

Temptation 611

Chapter 611 - 611

Su Fan started the massage with Nalan Xue's shoulders.

But his peripheral sight couldn't resist falling on the soft peaks of Nalan Xue's bosom.

He even wondered if the stunning beauty was wearing 'pants silk' under her tight leather pants by imagining taking them off.

Nalan Xue seemed to notice the flitting glances from the corner of Su Fan's eyes and couldn't help but chuckle, "Xiaofan, are you thinking of doing something to Sister Xue?"

Of course, that was exactly what Su Fan was thinking, but such thoughts were not to be voiced aloud.

All he could do was feign ignorance: "Sister Xue, what are you talking about?"

Nalan Xue gave a flirtatious smile, then grabbed Su Fan's hands, saying, "Isn't this what you wanted?"

As she spoke, Nalan Xue had already placed his hands on her full and towering breasts.

The moment his palms touched down, Su Fan immediately knew, the exquisite beauty had come over without wearing a bra!

Aside from a thin cardigan and a T-shirt underneath, Nalan Xue wasn't wearing any other clothes.

Even through two layers of fabric, the fullness and softness of Nalan Xue's bosom were unmistakably conveyed into Su Fan's palms.

Su Fan did not remove his hands but began to massage and knead directly.

However, unlike his previous systematic approach to massaging Nalan Xue, this time he simply did whatever felt pleasurable.

Nalan Xue's delicate face, which could be marred by the slightest touch, turned rosy at this moment.

Not only that, she couldn't help but let out a wonderfully melodious sound from her throat.

"Mmm..." As Su Fan applied a bit more pressure with his hands, a soft moan escaped Nalan Xue's breath.

As Su Fan continued to apply pressure, varying the movements of his hands, a beautiful "ahh" resounded from her throat.

With eyes like blooming peaches, Nalan Xue looked at Su Fan with encouragement, "Xiaofan, you can put a bit more strength into your hands, Sister Xue doesn't actually like it too gentle."

Her intention was quite clear.

She favored rough and wild men, fierce and unyielding—not a weakling like Mayor Jiang Gao.

Recollecting his thoughts, Su Fan then spoke up, "Okay."

This time, Nalan Xue's full and round breasts were sometimes flattened into pancakes and sometimes turned into buns under Su Fan's manipulation, constantly kneaded and rounded.

Nalan Xue's pretty face revealed even more signs of joy.

Su Fan's techniques, after all, had been honed on many a woman's body, and he certainly knew how to maximize Nalan Xue's pleasure.

Thus, as he varied his techniques, Nalan Xue's breasts became extremely hot, with the cute cherries on top awakening, as if, becoming more resilient.

Nalan Xue originally intended to tease Su Fan, planning to refrain from letting him continue when he became infatuated and unable to extricate himself.

That way, she surely would have had Su Fan firmly in her grip.

But she had underestimated Su Fan's techniques. It wasn't she who had Su Fan under her thumb; rather, she was the one being thoroughly grasped by him.

Her current sensation was an indescribable pleasure.

If possible, she would have liked to enjoy Su Fan's massages and kneading anytime, anywhere.

After thinking for a moment, Nalan Xue couldn't help but say, "Xiaofan, go ahead and put your hand inside."

Su Fan's massages were certainly not just scratching the surface through her clothes, considering they were only two thin layers of fabric.

Yet Nalan Xue felt that she hadn't experienced the ultimate pleasure due to the barrier of those two layers.

If she hadn't said anything, that would have been it, but since she had made the suggestion herself, Su Fan certainly wouldn't be polite.

Chapter 612 - 612

The next moment, Su Fan's hands touched Nalan Xue's smooth and tender skin.

When he grasped the twin peaks, Nalan Xue indeed felt an even greater thrill.

Su Fan immediately abandoned his previous gentleness, and as soon as he touched them, the peaks began to rotate clockwise.

"Ouch!" Nalan Xue couldn't help but slap Su Fan's hand in pain.

Su Fan smiled and asked, "Sister Xue, you don't like this?"

Nalan Xue was about to blurt something out but then she thought about it and said, "It's not that I don't like it, it just feels a bit painful."

After saying this, she added, "You can be a bit gentler next time."

Su Fan nodded: "Okay."

Nalan Xue came over today mainly for three things.

The first thing, of course, was to seek Su Fan for treatment.

The second was to have Su Fan help alleviate her loneliness.

Jiang Gao might look presentable, but he was a sick man not really up to scratch. This wasn't to say that Jiang Gao always appeared very weak, rather that he had been too involved with too many 'rouged horses' before and was now incapable.

Normally, Jiang Gao gave off a sturdy impression and seemed quite vigorous.

But in reality, Jiang Gao's arsenal was often in an empty state.

In such circumstances, let alone keeping his delicate young wife, Nalan Xue, satisfied, she spent most of her days without a drop of 'dew'.

Moreover, Jiang Gao's work was extremely busy, which meant even less time spent with Nalan Xue.

Others envied Nalan Xue for having such a good husband, but they had no clue about her real feelings, which weren't much different from living like a widow.

Su Fan didn't know what Nalan Xue was thinking, but he had confirmed that Nalan Xue's outfit today was indeed 'silky beneath the trousers.'

At this moment, he had already seen the waistband of Nalan Xue's black pantyhose.

This type of black pantyhose, which Su Fan had seen Yin Qianyu wear before, was a seamless design, very sexy.

If one wore nothing under such black pantyhose, it created an even more alluring effect, like admiring a flower through the mist.

As Su Fan was thinking about all these things, Nalan Xue also began to talk about the third thing she came for today.

"Xiao Fan, are you familiar with Hongzhi Capital from Xijing?"

Su Fan nodded slightly. After all, he was now the president of a large company. He was quite clear about the major companies in Yang City and its sister city Xijing.

Yang City had its top ten well-known enterprises, and Xijing was roughly the same.

However, Yan Henglong's Longheng Group stood out alone in Xijing, with a larger scale and more substantial assets than other companies.

Su Fan didn't understand why Nalan Xue would suddenly mention Hongzhi Capital.

After pondering a bit, he asked Nalan Xue, "Sister Xue, what's the deal with Hongzhi Capital?"

Nalan Xue carefully phrased her words, then told Su Fan, "The president of Hongzhi Capital is very close to Qi Dongliang, of Baiwei Pharmaceutical."

"But for some reason, Hongzhi Capital hasn't invested in Qi Dongliang's company."

"I suspect that Hongzhi Capital has off-the-books investments in Qi Dongliang's company."

"Otherwise, Baiwei Pharmaceutical faced several major crises during its early days."

"Yet Qi Dongliang always seemed to manage to get investments from some channel."

"I suspect that Qi Dongliang has been getting money from Hongzhi Capital, but it's not recorded on the books."

Hearing this, Su Fan became curious, "Sister Xue, why are you so interested in Baiwei Pharmaceutical?"

Chapter 613 - 613

Nalan Xue didn't hide anything regarding this question, but directly said, "Because I was a shareholder of a rival company to Baiwei Pharmaceutical in my early years."

"Later, when that company couldn't compete with Baiwei Pharmaceutical, it went bankrupt and restructured, then pivoted."

"Since that time, I have paid some attention to Baiwei Pharmaceutical."

Su Fan had not expected that there was such a business story in the early years of Yang City's business world.

But he still didn't understand why Nalan Xue specifically brought up Hongzhi Capital to him.

Nalan Xue certainly understood the confusion in Su Fan's mind, though Su Fan also had a company of considerable size in Yang City.

However, Su Fan might not know much about business matters.

Because Su Fan's primary job was still a doctor, not an entrepreneur.

Nalan Xue immediately continued to speak, "The components of Hongzhi Capital are very complex."

"Its capital includes foreign investment, investment from inside and outside the province, as well as the indigenous capital from the Shen family, a well-established local influence in Xijing."

"As far as I know, this investment company is not so well-regulated."

"Especially its foreign investors, some of which are even infamous mercenary companies."

"Their past investment activities have also been less than regular."

"In investment activities, they have done some things that go beyond the scope of business."

With that said, Su Fan completely understood.

This Hongzhi Capital was not a rule-abiding investment firm, but rather had engaged in many inappropriate activities.

Not only that, Hongzhi Capital's President, Shen Hongzhi, had a very good relationship with Qi Dongliang, but Hongzhi Capital had no official investment in Baiwei Pharmaceutical.

These pieces of information, when viewed individually, might not seem problematic.

But putting all this information together, it definitely reveals some hidden issues.

Hongzhi Capital most likely had been making unofficial investments in the Baiwei Group.

Now, the Baiwei Group had collapsed due to their actions.

Everything originally owned by Baiwei Pharmaceutical was then divided between him and the Yin Qian Yue family.

If Hongzhi Capital had indeed funded Baiwei Pharmaceutical, and had invested a lot, then there was clearly animosity between him and Hongzhi Capital.

After all, with Qi Dongliang's death, Baiwei Pharmaceutical completely collapsed.

The previous investments of Hongzhi Capital in Baiwei Pharmaceutical had been completely wasted.

Thinking of this, Su Fan immediately thanked Nalan Xue, "Sister Xue, thank you for telling me this. I will be careful when I return."

Nalan Xue's long eyelashes flickered at this moment, "Is that how you thank me?"

As she spoke, Nalan Xue even deliberately glanced at Su Fan's "dragon vein," her eyes brimming with longing.

The implication was clear, this stunningly beautiful lady hoped that Su Fan's "dragon vein" would thoroughly explore her, satisfy her, and fiercely take her as his.

In his heart, Su Fan certainly wanted Nalan Xue.

But given Nalan Xue's status, he really didn't dare do anything to her.

Even if he really wanted Nalan Xue, they must further their relationship before proceeding.

If Nalan Xue turned out to be the same as Wang Fei was back then, he would definitely stumble!

If he got involved with Nalan Xue and she used that to manipulate him, it would be troublesome.

Nalan Xue, of course, did not know about such concerns in Su Fan's mind.

If she really needed Su Fan to do something for her, such a thing was certainly possible for her to do.

But at that moment, Nalan Xue was only seeking pleasure.

Seeing Su Fan's lack of response, Nalan Xue couldn't help but sit up and then said, "Forget it, I won't tease you anymore. Help me massage my legs."

While speaking, she took off her tight leather pants, then lay back down.

Chapter 614 - 614

Su Fan had already known that Nalan Xue wore seamless lingerie, but only now did he realize that not only did she wear seamless lingerie, but she also went braless.

Through the thin black silk, Su Fan could clearly see the delicate, enchanting flower.

Su Fan was cautious of Nalan Xue's identity, so he dared not take her completely for the moment.

However, he certainly had the courage to touch Nalan Xue a bit, and quite boldly at that.

Thus, Nalan Xue's beautiful eyes quickly widened in shock, her pretty face full of surprise as she looked at Su Fan.

She had assumed that Su Fan would not do anything to her, but she hadn't expected him to start with a strong move.

Nevertheless, Nalan Xue did not stop him, and Su Fan's hand naturally moved slowly.

Nalan Xue's skin was exceptionally fair, her beautiful haven blushing pink through its whiteness, tender to the utmost degree.

To Su Fan, she felt as if she had never been touched before—utterly delicate.

By now, Su Fan had possessed quite a few women, and his aesthetic standards were, of course, extremely high.

Yet, the beauty of Nalan Xue's haven, in both its hue and its precisely contoured shape, was nearly perfect.

If it had been when he first arrived in the city, upon seeing such perfect beauty, he probably would have had the urge to kiss it.

Although his hands were moving, his heart was relatively calm at this moment.

He was also pondering in his mind when he would be able to fully satisfy both of Nalan Xue's 'mouths.'

Of course, his thoughts were not just about these matters.

Disrupting someone's business was like killing their parents.

He faintly felt that Hongzhi Capital might be the invisible shareholder of Baiwei Pharmaceutical.

Qi Dongliang and Shen Hongzhi maintained their cooperation with the oldest spirit of contract.

Having tampered with Baiwei Pharmaceutical's interests, the other party likely would not let him off easily.

Once he finished treating Nalan Xue, he would have Chen Hanqing check on the situation with Hongzhi Capital.

With Chen Hanqing present, the internet held no secrets for him.

During this period, with the favorable learning and working environment provided by Su Fan, Chen Hanqing's abilities had also been advancing rapidly.

As time went by, Su Fan's massaging of Nalan Xue gradually neared its end.

Reluctant to let go, Su Fan caressed her haven once more before speaking, "Sister Xue, it's done."

Upon hearing this, Nalan Xue smiled enticingly and then got off the bed.

Although she hadn't been thoroughly taken by Su Fan, she had received immense pleasure all the same.

Watching Nalan Xue put her tight leather pants back on, signs of revival stirred within Su Fan's essence.

If not for Nalan Xue's exceedingly high status, he truly would have wanted to make her scream intensely.

Nalan Xue's allure was a high-class charm.

Other women, with their social status and backgrounds, didn't possess an astonishing presence like Nalan Xue's, hence they lacked such high-level allure.

Once Nalan Xue had dressed, Su Fan was ready to escort her out of the treatment room.

But before he could speak, Nalan Xue had already wrapped her arms around him and kissed him.

Although Su Fan dared not take Nalan Xue completely, since she had willingly offered herself, he certainly would not be polite.

Nalan Xue's fiery red lips were quickly savagely captured by Su Fan.

Not only that, but he also easily pried open her ruby lips.

Soon, Nalan Xue's tender, fragrant tongue was vigorously assaulted by Su Fan.

Su Fan seemed not just to be kissing her, but appeared as if he wanted to completely suck her delicate fragrant tongue off.

While sucking, Su Fan greedily sought her sweet nectar.

Su Fan was like a man about to die of thirst in the desert, desperate for any drop of moisture.

Chapter 615 - 615

After savoring the fragrance of Nalan Xue, Su Fan couldn't help but want her to taste his "dragon vein."

However, when he let go of Nalan Xue, she quickly said, "Xiao Fan, let's stop here for today."

"My husband is coming home from work early today, I need to get back."

"We can... continue tomorrow, how about that?"

As Nalan Xue spoke, she blinked her beautiful eyes.

In the past month, she had been coming to the hospital almost every day to seek treatment from Su Fan.

As long as there was a little progress each day, it was only a matter of time before she and Su Fan would hit the sheets.

When she was tightly embraced by Su Fan just now, his strong arms and the defined muscles fascinated her deeply.

She was sure that Su Fan was not a mere showpiece like Jiang Gao, but a real hunk.

Hearing Nalan Xue say this, Su Fan naturally nodded in complete understanding, "Okay, Sister Xue, I'll walk you out."

As he spoke, he couldn't resist, and hugged Nalan Xue again, kissing her fiercely.

While kissing, his hand also slipped into Nalan Xue's tight leather pants and gave her a firm rub, even tugging at the gates of paradise twice in his hand.

With that, he finally let Nalan Xue go.

Nalan Xue smiled coquettishly, and did not blame Su Fan.

At this point, if Su Fan could still hold back, that would be the real surprise.

Not to mention her looks and figure were far superior to an average beauty; even if she were just an average beauty, Su Fan probably couldn't resist wanting to take her fiercely right now.

But today, she really couldn't give herself to Su Fan.

Su Fan, of course, did not continue to pursue Nalan Xue, but opened the door of the treatment room and left the hospital with her.

The doctors at the affiliated hospital of the Medical University were now obviously well aware of the relationship between Su Fan and Nalan Xue.

Seeing Su Fan and Nalan Xue walking together, everyone was full of envy.

Some doctors were whispering to each other.

"Doctor Su is really amazing, not just a master of medicine but also good at socializing; he's like a brother to Director Nalan Xue!"

After the first doctor finished speaking, a second doctor spoke with great envy.

"Yeah, Deputy Director Su is definitely going to be the Director in the future, and maybe not just the Director."

"Director Nalan Xue is the wife of Mayor Jiang Gao."

"In my opinion, Deputy Director Su may eventually take up a high-ranking position in the city's CDC or other municipal health departments!"

The soft murmurings of the crowd were inaudible to Nalan Xue, but Su Fan, as a martial expert, heard them loud and clear.

Hearing the crowd's discussions, he just chuckled softly.

Compared to the series of benefits Nalan Xue brought him, he actually wanted to develop her thoroughly, to have her indulge under him, moaning sweetly.

Su Fan walked Nalan Xue all the way to the hospital entrance and then bid her farewell.

"Sister Xue, be careful on your way, I'm going back to work."

Nalan Xue nodded slightly: "Tomorrow, around the same time, I'll come to find you for treatment."

"Alright, I'll wait for you in advance tomorrow." having said that, Su Fan waved to Nalan Xue.

Nalan Xue waved back, then asked her driver to drive off.

After Nalan Xue had left, Su Fan took out his phone and called Chen Hanqing.

Soon, Chen Hanqing picked up the phone inside Dawn Pharmaceutical Company.

He spoke with utmost respect, "Mr. Su, do you have any tasks for me?"

The voice of Su Fan came through the phone, "Hanqing, help me check out Hongzhi Capital in Xijing."

"And all the data related to me on the internet recently, help me compile and organize it, thank you for the effort."

Chen Hanqing immediately replied, "It's no trouble at all, I'll get on it right away."

Chapter 616 - 616

After ending the call with Su Fan, Chen Hanqing immediately got to work on the task.

The first thing he accessed was the database of Hongzhi Capital.

The security level of Hongzhi Capital's database was extremely high.

Within Hongzhi Capital, there were even two top-tier cybersecurity experts and seven or eight senior cybersecurity engineers.

Yet even so, in front of Chen Hanqing, Hongzhi Capital was essentially defenseless.

Not only that, but Chen Hanqing also accessed the mobile phones and other network devices of all shareholders and senior executives of Hongzhi Capital.

Unless these people stopped using any network devices altogether, they had no secrets from Chen Hanqing.

Even Chen Hanqing hadn't realized that after entering a better working and learning environment, his computer skills had made a leap forward.

Now, doing these things was second nature to him, effortlessly simple, with not a hint of difficulty.

In no time, all the information Su Fan wanted was completely scraped by him, and then he rapidly compiled and organized it.

About an hour later in the affiliated hospital of the Medical University, Su Fan received the information he needed.

Chen Hanqing indeed lived up to being one of the talents he valued most. This time he had not disappointed him, and the information he needed had already been sent to his computer.

After quickly reviewing the information sent by Chen Hanqing, Su Fan found the key information!

There truly was a connection between Hongzhi Capital and Baiwei Pharmaceutical.

Even though it wasn't enough to say that Hongzhi Capital was an "invisible shareholder" of Baiwei Pharmaceutical, Hongzhi Capital indeed maintained continuous dealings with Baiwei Pharmaceutical.

Su Fan also noticed something about Wu Chungang in this information.

The chairman of Hongzhi Capital had sent someone to look for Wang Tongshan's martial brothers, and this Wu Chungang was one of Wang Tongshan's senior brothers.

Not only did he share the same master as Wang Tongshan, but he was also from the Tianhai martial family.

Su Fan wasn't too keen on getting involved with this sort of person.

But according to the information provided by Chen Hanqing, Wu Chungang was anything but well-intentioned, and it seemed Su Fan couldn't avoid him.

Xijing, the headquarters of the Xijing Martial Arts Association.

This place was always bustling, but today it was undoubtedly even more so.

Because today, within the Xijing Martial Arts Association, a formidable person had arrived.

This person was none other than Wu Chungang.

Apart from the top five elite experts in the Xijing martial arts community, all the other martial artists were soundly defeated by him.

Wu Chungang wasn't foolish enough to be used as a pawn by Shen Hongzhi. While Shen Hongzhi was using him, he was also using Shen Hongzhi.

Although he came down from the mountain under the pretense of avenging Wang Tongshan, he was actually after fame and glory.

It was true he came from the Tianhai martial family, but he was not the most outstanding junior of the Tianhai martial family.

Within the most outstanding juniors of the Tianhai martial family, he could barely make the top ten.

For Wu Chungang, this of course was not satisfactory.

So, when he learned that Su Fan had killed Wang Tongshan and became famous throughout the city, he got the idea of stepping over Su Fan to ascend to a higher position.

Otherwise, why would he come down from the mountain? Why would he bother with something that offered him no benefits?

Initially, he wanted to defeat Su Fan directly.

But soon he realized that defeating Su Fan, even killing Su Fan, wouldn't achieve the best effect.

He should learn from Su Fan, whether intentionally or unintentionally, and use various methods to build momentum!

Let the entire Xijing, and even Yang City, know that in the Xijing martial arts community, a dark horse like him had appeared.

Then he would represent Xijing and challenge Su Fan, the president of the Yang City Martial Arts Association.

In this way, as long as he defeated Su Fan, even killed Su Fan on the spot, he would become completely famous in both Xijing and Yang City!

Chapter 617 - 617

Wu Chungang's first step had undoubtedly gone very smoothly.

At the headquarters of the Western Capital Martial Arts Association, there is currently no one who dares to lay a hand on him.

Even the president of the Western Capital Martial Arts Association, who had heard the news and came, did not personally take action against Wu Chungang; instead, he invited him into the office for a talk.

As the two entered the office and closed the door, the president of the Western Capital Martial Arts Association, Zhou Yiwei, spoke indifferently, "Brother Wu, causing such a stir at the headquarters of the Martial Arts Association can't possibly be just for making trouble, is it?"

Wu Chungang took a sip of tea and then got straight to the point, "I want one of the five spots for the Tri-City Martial Arts Exchange."

The so-called Tri-City Martial Arts Exchange is a martial arts competition among Yang City, Western Capital, and Wei City.

This martial arts competition takes place once every four years.

Yang City, Western Capital, and Wei City each send five martial artists to compete.

The overall champion of the Tri-City Martial Arts Competition receives fifty million in prize money, and also qualifies for the Huaxia Martial Arts Competition.

Among these three cities—Yang City, Western Capital, and Wei City—Yang City has the most developed pharmaceutical industry, Western Capital has the most developed financial industry, and Wei City has the most developed martial arts industry.

In Wei City, martial arts schools are found everywhere, and the local customs are exceptionally martial.

In any random group of ten people, there is definitely one practitioner.

Generally, the overall champion of the Tri-City Martial Arts Competition is claimed by Wei City.

The Martial Arts Associations of Yang City and Western Capital essentially serve as also-rans in every competition.

However, this time was different. Although Zhou Yiwei wasn't at the scene earlier, he watched the live broadcast.

He was very clear about how formidable Wu Chungang's martial arts skills were.

To be not at all exaggerated, there are no more than three people in the whole of Western Capital who are more formidable than Wu Chungang!

Even including the three people himself, in a life-and-death struggle, they might not necessarily be Wu Chungang's match.

This, of course, gave Zhou Yiwei some ideas.

In Yang City, at the affiliated hospital of the Medical University.

After learning that Hongzhi Capital had enlisted Wu Chungang to deal with him, Su Fan had Chen Hanqing start keeping an eye on Wu Chungang's movements.

Whatever Wu Chungang did afterwards was known to Su Fan.

Su Fan took his opponent Wu Chungang very seriously, but was not afraid.

After killing Wang Tongshan, his strength had also greatly increased.

This Wu Chungang was his fierce rival, but he and Wu Chungang should be about equal.

Even if there were some gaps between him and Wu Chungang, the gap could not be too significant.

Now, knowing that Wu Chungang was targeting him, he could certainly seize the time to improve his strength.

Whether it was through arduous cultivation alone or through the Yin-Yang union with the many women around him, he could rapidly enhance his strength to make ample preparations for battle against Wu Chungang.

Su Fan made a mental note of Wu Chungang and Hongzhi Capital's actions and continued to monitor the situation.

Then, his attention shifted to Bai Man.

Bai Man did not come looking for him but passed by his office not long ago.

However, Bai Man didn't stop; instead, she left as if fleeing.

Bai Man, having suffered a lot in their previous encounters, was clearly scared off.

She didn't dare to linger when passing by his office door.

The more Bai Man acted this way, the more he wanted to develop a relationship with Bai Man.

He had originally planned to nurture Liu Qing, but now it seemed Liu Qing would have to wait a little longer.

In Su Fan's mind, as he thought about summoning Bai Man to his office for a thorough session, there was no need for him to call her, as Bai Man hurried over frantically.

"Little Fan, quick, we have an emergency."

Surprised, Su Fan asked, "Sister Man, what happened?"

Bai Man spoke anxiously, "Deputy Director Xia has been severely injured; she's not going to make it!"

Su Fan stood up and while coming to Bai Man's side, asked with confusion, "Sister Man, who is Deputy Director Xia?"

Bai Man rolled her eyes at him; it seemed that all of Su Fan's time and energy were indeed solely spent on medicine and women.

Apart from medicine and women, Su Fan didn't seem to have much clarity on anything else.

But Bai Man didn't have time to complain about Su Fan now and could only say, "Deputy Director Xia Lingwei of Yang City Security Bureau."

Upon hearing this, Su Fan immediately remembered.

Xia Lingwei was not just anyone; she was one of the top five figures within the Yang City Security System and the deputy director of the Yang City Security Bureau.

Because she was beautiful and often led teams to fight criminals on the front lines, she was also known as the Phoenix of Yang City.

Since Su Fan arrived in Yang City, he frequently saw Xia Lingwei on television.

He had never expected that his first encounter with Xia Lingwei would be in such circumstances.

Her status, compared to that of Nalan Xue, was equally formidable and equally daunting.

When Su Fan followed Bai Man into the lobby, he saw that all the hospital's specialists were on high alert.

Once Su Fan arrived, everyone boarded two ambulances and rushed to provide emergency assistance at once.

Xia Lingwei must have been gravely injured this time, or else such an impressive medical team would not have been assembled.

Chapter 618 - 618

Logically speaking, once Deputy Director Xia Lingwei reached her level, it was basically unnecessary for her to be personally present on the front lines.

Only under some very special circumstances would she need to take command on the front lines.

This time, the situation was indeed quite special, as a roving criminal gang had entered Yang City.

After receiving reports from the public, Xia Lingwei immediately led the elite of the Security Bureau to arrest them.

But within this roving gang, there were two extremely skilled masters.

The rest were armed, almost all of them trained fighters.

With such a group of dangerous individuals entering Yang City, the Yang City Security Bureau was naturally taking it very seriously.

Xia Lingwei personally led the team, and by catching them off guard, she managed to kill several criminals.

But more criminals had by then taken several hostages and had hidden inside an abandoned factory.

In the ambulance, Su Fan learned much news through Bai Man.

After he sent a message to Chen Hanqing, Chen Hanqing quickly informed him of more comprehensive information.

After reading the information sent by Chen Hanqing, Su Fan could only lament in his heart, "Yang City is also beset with troubles nowadays, even attracting such roving criminal gangs."

While he was filled with many thoughts, the ambulance stopped at the First Hospital.

The place where Xia Lingwei was injured was very close to the First Hospital.

Therefore, after her accident, she was taken to the First Hospital.

The First Hospital of Yang City is known as the Municipal Hospital.

As Su Fan and others got off the ambulance, a stretcher was quickly brought over.

A doctor also looked at Su Fan and the others, saying, "You are doctors from the affiliated hospital, right?"

"The patient is in a very critical condition, and our Municipal Hospital cannot handle it, we need to transfer her immediately."

Su Fan did not step forward to respond, but instead glanced at Xia Lingwei.

At this moment, Xia Lingwei's condition was anything but ordinary; she had been shot in the neck and had other gunshot wounds on her body.

Su Fan could tell with one look that, if he didn't use his treasured blood this time, he had no other way to save Xia Lingwei.

Although Xia Lingwei needed to be transferred, she still required emergency treatment in the ambulance.

Otherwise, she wouldn't be able to make it to the affiliated hospital and would pass away on the way.

The other doctors from the affiliated hospital hesitated upon seeing Xia Lingwei's condition.

Gunshot wounds were extremely difficult to treat, and Xia Lingwei had been hit more than once.

The most dangerous was the gunshot wound on her neck.

Many doctors from the affiliated hospital judged that Xia Lingwei might already be beyond saving.

Although Su Fan often turned decay into magic and performed miraculous medical feats, bringing people back from the brink of death,

Xia Lingwei's injuries were not ordinarily severe.

In their view, even if Su Fan personally took the case, it was likely a hopeless situation.

While the doctors from the affiliated hospital were hesitating, an elderly man with white hair but an exceptionally strong aura came forward.

This man was the Director of the Yang City Security Bureau, Xia Lingwei's immediate superior, and a major figure in the Yang City Security System, Director Qu Heng.

Director Qu Heng looked at Su Fan and the others and said, "Comrades, I am Qu Heng, director of the Yang City Security Bureau. I am aware that Xiao Xia's condition is extremely critical."

"Here, I am making a heartfelt plea for you to spare no effort in treating Xiao Xia."

"As long as there is no negligence in the treatment process, regardless of the final outcome, I guarantee that it will not affect the reputation of the affiliated hospital!"

After Director Qu Heng spoke, the gaze of the many doctors from the affiliated hospital could only turn to Su Fan.

Chapter 619 - 619

Qu Heng had also seen this scene and immediately looked over with slight surprise.

Towards Su Fan, he felt somewhat familiar, but his work was really too busy, and he did not pay much attention to Su Fan.

But since all the doctors from the affiliate hospital were looking at Su Fan, Qu Heng could only wait for Su Fan to make a decision.

Su Fan, of course, did not keep Qu Heng waiting long before he nodded and said, "Let's hurry and transfer hospitals."

After he spoke, the doctors from the affiliate hospital naturally took action immediately.

After Xia Lingwei was placed on the ambulance, Director Qu Heng also got on the vehicle.

He had, in fact, already prepared for the worst in his heart.

Having worked in the security system for so many years, he clearly understood how dangerous Xia Lingwei's condition was now.

In the past forty years, there had been security officers who suffered injuries similar to those of Xia Lingwei.

Without exception, none of those officers had been saved.

Upon arriving on the ambulance, Su Fan began treating Xia Lingwei using Tai Chi True Qi and the traditional Chinese medicine technique of sealing the meridians and acupoints.

The means of treating and saving people by Su Fan, let alone others, even Bai Man had not fully witnessed them.

Director Qu at this moment furrowed his brows tightly as he watched Su Fan and couldn't help but ask, "Doctor, what are you doing?"

Bai Man knew that Director Qu had certainly never seen such a method of saving people before, and now seeing Su Fan saving someone like this filled his heart with doubts.

She immediately explained to Director Qu, "Director Qu, this is our hospital affiliate to the Medical University, the most brilliant doctor, Su Fan."

Qu Heng, even though overwhelmed with daily affairs and busy with work, had still heard of Su Fan's great reputation.

Thus, upon knowing that this person was Su Fan, his eyes lit up as he asked, "Is this the Su Fan who has revived the hopeless multiple times, bringing them back to life?"

Bai Man nodded, and Qu Heng was overjoyed in his heart.

At this moment, he naturally felt much more confident about Xia Lingwei's rescue.

While Xia Lingwei was indeed severely injured, Su Fan was no ordinary person.

There are no unworthy scholars under a renowned name! Su Fan was nearly a household name in Yang City, a divine doctor.

In such a situation, Director Qu naturally had confidence in Su Fan.

Qu Heng and Bai Man then did not continue talking but started silently watching as Su Fan treated Xia Lingwei.

The ambulance soon transferred Xia Lingwei from City Hospital One to the Medical University Affiliate Hospital.

With the help of numerous medical staff, Xia Lingwei was quickly taken into the emergency room of the Medical University Affiliate Hospital.

The treatment for Xia Lingwei was obviously something other doctors could not assist with.

Very soon, only Su Fan and the patient were left in the entire treatment room.

Su Fan did not immediately perform surgery on Xia Lingwei, as her life force was extremely weak now.

Her life was like a candle in the wind, which might go out completely at any moment.

Su Fan pricked his own fingertip, allowing Xia Lingwei to ingest his blood, which contained pure life force and many profound mysteries.

At the same time, he used Tai Chi True Qi to help Xia Lingwei regulate her chaotic breath.

Under his treatment, Xia Lingwei's life force began to slowly recover.

Feeling it was about right, Su Fan then began to perform surgery on Xia Lingwei.

Xia Lingwei had suffered five gunshot wounds, showing just how fierce and brutal the transient criminal gang was.

If it were not for the current need to save a life, Su Fan would have already prepared to eliminate those people.

Such transient criminal gangs, wherever they go, are a scourge.

Since that is the case, it would be better to have them forever stay in Yang City.

But he could not leave now; he needed to extract the bullets from Xia Lingwei and complete a series of subsequent treatments.

His movements were very skilled, and his hands were very steady.

Throughout the entire process of treating and saving the patient, every one of Su Fan's actions was as standard as a textbook.

While saving people, there were no assistants nearby, but his movements were still not slow.

Chapter 620 - 620

"Clang!"

A crisp sound rang out, and a bullet was extracted.

The gunshot wound on Xia Lingwei's body was also swiftly treated.

Just like that, he quickly extracted the remaining four bullets one after another.

After all this, Su Fan began to use his True Qi to help Xia Lingwei regulate her Qi and blood, restoring her vitality.

By now, Xia Lingwei had already escaped the most critical state.

Next, she only needed ongoing treatment for a while before her vital signs would stabilize.

However, outside the emergency room, everyone was unaware of the situation.

Although Qu Heng had said earlier, if there were no mishandlings during the treatment, he would not let the reputation of the affiliated hospital be affected.

Of course, these words coming from Director Qu also carried significant influence.

Nevertheless, Zhang Haitao still hoped that Xia Lingwei would not have incidents at the affiliated hospital.

Xia Lingwei, just like Su Fan, was also virtually a household name in Yang City.

If such a person were to have an accident at the affiliated hospital, how could it not affect the hospital's reputation?

At Director Qu's end, initially, he was, of course, very confident in Su Fan.

But as time slowly passed, his expression also started grimacing.

It was not just him; the expressions of others outside the emergency room also looked very ugly.

For Director Qu, it was a case of misfortune not coming singly.

The criminal gang surrounded in the abandoned factory—most of its members had been killed or arrested.

However, the two leaders of this group, both explosive air realm Martial Artists, had escaped.

Now, it's unknown whether these two were hiding somewhere in Yang City or had already left Yang City.

This made Director Qu extremely irritated.

In dealing with this criminal gang, several law enforcement officers had been sacrificed.

Xia Lingwei, who was undergoing emergency treatment, might also not make it.

After paying such a heavy price, to let the two leaders of the criminal gang escape was unbearable.

How was he to explain this to the higher authorities, or to society?

Outside the emergency room, seeing that Su Fan hadn't come out for such a long time, even Bai Man started getting worried.

Usually, when Su Fan treated and saved people, by this time, the treatment would have already been completed.

Today, it was unknown why Su Fan hadn't come out yet.

In the corridor, those who had been waiting for a long time gradually became more and more restless.

Director Qu was even ready to make the worst preparations and had his secretary handle the aftermath.

But at that moment, the door of the emergency room slowly opened.

The moment the emergency room's door opened, everyone's gaze first turned towards Su Fan, then uniformly shifted to the life-signs monitoring equipment in the patient room.

Upon seeing that Xia Lingwei's vital signs were stable, one of the doctors almost couldn't restrain himself from cheering aloud for Su Fan.

Although Su Fan had demonstrated his miraculous medical skills many times, for doctors, no matter how many times they manage to save critically ill patients, it always offers an unparalleled sense of great achievement.

Director Qu was not aware of the situation inside the emergency room.

He could only look towards the president of the affiliated hospital, Zhang Haitao, and asked, "Zhang, what's the situation now?"

Zhang Haitao, who had been terribly anxious earlier, fearing that Su Fan might fail this time and Xia Lingwei's attempt at resuscitation would end in death, now seeing that all of Xia Lingwei's vital signs were stable, he of course breathed a sigh of relief and said to Director Qu,

"Director Qu, actually, you could have been assured once Deputy Director Su took over the patient."

"Deputy Director Su is a highly skilled successor of traditional Chinese medicine."

"No exaggeration to say, as long as a patient has not completely lost vital signs, Deputy Director Su stepping in means the patient can be saved."

"Xia Lingwei has now basically escaped danger, her vital signs are very stable, and only continuous follow-up treatment is needed, nothing too serious anymore."
