

Temptation 311

Chapter 311: Secret Admiring Glances

"Sorry about that." Su Fan apologized in a rush, hastily letting go of Huang Ying.

Even though he knew nothing would happen with Huang Ying this time, he couldn't help squeezing her a couple of times.

"Hmm..."

In response to the pain, Huang Ying couldn't help but let out a soft grunt.

But her gaze, too, couldn't help but drift towards the location of Su Fan's "dragon vein," even swallowing involuntarily.

Although Lu Yang's "assets" weren't small, compared to Su Fan's, they were hardly worth mentioning.

It's a pity that their encounter this time was somewhat awkward and embarrassing.

Hence, Huang Ying quickly put on her high heels and then went to change her clothes.

Her movements were very fast, and it didn't take long for her to toss her previous clothes into the washing machine, while she changed into a clean set.

Not long after Su Fan had arrived at the pharmacy, Huang Ying grabbed two sets of silver needles used for acupuncture and came out from the storeroom at the back of the pharmacy.

Su Fan took the silver needles, the same medication as before, and after paying with WeChat, prepared to leave.

However, he unexpectedly discovered that Huang Ying, for some reason, had slipped a small piece of paper into the bag where his medicine was.

Something stirred in Su Fan's heart: "Is this the woman's phone number?"

With that thought, he naturally looked up at Huang Ying.

Feeling his gaze, Huang Ying immediately lowered her head, her heart filled with guilt.

Just as men are entranced by women's long legs, large chest, slim waist, and beautiful faces.

Women clearly have their own thoughts about men's "dragon veins."

After seeing Su Fan's impressive and fierce "dragon vein," Huang Ying simply couldn't resist the temptation to try it out.

But obviously, now was not the time, so all she could do was leave her contact information for Su Fan, leaving both of them with something to ponder.

Soon after Su Fan left the pharmacy, he sent a message to Huang Ying, and the two of them exchanged phone numbers.

Huang Ying had thoughts about Su Fan's fierce and magnificent "dragon vein," and Su Fan equally wanted to deeply experience what it felt like to hold those small watermelons.

After leaving the pharmacy, Su Fan went to buy food.

Although he could order food in the hotel, since he had already gone downstairs, he might as well bring the food back with him.

When he arrived at Bai Man's room, Bai Man was just about to order food.

Seeing Su Fan coming in with a lot of food, she immediately put down her phone and looked up at Su Fan, asking, "What about the medication?"

Compared to eating, Bai Man was of course most concerned about the medication.

She had no intention of being a joyful mother at the moment; even if she were to become one, it couldn't be Su Fan's child.

"It's here." Su Fan handed over the medication he had just purchased at the pharmacy to Bai Man.

Bai Man read the instructions and quickly took the medication.

Even though not taking it didn't necessarily mean she would become pregnant, it would be troublesome if she did.

After taking the medicine, Bai Man sat opposite Su Fan and started eating with him.

The Bai family was currently facing major upheavals, and many things hadn't been dealt with properly.

Under such circumstances, Bai Man no longer cared much about formalities.

As the two of them began eating, Su Fan also asked, "Man, how are things now?"

He didn't call her Aunt Bai Man, thinking about how he had recently distributed his "dragon saliva" into Bai Man's secret garden; he felt a deep sense of guilt.

Under such circumstances, how could he manage to call her 'auntie'?

He didn't call her 'master' either, though he fantasized about being Bai Man's master himself one day.

But with Bai Man's proud character that penetrated deep into her soul, it was clear that she was the type to have others serve her rather than the other way around.

Chapter 312: Feeling the Warmth

If it had been in the past, Bai Man would not have allowed Su Fan to call her "Sister Man."

In the presence of others, Su Fan could call her cousin auntie or Director Bai.

When they were alone, she insisted that Su Fan address her as "Master."

But now, the family was facing a huge crisis, and she was in no mood for such formalities.

After hearing Su Fan's recent question, she thought for a moment and said,

"It's difficult. My second brother took nearly sixty million in bribes, and he spent it here and there, all gone."

"This matter, no matter what, definitely requires returning the bribes."

"But..."

Bai Man stopped there without continuing.

Even for their family's wealth, sixty million was not a small amount.

Given more time, they could still manage to gather the sum.

But after her second brother fell from power, many in the family had become very ambiguous in their stance.

Who knows how many would be willing to contribute money and effort in tomorrow's family meeting to help her brother, and thus save the family from this predicament.

Hearing Bai Man briefly describe her situation, Su Fan roughly understood her difficulties.

Although he had some money, it was obviously not sixty million.

But speaking of money, he indeed had an opportunity to make a fortune.

At Feng Zhenghua's place, there was a very important patient waiting to be saved.

If he could successfully treat Feng Zhenghua's important guest in Yang City, he could earn a staggering fifty million consultation fee.

Given the financial capabilities of Bai Man and others, gathering sixty million was very difficult.

But if he only asked them to contribute half, or even just twenty or thirty million, that should be feasible.

As Su Fan was thinking about this, Bai Man was extremely worried.

Her stunningly beautiful face inevitably bore a few traces of melancholy.

She wasn't melancholic about other things, just simply worried about whether the other family members would contribute money. How else could they gather sixty million?

After dinner, Su Fan did not leave.

Bai Man had booked a suite with extra rooms, allowing Su Fan to stay.

But in the evening, Bai Man said, "Tonight you sleep in this room too."

After leaving these words, Bai Man did not continue to speak.

She was exceedingly troubled now, eager to help her brother-in-law's family through the crisis, but what she could do was very limited.

"Okay," Su Fan replied, nodding after a slight hesitation.

Being able to sleep in the same room as Bai Man, he was naturally somewhat expectant.

After all, things had been quite intense between them during the day.

Sharing the same bed at night, could they take it a step further?

With this thought in mind, Su Fan became even more expectant.

At nightfall, after washing up, he also lay down with Bai Man on a large double bed.

"Come over here," Bai Man commanded in a tone of authority as she looked at Su Fan not far away.

Although Su Fan was not accustomed to this tone, being close to Bai Man was certainly delightful.

After he moved over, Bai Man indeed stretched out her arms and hugged his neck.

At that moment, Su Fan also really wanted to embrace Bai Man.

But as soon as he reached out his hand, Bai Man glared at him, pushing him back.

Meanwhile, Bai Man said with a breath as soft as orchids, "Tomorrow you will come with me to the family meeting."

After finishing, she added, "Tonight I need to get some good rest, you dare touch me and see!"

Her words were obviously very unreasonable.

She could touch Su Fan, but Su Fan was not allowed to touch her.

Yet, while she touched Su Fan, he could also feel her warmth.

Chapter 313 - 313 What Should You Call Me

Now, Su Fan seemed to have little reaction to Bai Man's unreasonableness.

But this evening, the fact that Bai Man wouldn't allow him to touch her was a torment for Su Fan.

In the afternoon, when he heard that he could sleep in the same room with Bai Man tonight, he was very much looking forward to it.

Unexpectedly, this woman had tossed out such a line.

Just when Su Fan thought nothing would happen tonight, Bai Man suddenly grabbed his hand.

"Sister Man..."

Su Fan was somewhat puzzled as to what Bai Man was about to do.

Yet Bai Man placed his hand at the entrance to her secret garden and said coldly, "Don't speak."

After that, she didn't care what Su Fan thought and nestled herself in his arms.

At this moment, she evidently needed someone to lean on.

Unfortunately, although Su Fan possessed excellent medical skills, it was unknown how many years of effort it would take for him to rise above others and become her support.

The Su Fan of now, no matter what, was not likely to become her support.

At this time, Su Fan, of course, didn't need Bai Man to tell him what to do.

"Mmm..."

With the motion of his hand, a melodious moan escaped from the depths of Bai Man's throat.

Su Fan's fingers were very nimble, and the strength in his hands was astonishing.

In that moment, as he held the softness of Bai Man, he alternated between gentle strokes and tenderness.

"Mmm, ah..." The low, melodious sounds emerging from Bai Man's mouth, synced with the movements of Su Fan's hands, quickly turned into a beautiful symphony.

At first, Su Fan was just tugging, kneading, and gently stroking.

And during this process, Bai Man's breathing became increasingly heated.

Of course, Su Fan was not about to stop there, but he hadn't expected Bai Man didn't plan to end things either.

While he was quite proud of himself playing with Bai Man's softness in his heart, he hadn't expected that Bai Man would suddenly reach out to grasp his dragon vein.

Now, as he lay in Bai Man's embrace, facing her capture, his dragon vein could only surrender without resistance.

"Hiss—"

When Bai Man grabbed his dragon vein, Su Fan couldn't help but suck in a breath of cool air.

"Auntie, what are you doing?"

Under the pain, he even blurted out this address for Bai Man.

Of course, it was because Bai Man played hard just now!

When Bai Man made her move, she had suddenly exerted a lot of force.

Although Bai Man was a frail woman, the dragon vein was also Su Fan's weak spot.

Taken by surprise, when his dragon vein was suddenly attacked by Bai Man, he naturally gasped for air.

With the lesson just learned, he quickly circulated his Inner Strength True Qi to protect his dragon vein.

Even if Bai Man were to play dirty, he wouldn't be at a disadvantage anymore.

"What did you just call me?" Bai Man looked at Su Fan with a smile that was not quite a smile.

Su Fan hesitated for a moment but then said, "Just now I said Auntie."

Hearing his words, Bai Man immediately laughed, "Then may I ask what you are doing to your Auntie right now?"

At this instant, Su Fan was, of course, unable to let go as he kneaded Bai Man's mysterious paradise.

Bai Man's question was, naturally, something Su Fan couldn't answer.

Without a response from him, Bai Man's eyes glared, and she said, "Take your hand away; you are not allowed to touch anymore."

In his heart, Su Fan was, of course, very reluctant to comply.

But when confronted with Bai Man, he knew when to submit and when to stand tall, looking at the bigger picture.

Otherwise, if Bai Man didn't allow it one day, not only would he not be able to touch her, but even his uncle, Li Jian, wouldn't stand a chance.

As Su Fan contemplated that tonight there really wasn't a chance, fate seemed to once again offer a twist.

Chapter 314: Hard to Endure Through the Night

By Su Fan's side, Bai Man had now moved a bit closer to him.

Bai Man had many thoughts, and most of the time, they were inscrutable.

Su Fan didn't know what Bai Man intended to do next.

As he pondered this in his heart, Bai Man shifted her body slightly.

Soon afterwards, Su Fan felt a series of moist softness enveloping the proud dragon head he was sporting.

Amidst the opening and closing of the petals, he was rapidly approaching the beautiful flower's core.

However, this little bee was simply too large; after advancing a bit further, it received tremendous support.

A few shades of pain could not help but appear on Bai Man's exquisite face.

Su Fan immediately stopped, aware of Bai Man's limits.

Unexpectedly, although Bai Man slightly frowned and bit her silver teeth, she continued to slowly lower her hips.

It seemed she planned to grind him down slowly, merging inch by inch with Su Fan completely and truly.

After several attempts, Bai Man could only open her misty eyes and say to Su Fan, "You do it."

Her words were not very clear, but of course, Su Fan understood what she meant.

Immediately, he couldn't help but say with a wry smile, "Man, let it be like this."

Generally speaking, this was about Bai Man's limit.

When Su Fan and Su Ya finally took that step, his physical body was once again nourished and significantly enhanced by a great amount of Inner Strength and True Qi.

This made his already fierce dragon even more powerful and imposing.

"No way!" Although Bai Man's delicate face was full of a painful and struggling expression, this woman had always been incredibly strong-willed.

No matter what it was, she wouldn't admit defeat.

Even at that moment, she still wanted Su Fan to continue.

Helplessly, Su Fan had no choice but to forcefully move forward.

"Ah—"

From Bai Man's mouth came, not a low, melodious moan, but a piercing scream.

Su Fan thought he had hurt Bai Man and was about to pull back, when suddenly, Bai Man, who had just covered her mouth with her hand, grabbed him tightly, preventing any retreat.

At that moment, Bai Man also continued to speak, "Tonight, let's sleep like this."

Su Fan was astonished; he didn't know if he had misunderstood.

After all, if they were to sleep like this now, it might be impossible for either of them to fall asleep.

"Man, sleep like this without separating?"

Bai Man gave Su Fan a look and then nodded her head.

Although Su Fan had many women, he had never slept with any woman like this before.

He had not even considered such a possibility before, never having thought it could be played out like this.

If Su Fan's dragon had already roared, that would have been one thing.

But tonight, he couldn't say whether Bai Man would give the dragon a chance to roar.

Now that Bai Man was holding him tight, forbidding him to move, the feeling in his heart was incredibly uncomfortable.

Initially, Bai Man was dominated thoroughly by that raging dragon.

But a woman's ability to endure pain has always been astonishing.

After overcoming the initial pain, Bai Man had gradually adapted.

This caused a few mischievous smiles to appear on her beautiful face.

Seeing her expression, Su Fan immediately thought to himself that this was not good.

Whenever Bai Man showed him this kind of expression, it usually meant trouble.

Su Fan's thoughts, of course, were entirely correct.

Because Bai Man had already come up with a very interesting idea.

Chapter 315: The Heart of a Woman

Bai Man looked at Su Fan with a beaming smile and even leaned in a bit closer.

By now, Su Fan had certainly gained a deep understanding of his stunningly attractive aunt by marriage.

He was very clear that her charming smile did not signify that anything good was about to happen, but rather that something very bad was imminent.

Sure enough, Bai Man whispered by his ear, "If you dare let it out tonight, you can forget about ever touching me again!"

To Su Fan, her words were obviously an impossibility.

At this moment, Su Fan only felt waves of blazing heat attacking him, threatening to completely engulf him.

In such a situation, how could he possibly hold back?

And besides, such matters were like shooting an arrow without the possibility of turning back, how could one simply stop on command?

"Man Jie, then let me go," Su Fan said, having no choice but to speak up.

Although Bai Man was holding him tightly, preventing him from moving recklessly, if this continued, there would inevitably come a moment when he couldn't control the floodgates anymore.

Bai Man's lips curled into a slight smile, "Didn't I tell you earlier? Just sleep like this tonight."

At this point, how could Su Fan not understand this woman's intentions?

Bai Man was clearly trying to make him do something impossible!

The relentless pressure around him and the extremely warm envelopment made it likely that he could erupt furiously at any second.

"Man Jie, I can't control it this way," Su Fan admitted frankly.

Such matters were inherently uncontrollable.

Unless Bai Man released him now and stopped continuously stimulating him.

But not only did Bai Man not let go, she even began to slowly twist her waist.

Su Fan was shocked and quickly reached out to hold Bai Man.

He didn't want to indulge tonight only to be forbidden from touching Bai Man ever again.

With other women, there might still be a chance for a reprieve, but Bai Man was always a woman of her word.

If she said something, it absolutely meant what she said.

If Su Fan focused only on the pleasures of tonight, he would be in a dire situation later on.

Once held by Su Fan, Bai Man sternly commanded, "Let go! Who allowed you to hold me!"

Under her intense gaze, Su Fan could only release her.

As soon as Su Fan let go, Bai Man resumed twisting her slender, soft waist.

Not only that, the scale of her captivating hip movements grew even larger.

Clearly, she was intentionally making things difficult for Su Fan, and even a sage like Liu Xia Hui wouldn't be able to withstand it.

"Man Jie, this is simply impossible," Su Fan said, feeling somewhat angry inside.

If something can be achieved, one should naturally strive to accomplish it.

But if something is truly impossible, and yet the other party insists on it, he is left with nothing but frustration inside.

Hearing Su Fan's words, Bai Man couldn't help but laugh, "So you're saying, you have no guilt about doing this with your older cousin's wife, and you actually want to go even further?"

With that said, Su Fan of course couldn't pick up the conversation.

But after all that had happened, Su Fan felt that Bai Man was his aunt in name only.

Although Su Fan had gained a lot of understanding of Bai Man, perhaps he would never truly comprehend her.

Just then, Bai Man whispered in his ear again, "If you obey Master's commands from now on, you can do whatever you want tonight."

Chapter 316: Impatience Spoils Great Plans

Su Fan always knew that Bai Man was an extremely dominant woman with a strong desire for control.

From the first time they flirted ambiguously, Bai Man had treated him like a slave, with herself as his mistress.

As a man towering to eight feet, Su Fan certainly couldn't accept this kind of relationship.

So on the day Liu Feng died, facing Bai Man's insolence, Su Fan couldn't restrain himself and ravaged her.

After all, it's a society governed by law nowadays, and Bai Man's father was once a high-ranking official in the province.

If he wanted to thoroughly play with Bai Man, he needed her consent.

Even a gaunt camel is bigger than a horse, and despite the current troubles in Bai Man's family, she wasn't someone a country lad like him could manipulate at will.

Especially if Li Jian found out...

If things escalated to that point, he wouldn't be able to play with Bai Man ever again.

So at this moment, Su Fan was extremely conflicted.

Was it to indulge unabashedly tonight, leaving Bai Man in rapturous agony, yet forever submissive to her afterwards?

Or to compromise tonight, maintaining an equal relationship with her in the future?

Though he couldn't enjoy Bai Man anytime or anywhere, as long as this little temptress couldn't resist, she would definitely seek him out first!

With that thought, Su Fan immediately stopped agonizing.

How could someone aiming for great accomplishments sacrifice the large for the small?

"Sister Man, let's stop here tonight," Su Fan said forcefully, suppressing the dragon within on the verge of eruption.

"Is that so?" Bai Man wasn't angry, but swayed her slender waist as she spoke with a teasing smile.

Didn't she know Su Fan well? This guy was on the brink of a dam bursting.

To release would only be a matter of moments.

And if Su Fan dared go all the way inside her, he would be doomed!

"Sister Man, stop moving around, or I won't be able to control myself," Su Fan said with an inward sense of helplessness.

Bai Man restrained him from going all out, yet ceaselessly provoked him.

If this continued, he wouldn't be able to withstand it no matter what.

"Moving around? Like this?"

As Bai Man spoke, she increased the frequency of her waist movements.

This sensual and seductive woman seemed as if she was born to conquer men.

"Hiss—"

The intense stimulation made Su Fan involuntarily draw in a breath of cold air.

At this moment, he felt as if he might erupt like a volcano at any second.

Bai Man's body temperature became extremely warm at this moment.

His dragon was enveloped in layers by the warm comfort akin to Bai Man's hot water bottle.

That wasn't all; Bai Man brought her fiery red lips to his ear and whispered seductively.

"As long as you follow Cousin Auntie's commands in the future, Cousin Auntie can give you a piercing," she lured.

Su Fan initially couldn't understand Bai Man's words.

But after taking on Wang Fei's commission and starting to train Yin Qianyue, Su Fan had gained a lot of knowledge.

Now, he could be considered a professional.

Despite understanding these things, he had never thought about doing them.

In his mind, the number of women willing to go to such lengths for a man must be scarce.

Even Liu Qing might not be able to go that far for him, and for normal women who believed their bodies are gifts from their parents, this was probably utterly unacceptable.

Apart from the extremely promiscuous temptresses, who would want to wear a metal ring on the gateway to their secret garden?

Yet now, Bai Man was using this condition to test Su Fan.

Even with Su Fan's resolve, he was barely able to resist.

The reason being that the temptation was simply too great for a man.

If a woman is willing to go to such lengths for a man, even if she isn't exceedingly beautiful, the man would be eternally grateful and devoted.

Chapter 317: IUD Insertion

At this moment, Su Fan was not facing an ordinary-looking woman.

He was confronting a naturally enchanting beauty, Bai Man.

He gazed at Bai Man's pretty face that was close at hand, and those lively, mesmerizing eyes.

For a moment, he found himself utterly unable to utter a word of refusal.

But Bai Man's offensive showed no signs of stopping.

Seeing Su Fan's hesitation, Bai Man's strategy was to keep upping the ante.

A woman coldly elegant, of high birth, good temperament, beautiful in appearance, and with a great figure, has an immense power to destroy a man.

Besides, Bai Man was Li Jian's wife.

Just thinking about this relationship, and about what he was currently doing with someone else's wife, Su Fan could feel an immense thrill.

Yet, the matter did not end there as, in order to completely dominate him, Bai Man proposed a condition he found almost impossible to refuse.

The prized jewel of a high-ranking provincial official, a princess from a prestigious family.

How could Su Fan refuse such a woman, exquisite in beauty and nobility, who was willing to wear a hoop for him?

However, things were still not over, because while Su Fan hesitated, Bai Man continued to speak.

She pulled Su Fan's hand, and traced it over her sensitive areas, while saying, "Do you want to put it on this side, or on that side?"

Bai Man's words were like continuous electric shocks impacting Su Fan's brain.

Although Su Fan was silent, at this very moment, he had undoubtedly been defeated and could only respond in silence.

He did not speak, but Bai Man kept talking.

She exhaled again with a voice full of allure and said, "Or should I wear one on each side?"

That statement had such a huge impact on Su Fan.

In his mind, the imagery of a bejeweled gate with a metal hoop on each side was exquisitely painted.

Some men, hungry as ghosts in their lust, would probably die willing if they could have an utterly delightful time with Bai Man just once.

If Bai Man were willing to wear hoops for such men, not to mention making them utterly submissive to her, letting them die for her wouldn't be out of the question.

And now, all Bai Man wanted was for Su Fan to obey her from now on in exchange for doing this for him.

At this time, apart from remaining silent, Su Fan could say nothing else.

On one hand, he truly desired Bai Man's mysterious paradise to be exclusively his.

On the other hand, he did not want to be enslaved to Bai Man forever.

"Why don't you speak? Can't you handle it?" Bai Man mocked with a scornful laugh, her words full of provocation and contempt.

Seeing her like this, Su Fan wanted nothing more than to pour out his bitterness towards Bai Man in heaps.

So that when Bai Man faced him, she would never dare show such contemptuous demeanor again.

"Man, I don't know what to say," Su Fan said, struggling to contain his urge to burst out.

In that moment, Su Fan felt that his patience had probably broken records.

Even he didn't know how he managed to hold back under such circumstances.

"Ah... mmm..."

Yet Bai Man's seductive voice continued to stimulate him during this process.

Bai Man was like a witch, determined to play him into submission before she would relent.

Seeing that Su Fan could even endure this, Bai Man's enthusiasm grew.

She pressed her flawlessly beautiful face against Su Fan's cheek.

At the same time, her voice was very gentle, very enticing as she said, "Just nod your head, and cousin can let you personally put the hoop on for cousin."

Chapter 318: A Thousand Charms

As soon as Bai Man spoke those words, Su Fan's ferocious, rugged rage dragon almost instantly let out a world-shaking roar, drenching the peach garden with copious amounts of dragon saliva.

But Su Fan still tried his best to endure, preventing the rage dragon from truly roaring.

In extreme restraint, his body even trembled slightly; he had reached the ultimate limit.

Shortly after, he might just heat up and completely agree to it.

Bai Man, seeming oblivious to Su Fan's discomfort, even took his hand and placed it on her round and full cheeks to pick the proud snow-cold plums.

Su Fan almost subconsciously wanted to knead and pull.

However, the witch Bai Man, at the very last moment, stopped his hands, making it impossible for him to touch.

"Want to touch?" Bai Man asked Su Fan with a smile.

Su Fan could only clench his teeth and nodded slightly.

Bai Man then giggled and said, "As long as you agree to auntie's conditions, not only can you touch, but you can also personally place the rings here."

"Gulp!"

Upon hearing this, Su Fan couldn't help swallowing his saliva.

He was already on the verge of heatedly agreeing—Bai Man, this enchantress, was too good at teasing men.

The thought of having four metal rings belonging to him on Bai Man's body almost made him lose his defenses!

He was a vigorous and virile young man, how could he withstand such temptation?

Bai Man's tactics were far from over.

She still had many more chips up her sleeve; once she spoke, Su Fan might surrender immediately.

If it wasn't for this, she would have already spoken about a bigger chip.

Between a man and a woman, the things that can be explored are almost endless.

While Su Fan was distracted, a phone call saved him!

Just as Bai Man was about to inform Su Fan about a new use for silver needles, her phone suddenly rang.

It was now late at night, and a call at this time undoubtedly meant something very urgent was happening.

Bai Man didn't dare delay and immediately reached for her phone.

Her movement caused her to involuntarily inhale sharply.

"Hiss—"

If she hadn't inhaled sharply, Bai Man would have let out a scream.

Su Fan's assets were simply too impressive; that ferocious, sturdy rage dragon, not only as thick as Bai Man's arm, was like a golden cudgel, extremely hard and long.

After a night of grinding, the dragon's head was already near the flower's core.

The moment she abruptly got up, it felt as if the ferocious dragon's head was about to penetrate the core, entering directly into the prince's palace!

Even Bai Man, no matter how seductive she was at her core, couldn't withstand such an impact.

Su Fan's rage dragon had not yet displayed its power, but a phoenix's cry was heard instead.

Following that, a warm current completely baptized the rage dragon.

Even Bai Man couldn't help but reveal a hint of a coquettish expression.

That night, it was clearly she who was prepared to thoroughly torment and take care of Su Fan, yet before the rage dragon roared, she was already shedding phoenix tears.

The clear and gentle flow was nourishing both divine beasts at that moment.

Su Fan of course couldn't bear it and was about to regret raising the dragon; the divine sword was ready to be sheathed.

Just in that instant, drops of pearly white dragon saliva had already uncontrollably mingled with the clear, warm flow.

At that moment, Bai Man had already reached the peak and was unwilling to let Su Fan leave just yet.

Having soared to the skies, it would be unbearable for her to fall a thousand feet now—wouldn't it leave her shattered to pieces?

At such a time, even if she still retained some sanity, her desire had completely scattered it, leaving her no choice but to make this one concession to Su Fan.

Chapter 319: Niece Calls

Bai Man grabbed Su Fan, gritting her teeth as she spoke, "You're getting away with it this time! Anyway, there are medicines here, do as you please!"

Upon hearing this, Su Fan felt as if he had received a great mercy.

Although the fury within him was on the brink of eruption, now that Bai Man had spoken up, he would risk half his life to battle this golden phoenix for hundreds of rounds.

But Bai Man once again restrained Su Fan, "Hold on, don't move; I need to take a call."

While grabbing her phone, Bai Man still scoffed, "I've already given you the chance; if you can't hold back, then it's your own fault."

She said this because she could feel the fierce dragon trembling incessantly.

By then, Bai Man had her phone in hand.

Looking at the screen, she discovered the call was from her niece, Bai Xiaolin.

Her niece was a beauty just like her.

However, while she was a glamorous, fully-bloomed charmer, her niece was still an elegant, budding beauty.

In other words, her beautiful niece was simply her at eighteen or nineteen.

Unfortunately, time could not be reversed, and Su Fan would never have the chance to experience her at eighteen or nineteen.

But, if Su Fan could be with Bai Xiaolin, it might compensate for this regret.

After all, in Bai Man's opinion, Bai Xiaolin, who had been pampered from childhood and led a life of luxury, was far superior to her.

Su Fan was unaware of the myriad thoughts in Bai Man's mind.

Currently, he was clenching his teeth, channeling his Internal Strength and True Qi to calm himself down.

Regrettably, he didn't know any high-level mental techniques that could keep him unfazed even if the sky were falling.

Otherwise, at critical moments like these, he could just recite it, calm himself down, and then charge back into battle, fiercely overwhelming Bai Man until she swooned with joy.

"Hello, Xiaolin, what's up?"

"Ah..."

Although Bai Man steadied her mind, when she spoke to her beautiful niece, she couldn't help but let out a charming moan from deep within her throat.

On the other end, the beautiful girl, Bai Xiaolin, was almost crying.

Otherwise, anyone slightly familiar with the affairs of men and women, as astute as Bai Xiaolin, must realize that her call had come at an inopportune time.

Her hopes, already soaring to the skies, were abruptly pulled back.

"Boo hoo, Little Aunt, my mom fainted..."

Bai Xiaolin's mom was Wang HaiMei, Bai Man's sister-in-law.

Ever since Bai Man's brother had an accident, Wang HaiMei had been anxious and not able to eat or drink properly.

When she found out her husband was involved in taking so many bribes and might be sentenced to death, she fainted.

As a woman, she could never wish for her family to be destroyed like this.

"What happened to your mom?" Bai Man was startled.

Her elder brother had always been very kind to her, and ever since his accident, she had been worried that something might happen to her sister-in-law.

Immediately, Bai Xiaolin's sobbing voice came through the phone, "My mom fainted, Little Aunt, can you come over? I'm still scared."

She knew Bai Man was staying at a nearby hotel, and although she had called an ambulance, she was still very worried.

After all, her mom had been fine just before, talking to her, but as they spoke about the potential punishment her father faced, she suddenly became unconscious.

"Hmm..."

Despite her worry, Bai Man could not help but let out another soft, melodious sigh.

Then she finally said, "Xiaolin, did you call an ambulance?"

"Don't worry, Little Aunt will be right over.

Chapter 320 - 320 Sister-in-Law Faints

On the other end of the phone, the beautiful Bai Xiaolin could only sob while nodding: "Thank you, little aunty, for the trouble."

"Ah..."

Bai Man couldn't help but let out a delightful moan, while saying, "Mmm... not... troublesome, not troublesome, ah, I... will be right there."

Dealing with Su Fan on one hand and talking to her little niece on the phone on the other, Bai Man was clearly also stimulated.

That was still Su Fan not going all out, bombarding her fiercely, otherwise Bai Man couldn't have spoken a complete sentence, only offering Su Fan a magnificent symphony of moans and groans.

When she hung up the phone, even though Bai Man still wanted to soar higher, she dared not indulge in this kind of pleasure anymore.

After all, saving someone was like fighting a fire, and she must rush over to check the situation immediately.

"You..."

Bai Man wanted to tell Su Fan to get out.

But she only managed to say one word, "you", before her eyes widened.

That was because Su Fan, who had been holding back to the extreme, still remembered what she had just said.

She had made it very clear just now, that since there was medicine here, she would give Su Fan a treat this time, and after hanging up the phone, Su Fan could do whatever he wanted.

Since she said he could do whatever he wanted, how could Su Fan miss this rare opportunity from heaven?

At this moment, Su Fan was like a transformed siege hammer, launching an unprecedented fierce charge with the terrifying rhythm of a celestial drumbeat.

In the previously rather quiet room, in an instant, Bai Man's beautiful symphony, emitted from the depths of her throat, began to play.

"You... stop... ah!"

Bai Man really wanted Su Fan to stop, but under such an unprecedented, fierce assault, she couldn't even get a complete sentence out.

Not only that, Su Fan's ferociously rugged dragon had not yet roared.

But her phoenix was shedding tears under such impact.

Bai Man was even worried that if this continued, her body might dehydrate.

After all, at the moment, the ground beneath the two of them had already been soaked into a warm, moist ocean by the phoenix's tears.

Su Fan was also extremely surprised in his heart.

He had been with many women, but this was the first time he saw a phoenix cry like this.

To put it without exaggeration, that was at least the volume of two 300 milliliter glasses, right?

For a moment, Su Fan even harbored the idea of tasting the nectar.

Dragon saliva is the life essence of the dragon, and these phoenix tears must be the life essence of the phoenix.

To squander it so carelessly is, in some way, wasteful.

"Let... me... go..."

At this point, Bai Man almost felt like biting Su Fan to death.

She really had very important matters and must leave.

But under Su Fan's attack, as fast as lightning with his Poison Dragon Drill, she couldn't even speak, let alone get up.

At this moment, Bai Man's stunningly beautiful face became charming and beguiling, with a red flush colouring the cheeks.

She felt both ashamed and annoyed, and very angry, yet she paradoxically also enjoyed the sensation immensely.

Although she kept asking Su Fan to stop, if Su Fan really did stop, she would certainly feel reluctant and pained.

Su Fan's fierce charge was like a dense series of drumbeats, and the speed at which he drummed was getting faster and faster.

His strong and relentless force made Bai Man's delicate brows furrow severely.

After all, such intensity and ferocity were no different from being slapped over and over in the paradise with a palm.

Bai Man even felt that after this, without resting for ten days to half a month, the paradise world wouldn't be able to open its doors to welcome visitors.
