

Temptation 1211

Chapter 1211

Sun Ruidong indeed had some skills, and if it hadn't been for further unexpected changes, his judgment would have been completely correct.

Wang Xiaoxiao was kidnapped from Sun Yuqi and others by Fang Longtao and his group, who previously had no relation to Su Fan.

Although Sun Ruidong's analysis was correct, the situation was still unresolved.

At this moment, Sun Tianming and the others needed to know where Sun Yuqi and Wang Xiaoxiao were.

Sun Tianming pondered for a moment and decided to call Su Fan.

Although this matter didn't quite seem like something Su Fan would do, he was nevertheless a suspect.

So far, he was even the prime suspect.

Su Fan had already left Fang Longtao's territory by now.

He had completed his control over Fang Longtao and his group; everyone either worked wholeheartedly for him or waited to die.

In this situation, he felt relatively assured about Fang Longtao and the others.

Fang Longtao didn't want to die, and neither did the others under him.

Moreover, they held a common understanding in their hearts.

That is, when they went abroad, they could seek advanced medical institutions to break the control methods Su Fan left on them.

However, whether it was Fang Longtao or other mercenaries, this time they were undoubtedly overthinking it.

The Ying Sheng Chong prescription, if it were so easily cracked, wouldn't be recorded in the Qi Huang Medical Tome.

Su Fan was on his way back to Yang City with Wang Xiaoxiao when he received a call from Sun Tianming.

Once the call connected, Sun Tianming's voice came through.

"Mr. Su Fan, I am Sun Tianming from the Sun family in Yu District; is Grandmaster Sun Yuqi with you?"

Su Fan had already considered this issue before, and now that Sun Tianming asked, he replied without hesitation: "It has nothing to do with you."

This answer, of course, wasn't a great response.

To Sun Tianming, Su Fan's answer was even very arrogant.

After a moment of silence, Sun Tianming asked, "What does Mr. Su Fan want to do?"

Su Fan laughed and said, "What I want to do is my business, not Mr. Sun's business."

"What I can tell Mr. Sun is that Eastern Pharmaceuticals will participate in the market competition normally."

Su Fan didn't say how he would deal with the reclusive Sun family.

If he had enough power under his command, he would indeed want to directly eliminate Sun Tianming and the others.

The other party acted against those around him without cause, and killing them was only right.

But the reclusive Sun family isn't a small, insignificant entity, definitely not mere riffraff.

If he were to wage war against the reclusive Sun family, he needed to be thoroughly prepared.

His attitude now couldn't be too aggressive, which would provoke the reclusive Sun family to take immediate action against him.

Similarly, his attitude could not be too weak either.

Considering his consistent demeanor, if he appeared too feeble, there would be issues.

The best approach clearly is to act as he is now, ambiguous in his stance.

He seemed to be about to do something but also appeared to fear the strength of the reclusive Sun family, hesitant to act rashly.

In reality, it's not!

He plans to return to Yang City and gather all his martial arts forces to confront the reclusive Sun family!

The personal safety of himself and those around him is his bottom line, his critical point!

The dragon's reverse scale, those who touch it will die!

The call between Sun Tianming and Su Fan left Sun Tianming very displeased.

Ordinary people get upset, and their mood might drop, lacking motivation in whatever they do.

A martial artist like Sun Tianming is different; if he's unhappy, whoever dares to upset him might lose their head!

Initially, he only intended to give Su Fan a small warning.

Even later on, he merely wanted to kidnap Wang Xiaoxiao to exert pressure on Su Fan.

Since Su Fan refused to appreciate the gesture, he had no one else to blame!

Sun Tianming had already resolved in his heart to make Su Fan vanish from this world!

Chapter 1212

Although Su Fan has fought battles far and wide, gained fame, and provoked a bunch of fierce adversaries, he seems quite impressive.

But in Sun Tianming's eyes, Su Fan is just that.

The reason Su Fan has managed to survive until now is because of the protection of China and the Dragon Group.

If he were in other countries and regions, his adversaries could easily crush him without any regard for the rules!

But Su Fan's good luck ends here.

This time, he's going to show Su Fan that there are plenty of people in this world who can deal with him!

In Yu, at the Mountain City Pharmaceutical Group headquarters.

Sun Tianming left from here with some senior members of the hidden Sun family.

Sun Ruidong, full of smiles, escorted a group of people to the entrance of the group.

When Sun Tianming was getting into the car, he even reached out to steady the car frame, afraid Sun Tianming's head would hit the top of the chassis.

Of course, Sun Tianming was very satisfied with Sun Ruidong.

Not only did Sun Ruidong manage the company well, but he was also good at dealing with people.

In Sun Tianming's eyes, this is a capable yet loyal lapdog.

Such a lackey, Sun Tianming is naturally very fond of.

After Sun Tianming left, the smile in Sun Ruidong's eyes gradually disappeared.

He looked in the direction of Sun Tianming's convoy, leaving only mockery.

He had said a long time ago, to deal with Su Fan, either hit and kill him instantly, or don't provoke him temporarily.

Now it's good, not only did they involve Sun Yuqi the Grandmaster, but Sun Tianming also hit a snag.

Even if Sun Tianming makes up for lost time and faces off with Su Fan seriously, it's probably already too late.

Of course, the hidden family has deep roots.

Even if Sun Tianming has to suffer some losses, it doesn't really hurt the hidden family.

In Sun Ruidong's heart, he actually hopes Su Fan would kill Sun Tianming.

Unfortunately, Su Fan probably doesn't have the ability, even if he does, he doesn't have the guts.

Among the three Sun brothers, both Sun Tianci and Sun Tianming are hard to deal with.

In contrast, the third brother Sun Tianze, though having the highest martial arts talent, is a wastrel indulging in pleasures.

If he could support Sun Tianze to ascend in the future, Sun Ruidong's status in the hidden Sun family would skyrocket.

Unfortunately, these things, Sun Ruidong now only dares to think about them in his heart.

Some opportunities are created.

While some opportunities can only be waited for.

Sun Ruidong quickly returned to his office, whatever comes next between Sun Tianming and Su Fan no longer concerns him.

Upon entering the office, he closed the door.

His office, excluding himself and a few secretaries, no one else is allowed to enter.

This office is also divided into two areas.

Outside is the working area, inside is the resting area.

In his resting area, Xiao Lan's moans and the sound of mechanical operation, along with rhythmic collisions, are constantly heard.

Xiao Lan at this moment, is fixed on a very peculiar chair.

Her hands are hanging in the air, while her buttocks are sitting on the chair.

Her legs are completely opened, her delicate secret garden completely exposed.

A machine, making continuous seven in and seven out rotations, incessantly striking within.

This machine has a timing function, and through a display screen, it shows that Xiao Lan has been shaken for more than three hours, almost four hours.

Xiao Lan now, cannot feel pleasure but is completely numb from the shaking.

The machine's power is extremely high, from the start until now, Xiao Lan feels like it's on fire inside.

At this moment seeing Sun Ruidong, she can only cast a pleading look at him.

Sun Ruidong certainly has no intention of sparing her, instead, he laughs and says, "Slut, look at you, the floor is soaking wet."

Normally, Xiao Lan would feel a bit embarrassed.

But at this moment, she only hopes Sun Ruidong could stop.

Chapter 1213

Sun Ruidong not only didn't stop the machine, but also added two more hours to it.

Seeing this scene, Xiao Lan could only despairingly say, "President Sun, this could kill someone."

Under the assault of this machine, she was sent to a peak and never came down.

Continuous peaks for four hours, even six hours, how could any woman endure that?

But whether Xiao Lan could endure it or not, she had to; her high salary of fifty to sixty thousand was clearly well-earned.

This money could be said to be her salary, but also compensation for her physical and mental toll.

Not only that, but Sun Ruidong at this time also picked up a shocker within safety voltage.

The voltage of this shocker was higher than that of the one in a lighter, yet within a safe range.

However, the shocker in a lighter could make a person cry out when it hits them.

This kind of shocker would be even more unbearable if used on someone.

Sun Ruidong deliberately targeted not Xiao Lan's arms or legs, but the two petals of her secret garden.

As the electric sparks flashed, Sun Ruidong's laughter and Xiao Lan's screams were heard almost simultaneously.

The voltage of this level did not physically harm Xiao Lan, but it made her extremely uncomfortable.

At this moment, Xiao Lan was driven to tears by Sun Ruidong's shocks.

At the same time, in Yang City.

Su Fan had already returned to Yang City with Wang Xiaoxiao.

He had already set up the Datang Security Company overseas, and in Yang City, he was also preparing to register two companies, the Eastern Security Company and the Eastern Technology Company.

In the domestic market, Eastern Security Company would provide all sorts of legal and compliant security services.

The Eastern Technology Company, using Chen Hanqing as its source, would recruit talents worldwide to form a first-class technology company.

He entrusted this matter to Wang Xiaoxiao, Chen Hanqing, and others.

As for himself, he gathered everyone at Villa No. 4 in the Bai Yulan villa area.

At the Martial Arts Grandmaster level, there were himself, Yan Zi, Bai Zongze of the Bai family, Wu Yunzhou of the Wu family, and Li Guanyun.

At the Gang Qi Realm martial artist level, there were Ning Zhengde, Ning Tianhe, Zhao Chunqiu, Ning Miaoqi, and Zhen Bingyu.

The hidden Sun family had gone too far previously; Su Fan did not intend to let the matter rest. He had already decided to confront the hidden Sun family.

In the Ning family villa, after learning of Su Fan's thoughts, Li Guanyun frowned slightly.

"Dr. Su, the hidden aristocratic families have deep foundations. If the hidden Sun family has a Great Grandmaster, we might not fare well."

This matter needed to be taken seriously.

After all, the best on their side were Martial Arts Grandmasters.

A Martial Arts Grandmaster was a Xuan Qi Realm martial artist.

A Martial Arts Great Grandmaster was a Yuan Qi Realm martial artist.

Martial artists who could bear the words "great universal vitality" in the Yuan Qi Realm were not to be taken lightly.

But Su Fan just smiled and said, "Old Li, don't worry, the hidden Sun family doesn't have a Great Grandmaster."

"This isn't my speculation; it's what the Sun family's Grandmaster said themselves."

What Li Guanyun and the others didn't expect was that Bai Zongze at this moment denied Su Fan's claim.

"As far as I know, the hidden Sun family does have an old Yuan Qi Realm master who refuses to die."

"However, what Dr. Su said is also true, there's no need to worry too much about this person."

"That old guy's vitality and blood have severely declined; he's barely hanging on now."

"Unless the hidden Sun family faces the danger of extinction, I'm certain he won't make a move."

After Bai Zongze spoke, both Li Guanyun and Wu Yunzhou nodded.

They roughly understood the situation.

That level of old master was considered the final guardian of the hidden Sun family.

Unless Su Fan acted recklessly and directly attacked the Sun family's ancestral land, otherwise, that Great Grandmaster would not take action.

Chapter 1214

Li Guanyun nodded and asked, "What does Dr. Su intend to do?"

Su Fan said, "I plan to intercept and eliminate the Sun Clan's martial artists halfway."

"Pretty soon, if nothing unexpected happens, Sun Tianming and his men will send over the Sun Clan's experts to attack me directly."

"I plan to wipe out everyone Sun Tianming sends over."

It was certainly feasible for him to lead everyone and set an ambush along the way.

But there was a problem—how did he know when the Sun Clan would send someone over?

Of course, Li Guanyun and the others didn't ask this question.

Su Fan's intelligence network doesn't need to be disclosed to everyone.

As long as Su Fan can lead everyone to intercept the martial artists of the Sun Clan halfway, that's enough.

Here, everyone, including Ning Zhengde of the Gang Qi Realm and others, are all followers and staunch allies of Su Fan.

As for the few Martial Arts Grandmasters, Yan Zi is Su Fan's woman, advancing and retreating together with Su Fan, supporting each other.

Bai Zongze has placed a heavy bet on Su Fan and can only walk this path to the end with him.

As long as Su Fan isn't shouting about attacking the ancestral lands of some reclusive family, he won't abandon ship halfway.

Li Guanyun and Wu Yunzhou also have deep interests entangled with Su Fan.

Although the two do not particularly wish for Su Fan to engage in a war with the reclusive Sun Clan, since Su Fan has already started the fight, they have no choice.

What they are worried about now is that Wu Guangliang and others from the reclusive Wu family might intervene at this time.

But their worry is unnecessary; Wu Guangliang's group is currently engaged in something that others couldn't even imagine.

What they need most now is time, not an opportunity to eliminate Li Guanyun and the others.

As long as Li Guanyun and the others delay getting there, whatever they do is fine.

As Su Fan made his preparations, a large number of experts also left the Sun Clan's ancestral lands.

These Sun Clan experts went to Sun Tianming's villa after leaving their ancestral lands.

Su Fan having five Martial Arts Grandmasters by his side was known to Sun Tianming.

This time, he made a grand move, inviting four Grandmasters from the Sun Clan's ancestral lands.

Adding the earlier Sun Zhuoda, there were precisely five Martial Arts Grandmasters.

The five Martial Arts Grandmasters of the reclusive Sun Clan were not weaker than the five on Su Fan's side.

However, their goal this time was not to kill all five of Su Fan's group, but solely to kill Su Fan.

The task of subduing Su Fan was entrusted to Grandmaster Sun Zhihong by Sun Tianming.

Compared to Sun Zhuoda, Grandmaster Sun Zhihong was more powerful, now at the mid-stage of Martial Arts Grandmaster.

And he's been at the mid-stage for eight years!

Sun Tianming was very confident, sending over so many Grandmasters at once—what awaited Su Fan could only be death.

Chen Hanqing, Fang Longtao, and others, under Su Fan's instruction, were constantly monitoring the Sun Clan.

He was also aware of the Sun Clan sending martial artists to deal with him.

The reclusive Sun Clan, with its long legacy, of course, knew the importance of intelligence.

They were certainly paying close attention to information on Su Fan's side as well.

After confirming that around Su Fan, including Su Fan himself, there were only five Martial Arts Grandmasters, Sun Tianming thought he was worry-free.

This clash between the two sides was almost an open war.

The difference was that Sun Tianming believed Su Fan couldn't bring in any more Martial Arts Grandmasters to help.

In reality, Su Fan could still call for Fang Longtao's help.

However, Fang Longtao was a card he had hidden, not wanting to reveal it so easily.

Once Fang Longtao was firmly established abroad, there were many things Su Fan needed Fang Longtao to help him with.

And so, the arena between Su Fan and the reclusive Sun Clan became something semi-public.

Although this incident only involved Su Fan and the reclusive Sun Clan, on the dark web, many people were very interested in the matter.

Chapter 1215

No matter what the final result is, at least this incident has proven one point.

That is, Su Fan has the qualifications and ability to confront the hidden families.

Otherwise, the hidden Sun family wouldn't have gone to such lengths to deal with him.

Many people have started to continuously follow this matter, all wanting to know how it will resolve in the end.

Su Fan originally thought he could fully focus on preparing for the provincial competition of the Chinese Medical Elite Contest.

Although his medical skills couldn't improve rapidly in a short time, any additional preparation would be beneficial.

But Sun Ruidong, Sun Tianming, and others weren't planning to give him this opportunity, insisting on opposing him.

Since the opponent has already made their move, he would, of course, decisively counterattack!

Although the conflict between both parties was imminent and unavoidable.

Su Fan didn't have the idea of leading people to attack the Yu region; instead, he was waiting for the Sun family to make the first move.

Although the Sun family had deep roots and countless experts, they didn't act impulsively.

There was bound to be a battle between them.

But when exactly this battle would occur, no one could say for sure.

The Sun family's experts showed no intention of heading to Yang City, so Su Fan naturally wasn't in a hurry, continuing to bide his time in the city.

That evening, Su Fan didn't stay at his own villa but went to Yin Qianyue's villa.

The terrifying threat of the Sun family seemed not to bother him at all.

Contrary to outsiders' expectations, he wasn't losing sleep or appetite; instead, he was thinking about fooling around with women to relax.

Yin Qianyue and Wang Fei had been living together for quite some time.

Their relationship was as good now as it had been bad before.

Yin Qianyue longed for humiliation and abuse, while Wang Fei, having been abused by men too often, now longed to abuse others.

This made them a perfect match, and during the days when Su Fan wasn't around, Yin Qianyue and Wang Fei enjoyed their ascent to ecstasy together every day.

Spending time with Yin Qianyue, Wang Fei also started to change.

She gradually developed some of Yin Qianyue's habits and preferences.

Nowadays, when the two were together, it was either Wang Fei training Yin Qianyue or vice versa.

At this moment in Yin Qianyue's room, apart from a pair of ultra-thin white silk pantyhose, Yin Qianyue wore nothing else.

Wang Fei's attire was quite similar.

The difference was, Wang Fei had wrapped her legs in a pair of ultra-thin gray silk stockings, the kind worn by flight attendants.

Their legs were intertwined, energetically grinding against each other.

The four delicate, pink petals continually rubbed, causing Yin Qianyue and Wang Fei to involuntarily let out soft moans.

Not only that, but there were little bells hanging from clamps on both of their tender peaks.

The proud crimson plum on the snow-capped peak was clamped tightly, distorted in shape.

Evidently, even as they were together seeking pleasure, they were quite relentless with each other.

On Yin Qianyue's peak, there was a fine scar.

The thin scar was from being pricked by a needle.

When Su Fan reached the window, he just happened to see Wang Fei uncertainly asking Yin Qianyue a question.

"Are you sure you want me to pierce you with this?"

In Wang Fei's hand was a sterilized sewing needle.

Although she knew Yin Qianyue had a masochistic kink, she was still a bit hesitant.

After she asked, Yin Qianyue nodded and said, "Go ahead!"

Yin Qianyue was, in fact, somewhat afraid too.

But she had a peculiar nature, as pain and humiliation only made her extremely excited.

Just like before, when she had Wang Fei cut her tender peak's skin with a silver needle, she only felt immense pleasure from the pain.

If she were to fall into Sun Ruidong's hands, it would be mutually beneficial for them.

Unfortunately, her master wasn't Sun Ruidong, but Su Fan.

Even though it was Yin Qianyue who asked Wang Fei to do that, Wang Fei still shook her head repeatedly.

Yin Qianyue pointed to the screen next to her and said, "Look, what's in the video is even more exaggerated than this, but it's fine, come on."

The video Yin Qianyue referred to was from abroad.

Foreigners have a tendency for exaggeration, and this video was no exception.

In the video, a long, narrow needle directly pierced through the cherry on the snowy peak.

Su Fan did not stop Yin Qianyue and Wang Fei from fooling around; in his opinion, Yin Qianyue's little hobby was harmless.

While he was engaged in a lively conflict with the hidden Sun family in Yudi, another matter was also taking place.

In the East, there has always been a saying "A feud lasting nine generations is still worth avenging."

This means that once a deep hatred is formed, even after nine generations, one must seek revenge!

Su Fan had a lot of enemies all over the world.

Among his numerous foes, his hatred with Qi Yun was undoubtedly immense.

At the time when his reputation soared and his fame spread far and wide.

In places where almost no one paid attention, Qi Yun had been quietly working hard all along.

A playboy like him, by origination, had no chance of avenging Su Fan.

But the gods of fate still gave him a chance to seek revenge against Su Fan.

He coincidentally became an experimental subject at Palia Castle Science Academy.

The mortality rate for the genetic experiments at this institution was extremely high.

But Qi Yun was lucky enough to survive the repeated genetic optimization and modification experiments.

As of today, medical science was already highly advanced.

Yet the cutting-edge laboratories worldwide still had a relatively limited understanding of genes.

The scope of what they could do with biological genes was even more limited.

Even at Palia Castle, they could only grope around in the dark through repeated experiments.

It might have been the extraordinary scientific level of Palia Castle Science Academy, or perhaps Qi Yun had a tough fate.

He passed all the current stage's genetic experiments, becoming a Martial Arts Grandmaster in a very short time!

Su Fan became a Martial Arts Grandmaster relying on his unique physique and long-term disciplined training.

Qi Yun became a Martial Arts Grandmaster relying entirely on genetic optimization and modification.

The current state of Qi Yun might lead to sudden death; no one knew what might happen to him.

But, at least so far, Qi Yun was feeling good.

He did not experience any discomfort.

After completing all the genetic experiments at the current stage, he also regained his freedom.

From now on, he could choose what to do.

In a resting room, Qi Yun logged onto the dark web, starting to browse everything related to Su Fan.

After becoming a Martial Arts Grandmaster, there was one thing he very much wanted to do, and that was to kill Su Fan!

In the past, he might have just been an insignificant ant in front of Su Fan.

But now, if he wanted to, he could take Su Fan's life!

He was so confident, partly due to his current immense strength and partly perhaps because he was overconfident.

After all, Su Fan was not to be underestimated; with so many people worldwide wanting him dead.

If he didn't have some remarkable skills, he clearly wouldn't have survived until now.

Su Fan knew that he had many adversaries.

But he never took the fop Qi Yun to heart from the beginning, he really didn't believe Qi Yun posed any threat to him.

At this moment, the two women who were most entangled with Qi Yun were already serving him eagerly.

Not long ago, Su Fan had arrived at the room where Yin Qianyue and Wang Fei were.

Yin Qianyue was already pressed down by him on the bed, encountering his vigorous assault.

Yin Qianyue's round and full peaks became the perfect handles for him, tightly clasped in his hands.

Wang Fei couldn't stay idle either; she knelt beside him, licking his dragon vein while Su Fan attacked Yin Qianyue.

Today's Wang Fei, instead of becoming a rich lady, became nothing more than a lowly little bitch.

But all of this was her own doing, and she had no one else to blame.

Even more, she had gradually adapted to everything now.

The current life, on balance, was still acceptable for her.

Su Fan didn't know what Yin Qianyue and Wang Fei thought, he just wanted to completely relax at this moment.

Chapter 1217

Relaxation and negligence are different.

Negligence gives the enemy a chance to exploit, while relaxation is for better dealing with the enemy.

Su Fan chose to relax when strong enemies were approaching, and there wasn't much of a problem with that.

At least up until now, the five grandmasters led by Sun Zhihong have not yet entered Yang City, and have not even entered Qin Province.

Su Fan plans to deal with them halfway, so he is not in a hurry.

Yin Qianyue and Wang Fei are very familiar with Su Fan.

Since they met Su Fan, they have been developed by him numerous times.

But it seems that truly nothing is better than something new, and people are no exception to that rule.

Su Fan's affection for them has only increased instead of decreased.

Of course, if possible, whether it's Wang Fei or Yin Qianyue, they would probably be willing for Su Fan's affection to be shared with other women.

More than an hour after Su Fan went to Yin Qianyue's bedroom, Yin Qianyue and Wang Fei were lying limp on the bed like cotton.

Earlier, both of them had endured thousands of times of wild crashing, and now they couldn't even close their legs.

Because Su Fan was so well-endowed, the secret garden that was once closed was now gaping open, unable to close.

Both Wang Fei and Yin Qianyue have gotten used to this.

Every time they were favored by Su Fan, they were in this state.

The two were exhausted, while Su Fan was somewhat delighted.

His strength had stagnated at the beginning stage of the Martial Arts Grandmaster level for a long time.

But just now, after fully releasing himself with Wang Fei and Yin Qianyue, he finally advanced further and broke through to the mid-stage of the Martial Arts Grandmaster level!

Once a martial artist becomes a Martial Arts Grandmaster, every step forward is extremely difficult.

It is not unusual for some martial artists, after becoming a Martial Arts Grandmaster, to never advance another step for the rest of their lives.

Even for Su Fan, it took a very long time to take that step further after becoming a Martial Arts Grandmaster.

At this moment, Su Fan was extremely excited!

Possessing the strength of the mid-stage Martial Arts Grandmaster meant he had a stronger ability to protect himself!

He lay between Yin Qianyue and Wang Fei, holding them in his arms and giving them a firm kiss.

Yin Qianyue curiously asked, "What's making you so happy?"

Wang Fei could also feel Su Fan's joy; if Yin Qianyue didn't ask, she would have wanted to.

After Yin Qianyue spoke, she looked at Su Fan, wanting to know why he suddenly became so exuberant.

Su Fan smiled and said, "Being able to have you both in my arms, isn't that something to be happy about?"

Yin Qianyue rolled her eyes and said, "Come on! There must be something else."

The two had been vigorously attended to by Su Fan multiple times, and although Su Fan was often excited, he had never been this happy before.

Su Fan, of course, didn't intend to hide it.

After Yin Qianyue asked, he continued, "Actually, my strength has improved further."

"Previously, being constantly tense, my cultivation progress was very slow."

"This time, after completely relaxing, my strength naturally advanced further."

Yin Qianyue and Wang Fei already knew quite a lot about martial arts matters.

They were happy about Su Fan's progress in strength too.

The stronger Su Fan became, the safer they were, and the more benefits they could gain.

After his power improved once again, Su Fan began to think about making everyone around him martial artists.

It's very difficult for ordinary people to become martial artists.

It requires a period of dietary and medicinal supplement and medicinal baths, along with continuous acupuncture treatment.

Furthermore, because their martial arts talent is very weak, it's difficult for them to reach a very high level in the future.

Thus, in some secluded families, if younger generations have too weak martial arts talent, they might not even have the qualifications to practice martial arts.

Chapter 1218

After serious contemplation, Su Fan decided to transform Bai Man, Wang Fei, Yin Qianyue, Zhou Jie, and all the women around him into Martial Artists.

Becoming Martial Artists would improve their health and increase their longevity.

As for Bai Man and the others, it was fine if they couldn't go far on the path of martial arts.

He never expected Bai Man and the others to join him in dealing with formidable Martial Artists.

After understanding these matters, Su Fan sat Wang Fei and Yin Qianyue up while holding them.

He said at the same time, "Starting tomorrow, you need to persist with medicinal baths, along with dietary and acupuncture supplements."

Wang Fei asked in confusion, "Why?"

Yin Qianyue's eyes also showed a look of doubt.

Su Fan explained truthfully, "Because I want you to become Martial Artists as well, and begin martial arts training."

"In the future, you might also have the chance to witness the grandeur at the heights of the martial arts world."

"Even if you don't have such an opportunity, being able to train in martial arts is nothing but beneficial for you."

Upon hearing this, Yin Qianyue laughed, "Then we'll follow your arrangements."

Wang Fei had no objections either, as matters concerning her were almost entirely decided by Su Fan now.

Her current status was that of Su Fan's bitch and plaything.

And becoming a Martial Artist, indeed as Su Fan said, was entirely beneficial for her.

After discussing becoming Martial Artists with Wang Fei and Yin Qianyue, Su Fan resumed his serious business.

Yin Qianyue was once again pressed onto the bed by him, then he had Wang Fei lie atop her, before skillfully mounting them with ease.

In this manner, he could even alternate riding two Rubicund horses.

Sometimes attacking Yin Qianyue, sometimes going after Wang Fei who was pressing on her.

Even fighting one against two, Su Fan still subdued Yin Qianyue and Wang Fei into complete submission.

In the quiet bedroom, the rhythmical and melodious symphony resounded again.

After fierce attacks and incessant assaults many times, Su Fan came to Wang Fei's side.

Wang Fei knew what Su Fan was about to do and immediately opened her mouth.

Though her reaction was swift, this time, Su Fan undoubtedly missed his mark.

Streams of warmth splashed all over Wang Fei's face, her eyes, nose, mouth, chin, and even her neck.

Before Wang Fei could complain, a terrifying furious dragon had already blocked her mouth.

Not only that, the fierce and rugged dragon also directly pressed against her throat.

The strong discomfort made Wang Fei involuntarily shed tears.

But Su Fan did not stop there; he continued with sustained advancement.

Su Fan's physique was inherently special and overwhelmingly dominant.

After becoming a Martial Arts Grandmaster, his combat power increased significantly.

His divine spear seemed to require no rest or cooldown, ready once more for battle skirmishes.

Of course, this ability was not limitless.

Even after two or three consecutive times, he needed some rest and adjustment.

Even so, Wang Fei suffered through this ordeal.

Her lower mouth had been fed by Su Fan, and now her upper mouth was in trouble.

Su Fan did not let her down, feeding her amply after a considerable time.

That day, Su Fan stayed overnight at Yin Qianyue's villa and didn't leave.

In the following days, he also began mandating that all the women around him take medicinal baths, along with dietary and acupuncture supplements.

This was indeed a grand gesture, as all the related medicinal materials were incredibly valuable.

However, for Su Fan, who owned Eastern Medical Group, this was nothing substantial.

Lands of Yu, Hongyuan Villa.

This place was a villa bought by Sun Hongzhi, the Grandmaster of the hidden Sun family, for his son Sun Shaofeng.

In the eyes of outsiders, Sun Shaofeng was a useless wastrel.

But only Sun Hongzhi knew that his son was indeed a wastrel, but definitely not entirely useless.

Chapter 1219

This son of his has at least two advantages.

One advantage is a remarkably high martial arts talent, which is quite normal, as both he and Shao Feng's mother possess a very high martial arts talent.

The other advantage is that Shao Feng is very intelligent, intelligent enough to provide him with strategic advice.

Shao Feng began giving him advice when he was about seventeen years old.

In the following six years, Shao Feng's views on things became increasingly precise.

Every time he followed Shao Feng's advice, things would surely succeed.

If he acted on his own initiative, even slightly careless would result in a huge loss.

This made Sun Hongzhi realize that this son of his is a genius strategist, even a genius in both literature and martial arts.

Even though many things Shao Feng did make him want to kill this little brat with a slap.

But because Shao Feng could provide massive assistance, he chose to endure.

At this moment, Sun Zhihong and Shao Feng sat again on opposite sides of a coffee table.

Sun Zhihong glanced at Shao Feng and asked, "Shao Feng, what do you think about this matter?"

Shao Feng picked up the teacup and took a sip, casually saying, "If you follow Sun Tianming's advice, you're dead."

His words were certainly blunt.

One of the high-level figures of the hidden Sun family, Sun Tianming, was referred as a pig in his mouth.

His disdain for Sun Tianming was more than obvious, causing Sun Zhihong to frown slightly.

Sun Zhihong hesitated for a moment and asked, "Why?"

Upon hearing this, Shao Feng gave Sun Zhihong a complex look.

In the eyes of a genius with extraordinary intelligence like Shao Feng, Sun Zhihong's performance seemed rather foolish.

Nonetheless, he answered the question: "From all of Su Fan's previous actions, Su Fan is never one to sit and wait for death."

"Once he realizes someone is targeting him, he not only won't sit and wait but will also strike back proactively."

"His actions, most of the time, seem extremely risky."

"Every time, it seems like he is just surviving by the skin of his teeth."

"But the problem is, Su Fan is still alive and well, while most of those who opposed him are dead."

"So I could confidently say that he has enough capital this time to challenge the hidden Sun family."

"I could even predict that during your operations, you'll encounter him at the most unexpected moment."

Having said this, Shao Feng paused and didn't continue.

Because, if he were in the Sun family's high-level position, he wouldn't make such a foolish decision.

Su Fan's appearance has disrupted the interests of the hidden Sun family, but it's also an opportunity for the Sun family to develop further.

Su Fan's Oriental Medicine Enterprise holds significant advantages that other pharmaceutical companies don't possess, and even by assisting Oriental Medicine, they could become beneficiaries.

In this test, the head of the Qin Province Chen family, Chen Mengfei, scored full marks.

The visible leader of the hidden Sun family, Sun Ruidong, and the actual high-level figures like Sun Tianming scored zero.

Not only did they gain nothing, but they also lost a Martial Arts Grandmaster.

Although the Sun family has activated a large network to search for Sun Yuqi, there is still no clue.

They lost a Martial Arts Grandmaster, and managed to offend someone as ruthless as Su Fan.

Shao Feng only felt amused in his heart, he really couldn't understand how these people could be so stupid?

Opposite him, Sun Zhihong fell into silence.

After a while, Sun Zhihong asked, "Then what should I do?"

To have someone nearing fifty years old listen to a youngster in his twenties is not easy.

If he hadn't suffered enough in the past, Sun Zhihong wouldn't want to listen to this young brat's advice now.

Chapter 1220

Sun Shaofeng spoke calmly, "There are quite a few things the Sun family needs to do right now. You could apply to do any one of them, and Ming Ye will surely agree."

He didn't elaborate on what Sun Zhihong should do.

If Sun Zhihong couldn't grasp even this much, then he was beyond help.

He had already made it very clear to Sun Zhihong that this matter is extremely dangerous and might well lead to death.

For the sake of his own life, Sun Zhihong should look for a way out for himself.

Far away in Yang City, Su Fan was unaware that Yu Land's Sun family had someone like Sun Shaofeng.

The other party had effortlessly seen through his thoughts.

However, fortunately, although Sun Shaofeng saw through his thoughts, he did not reveal these matters to the higher-ups of the Sun family.

That's quite normal too, since in the entire Sun family, except for Sun Zhihong, it's likely no one would be willing to listen to the words of such a young person like Sun Shaofeng.

Initially, the mission to make the decapitation move against Su Fan in Yang City was led by Sun Zhihong.

But when the hidden masters of the Sun family truly started taking action, the leader became Sun Zhuoda.

The foundation of the hidden Sun family was indeed extraordinary.

After Sun Zhihong's departure, this team quickly supplemented a Martial Arts Grandmaster.

Sun Zhuoda didn't have a son with the insight and strategic talent of Sun Shaofeng.

Besides, he liked to do things with thunderous speed, the faster the better.

After Sun Tianming put him in charge of this matter, he took action immediately.

The moment Sun Zhuoda set out with his team, Su Fan received information from both Chen Hanqing and Fang Longtao.

Clearly, Fang Longtao has a very capable intelligence expert at his side.

However, this very capable intelligence expert is now also one of his subordinates.

Since the hidden Sun family's Martial Artists had already set out.

Of course, Su Fan wouldn't be idle. He quickly called upon Bai Zongze and others to take action.

In Yu Land, at Hongyuan Villa, Sun Shaofeng also learned about Sun Zhuoda and others setting out.

Upon receiving the news, a cold smile appeared on his face.

At this moment, the person with Sun Shaofeng was a woman, and her name was Tang Luojun.

Seeing Sun Shaofeng's cold smile, Tang Luojun couldn't help but ask, "What are you smiling about?"

Sun Shaofeng didn't hide it, speaking frankly, "Your old man is likely facing a grim fate this time, with little chance of returning."

He was talking about Tang Luojun's father, Tang Changyuan, who was one of the few external-name Grandmasters in the Sun family.

However, Tang Luojun's real father was not Tang Changyuan.

Tang Changyuan's wife was promiscuous when she was younger, having relations with quite a few Grandmasters of the Sun family.

Tang Changyuan was entirely focused on martial arts and was oblivious to his wife engaging with others to relieve their desires daily.

Moreover, in the end, even Tang Changyuan didn't know whose child Tang Luojun was.

But one thing was certain; Tang Luojun was definitely not Tang Changyuan's daughter.

Others didn't know Tang Luojun's true identity, but there were two people who did.

One was Sun Shaofeng, and the other was Tang Luojun herself.

Tang Luojun really shouldn't have gotten entangled with Sun Shaofeng because her real father was Sun Hongzhi.

It's just that back then, Tang Changyuan's wife had been with too many people, so when Sun Shaofeng and Tang Luojun first got together, they didn't consider this matter.

Sun Shaofeng and Tang Luojun believed these matters were known only to them.

But actually, Sun Hongzhi and Tang Changyuan were also aware of this.

Tang Changyuan wasn't as naive and honest as others thought.

So while others slept with his wife, he slept with other people's daughters.

Tang Luojun's first time was taken by Tang Changyuan, but only Tang Luojun and Tang Changyuan knew about this.

Sun Hongzhi knew about it because after Sun Shaofeng and Tang Luojun got involved, he investigated Tang Luojun.
