

Temptation 441

Chapter 441: Footsteps Outside the Door

Wang HaiMei was extremely generous. Although she had asked Su Fan to be gentler before, when Su Fan didn't want to reduce his strength, she let him be.

At this moment, she thought for a while and then said, "Xiao Fan, do you regret the fifty million you gave away?"

"Although both Bai's and our family will try to pay you back as soon as possible..."

"But after all, it is a huge amount of money, we can't pay you back in a short time."

"Fifty million is already a lot of money anywhere, and you can do a lot with it."

Su Fan was slightly surprised; Wang HaiMei was actually talking business with him at such a time.

After all, his entire mind was on using every trick in the book to thoroughly enjoy and exploit Wang HaiMei.

Wang HaiMei, Shen He, Wang Xiaoxiao, and his other women were all different.

After tonight, he might never have the chance to interact with Wang HaiMei again.

Once the issue with Bai Hua was completely dealt with, and Bai Hua was demoted and remained in place, it would be even less possible for him to have contact with Madame Wang HaiMei.

Despite Bai Hua being set up and treated quite badly this time...

With this lesson learned, Bai Hua would certainly be very cautious in the future.

And considering the Bai family's power, it wouldn't be long before they regained their status.

By then, if Bai Hua knew what he had done to Wang HaiMei today, there would certainly be no good consequences for him.

However, since Wang HaiMei was now asking about the money, Su Fan naturally just spoke his true thoughts out loud.

"Perhaps it's because I don't currently have a need for money; I don't care much about money."

"And seeing Sister Man struggling so hard, I just wanted to give the money to help her out of her difficulties."

Upon hearing Su Fan say this, Wang HaiMei suddenly felt envious of Bai Man.

This incident acted like a magical mirror; it highlighted the failure of Bai Man's marriage, yet it also showed her who the truly good man by her side was.

When Su Fan said this, most women would probably be moved.

Just to help someone resolve their troubles, he casually tossed away fifty million without a second thought.

If she had met Su Fan before her marriage, then no matter what, she would have had to become his woman.

Unfortunately, most women seem not to meet that perfect, flawless man when they marry.

After a brief daze, Wang HaiMei quickly came back to her senses and continued to speak to Su Fan:

"It's Bai Man's luck to have met you."

Hearing this, Su Fan didn't know what to think and unexpectedly countered with, "What about you, sister-in-law?"

As he spoke, his hands secretly exerted more force, causing Wang HaiMei so much pain that she quickly had to cover her mouth with her hand while giving him an angry glare.

After a pause, Wang HaiMei finally said, "Be gentler! It's your sister-in-law's luck to meet you, but it's also her misfortune! There's no one like you who completely disregards gentleness and tenderness!"

Hearing this, Su Fan immediately lessened his strength: "Now?"

Wang HaiMei had hoped that Su Fan would lessen his strength, but the painful yet wonderful sensation disappeared when he did so.

This made Wang HaiMei frown: "Just do it... like before."

She said this somewhat embarrassedly.

Su Fan felt slightly amused, but he didn't do as she asked, instead secretly channeling Inner Strength True Qi and applying even more force.

"Ow——"

Wang HaiMei's beautiful face immediately displayed a look of pain.

But Su Fan's ears perked up, and he quickly stopped, while covering Wang HaiMei's mouth at the same time.

"Sister-in-law, you'd better leave; it's probably Sister Man coming to get headache medicine again."

Chapter 442 - 442 The Good Thing You Did

Su Fan felt bitter inside as Bai Man seemed determined to compete with him tonight.

When he was on the second floor, just about to get into the thick of it, Bai Man had interrupted him.

By now he had thought Bai Man must be asleep and things on his side were progressing very smoothly.

He never expected that before he even got to enjoy other skills beyond Wang HaiMei's kissing abilities, Bai Man appeared to be coming over again!

This ignited a fire in his heart, and he resolved that next time, when the opportunity was right, he would take Bai Man to the skies and make her thoroughly ecstatic until she passed out.

Wang HaiMei, of course, didn't dare to treat the situation lightly as she was extremely grateful to Bai Man.

If it weren't for Bai Man, Su Fan definitely wouldn't have offered his help.

Without Su Fan's help, not only would there be no fifty million, but Hailin Company wouldn't have invested tens of millions either.

Seeing Su Fan looking somewhat gloomy, Wang HaiMei could only say, "Silly boy, why the long face? Whenever you miss your sister-in-law, we can arrange a meeting place."

As she spoke, Wang HaiMei gave Su Fan a light kiss on the lips, then swiftly left from where she had come.

After Wang HaiMei had completely left, Su Fan's door was opened again.

However, the visitor was not Bai Man, but a stunningly beautiful and perfectly exquisite young girl.

Bai Xiaolin opened the door and was startled to find Su Fan in the room.

She quickly covered her mouth, preventing any sound from escaping.

Su Fan had just thought it was Bai Man coming over again, but it turned out to be Bai Xiaolin ruining his great moment.

Since Bai Xiaolin ruined his good time, he would have to have this beautiful girl make it up to him.

He immediately asked, "Xiaolin, what are you doing here?"

Bai Xiaolin gave Su Fan a glare, "Brother Su Fan, it's all because of the mess you made!"

Su Fan immediately felt a bit guilty; the mess he had made indeed wronged Bai Xiaolin.

But he soon realized he had misunderstood.

Bai Xiaolin, in fact, went to the cabinet with the medicine box, pulled out a key, and opened a small drawer at the bottom.

In this drawer was a box of medication Su Fan had recently bought for Bai Xiaolin.

When Bai Xiaolin had bled for him, she was also completely drenched by his charm.

Clearly not intending to become a mother, she hurried over to take the medication a second time after waking up.

She hadn't expected Su Fan to be sleeping in this room.

After taking the medication again, Bai Xiaolin rubbed her sleepy, beautiful eyes.

Then, the young beauty looked at Su Fan very shyly, "Brother Su Fan, can we still do it like we did in the daytime?"

The young girl's voice was very tender, and her pretty face blushed to her ears, her words shy and implicit.

Su Fan felt the urge to tease the pretty girl and immediately asked, "Like we did in the daytime, what was that?"

Bai Xiaolin, upon hearing this, gave Su Fan a big eye-roll, "Oh! How can I say such a thing!"

Although Bai Xiaolin was not as shy as Shen He, being an inexperienced young beauty, she was very bashful.

Before she could continue being bashful, Su Fan came over, swept her off her feet, and held her in his arms.

He then shook his head and said, "We can't do it like we did in the daytime now."

Bai Xiaolin was slightly stunned, "Why not?"

After asking this, she uncertainly added, "Did I... drain you during the day, Brother Su Fan?"

Seeing her shy yet perplexed cute expression, and hearing her say those laughably adorable words.

Su Fan just wanted to ravish Bai Xiaolin thoroughly a hundred times to let her know just how stocked his ammunition depot was.

However, he still didn't put his thoughts into action, instead saying, "Because I'm worried you'd wake up Sister Man and the others."

Bai Xiaolin's pretty face again showed a puzzled expression, "Why would it wake them up?"

Chapter 443: Stars as Witnesses

Su Fan had a headache. Bai Xiaolin could be very smart at times, yet so clueless at others. He could only whisper quietly, "Because you were shouting so loudly."

He didn't mean to tease Bai Xiaolin this time; he was just telling the truth.

Apart from Wang Xiaoxiao, Bai Xiaolin's voice was the loudest, clearest, most enchanting, and penetrating.

Listening to her exquisite voice, Su Fan would often find it hard to maintain his composure, increasing the risk of giving in to his desires.

Bai Xiaolin's cheeks flushed red from what he said, burying her face in his chest.

Her muffled voice came out as well, "Su Fan, big brother, what are you doing being so naughty!"

"I am so embarrassed... And I don't want to be that loud; it's all your fault!"

Bai Xiaolin didn't realize the tremendous impact her wonderful voice had on Su Fan.

She even thought that when Su Fan was with Bai Man, Bai Man could keep herself from making a sound.

Su Fan already liked Bai Xiaolin a lot. Hearing her say that, he couldn't help but pick her up and kiss her cherry lips.

Bai Xiaolin seemed to have acquired a taste for it. Moreover, she had just entered university recently, obviously unable to be by Su Fan's side at all times like Wang Xiaoxiao and the others.

After Su Fan left Xi Jing to return to Yang City this time, she didn't know when she would get another chance to be alone with Su Fan.

So after thinking it over, she leaned in close to Su Fan's ear and whispered softly, "Su Fan, big brother, be gentle and I'll try not to make a sound."

"After all, once you go back to Xi Jing, I'll have to go to school, and who knows when we will meet again."

After she said that, Su Fan had a bold idea in his mind!

That was to sneak out with Bai Xiaolin!

Bai Man had been quite worn out these past few days and must have already fallen into a deep sleep.

As for Wang HaiMei, after being busy twice, she had probably gone back to sleep as well.

With that in mind, taking Bai Xiaolin out now and returning just before dawn seemed feasible?

Having thought this, Su Fan promptly shared his idea with Bai Xiaolin.

"Xiaolin, how about I take you out now, and we come back just before dawn?"

After thinking it over, Bai Xiaolin still nodded.

Su Fan not only personally donated fifty million to help her family out of a tough spot, but he also secured ten million from Hailin Company to completely fill the gap for them.

She didn't tell her mother or her aunt about her kidnapping today.

But when she was utterly hopeless, it was still Su Fan who risked his life to fight the kidnappers and save her.

To the young girl, Su Fan had become the hero and savior she trusted and adored without reservation.

Even in the dead of night, if Su Fan wanted to take her out, she agreed without hesitation.

She was willing to repay Su Fan's kindness with everything she had.

But Bai Xiaolin had no idea just how much Su Fan liked and loved her.

When he took her virginity, Su Fan had determined to protect this beautiful young girl for a lifetime.

Bai Xiaolin also didn't know just how perfect and attractive she was.

Whether it was her face or her figure, her personality, or her temperament, everything about her was so flawless.

She was only eighteen or nineteen now. When she reached the peak age for a woman at twenty-four or twenty-five, the words "nation's beauty" would suit her perfectly.

Su Fan's feelings toward Bai Man could be said to be a mix of love and desire.

For most other women, it was more about desire than love, and it often couldn't even be considered love, just a primal longing from deep within the heart.

But with Bai Xiaolin, it was different; it was a feeling of love that surpassed desire.

He didn't even need to be passionately intimate with Bai Xiaolin. Just holding this immaculate beauty and pressing cheeks together, gently kissing her, brought him immense satisfaction and joy.

Because the next day, he was to return to Yang City with Bai Man.

After returning to Yang City, he was to compulsively prepare for the Yang City martial arts exchange event.

At this moment, Su Fan was also racing against the clock, taking advantage of the night to exhibit his Inner Strength master skills.

Carrying the young girl silently, he left the villa without a trace.

Su Fan had planned to take the young girl to a star-rated hotel, but Bai Xiaolin glanced at the night sky and said, "Su Fan, big brother, let's go to the Starry Sky Hotel."

The Starry Sky Hotel wasn't a star-rated hotel but a place specially designed for couples.

In the rooms of the Starry Sky Hotel, one could see the starry heavens just by raising their heads.

Of course, everything they did under the stars would also be witnessed by the celestial bodies above.

Chapter 444: Couples' Paradise

Stargazer Hotel was inherently a lovers' hotel.

Even at this hour, when Su Fan brought Bai Xiaolin to the Stargazer Hotel, they still encountered several couples.

As Su Fan and Bai Xiaolin observed these couples, the couples, of course, observed them as well.

A man and a woman, if they were to go to any other hotel, might just be there to rest and sleep.

But since they had come to the Stargazer Hotel, it was clear they were there to engage in activities typical between lovers.

Su Fan and Bai Xiaolin, a handsome man and a beautiful woman.

They naturally attracted a lot of attention in the Stargazer Hotel.

Su Fan was indifferent to this; let others look if they wanted—could he really control their eyes?

Bai Xiaolin, however, felt somewhat shy due to the candid discussions from the people around her, which caused the beautiful girl to blush intensely.

While Su Fan was checking in, several of the young men in the couples nearby looked at him with immense envy.

They were about the same age as Su Fan.

Yet Su Fan had such a stunning girlfriend, which made their own girlfriends pale in comparison!

Furthermore, at other times, women might as well be the same once the lights were off.

But everyone was certain that Bai Xiaolin was different.

Bai Xiaolin's firm peaks were, much like Wang HaiMei's, round, full, and impressively proud.

Because she was still a youthful beauty, the surprising elasticity of Bai Xiaolin's peaks was simply incomparable to ordinary women.

Her skin was even more snow-white and rosy, flawless and delicate.

Just one glance at her could make anyone long to kiss every inch of her skin.

Most men, after all, always look for something better than what they have.

Seeing a top-tier beauty like Bai Xiaolin, they couldn't help but steal glances at her now and then.

Many even wickedly wondered what charming expressions Bai Xiaolin would have when subjected to passionate moments later.

Su Fan quickly completed the check-in process, then led Bai Xiaolin to their room at the Stargazer Hotel.

Even though the hotel had soundproof walls and excellent noise insulation, as Su Fan and Bai Xiaolin stepped out of the elevator, they still heard the symphony of voices, quick, fervent, pained, or inebriated, merging beautifully.

Having been through much, Su Fan found this quite normal.

Although Bai Xiaolin had heard about Stargazer Hotel before, she had never expected it to be so extravagant.

Su Fan quickly led Bai Xiaolin to their room.

After opening the door, Su Fan switched on the light.

The lighting in the room was very soft, and the ceiling was transparent.

Lying on the bed and looking up, they could see the starry night sky.

Bai Xiaolin glanced around and said hesitantly, "Su Fan, why is the lighting so dim here?"

Although Su Fan had turned on the lights, the lighting in the room was just enough to barely make out the furniture.

However, the lighting was slightly brighter around the bed.

This way, when they were lying on the bed, they could still clearly see each other's faces.

The Stargazer Hotel indeed had an incredible atmosphere; once there, Su Fan reached out and grasped what many young talents longed for but could not have—Bai Xiaolin's firm peaks.

Bai Xiaolin's body shook slightly, then, still slightly nervous but also expectant, she snuggled closer into Su Fan's embrace.

Su Fan carried Bai Xiaolin to the bed, then he too lay down.

As he lay beside Bai Xiaolin, his hand continued to knead the delicate girl's tender peaks.

Chapter 445: The Booklet on the Nightstand

Bai Xiaolin's breathing, under Su Fan's actions, gradually became a bit hurried.

The beautiful girl soon exhaled gently and spoke, "Brother Su Fan, if I miss you while I'm at school, will you come to see me?"

Su Fan immediately nodded and said, "I will."

He wasn't deceiving Bai Xiaolin. If she really wanted to see him, he could go find her.

Moreover, Bai Xiaolin's charm was something most men absolutely couldn't resist.

Although Bai Xiaolin already had some feelings, she still wanted to talk with Su Fan for a while longer.

After all, Su Fan was returning to Yang City with Bai Man early the next morning.

For Bai Man, Su Fan could effortlessly spend fifty million without batting an eye, which showed how important Bai Man was to him.

Bai Xiaolin worried that if she couldn't make a lasting impression on Su Fan, she might never stay in his heart.

Su Fan didn't know what the beautiful girl was thinking at that moment; otherwise, he would definitely have told her that she was worrying too much.

From the moment Bai Xiaolin offered her virginity to him, she had secured an irreplaceable position in Su Fan's heart.

He now had many women, and he might encounter even more in the future.

However, no matter what, Bai Xiaolin would always have a place in his heart.

Wang Fei, Bai Man, Yin Qianyue, Liu Qing, Su Ya, and Shen He, along with Wang Xiaoxiao and other women.

Each woman had one or two traits that were highly attractive to men.

Like Bai Man's mysterious paradise that always tightly and completely enveloped Su Fan, no matter how explored.

Like Wang Fei's incredible oral skills and Yin Qianyue's perfectly soft peaks.

And Shen He's shyness and sensuality, as well as Wang Xiaoxiao's extensive experience and diverse positions, all had almost fatal attraction to men.

If these outstanding qualities were related to appearance and physical attributes, then Bai Xiaolin possessed all of them, and even exceeded them in excellence.

In the near future, Su Fan believed that under his guidance, Bai Xiaolin's skills would not be inferior to those of other women.

Bai Xiaolin didn't know that Su Fan was thinking about bullying her.

She had already picked up a booklet from the bedside table.

She was curious why a booklet like this was placed in the bedside drawer of the Starry Sky Hotel and immediately opened it to take a look.

Just one glance made Bai Xiaolin's face flush with embarrassment.

Because the booklet had two sections.

One section was about positions, and the other was about tools.

If it had been just text, it would have been one thing, but it was also illustrated.

Thus, Bai Xiaolin naturally only took one glance before she felt extremely embarrassed.

Seeing Bai Xiaolin's expression, Su Fan curiously asked, "What is that?"

Bai Xiaolin tried to put the booklet back and casually said, "It's nothing."

When she spoke, she clearly lacked confidence and was somewhat fearful.

Su Fan was already audacious enough, but if he saw the content on the booklet and used the techniques from it on her, wouldn't she faint?

Su Fan was slightly surprised and asked, "Nothing?"

While speaking, he also reached to grab the booklet from the bedside table.

Seeing this, Bai Xiaolin was, of course, extremely anxious.

She hurriedly said, "Brother Su Fan, it really is nothing."

The more she insisted, the more Su Fan felt that the booklet was not ordinary, and naturally, he became even more inclined to reach for it.

Bai Xiaolin then reached out and moved the booklet even further away.

Chapter 446 - 446 Fully Equipped

Bai Xiaolin's behavior naturally made Su Fan smile with amusement.

Su Fan immediately pressed Bai Xiaolin onto the bed, then reached out to snatch the booklet.

This time, without any mishap, the black booklet that had been placed on the bedside table easily came into Su Fan's hands.

Under Bai Xiaolin's coy and resentful gaze, Su Fan casually opened the black booklet and began to read.

After a brief look, Su Fan realized he had encountered yet another situation of endless learning.

This booklet was like a small book, but it had no cover.

It recorded various techniques and described them in great detail.

It not only explained how to use these techniques but also described the feelings both parties would experience afterward.

Besides the more than sixty techniques, it also included the use of props.

The charges of the Starry Sky Hotel were similar to those of a five-star hotel.

Of course, there was a reason for its high price.

That reason was that all the props mentioned in the booklet were available in this room, and all were brand new.

Because the booklet was richly illustrated and vivid, both Su Fan and Bai Xiaolin, just by glancing over it, felt a wave of unusual feelings stirring inside them.

For instance, there was a metallic prop that resembled a test tube.

But this metallic prop was not a real test tube; it was used for dilation.

If one wanted to explore the hidden secrets of the mysterious peach garden, one could clearly see everything with the use of this prop.

This room also had tools for making photo books.

After taking photos, one could quickly print matchbox-sized pictures and then compile these photos, which recorded beautiful memories, into a little book to carry around.

Su Fan was very interested in this and wanted to create a record for Bai Xiaolin.

The scenes of Bai Xiaolin offering her virginity to him—if he had recorded them with digital equipment—would no doubt be something he could watch endlessly and never grow tired of, no matter how many times he watched them.

After pondering for a moment, Su Fan said to Bai Xiaolin, "Xiaolin, how about we try out everything?"

As soon as Su Fan spoke, Bai Xiaolin knew that it was probably not something good.

Upon hearing what Su Fan had said, a look of fear and grievance appeared on Bai Xiaolin's exquisitely beautiful face.

She had only recently given her virginity to Su Fan, and now these tools designed to add excitement were no different from torture instruments to her.

Seeing Bai Xiaolin's coy demeanor, Su Fan smiled wryly.

He had clearly scared Bai Xiaolin, given that the beautiful young girl had just lost her virginity to him not long ago.

She was evidently in a state both curious and frightened about the matters between men and women.

Su Fan immediately hugged Bai Xiaolin and said tenderly, "Then how about we do it like we did during the day?"

This time, Bai Xiaolin immediately nodded her head shyly, "Okay."

Su Fan really liked this beautiful young girl a lot.

He felt that every frown and smile of Bai Xiaolin was captivating.

Without waiting for the beautiful young girl to speak, he had already kissed her cherry lips.

Bai Xiaolin's pearly teeth and red lips were forcefully pried open by Su Fan, and her tender small tongue was vigorously sucked and licked by him.

The temperature in the room gradually increased.

The wonderful experience Bai Xiaolin had during the day was now returned to her.

Unlike the tension and joy of the daytime, with the day's experience, the young girl was no longer as scared.

In fact, had she not encountered Su Fan's furious dragon to begin with, she would not have felt any pain at all.

Su Fan's furious dragon, not to mention for her who was a virgin, even Bai Man, Wang Fei, Liu Qing, Wang Xiaoxiao, these women, could not bear it at all.

Especially Bai Man, who had fallen asleep several times from exhaustion, while Su Fan was still fiercely tilling the land.

Luckily for Su Fan, his body was nourished with precious blood, and a single drop of dragon's saliva was equivalent to ten drops of precious blood.

Bai Man and the other women were also nourished by the dragon's saliva, which allowed them to avoid serious vitality loss.

Otherwise, Su Fan's reckless actions would have left them unable to leave the bed for several days.

Chapter 447: Return to Yang City

This time, Su Fan came to the Starry Sky Hotel with the intention of making a big splash.

However, time was limited, and Bai Xiaolin, the beautiful girl, was still somewhat shy.

Many moves and games could only be gradually unlocked as his relationship with Bai Xiaolin got better and better.

By the time dawn was approaching, Su Fan took the nearly asleep Bai Xiaolin back to the villa.

Bai Xiaolin occasionally stayed up all night before, but she didn't get so tired she'd fall asleep on the spot.

But this time was different, heaven knows what she had gone through.

Bai Xiaolin just felt a fiery pain in her body, as if it was about to split open completely.

Now she was not even thinking about bringing Su Fan any more happiness, she was in so much pain she couldn't even walk normally.

Su Fan, of course, felt extremely guilty in his heart.

During his passion-filled frenzy, he was like a wild beast, completely forgetting the delicacy of the beautiful girl.

However, after he and Bai Man returned to Yang City, it was clear Bai Xiaolin could rest well for a long time.

When Su Fan and Bai Xiaolin returned to the villa, it was already dawn.

Not much longer, the sky gradually brightened.

But neither Bai Man nor Wang HaiMei had gotten up.

The two of them had been running around these days and were obviously very tired.

Now that things had finally been dealt with, their tense nerves completely relaxed, and of course, they both had to rest well.

This, of course, was good news for Su Fan and Bai Xiaolin.

After sending Bai Xiaolin back to her room to rest, Su Fan also sat cross-legged on the bed and began to meditate for recovery.

Since he was a child, he had followed his grandfather in martial arts practice, and for short periods, he could use meditation to substitute for sleep.

After a while, Su Fan heard the voices of Bai Man and Wang HaiMei.

The two women had actually woken up around the same time.

After the two of them woke up, Su Fan, of course, got dressed and left his room.

Bai Man had already put on her makeup and dressed herself up.

She had just finished discussing some matters with her sister-in-law and was waiting for Su Fan to wake up so they could return to Yang City.

Once Su Fan was outside, Bai Man spoke up, "Sister-in-law, since everything is settled, Su Fan and I will head back to Yang City."

Wang HaiMei nodded, "All right, be careful on your way."

When Wang HaiMei's gaze fell on Su Fan, she gave him a meaningful smile.

Su Fan could only pretend not to understand the significance and smiled back.

If Bai Man knew that he and Wang HaiMei were 99% of the way there, she would definitely fight him to the death!

After saying goodbye to Wang HaiMei, Su Fan and Bai Man headed back to Yang City together.

This unexpected incident had delayed them for quite a long time.

Now that Bai Man's family matters were resolved, Su Fan needed to go to the Tai Chi gym to get the credentials for the president of the Yang City Martial Arts Association.

Not long after Su Fan and Bai Man entered the territory of Yang City, he said to Bai Man, "Man, after I drop you off at home, I need to make a trip to the Tai Chi gym."

Bai Man was slightly startled, "What are you going to the Tai Chi gym for?"

Su Fan hadn't quite decided whether he wanted to tell Bai Man about his appointment as the president of the Yang City Martial Arts Association yet.

After thinking about it, he partially truthfully said, "Man, I've followed Master Chen Tai to learn Tai Chi before. Recently, I've had some insights and I want to ask him some questions."

Su Fan indeed had questions about Tai Chi.

But his questions were not something Master Chen Tai could answer.

He still hadn't figured out the true mysteries behind the Tai Chi Jade Pendant that Chen Tai had given him.

His main purpose for going to the Tai Chi gym this time was to get the credentials for the president of the Yang City Martial Arts Association.

Chapter 448 - 448 Duties Documentation

The Bai family is a perpetual force in the political arena, with most Bai family members being active in politics.

This meant that Bai Man, like the rest of her clan, knew very little about the martial arts community.

Now that Su Fan mentioned he needed to visit the Tai Chi martial arts school, Bai Man didn't react much.

In fact, in high society, politics, the military, business, and ancient martial arts each hold an irreplaceable position.

The higher the martial arts mastery of those who practice and internal strength experts, the greater their status and identity.

Su Fan's visit to the Tai Chi martial arts school was actually to collect the appointment documents for the presidency of the Yang City Martial Arts Association, along with relevant materials.

After dropping Bai Man off at home, Su Fan drove to the Tai Chi martial arts school.

Upon learning of Su Fan's arrival, the master of the Tai Chi martial arts school, Chen Tai, as well as the young lady of the martial arts school, Chen Ruoshui, both personally came out to greet him.

Seeing Su Fan, Chen Tai immediately began with a smile, "Divine Doctor Su, your timing is impeccable."

Su Fan's gaze shifted as he asked, "What do you mean by that, Master Chen?"

As Chen Tai led the way for Su Fan, he explained, "Soon, Old Master Liu of the Liu family in Yang City will be celebrating his centenary, and he has invited many influential figures."

"However, the number of invitations the Liu family sent out is not large, and many people are desperately trying to find connections to attend, but without any success."

"Divine Doctor Su, your appointment documents have already been processed, and as the president of the Yang City Martial Arts Association, you are on the Liu family's list of invitees."

Su Fan, who had been in Yang City for some time, understood quite a bit about the city's situation.

The Liu family of Yang City was one of the earliest families to rise to prominence.

In politics, the military, business, and the martial arts community, the Liu family of Yang City had a presence.

Old Master Liu's connections had long since reached beyond Yang City, within neighboring cities, and even the surrounding provinces, Old Master Liu was capable of wielding influence.

This was quite remarkable, so many people wanted to attend his centenary celebration, to forge a bond with Old Master Liu and gain his favor.

Su Fan had not expected that becoming president of the Yang City Martial Arts Association would come with such a perk.

Right then, he also collected his appointment documents, the invitation, and other materials.

As he was collecting these materials, he noticed Chen Tai seemed hesitant, as if wanting to say something.

Without delay, Su Fan smiled and said, "Master Chen, if you have something to say, please do not hesitate."

Upon his prompt, Chen Tai quickly spoke, "President Su, here's the thing."

"A very close friend of mine has a daughter named Tang Wan, a top medical expert who has just returned from overseas research institutions. She also received an invitation."

"But my friend feels that while his daughter excels in academia, she is not very sociable, so he asked me to find someone familiar to accompany Tang Wan."

"Would it be possible for her to join President Su in attending Old Master Liu's birthday celebration?"

Su Fan thought it was going to be a big deal but arranging for someone to accompany him was of course not an issue.

Without hesitation, Su Fan agreed on the spot, "No problem, when I go to wish Old Master Liu a happy birthday, should I pick her up from the Tai Chi martial arts school?"

Chen Tai immediately waved his hands, "How could that be? I will ask her to pick up President Su."

Su Fan nodded, "That's fine too."

He wasn't particularly concerned about this matter.

Su Fan was quite indifferent to the Liu family's invitation.

Chen Tai and Chen Ruoshui, however, were quite envious.

Although they had started to make connections to secure an invitation, whether they would actually receive one was still uncertain.

As for Su Fan, he was straightforwardly handed an invitation!

As Su Fan was about to leave the Tai Chi martial arts school with the items, Chen Tai hesitated for a moment before speaking up again.

"President Su, do you have a moment right now?"

Chapter 449: The Introverted Older Sister

Su Fan nodded slightly and looked at Chen Tai to ask, "Director Chen, is there anything else?"

Chen Tai forced a smile and began, "It's still about that matter."

"If Divine Doctor is available at the moment, I'd like to arrange a meeting for you and Tang Wan."

"To prevent any awkwardness when we go to celebrate old Master Liu's birthday."

Su Fan certainly had the time and immediately responded, "Director Chen, please notify the other party and see where she is. I'll join her for a meal."

Hearing Su Fan's response, Director Chen felt completely relieved about the matter.

His close old friend rarely asked others for favors.

This time, since the other party had unusually requested his assistance, he certainly had to ensure the matter was well handled.

Chen Tai quickly made the arrangements, setting up a time and place for Su Fan and Tang Wan to meet.

Once he had taken care of his end, Su Fan immediately drove off to find Tang Wan.

Underneath a tall building, Tang Wan occasionally glanced left and right.

Tang Wan was a young woman in her mid-twenties, quite stunning in appearance, yet she was not cold, but rather introverted by nature.

Her father's concern for her was well-founded.

She was very good at studying and academic research but not so proficient at social interactions.

In the alley not far from Tang Wan, a handsome young man was discussing matters with a group of societal youths.

The handsome young man was named Lin Shaocong, the son of the vice president of Tianhe Biomedical Company where Tang Wan was currently employed.

Although Lin Shaocong was about the same age as Tang Wan, he was a playboy.

He had set his sights on Tang Wan the very first day she joined the company.

However, Tang Wan was different from the regular female employees; she was the chief expert of Tianhe Biomedical Group.

He couldn't force himself on Tang Wan, because if she left the Tianhe Biomedical Group in a temper, he certainly couldn't cope with the consequences.

But Lin Shaocong obviously wasn't just about using force; he could sweet talk just as well, and was adept at emotional manipulation.

Yet, Tang Wan was really not like most women.

She was completely unresponsive to sweet talking, and when he offered Tang Wan gifts, she wanted none of it, truly lacking nothing.

This made Lin Shaocong feel somewhat powerless.

However, Lin Shaocong wasn't the type to give up so easily, especially as he spent more time with Tang Wan, he increasingly recognized how exceptional she was.

Aside from her slight shortcoming in social interactions, her abilities in other areas were almost perfect.

A woman of such high attractiveness, good figure, high education, and outstanding family background, Lin Shaocong was naturally determined to win her over.

The strategy he thought of was to play mind games!

Soon, he would first have a few societal youths go and harass Tang Wan.

When she becomes utterly annoyed, he would gallantly emerge and drive those people away!

Of course, it wouldn't end there.

After these societal youths were driven off, they would harbor thoughts of revenge.

Soon, they would return with more people to continue harassing Tang Wan.

He would then rely on his formidable martial skills to chase them away.

Of course, during the scuffle, he would have to sustain some superficial wounds.

By showing Tang Wan how he stood up for her when she was helpless, and got injured in the process, he was certain he could capture the heart of the beauty.

All of this, Lin Shaocong had planned very thoroughly.

The only thing he hadn't anticipated was what Tang Wan was doing standing by the roadside at the moment.

But Lin Shaocong wasn't concerned about these details. He had already sent the group of societal youths away from the alley, ready to harass Tang Wan.

Chapter 450 - 450 The Harassment of the Blond

Everything had been going smoothly according to Lin Shaocong's plan.

However, Lin Shaocong evidently hadn't noticed that a Land Rover Range Rover had already parked at a nearby parking space.

Su Fan had seen Tang Wan's photo, and now he was walking towards her.

As Su Fan approached Tang Wan, several society youths arranged by Lin Shaocong started to appear around her.

Seeing these people, Tang Wan couldn't help but panic.

She would always steer clear of these youths with their garishly colored hair when she saw them on the streets.

But today, for some reason, they had surrounded her.

Tang Wan looked at the group nervously and asked weakly, "What do you want to do?"

The leader with blonde hair hadn't realized how beautiful Tang Wan was from a distance.

Now that he was closer, he understood why Lin Shaocong had to resort to so many tricks to deal with Tang Wan.

Tang Wan was exceptionally attractive, she was a beauty that seemed almost effervescent.

Moreover, she had an air of innocence that was unbecoming.

If she had been a beautiful girl of eighteen or nineteen, having such an air would be quite normal.

But Tang Wan was a beautiful woman of around twenty-five or twenty-six, and still possessing such an air was rather rare.

Tang Wan not only had an innocent quality, but she was also dressed very sexily.

She wore black high heels with red soles on her feet and a pair of ultra-thin grey stockings often worn by flight attendants on her legs.

She was wearing a white blouse and a hip-hugging skirt.

It looked like she had just come out of the company not long ago.

After Tang Wan's question, the blond-haired man smiled and said, "Beauty, do you want to go have dinner with Brother Fei?"

While speaking, he also reached out to grab Tang Wan's hand.

Some women's hands aren't very good-looking, but Tang Wan's hands were fair and slender, as if they were frail and boneless.

The blond-haired man had wanted to grab them the moment he saw them.

Of course, Tang Wan wouldn't go to dinner with them, she hurriedly said, "I'm not going to eat with you, I have a meeting here."

The group led by the blonde man were Lin Shaocong's arranged men and naturally didn't care if Tang Wan had a meeting or not.

The blond-haired man grabbed Tang Wan's hand and started to drag her away.

According to Lin Shaocong's arranged script, they were to take Tang Wan down the road for a while before Lin Shaocong would make his appearance to play the hero and save the beauty.

Tang Wan didn't know that this was Lin Shaocong's scheme, and she was terrified by now.

She took out her cell phone, ready to call for help.

But just as she got her phone out, another young man snatched it away from her.

Tang Wan was extremely frightened in that moment, her beautiful eyes filled with the signs of panic.

She had no idea what these people intended to do to her.

It was at this time that Su Fan came over.

When Tang Wan saw Su Fan, she felt he seemed a bit familiar but couldn't quite place him.

Su Fan didn't speak to Tang Wan, but instead slapped his hand down on the blond man's hand.

"Ouch!"

With just a light slap from Su Fan, the blond man felt as though his hand was about to break, and he immediately let out a pained cry!

Then, Su Fan kicked out, knocking the blond man to the ground, face-first into the dirt.

The surrounding youths were completely clueless as to what was happening.

According to young Lin's script, the hero coming to save the beauty at this time should have been Lin himself.

What was going on now? Who was this guy?

And Lin had assured them that any fighting would be staged.

But Su Fan clearly had no intention of play-acting; his kick had sent their Brother Fei flying and sprawling on the ground!
