Chapter 38 Sister Will Help You

"Are you, are you willing now?"

Excitement flickered in Su Fan's eyes.

You have to understand, Liu Ye has an extreme yin body, capable of saving my life.

Besides, with Liu Ye's figure, face, and temperament, even if she didn't have an extreme yin body, just having sex would be out of this world.

"As long as it can cure my illness, of course, I'm willing."

"Moreover, I'm still a virgin now, even if I die, I still want to experience a man's flavor, and you're so young, I won't be at a disadvantage."

Liu Yexia's cheeks flushed with an allure that reached extremes.

"Well, well then, let's get ready."

"Ready, ready for what, let's start now."

Liu Ye was already somewhat impatient.

After all, her life and future depended on this one shot.

And she was afraid Su Fan would change his mind.

Immediately, she blocked the door.

"I think, I should first prescribe you some medicine to nurture your health, you're too weak right now."

Su Fan was somewhat concerned.

"Weak?"

"I only have ALS, I'm not so weak that I can't even handle your attack."

Liu Ye spoke somewhat incredulously.

"I think..."

Su Fan wanted to say something else, but Liu Ye boldly reached out.

"Ah..."

When Liu Ye grabbed onto Su Fan's thing through his pants, she got startled, quickly withdrew her hand and covered her tempting red lips.

Big!

Bigger than the cucumber she saw earlier, and that was only at half-mast.

If it stood fully erect, wouldn't it smash her guts to pieces?

But, after the initial fear, she felt even more excited.

Where could she find such a treasure?

"I, I can do it, we can try, just, just the tip to start with, is that okay?"

"Just a part?"

Su Fan thought for a moment.

"Well, well, maybe we could try that."

There was a strong itch in his heart.

"Then, then let's start."

Liu Ye's face turned red as she turned around, began peeling off her clothes one by one and threw them onto a chair nearby.

Before long, she was a spotless white lamb.

"Gulp."

Looking at Liu Ye's silky body, especially the snow-white perky butt, he swallowed hard, feeling like he was about to explode.

"Come,"

Liu Ye's voice was as faint as a mosquito's while she stretched out her hands to hold onto the desk, bending over slightly as she arched her butt upwards.

Previously, Su Fan could only see the rough outline through her clothes.

But now, with no obstacles, nothing to cover her, Su Fan had a clear view of that hidden paradise.

Tucked in quite far back, the petals were plump, and a bit of dew was already trickling out...

Su Fan's passion was aflame, he undid his belt and moved closer.

Liu Ye gripped the edge of the office desk tightly, her eyebrows furrowed and she was extremely anxious, bracing herself for the incoming storm.

But...

Then there was no movement.

"Did you, did you change your mind?"

Liu Ye stayed in position, turned her head to the side, and looked at Su Fan with somewhat hurt eyes.

Su Fan's face turned red, at that moment, he wished he could find a hole to crawl into.

"Shall we, shall we postpone it to another day?"

Liu Ye glanced down towards Su Fan's waist.

"Huh?"

The dragon emerged from its cave but couldn't lift its head.

"Heehee..."

Liu Ye chuckled.

"No need to wait for another day, it's just nervousness, after all, I'm an experienced gynecologist."

"I'll help you."

Then, Liu Ye squatted in front of Su Fan.
