

Temptation 451

Chapter 451: Let's Have Dinner Together

After dealing with the blond thug, Su Fan swiftly knocked down the remaining delinquents.

Then, he took Tang Wan's cell phone out of a redhead's pocket and handed it to her.

Upon receiving her phone, Tang Wan timidly spoke, "Thank you..."

She was obviously still very scared, her voice trembling as she spoke.

Su Fan, however, was somewhat surprised. Tang Wan looked like a cold and glamorous woman.

Yet, her voice was that of a young girl.

Indeed, when Tang Wan spoke, she sounded no different from a girl of eighteen or nineteen.

It must be because she was introverted and spoke rarely, hence her vocal cords were well preserved.

Seeing that Tang Wan hadn't recognized him yet, Su Fan immediately said, "Hello, I'm Su Fan, introduced by Master Chen Tai, shall we find a place to eat together?"

Upon hearing this, Tang Wan suddenly realized!

No wonder she felt Su Fan looked familiar; she had just seen his photo not long ago!

After Su Fan spoke, Tang Wan immediately nodded as she was supposed to have dinner with him.

She wanted to get acquainted with Su Fan today, so it wouldn't be awkward when they went together to Grandpa Liu's birthday celebration in a few days.

Knowing Su Fan's identity, Tang Wan shyly spoke again, "Hello, Dr. Su, I'm Tang Wan."

Su Fan nodded and then said, "Let's go, we'll find a place to eat and talk."

Saying this, he led Tang Wan in a particular direction.

As they walked, he began, "Actually, I don't know much about Yang City either, I just arrived here recently."

Upon hearing this, Tang Wan was somewhat surprised, "Really? And you received an invitation from the Liu family?"

Su Fan hadn't expected Tang Wan to react so strongly; he truly didn't think there was anything special about the Liu family's invitation.

After Tang Wan's inquiry, he seriously nodded, "Yes, I haven't been in Yang City for long, and receiving the invitation from the Liu family was unexpected for me too."

"I have no connections with the Liu family, only because I took up the role of president of the martial arts association, then I received the invitation."

Since it was a different field, Tang Wan could only nod her head, barely understanding.

If Su Fan had talked about biomedicine, she would have been an expert.

Now, when Su Fan discussed martial arts, she was completely lost.

However, Tang Wan still managed to say, "I received the invitation because I helped the Liu family with some projects."

"Once, when Grandpa Liu was traveling abroad, he suddenly fainted, and I happened to pass by and gave him first aid. Since then, Grandpa Liu and I have known each other."

"After returning to Yang City, I helped the Liu family's biomedicine company complete several projects."

"The Tianhe Biomedical Group, where I currently work, is also one of the Liu family's businesses."

Tang Wan was apparently using the conversation to alleviate her nervousness.

If it were another time, she really wouldn't have so much to say.

Listening to her, Su Fan immediately realized, "So that's it."

But clearly, Su Fan didn't pick up on the underlying significance in Tang Wan's words, that the Liu family's gathering was of a very high standard and difficult to be invited to.

This wasn't just a family annual meeting, nor a birthday celebration for one of the Liu family's sons or daughters, it was the centenary of Grandpa Liu, the helmsman of the Liu family!

Such an occasion comes only once in a lifetime!

Just to attend this gathering organized by the Liu family was clearly very challenging.

Su Fan, unaware of these intricacies, still continued leading Tang Wan forward.

However, a moment later, the same thugs Su Fan had just dealt with came after them again.

Chapter 452: Don't Hurt Us

These people were here, of course, thanks to Lin Shaocong's arrangement.

Lin Shaocong was still nearby at this time.

Although Su Fan's appearance was somewhat unexpected to him, he was pleased beyond the surprise.

Su Fan wasn't an actor he had arranged, and with Su Fan present, this event undoubtedly became more realistic!

He could tell that Su Fan had some skills, but that was about it.

This time, those he had brought were not just street thugs; his senior fellow disciple was also hidden among the crowd.

His senior was originally there to act as Lin Shaocong's sparring partner and incidentally allow him to showcase his martial skills in front of Tang Wan.

Now that Su Fan, who knew a bit of basic martial arts, had unexpectedly shown up from somewhere, it was a perfect opportunity for his senior to beat Su Fan badly.

When the group appeared again, Tang Wan immediately reacted swiftly, intending to call the security office.

But when she took out her phone, she was dumbstruck!

Her phone had run out of battery at this crucial moment!

Left with no other choice, Tang Wan turned to Su Fan in great anxiety and said, "Is your phone charged? There are too many of them, don't confront them, just call the security office quickly."

Upon hearing Tang Wan's words, Liu Long was immediately amused.

Liu Long was the elder brother of Blondie and was also the leader of these street thugs.

He sneered, then looked at Su Fan and said, "If you dare take out your phone, I dare chop off your hand!"

While he spoke, he also took out a machete from his bag.

Unlike the earlier Blondie, this Liu Long was clearly ruthless.

Seeing the gleaming steel knife in the man's hand, Tang Wan was so frightened she almost burst into tears.

"What do you want? If it's money you want, I can give it to you, please just don't hurt the two of us."

With a crying voice, Tang Wan quickly took out her wallet.

She was terribly scared, having never encountered such a situation before, and was very worried that they would harm her and Su Fan.

Liu Long sneered again: "What do we want? Of course, seeing that you look pretty good, we want to take turns with you!"

His words almost made Tang Wan fall to the ground in fright.

Tang Wan didn't know whether what Liu Long said was false or true.

But coming from a ruthless character like Liu Long, who carried a knife with him even when going out, his words were likely true!

While Tang Wan was extremely nervous and afraid, Liu Long still stretched out his hand and grabbed at her.

"Ah—"

Tang Wan let out a startled scream, but Liu Long failed to grasp her.

No sooner had Liu Long reached out his hand than Su Fan suddenly lifted his leg, kicking Liu Long to the ground.

Seeing their leader get hit, Liu Long's underlings, also angrily pulled out their swing sticks, ready to teach Su Fan a lesson.

As these men took out their swing sticks, Tang Wan was, of course, scared out of her wits, unsure of what to do.

Tang Wan was extremely frightened at this time, completely unsure of what to do.

While she was incredibly scared, Su Fan continued to take action.

These menacing street thugs were no match for Su Fan, like mere chickens and dogs.

After Su Fan struck repeatedly, those young thugs wielding swing sticks were all laid out on the ground by him.

At this moment, Wang Lei, who was hidden in the crowd, suddenly launched a sneak attack.

Wang Lei was Lin Shaocong's senior fellow disciple. He had been quietly observing when Su Fan acted just now.

Since Su Fan had acted casually, Wang Lei didn't realize at all that Su Fan was a master of Inner Strength.

Wang Lei now suddenly emerged, throwing a fierce punch towards the back of Su Fan's head.

Had this punch landed, Su Fan would have been knocked unconscious on the spot.

Chapter 453: The Heel Broke

Tang Wan could only yell at the top of her lungs to warn Su Fan when she saw what was happening, "Be careful!"

Su Fan had already sensed someone sneaking up on him from behind.

Even without Tang Wan's warning, he wouldn't have been hit by Wang Lei.

As a master of Inner Strength in the Bursting Force realm, how could Wang Lei be his match?

When Wang Lei's punch came smashing down, Su Fan spun around like lightning and slapped Wang Lei hard across the face.

"Pfft—"

Wang Lei was immediately sent flying, spitting out a mouthful of blood as he completely collapsed to the ground.

Seeing Su Fan's fighting prowess, Liu Long and the others were terrified, running away as if possessed, tripping and scraping as they went.

Su Fan had no intention of keeping Liu Long and his cohort around; for such a trifle, he wasn't about to kill someone.

After dealing with these rowdy youths, Su Fan couldn't help but reflect on how idle these people were.

However, he didn't dwell on it, as for now, he could only give them a beating as a lesson.

Su Fan turned around, intending to continue having dinner with Tang Wan.

However, he noticed that Tang Wan's complexion didn't look right.

Su Fan immediately asked, "What's wrong?"

Tang Wan spoke with some embarrassment, "I twisted my ankle."

Su Fan's gaze followed and saw that Tang Wan's high heel was broken.

Clearly, it had snapped on the tile during the conflict when she wasn't paying attention.

Approaching Tang Wan, Su Fan addressed her.

Under Tang Wan's shy gaze, he reached out and grabbed her ankle.

"Su... Doctor Su, what are you doing?" Tang Wan asked, flushed with embarrassment.

Smiling, Su Fan said, "Setting bones is my specialty, your twist isn't serious, don't worry."

Tang Wan was about to respond when a crisp cracking sound came from her foot.

Su Fan wasn't kidding—the sharp crack was followed by immediate relief from the pain in her leg.

But with her shoe broken, she still couldn't walk.

Without delay, Su Fan suggested, "Shall I carry you to a nearby store to buy a new pair?"

Tang Wan hesitated for a moment.

But after a brief pause, she nodded her head.

Once she did, Su Fan immediately picked Tang Wan up in a princess carry.

With the warm and tender beauty in his arms, Su Fan playfully teased, "Miss Tang, how come you're so heavy?"

Actually, Tang Wan was very light, a slender and attractive woman.

It was just that she had obviously been quite frightened by the recent events.

Su Fan was just teasing her to lighten the mood.

As expected, after Su Fan's comment, Tang Wan gave him a displeased look.

She was clearly very slim—where was the weight he was talking about?

Seeing her flirtatiously indignant demeanor, Su Fan felt a flutter in his heart for a moment.

However, he had no intention of doing anything to Tang Wan; he was simply set on buying her new shoes.

There was a shopping mall not far from their location.

So Su Fan headed straight there with Tang Wan in his arms.

Tang Wan was already quite embarrassed being held by Su Fan.

To make matters worse, Su Fan's hand, which was holding her upper body, whether intentionally or not, happened to brush against her rounded and full bosom.

This time it truly was unintentional on Su Fan's part.

While he did enjoy kneading dough, he knew there was a time and place for everything.

After arriving at a store specializing in high heels, Tang Wan quickly bought a new pair and put them on.

Finally, she was able to walk on her own without Su Fan carrying her.

On Lin Shaocong's side, he was obviously frustrated.

After all, everything that day had been carefully planned for himself.

And now, the grand performance he had meticulously arranged ended up benefiting Su Fan entirely.

Chapter 454: A Chance Encounter with Yin Qianyue

When Wang Lei came to his side, Lin Shaocong couldn't help but burst out with a barrage of curses.

"Senior brother, what happened to you? How did you get knocked down after just one encounter with the opponent?"

Wang Lei, with a hint of fear in his eyes, opened his mouth to speak.

"Lin Shao, you'd better not provoke this woman."

"The person who dealt with us earlier, I suspect they were a master of Inner Strength."

Hearing this, Lin Shaocong couldn't help but laugh out of anger, "Nonsense, how could there be so many masters of Inner Strength in the world?"

Wang Lei knew it would be hard for Lin Shaocong to believe such a thing, but he still felt the need to give a warning.

"Lin Shao, I'm really not joking with you."

"Anyway, from now on, any matter related to that young man, as well as that woman, I dare not get involved."

Having said that, Wang Lei left with a limp.

Although he had only briefly clashed with Su Fan, he had still been hit several times by Su Fan, and in the end, he even received a slap to the face.

He hadn't felt much at the time, but now it was quite uncomfortable.

Wang Lei was sure that it was only because Su Fan had not gone all out, otherwise he would have been gravely injured if not dead!

Once Wang Lei had left, Lin Shaocong was naturally at a loss.

After all, Su Fan was quite formidable, even Wang Lei was no match for him, and Lin Shaocong was certainly not going to be able to handle Su Fan anytime soon.

He would have to wait for another opportunity to deal with Tang Wan's matter.

In the meantime, he could take the opportunity to properly investigate Su Fan and see where he had come from!

At this time, Su Fan certainly had no idea that Lin Shaocong had come to resent him.

But even if he had known, he would not have cared about someone as insignificant as Lin Shaocong.

After going to the mall with Tang Wan to buy shoes, he joined her for a meal.

However, Tang Wan had to rush back for a meeting today, so the two of them obviously couldn't talk much.

After Su Fan and Tang Wan finished their meal and agreed to attend a gathering at the Liu family's place in a few days,

Su Fan also planned to start his own car and leave the area.

But before he could act, he saw a familiar face!

He saw that Yin Qian Yue, after having her dinner, was also coming down from the restaurant on the second floor.

Yin Qian Yue's villa was nearby.

She often dined at a nearby restaurant, and to her surprise, she encountered Su Fan at this place today.

Upon seeing Su Fan, a mixture of joy and nervousness filled Yin Qianyue's heart.

When Su Fan saw Yin Qianyue, he was very happy.

Holding Tang Wan earlier, he felt a bit of restlessness in his heart.

But since it was only their first meeting, he obviously couldn't do anything to Tang Wan.

He currently had no intentions of doing anything to Tang Wan.

With Yin Qianyue, however, it was different; he was undoubtedly very familiar with this woman.

Su Fan had been about to leave, but seeing Yin Qianyue coming down from the upstairs restaurant, he immediately was in no rush to depart.

Yin Qianyue hesitated slightly, then still came to Su Fan's side.

She even leaned close to Su Fan's ear, her breath fragrant as she said, "Master."

When she said these two words, Yin Qianyue felt an immense joy wash over her.

Su Fan promptly spoke, "Come with me."

Yin Qianyue naturally nodded, "Okay."

She was already feeling some anticipation inside.

Recently, Su Fan had been away in Xijing and had no time to be with her.

Now that Su Fan had just returned from Xijing, she never expected that they would run into each other so soon.

Su Fan led Yin Qianyue directly to where he had parked his car.

After he opened the car door, Yin Qianyue naturally got in as well.

As soon as Yin Qianyue got into the car, Su Fan immediately reached his hand under the hem of her clothes.

Yin Qianyue was startled and tried to dodge, while also saying, "What are you doing?"

Su Fan smiled and said, "Of course, I'm checking to see if this little bitch has obeyed my orders."

As he spoke, Su Fan's hand had already effortlessly grasped a handful of dough.

Chapter 455: How Did You Ambush Me?

Yin Qianyue also came to understand but still reached out to grab Su Fan's hand, "Not here, there are too many people!"

However, Su Fan simply wouldn't listen and said at the same time, "Isn't it better with more people? You just like this, like being watched."

Yin Qianyue, her face flushing red with embarrassment, found it hard to bear the shame, but waves of wonderful pleasure were filling her heart.

Meanwhile, Su Fan's other hand had already ventured into her secret garden.

Feeling the warmth and softness at his fingertips, Su Fan expressed his satisfaction, "You did well, you didn't forget my command."

As Su Fan spoke, he couldn't help but think of many things.

That was whether the people at Yin Qian Yue's company would ever guess that this cold and elegant female office worker had recently been going "commando"?

Although Yin Qian Yue felt immense joy, the place was really too crowded.

Therefore, all she could do was try to remove Su Fan's hand, which was kneading her soft peaks with force, and said at the same time, "Let's go somewhere safer, and then you can do whatever you want."

Upon hearing her words, Su Fan nodded right away.

Shortly after, he started the car and took Yin Qian Yue to a park nearby.

Yin Qian Yue was clearly very familiar with the surrounding terrain.

After watching Su Fan drive for a while, she hurriedly said, "How about we go to my villa, there are too many people here as well."

But Su Fan said, "It's fine, we won't get out of the car."

While talking to Yin Qian Yue, Su Fan indeed parked the car on a parking spot by the park's road.

Then, without waiting for Yin Qianyue to react, he rolled up the windows.

Su Fan's car had a special tint applied to its windows.

At this time, from the outside looking in, nothing could be seen.

In contrast, from inside the car looking out, everything around was crystal clear.

Having done all this, Su Fan naturally had no more concerns and pulled Yin Qianyue into his embrace.

"Naughty girl, did you miss me?"

Su Fan, looking at Yin Qianyue's exquisitely flawless face, couldn't help but kiss her several times.

Apart from her unique preferences, Yin Qianyue was a highly perfect woman.

When asked by Su Fan, Yin Qianyue could only reply, "Yes, I did."

Su Fan kissed her fiercely several times on her lovely face, then finally asked, "What did you miss about me?"

Yin Qianyue's face turned red this time, she surely had missed Su Fan doing those strange things to her harshly.

"Oh—"

Before Yin Qianyue could fully settle her thoughts, she couldn't help but cry out in surprise!

It turned out that at that moment, Su Fan had harshly grabbed her soft peaks, giving them a twist.

After the cry of agony, Yin Qianyue then realized that there was an invitation from the Liu family in Su Fan's car.

"How did you get an invitation from the Liu family?" Yin Qianyue asked incredulously.

Without ceasing the movement of his hands, Su Fan sealed Yin Qianyue's fiery lips with his own.

He wasn't interested in answering Yin Qianyue's question at this moment, preferring to pamper Yin Qianyue first before getting around to it.

He fiercely pried open Yin Qianyue's teeth and lips and began to suck and nibble intensely.

Yin Qianyue felt as if Su Fan wanted to swallow her whole and could only reach out to push him away.

But Su Fan was unmoved and even became more hands-on with her.

In no time, Yin Qianyue's red lips, soft peaks, and secret garden were all breached under Su Fan's assault.

Su Fan released Yin Qianyue only when she began to have difficulty breathing from his kisses.

Only then did he start to answer the question Yin Qianyue had asked earlier, "Why couldn't I have an invitation from the Liu family?"

Yin Qianyue was slightly inarticulate from the attack, but she managed to say, "This time it's different, it's the Liu family patriarch's hundredth birthday, and very few people are invited."

"In Yang City, even in nearby cities like West Capital, who knows how many people would do anything to attend," she added.

"But this time, many might not get the chance."

After hearing Yin Qianyue speak like this, Su Fan also looked at the invitation with a bit more interest.

After contemplating for a moment, Su Fan asked, "Did you receive an invitation?"

Yin Qianyue nodded, "Our family has a good relationship with the Liu family in Yang City, otherwise I wouldn't have received one."

Su Fan had thought Yin Qianyue didn't receive an invitation and was surprised to see he had one.

Now, hearing that she had received one as well, he couldn't help but pull at her a little with his hand.

"Hiss—"

This time, Yin Qianyue couldn't help but inhale sharply from the pain and urgently grabbed Su Fan's hand.

"Why do you suddenly attack like this?" she asked somewhat angrily.

She had been utterly unprepared, and it hurt.

Su Fan replied, "Doesn't that make you happier?"

Chapter 456: Inside and Outside the Car

While Su Fan was leisurely spending his days with Yin Qianyue, Yang City's high society was buzzing with excitement.

The notable figures of Yang City from all walks of life were either overjoyed or troubled.

The joy came because they had already received invitations to Old Master Liu's hundredth birthday celebration.

The trouble was because some late bloomers in Yang City couldn't find their way even if they carried a pig's head with them.

In Yang City and the surrounding urban areas, the Liu family held very high prestige.

Old Master Liu's hundred-year celebration was a once-in-a-lifetime event.

This celebration, marking Old Master Liu's centenary, would be attended by all the top tycoons of Yang City!

Not just that, some of the top figures from the surrounding areas were also invited.

It was said that from Capital City and the sea beyond, prominent family members had been invited!

As such, even just being seen by the many influential figures attending the birthday banquet could be highly beneficial.

If one could make the acquaintance of a big shot or two at this grand occasion, it would be a windfall.

Even without meeting these influential individuals, expanding one's high-end connections was still valuable.

Yet, gaining entry to the Liu family's celebration was truly not easy.

Many in Yang City with a certain status had not received an invitation.

They couldn't help but feel reconciled, as most invitees held higher status and social prestige than they did.

Or they were the elite of the younger generation, destined to shine brightly in the future.

While various elite members of society were busily pursuing this matter, Su Fan was also busy.

However, his busyness involved him and his luxury car.

Yin Qianyue's tender head was already cradled in Su Fan's embrace.

Her dainty tongue was vigorously and continuously sucked and licked by Su Fan.

Yin Qianyue's body, already extremely supple, became even more pliant.

She knew Su Fan's car windows were tinted for privacy.

From the outside, nothing inside the car was visible.

But at that moment, Yin Qianyue was still terribly afraid.

After Su Fan had removed her chiffon coat and lifted her T-shirt, her proud and full bosom felt waves of cool air.

When she looked out of the car, everything was crystal clear.

It gave her the illusion that if anyone outside glanced into the car, they would see her in her voluptuous state.

But in reality, the passersby and vehicles outside could see nothing at all.

When Su Fan first kissed Yin Qianyue, he had pulled her close for the kiss.

After kissing for a while, he held Yin Qianyue in his arms.

As he cradled Yin Qianyue, he played with her snow-white, full, and proud bosom in his hands.

Reading the materials Wang Fei had given him, Su Fan learned about another application of silver needles for Yin Qianyue.

In Su Fan's view, it was tantamount to punishment.

While silver needles were indeed used to stimulate certain acupoints above the breasts during medical treatment, the way these people used them on Yin Qianyue and similar women had nothing to do with Acupuncture Technique; it was purely torture.

From the materials provided by Wang Fei, Su Fan had seen cases where metal rings or studs were pierced through the proud red plum blossoms atop the breasts.

He had also seen cases where silver needles directly stimulated those red plums or the snowy bosoms themselves.

For other women, this was undoubtedly a form of cruel torture.

But Su Fan felt that Yin Qianyue probably enjoyed these too.

While Su Fan was still pondering these matters in his mind, Yin Qianyue's phone rang at that moment.

After a quick glance at the caller ID, she urgently said to Su Fan, "It's a call from home, don't mess around."

Chapter 457: I Knew It Would Be Like This

Su Fan certainly nodded, letting Yin Qianyue go to answer the phone.

After connecting the call, Yin Qianyue gave Su Fan a somewhat helpless look.

She had known all along that Su Fan would definitely misbehave.

But there was no help for it, now that the call was already connected, all she could do was deal with family matters.

Luckily, Su Fan wasn't overly excessive this time, just playing with her proud peaks without any other superfluous actions.

There had been many trivial matters at Yin Qianyue's home lately.

After listening for a while, Su Fan knew that it was one of Yin Qianyue's elders calling her back home again.

This made Su Fan feel a tinge of disappointment, as he didn't have any other plans and had been prepared to have a good, thorough "exchange" with Yin Qianyue.

Now it seemed that no such "exchange" was going to happen.

However, just as Yin Qianyue was about to hang up the phone, he still found his way to the mysterious Eden and, in an instant, his lance pierced deeply.

This time Su Fan did not employ two fingers, but three.

Having been teased by him earlier, Yin Qianyue was already somewhat lubricated with a clear flow.

But to suddenly endure such a blow still caused her to instantly raise her hand to her mouth in pain.

Her exquisite, beautiful face also wore a small expression that appeared on the verge of tears.

This elicited a feeling of pity from Su Fan, although Yin Qianyue liked it rough.

In the process, some of the primal instincts deep within his heart were also satisfied.

If it were any other woman, they would have turned against him if he dared to do such a thing.

Therefore, when he was with Yin Qianyue, he pursued the ultimate pleasure that soared to the skies for both of them, and did not want to cause harm to Yin Qianyue.

Just when Su Fan was about to stop, Yin Qianyue, as if possessed, grabbed his wrist and even pushed herself forward.

It was clearly quite a strain for her to do so.

But her beautiful face turned red, even flushing to the roots of her ears.

Seeing her flushed, intoxicated look, how could Su Fan not realize that Yin Qianyue actually really enjoyed such rough treatment.

This made Su Fan unable to resist, and he embraced the beauty once more, fervently suckling on her peaks and then holding her head to kiss for a long time.

When Yin Qianyue's tongue tingled from Su Fan's suckling, Su Fan finally let her go.

And he said, "Where do you need to go now? Let me take you back."

Yin Qianyue shook her head, "Just drop me off near that restaurant we were at before. My car's parked there."

Su Fan nodded, "Okay."

As they spoke, he started the car once more.

As he began driving, Yin Qianyue couldn't help but speak in a slightly exasperated tone, "Not enough touching? Just focus on driving properly."

The reason she said this was that Su Fan was once again driving with one hand.

Those couple of pounds on her body seemed to have an incomparable, irresistible attraction to Su Fan, or indeed, to the majority of men.

Fortunately, as Su Fan drove closer to the restaurant, there were more people around, and he refrained from bullying her without any restraint.

After dropping Yin Qianyue off, Su Fan asked, "Are we going together to the Liu family gathering?"

This time Yin Qianyue shook her head, "On the day of the gathering, I have to go with my family; I can't go with you."

"But we can have some drinks and enjoy the food during the breaks in the gathering."

Su Fan said with a smile, "Can I enjoy you as the dish?"

Yin Qianyue's face turned red instantly, "Stop it!"

After that, she continued, "Don't bully me when there are others around, otherwise I won't be able to show my face."

Su Fan nodded, "I'll be discreet."

He clearly meant it seriously, and Yin Qianyue fully believed him.

Chapter 458 - 458 Aunt Gets into Trouble

Although Su Fan often bullied her in private, and did so quite fiercely, he always managed to gauge the situation well when others were around.

It was for this reason that Yin Qianyue was so satisfied with Su Fan.

She was willing to try all interactions between female slaves and their masters with Su Fan.

After delivering Yin Qianyue to the destination, Su Fan had planned to return home.

But unexpectedly, he received a phone call from Tang Wan.

Not long ago, Tang Wan had just shared a meal with him.

He had thought that he wouldn't have contact with Tang Wan until the hundred-year-old birthday banquet for the elder of the Liu family started.

Contrary to his expectations, Tang Wan called him at this time.

Su Fan immediately connected the call and asked, "What's the matter?"

Hearing Su Fan's voice, Tang Wan immediately said, "Divine Doctor Su, Divine Doctor Tang said your medical skills are incredibly powerful, my aunt had a little incident, can you come to the hospital to see her?"

The moment Tang Wan mentioned Divine Doctor Tang's title, Su Fan knew that the patient at Tang Wan's end must not be ordinary.

In Yang City, there was only one Divine Doctor Tang, and that was Tang Sanchun, who had an exceptionally good relationship with the Feng family.

Although Tang Sanchun had made some misdiagnoses before, strictly speaking, he hadn't misdiagnosed but had encountered Su Fan, a physician whose medical skills were far beyond ordinary doctors.

If judged by normal standards, the majority of doctors, even medical experts, would have likely made the same diagnosis as Tang Sanchun.

In other words, Tang Sanchun was not a quack but genuinely skillful.

This time, encountering a patient even Tang Sanchun was helpless with meant unless he stepped in, most likely, there was no hope.

Su Fan immediately asked, "Where are you? What happened to the patient? What's the situation now?"

After his inquiry, Tang Wan immediately replied with a crying voice on the other end of the phone.

"I am at the Second Hospital right now, my aunt seems to be dealing with relationship problems, and then she took a large amount of sleeping pills."

"Her condition is very dangerous right now, the specialists at the Second Hospital have already prepared the family emotionally."

Hearing this, Su Fan said immediately, "Don't be too anxious, I'll come over right away."

Su Fan realized that Tang Wan's aunt was truly in danger this time.

Apparently, due to a moment of despair, she had consumed a huge amount of sleeping pills.

In such cases, either the symptoms were mild and the person was already saved, or there was simply no hope.

Su Fan estimated, if even Tang Sanchun could do nothing, it was likely the latter.

However, he still needed to see for himself what the situation was.

The Second Hospital was also one of Yang City's top-tier hospitals, with a medical level that was only slightly behind the hospital where Su Fan worked.

When Su Fan drove to the entrance of the Second Hospital, he saw Tang Sanchun.

Knowing that Su Fan was coming, Tang Sanchun had been waiting here already.

The reason why Tang Wan called Su Fan was also Tang Sanchun's recommendation.

After diagnosing Tang Wan's aunt, Tang Sanchun knew that ordinary doctors were powerless.

In this situation, only Su Fan's intervention could offer a glimmer of hope.

Upon seeing Su Fan, Tang Sanchun immediately came over from a distance.

"Divine Doctor Su, I must trouble you once again," said Tang Sanchun very politely.

Su Fan nodded slightly, then immediately asked, "How is the patient's condition?"

At this, Tang Sanchun's expression turned into a deep frown: "Extremely dangerous!"

"All emergency measures, both Traditional Chinese Medicine and Western Medicine, have been tried."

"Sigh..."

While speaking, Tang Sanchun also led the way for Su Fan with a quick pace.

Chapter 459: No One Is Allowed In

At times like these, time is life itself!

If Su Fan arrived just one minute earlier, Tang Wan's aunt would have one more minute of hope for survival.

Under Tang Sanchun's guidance, the two quickly reached the door of Tang Wan's aunt's ward.

Seeing Tang Sanchun and Su Fan coming, President Lu Heng couldn't help but ask, "What are you two doing here?"

Lu Heng was no ordinary individual but a specialist in Western medicine.

He has over twenty years of experience at a top medical center abroad.

His medical skill was considered higher, not lower, than Tang Sanchun's.

However, Tang Sanchun was a Divine Doctor in Traditional Chinese Medicine, not quite reaching the pinnacle of perfection in Western medicine.

As a pure Western medicine expert, Lu Heng didn't hold much esteem for Traditional Chinese Medicine.

In his opinion, the treatment methods of Traditional Chinese Medicine were really unscientific.

Most of the time, the success of Traditional Chinese Medicine in curing a patient was partly due to proven prescriptions obtained through trial and error over ages.

And partly, it was simply luck.

For example, someone may have certain symptoms, takes some herbal medicine, gets better, and then the prescription is recorded.

In the future, when others exhibit similar symptoms, they also use this prescription.

If the second person doesn't improve, then they try another prescription.

With such continuous trials leading to certain remedies, of course, a degree of universal applicability is inherent.

But with the advent of the new era, patients' conditions compared to the past, have undergone revolutionary changes.

Such methods of treatment are clearly no longer suitable.

Like in this case, Lu Heng felt that if Tang Wan's aunt had continuously been treated with Western medicine, it might not truly be a lost cause.

However, Tang Wan's initial action was not to send her to the second city hospital but to have Tang Sanchun take a look.

Lu Heng's impression of Tang Sanchun was not very positive, although he did acknowledge that Tang Sanchun had something unique compared to a common Traditional Chinese Medicine practitioner.

Lu Heng had this kind of attitude towards Traditional Chinese Medicine, so naturally, he did not show a pleasant face upon seeing Su Fan and Tang Sanchun.

At this moment, Tang Sanchun certainly would not stoop to argue with Lu Heng.

He had brought Su Fan here to save a life, not to do anything else.

He immediately said, "I've brought Divine Doctor Su here to save someone."

On hearing of another "Divine Doctor," Lu Heng immediately felt a surge of aversion.

Although in private, some also hailed Lu Heng as Divine Doctor.

But he preferred to be called Dr. Lu, or even President Lu, Specialist Lu would do.

Divine Doctor Lu sounded utterly preposterous to him.

So after learning Su Fan was also a "Divine Doctor," Lu Heng's response was far from courteous, "No matter what kind of Divine Doctor you are, you are not permitted to make contact with the patient now!"

"The patient's condition is very critical at the moment!"

Although Lu Heng was very angry, he did not speak the complete truth.

According to his professional judgment, Tang Wan's aunt's situation was not just critical; she had already been reduced to a dead person.

The reason Tang Wan's aunt still showed signs of life was not because of her exceptionally strong vitality, or because their medical skill was highly advanced.

It was because the life support equipment was highly sophisticated.

As long as the life support equipment didn't completely shut down, even if some organs had stopped functioning, a person would not lose all signs of life!

Nevertheless, Tang Wan's aunt was still beyond saving.

As Su Fan was anxious to save someone, he certainly wouldn't care whether the other party was President Lu or President Ma and immediately stepped forward.

Lu Heng instantly became furious, "What are you doing?"

With calmness, Su Fan replied, "I am here to save someone."

Lu Heng scoffed, "Impossible! Today, apart from top medical experts within the country, nobody is allowed through this door!"

Chapter 460: This is Nonsense

Lu Heng finished speaking and then turned to Su Fan and said, "Do you know what illness the patient has? Do you know how critical the patient's condition is?"

"Let me tell you, by the time you slowly prescribe the right formula and then boil the traditional medicine, the patient will already be devoid of any vital signs!"

"It doesn't matter if it's you, Divine Doctor Su, or even Divine Doctor Tang here today. Even if Bian Que and Hua Tuo were to come, I wouldn't let them in!"

After Lu Heng spoke in such a manner, Su Fan naturally had no intention of wasting words with the other party.

The other party clearly lacked understanding of traditional Chinese medicine, especially the top-tier heritage.

In their opinion, it seemed as if all traditional Chinese medicine practitioners were slow and leisurely.

They only observed, listened, questioned, and felt the pulse, then prescribed medicine to the patient.

But in reality, there are numerous emergency techniques in traditional Chinese medicine.

After all, the heritage of traditional Chinese medicine has been around for five thousand years, even longer, while Western medicine has only developed for a few hundred years.

Su Fan casually pushed Lu Heng aside to cool off.

Then he entered the emergency room and came to the bedside of Tang Wan's aunt.

At that time, Tang Wan also saw Su Fan.

This introverted and cold beauty had clearly cried earlier, and her snow-white lovely face still had tear stains on it.

Seeing Su Fan, she immediately asked anxiously, "Doctor Su, can you save my aunt?"

Su Fan glanced at the patient on the bed and then said, "I'll do my best."

After he spoke, he came to the bedside and began to take the pulse of Tang Wan's aunt.

At first, he was extremely nervous.

However, after taking the pulse of Tang Wan's aunt, he couldn't help but breathe a sigh of relief.

Although Western medicine has developed very well, it is still in its early stages of development and has not reached a state of perfection.

This time Tang Wan's aunt's problem, Western medicine was utterly helpless, but traditional Chinese medicine was not truly out of options.

As Su Fan took out many silver needles, preparing to save a life, Lu Heng also walked into the emergency room.

Seeing that Su Fan was about to step in and save the patient, Lu Heng hurriedly stepped forward to stop him!

Lu Heng did not really want to prevent someone from saving a life, but he did not want a Divine Doctor like Su Fan to take risks during such a dangerous time!

If Su Fan were a well-known expert in the relevant field at home and abroad, Lu Heng would have definitely let Su Fan treat the patient without hesitation.

But Su Fan was not only not a medical expert in the relevant field, but also a master of traditional Chinese medicine.

In such a situation, how could Lu Heng dare to entrust the patient to Su Fan?

The situation here was soon known by some other highly skilled doctors in the hospital.

Many doctors at that time rushed over to stop Su Fan from causing trouble.

They had already administered emergency treatment to the patient according to normal medical procedures.

Even if the patient really could not be saved in the end, they would not be responsible.

But if Su Fan intervened and caused disturbance, that would be a different story.

At a critical moment for a human life, Su Fan naturally wouldn't waste words with these people at this time.

He immediately pushed Lu Heng aside and then began to treat the patient.

Lu Heng still wanted to step forward, but was blocked by Tang Sanchun.

Tang Sanchun angrily said, "Lu Heng, Director Lu, you can't save the person yourself, and now you want to stop others from saving her?"

Lu Heng also angrily said, "What saving her? His messing around like this is clearly harming her!"

"I warn you, if anything happens to the patient, neither of you can escape responsibility; you'll both be to blame!"

After Lu Heng said this, Tang Sanchun felt slightly guilty.

Su Fan, however, remained indifferent and continued to use the silver needles, beginning to treat Tang Wan's aunt.

Tang Wan's aunt, named Shen Xinyi.

Although she was Tang Wan's aunt, she only seemed to be two or three years older than Tang Wan, just belonging to an earlier generation.