

Temptation 1201

Chapter 1201

Sun Ruidong was mistaken; this call was Su Fan's first and only conversation with him.

Since the Hidden Sun Family had this attitude and had already acted against the Eastern Medicine Company, he wouldn't hold back.

Over at Sun Ruidong's side, he wouldn't be careless either.

The recording of his conversation with Su Fan was sent by him to the high-level members of the Hidden Sun Family, Sun Tianci and Sun Tianming.

He hadn't acted on his own previously, because this was the Sun Family's directive.

Sun Tianming received the recording of the call but didn't respond.

Sun Tianci, on the other hand, said, "If he calls again, you can soften your stance. We don't need to make trouble unnecessarily."

Evidently, neither Sun Tianming nor Sun Tianci took Su Fan seriously.

In the following days, Sun Ruidong did not receive any calls from Su Fan.

Moreover, the development of Eastern Medicine did not halt; it continued to rapidly advance with full force.

Su Fan and Eastern Medicine's actions thoroughly enraged Sun Ruidong and the Hidden Sun Family.

The already ill-tempered Sun Tianming was even more prepared to show Su Fan a thing or two.

He wanted the family's Martial Artists to kidnap Eastern Medicine's COO, Wang Xiaoxiao!

The actions of hidden families are difficult to monitor; although Su Fan kept Chen Hanqing focused on Sun Ruidong and others, he truly was unaware that the Sun Family's Martial Artists were planning to kidnap Wang Xiaoxiao.

In the President's office of Mountain City Pharmaceutical Group.

At this moment, with Sun Ruidong wasn't Jiang Wenli, but Xiao Lan.

Compared to Jiang Wenli and others, Xiao Lan's relationship with Sun Ruidong was clearly better.

While applying lipstick, Xiao Lan asked Sun Ruidong:

"Mr. Sun, why are we fighting with Su Fan of Eastern Medicine?"

Sun Ruidong casually replied, "It's not that we want to fight Su Fan, but Su Fan is reaching into our bowl."

"Even in today's free market, all commercial activities should speak through products and services."

"But the Sun Family has raised many Martial Artists who aren't just idle eaters."

"When encountering competitors like Su Fan who can't be resolved through proper commercial means, we have to resort to some improper methods."

As Sun Ruidong spoke, he adjusted the remote control in his hand to the seventh gear.

Xiao Lan, who had been talking to him, instantly clenched her legs and squatted completely on the ground. NEW NOVEL CHAPTERS ARE PUBLISHED ON novelfire.net

Xiao Lan's expression was unprecedentedly painful.

At this moment, her heart seemed to be shattered, the powerful little toy more formidable than she'd imagined.

Her whole body was becoming numb from the vibrations.

Xiao Lan could only squeeze out sound from between her teeth, saying to Sun Ruidong, "Mr. Sun, lower it a bit, I can't take it."

If it was just once or twice, or just for a few minutes, she could endure it.

But Sun Ruidong wouldn't have it that way; each time he'd vibrate her for an hour or two, making her unable to stand, before he'd be content.

Sun Ruidong was indifferent to Xiao Lan's request; he even opened the mall again, starting to browse more intriguing items.

At the same time, four Martial Artists from the Sun Family also set out for the Eastern Medicine headquarters.

The Eastern Medicine headquarters has experts stationed there.

If dealing with ordinary martial forces, it would absolutely suffice.

Unfortunately, this time in a showdown with Su Fan, it's the Hidden Sun Family!

Leading the four Martial Artists of the Sun Family was Sun Zhuoda.

Although four people from the Sun Family came, only Sun Zhuoda actually entered the Eastern Medicine Company.

The headquarters of Eastern Medical Group is large, making it difficult to meet Wang Xiaoxiao.

But Sun Zhuoda was certain to meet Wang Xiaoxiao because he had an appointment.

In the reception room of Eastern Medicine, Wang Xiaoxiao and Shen He were waiting for a joint CEO from a partner company.

The so-called joint CEO is a title where a company has two or more CEOs.

But Wang Xiaoxiao and Shen He were destined not to meet the joint CEO from the partner company this time.

Because it was Sun Zhuoda who stepped into the reception room.

Sun Zhuoda walked into the reception room and took out the photo for comparison.

After confirming that the person in front of him was Wang Xiaoxiao, he went straight forward.

In the reception room, the security personnel already realized something was off.

As Sun Zhuoda approached, several security personnel also stepped forward instantly.

"Sir, please don't come any closer."

Wang Xiaoxiao and Shen He, although unsure of what was happening, also realized something was wrong.

Wang Xiaoxiao, without any hesitation, immediately took out her phone to call for help.

However, at this time, the security personnel in the reception room had all been knocked out by Sun Zhuoda!

Sun Zhuoda was a Martial Arts Grandmaster; these security personnel were no match for him.

Wang Xiaoxiao's phone was effortlessly snatched away by Sun Zhuoda.

Then he used a hand chop on Wang Xiaoxiao and Shen He's necks and gently knocked them unconscious.

Although Shen He was also a high-level executive at Eastern Medical Group and Su Fan's woman, the order from above this time was to just take Wang Xiaoxiao.

So Sun Zhuoda didn't take Shen He along, just hoisted Wang Xiaoxiao over his shoulder and quickly left Eastern Medicine Company.

With Sun Zhuoda's strength as a Grandmaster, avoiding other staff at Eastern Medicine was obviously very easy.

And indeed, he did just that; throughout, he did his best to avoid all employees of Eastern Medicine.

By the time a staff member discovered the incident in the reception room, thirty minutes had already passed.

Su Fan had not suddenly acted against the Sun family before because he was investigating the situation and looking for an opportunity.

Hidden clans are certainly not just any ordinary group; if they were so easy to deal with, they wouldn't have been able to be passed down to this day.

But Su Fan really didn't think that while he hadn't acted against the hidden Sun family, the Sun family's Martial Arts Grandmaster would actually run to Eastern Medical Group to kidnap someone!

After receiving the call from Chen Hanqing, Su Fan didn't hesitate at all and drove straight to pursue.

Sun Tianming had Sun Zhuoda kidnap Wang Xiaoxiao to originally arrange a meeting with Su Fan in Yu Di for negotiations.

But he also didn't expect that Su Fan's subordinate, Chen Hanqing, could trace Sun Zhuoda's car through the license plate.

On the narrow highway, two SUVs were driving one after the other.

Sun Zhuoda and the tightly bound Wang Xiaoxiao were in the rear vehicle.

Sun Zhuoda didn't need to take Wang Xiaoxiao back to Yu Di.

He just needed to deliver Wang Xiaoxiao to the designated location, and the rest would be handled by others.

Wang Xiaoxiao was bound with rope, and her mouth was gagged.

Although this group of kidnappers didn't do anything to her, she was still very scared.

Behind these two SUVs, Su Fan was in pursuit of the two cars.

However, he started thirty minutes late and was following an approximate route provided by Chen Hanqing.

He always kept a certain distance from Sun Zhuoda and the others' car.

The destination for Sun Zhuoda and others at this moment was an old airport about to be decommissioned.

The Sun family had their own private plane there, and Wang Xiaoxiao would be directly taken to Yu Di by the Sun family's private plane.

Sun Zhuoda and his group soon arrived at this airport.

Compared to newly built airports and terminals, these airports built one or two decades ago seem somewhat shabby.

However, the appearance of the airport isn't important, as long as planes can take off and land normally.

Although Sun Ruidong believed that the Sun family's group of martial artists were all a bunch of reckless fools with no brains,

Sun Tianming's arrangement this time was almost flawlessly executed.

When Sun Zhuoda brought Wang Xiaoxiao near the airport, they were met by the people who were to receive them.

Wang Xiaoxiao was quickly handed over to this group of martial artists, and Sun Zhuoda and the rest swiftly left.

The Martial Artist responsible for taking Wang Xiaoxiao to Yu Di was Sun Yuqi.

Sun Yuqi was also a Grandmaster, and like Sun Zhuoda, she also had three subordinates.

Chapter 1203

Sun Zhuoda's group delivered Wang Xiaoxiao and then left the place.

But Sun Yuqi's group could not take Wang Xiaoxiao away.

A group of young men in suits appeared in front of Sun Yuqi's group.

Seeing these people, Sun Yuqi frowned and said, "Who are you?"

Upon hearing Sun Yuqi's question, Fang Longtao had no intention of answering, merely saying, "Leave the woman behind."

Sun Yuqi coldly asked, "Are you Su Fan's subordinates?"

Fang Longtao wasn't interested in answering her question; his reply to Sun Yuqi was a straightforward punch.

Seeing Fang Longtao make a move, Sun Yuqi's subordinates reacted instantly.

In the blink of an eye, the two groups were fighting each other.

However, Sun Yuqi's group was clearly no match for Fang Longtao's men.

Sun Yuqi was merely in the early stage of a Martial Arts Grandmaster, not yet perfected in this state.

Fang Longtao was different; he was a mid-stage Grandmaster expert.

Fang Longtao was certainly not one of Su Fan's subordinates, nor was he an enemy of the hidden Sun family.

He simply stumbled upon this opportunity to make a fortune and decided to capitalize on it.

Out of Sun Yuqi's group of four, three soon died.

Even Sun Yuqi was easily subdued by Fang Longtao.

Seeing her extraordinary beauty, Fang Longtao abandoned the idea of killing her cruelly.

"Let's go!" Fang Longtao waved his hand, and his well-trained subordinates instantly retreated from here.

Fang Longtao and all his subordinates were foreign mercenaries from France.

They had committed crimes in many places globally, but they had also ensured a way out for themselves.

That was, until today, they hadn't committed any crimes in China.

Even this time, their conflict was with the Sun family's Martial Artists, not with ordinary people.

Fang Longtao was a mid-stage Grandmaster, and all his subordinates were elites.

Otherwise, Martial Artists from hidden families like Sun Yuqi wouldn't have fallen into their hands so easily.

Yashan Industrial District was some distance from the airport, and it was home to many heavily polluting heavy industry factories.

Fang Longtao and his group's base was located in one of these factories.

Their nominal identities were all factory workers, rather than mercenaries battling on battlefields.

Upon arriving at the factory, a young man removed his hood, revealing a dark face.

This man wasn't Asian nor white, but an African American.

His name was Nick.

Nick flashed two rows of big white teeth and said to Fang Longtao, "Coach, can I touch this woman?"

He was referring to the frightened Wang Xiaoxiao.

Fang Longtao shook his head, "She's a hostage, you can't touch her and must protect her."

"If Sun family's Martial Artists return for a counterattack, don't let them take the hostage away."

"But after I'm done with this woman, you can have a taste."

Fang Longtao was referring to the completely subdued Sun Yuqi.

Fang Longtao didn't have Su Fan's medical skills and didn't know how to block Sun Yuqi's meridians.

But he had a special agent for dealing with Martial Artists; he had just administered one to Sun Yuqi.

At this moment, Sun Yuqi was entirely powerless, her body soft like a bunch of cotton.

She couldn't resist and even speaking to Fang Longtao was a struggle.

Despite this, she weakly uttered, "If you dare touch me, I guarantee you're dead!"

Upon hearing her words, Fang Longtao responded indifferently, "You're not the first to say that to me, and definitely not the last."

Then he said to his subordinates, "Inform Su Fan to give me ten billion US dollars to ransom his woman."

Fang Longtao wasn't planning to earn twenty billion US dollars by assassinating Su Fan, instead he intended to earn ten billion US dollars from Su Fan.

Chapter 1204

Fang Longtao has a large group of brothers to support, and they need a lot of funds for their operations abroad.

Fang Longtao was pondering how to secure funds.

As a result, he happened to learn about the actions of the hidden Sun family, and then he intercepted Wang Xiaoxiao with his men.

Originally, Su Fan was already following Sun Zhuoda and the others, far away from the Yashan Industrial District.

But then an unexpected situation arose; he received a phone call from abroad.

The caller was not abroad, but in the Yashan Industrial District, using virtual positioning techniques instead.

Su Fan answered the call and asked, "What's happening?"

On the phone, a voice, not entirely fluent in Chinese, said, "Hello, Mr. Su Fan, my name is Ji Bolun."

"Unfortunately, your loved one has been kidnapped by a group of kidnappers."

"But fortunately, we have rescued Ms. Wang Xiaoxiao from those kidnappers, and killed three of them."

"This call is to hope for some compensation from you."

Ji Bolun spoke very tactfully, but Su Fan immediately understood his meaning.

This is a very ridiculous situation.

The Sun family's Martial Artist, with a very meticulous plan, kidnapped Wang Xiaoxiao.

But during the transfer of Wang Xiaoxiao, she was intercepted by another group of kidnappers.

Now, these kidnappers are demanding ransom from him.

Su Fan asked, "How much compensation do you want?"

Ji Bolun didn't hesitate and bluntly said, "We want one billion US dollars."

If there's really no other way, Su Fan is willing to pay these one billion US dollars.

However, while he was on the call with Ji Bolun, Chen Hanqing was also trying to locate Ji Bolun and his people's whereabouts.

Su Fan thought for a moment and said, "I need some time to gather funds."

Ji Bolun nodded and said, "Understandable, we can give you six hours."

"After six hours, if we see the money in our account, Ms. Wang Xiaoxiao will be very safe."

"Otherwise, we might not be able to ensure her safety."

Ji Bolun finished speaking and ended the call.

Among these mercenaries, there are computer experts too.

Finding their exact location is not easy for Chen Hanqing.

Yet Ji Bolun and his team confidently sent him an email.

The other party seems to be quite clear about his intelligence.

The email contained a video of Wang Xiaoxiao as well as a video of Sun Zhuoda and others handing over Wang Xiaoxiao to Sun Yuqi.

Additionally, there were some scenes of Fang Longtao and Sun Yuqi's confrontation.

But all these videos were processed.

From these videos, it's impossible to determine Ji Bolun's group's location, nor their shooting equipment or video processing equipment.

These people are very professional.

Su Fan still doesn't know where these professional kidnappers suddenly came from.

He only knows that Wang Xiaoxiao indeed fell into their hands.

Moreover, this group is very bold, having killed three of the hidden Sun family's Martial Artists on the spot.

Even if this group is lawless desperados, Su Fan had more thoughts on them.

Using them to deal with England's Parlea Castle and other adversaries is clearly feasible.

The premise is that he must be able to subdue this group!

Although it's unclear where these mysterious desperados came from, Su Fan still went to a nearby Chinese medicine store to buy herbs and make medicine.

He wants to use the magical formula to control this group of kidnappers entirely.

These people don't need to be nurtured domestically; they can be kept in Siam, Baiyue, or other places entirely.

Chapter 1205

Fang Longtao and others certainly don't know, they are just thinking about Su Fan's money, while Su Fan is concerned about their people.

But before Su Fan comes to them, it's clear they can still do a lot of things.

In Fang Longtao's room, Sun Yuqi, the jewel of the Sun family, felt utterly humiliated.

It wasn't that she hadn't been touched by a man before, and she had been touched by many men.

The pressure of martial arts training required her to vent.

Being with men was indeed the best way to vent for her.

But in the past, it was always consensual, only this time, she was completely forced, and Fang Longtao was relentless, as if he wanted to wear her out!

In Fang Longtao's mind, however, it wasn't like that, it's just his usual style.

Moreover, although Sun Yuqi had been injected with a drug that suppressed martial arts True Qi, she was still a Martial Arts Grandmaster and could withstand the onslaught.

Outside Fang Longtao's room, the people showed a mocking smile.

Yet they were all trained mercenaries, even in such situations, they didn't act foolishly.

However, Sun Yuqi's continuous moans and screams still left everyone burning with desire, each feeling restless.

But thinking that after getting the funding from this operation, they could go abroad for revenge and indulge a bit.

So despite feeling restless, they managed to restrain themselves.

On the battlefield, those who can't strictly control themselves die quickly.

They were seasoned veterans who emerged from mountains of corpses and seas of blood, thus they would indulge when appropriate and restrain when necessary.

Fang Longtao's combat strength was exceptionally strong.

Although Sun Yuqi was also experienced, most of the men she dealt with before were just ordinary people.

The encounter with Fang Longtao was different; under his relentless assault, she couldn't help but spasm all over, her mouth letting out uncontrollable cries.

It wasn't known how long it took before her cries finally stopped.

Her lips were completely blocked.

A large amount of hot life essence from Fang Longtao continually flowed into Sun Yuqi's throat at this moment.

Sun Yuqi wanted to bite Fang Longtao to death, but she was too weak now, and Fang Longtao held her mouth, making it impossible for her to do so.

Quickly, her mouth was completely filled.

Fang Longtao didn't give her a chance to spit it out, instead, he pinched her throat, making her swallow it.

This made Sun Yuqi's gaze toward Fang Longtao increasingly angry.

In her heart, she swore that one day, she would personally kill Fang Longtao.

While Fang Longtao and Sun Yuqi were handling matters, Chen Hanqing finally managed to thoroughly investigate Fang Longtao's group.

As Su Fan prepared the formula for the many responding insects, he received a call from Chen Hanqing.

"Mr. Su Fan, I have completed the investigation."

Su Fan's spirits lifted, and he asked, "Who are these people?"

Chen Hanqing explained matter-of-factly, "They were originally French foreign mercenaries."

"This group consists of about fifty people, all were French foreign mercenaries."

"But for some reason, they left the French foreign mercenary legion and went to the African battlefield."

"Their leader is called Fang Longtao, and he is also the instructor for the others."

"Their strength should be mid-stage Martial Arts Grandmaster."

"I haven't managed to find out how many of them are left now, nor their exact strength."

Su Fan didn't expect that Fang Longtao and the others were actually a group of mercenaries.

But he also understood why Fang Longtao and the others completely disregarded the reclusive Sun family.

Chapter 1206: The Operation at the Factory

Nowadays, the times have changed, and many hidden families are no longer at their peak.

Once they leave China, their deterrent and influence will quickly diminish.

Fang Longtao and others have traveled all over the world, and naturally, they would not care if the people they kill are Martial Artists from the hidden Sun family.

After Su Fan asked Chen Hanqing a few more questions, he gained a deeper understanding of Fang Longtao and his group.

Although Chen Hanqing didn't know how many people were around Fang Longtao.

Nor did he know what exactly their capabilities were.

Nevertheless, Su Fan decided to go meet Fang Longtao and his group.

Thanks to Chen Hanqing's efforts, Su Fan already knew their hiding place.

But infiltrating their hiding factory was not an easy task.

Because there is surveillance everywhere in the factory.

Originally, Su Fan planned to rely on Chen Hanqing's help to easily avoid all surveillance and infiltrate the factory.

However, he did not anticipate that once he approached the factory, his phone suddenly stopped working normally.

This shows that Fang Longtao's group certainly has some skills.

Even without Chen Hanqing's assistance, Su Fan still chose to infiltrate.

Lacking Chen Hanqing's help made this matter quite difficult.

With his strength, this distance could be covered in two or three minutes.

But to infiltrate silently, he spent a full fifty minutes before reaching the inside of the factory.

This was because Fang Longtao and others could not acquire many weapons and equipment inside China.

If they were abroad, as long as they had money, all kinds of advanced weaponry could be easily obtained.

After Su Fan entered the factory, he found that this steel factory indeed had some workers on duty.

He searched around but did not find Wang Xiaoxiao; instead, he ended up in the factory cafeteria kitchen.

This place was obviously not his target, so he quickly left and continued to search for Wang Xiaoxiao.

He planned to rescue Wang Xiaoxiao first before dealing with Fang Longtao and his group.

However, just after leaving the cafeteria kitchen, he suddenly had a thought and sneaked back in.

He poured one pill after another into the water.

These pills were all made from the powder of Ying Sheng insect formula.

Once dissolved in water, they were colorless, odorless, and undetectable.

After doing all this, Su Fan did not rush to leave but hid in the cafeteria kitchen.

As meal time approached, Fang Longtao's men indeed came into the cafeteria kitchen to start cooking.

Seeing that the young men responsible for cooking were all at the Hua Qi Realm, and one was even at the Gang Qi Realm, Su Fan relaxed completely.

Since these people are in charge of cooking, it means that Fang Longtao and others are also eating the food.

Su Fan was right this time; Fang Longtao had his subordinates cook for fear of the food having issues.

Because the food was to be eaten not just by the disguised workers but also by them.

There were not many people in the cafeteria kitchen, only five.

But the presence of these five individuals prevented Su Fan, who was hidden behind numerous clutter, from making a move.

Fortunately, even as mercenaries, they cooked very fast.

Before long, the cafeteria kitchen was filled with the aroma of food.

And the cooked food was gradually taken out.

The water in the storage tank, into which Su Fan had added the Ying Sheng insect formula, was also almost used up.

Su Fan didn't expect things to go so smoothly this time. New novel chapters are published on N\(\)velFire.netvelFire.net)

Next, once Fang Longtao and his group eat today's meal, he would have complete control over them.

This special martial power can undoubtedly accomplish many things.

From now on, Fang Longtao and his group will be thoroughly restrained by him.

Fang Longtao could be smart and cautious, but he would never expect someone daring enough to mess around in the cafeteria kitchen.

After all, the surveillance inside and outside the factory is alive.

Even Fang Longtao's room had a surveillance monitor.

Under normal circumstances, Fang Longtao might have detected Su Fan, but he was busy attacking Sun Yuqi this time and clearly missed this one.

Chapter 1207

Fang Longtao is a confident person, and inevitably, confident people often carry a bit of arrogance.

Or rather, they've overstepped the bounds of confidence.

This time, Fang Longtao is about to pay a heavy price for his confidence.

When Fang Longtao and the others were eating, Sun Yuqi also received food.

Sun Yuqi did not refuse this food; she needed to regain her strength and find a way to restore her martial True Qi.

She had no opinion about Su Fan.

Kidnapping Oriental Medicine's Chief Operating Officer, Wang Xiaoxiao, was merely following orders.

But her hatred for Fang Longtao was anything but normal!

No matter what, she had to kill Fang Longtao.

Fang Longtao, of course, knew that Sun Yuqi held animosity towards him.

But Sun Yuqi, having fallen into his hands, would never have a chance to turn the tables.

This is the first time he's exploited Sun Yuqi, and such events will occur countless times in the future.

Neither Fang Longtao nor his numerous mercenaries noticed any problem with their food this time.

It wasn't until everyone finished eating and Fang Longtao returned to his bedroom that he noticed something was wrong.

Fang Longtao's figure swayed twice and then collapsed on the floor, completely powerless.

Though Sun Yuqi didn't understand what was happening, her heart overflowed with joy.

She picked up a vase from the bedroom, ready to kill Fang Longtao.

Unfortunately, she had also eaten the meal just now.

"Bang!"

Sun Yuqi hadn't taken more than two steps when the vase in her hand shattered into pieces on the floor.

While both of them were clueless about what was happening, Su Fan had already found Wang Xiaoxiao and brought her to the door of Fang Longtao's bedroom.

Fang Longtao glanced at Wang Xiaoxiao and then said uncertainly, "Mr. Su Fan?"

Su Fan brought Wang Xiaoxiao into Fang Longtao's room, pulled over a chair, and sat down casually.

Then he looked at Fang Longtao and Sun Yuqi and said:

"You two have some guts, daring to kidnap my woman."

Fang Longtao chuckled awkwardly, "Mr. Su Fan, this is all a misunderstanding."

"Besides, at most we're accessories; we didn't plan the kidnapping of Miss Wang."

"After Miss Wang fell into our hands, she wasn't treated badly."

Fang Longtao wasn't a coward; his current demeanor was simply a stall tactic.

Up until now, he still hadn't figured out how Su Fan managed to ensnare them.

The food was, of course, the most suspicious.

But for Su Fan to infiltrate this factory was extremely difficult.

After infiltrating the factory, finding the kitchen wouldn't be easy either.

Even if Su Fan found the kitchen, how could he carry medication with him?

Was it possible he foresaw this opportunity to use medication against them?

So Fang Longtao couldn't determine what means Su Fan used to ensnare them.

No matter what method Su Fan used, it wasn't that important.

The most crucial matter now is how to survive under Su Fan's control.

Su Fan had no intention of distinguishing between the principal offenders and accessories, and instead bluntly said, "Tell me your detailed identities."

Sun Yuqi coldly replied, "I am from the Sun Family, an isolated family in Yudi."

To a mercenary leader like Fang Longtao, isolated families hold little deterrence.

Isolated families are the local powers in Huaxia, but if he fled to Russia, the Northern European Union, or America, these isolated families wouldn't have any means to deal with him.

For Su Fan, whether to engage with isolated families requires careful consideration.

Fang Longtao hesitated for a moment before saying, "My name is Fang Longtao, I was once a foreign mercenary from France."

After Sun Yuqi and Fang Longtao revealed their identities, Su Fan looked at Sun Yuqi and said:

"Has the isolated Sun Family decided to oppose me?"

Chapter 1208

Sun Yuqi remained silent this time because she was also uncertain about the thoughts from above.

But judging from their previous actions, the Sun family indeed did not intend to be too polite to Su Fan.

Fang Longtao interjected at this moment, "Mr. Su Fan, although we've had some unpleasant experiences before, we can still cooperate."

"I can help Mr. Su Fan resolve some troubles with the hidden Sun family."

"Mr. Su Fan just needs to provide us with enough funds for operations abroad."

Su Fan did not intend to agree to Fang Longtao's proposal.

This time, he needed not allies but subordinates, completely loyal subordinates.

Instead of continuing to question Fang Longtao, Su Fan began to introduce the Resonance Parasite potion to him.

He looked at Fang Longtao and Sun Yuqi, calmly saying, "Both of you have been affected by my Resonance Parasite potion."

"This is a special potion that combines traditional Chinese medicine, ancient techniques, and Miao area witchcraft."

"This potion will cause very slow damage to your bodies."

"If you take the antidote, the effect of the Resonance Parasite potion will be suppressed."

"But without the antidote, once the potion takes effect, you will bleed from the seven orifices and die of heart failure."

"There are only two paths before you."

"One is to serve me completely, and the other is death."

Su Fan's words left Fang Longtao and Sun Yuqi in silence.

Fang Longtao didn't know if Su Fan was telling the truth or lying.

Sun Yuqi, on the other hand, knew Su Fan probably wasn't bluffing them this time.

She had heard of the Resonance Parasite potion and knew after being poisoned, the heart would have slight palpitations.

Fang Longtao paused for a moment and asked, "How do I know Mr. Su Fan isn't lying?"

Su Fan glanced at Sun Yuqi and asked, "You, born into the hidden Sun family, should have heard about the Resonance Parasite potion?"

Upon hearing this, Sun Yuqi said, "If it's truly the Resonance Parasite potion, after being poisoned, the heart will continuously have slight pain."

"If the antidote is not taken, this pain will rapidly increase."

Having heard these words, Fang Longtao was almost certain that Su Fan wasn't making it up.

He had always been aware of the changes in his body, so he knew that the degree of pain in his heart was slowly increasing.

For his survival, Fang Longtao could only choose to temporarily compromise.

This time, he was careless; the comfortable environment within China made him lose the absolute vigilance he had abroad.

Otherwise, Su Fan wouldn't have so easily ensnared him.

Fang Longtao said helplessly, "What does Mr. Su Fan need me to do?"

He initially thought he could benefit from the struggle between Su Fan and the hidden Sun family.

Now he realized his plan was like the mantis stalking the cicada, unaware of the oriole behind.

And he was merely the mantis, not the final oriole.

Su Fan had not yet decided what he specifically needed Fang Longtao to do.

But he didn't say so; instead, he asked Fang Longtao, "What are your plans after getting the ransom?"

Fang Longtao hesitated for a moment and said:

"According to my original plan, we would leave the country after getting the ransom."

"We have enemies in France and on the African battlefield."

"I will set up a security company abroad and negotiate with our previous opponents."

"Look for an opportunity to take down these two opponents."

After hearing this, Su Fan pointed at Sun Yuqi and asked Fang Longtao, "How are you planning to handle her?"

Fang Longtao replied without hesitation, "I plan to take her abroad and find a way to make her one of us."

Sun Yuqi, as a Martial Arts Grandmaster in the initial stage, was of great value to Fang Longtao.

Su Fan nodded and said, "Let's do it that way."

Chapter 1209

Sun Yuqi was shocked and hurriedly said, "I am a Martial Artist from the Hidden Sun Family, you cannot treat me like this!"

Su Fan indifferently responded, "If the Hidden Sun Family dares to send a Martial Artist to the Oriental Pharmaceuticals to abduct my people, then they are my enemy."

"You either follow my orders and go abroad with them to establish a security company under my command, or you die here."

Su Fan would show no mercy to enemies.

If Sun Yuqi had no value, she wouldn't even have the chance to be used and would simply become a dead person.

Sun Yuqi was extremely stubborn and spoke without any hesitation, "Then just kill me!"

"Even if I die, I won't be with them."

Su Fan nodded slightly and then said to Wang Xiaoxiao, "Turn around."

Wang Xiaoxiao knew what Su Fan was about to do and immediately turned around.

Su Fan stood up from the chair and walked towards Sun Yuqi.

Since Sun Yuqi had already shown her stance, he could also give her a swift end.

Sun Yuqi, although her attitude was strong, was actually just putting on a brave front.

Moreover, she thought that Su Fan wouldn't go as far as to harm a woman so severely.

But Su Fan said nothing and directly walked toward her, clearly meaning to take action!

Sun Yuqi didn't dare to continue her bravado and hurriedly said:

"I am willing to surrender, but I will only obey your orders, not his."

Sun Yuqi chose to compromise, as she wasn't willing to die.

However, she was only willing to become Su Fan's subordinate and not Fang Longtao's.

Su Fan nodded and said, "That's fine, your positions are equal, and I also need both sides to monitor each other."

"Once my vendetta with the Hidden Sun Family is settled, I believe there will be some Martial Artists who recognize the situation and are willing to work for me."

"By then, all these people will be under your command."

Sun Yuqi didn't take Su Fan's words too seriously.

She thought that her allegiance to Su Fan at the moment was merely a temporary measure.

Once Su Fan is dealt with by the Hidden Sun Family, she would regain her freedom.

As for the possibility that the Hidden Sun Family wouldn't be a match for Su Fan, she considered it impossible.

Su Fan had made many investments, and this one could be the largest among his current investments.

He invested a full ten billion US dollars.

This ten billion US dollars was the start-up fund for Fang Longtao and others to establish the security company overseas.

Under the Tang Emperor Li Shimin, there was a very formidable force known as the Xuanjia Army, also called Tang Xuanjia Army.

Su Fan named the security company that Fang Longtao and others were forming overseas as Datang Security Company.

He hoped this force could also become his Xuanjia Army, handling enemies around the world for him.

In the future, when dealing with enemies located across the globe, he could obviously mobilize forces from many places.

Furthermore, as Oriental Pharmaceuticals entered international markets, particularly in some unstable regions, it clearly needed strong military protection.

Globally, out of more than two hundred countries and regions, over one hundred and fifty have the presence of mercenaries.

However, these people are often not directly referred to as mercenaries.

On the surface, they have the facade of a security company, defense company, or safety company.

But in reality, whether it's a defense company or a security company, they are all mercenary groups.

When Su Fan had both Fang Longtao and Sun Yuqi under control,

Sun Tianming in Yudi also discovered that Sun Yuqi was out of contact.

Yudi, Mountain City Pharmaceutical Group headquarters, large conference room.

The Group President, Sun Ruidong, who should have been sitting at the center, was currently seated at the upper right.

Chapter 1210

Sitting at the head seat in the center was one of the heads of the hidden Sun family, Sun Tianming.

Besides the two of them, the other senior members of the hidden Sun family, along with some executives from Mountain City Pharmaceutical Group, were also present.

Sun Tianming didn't wait too long before Sun Zhuoda, who had gone to Yang City to kidnap, arrived at the large conference room.

According to Sun Tianming's initial plan, Sun Yuqi should have returned before Sun Zhuoda.

But at this moment, not only did Sun Yuqi fail to bring back the hostage, she herself had lost contact.

Upon seeing Sun Zhuoda, Sun Tianming asked, "You should have understood the overall situation on your way here, right?"

Sun Zhuoda nodded at the words, "Understood."

After speaking, he continued, "My operation at Yang City's Eastern Medical Group went very smoothly."

"Afterward, Su Fan noticed something was wrong and kept tracking us from behind."

"He tracked us for a long time before being forced to give up."

"I don't know what happened afterward."

Sun Zhuoda now also knew about Sun Yuqi losing contact, but he didn't understand why she disappeared.

Originally, Sun Tianming didn't expect Sun Zhuoda to provide any useful intelligence.

When everyone had arrived, he said to the crowd:

"What are your thoughts on this matter?"

"Regardless of your ideas, feel free to speak up, as I currently have no leads."

Upon hearing this, Sun Ruidong silently cursed Sun Tianming as a pig, while other senior members of the hidden Sun family felt their heads were caught in a door.

He had long said that dealing with someone as ruthless as Su Fan required caution.

Either show attitude and act decisively, aiming for a one-hit kill.

Or choose complete patience, refraining from acting against Su Fan temporarily, waiting for the best opportunity to strike.

As a result, Sun Tianming got clever and arranged two groups to go to Yang City to kidnap Su Fan's woman.

Sun Zhuoda's group managed to return safely.

Sun Yuqi and several of her subordinates, however, are nowhere to be found.

In the conference hall, no one dared to speak recklessly.

The matter was too bizarre for anyone to comment.

Seeing no one speak, Sun Tianming could only look at Sun Ruidong and ask:

"Ruidong, in this conference room, you have the most experience and wisdom."

"What is your opinion on this matter? Do you think this was done by Su Fan?"

Although Sun Ruidong didn't want to speak, he could only open his mouth when Sun Tianming called on him.

"I think it's highly likely this wasn't Su Fan's doing."

"From Su Fan's actions and the intelligence we've received from various aspects."

"Master's arrangement this time had no major issues; Su Fan was caught off guard."

Though Sun Ruidong cursed Sun Tianming as a pig internally, he wouldn't say so aloud.

People who accomplish great things are flexible.

They are steadfast when needed but can be as changeable as water when necessary.

Sun Ruidong could rise from a small grassroots position to become the president of the group, reflecting he naturally possessed such abilities.

His statement, indeed, made Sun Tianming feel very satisfied.

In these circumstances, even if someone reported to Sun Tianming that Sun Ruidong spoke ill of him, Sun Tianming would likely not believe it.

After praising Sun Tianming's foolish deployment, Sun Ruidong proceeded to analyze the situation.

He said, "Based on the intelligence we've received, Su Fan's other subordinates haven't taken any actions."

"Su Fan himself fell for Master's strategy and kept tracking Grandmaster Sun Zhuoda."

"Although I don't know what happened in the meantime."

"The disappearance of Grandmaster Sun Yuqi and others is unlikely to be related to Su Fan."
