Chapter 132 - 132 Behind the Scenes

His right arm was dislocated by Su Fan.

The intense pain caused Zhao Wei to break out in cold sweat on his forehead.

"You, you're going too far."

Kneeling on the ground, Zhao Wei glared at Su Fan with hatred, grinding his teeth as he spoke.

"Clang clang clang..."

Su Fan didn't waste any words, directly grabbed Zhao Wei by the neck, and viciously slammed his head against the side door of the business van.

After several blows, the door was severely deformed, and Zhao Wei's head gushed with blood, turning him into a bloodied man.

"I apologize, stop hitting me, I apologize."

Zhao Wei finally caved in.

He knew that he had encountered a ruthless person today.

Su Fan then let go of Zhao Wei.

Zhao Wei obediently apologized to the old lady.

"Granny, I'm sorry."

The old grandma wiped away her tears.

Obviously, she always felt that she lived at the bottom of society, where being bullied had become the norm. Who would have thought that she could also have her moment of pride?

"Get lost."

Su Fan shouted fiercely.

Zhao Wei, as if granted amnesty, scrambled onto the vehicle with his followers, in a hurry.

"Kid, you wait, I will definitely not let you off."

He left behind a harsh threat and quickly urged the driver to drive off, fearing that Su Fan would catch up.

"Su Fan, are you okay?"

"Are you hurt?"

Liu Ye hurried over to ask.

Her face full of concern.

Su Fan waved his hand.

"Such trash can't trouble me."

"Oh, Divine Doctor Su, you're such a good person, but this Zhao Wei is no ordinary man."

The old man said worriedly.

"The Blood Wolf Gang is a real powerhouse in our southern district. Zhao Wei's older brother Zhao Long and his second brother Zhao Hu are ruthless characters. They will definitely seek revenge on you. You should be careful."

Su Fan nodded.

"Thank you for the warning, I'll be careful. But as a doctor, it's my duty to take action when I see injustice."

"Whenever I encounter such bullies, I'll fight them every time I see them, no matter who they are."

"Let's continue treating the patients."

Order was quickly restored at the scene.

Su Fan and Liu Ye became busily engaged.

Because of the recent incident, the residents of Citizens Village trusted Su Fan even more.

It was only around lunchtime that the crowd began to thin out a bit.

"Su Fan, why do you think those people were causing trouble just now?"

Liu Ye bought two boxed lunches, sat in the car with Su Fan, eating and talking.

Su Fan furrowed his brows.

"I also think they came prepared. I suspect it must be related to Sun Zhigang."

"Him?"

Liu Ye frowned.

Su Fan explained.

"Didn't you say that every year, the physical examination is handled by the medical examiners? Yet this year, it was suddenly assigned to gynecology, and I was specifically requested to attend."

"We had just arrived, and before we could even settle in, they showed up. Was that a coincidence?"

"Besides, Zhao Wei, though a third hall master of the Snow Wolf Gang, how would he suddenly appear here?"

Su Fan's words turned Liu Ye's expression grim,

"This Sun Zhigang, what a scoundrel. I think we should call the police; that way, those people won't come looking for you again."

Su Fan couldn't help but chuckle.

"Sister Liu, you forgot, the ones who suffered just now were Zhao Wei and his men. Each of those people is seriously injured. It will take them at least ten days to get out of bed, some even have fractures. If we call the police, I might end up as the prime suspect."

"Besides, we have no evidence to prove that Sun Zhigang was behind this. Would the police believe our word?"
