

Temptation 391

Chapter 391: Wholehearted Acceptance

Wang Zhonglin had been as overbearing as he now regretted.

If he had known about Su Fan's abilities earlier, where would he have found the voice to mock Su Fan?

Now looking at the medicinal pill in Su Fan's hand, he felt somewhat caught between a rock and a hard place.

He could choose to kowtow to Su Fan, or he could choose to simply leave.

After all, he was an expert in Inner Strength, could Su Fan really hold him back?

But in the end, Wang Zhonglin heavily knelt to the ground, and kowtowed three times to Su Fan.

"Bang! Bang! Bang!"

Wang Zhonglin's kneeling was extremely decisive, the kowtows rapid and loud, preventing Wang Kaiwei and another from stopping him at all.

After it was done, Wang Zhonglin also spoke up, "These three kowtows, on one hand, are out of respect for your medical skills, and on the other hand, serve as a lesson for this old man. Are you satisfied now?"

Su Fan had no desire to talk any further with Wang Zhonglin, and he didn't think he had done anything wrong.

After all, this wager had been Wang Zhonglin's own proposal.

He was now reaping what he had sown, which was nobody else's business.

Yet at this moment, Wang Zhonglin actually spoke up again.

"I just don't know if this old man could, learn to refine pills from you?"

Wang Zhonglin's words hit the room like a bombshell, leaving everyone in shock!

Wang Kaiwei and Wang Shiyu were incredulous, unable to believe what they were seeing from Wang Zhonglin.

Wang Zhonglin was the most authoritative pharmaceutical expert in Yang City, one of the paragons of medicine.

Such a respected and esteemed person wanted to take Su Fan as his master and follow Su Fan to learn pharmaceuticals.

How could this be calmly regarded by anyone?

In Shen Xin's beautiful eyes, disbelief was equally evident.

Wang Zhonglin was known for his arrogance and terrible temper.

For someone like him to willingly take a young person as a master and earnestly learn, it was like the sun rising from the west.

Su Fan, however, slightly frowned and then said, "My ancient methods of medicine preparation, and the techniques of Alchemy, cannot be passed on lightly."

Wang Zhonglin nodded immediately, "The old man understands, I just wish to receive guidance from Divine Doctor Su when I myself refine pills."

"I wouldn't dare to covet Divine Doctor Su's ancient methods of medicine preparation, nor the techniques of Alchemy."

Hearing this, Su Fan actually nodded.

Wang Zhonglin was an expert in traditional Chinese medicine preparations, and he had made no small contribution to the promotion of traditional medicine and the healing of the sick.

Such a person deserved a minor reprimand as a major reminder; there was no need to keep at odds with him.

Following that, Su Fan and Wang Zhonglin exchanged contact information.

When Su Fan had the time, he would give Wang Zhonglin some guidance.

Although the incident had caused some unpleasantness, the outcome was eventually good.

Su Fan quickly took the medicinal pills and left the pharmaceutical room with Shen Xin.

However, Su Fan had no intention of going to Feng Zhenghua's home; he was ready to return to Shen Xin's villa for a spend the night together.

When Shen Xin was on her own, she usually just slept at her residence in the pharmaceutical base.

But tonight, she and Su Fan were to perform a sacred ceremony, perhaps even unlocking something, so of course they needed to return to her villa.

Shen Xin's villa was five or six kilometers away from the pharmaceutical base, not a very far trip.

This was a area of villas, with many other villas besides Shen Xin's.

Under Shen Xin's lead, Su Fan, carrying his things, entered the villa with her.

"Hm?"

Before Shen Xin could go any further, Su Fan raised his hand and stopped her.

Shen Xin was taken aback, "What's wrong?"

Su Fan asked uncertainly, "You live here alone, without any servants, right?"

Chapter 392 - 392 Uninvited Guest

On the way to the villa, Shen Xin had told Su Fan that she lived here alone.

Moreover, in this villa community, there were security patrols 24 hours a day, so there was no need to worry about safety issues.

However, just a moment ago, Su Fan clearly heard someone talking in this place.

When Shen Xin heard Su Fan's question, she also became somewhat nervous.

She wasn't worried that a thief might break in and steal her money.

But she was very concerned that a bad person might hurt her.

She immediately lowered her voice and said, "I'm the only one who lives here, did you hear something? Should we call the security office?"

Su Fan shook his head, "There is indeed someone, but there's no need to call the security office."

"You wait here, I'll go and see what's going on."

Saying this, Su Fan quickly moved towards one of the villa's rooms.

He didn't go directly into the villa but instead climbed up a tree.

The curtains of this room had already been drawn shut, but the light inside was on.

Perched on the tree trunk, Su Fan could just see through the gaps in the curtains, taking in everything in the room with clarity.

After seeing clearly what was happening inside the room, Su Fan was taken aback on the spot.

He saw a young woman who bore a resemblance to Shen Xin, her mouth biting into a white towel.

This person was either Shen Xin's older sister or younger sister, but she was certainly Shen Xin's twin.

In front of her was a middle-aged man with gold-rimmed glasses, who was using a depilatory device to clear the "grass" in her mysterious peach garden.

The middle-aged man's technique was very adept.

In no time at all, an area that had been lush with foliage had turned into a snow-white ski slope.

But that wasn't all, the middle-aged man soon picked up a hemostat and clamped onto the gates of the mysterious peach garden.

Then he took a piercing tool and leaned in closer.

If the woman had been coerced, Su Fan would have broken through the window and stopped it right there on the spot.

But the woman was looking at the middle-aged man with anticipation in her eyes, leaving Su Fan without recourse.

"Click!"

As the piercing tool clicked, the woman's face showed an expression of intense pain, and she inhaled sharply.

The once flawless gate of the peach garden now had a small hole at that moment.

A shiny metal ring also quickly appeared on it.

Su Fan didn't keep watching but went back to Shen Xin's side and asked her, "Do you have an older sister or a younger sister?"

Shen Xin was taken aback, not understanding why Su Fan was asking this, but she still nodded, "Yes, I have a twin sister named Shen Yan, what about her?"

Su Fan didn't know how to explain for a moment.

Because it was obviously Shen Yan's secret, and that middle-aged man could very well be Shen Yan's boyfriend.

After thinking for a moment, Su Fan simply said, "Does your sister have a boyfriend in his forties? Wearing gold and silver glasses, looking quite scholarly, and probably a doctor."

Remembering the opponent's highly professional technique just now, Su Fan surmised the man must also be a doctor.

However, as he was speaking, Shen Xin had already become immensely angry and was moving towards the room Su Fan had just been investigating.

Because that middle-aged man was not Shen Yan's boyfriend, but her ex-boyfriend.

Thinking of what she now was going through, Shen Xin understood that her sister might have been deceived by that man as well.

Shen Xin rushed to the room's door in two or three steps, entered the password, and kicked the door open with one foot.

Then she despairingly discovered that her sister had indeed fallen victim as well!

Chapter 393: The Afflicted Sisters

Shen Xin's sudden appearance startled both Shen Yan and Xiao Yang in the room.

Xiao Yang might have been a man in his forties, but he was quite the catch, the so-called mature hunk.

Both his looks and temperament were very impressive.

Normally, this type of man should be very popular among women in their forties or even older.

However, Xiao Yang was different; he specifically targeted young women like Shen Xin and Shen Yan.

He used his impressive education, extensive knowledge, rich life experience, and status of a successful person to gradually conquer these women.

As a veteran of love and an undefeated general in flirtation, he knew all too well how to handle these attractive women.

Whether they were naïve college girls, aloof female office workers, shy and modest girls, or women with other personalities and statuses, they would all eventually succumb to his systematic seduction, becoming his bitches.

When Xiao Yang saw that the person who had come was Shen Xin, he shamelessly said to her,

"You have something, and now your sister has it too."

He appeared self-satisfied and triumphant, as if he had done something remarkable.

Shen Xin looked at Shen Yan with furious anger, "How could you be with him?"

Shen Yan was at a loss for words, "I... he..."

She, of course, knew that Xiao Yang was her sister's boyfriend, and he was a notorious womanizer.

But somehow, she just couldn't resist this man's charm.

Not only that, but when he mentioned some of the things he had done with her sister, she was even more excited and curious, wanting to try for herself.

Today, when she finally got her wish, although she felt pain at first, now she was filled with a strange sense of achievement and pleasure.

It was just as Su Fan had said, "Birds of a feather flock together."

Since she and her sister were twin siblings, it was clear that in many ways, they shared the same tastes.

Seeing her sister's hesitant behavior, Shen Xin immediately understood what had happened.

She raised her voice to Xiao Yang without delay, "Get out! Leave my house immediately! Never appear before me again, and don't come back to harm my sister!"

Xiao Yang was unconcerned by what Shen Xin had said.

Not only that, but he actually picked up the hemostat and piercing tool again, intending to complete the ceremony he hadn't finished earlier.

This brought Shen Xin's anger to its peak, and she instantly went to Xiao Yang's side, delivering a hard slap to his cheek.

Xiao Yang was immediately enraged and raised his hand to slap Shen Xin back.

This scene, naturally, gave Shen Yan a fright; she had a very close relationship with her sister and didn't want her to be hurt.

However, Xiao Yang wasn't able to hit Shen Xin. All he felt was a darkness before his eyes before his entire body was sent flying.

Su Fan had come to see Shen Xin as his woman, and as such, how could he possibly allow her to be hit?

Seeing Xiao Yang move to hit Shen Xin, he suddenly rushed in, sending Xiao Yang flying with a powerful Iron Shoulder bump.

Furthermore, his powerful Inner Strength True Qi ferociously crashed into the other's Dragon Pulse.

Xiao Yang might have appeared unharmed, but he was now effectively a eunuch.

It was even worse than being a eunuch; eunuchs were simply without the organ, but he had it and yet it was of no use.

No matter what he attempted in the future, he would never be able to perform again.

Chapter 394 - 394 An Unexpected Request

Xiao Yang, of course, did not know that Su Fan was so ruthless!

But he wasn't stupid, either. From those two moves just now, he knew Su Fan was a martial artist.

Right away, he cursed while scrambling to his feet and fled.

After Xiao Yang left, Shen Xin looked at her sister with disappointment.

She had already told Shen Yan what kind of a person Xiao Yang really was.

Yet Shen Yan hadn't taken her words seriously and was manipulated by Xiao Yang step by step.

Now, looking at Shen Yan half-lying on the bed, Shen Xin could only turn to Su Fan and say, "Divine Doctor, please tend to her. I need some time alone."

Shen Xin was genuinely upset with her sister for getting involved with trash like Xiao Yang.

Su Fan nodded, then leaned over to whisper in Shen Xin's ear.

"You don't have to be so upset; I've already castrated him with a special technique."

Hearing Su Fan's words, Shen Xin's eyes widened in shock.

She had seen Su Fan's miraculous skills and knew that he was no ordinary person.

But this matter was still too incredible to believe!

Su Fan had just forcefully bumped into Xiao Yang, who flew backward but did not seem to have suffered any serious injuries.

However, Shen Xin chose to believe Su Fan.

After all, Su Fan had never lied to her since they had met.

Knowing that Xiao Yang had become a eunuch, Shen Xin suddenly felt much better.

What she didn't know was that Xiao Yang's fate was even worse than merely becoming a eunuch.

In his heart, he still had desires, but unfortunately, his "iron rod" was now useless.

It was like being close to starvation, seeing a myriad of delicacies, but only being able to look through glass, never getting a chance to taste a single bite.

It was not just torment; it was cruel punishment!

At this time, Su Fan also came to Shen Yan's side.

As he approached, he couldn't help but be puzzled, noticing that Shen Yan was staring at him curiously.

Su Fan had no choice but to introduce himself: "I am a friend of Shen Xin and also a doctor..."

Before he could finish, Shen Yan interrupted him and said, "I know, you are the life-saving Solitary Doctor Su Fan."

"I've been following you since the first time you were reported on the television program. I'm a fan!"

Compared to Shen Xin, Shen Yan's personality was definitely more lively.

Even in such circumstances, she didn't feel awkward at all when talking to Su Fan.

This caught Su Fan by surprise; he didn't know that his fame had reached such heights that he even had fans.

But this made things easier; since she was aware of his medical skills, he could just get started with the help.

As Su Fan was about to help remove the metal ring, Shen Yan suddenly grabbed his hand.

"Divine Doctor, what are you doing?"

Su Fan was taken aback: "I'm going to take it off for you, what's wrong?"

Shen Yan immediately shook her head: "No, no, no, I like this accessory."

After saying that, she looked at Su Fan expectantly and said, "Divine Doctor, could you pierce the other side for me too?"

Su Fan was stunned for a moment, then he couldn't help but ask, "Are you serious?"

Shen Yan immediately nodded like a pecking chicken, obviously very serious indeed.

This time, Su Fan was somewhat troubled.

He wasn't sure how Shen Xin would react if she knew about this.

Chapter 395: Never Encountered Such Burning

After thinking it through, he still decided to do Shen Yan a favor.

The main reason Su Fan wanted to help Shen Yan was that he thought Xiao Yang was truly despicable.

After messing around with her sister, he even refused to spare her younger sister.

Su Fan was also worried that if he didn't comply with Shen Yan's wishes now, Shen Yan might go to Xiao Yang.

"Click!"

After a crisp sound, Shen Yan, who was not biting a white towel in her mouth this time, let out a scream.

However, after screaming, only deep happiness and intoxication remained on her beautiful face.

It was also at this moment that Shen Xin, who had just said she needed some peace, had come back.

As soon as Shen Xin entered the room, she saw what Su Fan was up to.

Su Fan also instantly saw Shen Xin.

For a moment, the situation froze and Su Fan found himself in a difficult position.

He wanted to say that it was her younger sister who had asked for it, but he also felt that this explanation was somewhat feeble.

Just because Shen Xin's younger sister had asked for it, could he really do it?

Did he not harbor any thoughts of piercing Shen Yan himself?

The answer was yes. When Shen Yan was immersed in her intoxication and happiness, Su Fan also felt a strange sense of achievement and exhilaration.

He couldn't quite explain what was going on.

Shen Xin took a look at Su Fan and then at Shen Yan, and finally could only helplessly say, "Finish up quickly, then come out for dinner."

Having said that, she left the room, and it was unclear if she was angry or not.

Shen Xin was, in fact, a bit angry.

Although she liked it, she did not want her sister to be like her.

This small indulgence, although not morally corrupt nor damaging anyone's interests, still made Shen Xin feel that a normal, proper girl should not behave like this.

And she hoped that her sister would be a normal, proper girl.

After Shen Xin left, Su Fan finally had the chance to ask Shen Yan a few questions.

Compared to Shen Xin's timid and reserved nature, Shen Yan's personality was very outgoing, making it easy to get answers from her.

Su Fan looked at Shen Yan and then asked, "Doesn't it hurt?"

Shen Yan immediately rolled her eyes at Su Fan, "How could it not hurt!"

Su Fan couldn't help but laugh, "Then why did you let me pierce you?"

Shen Yan tilted her head and thought for a moment, then said, "I like it this way, I feel very happy and fulfilled, very accomplished."

After saying that, she added, "But I might just be after something new, and I might find it boring after a while."

After sharing her thoughts with Su Fan, Shen Yan gave a mischievous smile and then winked at Su Fan.

"How about you? What did you feel just now? Do you want to experience it again?"

"I can let you experience it two more times."

Upon hearing Shen Yan's words, Su Fan finally understood her.

Other women, even if they desire it, would be very subtle, that is, secretly provocative.

Shen Yan was different due to her outgoing personality, she was blatantly provocative both inside and out.

Another woman definitely couldn't say the things Shen Yan had said.

This made Su Fan have a strong desire to completely conquer Shen Yan.

To thoroughly conquer such a woman and completely win her over, was undoubtedly a very exhilarating thing.

At the same time, Xiao Yang also noticed that something was wrong with his body.

As a doctor, he was very vigilant about abnormalities in his body.

Upon realizing that he might be impotent, he immediately went to the hospital for an examination.

At the same time, he hated Su Fan to death!

If he was really impotent, it had to be Su Fan's doing!

But once he resolved his own issue, he definitely needed to seek revenge on Su Fan!

Chapter 396 - 396

In the villa of Shen Xin, after dinner, Su Fan received a phone call from Feng Zhenghua.

As soon as Su Fan answered the phone, Feng Zhenghua's quite courteous voice came through.

"Divine Doctor Su, have you made the pills you mentioned earlier?"

"Mr. Gongsun's condition has been very stable these past few days. After taking the pills, would his condition improve even further?"

Feng Zhenghua didn't want to rush Su Fan so urgently, but he indeed had quite a few matters waiting for Gongsun Long's assistance.

In this world, top talents were already very scarce, and someone extraordinary like Gongsun Long was even harder to come by.

Su Fan very quickly gave Feng Zhenghua a firm reply:

"Mr. Feng, you don't need to worry about Mr. Gongsun's illness."

"The Lifespan Extension Pill for treating Mr. Gongsun, I have already made it."

"Mr. Gongsun's condition is relatively stable for the moment. As long as he takes the Lifespan Extension Pill on time, there won't be any problems."

"I'll deliver the Lifespan Extension Pill to you tomorrow."

Su Fan's words quickly dissolved the worries in Feng Zhenghua's heart.

After witnessing Su Fan's miraculous medical skills several times, he had come to trust Su Fan very much.

If Su Fan said it was fine, then it was fine.

Feng Zhenghua politely said at once, "I appreciate the trouble you are taking, Divine Doctor Su."

Of course, Su Fan could only respond with equal courtesy: "It's no trouble."

This time, for treating a patient, he had collected a consultation fee he had never imagined before.

Having received so much money from Feng Zhenghua, he was definitely not going to let anything happen to Gongsun Long.

Just after ending the call with Gongsun Long, Su Fan received a phone call from Bai Man.

Bai Man originally didn't want to call Su Fan; her family's issues were, one could say, unrelated to Su Fan.

If Su Fan was willing to help, it was out of kindness; if he wasn't, it was within his rights.

After Su Fan agreed to help and returned to Yang City to raise funds, she was even less supposed to call Su Fan, to add pressure on him.

Su Fan was much more enthusiastic with Bai Man than with Feng Zhenghua.

"Man Jie, is something wrong?"

On the other end of the phone, Bai Man bit her lip, then still said, "How are things on your end? Is everything going smoothly?"

Su Fan had thought that something else had happened at Bai Man's end; he hadn't expected that she was actually worried about this.

He immediately said offhandedly, "Don't worry, Man Jie. I've already received the consultation fee here."

"Tomorrow, I'll make one more trip to Mr. Feng's house to deliver the medication for the subsequent treatment. Then, I can come directly to Xi Jing."

"Will there still be enough time?"

Su Fan hadn't really delayed much. After rushing back to Yang City from Xi Jing, he had been on the road almost constantly.

Bai Man said gently, "There's enough time."

Having said that, she remembered something else and didn't know if she should tell Su Fan.

But she no longer had anyone she could really talk to.

So, she spoke up: "Deng Hailin, the one you saved last time, he's dead."

Su Fan was momentarily stunned: "Dead? How did he die?"

He didn't have the noble's flaw of forgetfulness; he still remembered Deng Hailin.

He especially remembered that Deng Hailin had a very alluring and compelling female secretary, as well as a gentle and virtuous wife.

After thinking for a bit, Bai Man said, "It's said that he took his own life. After he confessed everything related to my brother, he killed himself."

Hearing Bai Man say this, Su Fan could only say, "Man Jie, don't worry. I'll finish things up here and then come to Xi Jing immediately."

Su Fan was in a state of urgency.

Chapter 397: Further West to Xijing

The next morning, Su Fan, along with Shen Xin and Shen Yan, said their goodbyes.

"I have some urgent matters to take care of, so I won't stay any longer," said Su Fan.

"If you need any help, feel free to call me."

Hearing Su Fan say this, both Shen Xin and Shen Yan nodded.

Compared to scum like Xiao Yang, Su Fan was obviously a truly good person among good people.

As Su Fan turned to leave, Shen Xin also spoke up, "Be careful on the road!"

Su Fan naturally nodded, "Okay."

After speaking, he got into his Range Rover and drove off to Feng Zhenghua's villa to deliver medication.

Gongsun Long was evidently very important to the Feng family.

Knowing that he was coming, Feng Zhenghua even personally came to the gate of the villa to greet him.

After getting out of the car, Su Fan also took out a box.

In this box, there were the Lifespan Extension Pills he had prepared.

That morning, at Shen Xin's villa, he had let each Lifespan Extension Pill be infused with a drop of his precious blood.

This made these already quite miraculous pills truly outstanding, becoming transcendent and with even more remarkable effects.

After receiving the box of pills, Feng Zhenghua looked at Su Fan somewhat unexpectedly, "Is Divine Doctor Su in a hurry to go somewhere else?"

He had originally planned to host a grand banquet at the villa to honor Su Fan.

But seeing Su Fan's current demeanor, it was clear he was not planning to stay for the banquet.

Su Fan nodded slightly, "I have to go to the Western Capital to deal with some matters."

Hearing this, Feng Zhenghua immediately smiled and said, "Since Divine Doctor Su has matters to attend to, I won't keep you any longer."

"Next time Divine Doctor Su has some leisure time, I must host a banquet to properly thank and entertain you."

In the future in Yang City, there would obviously be many opportunities for cooperation between Su Fan and Feng Zhenghua.

Now as Feng Zhenghua supported him, he also needed to give Feng Zhenghua face.

Su Fan smiled and said, "Okay, I will definitely come by when I have time next time."

After exchanging pleasantries, Su Fan got back into his car and drove toward the Western Capital.

As long as Bai Man's elder brother's issue remained unresolved, Bai Man would always be restless.

Since that was the case, he might as well go and settle the matter once and for all.

The journey from Yang City to the Western Capital was not very long.

Before long, Su Fan arrived in the Western Capital and once again saw Bai Man in the hotel.

During this time, Bai Man had clearly been quite exhausted.

As long as her elder brother's matter was not resolved, she could not fully relax.

Seeing Bai Man looking like this, Su Fan felt a pang of heartache.

He immediately walked over and took out the bank card he had received from Feng Zhenghua.

"Sister Man, here's 50 million, take it for now."

Bai Man looked at the card Su Fan handed over, slightly stunned.

She had thought that Su Fan might be willing to help her and her family through this difficult time.

But it surely would come with conditions, as after all, this was 50 million. Even if Su Fan had some conditions, it would be nothing unusual.

However, there were none. Su Fan just came to her side and very naturally and casually handed over a large sum of money to her.

In a daze, she was somewhat astonished; was this still the same country boy who had just arrived in the city?

The drastic change made her unable to believe it.

After being momentarily stunned, Bai Man did not reach out to take it but instead said, "You don't regret this?"

"Such a good deed, you might only encounter once in a lifetime."

"Earning this much money again could take who knows how long."

Su Fan shook his head, "I didn't think too much about it; seeing Sister Man so worried, I just wanted to help resolve your family's troubles."

His words were of course true, but he had left some things unsaid.

That was, he had noticed that people like Feng Zhenghua, living without restraint, were almost all in a sub-healthy state.

For these people to develop health issues was just a matter of time.

This time, to treat Gongsun Long, Feng Zhenghua was willing to pay a sky-high consultation fee of 50 million.

If Feng Zhenghua himself were to fall ill next time, how much would he be willing to pay then?

Chapter 398: Drained

Su Fan, at this moment, couldn't continue his train of thought.

His words just now had deeply moved Bai Man.

Feeling immensely touched, Bai Man no longer wanted to consider anything else; she just wanted to merge with Su Fan once more, completely.

With a hook of her long leg, Bai Man caused Su Fan to fall forward.

This fall naturally pinned Bai Man, who had already been sitting at the edge of the bed, down onto it completely.

A dish, if eaten continuously, will obviously become tiresome.

But the same can't be said for wine, especially when it's a top-grade famous wine, no matter how many times one drinks it, they can still taste its richness.

Bai Man was clearly not a dish but a kind of strong liquor that Su Fan couldn't resist.

Su Fan could play plenty of tricks when he was with Yin Qianyue.

However, when he was with Bai Man, he was quite straightforward.

Even so, every time he thoroughly united with Bai Man, he would still experience an unparalleled and indescribable ecstasy.

After pinning Bai Man down, Su Fan immediately captured her fiery red lips with his own.

This time, however, Bai Man did not respond passionately and instead turned her head away.

While letting out a breath as soft as an orchid's, she said to Su Fan, "Stop kissing, let's get straight to the point."

The stack of issues at home had been putting immense pressure on Bai Man these past few days.

She did not want to indulge in playful banter with Su Fan now; all she desired was an intense impact and complete relaxation like never before.

If she didn't adjust her mindset and state soon, she truly feared that her heartstrings might snap under the strain.

But Su Fan laughed, "Man, what's the rush? You'll have your fill soon enough."

If he had spoken to Bai Man like this in the past, she would already be angry.

This time, however, Bai Man merely blinked, a teasing smile on her lips as she said, "Really? Hope it's not just all talk."

Bai Man was clearly a woman who forgot the pain once the wound healed; it hadn't been long since the last time Su Fan had driven her to desperate pleasure.

And now, she seemed to have forgotten already.

Or perhaps, deep down, she didn't want Su Fan to be like plain water with her but rather hoped he would be like raging fire, completely enveloping her.

As Su Fan kissed her fair and smooth cheeks, he retorted.

"Man, have you forgotten how you begged for mercy last time?"

Su Fan's words were not empty.

Last time, after Bai Man said she could handle anything, Su Fan relentlessly took her all night without rest.

Even if Bai Man was so tired she fell asleep, her body continued to suffer.

In the end, she could only plead with Su Fan to stop causing such a ruckus.

Not much time had passed since that incident, and Bai Man certainly remembered.

However, Bai Man wasn't scared; the reason she ended up in such a mess last time was that she hadn't been able to make Su Fan submit.

This time, she was determined to use all her tricks to drain Su Fan's ammunition completely and see how he could still cause mischief!

Of course, Su Fan was unaware of Bai Man's thoughts. He held her and kissed her fiercely.

It seemed he wanted to kiss every inch of Bai Man's beautiful face back and forth dozens of times before he would be satisfied.

But Bai Man was struggling with his teasing; Su Fan was only concerned with his own pleasure and seemed oblivious to taking care of her.

This made Bai Man say irritably, "Hurry up and get inside!"

The more she behaved this way, the less Su Fan wanted her to experience the power of his "dragon."

After kissing Bai Man's flawless face, Su Fan began to kiss her neck.

Bai Man, no matter when, always made sure she was washed and fragrant.

She did this in the past because being clean was comfortable and lifted her mood considerably.

Now, she was undoubtedly giving Su Fan an advantage. After kissing her cheeks and neck, he lightly bit Bai Man's earlobe.

Chapter 399: Into the Soul

"Hmm..."

This sent an electric current coursing through Bai Man's entire body, and her body suddenly stiffened, then rapidly softened like never before.

As a beautiful moan escaped from her throat, Su Fan's hands were no longer staying put.

Su Fan reached directly under Bai Man's hem, and up he went, grasping a round and full snowy peak.

At this moment, Bai Man somewhat wanted to curse. Su Fan's offensive was relentless but kept skirting around the main event.

This left her incredibly eager, but Su Fan just kept teasing her through the layers, driving her mad with frustration!

As Bai Man wondered what other tricks Su Fan had up his sleeve, a sudden cool breeze struck, and the next moment, Bai Man had to quickly cover her mouth to stifle a scream.

The previously teasing and probing Su Fan had, with lightning speed, launched a fierce attack.

Su Fan didn't proceed as usual, allowing her to gradually adjust before tenderly penetrating.

This time, Su Fan was incredibly brute, striking fiercely and penetrating deep to the core!

Intense pain and unparalleled pleasure interwoven in an instant in Bai Man's mind.

It left her in pain yet pleased, and at the same time, she really wanted to bite Su Fan.

The sudden fierce offensive had taken her by surprise.

Even now, her heart was still pounding violently.

"Hiss—"

For Su Fan, this was also a Pyrrhic victory.

An unprecedented sense of pressure, and the warm embrace, linger continuously in his mind at this moment.

His original plan was to penetrate with a long, swift thrust to the core, then to engage in a vigorous onslaught until all was dark and chaotic.

But his Aunt Bai Man was truly gifted.

No matter how long it had been since her last nourishing and cultivation, the narrow haven of bliss had reverted to a tight, seamless fit.

If Su Fan had allowed Bai Man to adjust little by little, he would have entered tenderly, enjoying the pleasure that came with it.

But he didn't; he had completed the journey in one stride.

Leaving him now in a complete dilemma.

Bai Man felt her core being ravaged, and reached out to push Su Fan: "Move back a bit."

Su Fan managed a bitter smile: "Auntie Man, it's not that I don't want to, but I can't move right now, otherwise I would have already shown you how formidable I can be."

Bai Man couldn't help but get angry: "You still have the nerve to laugh, as if you don't know my situation, still messing around like this!"

Su Fan deliberately asked with a laugh: "Auntie Man, what situation?"

He was feigning ignorance; he probably knew Bai Man's condition better than Li Jian did.

If Li Jian's development of Bai Man was at 30%, Su Fan's development of her might be 200%.

Bai Man was an extremely exquisite beauty, as touch as seamless brocade and as rare as a single thread of water from the heavens.

Bai Man's recovery ability was simply incredible.

If Su Fan's conquest that night had not been with Bai Man, but with Wang Fei or someone else, they surely would not have recovered by now.

Moreover, after several such episodes, even with Su Fan's ample resources, he couldn't help but encounter an embarrassing "like a fish in your pond" situation.

Bai Man was different, from Su Fan's arrival in the city to now, Su Fan didn't know how many times he had cultivated and ploughed.

Every time he advanced, he still encountered a situation where he could neither proceed nor retreat.

This situation posed a significant test to Su Fan's resolve.

The warmth and complete envelopment kept assaulting his brain incessantly.

His ammunition dump felt like it was at constant risk of complete detonation.

When unable to advance or retreat, his perceptions became sharper than when he was charging through headlong and fiercely.

Bai Man's feelings were especially distinct; she could clearly sense Su Fan's dragon seeming to twitch.

Chapter 400: Don't Touch Me

This discovery seemed to have opened a new door for Bai Man.

At this moment, Bai Man even started to squeeze her legs together.

When she made this move, Su Fan of course felt a series of intense pressures.

"Hoo—"

He had to take a deep breath to regain some clarity.

Just now, he had talked big, saying he would show Bai Man a thing or two today.

If he were to be defeated in just a short while, wouldn't that be extremely embarrassing.

Bai Man indeed planned to completely drain Su Fan's ammunition depot, and at this moment, she was very gently holding his clenched fists.

The next moment, Su Fan could no longer clench his fists to strengthen his resolve.

The only choice he had was to knead the dough, because his hands were now on those round and full snowy peaks.

What he lacked the most right now was resolve, and kneading the dough was undoubtedly an activity that consumed a tremendous amount of resolve. He definitely couldn't do that.

But in his wildest dreams, he never imagined that one day Bai Man would actually take him by the hand and teach him how to knead dough.

"Hiss—"

This intense stimulation made Su Fan involuntarily inhale a breath of cold air, forcefully suppressing the volcanic eruption of palpitations in his heart.

Just now, he almost wanted to roar out and nourish Bai Man completely with countless essences of life like never before.

Luckily, his resolve was still relatively strong, and the Inner Strength and True Qi within him were quietly circulating at this moment, taking his resolve to the next level.

But Bai Man's attacks from both above and below were making it extremely difficult for him to suppress his feelings.

He felt as if he was always on the verge of completely losing control.

Of course, Bai Man's offensive hadn't ended.

Last time, her strategies were wrong; all defense and no offense allowed Su Fan to give her a hard time.

Even though she had rested, her body hadn't.

This time, she was determined to turn the tables and show Su Fan what was what.

She wanted to let Su Fan feel the taste of being at the end of his rope, then tease him in various ways.

To let Su Fan know the meaning of "the spirit is willing, but the flesh is weak."

As Bai Man's breath was as fragrant as orchids, and her small mouth slightly opened, welcoming Su Fan with her playful tongue.

Finally, Su Fan reached his limit, releasing a low growl from his throat like a beast.

Armed with her previous experience, Bai Man certainly wouldn't let Su Fan have that ultimate experience so many men dream of.

She immediately prepared to roll her body to avoid the pouring of Su Fan's massive warm surge.

However, Su Fan grabbed her in his arms, making it impossible for her to dodge.

All of Su Fan's life essence was completely absorbed by her.

Bai Man immediately furrowed her brow, "What are you doing! What am I to you? What are you doing to me?"

Having no other choice, Bai Man could only speak up like this.

Once or twice might have been okay, but every time Su Fan did this, she had to take medicine every time.

After all, Su Fan, the bastard, had also begun without any safe measures this time.

"Hoo!"

After fully releasing his life essence, Su Fan collapsed on top of Bai Man, completely overpowering her.

He could only pretend not to hear what Bai Man had just said.

Such matters, once tasted, become an addiction; after the first time, one craves the next.

If he were to take precautions before starting, he would miss out on a lot of fun.

At this point, whatever Bai Man said was useless; she could only say to Su Fan then,

"Let me get up. I need to go clean up in the bathroom."

But Su Fan had no intention of letting Bai Man go clean up, and instead said to her,

"Man, wait a bit longer before you go, otherwise you'll have to shower again soon."

Bai Man immediately gave Su Fan a glare, "Keep dreaming! Stay away from me. Don't touch me anymore!"
