

Temptation 56

Chapter 56: Who Uses Who Gets Confused

Bent over, Liu Ye panicked under Su Fan's thrust.

This damned Su Fan.

Working and still having the mind to chat, isn't he too bold?

"Oh, stretch out a bit, Medicine God, this is health exercise!"

Su Fan responded to the other person.

"Health exercise, can you teach me?"

"With Divine Doctor Su's medical skills so impressive, this exercise must be awesome. Can you teach me too when you're free?"

"I want to learn too."

Several young nurses got excited.

Su Fan looked at the young nurses

All of them looked pretty good.

Especially one who was about five foot seven with very long legs, absolutely thrilling.

"Sure, next time, I can teach each of you individually."

While speaking, Su Fan thrust even harder.

He imagined all these girls for a moment.

As if Liu Ye beneath him turned into these young ladies, one after the other...

"What are you doing, don't you have work?"

The head nurse shouted.

The young nurses hurriedly ran off.

"Divine Doctor Su, remember you must teach us this health exercise, okay."

"Giggle giggle."

After the nurses left, Liu Ye couldn't take it anymore.

"You bad boy, you... do you also want to do this kind of exercise with them?"

Liu Ye said through clenched teeth, legs going weak.

"Sister Liu, I was just teasing them,"

"My heart only has you, don't move, don't move, I'm almost done."

Su Fan closed his eyes, lost in the moment.

"Ah..."

More than ten minutes later.

Su Fan pulled out, spraying over Liu Ye's tempting buttocks.

"You bad person."

Liu Ye completely collapsed and lay on the ground.

After a short rest, she quickly dressed, fearing someone would come by.

"You're too daring. Don't come to the hospital anymore. If you want, come home with me, and we can do anything you want."

Liu Ye grew more infatuated with Su Fan's tool.

That treasure, whoever used it got confounded.

"Okay, Sister, you said it, when the time comes, I'll really let loose."

Thinking about Su Fan's craziness in the morning, Liu Ye panicked a bit.

"Well, take it easy then, but as long as you're happy, sister can handle it."

"How are you feeling now?"

Liu Ye was still somewhat worried about Su Fan's body.

Su Fan said with a smile.

"Thanks to Sister's treatment, I've completely recovered, but I think I should consolidate it a bit."

Liu Ye of course knew what Su Fan meant by consolidating,

Liu Ye said with a blushing face.

"You're really strong, then come home with me tonight, I live alone."

Su Fan's imagination started running wild.

But he quickly thought of something and shook his head.

"Not tonight, maybe another time."

Liu Ye immediately felt disappointed.

"What, got another date?"

Su Fan immediately denied it.

"Sister, I promise, I've only been with you. But I'm staying at a relative's place, just came to the city, staying out all night wouldn't be good."

"That's fine then."

Hearing this, Liu Ye nodded.

"Sister doesn't want you to overexert your body. Going wild when you're young isn't good as you get older. Sister hopes for something long-lasting."

Liu Ye was now bold and direct talking with Su Fan.

"However."

At this, she changed her tone.

"Your sister isn't that boring. I know I'm much older than you, getting married is impossible, and, sister is also a believer in not marrying, so if you want to date a girlfriend, sister won't be mad, maybe I could introduce someone your age."

"As long as you have sister in your heart, and treat sister well, that's enough."

Su Fan felt delighted inside,

Things were good with his relationship.

"What's this, Sister Liu, are you trying to pimp me out?"

"Dream on."

Liu Ye laughed as she left the premises.

Su Fan also returned to his office.

Liu Ye was truly beautiful, Su Fan was still savoring the taste of their recent encounter.

Suddenly his phone vibrated.

It was a call from Wang Fei.

Oh, another treat in store.

Su Fan quickly answered the call.
