

Temptation 571

Chapter 571: All Bark and No Bite

Liu Qing, upon hearing Su Fan's explanation, could only reluctantly accept it.

In her view, Su Fan hadn't simply resuscitated someone from shock, but had truly brought them back from the dead.

After taking a sip of water, Su Fan also curiously asked, "What's with these college students drowning en masse?"

He had been busy saving lives in the emergency room and wasn't very clear about the other details.

He was right to ask Liu Qing about this.

While he was in the emergency room saving lives, Liu Qing had taken the time to find out what had happened.

"The person you saved is an art teacher. You already know her name, Yan Danxuan"

"She's quite famous in our Yang City."

"Her paintings often win awards at provincial and national competitions, and she's even received international recognition."

"This time, some students from the art academy went boating on Yangcheng Lake."

"But when their boat reached a remote area of the lake, it suddenly capsized."

"Several students fell into the lake."

"Dan Xuan was painting nearby and, seeing what happened, went to rescue them."

"She managed to save one student, but ran out of strength the next time she went into the water and that's when the accident occurred."

At this point, Liu Qing's expression, as she looked at Su Fan, gained a few more shades of respect before she continued.

"The emergency call was answered by a doctor from the Second City Hospital."

"When the ambulance from Second City Hospital arrived, they confirmed that Yan Danxuan and the others showed no signs of life."

"Because your reputation precedes you, with several miraculous revivals to your credit,"

"the family clung to their last hope and came to the affiliated hospital."

"Little did they expect, you actually managed to save Dan Xuan."

After finishing, Liu Qing saw Su Fan nod. He hadn't known until now that the accident had been so serious.

After discussing Yan Danxuan's situation, Liu Qing closed the office door.

Su Fan looked at her and couldn't help but smile inwardly.

In the past, when he very much wanted to thoroughly explore Liu Qing, she would beg for mercy.

These days, he had been directing most of his attention towards Bai Man and Su Ya, and Liu Qing felt lonely again.

But now that all matters had been dealt with, and seeing as Liu Qing felt lonely, he didn't mind helping to relieve her loneliness.

He didn't wait for Liu Qing to say anything, nor did he wait for any other reaction; he simply lifted one of her legs.

Of course, Liu Qing found it difficult to stand on one leg while maintaining her balance, so she had no choice but to wrap her arms around Su Fan.

Su Fan saw the ripples in Liu Qing's peach-blossom eyes but didn't hurry.

When Liu Qing saw Su Fan's intense action, she thought she was about to face a terrifying charge.

Unexpectedly, Su Fan was all thunder and no rain.

After lifting one of her legs, Su Fan didn't make any further moves.

This made Liu Qing blurt out in her impatience, "Xiao Fan, keep going."

But Su Fan just laughed and said, "Sister Liu, keep going with what?"

Liu Qing threw Su Fan a coquettishly angry glance and said, "You little rascal, what do you think?"

Feigning ignorance, Su Fan replied with a smile, "Sister Liu, what are you talking about?"

Liu Qing was completely helpless and could only whisper in Su Fan's ear, "Take me fiercely!"

Hearing this, Su Fan, of course, was not going to be courteous with Liu Qing.

But having been teased by him, Liu Qing was now determined to get her own back.

As someone with experience, Liu Qing knew all too well that a man's flame, once kindled, would be unstoppable, like a wildfire raging across prairies.

As Su Fan lifted Liu Qing's skirt, she raised her hand to cover her secret peach garden, saying at the same time, "Sister doesn't want it now. Let's wait till next time."

Su Fan gave a wry smile, "Sister Liu, stop joking. If someone comes in later, we'll lose our chance."

Chapter 572: Take a Break

Liu Qing snorted lightly and said, "If there's no chance now, then next time, you've played before, it won't hurt missing once or twice."

At that moment, Su Fan was enveloped in flames of passion, hardly in the mood to say much.

He pressed Liu Qing against the wall, and then his thrust was like a dragon, piercing straight into the blossom.

Although Liu Qing was often explored by Su Fan, as Su Fan's strength increased, so did his physical robustness and his own dragon veins.

His thrust, fierce as a dragon, almost made Liu Qing scream out in shock.

Standing on one leg, Liu Qing's leg went weak, and she nearly fell.

But Su Fan, holding her waist, didn't let her fall.

Instead, her near fall made their bodies fit even more tightly together.

Liu Qing could only raise her hand to cover her mouth.

If she hadn't, she would have definitely screamed aloud.

Su Fan always gave her an incredibly strong sensation, and every once in a while, Su Fan's assets seemed to grow even stronger.

What scared Liu Qing even more was that Su Fan was now only using sixty percent of his power and had already reached the limit.

If Su Fan used seventy or even eighty percent, what would happen? Would he pierce through her completely?

Su Fan didn't know what Liu Qing was thinking; at the moment, he was just moving gently.

It wasn't that he didn't want to launch a fierce assault like a tempest, but the path was perilous, hard to traverse with a storm's fury.

He could only continue to explore, making the path clear and unobstructed, to perform better.

While Su Fan and Liu Qing were in the midst of fierce battle, Yan Danxuan was already in a hospital room, receiving visitors.

Her body had actually already recovered.

Su Fan had used a lot of his True Qi to revive her.

All that True Qi had nourished Yan Danxuan's physique.

However, Yan Danxuan continued to stay in the hospital to stabilize her emotions, which was not a bad thing.

At this point, Yan Danxuan had just finished hearing from others about her entire process of drowning and her rescue.

The more Yan Danxuan thought about it, the more incredible she felt that she was still alive!

After all, she had been diagnosed by a doctor as having lost all vital signs completely. If not for Su Fan, she would have had no chance of continuing to live!

This made Yan Danxuan feel extremely grateful to Su Fan.

It was Su Fan who had given her the chance to continue living.

Her dream was to become a world-renowned painter, and on her path to chasing her dream, she really didn't want to just fall.

After thinking it over, she decided to find a time to properly thank Su Fan.

As the visitors for Yan Danxuan gradually left the hospital room, Yan Danxuan also began to take a light nap, feeling slightly tired.

Today's events had been too much, leaving her still somewhat traumatized and also extremely exhausted.

As Yan Danxuan began to rest, in Su Fan's office, his battle with Liu Qing had also entered a second phase.

Liu Qing, whose leg had initially been lifted by Su Fan, was now carried onto the office desk.

Initially, Liu Qing had sought out Su Fan to alleviate her loneliness.

But at this moment, she just wanted to rest for a while.

She immediately spoke to Su Fan, "Xiao Fan, let sister Liu rest for a while... ah!"

Liu Qing had not finished speaking when Su Fan launched another charge.

This made it impossible for her to continue her sentence.

Previously, when Su Fan was saving someone, he had used a lot of his Tai Chi True Qi; now, as he was joining with Liu Qing, the True Qi he had lost was continually replenished.

Gradually, he had returned to his peak condition.

While Su Fan was still fiercely driving on, suddenly a knock on the door came from outside his office.

Hearing the knocking, both Su Fan and Liu Qing were startled!

Given the current situation, it was obviously impossible to open the door.

Even if he and Liu Qing quickly straightened their clothes, there was still a unique scent from hormones lingering in his office.

Chapter 573: Yan Henglong's Daughter

Liu Qing immediately became extremely anxious; she had not expected someone to seek Su Fan at this time.

It must be known that Su Fan was no longer just an ordinary doctor, but now the deputy director doctor of the emergency department.

Generally, without something very significant, there was obviously no need for Su Fan to be called into action.

Su Fan calmed himself and then asked, "What's the matter?"

Immediately, the voice of a young doctor came from outside the room.

"Deputy Director Su, Mr. Yan Henglong has come to see you for treatment," the voice said.

Upon hearing it was this matter, Su Fan couldn't help but breathe a sigh of relief.

He said right away, "I understand, I'll be there in a moment."

Hearing his response, the young doctor outside immediately said, "All right, Deputy Director Su, I'll go and inform Mr. Yan Henglong."

After the person left, Su Fan thought to himself that Yan Henglong had not come at a good time.

However, Yan Henglong did not reside in Yang City but in Xi Jing City.

He could only treat Yan Henglong when he came to find him, not whenever he had time to conveniently give Yan Henglong treatment.

Liu Qing also heaved a long sigh of relief and said to Su Fan, "Xiao Fan, you should hurry and go treat Mr. Yan Henglong."

She had indeed been given quite a runaround by Su Fan this time, to the point of her legs feeling weak.

But her pretty face suddenly changed because in this situation, Su Fan did not stop immediately to treat Yan Henglong but instead launched a final, fierce assault on her.

Even though Liu Qing covered her mouth with her hand, she couldn't help but let out pained cries from time to time.

Fortunately, Su Fan's office was not located on the main corridor of the hospital, otherwise if doctors passed by, they would definitely hear the commotion inside the room!

After who knows how many relentless charges, Su Fan finally released completely.

Once he felt completely refreshed and renewed in spirit, Liu Qing was thoroughly spent, slumped over the desk, no longer wishing to move even slightly.

As Su Fan straightened his clothes, she could only watch him with a resentful gaze.

Seeing Liu Qing's resentful eyes, Su Fan could only laugh and say, "Sister Liu, get up and straighten yourself out."

Liu Qing replied irritably, "You could be a bit gentler, you know. If people didn't know better, they might think you're trying to kill me."

As she spoke, she struggled to get up and began fixing her clothes.

Despite having been thoroughly exhausted by Su Fan today, she had also experienced extreme pleasure.

Every time she was with Su Fan, he never disappointed her, always taking her to the clouds, reaching one peak after another, in a continuous stream.

The only thing that troubled her was that Su Fan was too vigorous, a bit too strong.

When Su Fan was fully engrossed, he was like a fierce lion, making Liu Qing worry several times that she couldn't handle it.

Fortunately, just like usual, she hadn't been overwhelmed but had received great pleasure.

After Liu Qing adjusted her clothes, Su Fan also tidied himself up, then the two of them left the office together.

When Su Fan arrived at Yan Henglong's ward, he was somewhat surprised.

Because at that moment, Yan Henglong was hugging Dan Xuan and sobbing.

Su Fan took a closer look at the two, and suddenly noticed that Dan Xuan's appearance resembled Yan Henglong's quite a bit.

The two, who had been crying, quickly noticed Su Fan as well.

Seeing Su Fan, Yan Henglong immediately bowed deeply to him.

"Divine Doctor Su, thank you for saving my daughter's life!" Yan Henglong said.

Su Fan answered calmly, "It's my duty to save lives and heal the wounded."

He had not expected that Dan Xuan was Yan Henglong's daughter.

But on reflection, it made sense—without a well-off family background, how could one engage in art?

An artistic career is extremely expensive; it requires large investments in the early stages before any returns can be seen later on.

At that time, Yan Henglong made a gesture inviting Su Fan to speak elsewhere.

Understanding Yan Henglong's intention, Su Fan nodded slightly and left with Yan Henglong.

Chapter 574: The Legal Master's Older Sister

Upon entering the corridor, Yan Henglong spoke again.

"Divine Doctor Su, I am truly grateful to you. You not only saved me but also my beloved daughter."

"Dan Xuan is the daughter of my ex-wife and me. We had some conflicts back then."

"In a fit of anger, we got divorced."

"Since then, we have both led separate lives."

"Although I have always provided for their living expenses, I was too busy building my career in those years and neglected them."

"By the time my business began to take shape, my ex-wife unfortunately passed away in an accident."

At this point, a sigh of regret and sorrow once again appeared on Yan Henglong's face.

However, he quickly adjusted his emotions and continued to speak to Su Fan, "Divine Doctor Su, I am really very thankful to you."

"Your company has now been registered and opened for business. Is there anything that I could help you with? You must speak up. I would feel terrible not showing proper gratitude."

Initially, Su Fan did not want Yan Henglong to express any gratitude towards him.

He and Yan Henglong became acquainted through an incident at Hailin Group.

Since then, he had already benefited from Yan Henglong.

Moreover, he had saved the person because Dan Xuan could still be helped, not because she was Yan Henglong's daughter.

But upon thinking about Baiwei Pharmaceutical, he suddenly realized that his company was lacking a decent legal department.

More precisely, he was missing a legal expert by his side.

With that thought, Su Fan immediately said, "Director Yan, do you happen to know any legal experts you could recommend to me?"

Upon hearing this, Yan Henglong hesitated.

It wasn't for any other reason but because he did indeed have a Master of Laws he could recommend to Su Fan's company.

However, that law graduate happened to be his younger daughter, Yan Qian.

Yan Qian, the daughter with his current wife, had just graduated and previously interned in the legal department of Longheng Group. Her abilities were unquestionably sound.

Yan Henglong had originally planned for Yan Qian to remain at Longheng Group.

But upon witnessing Su Fan's incredible potential, he hesitated over whether to let his younger daughter interact with Su Fan.

Su Fan was the president of Yang City Martial Arts Association and possessed remarkable medical skills.

If Su Fan could become his son-in-law, his family's influence would undoubtedly rise to the next level.

After serious contemplation, Yan Henglong said, "Divine Doctor Su, I do have a legal expert to recommend."

"My daughter Yan Qian is a Master of Laws and has just graduated."

"She interned at the legal department of Longheng Group for a while."

"Her abilities are definitely sound."

"What do you think about her working for Dawn Pharmaceutical Company?"

Su Fan was astonished; he did not expect Yan Henglong to offer his own daughter for the position.

He knew Yan Henglong well enough to know that he was not a man to make unfounded propositions.

If he said Yan Qian was competent, then she was indeed competent.

The only issue was that she was Yan Henglong's daughter, Dan Xuan's half-sister.

After pondering for a moment, Su Fan asked, "Is this appropriate?"

Yan Henglong smiled and said, "Divine Doctor Su, what's inappropriate about it?"

"Although your company is a startup, it has strong financial backing and tremendous potential. I am full of confidence in Divine Doctor Su."

"I would be too proud for my daughter to become a member of Divine Doctor Su's team to consider it inappropriate."

Indeed, Yan Henglong meant every word he said.

Since he had already said so, Su Fan, of course, would not refuse.

Chapter 575: Internal Archives

Su Fan thought to himself that when Yan Qian arrived, he would be able to show her those Baiwei Group documents.

The internal documents Chen Hanqing had stolen from Baiwei Group should be sufficient to send most of the senior executives to prison.

This matter had been thoroughly settled between Su Fan and Yan Henglong.

Afterwards, Su Fan also continued to treat Yan Henglong.

As soon as his treatment was over, Yan Qian came over.

Yan Qian was Yan Danxuan's half-sister from the same father, so naturally, their appearances had a few similarities.

She was younger than Yan Danxuan, but her attire was very mature and sophisticated.

If Yan Danxuan was the pure desire style of a mature woman, then she was the enchanting style of one.

Upon seeing Su Fan, Yan Qian adjusted her glasses and then gave him a deep bow.

"Divine Doctor Su, I sincerely thank you for saving my father and my sister."

Her relationship with Yan Danxuan was neither good nor bad.

She knew she had a sister like Yan Danxuan, but they had not had much interaction in the past.

Su Fan nodded and then said to Yan Qian, "I'll take you to the company to have a look in a while. If you're not comfortable, I'll take you back to Chairman Yan."

Yan Qian shook her head: "Divine Doctor Su, I have already familiarized myself with the basic situation of your company."

"I wholeheartedly agree with and am optimistic about your company's vision, and I'm willing to become part of your team."

"I have a master's degree in law and interned for six months in the legal department of Longheng Group. I can take charge of the company's legal matters."

Yan Qian's words were somewhat unexpected to Su Fan, but they also made him quite happy.

Once at the company, he would clearly be able to show those documents to Yan Qian.

After finishing the treatment for Yan Henglong, it was almost time for Su Fan to finish work.

When it was officially time to leave work, he took Yan Qian with him to Dawn Pharmaceutical Company.

At the entrance of the company, Yan Qian saw a rather interesting scene.

The security guard at Su Fan Company's door was just one person, and moreover, a monk clad in monk's robes.

Yan Qian asked curiously right away, "Divine Doctor Su, why is there only one security guard, and moreover, a monk?"

Su Fan said with a smile, "We'll continue to hire other security personnel in the future, but in general, having Jue Kong alone is enough."

In the midst of speaking, he also took Yan Qian to his office at Dawn Pharmaceutical Company.

In his office, Chen Hanqing had already printed out and organized all the documents he needed.

When Su Fan arrived in the office, he immediately handed a stack of documents to Yan Qian and said, "First, take a look at these documents and make a basic judgment."

Yan Qian did not know what these were, but she nodded and took the documents to carefully examine them.

After looking through them for a while, her eyes widened in shock.

Although she had previously lived in Xijing, she had also heard about Baiwei Pharmaceutical in Yang City.

Yan Qian even initially suspected whether Su Fan had given her the wrong documents.

But after careful scrutiny, she realized these indeed were internal files and various data of Baiwei Group.

Although she did not know how Su Fan had obtained these files, after Yan Qian finished reading them from beginning to end, she sighed and said,

"I never expected that Baiwei Pharmaceutical would present one set of principles upfront and another behind the scenes."

"If this file gets handed to the relevant authorities, all related executives of Baiwei Group will have to go in for questioning."

Hearing Yan Qian say this, Su Fan was naturally overjoyed.

On the one hand, he was pleased that he had taken down a strong competitor without effort.

On the other hand, he had crushed the grand enterprise that Wang Fei had long coveted with a single slap.

And the last point was that Baiwei Pharmaceutical owned a large number of advanced pharmaceutical plants.

If Baiwei Pharmaceutical went down, he could obviously acquire the company at a very small cost, owning these advanced pharmaceutical plants!

Su Fan then asked right away, "Once Baiwei Pharmaceutical runs into trouble, can I acquire this enterprise at a relatively small cost?"

Chapter 576 - 576 Rest Day Arrives

Yan Qian thought about it and then nodded her head.

The plan was entirely feasible and profitable.

However, she was curious: how had Su Fan obtained these internal documents from the Baiwei Group?

These documents, after all, were probably not accessible to many within the Baiwei Group.

She could think of two possibilities: one being that some executive at Baiwei Pharmaceutical was bribed by Su Fan.

But this probability was small, because the clandestine operations at Baiwei Pharmaceutical were very detrimental, and the consequences to bear were very severe.

No matter how much Su Fan offered, the executives of Baiwei Pharmaceutical would not likely jeopardize their company.

The other possibility was that Su Fan's company had a very skilled hacker who had directly breached the defense system of Baiwei Pharmaceutical and stolen the documents.

However, as she had only just joined the company, it was clearly not convenient for her to ask these questions.

While Yan Qian was pondering these things, Su Fan spoke again, "Would you like to live near the company or just make do in the company's living quarters?"

Yan Qian replied with a smiling tone, "I'm not so delicate, and commuting is quite troublesome. I'll stay in the company's living quarters."

Su Fan nodded and then said, "Okay, then you'll stay on the third floor."

The living quarters of Dawn Pharmaceutical Company were adjacent to the office building and consisted of six floors, with two apartments on each floor.

Su Fan had arranged for Jue Kong and his computer expert Chen Hanqing to stay on the first floor.

However, Jue Kong always stayed in the guard room, and Chen Hanqing liked to sleep in the computer room, together with the computers and other network equipment.

Of course, Su Fan was not going to strictly require them to live in a specific place.

The fourth floor was where Su Ya and Su Xiaoya lived, while Shen He and Wang Xiaoxiao stayed on the fifth floor.

However, Shen He and Wang Xiaoxiao occupied only one apartment; the apartment across from them was empty.

Only Su Fan lived on the sixth floor of the living quarters.

Of course, Yan Qian had no objections to being arranged to live in the apartment on the third floor.

Although she was the daughter of Yan Henglong, she was not picky about her living conditions.

She was not completely indifferent about her lifestyle, but she knew moderation, what to pay attention to, and what not to bother about at times.

After arranging for Yan Qian to stay at the company, Su Fan could not stay overnight at the company himself.

He had been with Su Ya the previous evening, and today he needed to go back to accompany Bai Man.

Moreover, after one more day of work, it would be the weekend.

This weekend, he, Bai Man, and Wang Fei were supposed to have dinner together.

Bai Man knew Su Fan was an entrepreneur and that he was doing well in business.

Thus though she also wanted Su Fan to accompany her, she did not insist on it.

It was fine if Su Fan could come to her, and she did not oppose if he had to stay overnight at the company.

After all, the next day, both of them had to go to the hospital for work, where they would see each other again.

Because they had to work at the hospital the next day, Su Fan's return to Bai Man's place did not lead to a night of battle.

After making love to Bai Man twice, they embraced each other and fell asleep.

The last day of work before the weekend was relatively calm.

Most of the time, it was like that at the hospital.

Although various issues might arise, generally, they did not require his personal involvement as an emergency department deputy director who was also a well-known Divine Doctor in the city.

With the workday over, the long-awaited weekend arrived.

Ever since he had found out that Wang Fei had used him, betrayed him, and sold him out, it had been a while since Su Fan had seen Wang Fei.

The place for their dinner this time was a private room in a restaurant.

Su Fan had originally planned to go there with Bai Man, but she had a last-minute emergency, so he had to go there alone.

Chapter 577: The Price of Betrayal

In the private room of the hotel, Wang Fei, dressed in a champagne-colored dress, had already been waiting for a while.

Seeing that only Su Fan had come, Wang Fei was slightly startled, then asked, "Su Fan, where is Bai Man?"

Su Fan spoke in an even tone, "Sister Man has some urgent matters and will only be able to come about an hour later."

Upon hearing this, Wang Fei's heart immediately started pounding.

She quickly closed the door of the room and, under Su Fan's surprised gaze, knelt down in front of him.

"Su Fan, please save me!"

Su Fan did not understand why Wang Fei was making such a scene.

Ever since he found out that Wang Fei had used him and betrayed him, he had undergone a significant change of heart.

But even after that, he had ceased having Chen Hanqing monitor Wang Fei's life.

Otherwise, he would have known how terrible Wang Fei's life had been during this period.

Su Fan was still angry at Wang Fei.

Yet while he was angry, he also remembered the good things Wang Fei had done for him and the joy she had brought him.

Moreover, he had already decided on revenge against Wang Fei, intending to make her his female slave, his bitch.

Under such circumstances, he naturally wouldn't just kick her aside.

As Wang Fei cried her tears like raindrops on pear blossoms, Su Fan did not help her up, nor did he even come close to her.

After being slightly moved, he sat back down and coldly asked, "Wang Fei, why did you tell Qi Tian about my situation with Yin Qianyue? Why did you betray me?"

"And when Qi Tian's essence of life failed to impregnate you..."

"Why did you not speak the truth when you sought to borrow my seed?"

"Why did you use me, betray me, and now somehow strangely ask me to save you?"

To Wang Fei, Su Fan's words were like a thunderbolt from the blue.

Because Wang Fei had never thought that Su Fan would know about these things!

Yet Su Fan did know, and he was spot on.

This left Wang Fei unable to utter a word, even though she had prepared her excuses.

After a long while, Wang Fei, while silently crying, spoke with a sobbing voice, "I'm sorry... I shouldn't have done that."

Su Fan, however, shook his head, "Wang Fei, the scars in my heart are forever, and I don't wish to mend them."

Having said that, he continued, "Wang Fei, the phone I am currently using, you bought for me when I first came to the city."

"I remember how good you were to me."

"Although I don't know what trouble you've encountered, since you've come to me, you must know some of my background."

"Wang Fei, considering the care you once took of me, no matter the motive behind it..."

"Even though I am far more successful now, I won't make things difficult for you."

"However, if you want my help, I'm sorry, the hurt you caused me prevents me from lending you a hand."

"Unless you are willing to pay a sufficient price to mend this rift in my heart."

Su Fan's words left Wang Fei feeling as if she had fallen into an ice cave, yet seeing a glimmer of hope.

She could feel Su Fan's anger as well as his strong position.

This was no surprise as his status as president of the Yang City Martial Arts Association was extremely prestigious.

Not only that, Su Fan now also owned a company with a registered capital of one billion and a paid-in capital of two hundred million.

In such a situation, Su Fan's confidence was naturally very solid.

What Wang Fei didn't know was that Su Fan also had a stronghold over Baiwei Pharmaceutical.

He could crush the Qi family of Baiwei Pharmaceutical with a simple slap, no matter how he maneuvered now.

After hesitating for a moment, Wang Fei finally asked, "What do you want?"

Following her question, Su Fan also stated his demands.

"Wang Fei, although I don't know what problems you've encountered, if you want to mend the rift between us, to have my help..."

"There is only one way, you become my female slave, my bitch, for life. Are you willing?"

Chapter 578: The Price of Dealing

Su Fan's words completely stunned Wang Fei.

Wang Fei had considered many possibilities, but she had never imagined that Su Fan would treat her this way.

As Wang Fei was utterly frozen in shock, Su Fan did not rush her.

Although he did not know what problem Wang Fei encountered that made her seek his help, he now held the lifeline of Baiwei Pharmaceutical in his hands.

If he could slap Baiwei Pharmaceutical to the ground, then naturally, he had plenty of ways to retaliate against Wang Fei, who relied on the Qi family and Baiwei Pharmaceutical.

Feeling extremely humiliated, Wang Fei stood frozen for a long time before tears unintentionally flowed down her face.

Even though everything was self-inflicted, she still felt incredibly humiliated.

She stayed in the Qi Mansion, merely a tool for release for the Qi father and son.

She wanted to seek Su Fan's help to escape the bitter sea, but Su Fan wanted her to become his female slave, even his bitch.

She didn't know whether this was salvation or just moving from one abyss into another?

In that moment, the various tortures she suffered from the Qi father and son flashed through her mind.

The countless images that drove her to the brink of collapse kept stirring her heart.

In her heart, even a voice spoke to her, "Wang Fei, oh Wang Fei, will you continue to stay with the Qi family and be ravaged, or seek forgiveness?"

Towards Su Fan, she indeed owed an apology.

Putting herself in his shoes, she should have understood how severe the consequences were when Qi Tian tried to catch Su Fan and Yin Qianyue red-handed.

What if Su Fan was not a martial arts master and had really been caught by Qi Tian?

With the Qi family's influence in Yang City, even if Qi Tian didn't touch Yin Qianyue, he could have made Su Fan's life miserable!

Luckily, Su Fan already possessed considerable strength at that time, so when Qi Tian tried to catch Yin Qianyue, he found nothing.

Still, Wang Fei needed to pay a price.

Now, it was time for her to pay that price.

Wang Fei, while crying, tearfully spoke to Su Fan, "Xiao Fan, I am sorry, I should not have used you, sold you out, betrayed you. I am willing to be your bitch for life to atone."

After uttering these words, Wang Fei seemed no longer to have the strength to speak; she just knelt on the ground, crying incessantly.

After she agreed to this, Su Fan spoke indifferently, "Come here."

Hearing his words, Wang Fei struggled to stand up.

But she was too injured and somewhat broken, unable to even stand.

Yet Su Fan had no intention of showing pity; with his current abilities, he could make Wang Fei live the rest of her life with all the comforts of a true wealthy matron.

However, in private, he still wanted to teach Wang Fei a lesson. These were the bitter fruits that Wang Fei had sown for herself, and she needed to finish them.

Thinking this, Su Fan quickly spoke again, "Crawl over here!"

Upon hearing his words, the little pearls in Wang Fei's eyes became like a string of beads broken from their thread.

Enduring immense pain and humiliation, she barely supported herself up and still crawled towards Su Fan.

She had made her choice, which was to trust that Su Fan could extract her from the quagmire of the Qi family.

With Su Fan, she might also have to endure some humiliation and torture, as well as wanton play.

But with the Qi father and son, her spirit was constantly on the verge of complete collapse.

In such circumstances, Su Fan obviously became her only choice.

But she did not know whether Su Fan could really pull her out of the Qi family's bitter sea.

This was something Su Fan was certainly capable of doing.

It's just that Wang Fei did not know it yet.

When she laboriously arrived in front of Su Fan and looked up, she was met with a familiar fury.

Su Fan did not give her a chance to speak but barbarically pried open her red lips and teeth and invaded directly.

Caught off guard, Wang Fei was left coughing incessantly.

Chapter 579: The Darkness of the Wealthy Families

A series of uncomfortable sensations were continuously flowing through Wang Fei's nerves.

Instinctively, she wanted to retreat, but not only was she unable to move back, her forehead was also embraced by Su Fan's hand.

Then came Su Fan's forceful thrust.

Wang Fei, despite already having suffered much at the hands of Qi Dongliang and his son, found that their assets were no match for Su Fan's.

Wang Fei could only feel that her throat was now filled to the brim.

Her lips and throat seemed to become a sheath for the spear, allowing the ferocious weapon to slide in with a snug fit.

This feeling, which Wang Fei had never experienced before, caused her both extreme discomfort and extreme pleasure.

A flood of strange pleasures continuously bombarded her nerves.

She instinctively wanted to dodge and retreat, but deep down, she actually craved this treatment from Su Fan.

She even faintly hoped that Su Fan could be more brutal, tormenting her to the point of screaming in agony.

This intense but pleasurable experience seemed to flip a switch within her.

Perhaps under Qi Dongliang's cultivation, she had unknowingly changed.

Wang Fei very quickly got what she asked for, as Su Fan embraced her forelock and launched a fierce onslaught.

With each movement, Su Fan gave it his all, causing Wang Fei to burst into tears.

But he did not fully release; after a bout of relentless pounding, he halted.

At the same time, his gaze turned to Wang Fei, "Wang Fei, now you can say what you wanted to ask me."

Upon hearing this, Wang Fei immediately tried to spit out the 'fierce dragon' and begin to earnestly discuss matters with Su Fan.

Who knew that at this moment, Su Fan would actually say, "Wang Fei, keep eating and talk."

After the recent events, Wang Fei now felt indifferent when she heard Su Fan speak like this.

Having something in her mouth made her uncomfortable, and it also made her speech unclear.

Wang Fei's words were unclear, but Su Fan understood them.

After listening to Wang Fei's experiences, he couldn't help but feel pity for her.

Wang Fei, Bai Man, and Yin Qianyue were all different; her background was very simple, she barely had any at all.

Working her way up to be a pharmaceutical representative at Baiwei Pharmaceutical was all through her own efforts.

Knowing how difficult it is for a person to strive, she was desperate to take a shortcut, to marry into a wealthy family and completely change her fate.

She just didn't realize that the world of the wealthy was not as glamorous as she had thought, but full of darkness.

When Wang Fei finished telling about her recent experiences, Su Fan felt a mix of hatred and pity for her.

He wouldn't change the things he was going to do to Wang Fei, but he could still help her escape the quagmire of the Qi family.

After recounting everything, Wang Fei looked at Su Fan nervously.

She knew that Su Fan was now of considerable worth and had acquired a certain social status.

But she didn't know if, under such circumstances, Su Fan had enough clout to wrestle with the Qi family of Baiwei Pharmaceutical.

Under Wang Fei's anxious gaze, Su Fan nodded and said, "You don't have to worry about the affairs of the Qi family at Baiwei Pharmaceutical anymore."

After that, Su Fan continued, "From now on, you just focus on being my bitch."

As he spoke, he withdrew his spear and picked Wang Fei up from the ground.

Wang Fei didn't know what Su Fan was planning to do, but she could only comply with him.

This time, having lifted Wang Fei, Su Fan didn't do anything to her but gave her a glass of water and wiped away her tears with a tissue.

But he was not really caring for Wang Fei; it was more like he was maintaining a precious toy of his.

Only, this toy was not just any object, but a living, breathing beautiful woman.

Chapter 580: The Secret Between Two People

Su Fan had Wang Fei drink a cup of warm water and wiped her tears before he became lost in thought.

In Yang City's pharmaceutical industry, there were three giants.

Baiwei Pharmaceutical's Qi family, Xinke Pharmaceutical's Yin family, and Lin's Pharmaceutical's Lin family.

Among them, Lin's Pharmaceutical, although involved in the pharmaceutical field, leaned more towards the raw materials of medicinal herbs.

Whether it was the raw materials for Chinese medicine, i.e., medicinal herbs, or the raw materials for Western medicine, i.e., some chemicals,

As for Xinke Pharmaceutical's Yin family, it belonged to Yin Qianyue's family.

Yin Qianyue's family focused on the development and contract manufacturing of Western medicine, mainly producing for foreign pharmaceutical leaders.

Their family-developed products did not receive very good market feedback.

Baiwei Pharmaceutical's Qi family evidently dealt with all kinds of popular health supplements and medicines.

However, behind the scenes, Baiwei Pharmaceutical was involved in many unregulated productions and was also producing some chemically banned substances.

Only Qi Dongliang and a few other top executives at Baiwei Pharmaceutical knew about these matters.

Su Fan was now thinking about whether to handle Baiwei Pharmaceutical's issues openly or covertly?

After careful thought, he felt that this matter could be discussed with Yin Qian Yue.

The products of Baiwei Pharmaceutical, his company and the Yin Qian Yue family could completely take what they needed from each other.

This way, after Baiwei Pharmaceutical's downfall, he could acquire the desired factories and equipment at a smaller cost.

As for Baiwei Pharmaceutical's many channels, he did not need them.

The approach his company took was different from Baiwei Pharmaceutical's from the start, so those channels and many unnecessary resources were not worth buying.

Although his company was comparatively well-capitalized, there was also no need to spend money on things that were completely unnecessary.

Thinking this, Su Fan immediately made a decision; he would deal with this matter when Bai Man came to dine with Wang Fei.

While Su Fan was thinking, his hand naturally slipped inside Wang Fei's neckline.

If it had been before, Wang Fei might have felt uncomfortable and embarrassed.

But the humiliation and torment of the past few days had made her indifferent to such things.

Wang Fei's firm and full bosom constantly changed shape in Su Fan's hand, apparently becoming a habit while he thought.

Though he felt comfortable, Wang Fei's cheeks flushed and her pretty face turned red, almost as if she had a fever.

Fortunately, knowing that Bai Man would arrive soon, he did not continue to make things difficult for Wang Fei.

As he let go of Wang Fei, he also cautioned, "Our matter, only the two of us can know, understand?"

Wang Fei of course nodded. Even if Su Fan had not mentioned it, she would not have discussed such matters outwardly.

After they both adjusted their clothes, Bai Man soon arrived at the private room.

"Sorry for making you two wait, some issues at home held me up," she said.

Wang Fei's mood recovered quickly, perhaps because being with Bai Man made her feel secure. She was already smiling as she spoke, "No problem, it's a rest day anyway, so there's no rush to do anything."

Su Fan also nodded, as if he had not just harshly mistreated Wang Fei. Between him and Wang Fei, it was as if nothing had happened.

"Since Sister Man is here, I'll have the hotel serve the dishes."

After speaking, he went to notify the hotel staff to serve the food.

The three of them in the room didn't wait too long before the hotel's dishes were successively brought over.

At the dinner table, the three naturally enjoyed a harmonious meal.

The events that had transpired, both Su Fan and Wang Fei, displayed no unusual behavior.
