

Temptation 631

Chapter 631 - 631

Regardless, there will always be three huge disparities between Lu Wenwen and Su Fan.

The ancient medical texts that Su Fan's grandfather taught him are not something Lu Wenwen can learn.

The precious blood that Su Fan possesses is also something Lu Wenwen cannot have.

The powerful martial arts heritage from the Taiji Jade Pendant that Su Fan hails from is likewise unattainable for Lu Wenwen.

Therefore, no matter how hard Lu Wenwen tries, she clearly cannot become a second Su Fan.

But regardless, there is still great potential for improvement in her medical skills.

Yan Henglong is a very punctual person, and when it was time for his agreed treatment session with Su Fan, he came over once again.

Previously, he did not know what was wrong with his body and only felt extremely uncomfortable.

After Su Fan's treatment, his spirit and vitality gradually recovered.

But what surprised Yan Henglong this time when he saw Su Fan was the company he brought with him, a young doctor who came to treat him.

Without waiting for Yan Henglong to ask, Su Fan took the initiative to introduce, "Director Yan, this is my assistant, Lu Wenwen."

"She has a very deep understanding of both traditional Chinese and Western medical theories."

"I would like her to also diagnose you to see what exactly is the nature of your difficult and complex illness," Su Fan added.

Hearing this from Su Fan, Yan Henglong naturally had no objections.

His physical condition, although improved, still did not have a clear diagnosis for his illness.

Of course, this was also a source of worry for Yan Henglong.

Not knowing the cause of his illness, he was not sure when the same symptoms might recur.

He had not expected that Su Fan, while treating him, was also continually focused on monitoring his condition.

His impression of Su Fan was already very positive; otherwise, he would not have arranged for Yan Qian to work at Su Fan's company.

With this incident, he began to feel that if Su Fan could get together with his daughter, it might even be possible to entrust Longheng Group to both Su Fan and Yan Qian in the future.

While Yan Henglong was contemplating many things, Lu Wenwen began diagnosing him.

Su Fan himself was not entirely clear about Yan Henglong's illness, so it was even more difficult for Lu Wenwen to discern it.

However, after examining Yan Henglong, Lu Wenwen determined that the previous treatment plan should continue, which was to use Acupuncture Technique.

But naturally, she did not dare to show off her acupuncture skills in front of Su Fan.

Besides, her primary reason for being at Su Fan's side was to learn Acupuncture Technique.

Su Fan initially intended to have Lu Wenwen treat Yan Henglong while he supervised.

But Lu Wenwen politely interjected, saying, "Deputy Director Su, my acupuncture skills are still at the apprentice stage compared to yours."

"Could I possibly observe and learn this time as Deputy Director Su use Acupuncture Technique to heal and save lives?" she asked.

After her request, Su Fan naturally nodded in agreement.

Then, as he had done several times before, he began treating Yan Henglong with Acupuncture Technique.

Acupuncture Technique is an extremely ancient and magical method of treatment.

It works by stimulating the meridians and acupuncture points all over the body, allowing the body to produce micro-substances that create powerful medicines capable of curing all sorts of diseases.

This method is truly one where laymen watch the excitement, and professionals watch the technique.

When Lu Wenwen saw Su Fan's Acupuncture Technique, she was naturally shocked.

The family that adopted her comes from a lineage of traditional Chinese medicine, so she can be considered to have grown up in such a household and studied medicine from a young age.

Her own skills in acupuncture were actually very impressive as well.

Before Su Fan started applying needles to Yan Henglong, she did not hold Su Fan's acupuncture skills in exceedingly high regard.

However, after witnessing Su Fan's seamless and continuous application of needles on Yan Henglong, she was completely astonished.

The Acupuncture Technique used by Su Fan was very profound and mysterious, and she was only able to grasp a general idea.

Although she could only comprehend the basics, her own proficiency in acupuncture made her respect Su Fan's skill even more.

Therefore, while Su Fan treated Yan Henglong, she remained intensely focused throughout, afraid of missing any detail.

Chapter 632 - 632

Su Fan's treatment of Yan Henglong, of course, didn't last very long.

Yan Henglong recovered very well and only needed to continue receiving treatment to soon make a full recovery.

This time, Yan Henglong didn't stay at the affiliated hospital and have a long talk with Su Fan.

As the chairman of Longheng Group, he had a lot of work to handle every day.

After Su Fan had treated him, Yan Henglong expressed his gratitude, "Divine Doctor Su, I still have some urgent matters to attend to at Longheng Group."

"If Divine Doctor Su is free another day, I would like to invite you for a meal."

Su Fan nodded, "After Chairman Yan's treatment is completely finished, I'll visit Chairman Yan's office; I also have many business-related questions to consult with Chairman Yan about."

Yan Henglong said with a smile, "Then it's settled, I'll be completely open and will spare no details."

After he finished speaking, Su Fan naturally said, "Chairman Yan, I'll see you downstairs."

Yan Henglong smiled and declined, "No need to trouble Divine Doctor Su, I'm already very familiar with the affiliated hospital."

"Divine Doctor Su just treated me and must be quite tired, you should rest now."

With that said, Su Fan, of course, did not insist.

Yan Henglong immediately left the affiliated hospital with a group of bodyguards and returned to Yang City.

Aside from Yan Henglong, Lu Wenwen was also supposed to come to see him for treatment.

But for some reason, she hadn't come today.

While Su Fan was pondering over Lu Wenwen's situation, she called him.

"Su Fan, can you come over to my place now? Mayor Jiang somehow has severe back pain."

"After the doctors from the Second Municipal Hospital came to examine him, they don't know what the issue is, I'm almost dying of anxiety."

The relationship between Lu Wenwen and Jiang Gao was, of course, very superficial.

Significantly, their marriage was a union of interests.

Lu Wenwen had the capital, while Jiang Gao had the connections, background, and status.

Together, they not only had many businesses in Yang City but also around it.

The numerous companies they jointly held were now in a rising phase.

In such circumstances, Lu Wenwen naturally did not want any problems with Jiang Gao.

If Jiang Gao were to have issues, it could only be after her business empire was completely stable.

After hearing Lu Wenwen's situation, Su Fan said, "Sister Wen, don't worry, I'll be right there."

This time he had to make a house call, so he obviously couldn't bring Lu Wenwen along.

In fact, Lu Wenwen didn't want to go as she was still contemplating the Acupuncture Technique that Su Fan had used previously.

But Su Fan's technique and his medical skills were a complete system.

Without systematic learning, Lu Wenwen couldn't master it.

Su Fan did not pay attention to whether Lu Wenwen could puzzle out his Acupuncture Technique; he had already driven to Lu Wenwen's house.

He had made contact with Lu Wenwen a long time ago but had never met her husband.

This time he was also going to see who Mayor Jiang Gao was.

Following the location provided by Lu Wenwen, Su Fan quickly made his way there.

Within moments, he arrived outside Lu Wenwen's villa.

Lu Wenwen had been waiting there for Su Fan.

As Su Fan got out of the car, she immediately approached him anxiously and said, "Su Fan, please take a look at Mayor Jiang."

"He was fine before, but suddenly he's in so much pain that he can't move."

"Our family doctor and the doctors from the Second Municipal Hospital don't know what the reason is."

Lu Wenwen's family did have a family doctor, and the doctor was very skilled.

But Jiang Gao's condition this time was a bit strange, and their family doctor didn't have a proper solution.

Chapter 633 - 633

Su Fan entered the Nalan Xue family's villa while inquiring about the situation.

When he met Jiang Gao, he roughly understood what was wrong with Jiang Gao's health.

Although Jiang Gao managed myriad affairs daily, he was still familiar with the famed Divine Doctor Su Fan.

However, he was completely immobilized on the sofa, managing only a wry smile as he greeted Su Fan, "Divine Doctor Su, I appreciate your help."

Although Jiang Gao had a smile on his face, he was already cursing in his heart.

All those so-called medical authorities from the city hospital and the members of the Royal Medical Society of England were useless!

Once he had a moment, he planned to fire his family doctor.

When everything was okay, it felt like the other party was capable and competent.

But when a real emergency occurred, they turned out to be utterly useless.

When Su Fan entered the living room, the city hospital's doctors and the so-called member of the Royal Medical Society of England who was Jiang Gao's family doctor also turned their attention toward him.

Su Fan did not look at these people, but approached Jiang Gao and asked, "Mayor Jiang, have you been experiencing back pain for a long time? Have you also had a fall recently?"

As soon as he spoke, he stunned both the city hospital doctor and Jiang Gao's personal doctor.

Because neither of them knew why Su Fan would ask this while treating Mayor Jiang.

Yet, once Su Fan spoke, a look of surprise appeared on Jiang Gao's face!

He immediately understood that indeed there was substance to the great reputation!

Su Fan had earned his immense reputation in Yang City for a reason.

Su Fan's preliminary diagnosis was completely accurate.

His back pain issue had not developed over just a day or two.

He had previously thought it was caused by sitting for long periods due to his work until these past few days when he began to notice something was wrong.

Thus, Jiang Gao nodded earnestly, "About over a month ago, I started to feel a bit of back pain."

"At that time, I thought it was due to sitting too long at work and being overly tired."

"Now it seems there must be some other reason."

"As for falling, this morning, I indeed had a severe fall while going downstairs."

After Jiang Gao finished speaking, both the city hospital doctor and Jiang Gao's family doctor were completely stunned.

They felt as if Su Fan's treatment of Mayor Jiang was almost like predicting the future.

These matters were not only undiagnosed by them; they were not even aware of them.

Even if they had been aware, they probably wouldn't have asked Mayor Jiang if he had fallen recently.

Nalan Xue was equally shocked.

Nalan Xue knew that Su Fan's medical skills were exceptional.

But she had not expected that his medical skills were to such a remarkable degree!

At that moment, Mayor Jiang couldn't help but speak again, "Divine Doctor Su, what then is the cause of my current condition?"

Su Fan gravely said, "Mayor Jiang, your prolonged overwork has put pressure on your spine."

"The transformation of the spine has also impacted the nerves."

"Originally, the critical point for Mayor Jiang's illness to flare up was already quite near."

"The fall you had exacerbated the injury to your spine, which triggered the current condition."

After hearing Su Fan's words, Jiang Gao immediately nodded.

Su Fan's assessment was completely accurate.

The only thing was, it wasn't overwork, but overdoing other activities that he hadn't mentioned.

But since Su Fan's diagnosis was correct, Jiang Gao was even more eager for Su Fan to propose a treatment plan.

He immediately asked, "Divine Doctor Su, what do I need for my current condition?"

Without a second thought, Su Fan said, "You need bone setting and massage therapy, and also some traditional Chinese medicinal preparations to condition your body."

"After about five to seven treatment sessions, Mayor Jiang's condition should improve significantly."

Jiang Gao was in considerable discomfort, and as soon as Su Fan finished speaking, he hastily said, "Divine Doctor Su, please help me with the treatment."

"Do I need to go to the affiliated hospital for treatment, or can it be done at my home?"

Su Fan casually said, "We can treat Mayor Jiang at his home."

"I will start with bone setting and massage therapy for Mayor Jiang, and then I'll prescribe you the remedies."

Chapter 634 - 634

Jiang Gao was quickly lifted onto the hospital bed, and as Su Fan diagnosed the mayor, he also learned more about his condition.

At first glance, Mayor Jiang appeared quite robust, but clearly, he was strong on the outside and frail on the inside, his internal organs were failing.

There were two reasons for his condition.

One was that he had not restrained himself in his youth, indulging excessively in pleasures.

This meant that now, even though he had a beautiful wife like Nalan Xue, he could only look but not touch.

The other reason was that he overexerted himself at work.

Around the age of forty or so, he had taken the position he currently held, and he definitely had to fight hard for it.

Not only did he need to fight, but he also needed ability, background, and the talent to navigate complex social interactions, knowing how to curry favor with those above and below him.

Without managing any of these aspects well, it would have been quite difficult for him to have reached his current position.

At that moment, Mayor Jiang lay on the bed, sweating profusely from pain.

Other than his head, he couldn't move any other part of his body.

Apart from being immobile, he was also in excruciating pain, feeling as if his spine was about to completely snap.

Nalan Xue and others also followed into the room.

Mayor Jiang held a very high status, and no mistakes could be tolerated.

While Su Fan was treating Mayor Jiang, they needed to be on hand to watch over him.

Su Fan didn't stop them; after all, they couldn't understand his method of saving people.

As his hands touched Jiang Gao's spine and he began to adjust the bones, Jiang Gao let out a scream!

"Ah!"

His illness, at first glance, didn't seem serious, but in fact, it was quite serious.

Not only was it serious, but it was also greatly tormenting him.

Fortunately, with Su Fan's movements, although Jiang Gao was still drenched in sweat, he managed to regain some mobility.

Previously, Mayor Jiang, who appeared completely paralyzed, was now barely able to move under Su Fan's treatment.

Seeing such a scene, Nalan Xue couldn't help but breathe a sigh of relief.

Jiang Gao, too, relaxed a bit.

At the same time, he spoke, "You all can go back first; Dr. Su's treatment is enough for me."

Those he referred to, of course, included his family doctor.

When nothing is wrong, their incompetence isn't apparent; but in a sudden emergency, the skills of the family doctor became glaringly obvious.

Of course, no one dared to disregard Mayor Jiang's words.

As Mayor Jiang finished speaking, the doctors could only leave dejectedly.

After they had left, Jiang Gao couldn't help but say, "Inadequately trained, a bunch of quacks!"

After venting, he turned to Su Fan with a pleasant expression, "Dr. Su, my illness shouldn't be serious, right?"

Su Fan nodded, "It's not extremely serious, but the treatment is quite troublesome."

"Bone-setting is an ongoing process and cannot be achieved overnight."

"Moreover, in the following period, Mayor Jiang will also need to take Chinese medicine to recuperate his body."

There was one more thing Su Fan didn't say, and that was to advise Jiang Gao to nourish his kidneys.

This suggestion, of course, was not because Su Fan felt pity for Jiang Gao having a beautiful wife he could look at but not touch.

It was rather to advise Jiang Gao not to mess around if his body wasn't up to it.

If he couldn't take good care of his wife at home, then he should stop wasting his energy elsewhere.

In making such a judgment, Su Fan certainly hadn't wronged Jiang Gao.

When he diagnosed Nalan Xue's pulse, he found that she was in a state of long-term lack of nourishment.

If she weren't Jiang Gao's wife, Su Fan would have already taken steps to nourish her.

Hearing Su Fan's words, Jiang Gao felt even more relieved, but he was still very concerned about his health.

"Divine Doctor Su, ask the hospital to send the medicinal herbs directly here, and I'll have them decocted at home," he said.

"Also, give me a brief overview of the follow-up treatment process so I can make arrangements," he added.

Su Fan nodded, "That's possible."

Chapter 635 - 635

This time, when Su Fan came to Mayor Jiang's office, he had the intention of getting to know Jiang Gao as well.

As long as he continued to develop his career on this patch of land in Yang City, maintaining a good relationship with Mayor Jiang Gao was very necessary.

Su Fan quickly took out his cell phone and called the hospital pharmacy.

He told the pharmacy doctor all the medicinal herbs needed to treat Jiang Gao over the phone.

After the call ended, the pharmacy hastened to prepare the medicine.

Su Fan then took out silver needles and continued to treat Mayor Jiang.

With each silver needle that Su Fan inserted, the pain around Jiang Gao's spine was greatly alleviated.

However, he was still very uncomfortable, which made him even more eager to drink the herbal medicine that could heal his pain to a greater extent.

The doctor from the affiliated hospital of the Medical University quickly arrived at Jiang Gao's villa with the medicinal materials.

At this point, Su Fan's treatment of Mayor Jiang came to a temporary halt.

He immediately said to Mayor Jiang, "Mayor Jiang, where is your kitchen? I will go and decoct the medicine for you."

"After you take the first dose, your pain will be much relieved."

"I've prescribed medicine for you to take once in the morning and once at night."

Upon hearing this, Jiang Gao looked at Nalan Xue and said, "Nalan, take Divine Doctor Su to the kitchen to decoct the medicine."

Nalan Xue nodded and then led Su Fan to the kitchen.

On the way to the kitchen, Su Fan kept sizing up Nalan Xue.

Her clothes today were the same as before.

Just wondering, at home, is Nalan Xue also bare under her silk skirt?

Following Nalan Xue, Su Fan just felt that the crisp sound of her high heels on the marble floor was very pleasant to the ear.

After walking for a while, they arrived in the kitchen.

A clay pot was found by Nalan Xue, who then asked him, "Little Fan, is it okay to use this clay pot to decoct the medicine?"

Su Fan nodded, "Yes, Sister Xue."

As they spoke, he put all the herbs that had just been delivered by the hospital into the clay pot.

After adding clean water, he began to decoct the medicine.

But just as Su Fan started the decoction, Nalan Xue boldly embraced him from behind.

Her ample and firm breasts naturally pressed against Su Fan's back, becoming flattened.

Speaking softly with a breath like orchids, Nalan Xue said, "Little Fan, do you desire sister?"

In his heart, Su Fan thought to himself, indeed he desired sister, but the timing was not right.

After a brief encounter with Jiang Gao previously, he had judged that Jiang Gao was a smiling tiger.

Such a person was undoubtedly very difficult to deal with.

Unless Jiang Gao himself had some problems, it was best for him not to take Nalan Xue.

Many times, you have to fall into a pit to gain wisdom.

Now he couldn't be completely sure whether Nalan Xue was using her beauty to plot against him.

Without caution, he couldn't truly do anything with Nalan Xue, lest he leave behind evidence.

After Nalan Xue spoke, Su Fan simply replied with one word, "Yes."

Upon hearing that, Nalan Xue continued to embrace Su Fan from behind and said, "Don't you want to take the initiative a bit more?"

"Once this chance is gone, there won't be another."

Nalan Xue didn't know what Su Fan was wary of, considering she had already been so forward, yet Su Fan still didn't dare make a move on her.

Even though this was her home and her husband was also here,

But wasn't Jiang Gao unable to get out of bed right now? This certainly made her very bold.

Because it was her home, Nalan Xue found it all the more thrilling.

She really hoped that Su Fan would be more proactive, more daring, and to ravage her thoroughly.

Su Fan's strong, muscular body and his powerful arms, along with his well-defined abs, fascinated her immensely.

Chapter 636 - 636

With Nalan Xue's identity and the assets at her disposal, she could easily find a bunch of male models to entertain her.

But Nalan Xue didn't dare do such a thing; Jiang Gao was not dead. If she really did that, Jiang Gao would definitely find out.

She was indeed very eager to be fiercely taken, but not by just any man.

Su Fan had helped her with her medical issues a long time ago, and not long before, he had even saved her life, which made her feel quite fond of him.

The robust muscles on Su Fan's body had fascinated her immensely.

If Su Fan took her forcefully, she would certainly receive ultimate pleasure.

At first, Su Fan hadn't planned on doing anything to Nalan Xue.

But her fragrance and her enchanting voice were making it hard for him to resist.

After preparing the herbs with fire, he turned around, embraced Nalan Xue.

Nalan Xue's seductive red lips, of course, became his target.

But Nalan Xue stopped him with her hand and said at the same time, "Xiao Fan, let's not waste time, let's just do it."

If Su Fan had not heard it with his own ears, he would never have believed that Nalan Xue could say such things.

Nalan Xue's appearance was incredibly radiant and dignified, and no one would imagine that she could crave such extreme pleasure.

Su Fan certainly wanted to take Nalan Xue, but the timing was not yet right.

All he could say was, "Sister Xue, you're not thinking straight. This is your house, even if I wanted to take you, I wouldn't have the guts to do it in your own home."

He said this mainly to test Nalan Xue.

To see whether she was truly seeking pleasure, or if she had some scheme against him.

Hearing Su Fan's words, Nalan Xue blinked her beautiful eyes and said, "It's because it's in my house, and also my husband is home. Then you taking me now, that's what makes it thrilling."

Nalan Xue was clearly somewhat lost in her passion; at this moment, she dared to say anything.

But ultimately, this was because Mayor Jiang Gao was currently incapacitated.

If Jiang Gao hadn't suffered from an acute illness, she wouldn't have had the courage to do this.

Su Fan had long wanted to have Nalan Xue, but he had already thought it through on this matter.

The safest approach was still to bide his time until he could wrestle with Jiang Gao on equal footing, then reconsider the matter.

If he really had designs on Nalan Xue, of course, he could find a suitable opportunity to "open her up."

As long as his relationship with Nalan Xue was intimate enough, he naturally could have her thoroughly.

But for now, it undoubtedly wouldn't work; he needed to wait patiently.

Su Fan kissed Nalan Xue briefly, then said seriously, "Sister Xue, take it easy. If Mayor Jiang finds out, neither of us will end well."

Upon hearing this, Nalan Xue let out a cold laugh and said, "Do you think Jiang Gao is some sort of saint?"

"In his youth, he indulged in a life of debauchery every day and had no idea how many women he had been with."

"Even after entering the political system, he didn't stop. I secretly read his diary, and he has had affairs with many women listed there."

"Before me, he even had two wives."

"I became his wife out of business necessity and because I was deceived by his sweet talk."

"Frankly speaking, if you take me, it would be like avenging the two previous wives and all those young girls he hurt in his youth."

Though Nalan Xue's words were quite shocking, the logic was indeed sound.

At that moment, Su Fan also felt a strong urge to take Nalan Xue.

He and Nalan Xue were clearly only one last step away from fully understanding each other.

Just at that moment, Nalan Xue's phone suddenly rang.

Chapter 637 - 637

Nalan Xue could only take out her phone and answer the call, which was, of course, from Jiang Gao.

"Where are you? What are you doing? Why have you been gone so long?" Jiang Gao asked.

Nalan Xue felt somewhat guilty, but she steadied her nerves and replied, "Where could I go? I'm in the villa's kitchen."

"Didn't Divine Doctor Su say that you need to take medicine twice a day, morning and evening?"

"I'm learning how Divine Doctor Su prepares the medicine, so when Divine Doctor Su is not here, I can prepare it for you."

As she spoke about preparing the medicine for Jiang Gao, Su Fan's large hand was already sneaking under the hem of her clothing.

This made Nalan Xue, who was already quite tense, even more nervous.

In the room, Jiang Gao paused upon hearing Nalan Xue's words.

But he was obviously not easy to fool and immediately asked, "Don't you have to go to work at the TV station during this time? How are you going to prepare the medicine for me?"

Jiang Gao was not easy to deceive, and of course, Nalan Xue was not someone to be casually manipulated by Jiang Gao.

She promptly said, "I had a traffic accident before and was supposed to go to the hospital for treatment every day."

"Now that you're also ill, I might as well stay home and recover with you while simultaneously taking care of you."

Mayor Jiang had nothing to say after hearing her suggestion.

His attitude had been a bit stern earlier, mainly because he was feeling unwell.

Now, as he calmed down, his tone softened, "You've worked hard, wife. I was a bit irritable just now and in a bad mood. I apologize to you."

Despite being the Mayor of Yang City, Jiang Gao didn't always carry himself with an air of superiority.

He was a person who could take charge or step back, was flexible, and could adapt to different situations.

Luckily, Nalan Xue was a smart woman; otherwise, she would have been thoroughly devoured by a man like Jiang Gao, leaving nothing but bones and remnants.

After Jiang Gao apologized, Nalan Xue was about to speak but quickly covered her mouth in pain.

It turned out that just then, Su Fan had boldly pinched her plump and round breast.

The pain nearly made her cry out.

Fortunately, she did not make a sound but immediately raised her hand to cover her mouth.

After giving Su Fan a stern look, Nalan Xue spoke, "That's enough, there's no need for such words between a husband and wife."

"Shall I come take care of you now, or shall I continue watching Divine Doctor Su prepare the medicine?"

Jiang Gao thought for a moment and didn't answer directly but asked, "Ask Divine Doctor Su if the medicine can be prepared at the affiliated hospital and then sent to the villa every day?"

In his opinion, preparing the medicine at home was too much trouble.

Traditional Chinese medicine was different from other medicines; there were specifics about when to add water and when to reduce the heat.

Nalan Xue was not a professional Chinese doctor and obviously would not be able to learn how to prepare medicine immediately.

In this case, the best solution was, of course, for Su Fan to have the medicine ready at the hospital.

Then Su Fan could bring the Chinese medicine with him when he came over to their house to treat Jiang Gao.

Nalan Xue did not hesitate and repeated what Jiang Gao had said on the phone to Su Fan.

"Doctor Su, Mayor Jiang is asking if the Chinese medicinal concoctions for his treatment can be prepared at your hospital?"

"Then when you leave the hospital to come over here to treat Mayor Jiang, you could bring the Chinese medicinal concoctions with you."

Su Fan nodded, as this was not a big deal at all.

"Sure, I'll bring the Chinese medicine concoctions from the hospital when I come over to administer Mayor Jiang's orthopedic massage," he said.

His response did not require Nalan Xue to relay, as Jiang Gao could hear it clearly.

After he said this, there was naturally no issue on Jiang Gao's end.

Chapter 638 - 638

After hanging up the phone, Su Fan didn't hesitate any longer. He directly kissed Nalan Xue's fiery red lips, sucking on her tender tongue.

Even though it was not convenient for him to take Nalan Xue right now, he could still possess as much of this elder sister as possible.

Nalan Xue responded to Su Fan with equal passion; as she reciprocated, her desire to be completely filled intensified.

Unfortunately, the timing today was still not quite right, and she and Su Fan couldn't stay here too long.

After kissing and nibbling on Nalan Xue for a while, Su Fan grabbed her soft peaks and gave them a couple of firm squeezes before letting her go.

The two didn't linger in the kitchen any longer, leaving the pot of medicine to continue simmering as they returned to Jiang Gao's room.

In the room of Mayor Jiang, his two subordinates were reporting their work to him.

A lot had been happening in Yang City recently, and he, as the mayor, had to deal with work from home, even while sick.

When Su Fan and Nalan Xue arrived, Jiang Gao nodded at them but said nothing.

Seeing someone reporting to Jiang Gao, Su Fan and Nalan Xue did not enter the room.

Some matters, even Nalan Xue wasn't privileged to hear, let alone Su Fan.

Since they couldn't enter the room, Su Fan's hand boldly slipped under the hem of Nalan Xue's clothes.

After all, Jiang Gao was lying in the bed inside the room and would have no idea what was happening outside.

He would just need to withdraw his hand when the two inside finished reporting their work.

However, Nalan Xue was startled, although she knew that Jiang Gao couldn't see what was happening outside.

But with Su Fan touching her, kneading her, it was certain to show on her face.

She immediately grabbed Su Fan's hand, not allowing him to continue.

Nevertheless, when she grabbed Su Fan's hand, he increased his grip even more, causing her significant pain.

In the room, reporting work to Jiang Gao, were a male and female officer.

Since Jiang Gao was lying on the bed right now, they had to slightly lean forward to report.

Jiang Gao naturally noticed that Shen Xin's peaks were exceptionally white.

He had never had the right angle to observe closely before.

This was a stroke of luck; Shen Xinyao's peaks were fully in his view.

Shen Xinyao was a slender woman, her peaks white and delicately petite.

But this smallness wasn't one of poverty, but rather a perfect petite.

Jiang Gao, while listening to Shen Xinyao's report, couldn't help but think that holding each of those bun-like peaks in one hand must feel incredibly comfortable.

What Jiang Gao didn't know was that while he was ogling someone else's wife, his own wife's peaks were being grabbed and constantly reshaped by someone else's hands.

In the room, the reports from Shen Xinyao and her colleague were drawing to a close.

Su Fan went to Mayor Jiang's kitchen to fetch the medicine for him.

By the time Su Fan returned, the two officers, indeed, had already left.

He directly entered Mayor Jiang's room and handed over the medicine.

Previously, Jiang Gao had been lying in bed, but now he had sat up.

Although sitting against the wall, it was still apparent from his expression that he was feeling very uncomfortable.

Taking the medicine from Su Fan, his hands still trembled slightly.

Chinese medicine, unlike Western medicine, has a disadvantage in its bitter taste, which most people cannot stand.

Normally, Jiang Gao didn't like drinking Chinese medicine.

But now he had no choice; he still felt unwell and had to drink the herbal concoction to recuperate properly.

Chapter 639 - 639

After finishing a bowl of herbal medicine, Jiang Gao placed the medicine bowl on the bedside table and then took a cup of boiled water from the same spot.

After he had completely finished the water, he finally spoke, "Divine Doctor Su, how long will it take to completely recover from my condition with treatment?"

Without hesitation, Su Fan said, "About a month or so."

Upon hearing this, Jiang Gao nodded, "I will be relying on Divine Doctor Su for this month."

Smiling, Su Fan said, "Mayor Jiang is too kind. Treating and saving people is my duty."

"Mayor Jiang is the parental official of Yang City, and the peace and order of Yang City rely completely on your leadership."

"It's an honor for me and the affiliated hospital to treat Mayor Jiang."

These words from Su Fan were half true, half flattery.

Yet, it's often these partially true words that make one feel very comfortable.

Jiang Gao was competent, and under his governance, Yang City was developing quite well.

Thus, Su Fan's praise wasn't entirely unwarranted.

Jiang Gao felt quite pleased when he heard Su Fan's words.

He had thought that young people like Su Fan, ambitious and capable, would inevitably be quite arrogant.

However, Su Fan, despite his high medical skills and owning a not so small enterprise, also took on the role of president of the Yang City Martial Arts Association, and yet his interpersonal handling was flawless.

Such a person was naturally someone Jiang Gao wanted to get to know.

But now, given his poor health, otherwise he would have definitely kept Su Fan for dinner no matter what.

Su Fan discussed follow-up treatment matters with the mayor, then took his leave.

Jiang Gao's illness wouldn't heal in a short while; it required continued treatment and a period of home rest.

The treatment for today had come to an end.

He now needed to return to the hospital to deal with other matters.

As Su Fan drove to the affiliated hospital, he found a large number of police cars and many special forces troops surrounding it.

At this sight, he couldn't help but feel alarmed.

Su Fan looked around the crowd but didn't see anyone he knew.

He could only approach a security officer to inquire what had happened.

He had been at Mayor Jiang's house treating him and was completely unaware of the events at the affiliated hospital.

After Su Fan asked, the security officer initially wanted to move him back to a safe area.

But the officer clearly recognized Su Fan, and indeed Su Fan held several socially significant roles.

The officer then said, "Chairman Su, there has been an incident at the affiliated hospital."

"Do you remember the criminal gang that entered Yang City some time ago?"

Su Fan nodded, "I remember, what about it?"

He certainly remembered.

To combat this gang of criminals, Xia Lingwei had almost been fatally caught.

In the end, Xia Lingwei was saved from danger thanks to his timely intervention.

He later learned that two leaders of this roaming criminal gang had initially not been captured.

Either they had fled or they were hiding somewhere in Yang City.

After Su Fan nodded, the security officer continued, "We laid a dragnet around Yang City, waiting for these two gang leaders to fall into the trap."

"They seemed to know about our setup and did not rush to leave Yang City."

"But as we continuously intensified our search efforts throughout Yang City..."

"These two criminals finally couldn't bear it anymore."

"In their attempt to escape, one was seriously injured and captured."

"The other criminal leader resisted all the way and ended up at the affiliated hospital."

"He is armed with firearms and explosives, and now controls a large number of hostages."

"Additionally, since he is a martial artist at the Bursting Energy level, we don't have a very good way to handle him at the moment."

As president of the Yang City Martial Arts Association, Su Fan was certainly entitled to know these things.

With his awareness of the situation here, Su Fan might be able to provide some assistance.

Chapter 640 - 640

Su Fan quickly asked, "Have any doctors from the affiliate hospital escaped? What exactly is the situation inside the hospital now?"

Hearing his question, the security officer thought for a moment before responding, "At the beginning, indeed some doctors managed to escape."

"However, after that criminal fired his gun, the other doctors didn't dare to run away."

Su Fan couldn't help but ask anxiously, "Have there been any casualties among the hostages?"

The security officer hesitated for a moment, but still nodded with difficulty.

Seeing him nod, Su Fan's heart suddenly sank.

Bai Man was still inside the hospital, not just Bai Man, Liu Qing was also there.

He could only continue to ask, "What kind of casualties occurred?"

This time, the security officer thought carefully before saying, "As far as I know, a male doctor was shot dead."

"And a female doctor, who was shot, has already been taken to the city's Second Hospital for treatment."

After the security officer recounted these details, Su Fan thanked him, "Thanks, I'll go find the doctors who escaped from the hospital and ask about the details."

While Su Fan expressed his gratitude, the security officer naturally replied, "President Su, no need to be polite."

Leaving the security officer, Su Fan began to search anxiously among the crowd for doctors who had escaped from the affiliate hospital.

After looking around for quite a while, he finally found Liu Qing by chance.

Liu Qing's leg was injured, and she was resting on a security vehicle at the moment.

Upon seeing Liu Qing, Su Fan went straight to her side without saying another word.

Liu Qing had been terribly frightened before and only after seeing Su Fan did she finally breathe a sigh of relief.

"Xiao Fan, I was almost scared to death just now; a bullet narrowly missed my head," she said.

Su Fan hurried to comfort her, "Sister Liu, it's safe now, don't worry."

"Do you know the situation inside the hospital?"

"I just heard from the security officer that a doctor was shot and killed, who was it?"

Liu Qing obviously knew about this incident.

She had escaped from the hospital earlier and had been staying in this area ever since.

Upon Su Fan's inquiry, she immediately said, "The doctor killed by the villain was from the laboratory department."

"The one who was shot and taken to the Second Hospital for treatment was also a doctor from the laboratory department."

Hearing Liu Qing say this, Su Fan could of course breathe a sigh of relief.

If the two people who had already been involved were both from the laboratory department, it appeared Bai Man was fine.

But Bai Man was not out of danger yet; the leader of the criminals, not to mention being a Martial Artist in the Burst Qi realm, also had firearms and explosives, obviously posing a great danger.

It was unclear why this person had come to Yang City, but since he had shown up at the affiliate hospital and injured people there, Su Fan had to deal with him.

Su Fan immediately asked, "Tell me about the other conditions inside the hospital as well."

He needed to fully understand the situation before he could go in to rescue people.

After pondering for a moment, Liu Qing started explaining, "There is only one villain, but his martial arts are very good."

"At that time, Director Zhang was calling us for a meeting."

"The villain seemed to be pursued by security officers, then he just ran straight into our hospital."

"After that, he made everyone go into the large conference room on the fifth floor."

"Seeing the gun in his hand, I was very scared."

"When a colleague took the lead to escape, I followed suit."

"It was then, a doctor from the laboratory department was shot dead by that criminal."

After Liu Qing finished speaking, Su Fan's gaze turned towards the direction of the large conference room on the fifth floor.

The moment his gaze shifted there, he became furiously enraged!

This deranged criminal actually threw a patient out of the fifth-floor window.

From such a height, anyone thrown out would undoubtedly face certain death.

The patient, just as expected, met their grizzly end, crashing to the ground a bloodied, mangled mess!