

Temptation 511

Chapter 511 - 511 Tragic Life

This Chen Hanqing really faced one misfortune after another, with both parents suffering from heart diseases and in constant need of care.

He himself dropped out of school after junior high and, without any notable academic qualifications or diplomas, simply couldn't find a good job.

Not only that, he also had cerebrovascular disease and was afflicted with almost incurable brain cancer!

Even with the current Su Fan's abilities, he could only control Chen Hanqing's symptoms with continuous medication.

Other cancers might be treated by removing the lesion.

But brain cancer, how can one cut out the brain?

Although Chen Hanqing's disease was extremely difficult to deal with, Su Fan still took this talent he had spotted into the emergency room for a comprehensive examination and treatment.

With Su Fan's intervention, Chen Hanqing regained consciousness very quickly.

Upon waking, however, he received a bunch of bad news.

Looking at the medical reports in his hand, he couldn't help but pull out his phone and look up his condition, and then he fell into an unprecedented, complete despair!

No wonder he had been fainting more and more often recently—it turned out he didn't have many days left to live!

At most, he could live for a few more months, definitely not more than a year.

On his phone, he had an app he himself had written, which could even hack into domestic and foreign hospitals to review relevant cases.

Minutes later, his heart turned to ashes and he felt as if he had been plunged into the eighteenth layer of hell.

He was doomed, even with the world's top medical treatments, he was doomed!

After despair, came an unprecedented agony for Chen Hanqing.

Fate had been too cruel to him; his parents were severely ill and always needing care, and he himself had a terminal illness.

After his death, his parents would obviously not be able to survive either.

For a moment, Chen Hanqing, who had barely shed tears in his twenty-odd years of life, now crumbled emotionally and wept uncontrollably.

In his moment of utter despair, Su Fan, who had gone out to get his medicine, happened to come back.

Seeing Chen Hanqing, a grown man, crying like this, Su Fan quickly said, "You don't need to despair, I can save you."

Hearing Su Fan's words, Chen Hanqing shook his head, "Dr. Su, I know you're a kind person."

"But I have just checked the case histories from major hospitals both domestic and international, and with my condition, I won't live more than a year."

Su Fan smiled, "Although I can't cure you right this second, I can completely suppress your disease."

Chen Hanqing continued to shake his head, "Dr. Su, it's impossible, the top medical experts both here and abroad can't do it."

Su Fan, feeling helpless, could only say, "Do you know about my background?"

Chen Hanqing was stunned; he only knew Su Fan's name and position from his work badge.

Although Su Fan was a regular on television shows, he hardly watched TV and was unaware that Yang City had brought forth a Divine Doctor capable of reviving the dead.

He immediately took out his phone and started looking up Su Fan's information.

He hadn't bothered to check earlier, but one look now shocked him!

He now realized that this approachable Associate Chief Physician Su was none other than Yang City's premier Divine Doctor!

The news reports relayed countless instances of his achievements, where each time he had turned decay into magic, each time resurrecting the dead and revitalizing lives!

So many cases gave Chen Hanqing a spark of hope in his heart.

Because the news reports showed many patients who were on the brink of death had been rescued by Su Fan, perhaps he wasn't completely without hope!

But... he absolutely couldn't afford the treatment costs! He was still going to die!

Su Fan seemed to understand what Chen Hanqing was thinking and spoke earnestly,

"I will be registering a pharmaceutical company soon, come to work at my company."

"Your parents' illnesses are almost incurable by other doctors, but I have ways to make them gradually recover and eventually fully heal them, restoring them to normal life."

"As for your heart disease, I can cure that as well, but your brain cancer is a bit more tricky."

"My current treatment plan is to have you take two types of herbal medicines in rotation long-term, completely suppressing the condition from worsening."

"This way, you will at least be free from any life-threatening danger."

"If medicine makes new breakthroughs in the future, or my medical skills improve further, I will then be able to completely cure your brain cancer."

"As for the treatment costs, don't worry about that. Once you start working at my company, I'll start you on a salary of ten thousand, deducting a thousand from your salary each month as treatment fees. How does that sound?"

Chapter 512: Taming the Thousand-Li Horse

Su Fan had just finished speaking when Chen Hanqing's gratitude towards him was simply like the waters of the Yangtze River, endless and surging, like the Yellow River's flood, uncontrollable once unleashed!

Caught by surprise by Su Fan's reaction, Chen Hanqing flipped out of bed and kowtowed to him with three loud thuds.

Then, he continued to kneel on the ground, his voice choked with emotion as he said, "Mr. Su, you are the savior of not just me but my entire family, we owe you our lives!"

"As long as my parents' ailments can be cured and my family has food to eat, I am willing to work for Mr. Su without pay for the rest of my life!"

Su Fan quickly helped up this talent, as the man was already so accomplished under extremely difficult self-study conditions.

He planned to provide him with a comfortable learning environment and use his connections for Chen Hanqing to converse and study with some top-notch experts.

Without a doubt, Chen Hanqing would definitely become a legend in the IT world!

Chen Hanqing's current attitude was extremely satisfactory to Su Fan, and he could feel Chen Hanqing's sincerity.

Moreover, he couldn't instantly cure Chen Hanqing's illness; the man's life was essentially in his hands.

To him, Chen Hanqing was an extremely perfect talent, someone he saw as a future general in his business empire!

After helping Chen Hanqing up, Su Fan brought many medicines over to him.

"These medicines are for your parents, and these are for you."

"Additionally, here's ten thousand yuan. Use it to buy some necessities for daily life and some treats for the elders."

"Once my company is registered, you can just come over."

"Whether it's in financial, living, or other areas, if you encounter any difficulties, you can talk to me."

As Su Fan was saying these words, Chen Hanqing was already choked up and unable to speak.

Where there are Bole, there are legendary steeds.

This steed, on the brink of life's endpoint, finally met his Bole!

Chen Hanqing's heart was filled with extreme gratitude towards Su Fan.

As long as his parents could truly recover and have someone to count on in the future, he would follow Su Fan's orders without hesitation, even if it meant his death.

Su Fan was unaware of how deeply he had touched Chen Hanqing.

After handing over the medicine and money to Chen Hanqing, he started to prepare for his visit to Wang Fei's place.

Today was a day of double happiness!

In the hospital, he unexpectedly discovered the talented Chen Hanqing.

And later, at Wang Fei's house, he was going to indulge with her the entire night.

After Su Fan left, Chen Hanqing couldn't help but bury his head and cry once more.

These cries were not of despair, but of excitement from being rescued from the abyss of desperation!

His dark life of more than twenty years was finally seeing the dawn of a new day!

"Ah!"

Amidst his sobbing, he cried out to the sky, much like the lead in Shawshank Redemption.

Feeling very good, Chen Hanqing began his journey home that day.

Meanwhile, Su Fan on his way to Wang Fei's and Wang Fei eagerly waiting for him at home, both had very good moods.

Su Fan still couldn't figure out why Wang Fei had actively sought him out, but meat delivered to his mouth was not to be wasted.

Arriving at Wang Fei's door, Su Fan knocked.

Then Wang Fei opened the door wide, and at that moment, Su Fan's eyes bugged out!

It wasn't that Wang Fei had dressed up beautifully today, but that this little tease Wang Fei was stark naked when she opened the door for him!

Wang Fei's home was not a villa but an apartment.

Apart from him, there could be others passing by, and if anyone looked over, they could see the exquisite beauty of Wang Fei's body.

Su Fan had come over today to deal thoroughly with this little tease, and seeing Wang Fei open the door for him this way, he naturally couldn't restrain himself!

Chapter 513 - 513 Sister Fei, Relax a Bit

"Ah!"

Amid Wang Fei's cry of alarm, he directly lifted her up.

Wang Fei's long, slender legs at that moment immediately wrapped around his waist.

Without any extra words, nor any superfluous movements, the two passionately kissed each other.

For today's bidding, Wang Fei certainly pulled out all the stops.

Although she was quite satisfied with Su Fan, if she could get pregnant in one try, clearly there would be no need to call on Su Fan frequently to sleep with her; what would she become then?

Su Fan was unaware of Wang Fei's schemes to marry into a wealthy household; although he had now tamed Chen Hanqing, a steed of a thousand miles.

But without his say-so, Chen Hanqing obviously wouldn't take the initiative to monitor everyone around him.

Su Fan's left hand supported Wang Fei's soft and slippery buttocks.

His right hand pressed down on her temples, continuously seeking the nectar from her mouth. He seemed like a person about to die of thirst in the desert, desperately sucking and scraping away.

Originally, Wang Fei just wanted to stir up Su Fan's primal desires, to keep him from getting suspicious and smooth the way for the deed to be done.

She hadn't anticipated that her charm was a bit too much.

At this moment, Su Fan seemed as if he wanted to devour her completely.

Her little tongue was relentlessly sucked on by Su Fan, and the exquisite nectar from her mouth was completely consumed by him.

Not only that, Su Fan quickly shifted the battlefield, grabbing hold of one snow-capped peak, both nibbling and biting fiercely as if he were a starving infant wanting a full meal.

This gave Wang Fei a strange idea in her heart.

If Su Fan really got her pregnant, she could actually consider satiating Su Fan just once, as her way of thanking him.

Su Fan didn't realize that Wang Fei was preoccupied with many thoughts today; all his attention was on the offensive against Wang Fei.

He had now become an advanced master in the Fury Realm, preparing to unleash all his firepower upon Wang Fei.

If Wang Fei could still get a fever in the next two or three days after today, that would mean his strength wasn't enough, and he would need to keep improving.

Wang Fei's original plan was, if she didn't get pregnant at once, to have Su Fan come over for a few more days.

With Su Fan's robust and unyielding prowess, after two or three times, she ought to get pregnant no matter what.

But Wang Fei could never have imagined that by seducing Su Fan this way, she was opening a Pandora's box of evil, unleashing a demon.

Su Fan's usual combat strength was already incredibly terrifying.

What she was doing was like pouring oil on fire.

It would only result in her needing two or three days to recover before she could go near a man again after each encounter with Su Fan, or she would be in unbearable pain!

At this moment, Su Fan didn't place Wang Fei on the bed or the couch.

After releasing the already awakened dragon within him, he held Wang Fei tight, adjusted her position, and then, like a swift spear, thrust straight into the heart of the battle.

"Ah!"

Wang Fei's exquisitely beautiful face twisted with extreme pain in an instant.

"Hss—"

While suffering, she instinctively wrapped her arms tightly around Su Fan; otherwise, if Su Fan had space to retreat and build up force for a fierce thrust, she couldn't help but inhale sharply due to the pain.

Although their fiery kissing had already resulted in streams of pure clarity for her.

But whether it was an illusion or not, Su Fan's assets seemed to be ever-increasing.

The previous experiences had been bearable for her with some teeth-gritting

It hadn't been long, yet now she couldn't withstand it at all!

Su Fan, tightly entwined by Wang Fei, couldn't move at all; he could only speak: "Fei, relax a bit, I'll take you on a rollercoaster ride."

Wang Fei replied irritably, "Be gentler, why do I feel like you want to screw me to death?"

Chapter 514: Another Rejection

Wang Fei's home was a battlefield, and her mood was exceptionally good.

Because this meant she was one step closer to marrying into a wealthy family.

Su Fan and Wang Fei were happy, but the eldest son of the chairman of Baiwei Pharmaceutical was in a bad mood.

When he invited Yin Qianyue to dinner, she had once again made an excuse to refuse him!

Qi Tian's Ferrari was parked outside Yin Qianyue's villa at the moment, and he was still holding his mobile phone, even though Yin Qianyue had hung up a long time ago.

"Bitch!" After a while, he couldn't help but curse angrily.

He was extremely fond of Yin Qianyue. For a wealthy young master like him, women were never in short supply, especially those who were completely submissive to him.

Women like that, no matter how beautiful, would become boring after a while at night.

To please him, most women adopted a strategy of complete submission and obedience.

Even if he asked them to crawl on the ground and act like bitches, these pretty women with ulterior motives wouldn't hesitate.

But Yin Qianyue was different; she seemed to have no interest in men at all.

Before their engagement, Yin Qianyue had a lot of outstanding suitors, but none had ever succeeded in taking her out for a meal.

He had thought that after getting engaged to Yin Qianyue, he would be able to conquer her, to have her under him every day.

He thought too much, as Yin Qianyue's attitude towards him hadn't changed at all before or after their engagement.

Moreover, she was very opposed to the marriage of convenience between the two families and was always trying to find a way out.

Unfortunately, the development and cooperation between the two families also encountered disagreements and fractures.

At some appropriate time, Yin Qianyue might suggest breaking off the engagement.

After all, the two families had initially come together for a marriage of convenience for mutual benefits.

Now that there were some conflicts of interest between the two families, it was only natural to consider terminating the engagement at this time.

Thinking of this, Qi Tian's supercar's engine roared to life.

He was a bit frustrated at the moment and wanted to find a quiet place to be alone to clear his head.

But somehow, when he decided to let go of Yin Qianyue, the image of another woman emerged in his mind, Wang Fei, the pharmaceutical representative from Baiwei Company.

He did have a stronger liking for Wang Fei compared to other women.

The feelings Wang Fei gave him were also better than those from other women.

Compared to Yin Qianyue, was Wang Fei more suitable for him?

Of course, Qi Tian didn't expect that the woman he was considering for marriage was currently enduring a fierce encounter.

In the past, Wang Fei had only tried to find joy between sisters with Bai Man.

Even though she had been intimate with Su Fan many times, most of the time, Su Fan had a good sense of measure.

Today was different. Perhaps because she and Su Fan hadn't seen each other for a long time, Su Fan was unusually excited and vigorous.

Every movement of Su Fan was a full withdrawal, then a powerful thrust, continuing relentlessly like this.

Wang Fei felt as if she were riding the most thrilling roller coaster in the world, cresting one peak after another that made her scream uncontrollably.

More than once, she doubted whether Su Fan was merely trying to experience joy with her today or trying to kill her.

Wang Fei also didn't expect that Yin Qianyue would end up assisting her marriage into a wealthy family in such a divine way.

The actions of Yin Qianyue had made Qi Tian, the wealthy young master, unwilling to waste any more time on her.

After all, with Qi Tian's status, finding women was all too easy.

Chapter 515: Keeping Secrets from Me

Su Fan still held Wang Fei close, but in his heart, he really wanted to ask whether Wang Fei was hiding something from him.

Or to put it more bluntly, why did Wang Fei do what she did last time?

Why did she have Qi Tian capture the bag he shared with Yin Qian Yue?

Using and betraying someone was something Su Fan could not tolerate, even if he slept with Wang Fei a hundred times, it was still a thorn in his heart.

But his skills were excellent, he did not let Wang Fei succeed, and he didn't suffer any losses himself.

After considering, Su Fan didn't ask directly but chose a more euphemistic approach.

"Fei, are you in some kind of trouble? Or is there something you want to do? You seem to be hiding something from me."

He spoke very diplomatically, giving Wang Fei a chance to dissolve the thorn in his heart.

Even though the thorn was already there, if Wang Fei were honest, the impact of that thorn would be somewhat mitigated.

Of course, Wang Fei was not going to be honest. Her plan was nearing success, and there was no need to let Su Fan know more.

Faced with Su Fan's question, Wang Fei chose to feign innocence.

"Little Fan... what are you talking about... ah..."

Under Su Fan's relentless assault, Wang Fei couldn't even speak a complete sentence fluently.

All she wanted now was to tightly hold Su Fan and silently endure his vigorous onslaught.

Beyond that, she didn't want to do anything else, let alone proactively think about any issues.

Hearing Wang Fei's response, although there was no change in Su Fan's expression, a chill grew in his heart.

He now even felt an urge he could hardly suppress to confront Wang Fei about what happened last time!

But in the end, he did not voice it.

It would be too undignified, and if he utterly burned bridges with her, Wang Fei might not want to see him again, not to mention letting him have his way with her for free.

Wang Fei's secrecy displeased Su Fan.

He had been considering spending the night at Wang Fei's place, but now he thought about leaving right after they finished.

Actually, Wang Fei didn't really want Su Fan to stay the night either, because during this period, Qi Tian might call her to go out.

If that happened, having Su Fan stay at her home would undoubtedly be bothersome.

Although Su Fan and Wang Fei were thoroughly merged, at this moment their hearts were very far apart.

Fortunately, no matter what, both still experienced great pleasure.

Feeling an imminent volcanic eruption, Su Fan thought about letting Wang Fei go.

Yet Wang Fei's spirits lifted, her legs wrapping around his waist, clinging tightly to him.

She whispered in his ear, "Little Fan, continue, it's okay, I have medicine at home."

Although Wang Fei said this, her real intention was to conceive with Su Fan's child.

Qi Tian was promiscuous by nature, involved with many women, which made the quality of his essence extremely poor.

Whether it was in vitro fertilization or other methods of conception, they were almost certain to fail.

At this moment, Su Fan was not aware of Wang Fei's intentions.

Since Wang Fei was willing to be watered by him, he was certainly not going to be polite.

Warm streams soon completely enveloped Wang Fei's flower.

After Su Fan finished everything, Wang Fei said, "Little Fan, after you take a shower, just go back."

"If you don't return home at night, I'm afraid Bai Man will eat me up."

She still giggled as she spoke.

It seemed like she was truly considering Su Fan's situation, not worried about Su Fan finding out something.

In his heart, Su Fan had made up his mind.

Once Chen Hanqing joined the company, he would have Chen Hanqing hack into Wang Fei's phone to see what she was really up to.

Chapter 516: Aspiring to Wear the Crown

Su Fan had already planned on going back; once Wang Fei spoke up, he certainly wasn't going to refuse.

Shortly after showering in Wang Fei's bathroom, he came out and said to Wang Fei:

"Fei, since that's the case, I'll be heading back first."

"Next time you need something, just call me, and I'll definitely come to help you."

His implication was obviously that Wang Fei should call him the next time she wanted to be fucked.

Wang Fei certainly caught the subtext, and immediately she retorted to Su Fan, "Don't act coy after taking advantage. Can't even say thank you to your Fei!"

Su Fan laughed and then said, "Thank you, Fei. I'll be on my way."

Wang Fei nodded slightly and added, "Be careful on your way."

Su Fan nodded, then left Wang Fei's place.

After he left, Wang Fei quietly savored the warmth inside her.

She could feel that Su Fan had given her a very abundant amount of his life essence.

Usually, the more life essence there is, the better its quality.

It just wasn't clear whether Su Fan could make her hit the jackpot in one go, achieving her goal.

If it had been before, Wang Fei would have needed to deal with it differently.

Not only would she need to take medication, but she'd also need a thorough cleaning with water.

But this time Wang Fei didn't think that way, planning to lie down a while before deciding.

Little did she know that right at this moment, her room door was knocked on again!

Wang Fei was startled, thinking Su Fan had come back.

Upon opening the door, however, she was somewhat taken aback!

The person standing outside was a drunken Qi Tian.

It was unclear what had upset Qi Tian so much that he had drunk himself to such a state.

But Wang Fei quickly thought that this might be a good opportunity.

After all, Qi Tian was so drunk that he would most likely not remember what happened tonight.

Immediately, Wang Fei opened the door, feigning surprise, "Young Master Qi, what brings you here?"

Qi Tian, holding a bottle of liquor, stumbled into Wang Fei's home, and with his other hand, he closed the door.

He also slurred, "Tonight I want to spend the night here, you keep me company."

Wang Fei, wearing only a large bath towel, found it effortlessly undone by Qi Tian with a pull of his hand.

While Wang Fei was grateful for how surprisingly well recent events had gone, she also couldn't help but feel some resentment toward Su Fan.

Su Fan had been too fervent today; had he given her a few days to rest after such intense action, it would have been fine.

But seeing Qi Tian in this state, it was obvious he intended to engage in an intimate exchange with her.

The thought of having to take in the life essence of two men back-to-back made Wang Fei feel even more provocative than those high-class models who dabbled in the trade.

Yet Qi Tian was completely unaware that the 'fertile land' he wanted to cultivate had just been fiercely plowed not long ago.

At this moment, he was so drunk that all he sought was a thorough release and then to sleep deeply, forgetting all his troubles.

To wear the crown, one must bear its weight.

In this world, there's a price for everything.

And now, Wang Fei was paying the price for the goals she was chasing.

Su Fan had been too vigorous, leaving her in incredible pain right now.

With Qi Tian, she didn't know if he could feel the pleasure, but all she felt was pain.

After leaving Wang Fei's house, Su Fan returned to Bai Man's place.

Bai Man had already fallen asleep, so he didn't wake her up; he just went back to his own room to sleep.

Today and tomorrow were days off.

Unless there was an emergency at the hospital, they generally wouldn't call him back.

That night, Su Fan, having released all his tension, slept exceptionally soundly.

But in another corner of the city, Chen Hanqing was so excited he couldn't sleep at all.

It was the happiest day of his life in more than twenty years.

Chapter 517 - 517 Help me look up a person

Chen Hanqing's home was located in a city village.

This place had been slated for demolition a long time ago, but it had not been completely torn down even now.

He usually collected old books and various types of waste products here.

In his room, there was a rather old computer, as well as a large quantity of books about computers.

The number of books related to computers in his room might even surpass what's found in a typical bookstore.

As for the materials he studied online, there were even more of those.

If it hadn't been for this, he wouldn't have had such formidable hacking skills.

Chen Hanqing was so excited and agitated that he didn't even know when he had fallen asleep.

The next day, he was woken up by a phone call.

The caller was none other than Su Fan.

Chen Hanqing hurriedly answered the call, speaking very respectfully, "Mr. Su Fan, is there anything you need me to do?"

Soon, Su Fan's voice came through from the other end of the line.

"I'm planning to look at the company office building today, can you handle the procurement of the company's networking equipment?"

Chen Hanqing immediately answered affirmatively, "No problem, Mr. Su Fan."

"Do you know what the requirements for the company's networking equipment are?"

Su Fan, of course, wasn't very clear about these things.

So, his reply to Chen Hanqing was, "You just combine our situation with that of other pharmaceutical companies and purchase and set up what's good for our company."

Chen Hanqing immediately noted down what Su Fan said, "Alright, Mr. Su Fan, I will follow your orders."

He obviously felt a great deal of gratitude towards Su Fan, taking every arrangement Su Fan made very seriously.

After talking about the company business with Chen Hanqing, Su Fan of course also had to discuss Wang Fei's matter.

He hesitated for a moment, then decided to meet up with Chen Hanqing to discuss it.

Right then, he said, "Where do you live? I'll come to pick you up so we can talk about something."

Chen Hanqing did not hesitate and immediately told Su Fan where he lived.

A few minutes later, Su Fan's Range Rover arrived at Chen Hanqing's place.

Su Fan noticed that Chen Hanqing's attire hadn't changed at all after receiving ten thousand yuan from him.

The other party seemed not to have bought new clothes, not even a pair of glasses.

When Su Fan opened the car door and invited Chen Hanqing to get in, Chen Hanqing felt somewhat embarrassed.

Although he had put on a clean set of clothes, his attire and Su Fan's luxury car were just too mismatched.

Of course, Su Fan didn't care about these things; Chen Hanqing was an important talent for his future company—there were no strict demands on such matters.

Immediately, Su Fan said with a smile, "Get in quickly, I'll take you to get a suit and then we'll pick out a pair of glasses."

Chen Hanqing quickly waved his hand, "Mr. Su, you shouldn't have to spend money on me."

Su Fan dismissed the concerns, "Just work hard in the future, let's go."

Chen Hanqing thought it over and did not continue to refuse.

He had already realized that his family now owed Su Fan three lives.

The kindness Su Fan had shown to his family, he would never be able to repay it in full.

From now on, he could only use all his wit and talent to create profit for Su Fan's company as a way of showing his gratitude.

Su Fan took Chen Hanqing to buy several suits and then, to get a pair of glasses.

After finishing, the two of them arrived at the office building that Su Fan had obtained and looked at the empty building.

In his heart, Su Fan had already decided to register a pharmaceutical company.

However, he still hadn't figured out the products for the pharmaceutical company.

But now that he had an office building, the next step was to hire some employees and then think of a few products—his company would certainly be able to take off then.

Regarding the company's development, he was considering collaborating with Wang Xiaoxiao and Shen He's company.

After collaborating, he would become the chairman of the board, with Shen He and Wang Xiaoxiao as shareholders, of course.

As for Wang Xiaoxiao, a person of exceptional ability, she could even assume the position of vice-general manager of the company.

Thinking of this, Su Fan became even more eager to have Wang Xiaoxiao, that beautiful and sexy secretary, come work for him.

Once Secretary Wang came over, it would really be a case of if there's business, the secretary works, if there's none, work the secretary.

However, at the moment, he still had an important matter to discuss with Chen Hanqing.

"Hanqing, can you hack into someone's phone to know their basic situation?"

Chapter 518: Falling into a Trap

Hearing Su Fan's words, Chen Hanqing paused slightly before nodding his head.

"If it's just hacking into a mobile phone to understand some basic information, it's possible, but it will take some time."

Su Fan thought for a moment and handed Chen Hanqing the piece of paper with Wang Fei's phone number on it.

"I want to know who this person has been dealing with recently and what they have been doing. Can you find that out?"

Chen Hanqing nodded, "Yes."

After speaking, he continued, "President Su, I understand this is probably a business secret. After I collect the data, I won't look at it; I'll directly package it and send it to President Su."

Su Fan hadn't expected Chen Hanqing to be so tactful.

He had previously felt that Chen Hanqing was quite impressive. Now, seeing Chen Hanqing's positive attitude, he knew he had not misjudged him.

Although Chen Hanqing came from a more humble background, he truly was someone who could join him in conquering the business world.

Su Fan immediately patted Chen Hanqing on the shoulder and nodded, "I await your good news."

While Su Fan was thriving in his career, love life, and personal business ventures, Wang Fei, through her relentless efforts, had also achieved her goals.

Although she had endured almost inhuman treatment the previous night, the results were surprisingly good for Wang Fei!

Waking up early today, Qi Tian had decided to actively break off his engagement with Yin Qian Yue.

Yin Qian Yue, of course, was more than happy about this.

While Su Fan was taking Chen Hanqing to see the office building, Qi Tian and Yin Qian Yue had already privately dissolved their engagement.

As for their families, it was now up to each of them to return and handle the situation.

After dissolving his engagement with Yin Qian Yue, Qi Tian officially introduced Wang Fei as his new girlfriend and took her home.

And he was planning to get engaged to Wang Fei and marry her as soon as possible.

Yin Qian Yue had greatly disappointed him. He wanted to compensate for the pain and disappointment he suffered from her through Wang Fei.

And Wang Fei, of course, was a very good partner—she always seemed to satisfy him immensely regardless of the situation.

Qi Tian's home was a luxurious European-style manor.

At this moment, Qi Tian had already brought Wang Fei back home, where Qi Dongliang, one of the top business magnates of Yang City and the chairman of Baiwei Pharmaceutical Group, was sizing up Wang Fei.

Upon seeing Wang Fei for the first time, Qi Dongliang's face showed no change, but he felt somewhat pleasantly surprised inside.

It wasn't, of course, that he was surprised by Qi Tian finding him a good daughter-in-law.

Instead, he found that Qi Tian's new girlfriend suited his taste very well and was perfect for relieving his stress.

Despite Qi Dongliang being one of the top business magnates of Yang City, looking impressive and striking, he also bore immense pressure.

Qi Dongliang had only one way to vent the huge pressure from business, and that was to dominate submissives.

Now, with many rifts developing in cooperation with Yin Qianyue's family, his pressure had markedly increased.

At this time, he urgently needed a female servant to help release some of his continuously accumulating stress.

Wang Fei was completely immersed in happiness at this moment; she had never dreamed she could achieve her desires so quickly.

Moreover, the chairman seemed to not even dislike the way he looked at her.

As long as Chairman Qi Dongliang nodded his approval, her marriage into a wealthy family would be virtually secured!

At this moment, Wang Fei was quite nervous.

Although she had already won over Qi Tian, she was still unsure about getting past Chairman Qi Dongliang.

Who knew that at this moment, Qi Dongliang would also speak up.

"You and Xiao Tian try to get along for a month, and if there are no problems, you two should get married quickly next month, which would bring some joy to the corporation."

Chapter 519: Why Don't You Come to Find Me

Qi Dongliang's words nearly made Wang Fei faint with happiness!

She had achieved her goal, and as long as she could withstand the final month's test, she would officially marry into a wealthy family and become a noble lady!

However, Wang Fei didn't realize that she wasn't stepping into heaven but into an extremely terrifying hell.

The weekend break quickly came to an end.

By the end of the weekend, Su Fan hadn't received any messages from Chen Hanqing.

But he wasn't in a hurry, and on the workday, he went to the hospital for work with Bai Man as usual.

By now, his reputation at the hospital had grown very quickly.

Almost all the doctors in the hospital greeted him with a smile on their faces when they saw him.

After arriving at the hospital, Su Fan went to his office.

Having become the deputy chief physician of the emergency department, he now had his own office, where he would carry out his duties from then on.

Shortly after he entered his office, Liu Qing arrived.

Seeing him, Liu Qing couldn't help but say with a bit of resentment, "Why didn't you come to find me?"

Su Fan chuckled, "What for?"

Liu Qing raised her eyebrows, "To do what we used to do, of course."

"The work at the hospital is relatively relaxed these days, and there shouldn't be any emergencies that require the personal intervention of the deputy chief physician."

Hearing her say this, Su Fan nodded and then said, "Isn't it the same with you coming to find me?"

Liu Qing glared at Su Fan, "How is it the same? It's like you're saying without you, there would be no men for me."

"Do you believe that there is a bunch of male doctors in the hospital who want to get with me?"

Su Fan, of course, nodded his head, and as he did, he also stood up and walked towards Liu Qing.

Liu Qing couldn't help but feel a bit scared, "What are you doing?"

She wasn't in heat, needing to be taken by Su Fan.

Actually, she was just too bored and wanted to have a chat with Su Fan.

But seeing the way Su Fan was looking at her, like a hungry tiger eyeing a lamb, how could she not know what he wanted to do right now?

Su Fan walked up to Liu Qing and picked her up.

Liu Qing's face flushed red, "Hey, stop fooling around; it's only the first workday of the week."

"I'm just bored being alone and came to chat with you for a bit."

"Let's just talk today, getting intimate every day can get tiring."

As if Su Fan would chat with this frivolous female doctor?

His rough hands directly caressed Liu Qing's tender and perky buttocks.

Liu Qing was wearing a pair of silky tights, which felt incredibly smooth and pleasant to touch.

Thinking about the time at Wang Fei's house, when he had held Wang Fei and taken her on a roller-coaster ride, sending her to peak after peak...

Su Fan thought about letting Liu Qing also experience his prowess.

Liu Qing, of course, was frightened, "Xiao Fan, stop it, today Director Zhang might come to talk to me about work."

"You can wait until after Director Zhang leaves, don't do it now."

Liu Qing had initially intended to just chat with Su Fan and tease him a bit.

Little did she expect to literally play with fire, as now Su Fan insisted on having his way with her.

She could only negotiate with Su Fan to wait until after Zhang Haitao talked to her, then she would give in to Su Fan, but Su Fan simply wouldn't listen.

As a painful expression surfaced on Liu Qing's face, an unprecedented sense of fullness suddenly overwhelmed her heart.

At that moment, Liu Qing couldn't help but convulse, almost passing out.

It was a feeling that was slightly painful, yet so pleasurable that it was overwhelming.

She couldn't understand what had happened to Su Fan.

All she felt was that Su Fan seemed to become more capable every time they hadn't seen each other for a while.

Chapter 520: The Beginning of the Nightmare

When Su Fan began picking on Liu Qing, Wang Fei's nightmare also began.

More precisely, her nightmare had started on her first day at Qi Mansion!

Nobody could have imagined that Qi Dongliang, the Chairman of Baiwei Pharmaceutical, was such a dark person.

On her first day at Qi Mansion, she had already been taken advantage of by Qi Tian.

But taking advantage of Qi Tian being drunk as a skunk, she was called to Qi Dongliang's room, which marked the beginning of her nightmare.

That night, she ended up serving both Qi Tian and Qi Dongliang.

Wang Fei had indeed achieved her goal; she had already won over Qi Tian, and even climbed into Qi Dongliang's bed.

But she became somewhat dazed, she genuinely felt that she was quickly becoming a despicable bitch available to everyone.

She wanted to be a wealthy lady, not a shared woman or toy for Qi Dongliang and his son Qi Tian.

This, she had not told Qi Tian.

Because she knew that it was not yet time for Qi Tian to take charge of Baiwei Pharmaceutical.

If Qi Tian and Qi Dongliang had a fallout, she would be the only one thrown out.

Qi Tian was no match for Qi Dongliang now, even if he learned of her being with Qi Dongliang, Qi Tian would definitely not dare turn against him!

Qi Dongliang must have been certain of this, which is why he dared to treat her this way!

This was not at all what Wang Fei had imagined; the life of luxury she wanted was not supposed to be like this!

As Wang Fei sat somewhat dazed in her own office, Qi Dongliang's assistant had already arrived.

"Sister Fei, the chairman asks you to come to his office. He has a task to assign to you."

The chairman's secretary, a young girl, was said to be Qi Dongliang's niece.

But Wang Fei no longer cared what the relationship between the other party and Qi Dongliang was.

All she felt now was fear; she did not know what kinds of torments Qi Dongliang would use on her in his office.

Wang Fei soon arrived at Qi Dongliang's office door, and despite the turmoil in her heart, she still spoke, "Chairman, I am here."

Behind the desk, Qi Dongliang nodded and said warmly, "Close the door and come over."

Upon hearing this, Wang Fei naturally closed the door and walked towards Qi Dongliang.

At that moment, Qi Dongliang was watching a video.

As Wang Fei walked over, she also became somewhat curious about what Qi Dongliang was watching.

When she came to stand beside Qi Dongliang, her heart plummeted to the abyss.

She had never imagined that Qi Dongliang's heart could be so limitlessly depraved.

At this moment, Qi Dongliang was watching a video of her and Qi Tian in combat.

Although Qi Tian's vital essence was not of quality, his body wasn't so frail that he could not move.

At some point, Qi Dongliang had installed surveillance devices in Qi Tian's bedroom, and he had recorded a complete video of Qi Tian brutally using her.

As Wang Fei was feeling complex, sorrow in her heart, while flushing intensely, Qi Dongliang said:

"Little Wang, sit down and watch too."

As he spoke, Qi Dongliang pulled Wang Fei into his embrace.

His large hands, while watching Wang Fei's performance on the screen, also found her breasts which he had played with at home not long ago, and he began kneading them.

Wang Fei's feelings at that moment were extremely complex.

She had originally wanted to be the Hunter, but she had now realized that she had unwittingly become Qi Dongliang's prey.
