

Temptation 351

Chapter 351 - 351 Moonlight by the Window

In response to Wang Fei's question, Su Fan gave an exceedingly rogue reply, "Fei Jie, what do you think I'm doing right now?"

As he spoke, he suggestively thrust his hips.

"Hmph!" Wang Fei was well aware of the wicked thoughts in Su Fan's mind.

What Su Fan really meant was that he was currently having his way with her.

But that wasn't what Wang Fei had asked.

What she wanted to know was why Su Fan, all of a sudden, carried her out of the bathroom.

Bai Man was probably asleep, but if Bai Man wasn't and she saw Su Fan holding her in that manner as soon as she opened the door, what would that mean?

"Xiao Fan, don't mess around. It wouldn't be good if your Man Jie saw this," Wang Fei could only say.

Of course, Su Fan had no plans of carrying Wang Fei to Bai Man; instead, he brought her to the window.

The windows of the scenic hotel were not floor-to-ceiling.

But even if they could only see the upper half of their bodies, anyone would know what the two were doing from their current behavior.

Arriving at the window, Su Fan put Wang Fei down.

Wang Fei certainly didn't dare to stand by the window completely uncovered. Although it was night-time now, what would happen if someone saw them?

But before she could escape, Su Fan turned her around, pressed her against the windowsill, and began to exert himself vigorously.

For a moment, Wang Fei could only cover her mouth and endure in silence, fraught with nerves.

In her heart, she was terrified to the extreme, fearing that someone from the opposite side or somewhere else might see something.

Fortunately, it was already night, and no one would be looking this way.

Even if someone glanced over, they wouldn't be able to make out anything.

At most, they might see two silhouettes overlapping, doing something together.

Once Su Fan realized it wasn't the right time for this, he didn't continue with Wang Fei in that spot but started to push her forward instead.

If they were walking normally, of course, that would be fine.

But walking like this, Wang Fei felt that Su Fan was nearly killing her.

Under normal circumstances, many parts of the Mystical Peach Garden wouldn't suffer fierce impacts, or even any impact at all.

But this situation was different. With every step Wang Fei took, she didn't know what would happen next.

After taking one step, she couldn't bring herself to take a second.

And yet, Su Fan just wouldn't let her stop, continuing to insouciantly push her forward.

Wang Fei could only continue to step forward, her body trembling.

From her reaction, it was as if Su Fan wasn't making her walk on flat ground but over a bed of nails.

"Hiss—"

After only a few steps, the extreme intensity of the sensation became too much for Wang Fei to take any further steps.

At that moment, her only desire was to completely collapse onto the floor.

Yet with Su Fan holding her from behind, that made it impossible for her to squat down.

Wang Fei couldn't squat down and also had to continuously endure Su Fan's relentless motions.

Continuous extreme sensations battered Wang Fei's heart as she also worried about waking Bai Man.

And now, her fears were materializing.

Because the direction in which Su Fan was pushing her was actually towards Bai Man's room.

Bai Man had evidently been too sleepy before and had fallen asleep on her bed after her bath, without even locking the door.

Trying it softly, Su Fan managed to open Bai Man's door.

Not only had Bai Man not locked her door, but she also hadn't even turned off her bedside lamp.

Fortunately, the light was soft and didn't have much of an impact on sleep, even when on.

But this posed a huge impact on Wang Fei!

Chapter 352 - No Rest for a Moment

Hearing the conversation growing nearer, Bai Man could only turn back toward Su Fan with an almost pleading look.

"Someone ... Someone is coming!"

Those few words were incredibly hard for her to utter.

"Hiss—"

As Bai Man spoke, Su Fan's assault never once ceased.

After all, it was Bai Man herself who had said that he had accomplished a great feat and until the next morning, he could do whatever he wanted to Bai Man.

So, of course, he wanted to elevate Bai Man to unprecedented heights, allowing her to experience what it was to be a woman among women.

But Su Fan knew his limits; he had only brought Bai Man here to spice things up, not to really do anything to her.

Thus, as someone was about to pass by in the hallway, he closed the door to the room.

However, he did not carry Bai Man into the room, nor did he pick her up and thrust into her forcefully.

He simply pressed Bai Man to the floor and attacked her ruthlessly.

By this time, Bai Man was not kneeling on the floor, but rather lying completely limp on the ground.

She had never tried such a position before.

And with Su Fan's 'furious dragon,' it was already quite formidable.

This resulted in unexplored regions within Bai Man's secret peach garden experiencing an unprecedented and terrifying onslaught.

"Ah! Um!"

In an instant, Bai Man's pretty face became as hot as if she had a fever.

From her throat, rhythmic syllables were continuously emitted.

Shortly after entering the room, Bai Man was sent soaring into the clouds by Su Fan.

Su Fan's relentless assault continued to raise her to peaks she had never felt before.

Even though she was lying on the floor, her full and rounded breasts still fell prey to Su Fan's treacherous hands.

With one hand on each, Su Fan took hold of the mounds and began to knead the dough vigorously.

Bai Man had never been treated so roughly before.

It didn't take long for warm rivulets to flow continuously, flooding over Su Fan.

This let Su Fan know that his efforts had not been in vain.

Bai Man's reaction was the greatest affirmation for him.

But his goal for the day was clearly not limited to this.

This time, he was determined to make Bai Man, this woman, thoroughly dehydrated.

Of course, Bai Man had no idea that the reward she had given Su Fan earlier would bring her so much trouble.

After all, she thought, even if Su Fan was amazing, there had to be a moment when his ammunition would run out, right?

Such thinking, of course, underestimated Su Fan.

The pair had arrived at the hotel after lunch, and until it was time for dinner, Bai Man had been subjected to continuous pleasure.

When dinner time came, Su Fan merely asked the hotel service to deliver the meal to the door.

Bai Man had thought that, at dinner time, she could at least get some rest.

But she couldn't have been more wrong, as Su Fan directly carried her to the dining table and then sat her on his lap.

This was certainly not an ordinary sitting down, but rather a complete fusion.

While eating, although Su Fan couldn't carry on attacking, Bai Man was in no position to eat properly.

Not only did she continue to experience strange and powerful stimulations, but Su Fan's hands also behaved quite naughtily.

While one hand was eating, the other was still forcefully kneading the dough.

"Can't you just eat properly?" Bai Man said irritably.

This time, Su Fan rarely joked, "Man, you did say before that I could do whatever I wanted this time."

"You're not going to back out now, are you?"

Chapter 353 - Just This Once

Wang Fei had not wanted to enter Bai Man's room just now, but how could she resist Su Fan?

As Su Fan gently pushed forward, she also covered her mouth and entered Bai Man's room.

In the quiet room, the crisp sound, like applause, became exceptionally clear at this moment.

Wang Fei felt almost insane, because in such a situation, it was very likely that Bai Man would be woken up.

If Bai Man woke up later and happened to see this scene, how would she explain it to Bai Man?

Fortunately, Su Fan didn't actually want to wake Bai Man, just walked around Bai Man's room for a bit, then took Wang Fei out.

In the end, he even went to Wang Fei's room.

"Fei, did you bring other clothes?" Su Fan casually asked.

"What for?" Wang Fei asked in confusion.

Once in her own room, she finally felt completely at ease.

Even if Bai Man woke up now, it was highly likely that she wouldn't find out what she and Su Fan were doing.

"I want to see you dressed," Su Fan said earnestly.

Wang Fei's gaze narrowed, and she scoffed in her heart.

What Su Fan wanted wasn't just to see her dressed—it was clear he wanted her to be dressed while he had sex with her.

"I didn't bring other clothes, I just came over temporarily for a day or two. Why would I bring so many clothes?" Wang Fei said offhandedly.

But Su Fan had already spotted Wang Fei's suitcase and opened it effortlessly, seeing Wang Fei's clothes inside.

Immediately, he took out a set of clothes and handed it to Wang Fei, "Fei, put this set on."

Wang Fei did not reach out to take them at all, helpless if Su Fan wanted to mess with her.

But towards Su Fan, she would not be completely submissive.

Unless Su Fan could help her overthrow Yin Qianyue, allowing her to smoothly join the wealthy elite and become a person of high status.

"Fei, if you follow my wishes now, I will, of course, remember your kindness and help you wholeheartedly when the time comes," Su Fan said.

Su Fan had already discovered Wang Fei's Achilles' heel, although he still wasn't clear on why Wang Fei wanted to target Yin Qianyue.

But as long as he mentioned this matter, Wang Fei usually couldn't refuse.

"You!" Wang Fei sighed. That was actually what she had in mind when she came this time.

But she could not let Su Fan blackmail her with this continuously.

Thinking about the consequences of angering Su Fan previously, she immediately decided to make a deal with him.

"Xiao Fan, just this once. After tonight, you can't use this matter to threaten me anymore,"

"Otherwise, I won't need your help. I might as well give up on targeting Yin Qianyue altogether."

On the surface, Su Fan certainly nodded his head, but his inner thoughts remained the same as always.

In this world, things either never happen, or they happen countless times.

Undoubtedly, the things between him and Wang Fei were of the type that would happen many times.

Under Su Fan's insistence, Wang Fei could only reluctantly change into the clothes.

Wang Fei was now wearing a black T-shirt and a petite black jacket.

Her lower garment was a black hip skirt, with a pair of 10-denier gray stockings wrapped around her legs.

This was a very thin type of stockings, which made Wang Fei's leg shape look even more perfect, and more hazy and alluring.

But Wang Fei was not wearing any other intimate clothing, not because she did not want to, but because Su Fan did not allow it.

Previously, Su Fan had given Yin Qianyue an order, which was to forbid her from wearing intimate clothing from then on.

At this moment, Su Fan thought about when he would send a message to Yin Qianyue to check on her.

Chapter 354 -Family Meeting

That night, Bai Man rested very well, while Wang Fei hardly slept at all.

By the early morning of the next day, Bai Man had already gotten up, while Wang Fei was still asleep in bed.

However, Su Fan, the instigator, appeared in front of Bai Man, full of energy.

Some people who had practiced martial arts from a young age could condition their bodies to a certain extent.

They only needed to meditate simply and could replace sleep in a short time.

Once one became a master of Inner Strength, with True Qi growing inside the body, missing a day or two of sleep caused no harm at all.

Although Su Fan had tormented Wang Fei all night, as an explosive Martial Artist who could absorb a woman's Yin energy, he now appeared as energetic as if nothing had happened.

Bai Man had a very comfortable sleep last night, unaware of the secretive activities between Su Fan and Wang Fei after midnight.

With Su Fan appearing before her so lively, she was even less likely to think too much about it.

Bai Man didn't wake Wang Fei but left her a message before leaving the scenic area hotel with Su Fan.

Earlier, she had received a message from her niece, Bai Xiaolin; her sister-in-law, Wang HaiMei, had been discharged from the hospital.

The rest of their family had also agreed to hold a family meeting today.

The family meeting was to be held at Bai Xiaolin's villa.

When Bai Man left the scenic area hotel, Su Fan accompanied her, leaving the hotel together.

After some time had passed, Wang Fei finally woke up.

Groggily getting out of bed, Wang Fei saw the message Bai Man had left her.

After reading it, she knew that Bai Man and Su Fan had already gone to deal with matters at Bai Man's family home.

Feeling sore all over, Wang Fei got up and realized she was still wearing the stockings that Su Fan had torn a hole in the night before.

She immediately, irritably stripped off the gray stockings and threw them away.

Last night, Su Fan was simply inhuman.

Ultimately, when she was too exhausted to stay awake and had fallen asleep, Su Fan kept on tormenting her.

Thinking of this, Wang Fei immediately tasted the flavor of pomegranate flowers in her mouth.

Without having to think much, she knew what had happened, how even though she had fallen asleep from exhaustion, Su Fan had still made her eat her fill!

Having been mistreated by Su Fan like this, if Su Fan didn't help handle things well, she would never forgive him!

Meanwhile, Su Fan had already followed Bai Man to Bai Xiaolin's villa.

Many cars were now parked outside the villa.

Upon arriving, Bai Man led Su Fan into the villa.

In the living room of Bai Xiaolin's home, indeed, many dignified people were present.

The Bai family wasn't much into business; most of them were political figures.

Once Bai Man also entered the living room, nearly all of the Bai family were present.

Wang HaiMei nodded appreciatively at Bai Man and Su Fan.

She had suddenly fainted earlier and was thankful that Su Fan and Bai Man had helped her family.

After Bai Man and Su Fan had taken their seats, a middle-aged man wearing glasses addressed Wang HaiMei.

"Let's hear it, what exactly happened with Bai Hua this time?"

The speaker was Bai Hanwen, Bai Man's great-uncle.

In Bai Man's family, the one who had reached the highest position was Bai Man's father, who became one of the top-five officials in the province.

Since then, no one in the family had risen to quite such an eminent position.

Bai Man's elder brother, Bai Hua, was the successor in whom the family placed great hopes.

The Bai family invested considerable connections and resources in him.

If nothing went wrong, Bai Hua could even eventually become one of the top ten figures in the province.

Unfortunately, trouble had arisen!

Chapter 355 - Taking Medicine Out of Fear of Punishment

After Bai Hanwen began his inquiry, Wang HaiMei didn't dare to hide anything and could only speak the truth.

"The situation is roughly the same as the rumors outside; Bai Hua indeed took someone else's money," she said.

"But before Bai Hua was taken away, he told me a few more things."

Wang HaiMei's voice was very gentle, and when she spoke, everyone's gaze turned to her.

Sitting behind Bai Man, Su Fan also looked towards Wang HaiMei.

The most perfect aspect of Bai Man is the mysterious paradise, where the sky and the water meet.

The most perfect aspect of Wang Fei is her sublime vocal skill.

The most perfect aspect of Yin Qianyue is her voluptuously round and full bosom.

In Su Fan's view, Wang HaiMei also had advantages that other women did not possess.

That is, Wang HaiMei's bosom was very large; one could imagine that Bai Xiaolin must have never lacked nutrition as a child.

In all the women Su Fan had seen, Wang HaiMei's bosom was the most substantial in size.

It's no exaggeration to say that it would require two hands just to hold one.

But now, the entire Bai family was worried about their own futures.

Apart from Su Fan, there was obviously no one else taking notice of Wang HaiMei's devilish figure.

Wang HaiMei's voice continued to carry on at this moment.

"The main reason Bai Hua took the money this time was because of a businessman named Deng Hai Lin."

Bai Man's expression shifted slightly before she asked, "Sister-in-law, why do you say it was caused by Deng Hai Lin?"

It was a question everyone present wanted to know the answer to.

Once again, everyone's gaze fell on Wang HaiMei.

Of course, Wang HaiMei wouldn't conceal anything and relayed everything she knew.

"When those people offered Bai Hua the money, he initially didn't accept it and sent it back."

"But it was this businessman named Deng Hai Lin who played the middleman, repeatedly tempting Bai Hua."

"Later on, he even claimed that the bank card he gave Bai Hua was a special card issued abroad that could hardly be traced to the source of the funds."

"Under his seduction, Bai Hua finally couldn't resist and fell into the mire," she explained.

"Though Bai Hua has almost spent all that money, he wasn't the only one who spent it."

"Over the years he has done favors for various families, not just using his own connections and power, but also a significant amount of money."

"Now, to save Bai Hua, the first and foremost thing is to return the ill-gotten gains," she added.

Bai Man agreed with her sister-in-law's opinion but still asked, "Sister-in-law, what's become of Deng Hai Lin now?"

"He bears a great responsibility for my brother's troubles."

Wang HaiMei exhaled softly, "Not long after your brother's incident, Deng Hai Lin, fearing that his crime would be exposed, took medications to end his life."

"Although he was rescued in time, he is still in a comatose state and hasn't passed the critical period."

"Moreover, because he attempted to evade the law by taking drugs, no one can testify to the exact course of your brother's affair."

"The nature and progression of the incident differ, and that will obviously influence the final sentence for your brother," Wang HaiMei elucidated.

At this point, Su Fan felt that it seemed like a trap.

Even though Wang HaiMei's explanation made sense, it was a bit too coincidental.

Deng Hai Lin neither encountered troubles earlier nor later.

Just as Bai Man's brother got into trouble, he took drugs out of fear of his crimes.

Even if he bore responsibility for the incident, could his guilt really outweigh that of Bai Man's brother?

Moreover, Wang HaiMei made it clear that Deng Hai Lin was merely an intermediary.

Chapter 356 - All Foxes

After Wang HaiMei finished recounting everything, Bai Hanwen, who was Bai Man's great-uncle, spoke up once again.

"The information I've gathered is different from what my niece-in-law has said."

"According to what I've learned, the large sum of money Bai Hua received was mainly provided by Deng Hai Lin."

"The aim was to ensure several projects were awarded to certain individuals who, in return, agreed to procure all construction materials from Deng Hai Lin's company."

"It seems now that the problem lies with Deng Hai Lin and that large sum of money."

"However, just how much was that sum?"

Bai Hanwen had gathered some information but was similarly unaware of the specific amount.

Su Fan's gaze once again fell on Wang HaiMei.

This time, Wang HaiMei took a deep breath before speaking, "Before Bai Hua was taken away, he told me that the sum was sixty million."

This figure made even Bai Hanwen gasp!

The expressions of the others in the living room also changed instantly.

The wealth owned by a family in business differs starkly from that of one in politics.

Since the Bai family's members were primarily active in politics, they had not amassed a massive fortune.

If everyone present emptied their savings and liquidated some real estate assets, adding it all up, naturally, they could come up with sixty million.

But their current comfortable and affluent lifestyle would clearly be unsustainable.

After taking a deep breath, Bai Hanwen could only ask, "How much can each of us contribute to this sum?"

Hearing these words, of course, no one was willing to speak up voluntarily.

All of them were as cunning as age-old foxes, so why entertain fantasies here?

This time, it's highly likely that Bai Hua was set up by someone, and even with the return of the embezzled funds, it wouldn't be possible for him to be reinstated to his official position.

Unless, in addition to returning the illicit money, it could be proven that someone deliberately set a trap for him.

In that case, coupled with the Bai family's years of influence in politics, there might be room for maneuvering the situation.

But not now. The key witness, Deng Hai Lin, who could prove that Bai Hua was framed, is now critically ill, and his life hangs in the balance.

Moreover, the sixty million squandered by Bai Hua, likewise, represents a gaping hole that simply cannot be filled.

Under such circumstances, Bai Hua has essentially become a scapegoat.

With their shrewdness, how could they possibly spare no expense to get Bai Hua out?

While the others remained silent, Wang HaiMei had to speak up, after all, the man arrested was her husband.

"All our savings plus quickly liquidated real estate amount to five million,"

"Apart from where my daughter and I live, everything else we own can be sold off,"

Wang HaiMei was obviously out of options to make such a statement.

But even so, the other old foxes of the Bai family weren't prepared to sympathize with her and bleed themselves dry.

Seeing no one else speak up, Bai Man had no choice but to say, "All of my savings, along with a house the family gave me before, could add up to about two million."

After she spoke, the others still remained silent.

Asking them to give up a substantial amount of savings or to sell off real estate to save Bai Hua was clearly out of the question.

It wasn't just others—Bai Hanwen, Bai Man's young nephew, unexpectedly didn't make any statement either.

Witnessing this scene, Su Fan understood.

Only Wang HaiMei and Bai Man still cared about Bai Hua.

In the eyes of the others, Bai Hua had become expendable, and his fate was completely unrelated to them.

And when it came to the large sum of money, Su Fan couldn't help but think of the recent deal in Yang City with the top tycoon, Feng Zhenghua.

Chapter 357 - Everyone, Disperse

The current shortfall was a staggering sixty million!

But Wang HaiMei's family's total savings, combined with quickly sellable real estate, could only muster five million.

Bai Man, on her end, had reached her limit after contributing two million.

Together, both parties managed only seven million.

At this moment, Bai Man's gaze could only turn to her great-uncle, Bai Hanwen.

When his niece looked his way, Bai Hanwen could only clear his throat and say, "You all know the situation with my family; everyone earns a fixed salary."

"On my end, scraping together three hundred thousand is already the limit," he explained.

It's true that Bai Hanwen's family all earned fixed salaries, but whether he had any extra unofficial income was something almost everyone there understood.

If he truly were on a fixed salary, not to mention anything else, where did the luxury Mercedes parked outside his villa come from?

Although Bai Hanwen was stingy and scrupulous, he at least opened his mouth to express his willingness to contribute three hundred thousand.

In the living room, everyone else fell into collective silence at this moment.

It was as if they didn't realize that this was the time they needed to speak up, not remain silent.

Seeing this scene, Wang HaiMei felt utterly desperate inside.

How could she not know that these people, when they had asked Bai Hua for favors in the past, were full of warm words and enthusiastic gestures?

Now that Bai Hua was in trouble, they each chose to walk away after crossing the bridge.

Bai Man, although not saying anything, was evidently very angry as she looked at everyone.

The entire family, and her second brother, had brought these people many benefits in the past.

If they really wanted to save someone, everyone could pitch in, and they absolutely could muster the sixty million.

But now it was clear that everyone was unwilling to contribute money, and there was nothing she could do.

Even so, Bai Man still had to make one last effort.

Her second brother had always been very good to her since they were young, and he was also the one the Bai family had invested in to become the successor.

If her second brother was completely finished this time, then it could be said their clan was too.

"Great-uncle, and everyone else, are you really going to give up on my second brother?"

"Has my second brother ever failed to help any of your families, or done anything to wrong any of you?"

Bai Man's words were heavy.

Her words caused Bai Hanwen's complexion to slightly change, but in the end, he said nothing.

In the living room, some people lowered their heads, and others remained indifferent.

Clearly, they were not about to become the big suckers just because of a few words, for the sake of appearance.

Bai Hua clearly had no chance this time, and even if he could be released, it was impossible for him to return to his former position.

According to Wang HaiMei, there were still people setting Bai Hua up this time.

If that was the case, there was even less possibility of Bai Hua making a comeback.

This family meeting, therefore, could be said to have ended on an unhappy note.

Bai Hanwen was only willing to contribute a drop in the bucket, and the others were completely unwilling to contribute.

Aside from Bai Man and Wang HaiMei, no one else really cared about Bai Hua's life or death.

The realism and the harshness of these people were clearly beyond what Bai Man and Wang HaiMei had anticipated.

Wang HaiMei's daughter, Bai Xiaolin, was also sitting in the living room.

As Bai Xiaolin looked at each familiar face in the living room, she felt they were all so strangely alien to her.

When these people used to come to her house, asking her father for help, it was never like this!

In the living room, seeing how things had progressed to this point, Bai Hanwen spoke up and said, "Let's end it for today."

"Everyone go back and wait for the news, and also think of solutions."

Chapter 358 - The Warmth and Coldness of Human Relationships

Bai Hanwen's words had granted everyone a great reprieve.

Without any hesitation, they hastily filed out as soon as he spoke, fleeing from the Bai's house as if escaping disaster, each trying to leave before the others.

They were now sitting in Wang HaiMei's house, feeling very uneasy.

After all, Bai Man's words were quite sensible.

Whenever people had asked Bai Hua for help in the past, Bai Hua had never let anyone down.

This time, when Bai Hua was in trouble, their refusal to contribute money or effort to help was indeed their fault.

If Bai Hua still had value, they might have considered making a risky investment.

But in the current situation, Bai Hua clearly had no value left.

Their investment in Bai Hua could only turn into a bad debt.

After everyone had gradually left, only Su Fan, Bai Man, Wang HaiMei, Bai Xiaolin, and Bai Hanwen remained in the living room of the Wang's villa.

Although Bai Hanwen was the first to suggest leaving, he was not in a hurry to go.

He planned to persuade Bai Man and Wang HaiMei to abandon the idea of raising money.

Such a large sum of money couldn't be amassed unless everyone was willing to contribute.

As for Bai Hua, they would have to resign themselves to him spending a decade or two in prison.

Just then, Su Fan suddenly spoke, "Aunt, if you can raise one million, I can come up with five million."

Su Fan didn't speak loudly, but his statement was truly shocking.

Therefore, right after he spoke, all eyes in the living room were fixed on him.

"What did you say?" Bai Man asked, doubting whether she had heard right.

Su Fan did have some capabilities, but those abilities were not readily monetizable.

No matter how she thought about it, it seemed impossible for him to have five million.

Initially, Bai Hanwen was also startled and scrutinized Su Fan, but then he shook his head.

"Young man, do not add to the chaos. Where would you get five million from?"

Having said that, Bai Hanwen then spoke to Wang HaiMei and Bai Man.

"You two, also quickly brace yourselves mentally."

"Bai Hua's situation this time is difficult. Sixty million is not easy to raise."

"In my opinion, you should not continue to sell off real assets to raise money."

"Unless you can come up with sixty million, there's no point."

"Not only will Bai Hua not be able to get out, but it will also severely affect your lives."

"That's it then. I'm going to leave now. You two think it over carefully."

After saying this, Bai Hanwen immediately left without further delay, leaving Wang HaiMei's villa.

Bai Hanwen completely disbelieved what Su Fan had said.

However, Bai Man knew that Su Fan was not one to speak without reason.

If Su Fan had said this, he definitely had some plan in mind.

But the amount was indeed too much, and even though Bai Man understood Su Fan, she couldn't comprehend how he would come up with the money.

Wang HaiMei had already given up hope, and she didn't believe that Su Fan could come up with so much money either.

The only option left was for other members of the family to lend a hand and help Bai Hua through this crisis.

But they already knew the attitude of the other family members, even if they didn't know it before this occurrence.

Both Wang HaiMei and Bai Xiaolin felt very desolate.

In the past, their family hardly ever refused these people's requests, but now, they seemed eager to completely sever ties with them.

Only Bai Man and Su Fan, who had come with Bai Man, were willing to help them.

Bai Man didn't press Su Fan further, but instead spoke to the two women.

"Sister-in-law, don't worry for the moment. I'll think of something when I get back."

Chapter 359 - Critical Witness

Wang HaiMei held Bai Man back, "Sister, let it be."

"This time, your second brother can only tough it out."

"Even if we return the money, Deng Hai Lin's side might still lack evidence."

"There simply isn't anyone who can prove that your second brother was framed."

When Wang HaiMei mentioned Deng Hai Lin, Bai Man couldn't help but look at Su Fan.

After glancing at Su Fan, Bai Man continued to ask, "Sister-in-law, is that Deng Hai Lin already dead, or just in critical condition?"

Wang HaiMei didn't know why Bai Man was asking this, but she told the truth anyway, "He's just in critical condition, but he has always been in a coma and has not completely pulled through yet."

"In a little while, I guess he'll be gone."

Hearing this, Bai Man nodded. She had already decided to go with Su Fan to take a look.

Whenever Su Fan was at their hospital, his interventions often displayed miraculous medical expertise.

This time, when Wang HaiMei had an emergency in Xijing, it was also Su Fan who saved her.

Just because others were out of options regarding Deng Hai Lin's condition, didn't mean Su Fan was without a solution.

After consoling Wang HaiMei and Bai Xiaolin for a few more words, Bai Man left with Su Fan.

After seeing the two of them off, Bai Xiaolin couldn't help but speak out in sadness.

"Mom, what do we do now? Only my little aunt and her group are willing to help our family."

Wang HaiMei's eyes teared up as she shook her head.

She was extremely grateful to Bai Man and Su Fan, but she also couldn't think of any solution.

She didn't even hope for Bai Hua to have any good prospects; she just wanted Bai Hua to return safely.

On the other side, Su Fan had already followed Bai Man to the hospital where Deng Hai Lin was staying.

Deng Hai Lin was a key witness in this case and was under around-the-clock police watch.

However, Su Fan and Bai Man were both doctors, and it wasn't necessarily impossible for them to treat Deng Hai Lin.

The department responsible for keeping watch over Deng Hai Lin at the hospital had dispatched five people, with a team leader surnamed Wang.

Bai Man arrived at the hospital with Su Fan and quickly found Team Leader Wang, explaining their purpose.

Captain Wang checked Bai Man's work ID after a glance and confirmed that both Bai Man's and Su Fan's IDs were in order.

However, he was still reluctant to let Bai Man and Su Fan have access to Deng Hai Lin.

The reason was simple; even Zhang Jinggang, the top Divine Doctor of Xijing, had confirmed that there was no saving Deng Hai Lin.

As far as they were concerned, there was no need to stir things up; they just had to complete the tasks handed down from above.

Just at that moment, Zhang Jinggang, wearing a white lab coat, happened to pass by.

Zhang Jinggang had already walked a distance, but after realizing something, he suddenly turned back and looked over.

With that look, he of course saw Su Fan.

Zhang Jinggang immediately stopped hurrying away and directly walked over to Su Fan's side.

"Divine Doctor Su, how come you're at the hospital?"

Zhang Jinggang's words made Team Leader Wang and the others look at each other in bewilderment.

Zhang Jinggang was the top Divine Doctor in Xijing, and he referred to Su Fan as Divine Doctor Su!

If Zhang Jingkan wasn't joking, then Su Fan's medical skills must be incredibly high.

"I came to the hospital this time to treat a patient named Deng Hai Lin."

Su Fan didn't conceal anything and told Zhang Jingkan the purpose of his hospital visit.

Hearing this, Zhang Jingkan was also somewhat astonished for a moment.

After a brief pause, he turned to Captain Wang and asked, "Captain Wang, Divine Doctor Su should be able to treat Deng Hai Lin, right?"

Chapter 360 - Detoxifying and Saving Lives

Su Fan was certainly capable of treating Deng Hai Lin, who was a key witness in this case.

If they could regain consciousness, it would indeed be great.

However, not long ago, Zhang Jingkan had personally stated that it was almost impossible for Deng Hai Lin to wake up.

If even Zhang Jingkan was helpless, didn't that essentially mean there was no hope left?

Captain Wang had no idea that Su Fan, who had come to the hospital this time, was highly skilled in medicine, even more so than Zhang Jingkang.

After Zhang Jingkang made inquiries, Captain Wang first nodded, but he quickly spoke up again.

"Divine Doctor Zhang, you and other medical experts have previously diagnosed Deng Hai Lin."

"Your diagnosis results were basically the same."

"Is there really any hope for Deng Hai Lin?"

This question was, of course, something Zhang Jingkang couldn't answer.

After all, his last diagnosis for Wang HaiMei was also hopeless.

Yet, in his presence, Su Fan had performed a seemingly miraculous medical technique and had dramatically pulled Wang HaiMei back from the brink of death.

Zhang Jingkang thought for a moment and could only say cautiously, "If it were any other doctor, there wouldn't likely be any effective treatment methods."

"But since Divine Doctor Su has come, there's still a glimmer of hope for Deng Hai Lin."

"My suggestion is to let Divine Doctor Su give it a try."

With Zhang Jingkang's endorsement, things immediately became much easier to handle.

Captain Wang nodded, and two plainclothes special forces members immediately opened the door to the hospital room.

In the room, there were also two plainclothes special forces members standing by the sides of Deng Hai Lin's bed.

Under Zhang Jingkang's lead, Su Fan and Bai Man quickly arrived beside Deng Hai Lin's bed.

"Indeed, it's poisoning," Su Fan said after taking one look at Deng Hai Lin and nodded.

The information from Wang HaiMei's side was correct, Deng Hai Lin was indeed poisoned.

Whether he took the poison out of guilt or someone poisoned him, that was harder to say.

Having confirmed the poisoning, Su Fan then reached out to feel Deng Hai Lin's pulse.

In the room, aside from Deng Hai Lin, who was lying on the bed not knowing if he was dead or alive, there were also two special forces members and Deng Hai Lin's two family members.

One of his family members was his secretary, Wang Xiaoxiao, and the other was his wife, Shen He.

Wang Xiaoxiao was very attractive, dressed in office lady attire, and was a top-notch female white-collar worker.

Shen He looked like an extremely gentle and virtuous woman, evidently the type of a good wife and loving mother.

At this moment, everyone's gaze was focused on Su Fan.

Even Zhang Jinggang was unsure if Su Fan could save the critically ill Deng Hai Lin.

Su Fan's answer was, yes!

Under the watchful eyes of many, Su Fan took out the silver needles he carried with him.

Captain Wang frowned and glanced at Zhang Jingkang.

Although Zhang Jingkang held Su Fan in high esteem, Captain Wang still only trusted Zhang Jingkang, not Su Fan.

When Captain Wang's gaze fell on him, Zhang Jingkang nodded.

With his nod of approval, Captain Wang also felt reassured and quietly watched Su Fan perform the rescue.

The human body is a huge treasure trove, and the 108 meridian points scattered throughout the body can secrete various "miracle medicines."

This is why many people who are diagnosed with incurable diseases can miraculously recover naturally in the end.

The principle of acupuncture is to allow the body's 108 meridian points to secrete substances that can treat the current ailment.

Under everyone's gaze, Su Fan's needles flew. One silver needle after another quickly appeared on Deng Hai Lin's body.
