

Looking at Su Fan's coy demeanor, like that of a young girl, Bai Man laughed.

"Relax, I'm not interested in a virgin boy like you. I have a friend coming over soon—it's her birthday. After your bath, put on the new clothes I bought for you. I don't want her to see you looking so shabby."

"I'll go order the food and drinks."

"Remember, don't turn on the lights."

With that, Bai Man left the room.

Su Fan watched Bai Man leave and breathed a sigh of relief but also felt slightly regretful.

If only...

"She's your uncle's wife, you mustn't think about it..."

"If you offend your uncle, you'll destroy your future."

Su Fan warned himself and then took off his clothes and went into the bathroom.

Soon, the sound of running water filled the bathroom.

Downstairs in the Western restaurant, Bai Man sat in a chair, waiting for the kitchen to finish preparing the food, while opening her phone.

That room was one she kept long-term, complete with a camera installed in the bathroom.

Today, she planned on figuring out how to gain leverage over Su Fan, whose secret she had discovered.

When she looked at the phone's screen, she covered her mouth in surprise.

"So big, really so big..."

At that moment, Su Fan stood naked under the showerhead, hot water cascading over his muscular body, every muscle bulging with strength. The most lethal part was the protrusion below him, almost as large as her forearm, and it wasn't even fully erect yet.

"How can Wang Fei, that wanton woman, handle that?"

She was first surprised, then regretful. Such a good lover should have been kept for herself; giving Su Fan to her close friend Wang Fei was letting her off too cheap, wasn't it?

Bai Man suddenly became thirsty, her legs crossing one another while she fidgeted restlessly in her chair. She was careful to survey her surroundings with the corners of her eyes, feeling fortunate she was wearing a skirt, otherwise any wet marks would surely seep through.

"Ah."

Suddenly, she slumped down, sprawling on the table.

"So, so fast, just the thought of it already..."

"I really look forward to Wang Fei's performance later."

"City folk really know how to enjoy themselves..."

Su Fan thought to himself as he washed his body, head lowered.

Suddenly, his body tensed up.

Because he distinctly felt a soft, large hand reach around from behind him and embrace him.

At the same time, a seductive voice sounded.

"You little tease, I'm not even there yet, and you can't hold yourself back."

"Let's see just how wet you are."

With those words, the pair of soft hands began swiftly moving down from his abdomen, aiming straight for the prize...

???

What's going on...

Didn't Aunt Bai say she wasn't interested in a virgin boy like me?

Could she be trying to use seduction to keep me silent?

While Su Fan didn't know what to do,

The jade hand had already successfully reached its destination.

"What, what is this?"

"Hahaha..."

The woman paused, then started to laugh.

"Well done, you little tease. I thought you were just bragging last time, but you actually went online and bought a toy like this..."

"Hehe, how does it feel wearing it? Let me feel..."

The woman increased her grip, moving her hand up and down, as if...

"Hiss..."

Su Fan's body went rigid, drawing a sharp breath as he swelled even more, but he dared not move, afraid to offend the lofty Bai Man.

"Wow, it's so lifelike..."

"Amazing..."

The woman's hand movements grew in both range and force, driving Su Fan almost to madness.

Meanwhile, Bai Man, seated in the restaurant, was staring at her phone, eyes gleaming.
