

Temptation 1181

Chapter 1181

Guo Huaigang has been in a casino on Australia for half a month now.

During this half month, his luck has been exceedingly good.

His initial fifty million capital, amidst ups and downs, wins and losses, has astonishingly transformed into 1.5 billion within just half a month.

His capital is in US dollars, so when he's gambling in Australia, he's not using the local currency; he's playing with US dollars.

Guo Huaigang was a small-time underdog, and when he came to Australia thirty years ago, he couldn't even find a job and had to beg to survive.

But what Australia doesn't lack is big shots who are more than willing to pay someone to risk their lives on their behalf.

If Guo Huaigang were just an ordinary beggar, of course, no one would pay him to risk his life.

But he was lucky; though he didn't have any special skills, he had an exceptional martial arts talent.

When he was on the brink of starvation, he entered a top-tier family in Australia—the Guo family.

Originally, his last name was Wang, but after joining the Guo family, he changed his surname to Guo.

Although the Guo family in Australia has now gone to develop in England, Guo Huaigang used the Guo family as a stepping stone to become a Martial Arts Grandmaster.

Guo Huaigang has only one flaw: he is addicted to gambling.

So even as a Martial Arts Grandmaster, he is a grandmaster with pockets emptier than his face.

Half a month of continuous good luck made him feel reckless.

As a result, even with 1.5 billion US dollars in hand, he still had no intention of stopping.

This led to his 1.5 billion US dollars beginning to shrink since last night.

The last round of betting just now even made the last 300 million US dollars in his hands disappear.

Those who gamble big with Guo Huaigang are certainly not ordinary people either.

That person is Yuan Youzhenhe, and in Japanese history, there was a very famous battle called the Genpei War.

It narrates a great battle between two great super-noble families, the Minamoto and the Taira.

The Yuan family Yuan Youzhenhe belongs to is the family descended from the Minamoto lineage since the Genpei War.

Emerging clans like the Kawabata family, the Liu Sheng family, in front of the Yuan family, have only the qualification to carry their shoes.

Therefore, Yuan Youzhenhe won Guo Huaigang's money quite easily and wasn't the least worried about Guo Huaigang retaliating.

Guo Huaigang also didn't have the guts to retaliate; Yuan Youzhenhe had a Great Grandmaster in martial arts by his side for protection.

Unless he was tired of living, he wouldn't dare to lay hands on Yuan Youzhenhe.

When Guo Huaigang seemed to be utterly disheartened, Yuan Youzhenhe smiled at him.

"Grandmaster Guo, no need to show that expression; it's not that much money."

"Moreover, if you do one thing for me, you won't need to repay the 200 million US dollars you owe me."

"This task is also beneficial to you."

"If this task is accomplished, you might even earn 2 billion US dollars."

In the last round of betting, it was not 300 million US dollars that Guo Huaigang lost but a record-breaking 500 million US dollars.

Therefore, he not only lost all his money but also owed Yuan Youzhenhe 200 million US dollars.

Guo Huaigang couldn't help but ask, "What is the task?"

Although he knew this task was certainly not easy, he still had to ask.

He could owe others money and not repay, but the money owed to Yuan Youzhenhe must be returned.

Otherwise, the Great Grandmaster of the Yuan family in martial arts would come looking for a heart-to-heart talk with him.

Yuan Youzhenhe took out a photo and said:

"The woman in the photo, I once slept with her, but after getting tired of it, I didn't keep her by my side."

"This time coming to Australia reminded me of some beautiful memories. I hope you can bring this woman to me."

The woman Yuan Youzhenhe spoke of was none other than Yagyu Kaori.

The past of Yagyu Kaori has clearly been quite unfortunate, having been mistreated by more than one man.

Chapter 1182

Guo Huaigang never imagined that such a small matter could be worth two hundred million US dollars.

But he quickly asked, "Why do you say this is another opportunity for me to make money?"

After his inquiry, Yuan Youzhenhe told him everything about Su Fan being targeted on the dark web.

Although Guo Huaigang was a poor man, he had the strength of a mid-level Martial Arts Grandmaster.

He was obviously capable of handling such a massive fortune.

After understanding the situation, Guo Huaigang indeed agreed to this matter.

Compared to Mi He and the Sanctuary Organization, Guo Huaigang had no internal intelligence network.

This meant there was no one to cover for him nor anyone to erase traces he left online.

Half a day later, Su Fan received a call from Chen Hanqing.

Su Fan, at this time, had already returned to Villa No. 5 in Bai Yulan's villa district.

He casually picked up the phone and asked, "Hanqing, what's up?"

Chen Hanqing said urgently, "Mr. Su Fan, I intercepted some unfavorable news about you."

"A Martial Arts Grandmaster named Guo Huaigang has taken on the bounty to assassinate you."

"After some investigation, I found out this happened half a day ago in a casino in Australia."

"I've sent the compiled information to you."

As a world-class hacker, the internet was like his backyard for Chen Hanqing.

After Su Fan provided him with a conducive learning environment and the most advanced equipment, his abilities had leaped significantly.

The network security level of the Australian casino was extremely high, yet he still obtained the surveillance records inside.

Su Fan quickly saw the events involving Yuan Youzhenhe and Guo Huaigang from half a day ago.

Yuan Youzhenhe and Guo Huaigang's information was also investigated and compiled by Chen Hanqing.

This unexpectedly revealed to Su Fan another humiliating past involving Yagyu Kaori and the kind of big boss the Yuan family was.

Su Fan sighed lightly and could only call Yagyu Kaori to his room.

Although he'd been spending time with Yan Zi recently, he wouldn't abandon old love for new affection.

Whether it was Bai Man, Wang Fei, Liu Qing in the beginning, or Yan Zi and others recently, he pretty much shared his affections equally.

Yagyu Kaori was a very intelligent woman, even considered Su Fan's strategist.

So when she came to Su Fan's room, she calmly asked, "Did something happen?"

Su Fan didn't know what to say for a moment.

He didn't bring Yagyu Kaori over to use her as a shield.

He needed to understand more intelligence about the Yuan family.

The Yuan family were real big bosses in Japan, even on the dark web, their information was scarce.

But one thing was certain, his old rival, the Kawabata family, could only serve as the vanguard for the Yuan family.

Su Fan lifted Yagyu Kaori up and carried her to the sofa.

Yagyu Kaori smiled charmingly, "What's going on to make you so troubled?"

"Let me think, does this have anything to do with me? Making you unsure how to start?"

This woman had always been very clever; in front of her, it seemed there were no secrets.

Su Fan just called her to the room without saying anything, and Yagyu Kaori could already guess almost everything.

Su Fan still didn't speak, but Yagyu Kaori began to continue guessing.

"Is Yagyu Jyugong using videos of me and him to threaten you?"

Yagyu Kaori had many painful past experiences; none of those were voluntary, but she had no choice.

She was just a weak woman; facing those men, either she died, or she silently endured everything they did to her.

She had no intention of choosing death; even if she were to die, those men had to pay the price first.

Chapter 1183

Su Fan shook his head, unwilling to let Yagyu Kaori recall more painful memories.

He was prepared to get straight to the point, regardless of Yagyu Kaori, or any of his other women.

Before meeting him, how many men she had been with didn't matter.

As long as she had been with him, her body and soul belonged to him, and he could let bygones be bygones.

But before he could speak, Yagyu Kaori had already realized.

"At this moment, there are only those two people who can make you this tense."

"Is it Yuan Youzhenhe, or Yuan Shengjing?"

Yuan Youzhenhe and Yuan Shengjing are father and son, Yuan Youzhenhe is Yuan Shengjing's father.

However, even Yuan Youzhenhe didn't know that after he had been with Yagyu Kaori, she still had to face his legitimate son Yuan Shengjing.

Not only Yagyu Kaori, but also Yuan Youzhenhe's current wife and all his women faced the same situation.

Yuan Youzhenhe only knew that his precious son was a martial arts genius the Yuan family had not seen in a century and was the hope for the family's advancement.

Of course, there is another possibility, which is that Yuan Youzhenhe knows everything!

It's just that since Yuan Shengjing's martial arts talent is so extraordinary and valuable, he kept quiet.

Su Fan didn't say much, just held the soft Yagyu Kaori in his arms a little tighter.

Yagyu Kaori now obviously understood what was going on too.

For some unknown reason, Su Fan had a conflict with the Yuan family!

Yagyu Kaori leaned against Su Fan's chest and said, "Although you bullied me at first, after becoming your woman, you always protected me well."

"Every day in the villa was free and happy for me."

"If my life were to end here, the last part of my life would be joyous."

"I only regret not meeting you earlier to give you my best."

"Whatever happens next, I have no regrets, and I'm willing to do anything for you."

Su Fan originally intended to ask Yagyu Kaori for some information.

Yagyu Kaori's words left him momentarily unsure how to respond.

Su Fan could only say helplessly, "Even if Yuan Youzhenhe or Yuan Shengjing came to demand someone, I would just take their heads off."

"Why do you speak as if we're parting for life?"

"I just want to know some intelligence about the Yuan family, this enemy seems more formidable than any I've encountered before."

After Su Fan said this, Yagyu Kaori smiled and said:

"Is it possible I said that on purpose, to make you protect me and fight the Yuan family?"

Su Fan shook his head, "You wouldn't, at least not to me, you are sincere."

"This sincerity can be felt, so you should also be able to feel my genuine feelings for you."

The smiling Yagyu Kaori was now brought to tears by Su Fan's words.

Because, just as Su Fan said, she too felt Su Fan's sincerity.

She had been with many men and used, treated as an object, just a plaything.

Only Su Fan, after being with her, was willing to protect her and consider her as his woman.

If it were just the past, it would be understandable, as Su Fan was good to not just her alone.

Su Fan was equally good to all the women around him, showering everyone with favor.

This time it was different, this time facing a giant like the Yuan family, Su Fan didn't even consider pushing her away to shield himself.

She now only felt deeply regretful for not giving her first night and everything to this man most worthy of entrusting one's life.

Su Fan didn't know why Yagyu Kaori was moved to tears by what he said.

Chapter 1184

Su Fan had no choice but to hold the other person and comfort her softly, "It's okay. I now have enemies all over the world, one more Yuan family doesn't matter."

"As long as I'm in China, in Yang City, I can get the support and protection of the Dragon Group."

"Besides, I also have formidable martial arts forces around me. If these people want to come courting death, they'll have to have no way back."

Yagyu Kaori quickly regained her composure. She was a very smart woman, one of the smartest among all the people around Su Fan.

She understood that now was not the time for moving emotions and tears.

The urgent task was to solve the problem.

She quickly wiped away her tears and said, "Can you tell me exactly what happened?"

Su Fan hesitated slightly but ultimately showed Yagyu Kaori the video sent by Chen Hanqing.

After watching it, she breathed a sigh of relief and said, "Yuan Youzhenhe is probably only after me, the Yuan family has no hostility towards you."

Su Fan corrected her, "You're wrong. Anyone who wants to harm my people is my enemy."

Hearing this, Yagyu Kaori was silent for a moment, then continued:

"Currently, as long as we deceive Guo Huaigang, the threat brought by the Yuan family can be resolved."

"I can fake my death so that Guo Huaigang can bring the news of my death back to Yuan Youzhenhe."

"Yuan Youzhenhe wants me alive, not my corpse."

"In this way, this crisis can be resolved with minimal cost."

"As long as we prepare thoroughly and don't let Guo Huaigang see through, it's fine."

Yagyu Kaori was indeed very smart, and the solution she proposed was entirely feasible.

By putting on a show, they could easily solve the trouble.

If it were anything else, Su Fan would definitely agree with this proposal.

Compared to gaining a terribly formidable enemy, he would rather put on a show with the other party.

But right now, he presented his plan.

"Although your method is good, I do not plan to do so."

"If Guo Huaigang dares to seek death, I will let him die in Yang City."

"Afterward, whether it's Yuan Youzhenhe, Yuan Shengjing, or anyone else trying to target you."

"I will twist their heads off, no compromise!"

Su Fan wasn't saying this to Yagyu Kaori for show; this was his bottom line.

A man's bottom line is like a dragon's reverse scale.

The dragon's reverse scale, to touch it is to die!

No matter how victorious the Yuan family was in the Genpei War, one day, he would ascend to the pinnacle of martial arts and subdue the martial arts world beneath his feet!

Although Yagyu Kaori was very moved, she would never agree to such a thing.

She didn't want to bring such trouble to Su Fan because of her.

"I disagree!"

"The Yuan family is not an ordinary enemy, and there's no need to provoke such a powerful adversary over this matter."

After speaking, she pleaded again, "Please, listen to me this once."

Su Fan kissed Yagyu Kaori on her delicate face, then said:

"Don't worry, I will handle everything properly."

"Now, Li Guanyun, Master Wu Yunzhou, and Grandmaster Bai Zongze are all my allies."

"I am also a security consultant for the Dragon Group and a member of the Changhe Medical Society, under the protection of the Dragon Group."

"As long as I don't leave the country, even the Yuan family can't do anything to me!"

Although it was somewhat frustrating to be pressured by the Yuan family not to leave the country, he was still unwilling to surrender to them.

He hoped the Yuan family would get furious and send experts to China to deal with him.

In this way, those experts sent by the Yuan family could contribute to the Dragon Group's achievements.

Yagyu Kaori had been with Su Fan for so long that she naturally understood that Su Fan had made up his mind.

At this time, she could only remain silent, with even a bit of self-blame.

If it weren't for her, Su Fan wouldn't be in such a big trouble.

Chapter 1185

Su Fan knew Yagyu Kaori's mood was somewhat down, so he gave this woman a fierce kiss.

He also said, "Don't overthink it. I said I would sleep with you for a lifetime, and that's what I'll do."

There was another half of the sentence Su Fan didn't say, which was that he would always protect her.

If there weren't any other troubles, Su Fan would like to have a nice time with Yagyu Kaori now.

Upon learning that Guo Huaigang was coming to Yang City to trouble him, he prepared to use his intelligence advantage to strike first.

Su Fan placed Yagyu Kaori on the sofa and then got up.

Yagyu Kaori quickly asked, "Where are you going?"

Su Fan casually replied, "I'm going to intercept Guo Huaigang on the way!"

Yagyu Kaori urgently said, "Why are you going to find him? You're safer in Yang City."

Guo Huaigang was at the mid-stage Martial Arts Grandmaster level, whereas Su Fan was at the initial completion stage.

Su Fan dismissively said, "It's fine, I'm not going alone."

Upon hearing this, Yagyu Kaori immediately stood up, "I'm going with you, if anything happens to you, I'll die with you!"

Su Fan was suddenly helpless, "It's okay, I won't do anything I'm not sure of."

"Wait for me in the villa, don't go anywhere."

"I'll have Zhen Bingyu and Ning Miaoqi watch over you, don't make things difficult for them."

After speaking, Su Fan came to Yagyu Kaori's side and gave her a deep kiss.

Yagyu Kaori hugged Su Fan tightly, preventing him from leaving.

She knew Su Fan was formidable, but she was really worried that after leaving this time, he might never return.

Su Fan had no choice but to gently tap the back of Yagyu Kaori, putting her into a deep sleep.

This time, to deal with Guo Huaigang, he planned to ambush and eliminate him.

Since the opponent had already accepted the bounty to kill him, he couldn't blame Su Fan for striking first!

After letting Yagyu Kaori sleep in her room, he left the villa.

Bai Zongze, Li Guanyun, Wu Yunzhou, and Yan Zi, along with Ning Zhengde and his son, were all called up by him.

Their action a few days ago killed two Grandmasters.

This time, Su Fan rallied such a large force, obviously intending to deal with other Martial Arts Grandmasters.

Guo Huaigang didn't fly directly to Xi'an Airport or Yangcheng Airport.

He came to the vicinity of Qin Province, then rented a car and drove into Qin Province.

According to the intelligence he saw on the dark web, Yang City was Su Fan's turf, requiring a low-profile entry to avoid being noticed.

What Guo Huaigang didn't know was that before he even entered Qin Province, Su Fan already knew what he was up to.

In Japan, the Gen family.

Yuan Shengjing was recording a video, it was a combat video of him and lida Yumi.

lida Yumi was Yuan Youzhenhe's young wife, and he could refer to lida Yumi as his stepmother or young mom.

However, lida Yumi was only a year and a half older than Yuan Shengjing, so he didn't plan to let her take advantage in seniority.

Yuan Shengjing didn't plan on calling lida Yumi, but he did plan to have lida Yumi call him.

And on the second day of lida Yumi's marriage, he made her call him all night long.

Despite his incredible talent in martial arts, Yuan Shengjing had no interest in practicing martial arts.

Just like Jack Ma had no interest in money, which is why he was once China's richest man.

Although Yuan Shengjing had no interest in practicing martial arts, he was a Martial Arts Grandmaster.

In the upper circles of martial arts, Martial Arts Grandmasters seemed to be everywhere and worthless.

The reality, however, was not like this.

Every Martial Arts Grandmaster might be the result of the Grandmaster themselves and a force's fifty or sixty years of hard work.

Some families might need to sacrifice the happiness and future of two or three generations to put all their efforts into cultivating a Martial Arts Grandmaster.

Chapter 1186

The vast majority of Martial Arts Grandmasters reach that status at the age of seventy!

Although many Grandmasters appear to be in their forties or fifties, the truth is they are all seventy or eighty years old.

Yuan Shengjing is as much a prodigy as Su Fan, only slightly older than Su Fan, turning twenty-one this year.

Both Su Fan and Yuan Shengjing are clearly prodigies among prodigies in martial arts.

Although Yuan Shengjing is slightly older than Su Fan, his talent is definitely no less.

Almost no one has seen him practice martial arts, because he devotes all his time and energy to having fun with women.

As long as they are beautiful and have a good figure, he will make a move.

He records every fight, savoring and appreciating it in detail.

lida Yumi initially rejected Yuan Shengjing as well.

But she later understood that Yuan Shengjing could surpass Yuan Youzhenhe to become the head of the Yuan family.

In a few years, when Yuan Youzhenhe is old, Yuan Shengjing will become her reliance.

Now, while Yuan Shengjing was wildly engaging with lida Yumi, his stepmother, he joked half-seriously:

"Am I stronger, or is the old man stronger?"

Yuan Youzhenhe is also a Martial Arts Grandmaster and doesn't look old, but the old man in Yuan Shengjing's mouth clearly refers to Yuan Youzhenhe.

At this moment, lida Yumi had no interest in discussing these things with Yuan Shengjing.

Yuan Shengjing didn't mind either. After launching his final assault on lida Yumi, he put a small piece into her mouth.

Only after thoroughly satisfying both of lida Yumi's mouths did he casually ask, "Why the long face?"

Iida Yumi wiped the corners of her mouth, wanting to spit out what was in her mouth.

Yuan Shengjing coldly said, "Swallow it and then talk."

Iida Yumi was furious inside but complied anyway.

Afterward, she said, "The old man is in Australia, spending two hundred million US dollars to get a Martial Arts Grandmaster to find a woman for him."

Despite being entangled with Yuan Shengjing, Iida Yumi was still quite competitive. Read full story at noVELfire.net

Yuan Shengjing laughed loudly upon hearing this, "No problem, I'll play with both of you then."

Iida Yumi angrily retorted, "What do you take me for?"

"And that woman, you know her too, it's Yagyu Kaori!"

Iida Yumi and Yagyu Kaori were originally best friends.

It was because Lida Yumi was often with Yagyu Kaori that Yuan Youzhenhe took an interest in her.

However, she succeeded in rising to the top, becoming Yuan Youzhenhe's fourth wife, while Yagyu Kaori did not.

She certainly did not want her smart, good friend to come back and compete for favor now!

Although Yuan Shengjing wasn't particularly interested in these matters, it didn't stop him from learning about them.

After delving into the Yuan family's intelligence network, his attention shifted to Su Fan.

He doesn't focus on practicing martial arts because his martial arts talent is virtually the best of his generation.

At least on the surface, no one surpasses him.

But now, he discovered someone who surpasses him, leading him to have special thoughts about Su Fan.

In Qin Province, beside a mountain highway, several cars were parked.

According to Guo Huaigang's route, this was a path he had to pass through, and Su Fan had been waiting for him here.

Of course, Su Fan had no idea that he had aroused the jealousy of the geniuses of the East Yuan family.

His current displayed talent was better than Yuan Shengjing's, something Yuan Shengjing could not accept.

Regardless of whether Yuan Shengjing could accept it, he currently had no time to pay attention to Yuan Shengjing.

Because Guo Huaigang's car had already arrived.

As Guo Huaigang's car leisurely drove along the mountain highway, Su Fan appeared on the road.

The drivers saw a person standing on the road and decisively stopped their vehicles.

Su Fan confirmed that the vehicles were correct, the license plates were correct, and even the clothes of the people in the vehicles were correct.

The only wrong part was that the person in the car wasn't Guo Huaigang!

Chapter 1187

After the other party got out of the car, Su Fan took a quick step forward, came face to face with the person, and pressed, "Where is the driver from earlier?"

This stretch of road was all mountain-ringed highway, without surveillance, so Chen Hanqing could not know the changes inside the car.

But this driver definitely knows what happened in the car.

Stopped by Su Fan, the driver, although scared, still decided to play dumb.

"What driver?"

"This car... I've been driving it all along."

This person, though wanting to make money, was after all just an ordinary man, his acting skills lacking.

Moreover, Su Fan knew very well who was driving this car earlier.

Without needing Su Fan to continue asking, Ning Tianhe took out a gun and pressed it to the man's head.

This man was just an ordinary person, not well acquainted with martial artists, but very familiar with handguns.

He immediately fell to the ground with a thud, kneeling.

"Spare me!"

"I run a small restaurant on the road. Earlier, a guest came to eat at my place."

"He said he was laundering money and was being watched by the security bureau."

"He ordered me to drive his car, wear his clothes, and continue driving along this road."

"Afterwards, he'd give me five million. If I refused, he'd kill my whole family!"

"With a flick of his finger, he snapped my cleaver. I dared not disobey."

Hearing this, Su Fan immediately understood he underestimated Guo Huaigang.

He promptly asked, "How far is your restaurant from here?"

The middle-aged man thought for a moment and stammered, "About fifty kilometers, I think."

Upon hearing this, Su Fan dared not delay, getting into the car immediately, heading back to Yang City.

Now, without a martial arts grandmaster present in Yang City, if Guo Huaigang barged into the Bai Yulan villa area, everyone inside the villa would be in trouble.

Su Fan's judgment was entirely correct.

Guo Huaigang was doing exactly this at that moment.

This time, the Yuan family not only provided him with funding but also with intelligence support for his action.

Guo Huaigang had no hesitation, moving towards Yang City at the fastest speed.

Though the Yi family had two members—one crippled, the other limping—

but while Su Fan rushed towards Yang City, the only option was for Yi Shanhan and Yi Yaoyang to temporarily hold them off.

This time, he underestimated his opponent, leading to his being set up by them.

Li Guanyun and others were returning to Yang City from different routes.

If they failed to catch up and Guo Huaigang succeeded, they could intercept him.

While Su Fan was speeding on the highway, Chen Hanqing's call came through again.

Su Fan immediately answered; this matter couldn't be blamed on Chen Hanqing.

After all, there were no surveillance devices on the mountain road, and Chen Hanqing didn't know what happened.

Plus, Chen Hanqing was just one person, while the Yuan family had a comprehensive intelligence organization.

This incident taught Su Fan two lessons!

Firstly, even if five grandmasters confront one, never underestimate them.

Secondly, with more than seventy billion US dollars, he could spend some to recruit talents and build his intelligence network.

Upon answering the call, Chen Hanqing immediately apologized.

"Mr. Su Fan, I'm sorry, my judgment was wrong."

Su Fan, unconcerned, said, "It's fine, it's not your fault. Our opponent this time is the Yuan family's intelligence department."

After saying this, he continued to ask, "Any new developments?"

This time, Chen Hanqing hesitated a bit but still said:

"Guo Huaigang's cell phone location shows up in three places."

"Two of the locations are definitely fake, and one location is very close to you, Mr. Su Fan." IF YOU WANT TO READ MORE CHAPTERS, PLEASE VISIT Novel~Fire.net

Upon hearing this, Su Fan immediately said, "Send me the navigation information, I'll go check it out."

Without hesitation, Chen Hanqing began providing real-time navigation for Su Fan.

The distance between his Cullinan and Guo Huaigang's jeep was gradually decreasing.

Chapter 1188

Although Chen Hanqing couldn't immediately crack the Yuan family's intelligence department's technology, Su Fan's luck was evidently good, enabling him to find the real Guo Huaigang.

On the highway, the gas pedals of both cars seemed to be pressed all the way down, dashing madly on the straight road!

Following Chen Hanqing's navigation, after a stretch of chasing, Su Fan finally saw Guo Huaigang's car.

Guo Huaigang quickly noticed Su Fan as well.

But he didn't stop or entertain the idea of confronting Su Fan; instead, he continued racing at full speed.

The two cars soon entered Yang City one after the other. After reaching Yang City, the road became increasingly crowded with vehicles. Read complete version only at novelfire.net

Although Su Fan was eager to catch up with Guo Huaigang, he had to decelerate again and again.

Guo Huaigang, however, didn't slow down and continued his lightning-fast pace towards Bai Yulan Villa District.

The villa district's barrier was directly knocked aside by Guo Huaigang.

After entering the villa district, Guo Huaigang headed straight for his destination.

After taking Yagyu Kaori, someone would meet him in the suburbs.

Then he could either leave directly or choose to fight Su Fan, seeing if he could kill Su Fan and claim the two billion US Dollar bounty.

Guo Huaigang's speed was immense, but upon reaching Villa No. 5 in Bai Yulan Villa District, he still encountered a cripple and a paralyzed person.

Yi Yaoyang and Yi Shanhan's complexions were extremely grave at this moment.

In films and TV shows, if the disabled aren't truly disabled, they are top-notch experts.

If Yi Yaoyang and Yi Shanhan weren't injured, they indeed would be experts.

But now, the two were mere cripples.

Coming here, perhaps they could only use their lives to hold back Guo Huaigang.

Zhen Bingyu, Ning Miaoqi, and Bai Wei from the Bai family all arrived at this time.

Guo Huaigang saw this group of people, but he didn't pay them any mind.

He charged forward with incredible speed, appearing before Yi Shanhan in the blink of an eye.

Yi Shanhan, propped on a crutch, shouted explosively, "Go back!"

While speaking, he threw out a punch!

Even though his condition was false, this punch still bore the dignity of a Grandmaster.

"Bang!"

A muffled sound resonated, forcing Guo Huaigang back by a step due to Yi Shanhan's hit.

Yi Shanhan's prosthetic leg instantly broke, sending him flying backward.

His current strength was a mere fraction, truly no match for Guo Huaigang.

After striking down Yi Shanhan, Guo Huaigang intended to press forward.

At this moment, Yi Yaoyang's palms fiercely slapped the armrests of his wheelchair!

"Bang!"

The rebounding force propelled his whole body into the air.

Then, with an indomitable and powerful palm, imbued heavily with the vigorous True Qi of martial arts, he blasted towards Guo Huaigang.

"Boom—"

Guo Huaigang met it head-on, palms clashing.

This time, he was involuntarily shocked, forced to retreat three consecutive steps before steadying himself.

"Pft!"

Yi Yaoyang, who had exchanged a blow with him, suffered an internal injury, spurring a mouthful of blood and collapsing to the ground.

However, his effort to halt Guo Huaigang thoroughly infuriated Guo Huaigang.

While Yi Yaoyang lay unable to move, Guo Huaigang walked towards him, intending to finish him with a palm strike!

Zhen Bingyu and Ning Miaoqi knew that at this moment, everyone was in the same boat.

They certainly wouldn't let Yi Yaoyang die, unsheathing their weapons and rushing towards Guo Huaigang.

"Boom!"

Guo Huaigang struck a palm through the air, with overwhelming True Qi of martial arts, sending Zhen Bingyu and Ning Miaoqi flying back like kites with broken strings.

By now, Bai Wei, who had come from the Bai family villa, had no choice but to act as well.

Currently, she was already a half-step Martial Arts Grandmaster.

Though not a match for Guo Huaigang, she could still stall him for a breath or two.

"Swish!"

Bai Wei's figure moved, charging towards Guo Huaigang.

In her hands, she held a pair of Emei Piercers!

Initially, Guo Huaigang didn't plan to bother with Bai Wei, intending to swat her aside casually.

Yet, after launching a palm, Bai Wei narrowly evaded it with danger looming, then continued to charge with the Emei Piercers in hand.

This slightly surprised Guo Huaigang, causing him to strike again.

By now, Bai Wei's Emei Piercers were close to Guo Huaigang's throat, but she couldn't thrust forward.

Guo Huaigang was already sneering, raising his protective Qi barrier.

At the same time, with everyone's interference, Su Fan finally arrived at the critical moment.

Chapter 1189

Men die for wealth, birds die for food.

Money, though not as sharp as blades, possesses deadly power at all times.

There is already a significant difference in physical fitness between Martial Arts Grandmasters and the common people.

Their speed, strength, stamina, and so forth far surpass ordinary individuals.

Yet, even at this level, money's impact on them is still enormous.

Guo Huaigang has no grievance against Su Fan, yet he targets Su Fan in Yang City, targeting Su Fan's woman.

There's only one reason: for a fortune.

But the most precious thing in this world is absolutely not money; it's one's life.

Su Fan will soon make Grandmaster Guo Huaigang realize this.

When Guo Huaigang sees Su Fan, he isn't afraid.

Because Su Fan is alone now, with no other Martial Arts Grandmasters around. Latest content published on novelfire.net

This not only doesn't scare Guo Huaigang; it even excites him.

On the dark web, the bounty from various forces on the same target accumulates.

For example, now Palae Abbey offers fifteen billion US dollars for Su Fan's bounty.

But the total bounty on Su Fan on the dark web is twenty billion US dollars.

The remaining five billion bounty is added by other forces.

Also, Su Fan can only see the bounty initiator, not the other forces that target him.

When Guo Huaigang sees Su Fan, his eyes seem to see a mountain of gold.

A mountain he can put into his pocket at any time.

After Su Fan arrives, Guo Huaigang doesn't bother with others.

His gaze and all his attention are completely focused on Su Fan at this moment.

Su Fan stands opposite Guo Huaigang, his gaze vigilantly watching the enemy in front of him.

He knows why Guo Huaigang came to trouble him, and he knows the opponent won't leave easily.

So while he stands here, he's already prepared to fight to the death.

Guo Huaigang has no intention of speaking with Su Fan; he's here to kill, not chat.

Even if he wants to chat, he can do so after killing Su Fan and find two fair-skinned, beautiful, blond blue-eyed women to chat with.

When Su Fan confronts Guo Huaigang, those around them are extremely tense.

Guo Huaigang's prowess, the people already experienced not long ago.

Once a Martial Arts Grandmaster of the initial peak stage, Yi Shanhan, and Yi Yaoyang.

Before Guo Huaigang, they were not even a match for one move.

As for the others, they couldn't withstand even one move from Guo Huaigang.

Guo Huaigang doesn't waste words with Su Fan and adopts the starting stance of Cai Lifu Boxing, waiting for Su Fan to attack.

Su Fan also has no intention of attacking first, using cloud hand as his starting stance, waiting for the opponent to come.

Don't say it's a Grandmaster contest; even in matches between professional fighters, you wouldn't rashly approach the opponent or attack recklessly.

Martial arts are killing skills, summarized from countless battles on the battlefield.

The ultimate pursuit of martial arts is always killing, even with one strike, to stop evil!

Guo Huaigang slightly frowned upon seeing Su Fan using Tai Chi.

Martial artists practicing Tai Chi are mostly those one would prefer not to encounter.

It's not that Tai Chi Boxing is invincible; rather, the upper and lower limits of Tai Chi masters are significant.

Ordinary Tai Chi practitioners may not have more skill than street brawlers.

But Tai Chi Boxing executed by a Martial Arts Grandmaster is extraordinary.

Guo Huaigang hesitated momentarily but made up his mind to wait for Su Fan to attack first.

Tai Chi Boxing emphasizes post-emergent attacks, post-emergent control.

But in situations where offense is possible or necessary, Tai Chi Boxing can also initiate attack.

While Guo Huaigang waits, Su Fan has already raised his hand for a strike, and his figure follows closely to charge forward.

Chapter 1190

A Yin-Yang fish pattern of black and white aura swiftly collided towards Guo Huaigang.

Guo Huaigang exhaled and roared, throwing a punch.

His powerful True Qi transformed into a shadow of a fist at that moment, fiercely crashing towards the Yin-Yang fish pattern.

"Boom!"

The combined assault collided suddenly in midair, resembling the explosive sound of dynamite at a quarry.

Su Fan followed up with several continuous palm attacks.

The Tai Chi Palm Seals bombarded incessantly towards Guo Huaigang.

Guo Huaigang dared not be careless, his iron fists swung as tightly as an impenetrable barrier.

"Boom! Boom! Boom! Boom!"

The two exchanged blows from a distance, causing continuous explosive sounds as their True Qi clashed.

After a brief probing, Su Fan and Guo Huaigang formally commenced their duel.

Guo Huaigang had already recognized Su Fan's advantage was in the purity and solidity of his True Qi, but his combat experience was somewhat lacking.

Moreover, Su Fan lagged behind him by a small rank in martial arts realm.

Su Fan was at the initial peak stage of Martial Arts Grandmaster, while he was at the mid-stage.

Generally speaking, one needs to be highly esteemed to be called a Grandmaster.

However, that's the saying of the Daoist scholars, such a Grandmaster is merely a moral Grandmaster, not a Martial Arts Grandmaster.

These old academics, if they encountered a Martial Arts Grandmaster like Guo Huaigang, would be knocked out by a single punch.

Guo Huaigang continued his relentless attacks, attempting to completely suppress Su Fan with an endless onslaught.

Su Fan, however, countered each move, constantly breaking and deflecting Guo Huaigang's attacks.

His combat experience isn't that insufficient.

After all, he is only around twenty years old and already possesses considerable combat experience.

As their battle commenced, Guo Huaigang always pressed with rapid attacks, while Su Fan maintained steady defense, turning defense into offense.

"Bang! Bang! Bang! Bang!"

Amid the bewildering spectacle, Su Fan and Guo Huaigang engaged continuously.

Guo Huaigang suddenly thrust a palm forward, aiming the Face Slapping Palm at Su Fan's face.

Faced with such sudden and swift offense, Su Fan either shielded with protective aura or evaded.

However, a Tai Chi Grandmaster's fighting style is evidently different from other martial artists.

Su Fan raised his hand and seized Guo Huaigang's wrist.

Then, he twisted his waist and exerted force, executing a 'Wild Horse Part Mane' to smash Guo Huaigang away.

"Bang!"

"Crack!"

The first dull sound came from Guo Huaigang crashing into a sycamore tree.

The second crisp sound was the sycamore tree breaking under the impact.

Even some out-of-control vehicles can't break trees on the roadside.

This demonstrates the tremendous power of Su Fan's strike. THIS CHAPTER IS UPDATE BY novelfire.net

For a normal person's flesh and blood body to break a tree as thick as a barrel, their body would certainly be in tatters.

Moreover, normally, it's impossible to break.

But Guo Huaigang, a Grandmaster, wasn't injured by such a fierce blow.

Under the protection of his protective aura, he was completely unharmed!

The formidable power of a Martial Arts Grandmaster was evident at this moment.

Guo Huaigang and Su Fan quickly resumed their duel.

During this exchange, Guo Huaigang displayed an unusual weapon to Su Fan, something he had never seen before.

Although exotic weapons sound sophisticated, they are essentially niche weapons.

Few people use exotic weapons, meaning not many experts focus on studying or refining them.

The techniques for using these weapons might be rare.

Thus, martial artists using exotic weapons are generally not formidable, except for a very few who can use them exceptionally well.

The exotic weapon in Guo Huaigang's hand was the chain sword.

This exotic weapon consists of metal pieces connected by a special technique, forming a soft whip.
