, there was really nowhere left for him to run.

Rinpo Aung Ko understood that getting captured by the Dragon Team was only a matter of time.

Thus, without any hesitation, he fled into a cave with Yu Qian.

In a moment, he stripped off Yu Qian's clothes and said, "Next, I'm going to tell you some secrets, remember them well."

"I won't escape this time, but I will divert the Dragon Team so you can get away."

"After you escape, leave the country immediately."

"The secrets I'm about to tell you can bring you unimaginable wealth."

Chapter 1107: The Unrivaled Master Appears

Yu Qian was enduring Ren Bonk's fierce impact while listening to him talk about numerous secrets.

Yu Qian wanted to say to Ren Bonk, such important matters, could you talk about them seriously and not do other things?

But she understood, this might be Ren Bonk's last time with a woman in his life.

The crimes committed by this person were evidently very serious, otherwise the Dragon Group would not be deployed to deal with him.

Ren Bonk was also a capable person; he was still on Yu Qian and methodically divulging many secrets to her.

Half an hour later, he handed his Dark Web Crystal Card to Yu Qian.

Yu Qian wiped the corner of her mouth and looked at Ren Bonk with a complex expression.

She only felt hatred towards Ren Bonk, not gratitude.

But since he had given her a huge wealth, her feelings were quite complicated.

Yu Qian wasn't the target of the Dragon Group this time, the special forces members of the Dragon Group didn't even know who she really was.

Therefore, when the Dragon Group and Su Fan were chasing Ren Bonk, Yu Qian managed to escape smoothly.

Yu Qian wasn't a good person to begin with; crossing borders was a familiar task for her.

Not long after leaving Yang City, she even had accomplices to assist her, allowing her to leave successfully.

Ren Bonk wasn't as lucky. Targeted by two six-member teams from the Dragon Group, he was basically trapped with no escape.

The first to intercept Ren Bonk was Hong Yuan, at the peak of Gang Qi Realm.

Upon seeing Ren Bonk, Hong Yuan didn't hesitate, raising her hand to throw a grenade toward him.

Ren Bonk didn't dare be careless, his figure swiftly shifted horizontally into the distance.

From Hong Yuan's perspective, Ren Bonk seemed to glide over the ground.

Seeing Ren Bonk perfectly evade the grenade, Hong Yuan casually said, "You're really something!"

Then she ran in the opposite direction, with no choice as Ren Bonk was now out for blood.

Though the grenade didn't harm him at all, he was poised to settle the score with her.

Ren Bonk might not necessarily want to kill Hong Yuan; if time allowed, he was quite willing to bed this little beauty.

As for now, he intended to capture Hong Yuan and coerce the Dragon Group to let him leave the country, which was his only way of survival.

Hong Yuan ran quickly, but she was after all just a Gang Qi Realm Martial Artist, not a Martial Arts Grandmaster.

At this moment, they were scattered in various places, and others couldn't arrive in time.

Soon, Hong Yuan found herself in a predicament.

Ren Bonk appeared directly in front of her, blocking her path.

Hong Yuan understood that she was in trouble this time.

Ren Bonk was a martial artist very skilled in movement techniques; even at the same realm, she might not be able to escape.

Facing a Martial Arts Grandmaster alone, it's impossible not to feel nervous.

However, Hong Yuan did not show fear but rather drew the Tang Heng Dao from behind, ready to confront Ren Bonk.

"Swish!"

In a flash before Hong Yuan's eyes, Ren Bonk was already in front of her.

Then she witnessed an extremely terrifying scene!

"Ding!"

Ren Bonk flicked his finger, a great force hitting the blade of Tang Heng Dao.

The immense force caused the Tang Heng Dao in her hand to fly out of her grasp.

But it wasn't over; as Ren Bonk lifted his leg for a strike, she flew out like a kite with a broken string.

After landing, she quickly stood up with a swift coil maneuver.

Yet a trace of blood still dripped from the corner of her mouth.

Clearly, at Gang Qi Realm's peak, she truly was not a match for Ren Bonk.

While Hong Yuan was unsure what to do, another person appeared on the scene, disappointing her slightly.

It wasn't the two Martial Arts Grandmasters of the Dragon Group, but rather Su Fan.

Su Fan was also a bit distressed seeing Hong Yuan here.

If he didn't use his grandmaster skills, he wouldn't be able to defeat Ren Bonk.

If he exhibited his grandmaster prowess, others would know he was a Martial Arts Grandmaster.

After hesitating for a moment, he had no choice but to reveal his grandmaster-level martial arts skills.

Hong Yuan initially wanted to suggest that Su Fan join forces with her, to delay and wait for others to come to their aid.

But when Su Fan's True Qi fluctuations suddenly erupted, she was dumbstruck!

Su Fan, who looked younger than her, was actually a Martial Arts Grandmaster!

Chapter 1108

The mountain wind swept by, rustling the leaves of the trees in the forest.

Leaves twisted in the mountain wind, drifting freely.

Su Fan's gaze was fixed on Rinpoche Oncker not far away.

Since becoming a Martial Arts Grandmaster, this was his first encounter with another Grandmaster.

Rinpoche Oncker's gaze was also entirely focused on Su Fan.

Surprise, reflection, and an incredible emotion quickly flowed across his face.

The term "Martial Arts Mastery" carries significant weight, akin to a vast chasm between an undergraduate and a graduate student.

It seems just a step away, but taking that step is extremely difficult.

Many talented, gifted martial artists might spend their entire lives stuck at the peak of the Gang Qi Realm, it's entirely possible.

Rinpoche Oncker looked relatively young, only thirty-eight or thirty-nine, at most appearing to be in his early forties.

In reality, he was no longer young.

Martial artists have vigorous blood and energy, so they age more slowly, and the passage of time doesn't leave marks on them as quickly.

To ordinary people, he was already an elderly man in his sixties.

Of course, the age of a Martial Arts Grandmaster cannot be measured by ordinary standards.

Some Grandmasters might still appear around thirty at the advanced age of ninety.

But Rinpoche Oncker knew he had encountered a new star rising steadily in the martial world.

Opposite him, Su Fan was not one of those old fellows but rather a truly youthful Grandmaster.

Because martial artists have longer lifespans than ordinary people, adjusted equivalently, Su Fan could even be called a 'Youthful Grandmaster'.

Towards Su Fan, Rinpoche Oncker felt admiration, jealousy, and awe.

A Martial Arts Grandmaster of about twenty years old, his future achievements in martial arts were unimaginable.

Rinpoche Oncker understood that if he couldn't end Su Fan in this battle, then the secret tradition of their generation might completely end.

Historically, the secret tradition faced countless enemies, including many young talents and even youthful prodigies.

But these people were all eliminated before they truly matured by the secret tradition.

Su Fan was different. Although he hadn't reached his highest potential, as a Martial Arts Grandmaster, he had already become a force.

Besides Su Fan and Rinpoche Oncker, there was another spectator in this battle of special significance.

This spectator was none other than Dragon Group's Hong Yuan.

Hong Yuan's emotions at this moment were extremely complex as well.

Just like the ten thousand heavenly soldiers besieging the Great Sage, who among them was not a genius of their generation?

Each member of the Dragon Group was an elite among elites, an ace among aces.

But compared to Su Fan, this outrageously young Martial Arts Grandmaster, all the Dragon Group elites seemed almost dimmed.

Su Fan did not know what Hong Yuan was thinking.

His entire focus at the moment was on Rinpoche Oncker.

So far, Rinpoche Oncker was the strongest opponent he had faced.

Every Martial Arts Grandmaster is not easy to deal with, and becoming a Martial Arts Mastery Gang Qi Realm Grandmaster surely means they have some prowess.

Rinpoche Oncker chose not to continue fleeing; under the pursuit of the Dragon Group, unless at the border, it was impossible for him to escape.

Given that, letting Su Fan accompany him to the grave, or dying at Su Fan's hands, might not be a worse fate.

Rinpoche Oncker threw his backpack aside.

Then he stepped his right leg half a step forward, slightly lowered his stance, with his left forearm slightly bent in front of him.

His right hand clenched into a fist, placed beside his right ear, adopting the Vajra Demon Subduing Boxing stance.

Su Fan did not delay, assuming the Tai Chi Boxing stance, ready for the opponent to attack.

Chapter 1109: Grandmaster vs. Grandmaster

The martial arts of Tibetan Buddhism emphasize unstoppable force, advancing without retreat, like a storm, splitting mountains and cracking the earth.

Su Fan's Taiji, on the other hand, emphasizes attacking after the enemy and using defense as offense.

This time, the one who initiated the attack was indeed Ren Bo Angke.

He stomped heavily on the ground, launching himself like an arrow from a bow, fiercely shot towards Su Fan.

His speed wasn't just fast; it was speed taken to the extreme.

An ordinary person might only see a blur before Ren Bo Angke's fist would blast their skull away.

But Su Fan saw Ren Bo Angke's movements, and saw them clearly.

As a fellow Martial Arts Grandmaster, his movements were equally agile and swift.

Ren Bo Angke's boxing stance earlier suggested he would strike Su Fan hard with his right hand.

But in reality, when he charged at Su Fan, he used a leg technique.

"Swoosh!"

Ren Bo Angke flew up with a kick directly aimed at Su Fan's chin.

"Pow!"

The force of this kick was so strong it created a sonic boom.

Su Fan slightly leaned back, effortlessly dodging Ren Bo Angke's attack.

Ren Bo Angke's forward kick then seamlessly transitioned into a downward chop.

At that moment, his left leg resembled a sharp axe, aiming to cleave Su Fan in two.

Su Fan twisted rapidly to his left as his body leaned back.

While turning, his body's center of gravity also continuously lowered. At the same time, his leg, infused with True Qi, fiercely swept across.

This sweeping leg was too sudden and too cunning.

Ren Bo Angke's right leg was precisely hit by Su Fan's sweeping leg, sending him flying to the right.

However, Ren Bo Angke didn't crash heavily to the ground; instead, he struck the ground with his right hand and continued to launch a flurry of kicks at Su Fan.

This time, Su Fan didn't choose to evade but directly countered Ren Bo Angke's attack.

"Swoosh! Swoosh! Swoosh! Swoosh!"

Their legs, empowered by martial arts True Qi, collided like four steel whips in a frenzy.

Su Fan stood firm, uniting waist and stance, with his legs alternating in power.

Ren Bo Angke, supporting the sky with one hand, was clearly at a disadvantage.

Indeed, under Su Fan's offensive, even though Ren Bo Angke continuously issued his whirlwind kicks, he was still driven sliding across the ground by Su Fan.

If his palm didn't have the protection of an energy shield, by now his right hand would have been scraped to bloody flesh and exposed bone.

However, under the protection of the energy shield, such friction left Ren Bo Angke completely unharmed.

After a series of fierce attacks, Su Fan suddenly somersaulted like a sparrow, arriving above Ren Bo Angke's head.

Without hesitation, he unleashed another sweeping leg.

This time, Ren Bo Angke had learned and with a powerful push of his hand against the ground, his body soared up.

Of course, Su Fan had long anticipated this, knowing it wouldn't be so easy to succeed.

As Ren Bo Angke flew up, Su Fan also leaped into the air.

The two quickly collided mid-air, but Ren Bo Angke had no time to make a move; he had already received a solid "Wild Horse Parts Mane."

"Boom——"

A dull thud sounded as his body plummeted heavily below.

"Buzz——"

An energy shield formed by pure martial arts True Qi instantly enveloped him completely.

"Bang!"

"Crack! Crack!"

At the same time, a rock as big as a truck wheel was shattered to pieces upon his impact.

Normally, a flesh and blood body couldn't shatter a rock.

An ordinary person would just become a mess of meat upon impact with the rock.

Yet Ren Bo Angke shattered the rock and remained unscathed, highlighting the prowess of a Martial Arts Grandmaster.

"Hah!"

Not just that, he shouted out, and then using powerful martial arts True Qi, launched three strikes at Su Fan in mid-air.

Chapter 1110

Su Fan had no intention of exchanging blows from a distance, and directly executed a move called "Thousand Pound Drop," plunging from mid-air.

After stabilizing on the ground, Su Fan also gathered his energy and suddenly unleashed a palm strike from mid-air.

"Boom!"

A palm print, condensed from Martial Arts True Qi, instantly blasted toward Renbo Anke.

Renbo Anke leaped up, dodging Su Fan's strike.

"Crack!"

The powerful palm force smashed into the large tree behind Renbo Anke.

Suddenly, sawdust flew everywhere, and the tree, about as thick as one's embrace, slowly fell to the ground.

The destructive power of a Martial Arts Grandmaster is truly astonishing.

But Su Fan and Renbo Anke were still probing each other's depth, not showing their true skills.

Hongyuan watched the scene in front of her, stunned.

In her heart, she was deeply concerned about Su Fan.

Although Su Fan was exceptionally gifted and talented, he was still too young.

In contrast, Renbo Anke was different; he had been practicing martial arts for decades and had vast experience.

If Su Fan couldn't hold his own against Renbo Anke before the Dragon Group's Martial Arts Grandmaster arrived, it would be problematic.

But Hongyuan's worries were undoubtedly excessive.

Even if it seemed inconceivable and hard to believe,

from the moment Su Fan and Renbo Anke started fighting until now, Su Fan had continuously suppressed Renbo Anke.

At this moment, as the two were exchanging blows with Martial Arts True Qi mid-air, Renbo Anke was at a disadvantage.

Several times, his attacks, condensed from Martial Arts True Qi, had been shattered by Su Fan.

The time Su Fan spent practicing martial arts was definitely not as long as his.

But the quantity and quality of Su Fan's Martial Arts True Qi were both higher than his.

For Renbo Anke, this was extremely inconceivable.

"Boom——"

Amidst Renbo Anke's surprise, he failed to dodge in time.

Su Fan unleashed a palm strike from mid-air, exploding over Renbo Anke's shoulder.

Even though he continuously used a protective aura to shield himself, the Tai Chi dark force penetrated the protective aura, causing his shoulder to hurt.

Renbo Anke understood that whether in hand-to-hand combat or in True Qi contests, he was not a match for Su Fan.

So he didn't hesitate and chose to compete with Su Fan using weapons!

He flew horizontally and rolled on the ground, reaching his backpack.

At that moment, two very rare peculiar weapons appeared in Renbo Anke's hands.

The weapons he used were extremely rare; it was the first time Su Fan had seen such.

Renbo Anke's weapons were a pair of Vajra Pestles!

The Vajra Pestle is a combination of a cavalry hammer and a double-handed short spear.

This weapon's usage is extremely unscientific and irrational.

An ordinary person using such a weapon could easily injure themselves.

But in the hands of a Martial Arts Grandmaster, all weapons are divided into only two categories: 'useful' and 'useless,' with no consideration of rationality.

Since the opponent was using a weapon, Su Fan was not going to be courteous.

He drew out the Tai Chi Sword from behind him.

With a clang, the Tai Chi Sword was already in his hand.

Renbo Anke's weapons, as Su Fan thought, indeed had two uses.

One use was like a cavalry hammer's smashing, while the other was like a dagger's stabbing and slashing.

"Swish! Swish! Swish! Swish!"

The pair of Vajra Pestles were wielded by Renbo Anke with great momentum.

The materials used to forge these Vajra Pestles were clearly not ordinary.

Initially, Su Fan wanted to slice through Renbo Anke's Vajra Pestles with a single stroke, but he couldn't succeed.

"Clang clang clang clang!"

Su Fan, holding the Tai Chi Sword, began to fiercely exchange blows with Renbo Anke.

His Tai Chi martial techniques made his True Qi and hand-to-hand combat extremely powerful.

And in terms of weapons, it made him even more formidable!
