Chapter 65: Punishment Again

It really is the wheel of fortune turning.

Just over an hour ago, Su Fan had threatened Zhang Haitao with a video, and now he found himself being threatened by Bai Man.

He knew Bai Man's secret too, but would Lee Jian believe him if he told him these things?

Even if Lee Jian believed him and divorced Bai Man, could he really come out unscathed? Definitely not. By then, both Lee Jian and Bai Man would seek crazy revenge against him.

So, in front of Bai Man, he had no choice but to submit.

The secret of Bai Man's affair wasn't an asset for Su Fan but rather, more like a burden.

Bai Man stood up, her pale jade hand stroking Su Fan's sturdy back.

Because of his joint cultivation with Liu Ye, Su Fan's body had become much more robust than before, firmer, with visible muscular contours.

The touch felt extremely pleasant.

"It's really all better now, such miraculous medical skills, it seems you really are a Divine Doctor. I kind of regret agreeing to transfer you to gynecology."

As she spoke, Bai Man's fingers gently glided across Su Fan's back.

Like plucking the strings of a guitar, it must be said, Bai Man's technique was very professional.

A large bulge quickly rose beneath Su Fan.

"Hehe, is your self-control really that poor?"

Bai Man noticed Su Fan's embarrassment and immediately burst into a triumphant laugh.

But suddenly, she thought of something and her expression turned cold again.

"I ask you, what is your relationship with Liu Ye?"

"Director Liu?"

Su Fan was panicking internally, their relationship, of course, was very intimate.

But, Liu Ye was Bai Man's arch-enemy. Bai Man had sent him to spy, and then he ended up in bed with Liu Ye. If Bai Man found out, would Su Fan be okay?

"What relationship could I possibly have with her?"

"Then why did you risk your life to save her today, and moreover, she cares about you so much, just like lovers. You didn't sleep with her, did you?"

Bai Man squinted her eyes, scrutinizing Su Fan.

Su Fan's heart pounded heavily.

He argued,

"Under those circumstances, as you also saw, the situation was extremely perilous, I really didn't have time to think so much, if it had been someone else, I would have saved them too."

"If you must know, it was just Liu Ye's luck that she was standing right next to you, I was saving you and just happened to save her as well."

Bai Man thought for a moment, and it seemed to make sense.

"Then why does she care about you so much?"

Su Fan explained.

"I don't know about that, maybe she has some ideas, or perhaps, seeing that I came with you, she wants to win me over?"

"Besides, I just saved her life, her concern for her lifesaver isn't unusual, is it?"

"Did you really not sleep with her?"

Although Su Fan's words were logical, a woman's sixth sense was still very strong.

Su Fan complained bitterly.

"Auntie, you really misunderstand me. I just went to report to Director Liu this morning. Even if I wanted to book a room, it would take time, and besides, it's not like Director Liu would offer herself to me at the first encounter, right?"

With this, Bai Man's guard was immediately lowered.

She would never have imagined that Su Fan and Liu Ye would get down to business straight in the office.

And that today, they had done it twice.

It truly was crazy enough.

"That's true."

Bai Man nodded.

"Liu Ye is cheap, but, she isn't short of admirers. She's over thirty and still single; many in the hospital have introduced men to her but she's rejected them all; she definitely wouldn't settle for a bumpkin like you."

"Yes, yes, you're right, auntie,"

Su Fan agreed, but inside he was secretly laughing.

"However, you defied my orders again today at the scene, so tell me, what should we do about it?"

Just as Su Fan was silently rejoicing, Bai Man's calm expression once again turned severe, and unexpectedly, she grasped the essence of Su Fan as he stood up, her nails digging into his flesh, causing Su Fan to grimace in pain.
