

Temptation 1111

Chapter 1111

Compared to barehanded techniques and the clash of True Qi, his talent in Swordsmanship was no less than in the art of medicine.

After exchanging seven or eight rounds, Su Fan discovered Renbo Anke's flaw.

"Swish!"

When Renbo Anke once again suddenly swung a Vajra Pestle towards Su Fan.

Su Fan dodged to the right, and with an unbelievable speed, angle, and force, he thrust an unbelievable sword strike.

This strike came too suddenly, too swiftly, too cunningly.

So much so that while Renbo Anke was still thinking about how to change his move to continue his attack, Su Fan's assault had already arrived.

"Crack!"

The Tai Chi Sword, forged from Yin and Yang Black Gold, far surpassed the protective True Qi of a Martial Arts Grandmaster in toughness.

This fierce, unparalleled, and relentlessly advancing sword of Su Fan.

In an instant, it shattered a point on Renbo Anke's protective True Qi.

The breakage of this point triggered a chain reaction, causing the surrounding protective True Qi to shatter consecutively.

In Renbo Anke's desperate gaze, Su Fan's cruel and unmerciful sword had already pierced through his heart, taking away his life.

"Puchi!"

Su Fan withdrew his sword and stood still, as a streak of blood slowly slid down the blade.

The droplets of blood fell on the grass and trees, resembling blooming plum blossoms.

Renbo Anke's body stiffened in place.

After swaying twice, he painfully turned in the direction of the Secret Sect, then slowly fell to the ground.

He could not imagine that the exquisite sword strike Su Fan delivered at the end could be a move made by a human.

He also never expected that he was facing not only a Tai Chi expert but a Sword Dao prodigy.

The mountain wind continued to blow, tousling Su Fan's hair and making his clothes flap fiercely.

But besides the sound of the wind, there was no other sound in the forest.

By the time Su Fan swung the final sword, many members of the Dragon Group had already arrived.

This included the two Grandmasters of the Dragon Group, who were all exceptionally silent at the moment.

Their expressions were filled with astonishment and shock.

Although they hadn't witnessed how Su Fan fought Renbo Anke earlier, everyone saw the elegance of Su Fan's final sword.

Seeing that sword was enough, they already knew that this medical genius was also a martial arts prodigy and a Sword Dao prodigy!

As Su Fan sheathed his long sword, Bing Po only then approached him.

Bing Po looked him up and down, with a complicated expression, asked a question that didn't really need to be asked:

"Are you a Martial Arts Grandmaster?"

Although it wasn't necessary to ask at this stage, Su Fan still nodded slightly and replied, "I am."

Bing Po fell silent this time, and so did everyone around.

They were silent, but Su Fan could not remain silent.

After thinking for a moment, he looked at Bing Po and said, "Can my strength be kept confidential?"

He didn't know if this matter could be negotiated.

After all, once the outside world knew he was a Martial Arts Grandmaster, they would deal with him by the standard of a Martial Arts Grandmaster.

For Bing Po, this question was not difficult to answer.

"The actions of the Dragon Group are open and transparent within the Dragon Group, and the outside world will not know everything about the Dragon Group's actions."

"Your strength will be disclosed internally within the Dragon Group, but our actions this time will not be known to the outside world."

Hearing this, Su Fan was slightly taken aback and then nodded.

He now somewhat understood why there was so little intelligence about the Dragon Group externally.

Afterward, Bing Po also told him some confidentiality precautions.

Since Su Fan did not want his strength to be known by the outside world, he certainly would not publicize that Renbo Anke died by his hand.

This would only leave the Secret Sect to speculate that Renbo Anke might have died at his hands, but they would never find any evidence.

In such a situation, if the monks of the Secret Sect were smart enough, they would realize that it must have been an action by the Dragon Group.

Chapter 1112

While the rest of the Dragon Group began managing follow-up matters and wrapping up.

Su Fan, along with Bing Po and Red Kite, headed to a restaurant.

The two approached Su Fan with the same objective.

Bing Po spoke again, inviting Su Fan: "Are you sure you don't want to participate in the Dragon Group's selection assessment and become a member of the Dragon Group?"

Red Kite's gaze also fell on Su Fan.

With Su Fan's skills, passing the Dragon Group's selection assessment would be no problem at all.

With his talent and prowess, he might even become one of the top leaders of the Dragon Group in the near future.

Upon hearing this, Su Fan shook his head: "I don't currently have the intention to participate in the Dragon Group's selection assessment."

"I have equal interest in both medical skills and martial arts."

"I intend to continue contributing in the medical and martial arts associations."

Hearing him say so, Bing Po wasn't surprised since Su Fan had already refused once before, but Red Kite seemed a bit regretful.

However, Red Kite quickly said: "Even if you don't join the Dragon Group, you could still become a safety consultant for the Dragon Group."

Su Fan was slightly taken aback: "What is a safety consultant?"

Red Kite smiled and explained: "A safety consultant is akin to auxiliary personnel for the Dragon Group."

"You can share some intelligence and resources from the Dragon Group, collaborating more closely with them."

Without needing Red Kite to elaborate further, Su Fan was already tempted.

His current source of information was solely Chen Hanqing.

Anything that left traces online, Chen Hanqing could almost always investigate.

However, both he and Chen Hanqing had limited understanding of this world and martial arts.

Being able to utilize the Dragon Group's intelligence network to some degree would be incredibly beneficial to him.

Just having this advantage, he was willing to become a safety consultant for the Dragon Group.

Su Fan promptly asked: "How do I become a safety consultant for the Dragon Group?"

Red Kite responded earnestly: "Just submit a detailed personal information form and wait for approval."

"As long as the personal information is correct and meets the criteria in terms of skills, you can become a safety consultant for the Dragon Group."

Su Fan nodded slightly, asking: "Where do I submit the information?"

Upon hearing this, Bing Po and Red Kite were both delighted.

Bing Po took out a laptop from her bag and started helping Su Fan input the information.

The process wasn't complicated, and Su Fan only needed to wait three to five working days for the result.

Even though Bing Po and Red Kite didn't succeed in persuading Su Fan to join the Dragon Group this time.

Being able to have Su Fan become a safety consultant for the Dragon Group was evidently also a great outcome.

Due to the Dragon Group's involvement in this matter, the information was completely sealed.

The people from the secret sect only knew that Rinpoangk had been involved in an incident.

As for other forces, they could only acquire second-hand intelligence from the secret sect.

From the information they had, they could barely make any judgments.

They couldn't even accurately determine whether Rinpoangk was taken down by Su Fan or the Dragon Group.

The secret sect people's thoughts had nothing to do with Su Fan.

After experiencing a master battle, he returned to Villa No. 5 in the Bai Yulan residential district.

In the bathroom, he enjoyed a comfortable shower.

Then he saw Ning Miaoqi and Zhen Bingyu grilling barbecue outside.

Along with them were Chen Mei, Yagyu Kiyone, and Yagyu Kaori.

These five were getting along fairly well, and Yagyu Kiyone, who was seriously injured previously, had greatly recovered under Su Fan's treatment.

She just needed time to fully regain her health.

Su Fan's presence made the atmosphere a bit strange.

Aside from Yagyu Kiyone, the other four women had all been intimate with Su Fan, and not just once.

Chapter 1113

With Yagyu Kaori's beauty, living in Su Fan's den of wolves, it was only a matter of time before Su Fan would favor her.

However, Su Fan didn't think there was anything wrong and started roasting food together with the others.

In fact, Ning Miaoqi and the others did not reject their relationship with Su Fan.

The relationship between Martial Artists is more like the pride of lions on the African savanna.

As a top predator, the male lion can have all the lionesses in the pride.

However, when other powerful creatures approach, they need to stand up to protect the entire pride.

No one else sensed that anything was amiss today.

Yagyu Kaori asked, "Did something happen today?"

Su Fan was slightly taken aback and asked with a smile, "Why do you say that?"

The eyes of the others also turned to Yagyu Kaori.

During the time spent together, everyone knew that among them, Yagyu Kaori was definitely the smartest.

There are some things that they might not see, but Yagyu Kaori might know.

While placing some grilled meat on the rack, Yagyu Kaori began to speak.

"Previously, even though you didn't return to the villa at a fixed time."

"But as long as nothing else happened, you would return within a certain time frame."

"Today, you returned much later than before, and you seem a bit tired."

"Did something happen?"

Ning Miaoxi and Zhen Bingyu, among others, heard Yagyu Kaori's analysis and found her reasoning to be sound.

Immediately, they also looked at Su Fan, it seemed that something did happen today.

Yagyu Kaori, Chen Mengfei, and Ye Zhaoyi were indeed smarter than the other women.

Even he didn't expect that Yagyu Kaori could deduce something from these details.

After Yagyu Kaori inquired, he hesitated for a moment and then nodded.

Her judgment was correct; he indeed encountered something.

"Today I met a very formidable opponent, but it's already been resolved."

"This matter involved the Dragon Group, and I can't disclose too much."

Su Fan didn't fully trust the five, including Yagyu Kaori.

At least for Chen Mei and Yagyu Kaori, he couldn't fully trust them yet.

But that's okay, since the Dragon Group was involved, he didn't have to tell them in detail.

Su Fan didn't want to go into details, Yagyu Kaori could feel it, so she immediately changed the subject.

"In business operations, do you only plan to make a mark in the field of biopharmaceuticals?"

This was a question Su Fan had considered.

But the field he was most familiar with was medicine.

Doing something else wouldn't give him a great advantage.

After thinking about it, he said, "I also plan to enter the intelligent manufacturing industry."

The reason he wanted to enter this industry was that Chen Hanqing was talented in this field.

He planned to let Chen Hanqing handle this huge business segment.

Yagyu Kaori had a strong ability to learn, a wide range of interests, and an extensive knowledge base.

Even if Su Fan discussed this with her, she could still chat with him about it.

Subsequently, the group continued roasting food while chatting casually.

At the same time, at the Kuta Temple of Esoteric Buddhism.

Dalai Master's expression was very unpleasant.

The task of Rinbo Anke handling Su Fan should have been a surefire matter.

But now, something unknown happened, and Rinbo Anke had lost contact.

As a Martial Arts Grandmaster, for Rinbo Anke to lose contact could only mean one thing, that he was already dead.

Otherwise, even in the face of danger, he should have been able to contact Kuta Temple.

Rinbo Anke's disappearance was not good news for Dalai Master or Kuta Temple.

But for Lin Lang and Banpo Abbot, it was apparently a good thing.

Chapter 1114

The Dalai Master does not know why Rinpo Anke has disappeared, but he is still prepared to involve Su Fan in this matter.

There has always been a grudge between Su Fan and the Esoteric sect, and this time Rinpo Anke disappeared because he went to Yang City to kill Su Fan.

Rinpo Anke's disappearance is likely connected to Su Fan!

Currently, Su Fan has three incredibly powerful adversaries on the surface.

The Dalai Master shared some of his suspicions on the dark web, which immediately drew a lot of attention.

Under the long-standing bounty of England Palieya Castle, Su Fan is definitely not an unknown figure on the dark web now.

Once someone is bountied by a major power like Palieya Castle, for the everyday Martial Artist, it means they're not far from death.

However, Su Fan is very impressive; despite being bountied by Palieya Castle for so long, nothing has happened to him yet.

The bounty by Palieya Castle on him has now been increased to 1.5 billion US Dollars.

This amount of money is already so substantial that most Martial Arts Grandmasters don't have that much money.

Martial Arts Grandmasters are indeed high-income earners, but most of their time is dedicated to studying martial arts.

In such situations, even though their appearance fees and action fees are high, these Martial Arts Grandmasters cannot amass massive wealth.

Of course, if a Martial Arts Grandmaster could eliminate Su Fan, that would be a different story.

The 1.5 billion US Dollar bounty by Palieya Castle has many international hitmen very tempted.

However, Palieya Castle did not let the ordinary assassins take on this bounty mission.

Especially as Palieya Castle vaguely feels that Su Fan is now very likely a Martial Arts Grandmaster.

Since they intend to deal with a Martial Arts Grandmaster, they clearly should be more cautious, even more cautious.

The best candidate Palieya Castle found is Zimmerman.

Zimmerman's renown on the dark web is higher than Su Fan's.

Because he is a top-notch assassin who has never failed and has many intricate ties with numerous martial arts organizations.

On a small island in the Pacific, Zimmerman is leisurely enjoying the beach and sunshine.

While he is a top assassin, he is also one of the founding elders of the Rattlesnake Security Company.

Rattlesnake Security Company is one of the world's top ten mercenary companies, and it is the youngest and fastest-growing mercenary company.

This unnamed deserted island is one of the Rattlesnake Security Company's bases in the Pacific.

Here, there are not only luxury yachts but also various armed vessels.

Sitting across from Zimmerman is a beauty with hair down to her waist.

This person is Helena, the global vice president of the Rattlesnake Security Company.

Helena sipped coconut juice and said lazily, "You shouldn't be lacking money to spend right now."

Zimmerman nodded, "I've already earned enough money to spend in my next life."

Upon hearing this, Helena smiled alluringly and then asked, "If that's the case, why are you taking the bounty from Palieya Castle?"

"Those people from the Palia Castle Science Academy are only in it for the profit."

"If they are willing to spend 1.5 billion US Dollars to have someone killed, that person's life is at least worth 3 billion US Dollars."

Zimmerman did not refute but said, "I've been on the island too long; I need to get out and stretch my legs."

Helena shook her head, "If I were you, I wouldn't choose to operate within China."

"You should know, China is different from anywhere else in the world."

"In other places, whatever you do, there won't be any martial forces like the Dragon Squad to stand in your way."

When Helena mentioned Dragon Squad, Zimmerman couldn't help but reveal a bit of pride on his face.

The Dragon Squad is very formidable, and many international assassins have fallen at their hands.

However, the Dragon Squad is not omnipotent, at least he has clashed with the Dragon Squad many times and retreated safely each time.

Chapter 1115

Helena saw Zimmerman's reaction and immediately stopped speaking further.

It was clear that Zimmerman had made up his mind; he was determined to confront Su Fan.

But what Zimmerman and many others hadn't anticipated was that someone had already challenged Su Fan before he could create trouble.

This person was none other than Yagyu Jyugong, one of the Four Little Sword Saints of Japan!

Su Fan had obliterated the Yagyu family, so it was natural for Yagyu Jyugong to cause trouble for him.

However, Su Fan would rather Yagyu Jyugong confront him privately than challenge him through the Martial Arts Association.

Since the other party had issued a challenge, Su Fan had to consider whether he should accept it.

If he didn't accept, it would mean he feared the opponent; if he did, he and Yagyu Jyugong would have to openly fight.

In an open clash, his strength as a Martial Arts Grandmaster would no longer be hidden.

Yagyu Jyugong's challenge to Su Fan also sparked a huge reaction on the dark web and among many disciples in China and even globally.

Because Yagyu Jyugong was not an ordinary person but a Martial Arts Grandmaster!

He wasn't just any Martial Arts Grandmaster but one of the Four Little Sword Saints of Japan.

Previously, Su Fan had killed Ninen Buank, who had just entered the grandmaster realm.

Now, Yagyu Jyugong, who challenged him, was a long-established expert.

Many believed that Su Fan would lack the courage to accept Yagyu Jyugong's challenge.

Even if he accepted Yagyu Jyugong's challenge, it would be a dead end.

What people didn't know was that Yagyu Jyugong's challenge inadvertently helped Su Fan a little.

If it weren't for this incident, Su Fan would soon have faced Zimmerman, the founding elder of Rattlesnake Security Company.

Zimmerman had maintained a zero-failure assassination record, showcasing his prowess.

Though Zimmerman hadn't faced Yagyu Jyugong, Yagyu Jyugong certainly wouldn't claim that he could definitely survive Zimmerman's assassination.

Over in Yang City, Ning Miaoqi, Ning Zhengde, and others, along with Zhao Chunqiu, quickly found Su Fan.

This time, Yagyu Jyugong was clearly not easy to deal with.

The best approach was to refuse Yagyu Jyugong's challenge.

Although Su Fan was the president of Yang City Martial Arts Association, whether he accepted anyone's challenge was his own decision.

He ultimately chose to accept Yagyu Jyugong's challenge.

It would be better if his strength could remain hidden.

But if Yagyu Jyugong couldn't openly succeed, he might come secretly.

If the opponent only targeted him, it wouldn't matter; he feared Yagyu Jyugong might act against Yagyu Kaori and others.

Since the duel with Yagyu Jyugong was unavoidable.

Let them have an open fight before the opponent causes irreparable damage to him or those around him.

The venue for the duel with Yagyu Jyugong and Su Fan wasn't in Yang City, but in Tian Hai.

Tian Hai wasn't Su Fan's territory, nor was it Yagyu Jyugong's territory.

Their meeting in Tian Hai for the duel seemed fair to both parties.

Once Su Fan agreed to fight Yagyu Jyugong, the matter immediately caused a stir in the martial arts world!

Although Su Fan spent most of his time in Yang City.

But his medical skills, the strength he had previously displayed, and his Eastern Medicine Company.

Had already captured the attention of various factions in Qin Province and even numerous influential forces in China.

Upon learning about his duel with Yagyu Jyugong this time, many people were very interested.

Daring to duel Yagyu Jyugong also indicated one thing.

That is, he was already a Martial Arts Grandmaster.

In Bai Yulan villa area, in villa number four.

Su Fan was in the Ning family meeting hall with Ning Zhengde, Ning Tianhe, and Li Guanyun.

After receiving Su Fan's treatment over this period, Li Guanyun had recovered significantly.

Chapter 1116:

This challenge from Yagyu Jyugong to Su Fan was certainly not good news for Li Guanyun.

In the conference hall, Ning Zhengde solemnly asked: "Divine Doctor Su, have you broken through to become a Martial Arts Grandmaster?"

Upon hearing this, Su Fan nodded slightly: "Yes."

Receiving his affirmative reply, Ning Zhengde and Ning Tianhe exchanged glances.

They weren't entirely sure about Su Fan's background.

But there was one thing they knew for certain.

That is, at least when Su Fan dealt with the Filipino King of the Magic Staff, Iludi, he was not yet a Martial Arts Grandmaster.

How much time has passed since then, and Su Fan has already become a Grandmaster in the Profound Qi realm!

Li Guanyun had known for a long time that Su Fan was a Martial Arts Grandmaster.

So he was asking about the grudge between Su Fan and Yagyu Jyugong.

"Divine Doctor Su, how confident are you against Yagyu Jyugong?"

"Has the conflict between you two reached an irreconcilable level?"

Li Guanyun was aware of Su Fan's actions against the Yagyu family.

But Su Fan didn't completely wipe out the Yagyu family, and now Yagyu Zhengren, a member of the Yagyu clan, is in charge of it.

The destruction of the Yagyu family cannot be entirely blamed on Su Fan.

Moreover, Yagyu Jyugong's identity itself was questionable.

There was considerable evidence suggesting he wasn't part of the Yagyu clan's direct line, not even a branch—just an adopted son.

With these reasons, a duel between Su Fan and Yagyu Jyugong could potentially be avoided.

After Li Guanyun inquired, Su Fan contemplated earnestly before saying: "There will inevitably be a battle between me and Yagyu Jyugong."

"As for my chances of winning against Yagyu Jyugong, I don't know."

He supported Yagyu Zhengren as a puppet, but to make this puppet completely obedient, Yagyu Jyugong must die.

Once Yagyu Jyugong is dead, Yagyu Zhengren will have no refuge or constraint, and will only focus on obeying orders.

Su Fan's attitude was understood by Li Guanyun and the others.

Li Guanyun sighed and then said: "Since the duel is happening in Tian He, Yagyu Jyugong won't be able to create any underhanded tricks."

"Divine Doctor Su needs to focus on continuously improving and maintaining good form before the duel."

"I will do my best to gather information related to Yagyu Jyugong for Divine Doctor Su."

Su Fan expressed his gratitude: "Thank you, Elder Li."

After confirming this matter, Li Guanyun did not stay at the Ning family villa.

Su Fan and his group got up to see him off.

After Li Guanyun left, the group returned to the conference hall.

This time, along with Su Fan's trio, Zhao Chunqiu and others were present.

Zhao Chunqiu looked at Su Fan and was the first to speak: "Young friend Su, what do you need us to do this time?"

When it comes to a confrontation at the level of a Martial Arts Grandmaster, there is very little they can do.

But regardless of what others think, Zhao Chunqiu is determined to stand with Su Fan against a powerful foe.

No one else in the conference hall had any thoughts of backing down either.

However, this time they were facing a Martial Arts Grandmaster.

Even if they wanted to help, they found themselves at a loss for capability.

After Zhao Chunqiu's inquiry, Su Fan shook his head and said:

"This time, no help is needed from anyone. Just continue training and improving in Yang City."

"Though Yagyu Jyugong has been renowned for a long time, he seems to have exhausted his potential and hasn't progressed further in years."

"Barring any surprises, he and I are currently at the same martial realm."

"If defeated under the same realm, I can at least retreat unscathed."

Behind great reputations, there are no empty titleholders; Yagyu Jyugong is, after all, one of the four young Sword Saints of Japan.

When facing such a top expert, even Su Fan must consider defeat before victory.

Seeing Su Fan so calm and steady, the others felt somewhat relieved.

They now shared a bond with Su Fan; his victory would be their victory, and his loss their hardship.

Chapter 1117: The Final Battle at Tianhai Approaches

The duel between Su Fan and Yagyu Jyugong is inevitable.

Since there is an irreconcilable conflict between the two sides, whether he accepts the battle or not, Yagyu Jyugong can compel him to fight.

The best result now is to have a fair and open battle with the opponent in Tianhai!

The Tianhai Bund is extremely lively, whether day or night, it is always bustling with tourists.

During this period, a section of the Tianhai Bund has been isolated.

Many luxurious yachts have also anchored nearby.

Big names from around the world, having received the news, are arriving one after another.

There's still some time before the date of Su Fan and Yagyu Jyugong's duel, but everyone is already impatient.

Yagyu Jyugong is a universally recognized expert, not an ordinary Martial Artist, but a Martial Arts Grandmaster.

In the East, he even holds the honor of being one of the Four Junior Sword Saints.

To challenge such a long-established master like him against Su Fan, the crowd feels an instinctive sense of the strong picking on the weak.

It's no wonder that people don't hold Su Fan in high regard; the outside world knows too little about him.

Even until now, there is no direct evidence proving he is a Martial Arts Grandmaster.

This is because Su Fan has been keenly blocking this information. If it weren't for Yagyu Jyugong causing issues, it would be advantageous for him.

On a cruise ship not far nor too close to Tianhai, Yagyu Jyugong is practicing his Sword Dao.

Every strike of his still gives an odd impression.

But if the observer can place themselves in his shoes, they'd feel a textbook-like harmonious beauty.

Everyone's height, weight, arm span, muscle strength, and so on, are often different.

Therefore, everyone has swordsmanship most suited to themselves. Yagyu Jyugong found the most suitable sword moves for himself early on.

After finding these moves, for thirty years, through wind and rain, he has been practicing hard.

He seems to have become a solitary old oddity, mostly repeating some sword moves every day, tediously.

Now accompanying Yagyu Jyugong is Iwai Yoshimitsu.

Iwai Yoshimitsu is not from the Kawabata family but rather from another giant in the East, the Iwai family.

The Iwai family is a Sword Dao lineage, currently at the peak of its prowess.

The Iwai family has given rise to two Sword Saints, a great and a junior, in this century.

Iwai Otsuka, one of the Four Major Sword Saints of the East, and Iwai Junichi, one of the Four Junior Sword Saints, are the pride of the Iwai family.

This Iwai Yoshimitsu is no ordinary figure either.

He is a disciple of Iwai Otsuka, who even considers Iwai Yoshimitsu's talent in Sword Dao to be astonishing.

In a few decades, he might surpass Iwai Junichi and him, becoming the top master of the Iwai family.

Though these words have some element of him boasting about his disciple, the praise Iwai Yoshimitsu receives from Iwai Otsuka speaks volumes about his prowess.

These days, Iwai Yoshimitsu has even become Yagyu Jyugong's sparring partner.

However, he didn't come here just to watch an exciting duel or to serve as a sparring partner for Yagyu Jyugong.

He has an important mission, which is in case Yagyu Jyugong falls, he must seize the opportunity to launch a sneak attack and deliver a fatal blow to Su Fan!

No one can imagine that this sunny, charming young man is secretly the deadliest killer.

Su Fan is unaware that his current adversaries are not just one, but two—one prominent, one hidden.

Yang City, Bai Yulan Villa Area, Villa No. 5.

With the decisive battle imminent, his lifestyle hasn't changed much.

He still goes to the affiliate hospital for work daily, checks on company development, then returns to Villa No. 5 to train and practice martial arts.

His Harmonizing Four Symbols and True Taichi method have achieved a relatively perfect integration.

When he uses the True Taichi method against enemies, he can also unleash the power of the Harmonizing Four Symbols.

Chapter 1118: Perfect Timing

In the open space behind the villa, Su Fan was gracefully practicing Tai Chi Boxing.

His movements were simple and elegant, possessing a beauty characteristic of Eastern martial arts.

The transitions in his form gave an impression of power flowing like silk, and steps as light as a cat's walk.

Everything was slow and graceful, yet possessed a unique mystical strength.

Ning Miaoxi and Zhen Bingyu were watching Su Fan practice martial arts.

However, their skills were far inferior to Su Fan's, so they couldn't train with him.

When Su Fan finished his practice, both of them seemed deep in thought, having gained something.

Watching a master practice is like a chess player observing a grandmaster play.

Though they don't fully understand, they somewhat gain insights.

"Hoo—"

Su Fan slowly exhaled a breath of turbid air.

Then he said to Zhen Bingyu and Ning Miaoqi, "That's all for today. If you wish to watch me practice tomorrow, feel free to come over."

Upon hearing this, Ning Miaoqi and Zhen Bingyu both nodded.

They were very interested in watching Su Fan practice.

Moreover, watching Su Fan practice was beneficial for improving their skills.

After Ning Miaoqi and Zhen Bingyu left, Su Fan took a shower, changed clothes, and went to Yin Qianyu's villa.

Yin Qianyu's villa was also in the Bai Yulan Villa Zone.

Nowadays, Wang Fei and Yin Qianyue always lived in one place.

Yin Qianyue and Wang Fei were currently in Yin Qianyue's room.

When they were at Baiwei Pharmaceutical, they were rivals.

Now that both have been with Su Fan, becoming his female slaves, past grievances have been reconciled.

After all, whether it was Baiwei Pharmaceutical or Qi's family, they have all become past now.

The entire Qi family, only Qi Tian escaped to Europe.

At this moment, Wang Fei and Yin Qianyue were busy with a mirror.

Their soft mounds were pressed together, their legs were intertwined.

Four tender petals were rubbing against each other.

Yin Qianyue's clove-like tongue was also entwined with Wang Fei's pink tongue.

Their eyes were filled with a hint of daze and allure.

On their exquisite faces, their cheeks were ablaze with rosy hues.

From their throats, a peculiar syllable occasionally escaped, composing a symphony of beauty.

Su Fan quietly arrived at Yin Qianyue's villa but didn't see them.

After a simple search, he found Wang Fei and Yin Qianyue in Yin Qianyue's bedroom.

After inputting the room password, he walked into the room.

Then he saw the two in a state of passion.

The two were slightly surprised when they saw Su Fan, but they didn't stop their actions.

Su Fan closed the door and went to their side, pushing both of them onto the soft bed.

Yin Qianyue, after being pushed, curiously asked, "Why are you here?"

Su Fan smiled and said, "I can't come?"

Yin Qianyue shook her head, "It's not that you can't, but don't you have something to do?"

Su Fan casually asked, "Do I have something to do?"

Yin Qianyue thought for a moment, then said, "I heard you're going to duel someone?"

Not only had Yin Qianyue heard about it, but Wang Fei had heard about it too.

So Wang Fei curiously looked at Su Fan, wanting to know what exactly was happening.

Su Fan simply lay down between Yin Qianyue and Wang Fei, embraced them in his arms, and said:

"In a while, I need to go to Tianhai to duel with a master from the East."

Wang Fei asked worriedly, "Is it dangerous?"

Su Fan didn't answer immediately. After a moment of serious thought, he said, "It should be somewhat dangerous."

Upon hearing this, Yin Qianyue quickly spoke up, "Can you not go?"

As she spoke, she raised her hand in annoyance, taps on Su Fan's hand.

Because Su Fan's large hand was grasping her left soft mound.

Chapter 1119: The Pain of the Defeated

If it was merely normal kneading and playing, it would be fine, but Su Fan was obviously using force, kneading recklessly.

Wang Fei also received the same treatment, but like Yin Qianyue, she was helpless.

Although Su Fan was kneading two soft doughs with abandon, he did not neglect the important business.

He shook his head and said, "I can't not go."

Wang Fei asked curiously, "Why?"

Su Fan replied without hesitation, "If I don't accept the challenge, they may enter Yang City and cause trouble for you."

"If they kidnap you, they can force me to take action."

"Going to Tianhai for a fair fight with them is currently the best solution."

Su Fan had an even better solution, which was to completely eradicate the Kawabata family.

The Yagyu family had always relentlessly pursued him in the past.

But after the Yagyu family was exterminated, that problem was completely resolved.

However, the Kawabata family was not a small fry like the Yagyu family.

Even the Yagyu family left behind the enormous threat of Yagyu Jyugong, which he needed to deal with shortly.

Only by taking down Yagyu Jyugong could the troubles brought by the Yagyu family be truly resolved.

When Wang Fei was about to say something, she was completely lifted onto Su Fan's lap.

Before she could speak, Su Fan adjusted the divine spear with his hand, the spear ready to strike like a dragon.

Wang Fei had always been under other men, especially under Su Fan.

This time, she was on top of Su Fan, a first for her.

In such a position, she should normally be able to withstand less of the impact.

But Su Fan's furious dragon demonstrated only two-thirds of its strength and had already forcefully hit her weak spot.

The soft slopes in front of Wang Fei resembled two spread-out meat pies at this moment, pressing against Su Fan.

This is the benefit of real material; if it were silicone, it would only make Su Fan uncomfortable.

While invading Wang Fei, Su Fan didn't let Yin Qianyue idle.

He embraced Yin Qianyue with one hand and began to kiss her fiercely, as if to make her completely breathless.

In the most perfect state, there should also be Bai Man, making it a show for three women.

When Su Fan's attention was on Yin Qianyue, Wang Fei tried slightly to dodge, but Su Fan's furious dragon made her feel uncomfortable.

But the more she moved, the tighter they pressed together.

The two were already fitted together seamlessly, leaving her no room to struggle.

After moving for a while, Wang Fei even felt that the entrance to her mysterious domain was about to be pierced by Su Fan's divine spear.

At the same time, across the ocean, in Northern Europe.

In a laboratory of the Palia Castle Science Academy, Qi Tian was shaking uncontrollably in pain.

The severe pain made him almost shatter his teeth completely.

He let out a bestial roar from his mouth.

Genetic technology is a technology with infinite potential.

But it must be admitted that using genetic technology now is premature.

Even with Palia Castle possessing the world's top life engineering and genetic engineering experts, it's still the case.

But it doesn't matter; continuous experiments, and continuous error correction during experiments, can rapidly push technology forward.

Genetic technology was initially crude, but after expending countless financial, material, human resources, and experimental lives.

The Palia Castle Science Academy already possesses globally top-tier genetic technology.

Their experimental devices and special reagents can now accomplish many unbelievable things.

As Qi Tian continuously banged his head against the bulletproof glass, past scenes kept replaying before his eyes.

The fall of the Qi family, the collapse of Baiwei Pharmaceutical, his father, the chairman of Baiwei Pharmaceutical, jumping from the villa rooftop.

His beautiful fiancée Wang Fei also became a plaything under Su Fan.

Chapter 1120: Just Don't Move

He himself was like a dog with its tail between its legs, surviving near-death, losing an arm, before escaping to Europe.

After arriving in Europe, he experienced betrayal and desolation, and fell into abject poverty.

When he could barely hold on, he gazed into one abyss and saw another.

His severed arm was treated, although he didn't know where the arm came from.

Then came the long-term rehabilitation treatment, recovery training.

After he fully recovered, he entered into an endless cycle of drug experiments, training, drug experiments, and more training.

He didn't know how many drug experiments he had undergone.

But he understood that to avenge his father's death and win back his wife's affection, he had to endure this, as it was his only path.

The terrible pain at this moment nearly tore Qi Tian apart completely.

If it weren't for his iron will, he would have passed out by now.

Once he fainted, he might never wake up again.

Outside the laboratory's glass walls, many researchers were expressionlessly watching the blood-red eyes of Qi Tian.

Qi Tian was not the most suitable test subject, but he was definitely the toughest.

As long as he didn't die, he was very likely to become the perfect human of a new generation.

From apes to Homo sapiens, to humans today, it seemed human evolution had stopped.

Yet, in reality, evolution hasn't stopped but is happening in a slow form.

The Palia Castle Science Academy, however, took an unconventional path, finding shortcuts to accelerate evolutionary speed.

As to what consequences this might lead to, they didn't care.

While Qi Tian was suffering, Su Fan was enjoying bliss with Yin Qianyue and Wang Fei.

As the victor, this was what he deserved.

This was always a winner-takes-all game, where every phase's victor could enjoy everything.

As the losing side, one not only loses all possessions but sometimes also loses one's most precious life.

At the very start, Su Fan was paying attention to Qi Tian.

But by now, he no longer paid much attention to Qi Tian.

With his growth rate, normally, Qi Tian couldn't pose any threat to him.

It had always been not Qi Tian who opposed him, but Qi Tian's backers, the Palia Castle Science Academy.

As of now, even the Palia Castle Science Academy had relatively calmed down, so of course, he paid even less attention to Qi Tian.

In Yin Qianyue's bedroom, even in the face of two, Su Fan was still exceptionally brave.

Both Yin Qianyue and Wang Fei were overwhelmed under his relentless onslaught.

Yin Qianyue, who had just been fiercely attacked by Su Fan for over three hundred rounds, was paralyzed on the bed, completely unwilling to move.

Su Fan wasn't simply moving in and out; each time he withdrew almost completely, then with the most terrifying strength, thrust back fiercely.

Each time, his force was immense and powerful, opening and closing widely, with speed reaching an extreme.

If Wang Fei wasn't there, Yin Qianyue would have been driven to tears by Su Fan's direct hit.

What Yin Qianyue had just experienced, Wang Fei was currently going through.

Seeing Wang Fei gripping the bed sheet tightly, Yin Qianyue could feel what Wang Fei was feeling at this moment.

Yin Qianyue couldn't help but wonder how many women Su Fan could handle in one night?

While her mind was wandering, Wang Fei's ordeal had already ended.

Su Fan's mighty spear again initiated an onslaught against her.

That familiar fullness, even tearing sensation, surged through her heart once again.

Yin Qianyue could only plead, "Let's take a break, I can't take it anymore."

Su Fan indifferently replied, "It's fine, just lie down."
