Chapter 481: The Female CEO's Imminent Danger

Zhang Haitao shook his head, "Not good at all. You better come with me to see for yourself."

"This patient, we absolutely cannot let anything happen to her in our hospital, or the hospital will be in trouble!"

Su Fan found it amusing inside, the impact on the hospital was indeed real.

But, clearly the most troubled was Zhang Haitao.

However, these words were unnecessary to say out loud.

As Su Fan followed Zhang Haitao to Zhou Xueman's ward, other doctors of the hospital, along with Bai Man, also rushed over at this time.

Zhou Xueman's condition was quite dangerous; her vital signs had not stabilized completely, and she had not yet passed the critical period.

When Su Fan followed Zhang Haitao into the ward and saw the woman lying on the bed, he couldn't help but feel surprised.

He had heard of Zhou Xueman, the real estate queen of Yang City, but he did not know what she looked like.

He had thought she would be old and faded, no longer pleasant to look at.

Only now did he realize that Zhou Xueman appeared to be in her late twenties and that her face was unbelievably beautiful, downright dazzlingly so.

Apart from Bai Xiaolin, who was equally stunning, other women, though very beautiful, still fell a few notches short in terms of beauty compared to her.

What was most captivating about Zhou Xueman was not her beautiful face, but rather the queen-like aura she exuded.

She seemed to possess a natural dignity and grace, which made people respect and look up to her after seeing her, without daring to harbor any disrespectful thoughts.

Luckily, by now Su Fan had seen numerous beauties, so seeing a great beauty with such high aesthetic appeal did not cause him to lose his composure.

By Zhou Xueman's side, there was also a great beauty sitting.

This person was Zhou Xueman's assistant, who was also receiving an IV drip at the moment.

But her symptoms were obviously lighter, and as she recovered a bit, she came to check on Zhou Xueman.

The outsiders still did not know what had happened to Peony Real Estate.

But as Zhou Xueman's assistant, Li Meijia already knew some of the situation.

Their collective case of food poisoning was caused by an executive who was about to be terminated.

Afraid of being laid off, the person decided to go down along with everyone else and was currently also in the intensive care unit being resuscitated.

After seeing Director Zhang and others coming over again, Li Meijia immediately spoke with a sobbing tone:

"Director Zhang, doesn't your hospital have any highly skilled doctors?"

"Why is our President Zhou still unconscious?"

"If anything happens to her, I won't let you off the hook!"

Li Meijia was not only Zhou Xueman's assistant but also her good sister.

They had been good friends since their freshman year in college.

And their relationship also had a bit of a Bai Man and Wang Fei dynamic.

However, between Zhou Xueman and Li Meijia, they were the type who were interested in both men and women; they did not shun the opposite sex.

Upon hearing Li Meijia's words, Director Zhang naturally had a huge headache.

He could only quickly say, "Miss Li, please don't worry!"

"This is Doctor Su from our hospital, the most skilled doctor we have. The 'Divine Doctor' frequently reported on TV, that's him."

As he spoke, Zhang Haitao stepped aside to let Li Meijia see Su Fan.

Su Fan's reputation was already well-known in Yang City's upper-class society.

This was all because the matter at the Liu family estate was still fermenting and brewing; otherwise, his fame would only have been greater.

But even at this moment, Li Meijia was extremely thrilled to see Su Fan.

She certainly had heard of the Divine Doctor and had seen several news media special reports about Su Fan.

Upon seeing Su Fan, she felt as if she had seen a great savior, her entire being was extremely agitated.

Chapter 482 - 482 We Want to Transfer Hospitals

In the emergency room, Dean Zhang, along with everyone else, turned their gazes to Su Fan at this moment.

Zhou Xueman's condition was extremely critical, and it seemed like all of Yang City was looking to Su Fan to save her.

If Su Fan was also at a loss, then Zhou Xueman was essentially beyond help.

On his way to the hospital, Su Fan hadn't anticipated encountering a patient in such serious condition today.

However, he was still able to treat Zhou Xueman.

Just as Su Fan was about to perform treatment on Zhou Xueman, a well-dressed lady, accompanied by a group of people, hurried over.

As the lady made her way to the emergency room, she spoke, "Where is my niece? Where is Zhou Xueman, my niece? We need to transfer her immediately!"

Her words, of course, were directed at a doctor leading the way.

There was, of course, a reason for her decision to transfer hospitals.

The most authoritative expert on treating food poisoning cases in Quanyang City was at the Second City Hospital, not the affiliated hospital of the medical university.

In such a scenario, she would naturally want to transfer Zhou Xueman.

Zhou Xueman, the real estate queen of Peony Properties, and her aunt Chu Lei, were both influential figures—Chu Lei being an entrepreneur from the province.

Over at the Second City Hospital, not only was there an authoritative expert, Lu Heng, but also a specialist in treating food poisoning, Zhou Tongwei.

On her way here, Chu Lei had also brought Zhou Tongwei with her.

The two soon appeared in Zhou Xueman's ward. Upon seeing Zhou Xueman, Chu Lei immediately pushed through the crowd with Zhou Tongwei to get to Zhou Xueman's side.

Then, without looking at anyone else present, she directly addressed Zhou Tongwei, "Doctor Zhou, please check on my niece right away. How is she now?"

Zhou Tongwei nodded and then turned to the surrounding doctors, "Do you have the examination report?"

The doctors in the emergency room immediately looked towards Dean Zhang Haitao. Of course, there was an examination report, but whether to show it to these people depended on the dean's decision.

Zhang Haitao was extremely annoyed at this moment, but as the dean, he was very familiar with Chu Lei, the businesswoman.

He had heard of Zhou Xueman's family background and knew he had to comply with their wishes.

If they wanted to see the examination report, it was best for him to agree.

Zhang Haitao subtly nodded, and then the emergency room doctors quickly handed an examination report to Zhou Tongwei.

Zhou Tongwei glanced at the report and his expression turned grave.

Seeing the change in his expression, Chu Lei naturally became anxious.

She quickly asked, "Doctor Zhou, how is my niece doing?"

Zhou Tongwei was silent for a moment before finally shaking his head.

Chu Lei immediately became frantic, "Doctor Zhou, what exactly is happening to my niece right now? Just say it!"

Under Chu Lei's persistent questioning, Zhou Tongwei had no choice but to speak out.

"Ms. Chu Lei, the patient's condition is very poor. Even if she were taken to our hospital, the Second City Hospital would not be able to provide better treatment," he said.

"The affiliated hospital has already done a very good job."

"Whether the patient can safely get through the critical period or not, no one can make an accurate prediction."

Zhou Tongwei's words were, in fact, quite understated.

In his eyes, Zhou Xueman was essentially a dead person.

Zhou Xueman had had terrible luck, having been poisoned by an extremely powerful toxin.

The affiliated hospital had already taken all emergency measures for Zhou Xueman, but the effects were still not very good.

Unless another medical miracle occurred, Zhou Xueman was doomed.

Of course, Chu Lei could tell that Zhou Tongwei had more unspoken words.

So, at this point, she spoke seriously, "Doctor Zhou, tell me the truth—is there no hope for Xueman?"

After careful thought, Zhou Tongwei reluctantly nodded in affirmation.

Chapter 483: Questioning Authority

"Thud!"

After seeing Zhou Tongwei nod, Chu Lei immediately staggered and fell down!

Her niece was not even thirty yet! So young, how could there be no hope for her?

But this diagnosis was given by Zhou Tongwei, the most authoritative expert in the field of food poisoning in Yang City. She had no choice but to believe it!

While Zhou Tongwei had determined that Zhou Xueman was beyond saving, Su Fan had already arrived at Zhou Xueman's side and started treating her.

Zhou Tongwei and Chu Lei were both startled; Zhou Tongwei thought that although Zhou Xueman was practically beyond hope, what if a miracle occurred?

Chu Lei, on the other hand, felt that with Zhou Xueman's life almost over, Su Fan's treatment was a great harm to Zhou Xueman's last moments.

Chu Lei and Zhou Tongwei had almost the same reaction at the same time.

Zhou Tongwei shouted, "Stop! What are you going to do to the patient?"

Chu Lei then ran in front of Su Fan, separating Su Fan from Zhou Xueman, preventing Su Fan from touching her.

Su Fan, not wanting to waste precious time for saving lives, could only identify himself, "I am Su Fan, I can treat her."

Chu Lei did not recognize Su Fan, but Zhou Tongwei did.

In fact, the reason Zhou Tongwei followed Chu Lei to the affiliated hospital was to recover the face lost by Second City Hospital.

Little did he expect, Zhou Xueman's condition was so serious that even he was powerless to reverse it.

In such a situation, he clearly had no way to save Zhou Xueman anymore.

Chu Lei said coldly, "I don't care if you are Su Fan or any other Fan."

"Since Doctor Zhou Tongwei has already made a diagnosis, then no one is allowed to touch my niece!"

Chu Lei had another sentence she didn't say out loud, that being, with Zhou Xueman like this, couldn't they let her say goodbye to the world peacefully and quietly?

Su Fan frowned and said very seriously, "Please step aside, do not delay my treatment of the patient!"

Of course, his words were meant kindly.

But what was Chu Lei's status? She was a famous female entrepreneur both inside and outside the province, a CEO!

Who dared to speak to her with such an attitude, with such a tone, in normal times?

Therefore, Chu Lei immediately became angry, "What attitude is that? Where is your hospital director? Call your director here! I want to speak with your leadership!"

Chu Lei usually spent most of her time in Xi Jing.

She and Zhang Haitao, Zhang Haitao knew her, but she did not know Zhang Haitao.

But in such a situation, Zhang Haitao obviously could not pretend to be deaf and mute.

And now it seemed, waiting quietly for a result appeared to be the best conclusion.

Either a medical miracle would occur and Zhou Xueman would wake up after being in a coma for a while, or Zhou Xueman would never wake up again, saying farewell to the world in her sleep.

Zhang Haitao cleared his throat, then said to Su Fan, "Su Fan, since Doctor Zhou Tongwei has made his diagnosis, you should follow Doctor Zhou Tongwei's judgment."

He had previously felt that there was no hope for Zhou Xueman.

Although the departure of such a young and beautiful female CEO was very regrettable, there was no other way, the situation could only be like this.

No matter how much confidence everyone had in Su Fan, in the face of Zhou Tongwei, the leading authority on food poisoning in Yang City, their belief in Su Fan was futile.

Su Fan, of course, could not back down at this point, "Please all of you leave, I can save this patient."

"Otherwise, all of you who are stopping me from saving a life are murderers!"

Human life is of paramount importance, and Su Fan no longer had the patience to explain to everyone.

But Chu Lei's mood was already very bad, and his words undeniably lit the fuse!

Chapter 484 - 484 Everyone Out

Chu Lei's eyebrows shot up fiercely as she glared at Su Fan with venom.

"What did you say? If you have the guts, say it again!"

"Doctor Zhou has already made the diagnosis, do you think you're better than Doctor Zhou?"

"Do you believe that if you really make me angry, I could make it so that you can't survive in the healthcare system?"

Of course, Su Fan wouldn't indulge Chu Lei's scolding!

Even a clay Buddha has a hint of earthiness, so why wouldn't he, Su Fan?

"Slap!"

With a backhand slap, Su Fan struck Chu Lei across the face.

Such a scene almost gave Zhang Haitao a heart attack from shock.

He could never have dreamed that Su Fan would be so audacious as to slap Chu Lei!

Goodness! She's a very well-known businesswoman both inside and outside the province. The extent of her social influence in and out of the province is something Su Fan might not even be able to imagine!

After giving Chu Lei a slap, Su Fan then said to the others in the room, "Everyone out now, I need to treat the patient."

Zhou Tongwei was about to berate Su Fan after seeing Chu Lei get hit.

Little did he expect, after Su Fan slapped Chu Lei, he was even more aggressively causing trouble!

This made Zhou Tongwei so angry that he sneered, "Doctor Su, I know what you're capable of, and I'm aware that you have high medical skills!"

"But here in Yang City, in the area of food poisoning, I, Zhou Tongwei, am the chief authority expert. Who are you, Su Fan, to dare to treat a patient recklessly here?"

"I've already said that your hospital has done very well!"

"All of the emergency measures have been very appropriate."

"The only thing we need to do now is wait, wait for a medical miracle to happen!"

"The patient might get through the most dangerous moment and then turn from danger to safety."

"Although the hope is very slim, there is still a sliver of hope."

"Any action you take now will only completely sever the patient's last chance of survival!"

"Do you not understand my words?"

Zhou Tongwei was obviously angry to a certain extent, and his tone was very heavy when he spoke.

Su Fan had already said all he had to say.

At this point, why would he waste time with idle talk?

He directly grabbed the arms of Zhou Tongwei and Chu Lei and, one in each hand, sent these two irrelevant people out who were obstructing his treatment of the patient.

Then he also drove out the other people in the emergency room one by one, finally locking the emergency room door from the inside.

Chu Lei, in that instant, was almost driven mad with rage!

No one had ever dared to be so disrespectful to her!

And her niece was still in the emergency room! Who knew if Su Fan was actually trying to save someone or desecrate someone on the brink of death?

The possibility was not nonexistent.

Zhou Xueman was indeed very beautiful and sexy, and she was now utterly powerless to resist.

If Su Fan was planning to take advantage of someone vulnerable at a time like this, Zhou Xueman obviously couldn't fight back.

Immediately, Chu Lei said, "Where's my assistant? Call the police station right now, we've got a lunatic here! Someone is about to assault a patient!"

Upon hearing this, the assistant didn't hesitate for a second and took out their cellphone.

Bai Man, seeing this unfold, hurried to stop them.

Today she returned to the hospital with Su Fan, originally planning to work seriously for a while.

Recently, when trouble arose at her home, both her work and Su Fan's were interrupted.

She never expected that on her first day back at the hospital, she would encounter such a situation.

However, at this time, Bai Man still insisted on preventing Chu Lei's assistant from calling the police station.

Others might not trust Su Fan, but she had great trust in him.

Since Su Fan chose to administer emergency treatment to the patient at this time, it meant that he must be fairly certain that he could bring this patient back from the brink.

Chapter 485: Pushing Skills and Passing Blood

After giving it some serious thought, Bai Man grasped Assistant Chu Lei's hand and spoke to her:

"Director Chu, please calm down first."

"The person just now is our hospital's top-notch doctor."

"He is also often featured in Yang City's news reports, known as the 'Solitary Doctor' who saves lives and helps the injured."

"Since he believes that the patient should be rescued, there must still be a possibility of recovery for the patient."

Having said that, Chu Lei was naturally still very angry.

Su Fan was just too young; he looked like he wasn't even twenty years old.

How could such a young person possess such high medical skills?

The so-called 'Solitary Divine Doctor' who saves the dying and heals the wounded must be a result of self-promotion.

Zhou Tongwei also happened to speak up and counter Bai Man at this point: "Doctor, can we talk about some objective facts and medical principles?"

"Tell me, aside from the plan I mentioned before, how else can the patient be saved?"

Although Bai Man's medical skills were not bad, she really couldn't answer at this moment.

Chu Lei and Zhou Tongwei, these two people, were somewhat making a scene without reason.

But in the field of food poisoning, Zhou Tongwei was indeed an expert.

Seeing Bai Man unable to answer, Zhou Tongwei continued to speak:

"I know that Dr. Su Fan is somewhat skilled."

"But I am very certain that he can do nothing for this patient!"

"Although I don't know what he is currently doing in the emergency room, I have reason to suspect that right now he is very likely molesting the patient!"

Zhou Tongwei's words at this moment were undoubtedly very serious, and Chu Lei shared the same thoughts as Zhou Tongwei.

Thinking this, Chu Lei took out her phone again, ready to call the public security bureau!

Bai Man could only plead with sincerity: "Please give Dr. Su Fan a bit more time and trust."

"I can guarantee with my life that he is doing his utmost to save the patient!"

Upon hearing what Bai Man said, the anger in Chu Lei's heart certainly couldn't subside completely.

But the angry expression on her face finally lessened a bit.

After thinking it over, Chu Lei coldly stated: "If he really does save my niece, our family will thank him in any way he wants!"

"But if anything happens to my niece, no matter whether it's related to him or not, I won't let him off the hook!"

"And your hospital shouldn't think about getting off easy either!"

Chu Lei was obviously bullying others with her power, being completely unreasonable.

But society is like this, survival of the fittest.

Since the affiliated hospital was on the weaker side, no matter what Chu Lei did, they could only silently endure it.

At this point, even some of the doctors from the affiliated hospital couldn't help but begin to blame Su Fan.

After all, there was really no need for Su Fan to step forward this time.

If he hadn't stepped forward, none of these situations would have followed.

While everyone was tangled in their thoughts, Su Fan was fully focused and meticulously saving a life.

Zhou Xueman's condition was extremely dire, severe to the extent that it necessitated the use of the precious blood within his body.

In other words, conventional treatment methods were already ineffective for Zhou Xueman.

Under such circumstances, it was necessary to use his precious blood to help Zhou Xueman through the critical period.

With this in mind, Su Fan also began to remove Zhou Xueman's clothes, one by one.

The reason he did this was not because he had any bad intentions towards Zhou Xueman.

It was because he needed to perform a life force transfer through blood, followed by the use of silver needles for detoxification.

After Zhou Xueman became completely undressed, Su Fan started to perform the massage on her.

Even though he was wholly absorbed in saving her, the tactile sensations from his hands still caused him a lot of trouble.

Chapter 486: Treasure Blood Detoxification

Especially during the process of pushing Inner Strength through her bloodstream, every inch of Zhou Xueman's body had to be massaged.

Massaging other parts was still alright, but when it came to the mysterious Peach Garden, Su Fan merely felt like he was taking advantage, rather than saving a life.

Between the opening and closing of the gates of that Peach Garden, it seemed as if they were issuing the most fervent invitation to his fury dragon.

Not only that, but when massaging Zhou Xueman's firm and full peaks, he felt like he was crazily kneading dough.

Massaging and stroking are different from kneading.

The force used in kneading is generally heavier than in massaging or stroking.

But there was no helping it, given Zhou Xueman's condition, pushing Inner Strength through her bloodstream was necessary.

This resulted in Zhou Xueman's snowy peaks appearing almost as if Su Fan had pinched them into shades of purple and blue.

If Chu Lei and those outside the emergency room were to burst in at this moment, even if Su Fan was truly saving a life, he might not be able to clear his name even if he threw himself into the Yellow River.

This forced Su Fan to hurry and speed up the life-saving process.

As he was focused on saving Zhou Xueman, Zhang Haitao might just find the right opportunity to officially announce his promotion to deputy chief physician.

This matter was very important both to him and to his grandfather's expectations of him.

To compete in the Huaxia Famous Doctors Competition, he had not only to continually improve his medical skills but also to keep advancing his doctoral rank.

However, Zhou Xueman's peaks were indeed a bit too large.

Where other women may have what resembles just a couple ounces of flesh, Zhou Xueman's peaks seemed to weigh about four ounces each.

This caused Su Fan to waste quite a bit of time on these small watermelons while pushing Inner Strength through her bloodstream.

However, Su Fan didn't harbour any complaints in his mind, after all, the feel was truly indescribable.

There was a moment when he really wanted to do something more to Zhou Xueman, but fortunately, he did not.

Yet, this made him even more hopeful that Zhang Haitao would announce his promotion today.

That way, he could naturally visit Zhang Haitao's home and see Zhou Jie again.

Zhou Jie is Zhang Haitao's tender young wife and his second spouse.

Regrettably, Zhang Haitao could only keep Zhou Jie like forbidden fruit at home, utterly unable to handle that beautiful woman.

The last time Su Fan visited Zhang Haitao's house, he had quite a few interactions with Zhou Jie.

Could he perhaps take things further with Zhou Jie this time?

As he entertained these thoughts, Su Fan had already completed the full process of pushing Inner Strength through Zhou Xueman's bloodstream.

Next, he would use silver needles to lead his precious blood into various passageways and vital points within Zhou Xueman's body to help detoxify her.

By the time he completed this process, Zhou Xueman, nourished by his precious blood, would inevitably wake up.

However, Zhou Xueman's condition was indeed not very good and she needed to be hospitalized and rest for a while.

"Pfft!"

A faint sound, and a silver needle pricked Su Fan's finger, immediately followed by a drop of precious blood slowly sliding down.

With his other hand, Su Fan simultaneously picked up the silver needle, beginning to needle Zhou Xueman.

During the process, he naturally led droplet by droplet of precious blood into each passageway and vital point within Zhou Xueman's body through the silver needle.

This was a long and mentally exhausting process, and it also meant losing a lot of precious blood.

But human life is paramount, and to save a life, it had to be done.

With his strong physique as a master of Inner Strength and powerful blood-making functions, he could recover completely from this loss very quickly.

As Su Fan treated Zhou Xueman, Bai Man outside the emergency room was undoubtedly under tremendous pressure.

As time ticked away and there was still no sign of activity inside the emergency room, Chu Lei was obviously very annoyed!

This time, Chu Lei was not prepared to give face to anyone.

Chapter 487 - 487 You can climb now

Chu Lei looked at Zhou Tongwei, seeking one final confirmation, "Doctor Zhou, is my niece really beyond saving? Can you take responsibility for your words?"

Without hesitation, Zhou Tongwei spoke confidently, "I have been in medical practice for twenty-one years and have never made a wrong diagnosis."

"In the field of food poisoning, I am absolutely the most authoritative expert in Yang City."

"The patient's condition is far from ordinary, the chance of a medical miracle happening is about as likely as winning the lottery, maybe even lower."

"Under such circumstances, how could the patient possibly be saved?"

"If the patient really is saved, I will crawl from this spot all the way to the entrance of the affiliated hospital!"

As Zhou Tongwei's voice fell, Su Fan's voice came through, "Start crawling."

When he spoke, everyone naturally turned their gaze toward the emergency room as well.

Immediately, Zhang Haitao and all the doctors saw a scene that left them dumbfounded.

Zhou Xueman, who had been at death's door just before, now had her vital signs back to normal.

Not only that, Zhou Xueman weakly opened her eyes, looking at the crowd outside with a face full of confusion.

Zhou Tongwei, who had been so sure of himself, speaking so boldly just moments ago, was completely stunned.

He stood there foolishly, his face a picture of utter shock and disbelief at the sight of Zhou Xueman inside the emergency room.

At first, Zhang Haitao had a splitting headache.

This patient was really too special.

If anything happened to her, both he and the hospital would be in deep trouble.

But Zhang Haitao had never imagined that Su Fan's medical skills were so advanced!

Zhou Xueman had been on the brink of death, yet she had still been brought back to life.

It was simply unbelievable, and no matter how hard he racked his brains, he could not comprehend how Su Fan had done it.

However, these were no longer important, what truly mattered was that he could finally have his revenge!

Zhou Tongwei had been extremely arrogant just now, effectively offending the entire affiliated hospital.

Zhang Haitao wasted no time with Zhou Tongwei, directly addressing him, "Doctor Zhou, have you forgotten something?"

As his words fell, someone from the affiliated hospital immediately chimed in.

"Doctor Zhou, since ancient times, all must die, a man's word is his bond, you should start crawling."

"Yes, Doctor Zhou, a promise from a gentleman is inviolable even by a team of horses, start crawling."

"Doctor Zhou, go on and crawl, don't waste everyone's time."

Zhou Tongwei had just mercilessly insulted Su Fan, Bai Man, and the entire affiliated hospital.

At this moment, there were just as many people ready to call him out!

"I..." Zhou Tongwei's complexion turned a series of shades: green, red, then white.

Suddenly, this medical expert seemed utterly helpless and overwhelmed with shame.

But he really couldn't understand how things had turned out this way.

No matter what, it shouldn't have been possible for Su Fan to save the person.

Amidst the chorus of scolding from those around him, Zhou Tongwei could only slump to the ground, completely dispirited.

While this action would utterly humiliate him, making him a laughingstock in all of Yang City, he was right about one thing the doctors from the affiliated hospital had said: "Since ancient times, all must die, and without trust, one cannot stand!"

Although Zhou Tongwei had many faults, he was a man who staunchly kept his word.

Thus, even filled with indignation, he still got down on his knees and began crawling slowly.

The surrounding doctors, of course, unkindly took out their phones to take pictures.

Seeing this scene, Bai Man could only shake her head without saying much more.

All of this was brought on by Zhou Tongwei himself.

She had tried to talk sense into him, but Zhou Tongwei and Chu Lei simply refused to listen, what could she do?

Chapter 488: Promoted to Deputy Director

As Zhou Tongwei was crawling on the ground, engulfed by an overwhelming sense of humiliation and oppression,

Chu Lei had already entered the emergency room and arrived beside Zhou Xueman's hospital bed.

Seeing her niece miraculously wake up, Chu Lei felt an unrealistic surge of emotions engulf her.

Yet, all of this was real, her niece had been saved by Su Fan.

At that moment, Chu Lei had no more objections towards Su Fan. In her heart, she was deeply remorseful and self-reproachful, and even more so, she was tearfully grateful to Su Fan, with a thousand thanks!

She came up to Su Fan very formally, bowed deeply, and then said, "Dr. Su, I'm sorry, I misunderstood you, please don't take it to heart."

"This time, Xueman's awakening is all thanks to you. Our family would like to express our gratitude with the utmost sincerity."

However, Su Fan simply didn't care about these things, and such matters were also difficult for him to comment on.

Right then, all he could say was, "The patient still needs quiet recuperation, please do not disturb her."

Previously, Chu Lei was unwilling to listen to Su Fan's words, but now, as soon as Su Fan spoke, Chu Lei immediately left the emergency room.

After thinking for a moment, Su Fan called a doctor over and said, "Bring some paper and a pen, I need to prescribe medication for the patient."

This doctor of course didn't dare delay, and immediately brought paper and a pen.

In Su Fan's hands, the pen flew quickly, writing down many medicinal ingredients.

Soon, he handed over a total of three prescriptions to Chu Lei.

"Fetch the medicine according to these three prescriptions, each prescription for three days, follow the order of the prescriptions."

"Once the three prescriptions are completed, her health should be fully restored."

Hearing Su Fan's words, Chu Lei again expressed profuse thanks.

With Zhou Xueman's awakening, today's events were temporarily concluded.

The following tasks were merely about fetching and preparing the medicine as well as some recovery adjustments.

These tasks obviously did not require Su Fan's personal involvement; other doctors could handle them as well.

Thus, after the matters here concluded, the dean, Zhang Haitao, gathered most of the hospital's doctors for an emergency meeting.

This emergency meeting took place in one of the hospital's conference halls.

Though it was organized on short notice, every doctor who could attend had arrived.

After everyone assembled, Zhang Haitao began, "Today, our hospital treated an extremely special patient, an event everyone should be aware of."

"That patient is none other than Zhou Xueman, the 'Queen of Real Estate' from Peony Real Estate Group in Yang City."

"Ms. Zhou's circumstances this time were extremely perilous."

"Not just our hospital's doctors, but even the experts from City Second Hospital, like Zhou Tongwei, had declared Ms. Zhou's situation nearly hopeless."

"Had something happened to Ms. Zhou in our hospital, it would have caused a terrible impact."

"I need not say it, as all of you are aware."

"However, thanks to Dr. Su Fan, our hospital did not witness any accidents."

"Even Ms. Zhou, who was close to death, was completely saved by Dr. Su Fan."

"Today's meeting, I want to specially commend Dr. Su Fan and also announce a very important decision!"

"After a joint discussion with all the hospital leaders, we unanimously believe that Dr. Su Fan's medical skills have reached an extremely high standard!"

"And Dr. Su Fan's contributions to our hospital are beyond what any other doctor can match!"

"Therefore, we unanimously decided to promote Dr. Su Fan as the deputy director of our emergency department."

"Let's all applaud and congratulate him!"

Zhang Haitao's speech roused everyone's emotions completely.

"Clap clap clap!"

For a long time, the sound of applause thundered, unceasingly.

Bai Man was also in the audience. Seeing this scene, she was extremely happy for Su Fan.

With the promotion to deputy director, Su Fan was undoubtedly one step closer to fulfilling the expectations his grandfather had for him, as well as his own personal goals.

Su Fan himself was also very pleased.

What surprised Su Fan even more was that at this moment, Zhang Haitao patted him on the shoulder and whispered,

"Xiao Fan, let's have dinner at my place tonight."

Chapter 489: The Beautiful Young Wife Again

Su Fan had previously done a lot for the hospital, but today, his rescue of Zhou Xueman had helped the hospital avert a huge crisis.

Fortunately, Zhou Xueman was unscathed this time, otherwise, if something had happened to her, Zhang Haitao would have been in deep trouble.

Originally, Su Fan had planned to personally visit Zhang Haitao's home to express his gratitude after becoming the associate chief physician.

Unexpectedly, Zhang Haitao had taken the initiative to invite him.

Since that was the case, he would not be shy, and would go to Zhang Haitao's home for dinner after work.

While Su Fan was happy, Zhang Haitao was also very pleased and proud.

He thought to himself, "This young lad is just a kid after all, a little favor and he's all appeased."

"With this kid in the hospital, most patients can clearly be saved, and I can peacefully hold my position as the director until retirement."

Of course, Su Fan had no idea what Zhang Haitao was thinking.

At this moment, all he was thinking about was going to Zhang Haitao's home after work to see that stunning beauty.

Although the hospital received a large number of patients every day, most of them were common illnesses that did not require the intervention of Su Fan, the associate chief physician of the emergency department.

After treating Zhou Xueman, the hospital had not received any other patients in critical condition.

His duties for the rest of the day passed as usual.

When it was time to leave work in the afternoon, Su Fan went straight to Zhang Haitao's home with him.

As for Bai Man, he had already talked to her earlier.

Upon knowing that Director Zhang was inviting Su Fan over for dinner, Bai Man certainly wouldn't object.

In a place like the hospital, one's medical skill level and relationships with superiors are very important.

Having finally gained the favor of Director Zhang, Su Fan knew that he needed to strike while the iron was hot.

On the way home, Zhang Haitao cheerfully said: "Little Fan, you don't know, your sister-in-law might not talk much, but her cooking skills are top-notch."

Su Fan smiled and replied, "Then, Director Zhang, you are indeed lucky."

Zhang Haitao smiled, nodding as he added: "Previously, only I was lucky, but today, both of us are."

"Today, I'll have your sister-in-law cook a few specialty dishes."

After saying that, he continued: "Although I seldom cook, I also have a study of culinary arts."

"Since Little Fan is coming to dine at our place, I'll also cook a dish."

Upon hearing this, Su Fan could only say: "That might be too much trouble."

But Director Zhang waved his hand and said: "Not at all, let me show you some of Older Brother Zhang's skills!"

Su Fan thought for a moment, then replied, "If that's the case, I'll also cook a few dishes; I cook quite often anyway."

Zhang Haitao's interest perked up: "Oh? Then I must see how good Little Fan's cooking is."

As they spoke, they soon arrived at Zhang Haitao's villa.

This time, Su Fan immediately noticed Zhang Haitao's young, charming wife.

She was in the yard hanging laundry, and her heartbeat quickened when she saw Su Fan and Zhang Haitao returning together.

She had already been very disdainful of Zhang Haitao, the old wretch, and after her close encounter with Su Fan, she often found herself thinking of him.

She hadn't expected that Zhang Haitao would be bringing the wolf into the house again today.

Hearing Zhang Haitao self-introducing as "Older Brother Zhang" while speaking to Su Fan, Zhou Jie secretly chuckled.

The old wretch Zhang Haitao certainly would never have imagined that while he and Su Fan were becoming brothers, during Su Fan's first visit to his home, he had thoroughly "picked" his wife!

But Zhou Jie didn't care about Zhang Haitao's feelings, just as Zhang Haitao only kept her as a plaything.

This time, she wanted to find an opportunity to see if she could get closer to Su Fan.

Chapter 490: The Moves Behind

Su Fan and Zhang Haitao quickly arrived at the villa together and after getting home, Zhang Haitao said to Zhou Jie:

"Head to the kitchen and prepare, make a few of your signature dishes for Xiao Fan."

Hearing Zhang Haitao's words, Zhou Jie nodded and then went to the kitchen to prepare the ingredients.

Her culinary skills were excellent; cooking was a form of enjoyment for her.

After Zhou Jie had left to prepare, Zhang Haitao changed into a different set of clothes and then also headed for the kitchen.

The villa's kitchen was located on the right side of the first floor.

Upon arriving in the kitchen, Zhang Haitao rolled up his sleeves, ready to personally cook today's first dish.

At this time, Su Fan followed suit and came over as well.

When she saw him, Zhou Jie's eyes clearly flashed with a touch of excitement.

Zhang Haitao, however, did not notice that his young wife and Su Fan were exchanging flirtatious glances.

He had already found a clay pot, intending to stew a pot of chicken for Su Fan.

Curious, Su Fan asked when he saw Zhang Haitao taking out the clay pot, "Director Zhang, what dish are you planning to make?"

Continue preparing ingredients, Zhang Haitao replied, "This is a medicinal dish called American ginseng clay pot chicken."

After that, he continued somewhat proudly, "This medicinal dish is very nourishing. I've carefully thought out the recipe, which truly makes this dish delicious in terms of color, fragrance, and taste!"

"Zhou Jie, wouldn't you agree?"

Hearing Zhang Haitao's inquiry, Zhou Jie hastily nodded: "Yes, it tastes great."

Though she was replying to Zhang Haitao, her heart was extremely tense.

While Zhang Haitao was busy with the ingredients, Su Fan's hand had already impudently slipped into her cheongsam, starting to caress her perky bottom.

If Zhang Haitao were to turn around suddenly now, she and Su Fan would be doomed!

Zhang Haitao was utterly oblivious to what was happening behind him.

All of his attention was focused on the myriad of ingredients before him.

Regarding the American ginseng clay pot chicken, he indeed had conducted thorough research.

After taking out numerous ingredients, he handled them very attentively and skillfully.

He had decided to cook personally today to show Su Fan, this inexperienced young man, the hospital leadership's high regard for him, so that he would buckle down and work hard at the hospital.

Therefore, while he cooked, Zhang Haitao also started to make small talk with Su Fan.

"Xiao Fan, do you often cook at home too?"

While stroking Zhou Jie's soft and curvy bottom, Su Fan casually replied,

"Yeah, I often cook when I'm at home."

After finishing his sentence, he did not forget to compliment Zhang Haitao, "Director Zhang's culinary skills look quite impressive, almost on par with a restaurant's head chef."

Zhang Haitao felt elated with Su Fan's praise, for he also believed that he had a natural talent for cooking.

It's just that he became a doctor instead, so cooking could only remain a hobby.

Meanwhile, Su Fan's hand never ceased its movement.

Today, in addition to wearing a cheongsam, Zhou Jie also wore a pair of ultra-thin flesh-colored silk stockings.

This gave Su Fan an unendingly smooth and comfortable sensation to the touch.

Especially now, he was practically eating the tofu of Zhang Haitao's wife right in front of this old sly fox.

Zhang Haitao wanted to win over his loyalty, hoping he would work diligently at the hospital.

But how could the other party know that his appetite could not be satisfied by just one dish?

Zhou Jie's heart was tight with tension, continuously signaling Su Fan with her eyes, begging him not to mess around.

She even reached out to stop Su Fan, hoping he would cease his actions.

But Su Fan had no intention of stopping and carried on with great enjoyment, continuously caressing and kneading.

This caused Zhou Jie to inadvertently react, blushing furiously, her entire pretty face as red and hot as if she were running a fever.

Just then, Zhang Haitao seemed to think of something and suddenly turned around.
