Chapter 651: Three Product Lines

In the grand conference room of Dawn Pharmaceutical Company, President Su Fan took the seat of honor.

Also present in the conference room were the Chief Operating Officer, also known as the Operations Director, Wang Xiaoxiao, Financial Director Shen He, Administrative Director Su Ya, Security Director Jue Kong, Technical Director Chen Hanqing, Legal Director Yan Qian, and others.

There were other executives that Su Fan was not very familiar with, so he did not ask them to attend this meeting.

Of course, Wang Fei, who was not an executive of Dawn Pharmaceutical Company, was also in the meeting room as his secretary.

After everyone had taken their seats, Su Fan began, "Regarding the current development situation of Dawn Pharmaceutical Company, everyone is welcome to share their thoughts."

Upon hearing this, Wang Xiaoxiao immediately stood up to respond.

"I am responsible for overseeing all the major and minor affairs of the company."

"I should be the most informed about the company's overall situation."

"Since President Su has asked, I will convey to him and all other colleagues here the development status of our company."

"Dawn Pharmaceutical Company is currently at the initial stage."

"Many departments within the company have yet to be fully established."

"However, the current staff in each department is already able to ensure the company's normal operations."

"In Yang City, we have four very advanced pharmaceutical manufacturing plants."

"As soon as the product is determined, we can immediately start production."

"Although our products have not yet officially gone into production, due to President Su's influence in Yang City, as well as his personal charm,"

"there are still many upstream and downstream businesses that have a very strong willingness to collaborate with us."

Wang Xiaoxiao's words were very clear.

This indicated that Dawn Pharmaceutical Company had essentially connected with all the upstream and downstream channels.

At this moment, Dawn Pharmaceutical Company was in a situation where everything was ready except for the final push.

Wang Xiaoxiao's capabilities were certainly commendable.

After she finished speaking, Su Fan, of course, also understood the current situation of Dawn Pharmaceutical Company.

Not just Su Fan, but the others as well.

Therefore, after Wang Xiaoxiao concluded, Su Fan immediately said, "I have already thought through our company's product line."

He then proceeded to the whiteboard in the conference room.

Wang Xiaoxiao, Wang Fei, Su Ya, Shen He, and the others naturally turned their gaze in that direction.

Then everyone saw the three product lines that Su Fan wrote on the whiteboard.

There were no issues with the pharmaceutical product line or the health and wellness product line, as these are common practices for other pharmaceutical companies as well.

However, the medicinal food product line took everyone by surprise.

That's because other pharmaceutical companies generally do not deal with medicinal cuisine.

Not only did Su Fan conceive the three product lines, but he also named them.

The names were Dawn Medicine, Qi Huang Wellness, and Hundred Herbs Medicinal Cuisine.

The so-called Qi Huang Wellness is synonymous with traditional Chinese medicine wellness, as the path of Qi Huang has been indicative of Chinese medicine since ancient times.

After looking for a while, Wang Xiaoxiao asked, "What products will the pharmaceutical product line, the wellness product line, and the medicinal food product line each develop?"

Su Fan had certainly considered this question thoroughly.

"For the pharmaceutical product line, we will first focus on one area of medicine."

"That is to use Chinese medicine formulations to replace all Western medicine on the market."

"This category of products has three requirements."

"The first requirement is that side effects must be smaller than those of Western medicine."

"The second requirement is to use Chinese herbs exclusively as raw materials, without adding chemical synthesis agents as raw materials."

"The third requirement is that the price has to be lower than that of similar Western medicine."

"To sum it up in one sentence: better efficacy than similar Western medicine, cheaper than similar Western medicine, and with smaller side effects."

Su Fan's words were certainly extremely uplifting, but the question was, did such Chinese medicine formulations really exist?

Chapter 652: Everything is Ready, Just Waiting to Start Work

Shen He asked curiously, "Mr. Su, did you develop all these formulas by yourself?"

"Or do you need to form a pharmaceutical research and development team to tackle the technology?"

Su Fan shook his head, "There's no need for that trouble, I have ready-made formulas for most of the corresponding herbal medicines."

"However, some confidential handling is required during the production process."

"To ensure other competing companies can hardly replicate our products."

Before Shen He and everyone else, these words were unimaginable.

Everyone knew Su Fan was impressive, but they had never thought that Su Fan had mastered so many prescriptions.

As long as the production process is kept strictly confidential, just by this one product, Dawn Pharmaceutical Technology Company could occupy a large market share.

Initially, Su Fan was prepared to discuss all the products across three product lines with everyone.

But considering that his Dawn Pharmaceutical Company was just a startup, he decided to take it one product line at a time.

Next, everyone began to discuss how to maintain secrecy during the production process.

There were many ways to do this.

Just ensure that different people complete each step of the production.

Some critical production steps could be fully automated.

Even in the formulation, Su Fan could play some tricks.

How to purchase raw materials, how to produce products, and how to sell products in the market.

These issues were not difficult for everyone to solve.

After all, Dawn Pharmaceutical had been all set for a while, just waiting for an opportunity.

Once all the issues had been discussed, everyone could obviously leave work.

This time, Su Fan didn't take Wang Fei out to eat, but took Shen He and Wang Xiaoxiao instead.

He had decided he wanted to spread his favors evenly.

The order was Bai Man, Wang Fei, Su Ya, Liu Qing, Shen He, Wang Xiaoxiao, Yin Qianyue, and so on.

Last time he went out to eat with Wang Fei, so of course, this time he had to take someone else.

Tomorrow after work, he could go to Bai Man's home, and spend some cozy time with Bai Man.

Wang Xiaoxiao and Shen He hadn't expected that Su Fan would take them out to eat.

It was just about dinner time, and since Su Fan was taking them out, they could of course go out to eat with him.

After winter arrived in Yang City, the weather turned very cold, and it kept getting colder.

Su Fan, being a Martial Artist with bursting energy, naturally did not feel the cold.

But Wang Xiaoxiao and Shen He could not handle it; the two of them shivered from the cold as soon as they reached the company building.

Su Fan laughed, and then, taking one in each arm, he hugged them both close.

Then, the three of them went together to the place to eat.

As they walked, Su Fan casually asked, "What do you two feel like eating?"

Shen He said softly, "I don't have anything particular in mind, I'll just have whatever you and Xiao Xiao are having."

Su Fan turned his gaze to Wang Xiaoxiao, and asked, "What does Xiao Xiao want to eat?"

Without thinking, Wang Xiaoxiao said, "I want to eat that big thing you often feed Sister Shen."

Naturally, Su Fan and Shen He both understood what she meant.

For Wang Xiaoxiao to say this was not strange, as she was quite open about such topics and somewhat vulgar in her chats—making suggestive remarks was quite normal for her.

Su Fan, naturally, was not teased by Wang Xiaoxiao's words, and he even joined in saying, "Alright, tonight I'll let you eat all night."

Upon hearing this, Wang Xiaoxiao playfully said in a tense tone, "Mr. Su, won't I be screwed to death by you?"

Shen He was easily embarrassed, and hearing the shameless conversation between the two, she was of course extremely shy.

Yet, Su Fan continued telling Wang Xiaoxiao, "Yes, tonight I'm planning to screw you to death."

Chapter 653: Teng Niu Pavilion

Wang Xiaoxiao, of course, could catch any phrase thrown at her. When Su Fan spoke up, she responded:

"Let Shen He sissy share half the burden. It's been a while since President Su spoiled Shen He sissy."

Shen He saw Wang Xiaoxiao steering the topic toward her and hastily said, "You guys have fun, have fun, I want to rest well tonight."

But Su Fan had no intention of letting Shen He rest, and even at that moment, his big hand was caressing Shen He's soft peaks.

Although Su Fan had his arm around Wang Xiaoxiao on his left side, she could still see Su Fan's movements.

Immediately, she said with a laugh, "President Su, you should examine mine too, see if they've grown any bigger."

As she spoke, she boldly grabbed Su Fan's hand and placed it on her own soft peak.

Shen He sighed with some helplessness. Su Fan and Wang Xiaoxiao were obviously a good match, both daring to the extreme.

She just couldn't. Although it was already evening, the visibility wasn't high.

But she was still somewhat worried about being recognized by passersby.

Moreover, Su Fan, with an arm around a beautiful woman on each side, strolling along the road, was already quite abnormal.

After all, it's the modern era now, not the old society; no matter how successful a man is, publicly embracing women on each side is not acceptable.

Of course, as the three of them walked on the street, nobody said anything.

Some men, upon seeing Su Fan with his arms around her and Wang Xiaoxiao, cast envious glances at Su Fan.

Even, there were some quietly discussing them.

Shen He didn't catch the entire conversation, but she got the gist of it.

Those people were saying they didn't know whether Su Fan was developing them one by one, or both at the same time.

The words Shen He heard, Su Fan and Wang Xiaoxiao, of course, heard as well.

Su Fan didn't care at all, while Wang Xiaoxiao asked with a laugh, "Divine Doctor Su, do you plan to take us one by one, or both together?"

This time, before Su Fan could answer, Shen He couldn't help but reach out and gently tapped Wang Xiaoxiao's arm.

"Xiao Xiao, you've had enough. How can you say such embarrassing things so loudly?"

Wang Xiaoxiao said, unconcerned, "Sister-in-law, what's there to be afraid of? We've already been through it, so why be afraid to talk about it?"

"Besides, I'm keeping count for you, Divine Doctor Su has been with you more times than with me."

Wang Xiaoxiao was an utterly shameless little vixen; Shen He naturally couldn't continue with the conversation.

Right after leaving the company, she was still addressing Su Fan as President Su.

Now that the atmosphere had livened up, her way of addressing Su Fan had changed back to Divine Doctor Su.

As the trio talked, they had already arrived at the gourmet street.

But the three of them still hadn't decided what to eat this time.

Su Fan's hand on Wang Xiaoxiao's soft peak, squeezed firmly twice.

Then he asked, "Xiao Xiao, what do you say we eat tonight?"

Worried that Wang Xiaoxiao would say something inappropriate again, Shen He quickly said, "Divine Doctor Su is asking what food we are going to eat now. Don't bring up that embarrassing subject again, it's mortifying."

Wang Xiaoxiao gave a sly smile and replied to Shen He, "Sissy, you devour Divine Doctor Su's essence as your meal every time, don't you?"

Hearing this, Shen He was completely speechless and decided to stay silent.

Wang Xiaoxiao was actually quite good, with a very strong work ability, just a bit provocative, needing Su Fan to frequently administer her anti-flirt injections.

After teasing Shen He for a bit, Wang Xiaoxiao then seriously suggested, "How about we just have beef hotpot tonight?"

"There's a new Tengniu Pavilion on the gourmet street; I don't know if it's any good."

Hearing this, Su Fan immediately asked, "Where is Tengniu Pavilion located?"

As he spoke, he habitually squeezed Wang Xiaoxiao's soft peak twice more.

Chapter 654: Trying to Get Me Drunk, Huh?

Wang Xiaoxiao gave Su Fan a white-eyed glance before speaking, "Do you think this is like turning me on and off with a button? It's not like you need to pinch me twice before I can talk."

Having said that, she continued, "I remember it's the second intersection up ahead where we turn left, let's go check it out. If it's not there, we can ask someone."

Su Fan nodded, and the trio headed for Teng Niu Pavilion Hotpot Restaurant.

Initially, Teng Niu Pavilion Hotpot Restaurant was located in the business district.

But the rental costs in the business district were too high; Teng Niu Pavilion couldn't afford them.

Then Teng Niu Pavilion moved twice, settling on the fourth try at the food street here.

Even so, it seemed that Teng Niu Pavilion might not last much longer.

Teng Niu Pavilion followed traditional craftsmanship handed down from ancestors. They used only the best ingredients, and the preparation was quite troublesome.

Most of the spices and seasonings they used were all-natural.

This led to high costs for Teng Niu Pavilion, making their prices higher than other similar hotpot places.

When it comes to eating, people first want to be full, then they look for delicious food, and only lastly do they seek natural and healthy options.

Because of the high cost of raw materials and complicated cooking techniques, Teng Niu Pavilion couldn't lower its prices.

Even some of the regulars didn't choose Teng Niu Pavilion as their first option when dining.

This was causing problems for the management of Teng Niu Pavilion.

If things continued this way, it might not be long before Teng Niu Pavilion could indeed no longer operate.

When Su Fan, Wang Xiaoxiao, and Shen He arrived at Teng Niu Pavilion, he noticed that the number of customers dining there was neither high nor low.

The three of them, of course, did not eat in the main hall but entered a private room instead.

After they arrived at the private room, a waiter came over.

"Good evening, guests. What would you like to eat?"

"Here is our menu at Teng Niu Pavilion."

"If there's something you want that's not on the menu, you can also let us know. If our chef can make it, we can provide it."

The service at Teng Niu Pavilion was clearly very good.

As soon as the waiter spoke, Su Fan immediately picked up the menu.

The waiter had brought over exactly three menus, which he naturally handed to Shen He and Wang Xiaoxiao as well.

Teng Niu Pavilion mainly sold various beef dishes, with its signature dish being beef hotpot.

After grabbing their menus, Su Fan, Wang Xiaoxiao, and Shen He started to order their food.

Once the trio finished ordering, the waiter took the menus and left.

After waiting for a while, Su Fan noticed that the serving speed of Teng Niu Pavilion was somewhat slow.

Aside from bringing over the broth base for the hotpot and the ingredients, the other dishes took quite a while to be made one after the other.

However, once all the dishes were served, Su Fan also noticed, each dish at Teng Niu Pavilion was made with great delicacy.

Su Fan didn't start with the dishes but took a sip of the homemade Baijiu at Teng Niu Pavilion first.

After he took a sip of the Baijiu from Teng Niu Pavilion, he couldn't help but be slightly impressed.

The liquor was clearly brewed entirely from grains, and the brewing technique was very good.

After finishing a cup, Su Fan poured a cup for Shen He and Wang Xiaoxiao as well.

"Try this, their liquor is quite good."

Shen He wasn't very fond of Baijiu, but she still picked up her glass and took a sip.

This liquor, purely made from grains, had a perfect balance of alcohol content and was very pleasant to drink.

Although Wang Xiaoxiao also picked up her glass, she playfully said, "Divine Doctor Su, are you trying to get me and Sister Shen He drunk tonight?"

Hearing her say that, Su Fan simply poured himself another cup and drank it.

Then, in Wang Xiaoxiao's surprised gaze, he suddenly pulled her towards him, and fed her the liquor from his mouth into hers.

After Wang Xiaoxiao finished drinking, he still didn't let her go but fiercely sucked on Wang Xiaoxiao's tongue and scraped her mouth.

Chapter 655: Dares to Say Anything

Wang Xiaoxiao was kissed by Su Fan for quite a while before he finally let her go.

Seeing Wang Xiaoxiao being somewhat dazed from Su Fan's kisses, Shen He couldn't help but chuckle softly on the side.

All the way here, Wang Xiaoxiao had been talking about those things, she truly deserved to be kissed.

But Shen He was clearly happy too soon, as Su Fan took a sip of alcohol and the next moment, he began to feed Shen He.

Shen He soon got the same treatment as Wang Xiaoxiao.

Not only that, Su Fan seemed to particularly enjoy teasing her.

Shen He felt that she was about to have difficulty breathing from how intensely Su Fan was kissing her.

Moreover, not long ago, Su Fan had been kissing Wang Xiaoxiao for quite some time, and now he was kissing her, as if she was kissing Wang Xiaoxiao by proxy.

Su Fan didn't know what was going on in Shen He's mind.

Anyway, he fiercely kissed Shen He for a good while before finally letting her go.

Finally, the three of them could have a proper meal.

A variety of ingredients kept being placed by Su Fan into the pot to cook.

While these ingredients were cooking, Su Fan, with nothing else to do, held Shen He in his arms.

Shen He didn't resist, because she couldn't resist.

Su Fan's large hand slipped under the hem of Shen He's clothes, and caught hold of her full and firm breasts.

While vigorously kneading dough, Su Fan also asked Shen He and Wang Xiaoxiao about their life situations during this period.

"You two have been in Yang City for a while now, have you gotten used to living here?"

In theory, since Yang City and Xijing are sister cities, there shouldn't be any discomfort in their living conditions, but he still asked.

After he asked, Shen He thought for a bit and said, "I think it's quite nice, the pace of life in Yang City is slower than in Xijing."

"The air quality here is also better than in Xijing, I feel quite comfortable living here."

After Shen He finished speaking, Su Fan turned his gaze to Wang Xiaoxiao.

Wang Xiaoxiao immediately shook her head and said, "I'm the one who's had a tough time, since arriving in Yang City, I've been worked like a dog."

She wasn't just complaining, she was the Chief Operating Officer of Dawn Pharmaceutical Company, and she was in charge of both the major and minor affairs of the company.

Most of the company's employees were recruited and interviewed by her, one by one.

She also arranged the company's various other affairs.

Of course, she had plenty of responsibilities during her time at Hailin Group as well.

If it weren't so, she wouldn't possess such strong working capabilities.

After Wang Xiaoxiao finished speaking, Su Fan embraced her as well and earnestly kissed her twice, saying, "Xiao Xiao, you've worked hard during this time."

"If it wasn't for you leading the others, Dawn Pharmaceutical Company obviously wouldn't have developed so quickly."

Upon hearing this, Wang Xiaoxiao's smile spread across her face, and she whispered into the ears of Su Fan and Shen He, "Divine Doctor Su, if you really want to thank me, just fuck me to death tonight."

Shen He had long expected the girl to talk nonsense again.

After Wang Xiaoxiao finished speaking, Shen He couldn't help but slap softly on Wang Xiaoxiao's hand again.

She obviously wanted Wang Xiaoxiao to be more reserved and not be so shameless.

Wang Xiaoxiao, however, nonchalantly said, "What's the big deal? I've been exhausted lately, tonight I just want Divine Doctor Su to fuck me hard all night and relax."

Shen He was utterly speechless and immediately gave up on lecturing her about being reserved.

To Wang Xiaoxiao, the words "being reserved" clearly did not exist in her world.

Su Fan chuckled and said to both Wang Xiaoxiao and Shen He, "Fine, tonight I'll make both of you pass out."

Upon hearing this, Shen He inevitably felt both frightened and shy, her cheeks flushed with color, reddening to the roots of her ears.

Wang Xiaoxiao, however, grinned and started, "Can you make me pass out first?"

Although Shen He was already speechless about Wang Xiaoxiao's comments, she still couldn't help but speak up, "Xiao Xiao, restrain yourself a bit, we're outside."

Chapter 656: Acquisition Plan

Xiao Xiao was naturally unrestrained; not only did she not hold back, but she also lifted her shirt and offered up her perky peaks to Su Fan's hands.

Su Fan didn't bother with pleasantries and directly went to knead the dough.

After that soft dough had changed shapes countless times in his hands, the dishes in the pot were almost ready.

When Su Fan ate, he had Xiao Xiao and Shen He sit on either side of him, one on the left and one on the right.

During the meal, he couldn't help but stroke their thighs or pinch their peaks now and then.

That rest day, he had already planned to take Bai Man and Wang Fei to the hot springs.

The next rest day, he could certainly take Xiao Xiao and Shen He, and even Wang Fei, making a play of all three women.

However, during the meal, Su Fan remembered that there was a very important matter he hadn't attended to.

He had acquired a USB drive among the items carried by Guo Song.

He still had the USB drive on him now, with no idea what was on it.

If this USB drive was encrypted like Qi Dongliang's external hard drive, then he would need to have Chen Hanqing decrypt it, otherwise he wouldn't be able to see what was inside.

Keeping the matter of the USB drive in mind, he continued eating with Xiao Xiao and Shen He.

As his large hand kneaded Shen He's dough, his mind would often drift to the day she kneaded dough and made dumplings for him.

Shen He originally thought the hotpot at Tengniu Pavilion was very tasty.

But with her peaks continuously shifting shapes in Su Fan's hands, she obviously couldn't enjoy her meal fully.

She almost wished she could detach her peaks and let Su Fan play with them himself, letting her eat in peace.

Unfortunately, unlike hair, she couldn't just cut a piece off and give it to Su Fan.

Xiao Xiao initially came just to try something new.

After tasting some of the food, she couldn't help exclaiming, "The hotpot at Tengniu Pavilion is really good, huh? It even feels a bit like a medicinal hotpot?"

Su Fan nodded slightly, "It could barely count as medicinal, but the tonic herbs added are without any specific recipe, just used as seasonings."

"However, it's indeed possible to include some medicinal ingredients to make the flavor better and also provide dietary therapy benefits."

"It's worth considering, maybe acquiring Tengniu Pavilion and then transforming all its dishes into various medicinal cuisines."

Xiao Xiao clapped her hands after listening and said, "That's absolutely doable! We can talk to the owner here after we finish eating."

Su Fan shook his head, "No rush just yet, let's get the first product line going and then consider others."

Hearing him say that, Xiao Xiao, of course, had no objections.

After all, even if they didn't acquire Tengniu Pavilion, they weren't worried about someone else acquiring it.

Even if Tengniu Pavilion was acquired by someone else, they could still create their own medicinal dining brand.

Tengniu Pavilion has three floors and isn't a very tall building on the food street.

The third floor of Tengniu Pavilion is generally where the restaurant is, the other half being the rooms of the owner and his wife.

To save on expenses, they simply moved into Tengniu Pavilion.

The current owner's wife of Tengniu Pavilion was actually his brother's wife.

The original owner, the current owner's older brother, had died in a car crash.

After the owner died, Yuan Tian took over his brother's business and also his brother's wife.

Yuan Tian was an idle good-for-nothing; when his brother was still alive, Yuan Tian was always loafing around without any proper job.

His sister-in-law, Yu Qing, got involved with him because he pressured her into it.

Chapter 657: Retribution is Swift

Teng Niu Pavilion was the joint effort of Yu Qing and her husband, Yuan Wenjie, who had always dreamed of creating their own restaurant brand.

After her husband left, she found it difficult to manage on her own and was forcibly taken by Yuan Tian, thus she had no choice but to get involved with Yuan Tian.

But as the saying goes, a leopard cannot change its spots; Yuan Tian was a scoundrel by nature, and without Yuan Wenjie to restrain him, he became even worse.

Not only did he take advantage of her, but he also squandered most of Teng Niu Pavilion's profits.

The restaurant industry naturally has its peak and off-peak seasons.

During the peak season, one can make a lot of money, but during the off-peak season, there's hardly any profit to be made.

If most of the profits had been saved, Teng Niu Pavilion could have operated comfortably.

But most of that money had been lost by Yuan Tian playing mahjong.

Seeing Yuan Tian lying on top of her, Yu Qing couldn't help but seethe with anger.

This Yuan Tian was utterly useless!

Apart from losing Teng Niu Pavilion's profits in mahjong, he contributed nothing to her or the development of Teng Niu Pavilion.

Thinking of this, Yu Qing decisively pushed Yuan Tian away, "Don't touch me! You are not allowed to touch me ever again!"

Enraged by her words, Yuan Tian retorted, "What, not beaten for three days and climbing the roof?"

"Did I not satisfy you, or what?"

Yu Qing clenched her teeth and said furiously, "You're shameless! I am your sister-in-law, and this is how you treat me!"

"I'm telling you, from today, if you dare touch me again, I will fight you with all I have!"

Yuan Tian became instantly furious, cursed, and mounted her aggressively.

Yu Qing was no match for him and was quickly violated again.

While charging relentlessly, Yuan Tian viciously said, "You little vixen, just wait to be ravaged and earn money for my gambling."

"If you displease me, see if I don't beat you to death!"

As he spoke, he actually slapped her, causing blood to spill from the corner of her mouth.

Yu Qing could only cover her face and silently weep.

While she cried, Yuan Tian continued his fierce assault.

But suddenly, Yuan Tian seemed to lose his mind.

His eyes bulged, his mouth twisted, and his body started convulsing.

Yu Qing was startled and quickly got up, pushing Yuan Tian away.

Without thinking of anything else, she quickly dressed herself and Yuan Tian, then dragged him to the door.

She took out her cell phone ready to call for an ambulance while summoning the staff of Teng Niu Pavilion to carry Yuan Tian downstairs.

At that moment, Su Fan and his companions, having just finished their meal, came out.

Su Fan immediately noticed the handprint on Yu Qing's face and the blood at the corner of her mouth.

It was clear that not long ago, Yu Qing had been harshly slapped.

Seeing Yuan Tian being carried downstairs, Su Fan also noticed.

With just one look, he knew that Yuan Tian was finished.

Yuan Tian's symptoms indicated a stroke, and a very severe one at that!

Yuan Tian was physically weak; his emotions must have fluctuated greatly, accompanied by extreme physical activity, which far exceeded his body's capacity, leading to a serious stroke.

At that moment, Yuan Tian was conscious but had lost control over his body.

He deeply regretted his actions, wishing he hadn't been so aggressive.

He could have been with women all his life, but now, rendered like this, he clearly wouldn't be able to do so anymore.

While Yu Qing was extremely anxious, Su Fan took out a business card and handed it to her.

It was a card from a university hospital, and upon seeing it, Yu Qing realized.

"Divine Doctor Su? You are Divine Doctor Su?"

Although Yu Qing had been preoccupied with Teng Niu Pavilion's problems recently, she had heard of Divine Doctor Su.

Su Fan was not only a skilled doctor capable of miraculous healings, but he was also a master of martial arts and the president of the Yang City Martial Arts Association.

Not long ago, Su Fan had eliminated an extremely vicious criminal.

When Yu Qing asked, Su Fan naturally nodded, "I am Su Fan, he has had a stroke now, you don't need to worry."

"His condition is not fatal, it's an irreversible brain injury."

"His consciousness is still quite clear now, but after some time, it won't be as clear."

"However, his symptoms of stroke can be alleviated."

"In the future, he won't be able to engage in complex work, he can barely take care of himself and maybe do some cleaning."

Hearing this, Yu Qing was instead relieved.

If Yuan Tian no longer went out to squander Teng Niu Pavilion's modest income, that was clearly good news.

And it seemed Yuan Tian could still become a simple worker, albeit with a limited mental capacity, helping Teng Niu Pavilion clean as an act of atonement!

Chapter 658 - 658 Initial Thoughts of Acquisition

The brain is the most important organ in the human body.

Whether it is traditional Chinese medicine or Western medicine, dealing with brain diseases is always quite troublesome.

Although Su Fan had already diagnosed Yuan Tian, Yuan Tian was quickly taken to the hospital by ambulance for emergency treatment.

Su Fan's diagnosis of Yuan Tian, of course, was completely correct.

Yuan Tian didn't even make it to the hospital before his consciousness began to blur increasingly.

For now, Su Fan was not planning to set up the second and third product lines of Dawn Hospital Technology.

But he still stopped Yu Qing, the owner of Teng Niu Pavilion, and asked a few questions.

"Your ingredients seem exceptionally fresh, and you use few chemical seasonings?" Su Fan asked.

Yu Qing did not go to the hospital with Yuan Tian but stayed to manage Teng Niu Pavilion.

After Su Fan's inquiry, she nodded earnestly, "We still use seasonings like salt, even though they are processed using modern techniques."

"However, we use only natural seasonings for other spices."

"Teng Niu Pavilion strives to use the freshest ingredients possible, making them delicious."

"During the cooking process, Teng Niu Pavilion's food is cooked more slowly."

"Because we meticulously handle the ingredients and aim to make the dishes as delicious as possible."

"For this reason, Teng Niu Pavilion's dishes are indeed more expensive than similar restaurants, but they are definitely worth the price," she explained.

Su Fan completely believed Yu Qing's words.

He had just dined with Shen He and Wang Xiaoxiao in a private room at Teng Niu Pavilion.

Whether the dishes served at Teng Niu Pavilion were delicious was clear to them.

After speaking with Yu Qing and learning some details, Su Fan did not mention the matter of acquisition.

He also didn't know that Teng Niu Pavilion was currently experiencing severe financial strain.

After paying the bill, Su Fan left with Shen He and Wang Xiaoxiao.

After Su Fan and the others left, Yu Qing immediately called an employee.

Although she had not gone to the hospital with Yuan Tian, she had sent an employee there.

After all, Yuan Tian was her husband Yuan Wenjie's brother, and even if he was despicable, she could not allow him to die at Teng Niu Pavilion.

If Yuan Tian died at Teng Niu Pavilion, it would inevitably affect their business and bring her a lot of trouble.

When Yu Qing made the call, the hospital was still examining Yuan Tian, so she could only wait for the results.

This wait lasted for nearly an hour.

After one hour, her phone rang again.

Once the call was connected, the employee's voice came through, "Ma'am, Boss Yuan's condition is exactly as Divine Doctor Su had diagnosed."

"Boss Yuan is still undergoing treatment, and the hospital says you should prepare yourself."

"His condition is progressing towards cerebral palsy, and in the future, he will barely be able to manage self-care."

When Yu Qing heard these words, not only was she not sad, she felt like she was avenging a great wrong.

She was Yuan Tian's brother Yuan Wenjie's wife, Yuan Tian's sister-in-law.

Shortly after Yuan Wenjie had an incident, Yuan Tian started making advances on her, and later, he attempted to assault her frequently.

Even if Yuan Tian ended up barely able to manage self-care after his illness—or even if he became completely comatose—it was what he deserved!

The grievances between Yuan Tian and Yu Qing were unknown to Su Fan.

After finishing their meal, he returned to their company with the drunken Shen He and Wang Xiaoxiao.

Even before Wang Xiaoxiao got drunk, she was already flirtatiously unrestrained.

After getting drunk, her behavior became even more wanton.

In the elevator, she even tried to grab Su Fan's "essence."

Naturally, Su Fan dodged. Whatever was to happen had to wait until they were in the privacy of their room.

Wang Xiaoxiao and Shen He's room was on the fifth floor of the residential area.

During this time, both of them lived there.

Shen He was a very gentle and virtuous woman, and their room was, of course, kept very tidy.

Chapter 659: Benefits Shared by All

Shen He had quite a lot to drink just now, and naturally, she was now thoroughly intoxicated.

Wang Xiaoxiao's condition was hardly any better than Shen He's.

Once in the room, she clung tightly to Su Fan, and while exhaling fragrant breaths, she whispered voracious words in Su Fan's ear.

"Divine Doctor Su, I can't take it anymore, please fuck me to death!"

Luckily, Shen He was now so drunk that she was beyond comprehension; otherwise, she would have surely given her a piece of her mind.

Of course, no matter what Shen He might say, Xiao Xiao certainly wouldn't take it seriously.

Su Fan took both Shen He and Wang Xiaoxiao back to the room together.

After being teased by Xiao Xiao all night, his "mighty weapon" was now fully unsheathed.

As Xiao Xiao's moans turned low and sultry, Su Fan naturally thrust forward like a dragon, driving straight in.

"Ah!"

Xiao Xiao immediately let out a startled cry, and after that cry came a relentless stream of seductive moans.

At that moment, Xiao Xiao experienced immense pleasure.

Her delicate face, so easily marred, turned as rosy as peach blossoms.

Her lovely eyes, shimmering as if cut by scissors, seemed at that moment to ripple with waves of liquid light.

As Su Fan charged fiercely, she provocatively murmured from her lips, "Harder!"

Su Fan had been somewhat concerned about Xiao Xiao getting hurt and had thus held back some of his strength.

Since Xiao Xiao wanted to endure an even more ferocious and wild onslaught, Su Fan certainly wouldn't hold back.

Soon, Xiao Xiao's voice rang out with a symphony of pain and pleasure.

She was completely swept up to the heavens by Su Fan.

Under Su Fan's tempestuous assault, she reached peak after peak.

With a convulsion from Xiao Xiao, clear streams flowed out, flooding Jinshan and thoroughly soaking the bed.

Xiao Xiao, who had just been urging Su Fan to apply more force, was now trying to push him away.

She could no longer endure it; under the continuous and rapid pounding, she felt as if her very core would break.

Since Su Fan had come today, he would of course spread his favors evenly.

After granting Xiao Xiao his benedictions, he quickly moved on to bestow the same upon Shen He.

Shen He was heavily intoxicated tonight, allowing her to shed her usual restraint during her moment to receive his favors, which instead revealed many charming poses.

As Su Fan launched his attack, Shen He, too, let out a succession of soft, plaintive moans.

After being thoroughly ravished by Su Fan earlier, Xiao Xiao, now somewhat recovered, began to mischievously tease Shen He.

While Su Fan pressed his fervent charge, Xiao Xiao lay atop Shen He, conquering her twin peaks, and their lips met in a kiss.

Her handiwork, along with her oral skills, were both exceptionally formidable.

Shen He was already unable to withstand Su Fan's onslaught.

With Xiao Xiao joining in, Shen He completely collapsed in defense.

A blissful sensation kept surging up from her feet, piercing straight into her brain.

Shen He felt so overwhelmed by pleasure that she could scarcely bear it.

Following Xiao Xiao's clear cascade that had baptized her, Shen He quickly became engulfed by her own flood, subjecting Su Fan to another baptism.

By now, Xiao Xiao had evidently recovered.

So she reached out, took Su Fan's hand, and guided it towards her secret garden.

Su Fan did not refuse but began to exhibit his finger technique.

Xiao Xiao, who had just quieted down a bit, seemed as if struck by an electric toy, as she once again orchestrated a concerto of moans and cries.

However, this time, her intoxication had evidently dissipated considerably.

So, while she still felt some pain from Su Fan's fingers, she chose to silently endure.

Compared to the slight pain, the pleasure she received was clearly immense.

Chapter 660: Getting the Secret Manual

Tomorrow, Su Fan still has to go to the hospital for work, and so do Wang Xiaoxiao and Shen He.

This time, he didn't completely go wild, keeping Wang Xiaoxiao and Shen He up all night.

After Wang Xiaoxiao and Shen He had each experienced seven or eight climaxes, he cuddled with them and fell asleep.

The next morning, after Su Fan got up, he connected the USB drive he had obtained from Guo Song to his laptop.

What slightly surprised him was that the USB drive from Guo Song was not encrypted.

After a moment's thought, he silently said to himself, "It seems that Guo Song is bold and skilled, thinking that being a top expert in the Bursting Qi realm, he didn't need to encrypt the USB drive."

Su Fan's guess was, of course, correct.

Because that's exactly what Guo Song had originally thought.

In Guo Song's view, it was impossible for ordinary people to obtain his USB drive from him.

If someone could indeed get his USB drive, then it didn't matter to him whether the USB was encrypted or not.

In the USB drive from Guo Song, Su Fan quickly found what he was looking for.

It was a large number of photos, depicting two ancient manuals bound in thread.

One of the manuals was the Iron Horse Twelve Stances Skill that Guo Song had shown before, a very powerful stances skill.

When Su Fan had faced Guo Song, the moment Guo Song performed this stances skill, Su Fan felt as though Guo Song was rooted to the ground.

It was as if he wasn't standing on the ground but had grown out of it.

Not only that, but Guo Song also mastered the Dragon Tiger Hard Qi Skill, a very dominant type of strength-training martial art.

If it had not been for Guo Song underestimating the power of the hidden strength of Tai Chi, catching him off guard, it would have been very difficult for Su Fan to defeat Guo Song.

Aside from the Iron Horse Twelve Stances Skill and the Dragon Tiger Hard Qi Skill manuals, Su Fan saw some other things as well.

It seemed that Guo Song and his people were not here in Yang City to do something, but rather to take a detour out of the country.

However, there was very little content about this aspect on the USB drive, leaving Su Fan quite puzzled.

He only knew that Guo Song and his group seemed to be planning to go abroad to do something, but beyond that, he knew nothing.

Su Fan did not continue researching and just carried the USB drive with him to the hospital.

In the hospital, Zhang Haitao had already arranged for most of the doctors to head to the lecture hall.

Today, he was going to hold the hospital's recognition event for Su Fan.

When Su Fan arrived at the hospital, Zhang Haitao greeted him very warmly.

"Xiao Fan, come with me to the lecture hall. Today, we need to commend your recent brave deeds," Zhang Hai said.

"Also, I've received instructions from our superiors; our hospital is soon to formally establish a department of traditional Chinese medicine based on our existing capabilities."

"Once the department of traditional Chinese medicine is officially formed, I plan to officially appoint you as the chief physician of our hospital's department of traditional Chinese medicine!"

Upon hearing this news, Su Fan was somewhat surprised.

It seemed that his repeated use of traditional Chinese medicine to treat and save patients had finally made a name for himself.

This led the relevant department leaders to directly instruct Zhang Haitao to establish a department of traditional Chinese medicine at their hospital.

This was undoubtedly great news; Medical University's affiliated hospital used to have only a simple traditional Chinese medicine outpatient clinic and no complete department of traditional Chinese medicine.

But in the First Hospital, Municipal Second Hospital, and other comprehensive hospitals, there are departments of traditional Chinese medicine.

From now on, Medical University's affiliated hospital will also have a department of traditional Chinese medicine, and it will be the strongest one.

Under the guidance of Zhang Haitao, Su Fan quickly followed him to the lecture hall.

Liu Qing, Bai Man, Lu Wenwen, and other doctors from the hospital had all arrived at the lecture hall by this time.

When Su Fan and Zhang Haitao entered the lecture hall, everyone immediately burst into applause.
